HAMPTON UNIVERSITY 2013 REUNION

MAY 10TH THROUGH MAY 12TH

Guide to the Reunion's Schedule of Events

Sharon Fitzgerald '05,
Alumni Affairs Director

Greetings Hamptonians!

It is a great honor to serve you and be a part of something so special, endearing and important to our alma mater: Reunion Weekend! On behalf of the entire Hampton University family I extend a warm invitation to you all to return to our Home by the Sea. This year, Reunion for classes of 3 and 8 is scheduled for May 10-12, 2013. I extend special greetings to the Emeritus Class and congratulations to the Golden Class, Class of 1963, on celebrating your 50th Anniversary.

Come back to "Reconnect, Reminisce, and Relive the Future" of our alma mater. We have some exciting changes this year that we hope will encourage your participation even more. Though this year brings change, we will always be loyal to the traditions that have shaped us into who we are today. A loyalty that ne'er can perish!

The number of you who make this sentimental journey – many of you from great distances – is phenomenal and speaks volumes of our Hampton experience; how much friendship matters to us, how proud we are of our Hampton education, and how much we believe in the future of our great University. Our Hampton experience lives on through our connection with each other and the realization that, as Hamptonians, we exemplify the legacy of our beloved institution.

I look forward to connecting names to your smiling faces and giving big Hampton Hugs to those new and familiar to me. I truly hope to see you during Reunion Weekend 2013!

In the Hampton Spirit,
Sharon Fitzgerald

Ciarra McEachin '05,
Alumni Affairs Assistant Director

Dear Hamptonians,

Show your love for Hampton University by visiting your alma mater during Reunion and Commencement Weekend 2013. Your presence and gifts during the weekend do not go unnoticed. Your gifts will help Hampton University continue its tradition of providing an education for life for future and current students, and help the University grow and maintain a competitive edge against other colleges and universities.

Did you know that alumni giving enhances the quality and reputation of the University; improving our ranking, and therefore the value of your degree? It is our duty, as alumni; to proudly support and pave the way for younger generations by showing them the dedication, loyalty and love we have for our alma mater by connecting with fellow alumni, giving to the University and supporting University initiatives.

Make plans now to attend Reunion and Commencement Weekend 2013. Your Hampton family awaits you.

In the Hampton Spirit,
Ciarra McEachin

Terry Mutakabbir '77,
NHAA, Inc., 1st Vice President

Dear Hampton Family,

Remember when you walked the campus of Hampton as a student? Make plans to relive your college experiences in the company of your former classmates and friends. On behalf of the National Hampton Alumni Association, Inc., I am delighted to invite you to return to Hampton for an unforgettable 2013 Reunion Weekend.

You will not want to miss this opportunity to reconnect, remember and recharge. Walk the campus and commune with the place that shaped your life. Be sure to make time for NHAA, Inc. business at our plenary session and Memorial Service on Saturday morning. If you haven't been home for a while, you will want to take a tour and marvel at the New Cafeteria, the Proton Therapy Institute and so much more.

The Hampton University Reunion Weekend is our chance to go back into time and relive the memories of our time at our Home by the Sea.

Return and be reminded of just how far you have come. I look forward to seeing YOU at our Home by the Sea!

In the Hampton Spirit,
Terry Mutakabbir

Museum Tour

The Hampton University Museum is a unique institution and a national treasure. Founded in 1868, the Museum is the oldest African American museum in the United States and one of the oldest museums in the state of Virginia. The collections feature over 9,000 objects including African American fine arts, traditional African, Native American, Native Hawaiian, Pacific Island, and Asian art; and objects relating to the history of the University. The Museum will feature The Journey of Hope in America: Quilts inspired by President Barack Obama by Dr. Carolyn L. Mazloomi from April 26, 2013 - August 24, 2013. The Museum is located in the restored Huntington Building (the former library). FREE

Campus Tour

Come home and see the great things that are happening at Hampton! Our campus is growing with the addition of new buildings. You have an opportunity to view the sprawling 255 picturesque acres and observe first hand the many improvements since your last reunion. The new cafeteria is open and will serve as the site for our Reunion Picnic. The tour begins promptly at 1:00 p.m. on Friday, May 10, 2013. You may board the tour bus at McGrew Towers and the Student Center. FREE

Hampton University Proton Therapy Institute Tour

Tour the magnificent Hampton Proton Therapy Institute (HUPTI) during Reunion Weekend. At 98,000 square feet and a total of five treatment rooms, HUPTI is the only proton therapy center treatment center in Virginia. Treatment will be available for breast, lung, prostate, pediatric and other cancers, HUPTI is the largest free-standing proton therapy institute in the world. Additionally, HUPTI is the first proton center in the nation to provide proton-specific medical career training at a variety of levels, radiation to MD/PhD, and an additional beam line is dedicated to proton therapy research. FREE

Evening with the Performing Arts at Ogden Hall

Join the students of Hampton University's performing arts groups as they celebrate the culmination of the school year. The choirs, band, dance troop, and spoken word artists will perform as they highlight their graduating seniors. All are invited to participate in this annual tradition that will be sure to captivate and entertain you. FREE

Make new memories with old friends as we gather at a new site for the annual Alumni Picnic! The waterfront behind the new cafeteria will provide the perfect backdrop for us to enjoy each other and marvel at the newly opened facility. There will be great food, fellowship, and fun as alumni of all ages return to our Home by the Sea. For your pleasure, vendors are located in the picnic area with a variety of merchandise for you to purchase. Tickets for this event are $15.

