Adventure Begins Here

Blast off with a summer full of space-themed programs

A celestial programming spectacle sure to excite any space enthusiast will begin in July.

PBS's Summer of Space will begin in July, timed to the 50th anniversary celebrations of the Apollo 11 moon landing.

The centerpiece of the programming is the six-hour American Experience film Chasing the Moon, written, produced and directed by Academy Award nominee Robert Stone.

The film will premiere on three consecutive nights at 8 p.m. July 8, 9 and 10, then encore weekly at 7 p.m. Tuesdays on July 16, 23 and 30.

The film tells the story of the space race, from its earliest beginnings to the monumental achievement of the first lunar landing in 1969.

The Summer of Space lineup also will include:

- Antiques Roadshow: The "Out of This World" special episode, premiering at 7 p.m. July 8, features stellar appraisals including NASA memorabilia, space travel treasures, science fiction finds and more.
- 8 Days: To the Moon and Back: Rare mission audio takes viewers inside the Apollo 11 in this new documentary from BBC Studios, premiering at 8 p.m. July 17

- NOVA: Two new specials include Back to the Moon at 7 p.m. July 10 and The Planets at 8 p.m. July 24
- Ancient Skies: This three-part series, beginning at 7 p.m. July 24, will show how centuries of knowledge, experimentation and engineering helped our ancestors explore outer space.

"Our Summer of Space programming lineup invites PBS viewers to visit the farthest reaches of the universe, blending past and present to celebrate both the 50th anniversary of the moon landing and the latest advances in space exploration," said Perry Simon, chief programming executive and general manager of general audience programming at PBS.

The Summer of Space interactive hub will be housed on PBS.org. Throughout the summer, viewers are invited to submit videos, photographs, audio recordings, or text entries about how they experienced the Apollo mission and/or about their interest in space exploration in general.

Clifford the Big Red Dog will pounce into the area

Clifford's visit will run from July 14 to 20. From 3 to 5 p.m. July 14, Clifford will greet and take pictures with guests at Wonderland Park, 2601 Dumas Drive. Regular park admission applies. From 2 to 4 p.m. July 18, Clifford will appear at our annual Summer Splash, a kid-friendly event at the splash pad at Memorial Park, 2501 S. Washington St., just down from the Panhandle PBS studios on Jackson Street.

Other events will be announced on our Facebook page. Fun-filled episodes follow Clifford and his pals (both canine and human) as they play, discover and interact with each other and the inhabitants of Birdwell Island, learning that good friends are what life is all about.

Clifford's visit is made possible by Wonderland Park. Visit panhandlepbs.org or call 806-371-5479.

Clifford the Big Red Dog will make several stops in the area in July.

Clifford the Big Red Dog will bound back to the Panhandle in July.

Based on beloved children's books by Nelson Birdwell, Clifford the Big Red Dog will return to Panhandle PBS and PBS Kids later this year with brand-new episodes.

Savor the Goods dinners continue in July

Chefs Rory Schepisi, Albert Vargas and Sam Blackburn will be featured at the July Savor the Goods dinner.

Join Panhandle PBS and West Texas Chefs Table for the second dinner of the 2019 season of Savor the Goods: Local Cuisine, Ethnic Flair.

The event will begin at 6 p.m. July 25 at Hugo's on the Square, 407 16th St. in Canyon.

Executive Chef Sam Blackburn of Northwest Texas Healthcare System / Sodexo and Chef/Owner Rory Schepisi and Chef Albert Vargas of The Drunken Oyster will be featured. They will craft a menu inspired by Japanese, Mexican and Italian cuisines. (Final menu to be determined.)

Tickets are $75.

Call 806-371-5479 to reserve a table of 8 for $500 (a savings of $100!), or to subscribe to the whole series of four dinners.

Support for this dinner series is provided by Affiliated Foods, Amarillo Classic Events, FirstBank Southwest and Reed Beverage, Inc.

7 PM JULY 9

Celebrate Independence Day on the 39th annual A Capitol Fourth

A Capitol Fourth* will air at 7 p.m. July 4.

John Stamos will return as the host of PBS's A Capitol Fourth, America's national Independence Day celebration.

