Teacher Appreciation Week 2021

Commemorative Edition

"PCF...Demonstrating Resilience, Commitment and Heart!"

TEACHERS - WE APPRECIATE YOU!

THANK YOU!

It is officially National Teacher Appreciation Week 2021! Included in this Commemorative Edition is the History of Teacher Appreciation Week, PCI's Proclamation, a list of PCI Teachers and Teacher Assistants, Teacher Appreciation Day and Week Offers and Freebies to say Thank You to our Teachers and a Memory section for those special thoughts and memories you wish to jot down.

HISTORY OF TEACHER APPRECIATION WEEK

Teaching is one of the oldest professions – in 561BC, the first private teacher in history was one of the most learned men of all time, Confucius. In Ancient Greece, there was huge value placed on educating children, and in the 1600s the Pilgrims also placed a similar emphasis on the practice.

By the 19th century, politicians began to believe that education was needed for political order, and elementary through college education was widespread and public, and the need for teachers has been growing ever since!

Though the origins of Teacher Appreciation Week are somewhat murky, it's clear that it was in 1944 that an Arkansas schoolteacher, Mattye White Woodridge, wrote to politicians and educational professionals about the demand for a day to appreciate teachers. However, it wasn't for nearly a decade until the idea was introduced to Congress by none other than Eleanor Roosevelt. In 1953, she was successful in convincing lawmakers to adopt the day.

After the National Education Association (NEA) and Kansas and Indiana state affiliates lobbied Congress again to create National Teacher Day on March 7, 1980, they continued to observe it yearly even though Congress did not. They did this until 1985 when the Assembly transformed the single day into the first full week of May.

Teacher Appreciation Day is described by the NEA, which spearheads the weeklong event, as “a day for honoring teachers and recognizing the lasting contributions they make to our lives.” Each year they provide social media kits, printable teacher achievement certificates, contests, and gift suggestions to help teachers feel all the appreciation we have for them.

Parent/Child Incorporated would like to make National Teacher Day "official" by formally proclaiming the day. Here's our proclamation.

WHEREAS, teachers make schools great; and

WHEREAS, teachers work to open students' minds to ideas, knowledge and dreams; and

WHEREAS, teachers keep American democracy alive by laying the foundation for good citizenship; and

WHEREAS, teachers fill many roles, as listeners, explorers, role models, motivators and mentors; and

WHEREAS teachers continue to influence us long after our school days are only memories;

Now, therefore, I, Dr. Sharon Small, CEO/HS/EHS Director of Parent/Child Incorporated of San Antonio and Bexar County,

Do hereby proclaim Tuesday, May 4, 2021 as...

National Teacher Day

I urge that we observe this day by taking time to recognize and acknowledge the impact of teachers on our lives.

Signed in Appreciation of All Teachers this 29th day of April, year of 2021.