Nursing Pinning Ceremony at Ogden Hall

The School of Nursing has the broad goal of improving health care and the overall quality of life in the state, the region, and the nation. It strives to reach this goal through the education of health care professionals, through provision of expertise and health care services to the health care systems and through research in promotion of wellness in nursing and in health care. Join the School of Nursing at they pin their graduates. FREE

School of Pharmacy Oath at Memorial Church

The School of Pharmacy was born in the minds and hearts of the academic community at Hampton University years before the first students enrolled. Today, the program has developed into one which promotes professionalism in dress, classroom decorum, presentation style, and participation in professional organizations. The program underscores academic excellence and the development of those tangible qualities necessary to deliver pharmaceutical care. The School of Pharmacy invites you to join them as their graduates participate in their Oath Ceremony. FREE

Alumni Dinner Celebration at the Hampton Roads Convention Center

Celebrate with those you haven't seen in years … sit on the edge of your seat as class gifts are announced … be a witness as the Class of 1963 is officially read into the Emeritus Class! Don't miss the annual Dinner Celebration at the Hampton Roads Convention Center. Located in the heart of the city, the Convention Center will provide just the right atmosphere to enjoy dinner, live performances and dancing in true Hampton style. Dr. William R. Harvey will be the keynote speaker and will provide a state-of-the-University address. Tickets for this event are $35.

Sunday, May 12th

Commencement at Armstrong Stadium

Join the Hampton University family at the 143nd Annual Hampton University Commencement Exercises. The Class of 2013 will have their degrees conferred upon them by Hampton University President Dr. William R. Harvey and awards will be presented to two alumni who have, "let their lives do the singing," the Outstanding-Alumnus-at-Large and the Outstanding Twenty-Year Alumnus. Immediately following the main ceremony in Armstrong Stadium, individual schools will hold ceremonies to present the actual degrees and read the graduates names aloud. FREE

CONGRATULATIONS

50th Anniversary

1963

Congratulations to the Class of 1963 for celebrating your Golden Anniversary as a Hampton graduate! Best wishes for a magical Reunion in May and extended celebration as you enter the Emeritus Class. Continue to let your lives do the singing as loyal sons and daughters of Hampton. Happy 50th Anniversary!

BEYOND EXPECTATIONS

For the Class of 1962, Reunion Weekend 2012 was a celebration of their 50th year as alumni of our beloved institution. To commemorate their Anniversary year, the Golden Class set forth to raise $100,000 under the leadership of class leaders Mrs. Wilma Chambliss Jones, Mrs. Alease Gant, Dr. Christine Darden, and Dr. Elva Williams Hunt.

The Reunion Dinner Celebration was filled with heavy anticipation as each class eagerly awaited to hear from class leaders how much they were collectively able to raise for Hampton University. As the Golden Class' check was revealed, you could feel excitement and energy in the air.

The Class of 1962 truly exemplified their loyalty and love for Hampton through giving by presenting the University with a check for $122,055, far surpassing their giving goal!

When asked how they were able to meet and exceed their giving goal, they credited team work, reaching out to their classmates early, and their unwavering love for Hampton.

Thank you

Class of 1962 for your leadership!

The Importance of Giving to HAMPTON

As you celebrate your reunion year, making a gift to your alma mater signifies your commitment to the sustainability of Hampton.

Many alumni have questions as they consider their gift to Hampton University during a reunion year. The following information may help you decide how to support the University during this special anniversary year. Each class has established giving goals for its reunion gift to Hampton University, both percent participation and total dollars raised, and often sets out to achieve new University records.

A Proud Hamptonian is a Giving Hamptonian.

1. Giving enhances the quality and reputation of our university, improves our ranking, therefore, the value of your degree.
2. Alumni participation helps establish a culture of philanthropy that is vital to the success and sustainability of the University.
3. Corporations and foundations consider alumni participation when making funding decisions.
4. Alumni giving strengthens the credibility of our university and enables us to continually attract experienced faculty and highly driven students.

Class Goals

Class of 2008 - $10,000	Class of 1993 - $40,000	Class of 1978 - $80,000
Class of 2003 - $20,000	Class of 1988 - $50,000	Class of 1973 - $85,000
Class of 1998 - $30,000	Class of 1983 - $75,000	Class of 1968 - $90,000

Golden Anniversary Class: Class of 1963 - $100,000

Emeritus Class - $250,000

Ways to Give

Check or Money Order	Credit Card Gifts	Matching Gifts
Securities/Stocks	Planned Gifts	Endowed Scholarships

Online Giving - https://secure.hamptonu.edu/development

Mail: Contributions can be mailed directly to the Office of Alumni Affairs, Hampton University, Hampton, VA 23668.

ALL GIFTS SHOULD BE MADE PAYABLE TO HAMPTON UNIVERSITY.

Gifts to other interests and purposes, including planned gifts, are also appreciated and reported in the class's overall fund raising total. All gifts received between July 1, 2012 and June 30, 2013 will be credited toward fund raising totals. Corporate matching gifts received during this time period will also be included. Pledges must be paid by June 30, 2013 in order to be recognized in class totals.

Proudly our roots reach deep into the history of this nation and the African-American experience, our sights – like yours – are set squarely on the horizons of the global community of the 21st century.

In 1995, Hampton joined the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference.

"The Standard of Excellence, An Education for Life."

Hampton University has joined the fight against cancer in opening the nation's 8th proton therapy facility, the largest in the world. The Hampton University Proton Therapy Institute (HUPTI) brings the latest, most precise cancer-fighting technology to Virginia and beyond.
