WELCOME HOME TO HEALING

RECONCILIATION ON MONDAY NIGHTS
THROUGHOUT LENT

This Lenten season, each Catholic parish in the Diocese of Paterson will have Confession available every Monday evening from February 19th through March 19th from 7:00 PM-8:30 PM. If you have been reluctant to come to the Sacrament, have been away for some time or just found it difficult to get to a Saturday afternoon Confession time, this is a wonderful opportunity to re-connect with Christ and His Church. Don't be afraid! Information will be provided. Ask the priest to help you. Experience the gracious mercy of God!

SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME “BE MADE CLEAN.”

On this Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time we hear the very moving account of the healing of a leper who had come to Jesus in order to be made whole. The healing of the leper helps us to prepare to enter Lent with a firm desire to make Lent a time of openness to the healing power of God.

Desperate from the disease that was not only destroying his body but also his spirit and his dignity, the leper places his confidence in the Lord Jesus as he says: “If you wish, you can make me clean” (Mark 1:40). Mark’s gospel recounts that Jesus’ encounter with the leper did indeed make him whole: “Moved with pity, he stretched out his hand, touched him, and said to him, ‘I do will it. Be made clean’” (1:41). Jesus is close to the man in his affliction and wills to make him whole again. The leper had expressed his deep faith in the power of Jesus to make him well and to restore him to life. Cut off from society because of his illness, Jesus gave him back the home that comes from living in communion with his brothers and sisters in the communion of faith.

As is characteristic of Saint Mark’s Gospel, the concern of Jesus for the sick person is immediate and his power to heal is at once seen; he wills to cure the sick man and he is healed. There is always immediacy about the Lord’s will to both respond to our need for healing and to save us. The miraculous healings that are recounted in the gospels are so compelling because they speak to us of our own desire for good health, to be freed from the weight of physical, spiritual and emotional distress that weigh us down.

When Jesus willed to heal the man with leprosy: “The leprosy left him immediately and he was made clean” (1:42). We will not always receive the physical healing that we wish; some illnesses are a heavy cross that we must bear. But the closeness of the Lord to us in our need and in our suffering is the promise that we bear no burden alone.

The Lord’s promise of healing remains even when physical healing does not seem to be at hand. The Lord always strengthens with the promise of his presence with us and gives us the special strength that we receive from the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick and, of course, the Eucharist which is the Lord’s abiding presence with us and our promise of eternal life.

The saving love of the Lord is a gift that we, too, share with others through our own example of faith and the witness that we give to the gospel. We pray for the grace to always keep close to the Lord and to free ourselves of the habits in our lives that are not life giving. We are moving closer and closer to the holy season of Lent; we are about to begin our observance of the holy season of Lent. Lent is a time of grace to examine our relationship with the Lord and the state of our faith life. The season of Lent also provides us with the opportunity, in a special and focused way, to examine our consciences and to approach the healing power of the Lord in the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

THE SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION IN LENT

On the Monday evenings of Lent we will once again be celebrating, “Welcome Home to Healing,” a diocesan initiative that provides that a confessor will be available in every parish of the Diocese of Paterson in order to celebrate individual confession and absolution. Please consider coming back to the Sacrament of Reconciliation; there is no such thing as having been away from the Sacrament of Reconciliation for too long – the Lord is always ready to give us the gift of his mercy. As Lent draws closer consider coming to the Sacrament of Reconciliation on one of those Monday evenings of Lent. So many who have been away from the sacrament for a long time find it to be a truly healing experience that finds them celebrating Easter with renewed faith and lighter hearts.

LENT BEGINS – ASH WEDNESDAY FEBRUARY 14, 2018

On Wednesday, February 14, 2018 we begin the holy season of Lent. Lent is the period of time when we prepare ourselves to celebrate the great feast of the Resurrection of Easter. During Lent we concentrate in an intense way on the call to discipleship through prayer, fasting, and almsgiving – caring for the poor. Lent can be a privileged time when our hearts are renewed and our mission to be disciples of the Lord is refocused and intensified. Please join us for the celebration of the Eucharist on Ash Wednesday – all Masses and Liturgies of the Word will be celebrated in the Church: Mass: 7:00, 11:45 AM; 7:30 PM; Liturgy of the Word with the imposition of ashes: 4:15 and 5:45 PM. Taking part in the celebration of Mass is the best way to begin this Lenten season of grace. Daily Mass, or taking part in Mass at least one additional day in the week, can also be the very best way to travel the Lenten journey with a sense of purpose, expectation, and to open us to the power of God’s grace at work in us.

