PRESIDENT'S REPORT— Rojean Trent

Hello ladies!

Thank you for making Resource Day successful! If you look around the room and starting adding up the number of Quilters it takes to make our meetings look so effortless, you would be surprised. September gathered 86 of us together. Of that 86, half were volunteering their time. The committees around the room are run by many talented and enthusiastic Quilters. We are lucky and I am grateful for all of you.

HAW is now a pleasant memory. We are looking at, as a guild, if we should remain in the rotation for hosting. We will be talking about this next meeting and possibly having a vote. The comment has been made that our members do not attend the event when it is being held on Vancouver Island, so why continue. I have heard very positive comments about the event also. Thinking caps on!

I had planned to present my President's Challenge in September but, some things cannot be rushed! "Music is My Muse" will be presented, ready or not, at October Resource Day. Hope to see you all there. Bring Show and Tell to inspire the rest of us!

RECAP AND THANKS: Program Committee Report for Sept. 28th, 2019 Resource Day

May 26th and 27th workshop with Marianne Haak was a huge success for 14 participants. I heard comments like this workshop was a game changer, the improv part brought together what was learned at other workshops.

5 members attended the mini workshop on “Continuous Bias Binding”. Thanks to Marian Williamson for her instruction and guidance.

On September 20th in conjunction with HAW, Catherine Nicholls led the Great Blue Heron Workshop for a full class of members and HAW guests. We are looking forward to seeing the Herons show up on Resource Day. All loved the innovative lunch provided and thought this was a good idea for future workshops. Thanks to Angel Val.

Many thanks to Wilma Brock for her interesting trunk show, “My Quilting & Fibre Journey”. We all enjoyed the journey from how she started out with her quilts right through the changes and artistic development. Wow! Impressive!

Phyllis Argyle and Karen Biddlecombe were the lucky winners in the “Space” fat quarter draw. Thanks to all those who participated.

A one page summary of the Program Activities and Workshops for the upcoming year was made available on Resource Day. A copy of this is attached below—see page 11.

The First Challenge of the year was announced. WHIP (Work Hopefully in Progress):

Hi my name is Edward the eagle and this is my friend, Loretta the wren. We need your help. When I showed up at the Gibsons Wildlife Rehab Centre, I was in bad shape. I'd been hit by a car and my wing was broken. They fed me and did as much as they could and then transported me to a new permanent home because I couldn't fly anymore. I couldn't disco dance anymore either but I didn't consider that much of a loss. My little friend Loretta also was in bad shape as she had flown into someone's window and they brought her to GWRC for help. The folks at GWRC get birds and animals every week that are injured like us or exhausted from flying like those snow geese that fell out of the sky last year. My food - fresh salmon is super expensive and mealworms for Loretta are really expensive too. Who knew? And boy am I ever glad I don't eat mealworms! (eww). GWRC are constantly trying to raise funds because they are privately funded. They have an annual silent auction in November and we are asking for any donations of small quilted or sewn items that can be used to raise money. If you would like to donate, please bring your items to the October Resource Day and some human named Noriko will collect them. Thank you kindly and don't forget to put some sort of sticker on your big windows so Loretta and her friends don't keep bonking their heads into them.

Sincerely, Edward and Loretta (PLEASE SEE NORIKO KAWAGUCHI)

HAW—Sept. 21, 2019 Recap:

This event was held last Saturday Sept 21/19 after planning and commitments from all earlier this year. It's always tough to commit so early in the year however, we did have a waiting list which was filled by others who could not attend at the last minute. The guild board had kind of lost track of the '5' year schedule so a few ladies stepped up and put together a terrific program once this was announced.

I'd like to thank Rojean Trent, Grace Whitlock, Ada Yeo and Marian Williamson who along with myself worked as a team to put the event on, and the volunteers who picked up campers and those flying in. There were a couple of miscommunications on the day however by and large I think we can take the day as a success.

Discussions need to be held with respect to staying in the HAW group. Quadra Island has either dropped out or merged with another group so the schedule to host is now down to a 4 year rotation. We had earlier thoughts whether we should stay in or not as our guild members hadn't been traveling to other HAW events. It was a pleasant surprise that so many off coast came so I think we need to conduct a poll from the entire guild before we opt out.

Our statistics - we had 112 attendees with 50% of attendees from off coast.

Lots of participation in our 2 challenges with enough blocks made for 3 quilts - the winners, I think, were all from Powell river.

Additionally, good participation for the placemats - there were 48 submitted for judging. Winner was Val Marus.

We had – and a thanks to all those who submitted door prizes - enough prizes for each attendee - how spoilt is that.

Grace Whitlock made each attendee a scrap catcher which took all by surprise - thanks to the Comfort society for helping with this and for Grace for not only the time but materials she donated. Wildflower gave each attendee a 10% coupon for longarm services. And although Sew Easy was advised of the event and said they were going to do something it didn't materialize.

The centre piece mats were made by Ada Yeo & Lynda White-with quilting done by Wildflower and drawn at each table for 14 winners. Val Marus created the centre table numbers and 6 bunches of sprigs of Bay leaves at each table and I don't think any were left.

And there were 5 special draws that were done in a way so that the winner really wanted the prize vs getting it and not wanting it. So that worked out quite well. Rojean and her helpers did a fine job. We had a volunteer youth - Ayyah made herself available to help anyone who needed her from hanging and taking down quilts, goforthisandthat, parading quilts, kitchen setup etc. - this will help her volunteer hours needed for graduation.

Vendors and guest speaker - we had a total of 4 including the guest speaker. Fibre Expressions, Crazy Quilt Cottage, Stitch & Bobbin and Dragon Fly. Kevin from Dragon Fly was also the featured guest speaker – and he talked about the artist they use for the fabric line they carry with explaining some of the process and had a nice array of quilts to look at.

Food! Well what can I say. We gave Jonnita a lean budget and the freedom to do whatever lunch she wished. I found the salad in a mug and soup in a cup totally wonderful, her choices were spot on and her homemade bread divine. We gave her a good tip and donated about 17 vintage plates to her collection.

The people who look after renting the Hall were so wonderful with allowing us to setup the afternoon before this. This certainly took a lot of stress out and we were very ready for the 'early' birds as they came into the room.

The class held the day before the event was at max and/exce their cost of the day included lunch by Jonnita too. I heard it was a success.

Budget - I need to talk to Helene about how much money we lost so..... that's all I can say about the HAW.

Respectfully submitted, Karen Biddlecombe

HISTORY

In 1982 a group of women on the Sunshine Coast got together to share their love of quilting. Pat Crucil, an accomplished quilter and teacher, established this first quilt group on the Coast. Today the Sunshine Coast Quilters' Guild is the "umbrella" organization for six local community quilt groups from Pender Harbour to Gibsons, with a membership of 117. The guild promotes the joy of quilting on the Coast by providing enjoyment through quilt shows, classes, demonstrations and displays. We continue to meet eight days throughout our Guild year, from September to May at the Holy Family Parish Hall in West Sechelt (5700 Nickerson Road). Our meetings consist of Mini-Workshops, Business Meetings, Show and Tell, Library and a Program.

S.C.Q.G. LIBRARY