The country's longest-running live national July 4 TV tradition puts viewers front and center for the greatest display of fireworks anywhere in the nation lighting up the iconic D.C. skyline.

The concert will air at 7 p.m. July 4 and encore at 8:30 p.m. afterwards.

This time-honored 39 year-tradition will kick off our country's 243rd birthday with all-star musical performances by Colbie Caillat and Gone West, Carole King and the cast of the musical Beautiful, Keala Settle (The Greatest Showman), Vanessa Williams, Lee Brice, Yolanda Adams, Angelica Hale, Laine Hardy and the National Symphony Orchestra.

The concert will also pay special tribute to our men and women in uniform with a special performance by Stamos with the MusiCorps Wounded Warrior Band, featuring injured veterans who became musicians through MusiCorps, the music rehabilitation program that helps wounded warriors play music and recover their lives.

New priest joins the cast of Grantchester in Season 4

Tom Brittney (Outlander, Call the Midwife) joins the cast of Grantchester as Season 4 opens on July 14.

James Norton, who plays the charismatic, jazz-loving clergyman Sidney Chambers, makes his final appearance during the season.

Confident, caring and self-assured, Grantchester's new young parish priest channels his boundless energy into a quest for social justice. Rev. Will Davenport is a man of God, but with the devil inside of him. As Geordie Keating (Robson Green) draws him into righting the wrongs of criminal Cambridge, Will's own troubled past is unearthed.

The popular series will air on Masterpiece at 8 p.m. Sundays through Aug. 11.

Tom Brittney, left, joins the cast of Grantchester, including Robson Green and James Norton.

Now in its 68th season, Wonderland Park offers family fun for tourists and Panhandle residents alike.

The park began as Kiddie Land, the dream of the late Paul and Alethea Roads, opening Aug. 12, 1951. In 1969, it became Wonderland Amusement Park and continued growing thanks to the addition of dozens of rides, many built by hand by Paul Roads.

The park's summer hours run through Labor Day.

Today, the park attracts more than 200,000 visitors each year with its thrill rides, coasters, water rides, kids rides and miniature golf.

The park also is a valued supporter of Panhandle PBS.

Panhandle PBS's mission to educate, enlighten and entertain echos Wonderland's mission of providing family-friendly entertainment across the Texas Panhandle and beyond," said Paul Borchardt, Wonderland Park president. "As a family owned and operated business, Wonderland Amusement Park recognizes the importance of supporting the community it's called home for nearly 70 years and is proud to support Panhandle PBS."

Washington Week
7 PM JULY 26

Woodstock — Three Days That Defined a Generation

Premieres 7 p.m. Aug. 6

In August 1969, nearly half a million people gathered at a farm in upstate New York to hear music. What happened over the next three days became far more than a concert. Told through the eyes of those who were there and timed for the 50th anniversary, this is a story of a legendary event that marked the end of one of the most turbulent decades in the nation's history.

Magical Land of Oz

Premieres 9 p.m. Aug. 28

Travelling from the peaks of the aptly-named Snowy Mountains, touched by Antarctic winds, to tropical Queensland, discover how animals have learned to thrive across Australia's harsh and beautiful extremes.

New series Molly of Denali will debut July 15

Molly of Denali premieres July 15.

From Alaska to homes all across the U.S., Molly of Denali, a groundbreaking new PBS Kids series, will premiere nationwide July 15.

The first nationally distributed children's series to feature a Native American lead character, Molly of Denali is about Alaska Native Molly Mabray, a feisty and resourceful 10-year-old Gwich'in/Koyukon/Dena'ina Athabascan girl, who takes viewers ages 4 to 8 along with her on adventures and fosters literacy skills along the way.

With an emphasis on family and intergenerational relationships, episodes of Molly of Denali model Alaska Native values, such as respecting others, sharing what you have and honoring your elders, while showcasing contemporary aspects of rural life, including strong female role models and how technology aids in communication.

Episodes will air at 7:30 a.m. and 3 p.m. Mondays through Fridays on Panhandle PBS and at 6:30 p.m. and 2:30 a.m. on PBS KIDS.