Our Holy Father, Pope Francis, in his 2018 Lenten Message encourages us to make our hearts firm in love for the Lord and one another. The Holy Father commends us to make this Lent a special time of grace for ourselves, for our families, and our communities. Lent is the privileged time of grace in the liturgical year to order our lives in such a way that our hearts are always open to and directed toward the power of God's grace. The Holy Father encourages us to be open to movement of the Holy Spirit during Lent so that we are ever more faithful servants of God's mercy so that we attend to those who are in need of our love and compassion. The Holy Father writes:

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Once again, the Pasch of the Lord draws near! In our preparation for Easter, God in his providence offers us each year the season of Lent as a "sacramental sign of our conversion".^[1] Lent summons us, and enables us, to come back to the Lord wholeheartedly and in every aspect of our life.

With this message, I would like again this year to help the entire Church experience this time of grace anew, with joy and in truth. I will take my cue from the words of Jesus in the Gospel of Matthew: "Because of the increase of iniquity, the love of many will grow cold" (24:12).

These words appear in Christ's preaching about the end of time. They were spoken in Jerusalem, on the Mount of Olives, where the Lord's passion would begin. In reply to a question of the disciples, Jesus foretells a great tribulation and describes a situation in which the community of believers might well find itself: amid great trials, false prophets would lead people astray and the love that is the core of the Gospel would grow cold in the hearts of many.

False prophets

Let us listen to the Gospel passage and try to understand the guise such false prophets can assume.

They can appear as "snake charmers", who manipulate human emotions in order to enslave others and lead them where they would have them go. How many of God's children are mesmerized by momentary pleasures, mistaking them for true happiness! How many men and women live entranced by the dream of wealth, which only makes them slaves to profit and petty interests! How many go through life believing that they are sufficient unto themselves, and end up entrapped by loneliness!

False prophets can also be "charlatans", who offer easy and immediate solutions to suffering that soon prove utterly useless. How many young people are taken in by the panacea of drugs, of disposable relationships, of easy but dishonest gains! How many more are ensnared in a thoroughly "virtual" existence, in which relationships appear quick and straightforward, only to prove meaningless! These swindlers, in peddling things that have no real value, rob people of all that is most precious: dignity, freedom and the ability to love. They appeal to our vanity, our trust in appearances, but in the end they only make fools of us. Nor should we be surprised. In order to confound the human heart, the devil, who is "a liar and the father of lies" (Jn 8:44), has always presented evil as good, falsehood as truth. That is why each of us is called to peer into our heart to see if we are falling prey to the lies of these false prophets. We must learn to look closely, beneath the surface, and to recognize what leaves a good and lasting mark on our hearts, because it comes from God and is truly for our benefit.

A cold heart

In his description of hell, Dante Alighieri pictures the devil seated on a throne of ice,^[2] in frozen and loveless isolation. We might well ask ourselves how it happens that charity can turn cold within us. What are the signs that indicate that our love is beginning to cool?

More than anything else, what destroys charity is greed for money, "the root of all evil" (1 Tim 6:10). The rejection of God and his peace soon follows; we prefer our own desolation rather than the comfort found in his word and the sacraments.^[3] All this leads to violence against anyone we think is a threat to our own "certainties": the unborn child, the elderly and infirm, the migrant, the alien among us, or our neighbor who does not live up to our expectations.

Creation itself becomes a silent witness to this cooling of charity. The earth is poisoned by refuse, discarded out of carelessness or for self-interest. The seas, themselves polluted, engulf the remains of countless shipwrecked victims of forced migration. The heavens, which in God's plan, were created to sing his praises, are rent by engines raining down implements of death.

Love can also grow cold in our own communities. In the Apostolic Exhortation Evangelii Gaudium, I sought to describe the most evident signs of this lack of love: selfishness and spiritual sloth, sterile pessimism, the temptation to self-absorption, constant warring among ourselves, and the worldly mentality that makes us concerned only for appearances, and thus lessens our missionary zeal.^[4]

What are we to do?

Perhaps we see, deep within ourselves and all about us, the signs I have just described. But the Church, our Mother and Teacher, along with the often bitter medicine of the truth, offers us in the Lenten season the soothing remedy of prayer, almsgiving and fasting.

By devoting more time to prayer, we enable our hearts to root out our secret lies and forms of self-deception,^[5] and then to find the consolation God offers. He is our Father and he wants us to live life well.

Almsgiving sets us free from greed and helps us to regard our neighbour as a brother or sister. What I possess is never mine alone. How I would like almsgiving to become a genuine style of life for each of us! How I would like us, as Christians, to follow the example of the Apostles and see in the sharing of our possessions a tangible witness of the communion that is ours in the Church! For this reason, I echo Saint Paul's exhortation to the Corinthians to take up a collection for the community of Jerusalem as something from which they themselves would benefit (cf. 2 Cor 8:10). This is all the more fitting during the Lenten season, when many groups take up collections to assist Churches and peoples in need. Yet I would also hope that, even in our daily encounters with those who beg for our assistance, we would see such requests as coming from God himself. When we give alms, we share in God's providential care for each of his children. If through me God helps someone today, will he not tomorrow provide for my own needs? For no one is more generous than God.^[6]

Fasting weakens our tendency to violence; it disarms us and becomes an important opportunity for growth. On the one hand, it allows us to experience what the destitute and the starving have to endure. On the other hand, it expresses our own spiritual hunger and thirst for life in God. Fasting wakes us up. It makes us more attentive to God and our neighbour. It revives our desire to obey God, who alone is capable of satisfying our hunger.

