FOREWORD

We have shown on the following pages the number, title and latest known revision date of numerous VA and other miscellaneous forms. In some instances, the revision date may be incorrect, since the form may have been revised since work commenced on this pamphlet. The information contained in this pamphlet will be reviewed periodically and revised.

We hope that you will find the information in this pamphlet helpful in setting up your forms supply. In the event you need assistance concerning any form, please remember that you can contact the Publications Unit of the VA Regional Office serving your area.

Also keep in mind that the representatives of the Texas Veterans Commission and the service organization departments located in VA Regional Offices stand ready to assist you in every way possible in maintaining a supply of current forms. In order to do your job efficiently and to provide your veterans with the very best service, it is absolutely necessary that you maintain a supply of proper forms.

Using VA Form 23-8800, Request for VA Forms and Publications, directed to the Publication Clerk, VA Regional Office, Houston or Waco, Texas, Service Officers may procure necessary supplies of forms. Forms can also be downloaded via the Internet at the VA's website at www.va.gov/vaforms.

Note that those listed with an asterisk (*) are not stocked by VA Publications.

A special thanks to Jerry Goode, Regional Director and Sandra Covin, Veterans Counselor, TVC Claims Representation and Counseling Program at the Waco Regional Office; and Rufus Coburn, Manager and Terry O'Neill, Program Specialist for TVC Veterans Education Program in Austin, for their assistance in compiling the information in this Pamphlet.

EDUCATIONAL & VOCATIONAL REHAB

The entire educational assistance program of the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs is now handled through the Adjudication Division by the same VA personnel that process disability and death benefit claims. In order to distinguish between the forms which are used for compensation and pension and the educational assistance programs, VA forms for the latter are designated with the prefix "22". VA currently operates programs providing educational assistance to disabled veterans, to non-disabled veterans, to reservists, war orphans, and to the children of veterans who are totally disabled because of service-connected disabilities. Following is a listing of VA forms that are most widely used in the educational assistance programs administered by the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs.
