MASS PROGRAM

FIRST READING

The LORD was pleased to crush him in infirmity.
If he gives his life as an offering for sin, he shall see his descendants in a long life, and the will of the LORD shall be accomplished through him.

Is 53:10-11

Because of his affliction he shall see the light in fullness of days; through his suffering, my servant shall justify many, and their guilt he shall bear.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

Ps 33:4-5, 18-19, 20, 22

SECOND READING

Brothers and sisters:
Since we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession.
For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who has similarly been tested in every way, yet without sin. So let us confidently approach the throne of grace to receive mercy and to find grace for timely help.

Heb 4:14-16

GOSPEL

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came to Jesus and said to him, "Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you." He replied, "What do you wish me to do for you?" They answered him, "Grant that in your glory we may sit one at your right and the other at your left."
Jesus said to them, "You do not know what you are asking. Can you drink the cup that I drink or be baptized with the baptism with which I am baptized?" They said to him, "We can."
Jesus said to them, "The cup that I drink, you will drink, and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized; but to sit at my right or at my left is not mine to give but is for those for whom it has been prepared."

Mk 10:35-45

When the ten heard this, they became indignant at James and John. Jesus summoned them and said to them, "You know that those who are recognized as rulers over the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones make their authority over them felt. But it shall not be so among you. Rather, whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all.
For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many."

What do servants look like?

This morning just before Mass I had an opportunity to chat with the first-grade kids. The conversation started with one little boy telling me he lost a tooth. I asked him if the Easter Bunny gave him anything for his tooth and he told me that it wasn't the Easter Bunny but the Tooth Fairy who comes and collects teeth. As it turned out he got $20.00 for his tooth. I wish I had that Tooth Fairy when I was a child. This led into a conversation about losing teeth and it was interesting how some of the children mistook the Tooth Fairy for Tinkerbell. I don't know for certain but I'm pretty sure that they are two different fairies. Once Tinkerbell was mentioned that led into a conversation about "The wonderful world of Disney." One child told me that she had been to Disney World, Disneyland, and a Disney Cruise. I actually have been to both Disneyland and Disney World. I was in Disneyland when I went to visit friends in California because that's one of the things you do as a tourist when you are in LA. I was in Disney World in Florida about fifteen years ago when my parents, brothers, sisters, their children, and a cousin and her children all stayed for ten days on Coco beach and traveled to Orlando in three family vans.

I have to tell you that I have no plans to ever go back to anything with the name Disney in it. It was torturous and I thought I would never get out and when I did, I thought my spirit would be crushed for life. Have you ever been anywhere more syrupy sweet and candy floss in your life? And here is my point (at last) every child there was excited, joyful, happy, and in their own world. Of course, they were accompanied by parents, many of whom were at their wit's end trying to corral them. I'm thinking of that and how being willing to take your children to the Magic Kingdom must be a true expression of how much these parents love their children. Not just that they have to fork out a fortune to Mickey Mouse for the privilege of going to his pad but you have to pay extra to shake hands with the rodent. Then they have to endure hours of complete agony visiting every ride and exhibit, and they do so, because they want to give their children something special, they want to see them smile, they want them to enjoy life, they want them to be happy. Parents are willing to make sacrifices for the well-being and happiness of their children.

Sacrifice is not uncommon to parents, in fact, sacrifice is a way of life for most moms and dads. Once a child comes into their lives their lives change, change forever. Now there is a different reason to live, a different reason to get up in the morning, a different reason to spend the day at work, a different way to spend our earnings, our time, our energy, and our life. And in spite of the sacrifices they have to make, they don't see this life as a sacrifice, they see it as a blessing, a joy, a gift, an enrichment. Parents give, and give, and give more again, and it is never a burden, and it never ends, it is always willingly given and without expectation of return. Only the love of a parent would endure the pain and martyrdom of Disney for their child.

If you want to see the sort of leadership Jesus is speaking about in the Gospel today, I think good parents are a good model of what He wants us to be and to do. Jesus said, "I came to serve, not to be served." I think every good mom and dad knows what that means and knows what that looks like. They serve, they are not served, and they do so with love and because of love. A mother's, or a father's, love for their child is a good example of what Jesus means by service.

Victory Fund- Giving Tuesday Campaign

Our Lady of Victory parish will once again participate in the Giving Tuesday Campaign, #GIVECatholicAOC, through the Archdiocese of Cincinnati, on November 30, 2021. Access to this campaign will be through the Victory Facebook or Web Page. If you make your contribution by credit card or through the EFT button on that day, through the link on our Facebook or Web Page, the Our Lady of Victory fund will receive that donation and it will be assessment free. The 9.5% assessment on income is the donation that every parish pays to support the works of the Archdiocese. However, any gift, big or small, received on November 30, 2021, through the online #GIVECatholicAOC site and directed to Our Lady of Victory Parish will go directly to the Victory Fund assessment free. I encourage you, if you can, to make full use of this incredible opportunity to help us build up our Victory Fund.

Our Lady of Victory Carmel

Pastor's Intentions for Homebound:

- For the increase in priestly vocations in our archdiocese
- For all expectant mothers and their children

Funerals:

We recently celebrated the life of Christopher Deye and Ann Gavin. Please pray for the repose of their souls and for the comfort of their family.

St. Michael Olive Wood-

Our friend Louie from the holy land will be visiting our parish on behalf of the Catholic Christian family of the holy land on October 30th & 31st.

For centuries, the Christians of Bethlehem district have earned a living by carving olive wood religious art to sell to visiting pilgrims. Fewer pilgrims are journeying to the holy land today, making it difficult for Christian artisans to support their families by dignified work of their hands in the land of Christ's birth.

Because of the lack of work, there has been a dramatic rise in Christian emigration from the holy land. Now less than 2% of the population in the holy land is Christian. Since the start of its mission- ST MICHAEL OLIVE WOOD has helped hundreds of struggling families.

Louie, through his own experience as founder, has made it possible for the Catholic Christians in the holy land to maintain both livelihood and their ancestral homes in the land of Christ. Your purchase will make a difference in the lives of many Christians. We gladly accept all major credit cards, checks, and cash.

ESAP & THE GEORGE HUBERT FAMILY FOUNDATION

ESAP and The George Hubert Family Foundation will be continuing the "Fostering Philanthropy Program" to help parishes raise money for Tuition Assistance.

If Our Lady of Victory can raise $12,000 in tuition assistance donations by December 1, 2021, the George Hubert Family Foundation will match 150% of those funds ($18,000). In addition to the 150% match, OLV will receive an ESAP participation gift of $6,000. The total received by Our Lady of Victory from the George Hubert Family Foundation would then be $24,000.

As of Sunday, October 10th, we have raised $9,439.

Please make your check payable to "OLV Tuition Assistance" and write "ESAP" on the memo line of your check. Put your check in a plain envelope and drop it in the collection basket or mail your check to the Parish Office. Thanks for your support of Catholic education in our parish!

God wants you to help others. He does not want you to be a slave to others. If you are helping your friend clean his room, and he leaves watch television, it's ok to stop helping him.