I would also like my invitation to extend beyond the bounds of the Catholic Church, and to reach all of you, men and women of good will, who are open to hearing God's voice. Perhaps, like ourselves, you are disturbed by the spread of iniquity in the world, you are concerned about the chill that paralyzes hearts and actions, and you see a weakening in our sense of being members of the one human family. Join us, then, in raising our plea to God, in fasting, and in offering whatever you can to our brothers and sisters in need!

The fire of Easter

Above all, I urge the members of the Church to take up the Lenten journey with enthusiasm, sustained by almsgiving, fasting and prayer. If, at times, the flame of charity seems to die in our own hearts, know that this is never the case in the heart of God! He constantly gives us a chance to begin loving anew.

One such moment of grace will be, again this year, the "24 Hours for the Lord" initiative, which invites the entire Church community to celebrate the sacrament of Reconciliation in the context of Eucharistic adoration. In 2018, inspired by the words of Psalm 130:4, "With you is forgiveness", this will take place from Friday, 9 March to Saturday, 10 March. In each diocese, at least one church will remain open for twenty-four consecutive hours, offering an opportunity for both Eucharistic adoration and sacramental confession.

During the Easter Vigil, we will celebrate once more the moving rite of the lighting of the Easter candle. Drawn from the "new fire", this light will slowly overcome the darkness and illuminate the liturgical assembly. "May the light of Christ rising in glory dispel the darkness of our hearts and minds",^[7] and enable all of us to relive the experience of the disciples on the way to Emmaus. By listening to God's word and drawing nourishment from the table of the Eucharist, may our hearts be ever more ardent in faith, hope and love.

With affection and the promise of my prayers for all of you, I send you my blessing. Please do not forget to pray for me.

Francis
Supreme Pontiff

STATIONS OF THE CROSS

Each Friday evening of Lent, beginning at 7:30 PM, the Stations of the Cross will be prayed in the church. This opportunity to reflect upon the Lord's journey to Calvary will be accompanied by a period of Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament and conclude with Benediction.

Sincerely in Christ,

Monsignor T. Mark Condon
Pastor

Our Food Pantry Shelves are Bare!

Mike Vaclavicek and Ed Kohler, coordinators of our wonderful food pantry, tell us that our shelves are bare. We are in need of boxes of macaroni and cheese, pasta, cereal, jars of pasta sauce, peanut butter, jelly, and canned vegetables. Please help us help those families in need. Simply drop off your kind donations at the doors of the church or at the Parish Ministry Center. Your support goes a long way in helping others.

A Special Invitation to the Ladies of the Parish

For every great Catholic men's organization, there is an equally great Catholic women's organization. Mark the date, March 21, 2018 at 7:30 PM in St. Francis Hall for a special presentation and open house about the Columbiettes. If you have any questions, please contact Mike Vaclavicek at 973-907-3229.

Attention 2nd Grade Parents:

As weekly mass is an integral part of our lives as Catholics, it is important that our children attend weekly mass. This is especially important as they prepare for the Sacrament of First Eucharist and equally important after they receive their Sacrament. While our parish offers many masses during each weekend for us to attend, during the next several weeks, we require that all children who will soon receive the Sacrament of First Eucharist, attend the Sunday 9:30 AM mass together as a group. Attending mass together shall begin on Sunday, February 25, 2018 and continue through each of the remaining weekends of preparation.

These dates that your children will be attending 9:30 AM mass together are as follows:

2/25, 3/4, 3/11, 3/18, 4/8, 4/15, 4/22, 4/29

We require at least one parent or guardian to accompany and stay with the child during Mass. When you arrive, please sign the attendance form that will be located at the front and rear entrances of the church. After Mass please bring your child to their respective classroom for their weekly instruction.

Thank you for your cooperation and support.

Lenten Regulations on Fast and Abstinence

The Lenten regulations concerning fast and abstinence are as follows:

The days of both Fast and Abstinence during Lent are Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. The other Fridays of Lent are days of Abstinence.

On a day of fast, only one (1) full meal is permitted. Those between the ages of 18 and 59 are obliged to fast. On a day of abstinence, no meat may be eaten. Those who have reached the age of 14 are obliged by the law of abstinence. The obligation to observe the laws of fast and abstinence "substantially," or as a whole, is a serious obligation. The Fridays of the year, outside of Lent, are designated as days of penance, but each individual may substitute for the traditional abstinence from meat some other practice of voluntary self-denial as penance. The time for fulfilling the Paschal Precept (Easter Duty - All the faithful, after they have been initiated into the Most Holy Eucharist, are bound by the obligation of receiving Communion at least once a year) extends from the First Sunday of Lent to the Solemnity of the Holy Trinity.
