ACCOMMODATION IN THIS BROCHURE

As there's no universal system for grading hotels, we've applied our own gradings to the hotels featured in this brochure. They're based on the expert opinions of our destination specialists, usually from first-hand experience.

Ultra Ultra-luxury hotels that look to redefine the boundaries of experience, service and facilities (typically higher than 5 stars).

Superior A high standard of accommodation with a good range of quality facilities, often in a good location (typically 4 stars).

Deluxe Outstanding accommodation with excellent service and facilities, usually in a fantastic location (typically 5 stars).

Standard A good standard of clean and comfortable accommodation with reasonable facilities (typically 3 stars).

All prices, fares, hotels and tours described in this brochure are correct at the time of going to press (06/04/2017) and are subject to change and availability. All prices are per person based on two people travelling together sharing twin/double accommodation (unless otherwise stated). Many of the flights and flight-inclusive holidays in this brochure are financially protected by the ATOL scheme. But, ATOL protection does not apply to all holiday and travel services listed. Please ask us to confirm what protection may apply to your booking. If you do not receive an ATOL Certificate then the booking will not be ATOL protected. If you do receive an ATOL Certificate but all the parts of your trip are not listed on it, those parts will not be ATOL protected. For more information about financial protection and the ATOL Certificate go to: atol.org.uk/atolcertificate. The Wexas ATOL number is 2873. Full Wexas booking conditions can be found at wexas.com/bookingconditions.

Pousadas of Portugal: The Algarve

7-DAY TAILOR-MADE SELF-DRIVE

Similar to Spain's paradors, Portugal's pousadas are a network of state-owned hotels synonymous with the history, culture and traditions of their particular region. On this weeklong self-drive, you'll knit together some of the finest examples – from medieval castles to 19th-century palaces – travelling scenic coastal routes and valley-framed roads to reach idyllic beaches and spectacular slices of rolling greenery.

Essential Andalucia 7-DAY TAILOR-MADE SELF-DRIVE

In southern Spain, the wonders of its Islamic past live on, crouched among the region's great cities. Between the castle-palaces of Seville and Granada, you'll marvel at the grand arches of Córdoba's mosque-cathedral, with each city combining exotic Islamic beauty with Renaissance flourishes. We've also included a pair of excursions – a guided walk through Granada's UNESCO-listed old town and a private tour of its Alhambra,

It's all populated by a fascinating collection of historic settlements, with charming seaside villages, Roman ruins and Moorish whitewashed towns among the highlights.

NEW SOUTH WALES

Between gleaming cities, glittering beaches and a truly stunning natural world, so many of Australia's icons are found in New South Wales. Of course, it's the Sydney Opera House and Sydney Harbour Bridge that grab the headlines, but it's often the laidback coastal living that causes most to linger longer. Lose yourself in Bondi's surf, take time out on palm-fringed beaches and drive the aptly named 'Legendary Pacific Coast', watching as great ocean-carved cliffs give way to pretty bays. But, look beyond the region's white-sands-and-blue-skies good looks and you'll find real substance. There's the world-class wine and gastronomy of the Hunter Valley along with spectacular hiking through the dramatic, mist-shrouded Blue Mountains. And, this being Australia, you're never too far from the severe beauty of the Outback. Here, endless ochre landscapes are marked only by historic frontier towns and Aboriginal rock art.

Highlights of New South Wales

14-DAY TAILOR-MADE SELF-DRIVE

This fortnight-long loop brings you out of Sydney to dip into the state's mountainous, vineyard-dotted interior before sweeping down its Pacific coast. Indeed, after taking in the world's most recognisable harbour, you'll drive out into the Blue Mountains to discover Aboriginal sites and botanic gardens before tasting your way through the Hunter Valley's farm-to-table restaurants and award-winning vineyards. Then, you'll swap rolling hills for rolling surf in Port Stephens; home to more than 140 resident dolphins, it's one of the best places to spot these playful cetaceans. Finish with some golden-sands relaxation at Killcare. Along the way you'll stay in exclusive accommodation, ranging from mountain spa resorts and vineyard estates to luxury skyscrapers and beachside getaways.

