Wienke's

Algoma, WI – 133 miles to market

Back in 1966 Don and Jane Wienke's 40-acre Door County farm was a simple cherry orchard where both their mothers canned and preserved fruits and vegetables. Since then it's grown into one of the peninsula's "must-see" markets. The family runs a canning kitchen where they process more than 120 products including pickles, sauerkraut, jams, and pie fillings. By hand! They maintain an estimated 20 acres worth of fresh produce gardens, where they grow strawberries, raspberries, rhubarb, asparagus, cucumbers, peppers, green beans, beets, squash, sweet corn, potatoes, and tomatoes, among other things.

"What ingredients you see on the labels, are exactly what we put in them, and I sometimes say 'a little bit of love!' said Don and Jane's daughter, Sigrid Slaby, the company's manager. The next best thing to traveling to Door County is picking up a jar of Wienke's products at your local Outpost.
