Dear Parish Family,

Traditionally the 4th Sunday of Easter is Good Shepherd Sunday. The Gospel for each year of our 3-year cycle is taken from the 10th Chapter of the Gospel of John. Each of these has reference to Jesus as Shepherd. The title of the parish priest, "pastor," means shepherd. A shepherd leads, feeds, nurtures, comforts, corrects, and protects his flock—responsibilities that belong to every Church leader. The earliest Christians had seen Jesus as the fulfillment of the ancient Jewish dream of a good shepherd. They also wished to include the Gentiles as part of God's flock. In today's first reading, Peter asserts unequivocally before the Jewish assembly that there is no salvation except through Christ the Good Shepherd whom the Jewish leaders have rejected and crucified, and in whose name the apostles preach and heal.

The setting of our Gospel narrative is probably the time of the Jewish Hanukkah feast (the Feast of Dedication), which commemorated the triumph of the Jewish commander Judas Maccabaeus over the Syrian leader Antiochus IV Epiphanes in 165 B.C. Jesus was walking on the east side of the Temple, which offered protection against the cold winds from the desert as it was winter time in Jerusalem. The Jews had gathered round him. They were not sure whether Jesus was the promised Messiah. They tried to assess the situation by asking Jesus if he was the Christ or simply a wandering preacher, one of the many wandering preachers and healers. Instead of giving them a straight answer, Jesus tells them that he is the Good Shepherd and explains to them his role as such.

Carole King wrote some lyrics in a song that could be applied to our Gospel of the Good Shepherd: "Looking out on the morning rain, I used to feel so uninspired. And when I knew I had to face another day, Lord, it made me feel so tired. And when my soul was in the lost and found, you came along to claim it..."

Our Gospel points us to the truth that no one could care for us as deeply, eternally or passionately as God does. If we trust in ourselves alone, we will eventually find a limit to our knowledge, our strength, or our health. Our Gospel tells us that God and God alone is in whom we place our trust. Jesus contrasts the hired shepherd from the owner shepherd. Sheep have no built-in protection, they do not have sharp claws or loud cries, they do not run fast, climb trees or fly. If sheep are to be safe, they must have a shepherd.

Jesus is the good shepherd and that He cares for His sheep. He knows them by name, He takes a personal interest in them. He does not see us as someone else's business. And Jesus tells us that He is willing to lay down His life for the sheep. As He said, "Greater love has no person than to lay His life down for another."

If we truly are the Body of Christ then all of us are called to be shepherds, to care for others. Real shepherds give themselves freely offering love and care to those who are in need. But being a good shepherd does not mean being perfect, only Jesus is the perfect shepherd. To be the shepherd Jesus calls us to be means being humble and open, recognizing our own sins and weaknesses. Many in our world today feel lost and lonely and are looking for someone (you) who will guide them in a good and healthy life, helping them to find meaning in their life in Jesus the Good Shepherd.

Be blessed, Fr. Tom Kunnel C.O.

SUNDAY'S READINGS

FIRST READING:

"There is no salvation through anyone else, nor is there any other name under heaven given to the human race by which we are to be saved."
(Acts 4:12)

PSALM:

The stone rejected by the builders has become the cornerstone. (Ps 118) Or Alleluia.

SECOND READING:

Beloved, we are God's children now; what we shall be has not yet been revealed. We do know that when it is revealed we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is. (1 Jn 3:2)

GOSPEL:

"I am the good shepherd, and I know mine and mine know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I will lay down my life for the sheep." (Jn 10:14-15)

THE WORKER

REFLECT

FIRST READING

We hear how Peter courageously testified before the Sanhedrin that in Jesus' name the crippled man was healed and in Jesus' name all believers are saved. How strong is the conviction of your faith when someone challenges you?

SECOND READING

John speaks to his community of believers as "children of God." What do you see as some of the implications of such a designation?

GOSPEL READING

In speaking of himself as "the good shepherd" who cares deeply for his sheep, Jesus contrasts himself to "a hired man" (the Pharisees) who has no concern for his sheep. How should have the Pharisees reacted to this criticism?

I AM THE
GOOD SHEPHERD.
A GOOD SHEPHERD
LAYS DOWN HIS LIFE
FOR THE SHEEP.

JOHN 10:11

Prayer for Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, Come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.