Sydney to Byron in Style

18-DAY TAILOR-MADE SELF-DRIVE

If you'd rather have some extra time to appreciate the easygoing charm of New South Wales while staying in luxury hotels, then this is the perfect itinerary for you. Again you'll start with Sydney's beachside idyll before taking in the green-dappled peaks of the majestic Blue Mountains and the oenological indulgences of the Hunter Valley. But, after discovering the marine life of the 'Dolphin Capital of Australia', you'll instead turn north. This is New South Wales at its bucolic best, with pretty coastal drives bringing you past deserted beaches to pause at Bellingen, an idyllic rural town surrounded by lush valleys. End in Byron Bay for a stay in a luxury spa resort, backed by dense rainforests and fronted by miles of sandy beach. It's the perfect conclusion to your trip as you gently slip into the region's boho-chic lifestyle.

Sydney & the South Coast

15-DAY TAILOR-MADE SELF-DRIVE

The coastal route between Australia's two great cities, Sydney and Melbourne, is one of the world's greatest drives, famed for its spectacularly varied scenery. One moment you could be spotting whales from verdant clifftops and the next sharing a golden beach with a kangaroo. You'll begin with the urbane sensibilities of Sydney before heading south past waterfalls and Kiama's 60-metre-high blowhole to stay in beautiful Jervis Bay. Explore the region's intertwining waterways by canoe and relax on the white-sand beaches before continuing to Tilba Tilba, a charming village unchanged since its 19th-century gold-rush heyday. Then, sweep through kangaroo beaches, mountainous hinterlands, wildlife-filled national parks and koala-dotted islands to end with the characterful laneways of Melbourne.

The Palm Beaches

At the end of the 19th century, Palm Beach was developed into a winter resort for the rich and famous. Drawn by its excellent weather and 47 miles of palm-tree-dotted golden sands they lined its shores with Italian Renaissance mansions. Today, the stakes have been upped to neoclassical palaces that rub shoulders with ultra-luxury hotels, fine-dining restaurants and a glitzy mix of fashion boutiques art galleries and shops. It's all linked by picturesque alleyways reminiscent of a Spanish village.

North Dakota & Montana

While our Yellowstone & the Rocky Mountains itinerary encompasses the national parks of Wyoming and South Dakota, why not extend your Wild-West adventure into Montana or North Dakota? In Montana, step back in time to commemorate General Custer's Last Stand and admire Glacier National Park's towering peaks and shimmering lakes. Or, head into North Dakota, whose rugged wilderness and rich Native American heritage are best seen amid the endless prairies of Theodore Roosevelt National Park.

Visiting some 34 ports in just eight action-packed days, this Norwegian coastal cruise is the way to explore Norway's stunning Arctic coast. Setting off from Bergen's Hanseatic wharf, you'll set a course north, calling in at Art Nouveau Ålesund and pretty Trondheim before crossing the Arctic circle to the Lofoten Islands' mountainous beauty, perhaps framed by swirling displays of the Aurora Borealis. Then, at Tromsø, you'll join an exclusive tour of the Northern Lights Planetarium before wild landscapes and an abundance of birdlife greet your arrival at North Cape – mainland Europe's northernmost point. Finally, an included stay in the Kirkenes Snowhotel brings your cruise to a fittingly spectacular conclusion.

12-DAY TAUCK RIVER CRUISE

DELUXE

This all-inclusive river cruise begins with a two-night luxury stay in Prague where expert-led tours evidence the city's grand mix of Baroque, Art Nouveau, Romanesque and Gothic architecture. Explore cobblestone lanes framed by palaces, churches and monasteries before transferring to Straubing for your cruise along the Danube. Call in at Regensburg, Passau, Linz and the Wachau Valley as guided walks, classical concerts and wine tastings bring it all to life. Then, after further stops to explore Dürnstein and Bratislava's medieval grandeur, you'll arrive in Vienna where museum tours and a sumptuous gala dinner bring down the curtain on your Danube adventure.
