Message from Fr. Joe

This weekend we are celebrating Palm Sunday, which is the beginning of Holy Week. The Feast of Palm Sunday has been celebrated since the earliest days of Christianity and for many generations it has been described by many Christians as the “Triumphal entry into Jerusalem.” But, if this was a triumphal entry of Jesus, then why did they crucify him at the end of the week? To understand this clearly, we need to look at our readings this Palm Sunday. The opening reading is called the “Palms Reading.” Not “palm reading,” but “palms” because of the palm branches placed on the road as Jesus entered into Jerusalem on the back of a colt. The other reading is called the “Passion Reading” which is a narrative of the passion and suffering of our Lord Jesus Christ that sets before us a blueprint of the events of the Paschal Mystery.

Yes, Palm Sunday was such a glorious Sunday as people were cheering with joy, welcoming Jesus with the words “Hosanna in the highest.” By Friday, things changed, these same people were now shouting, “Crucify him!” But before we accuse them of changing their minds, let us also take a look at ourselves and ask the question, are we one of those who welcomed Jesus with waving palms, cheering Hosanna in the highest, or are we one of those who are blinded by our sins and selfish desire shouting Crucify him?

My dear brothers and sisters, the Paschal Mystery, which is the passion, death and resurrection of Jesus, is not only Jesus’ journey, but also our journey. It is a time for us not only to recall but to re-live in our lives the passion of Christ’s mystery. In other words, we celebrate these events as they happened not only in the past, but as they also happen today. Saint Gregory the great puts Christ’s passion this way. He said: “... we must sacrifice ourselves to God each day and in everything we do... accepting all that happens to us for his sake... imitating his passion by our sufferings... honoring his blood by shedding our own... and lastly... we must also be ready to be crucified.”

On this Palm Sunday, as we move and welcome the most holy of all weeks... let us look and reflect on Jesus’ passion, walk in his footsteps, take part in his passion and "empty" ourselves, so that we too will be Remembered... Forgiven... and Blessed in God’s Kingdom and Paradise.

Fr. Joe

Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

Isaiah 50: 4-7, Philippians 2: 6-11
Mark 14: 1—15:1-39

Today’s first reading foreshadows what comes later. Isaiah’s Suffering Servant continues to preach to those who are weary and hopeless despite the abuse he receives from his adversaries. Saint Paul, in the second reading, attests to Jesus’ sacrifice and victory. In the Passion, we hear Saint Mark’s account of Jesus’ final hours before his death on the cross. Listening to the word of God today, let us echo the words of the centurion upon Jesus’ death: “Truly this may was the Son of God!”

Good Friday Collection

Pope Francis has asked our parish to support the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, which helps Christians in the Holy Land.

Your support helps the church minister in parishes, provide Catholic schools and offer religious education. The Pontifical Good Friday Collection also helps to preserve the sacred shrines.

The wars, unrest and instability have been especially hard on Christians. In these times of crisis, the Pontifical Good Friday Collection provides humanitarian aid to refugees.

When you contribute to the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, you become an instrument of peace and join with Catholics around the world in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land.

Please be generous!

For more information about Christians in the Holy Land, visit:

Claire Crowley
1925 - 2021

Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls, and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen

Divine Mercy Sunday
April 11, 2021

The Feast of Divine Mercy is fairly new, but God's mercy is something that the Church has preached and believed in from the very beginning. This feast is of great interest because it is based on a private revelation by now St. Sister Faustina. Our Lord appeared to Sister Faustina and revealed to her to trust in Jesus' mercy in the words "Jesu Ufam Tobie." Yes, God continuous to offer us this mercy by giving us this Sunday and naming it Divine Mercy Sunday to remind us that we have... a loving and merciful God... a God whose mercy endures forever... and whose heart is willing to forgive... no matter what or who you are, the only thing he asks of us is to trust in him.

We encourage you to pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet April 2nd, (Good Friday) through April 10th. Chaplets are available in the Parish Hall or Parish Office or go to:

Come celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday at the Parish Center, April 11th at 3:00 PM as we pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet.

HOLY WEEK 2021 Liturgical Readings

To prepare for Mass, read the Gospel before you attend. Following Mass, discuss the question posted below with your family.

Palm Sunday-March 28 Take some time to reflect on this key passage in today's reading "Jesus said, 'Amen, I say to you, one of you will betray me'... (the disciples responded) 'Surely it is not I?'" Describe how you respond to this passage.

Holy Thursday-April 1 Jesus asks his disciples, "Do you realize what I have done for you?" How would you answer Him?

Good Friday-April 2 Are we mere spectators to the events of Good Friday or are we active participants? If yes, where do you stand, outside with Peter, at the foot of the cross with Mary, or among the crowd? Explain why?

Easter Sunday-April 4 Similar to the first disciples, we are not entirely courageous and faithful witnesses to the Risen Christ. "Simon Peter... went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there...the other disciple also went in, and he saw and believed". What have you seen that helps you see the Risen Christ? What would you need to see to believe? Take this time to tell Jesus about it. He is waiting for this moment.

Pope Francis' Prayer to Mary During Coronavirus Pandemic

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and of hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm. You, Salvation of the Roman People, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen.

Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious blessed Virgin.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen

Announcement on the Annual Mass and Celebration of Law Enforcement

At the request of the Blue Mass Committee of the Diocese of Trenton, the Annual Mass and Celebration of Law Enforcement – originally scheduled for April 13, 2021 – will be postponed until April 2022 due to the continuing evolution of the COVID-19 pandemic.

The event, also known as the Blue Mass, has been held for 20 years in the Diocese to thank God for the sacrifice and service to the communities given by police officers and law enforcement agents at every level.

In lieu of this year's Blue Mass, the clergy, religious and faithful of the Diocese are asked to remember in their grateful prayers all those involved in law enforcement and their families. Bishop David M. O'Connell, C.M., will offer his Mass on Palm Sunday 2021 for their intentions.
