PENGUIN READERS

EASYSTARTS - LEVEL 6 • 300 TITLES

Something for Everyone!

Everyone likes a good story - so what better way to help your students improve their English than by reading a good story. Penguin Readers really do offer 'Something for Everyone!' from original titles to film adaptations, from classics to comedies and plays. All books stay true to the original texts but are underpinned by extensively researched grammar and vocabulary syllabuses meaning your students read real books in language they understand ...while all the time improving their language skills. Nearly every title has a quality recorded version available, using professional actors in our purpose built studio.

PENGUIN ACTIVE READING

EASYSTARTS - LEVEL 4 • 82 TITLES • Integrating Skills through Reading

Developed and published in 2007 this popular list of titles is growing year on year. Research showed teachers wanted a special series of books that could be used specifically in the classroom with more exercises and project work. We produced titles with materials allowing teachers to take an integrated skills approach to using readers. All Penguin Active Reading titles are supported by audio recordings and an interactive CD-Rom. In developing these titles we were very conscious of not destroying the students' eagerness to read a riveting tale - so all titles are carefully selected to engage students' interests and to quench their natural thirst for knowledge.

PENGUIN YOUNG READERS

LEVEL 1 - LEVEL 4 • 70 TITLES • The stories children love!

All your favourite fairy tales and stories with beautifully hand drawn pictures to help support understanding both inside and outside the classroom. Aimed at learners aged 5-11 we don't only cover traditional stories but also have a mix of titles to cover aspects of the curriculum. There are three book sizes at every level so younger children can read larger sized books with fewer words per page and bigger pictures. For older children, more accustomed to reading in their own language, we offer smaller books with more words per page. Chants and exercises accompany each title which enrich the story and extend language practice.

PENGUIN KIDS

NEW 2012 • LEVEL 1 - LEVEL 6 • 23 TITLES • The happily-ever-after kids!

We've teamed up with Disney to bring you the most exciting, up-to-date readers you can find. Films and fairy-tales that are guaranteed to excite any young learner. The stories leap off the page as the Disney illustrations bring the titles to life. Carefully graded to be accessible to learners of any level we offer something new that engages learners and introduces younger children to the joys of reading about their favourite film characters. The Penguin Kids website is where you'll find lots of additional information, samples of pages and the audio, and helps you choose the reader that suits your class best. Go on-line today and see how your 'happily-ever-afters' start here.

Now we're seeing real progress! This is where our students' confidence grows, eager to speak more but struggling to find the words in English. Reading and speaking strategies are developing but what they need is regular experience of common vocabulary and structures. Using readers is perfect in this scenario. Learning English is still a pleasure for most (and a struggle for others) so why not throw them a line from 'Pirates of the Caribbean', let them tiptoe through the treetops in 'The Amazon Rain Forest' or lead them to a fanciful world in 'Alice in Wonderland'?

Now students are moving into a very testing phase of language acquisition – ‘the language plateau’! To help them break through this barrier consolidation is the key. Engaging themes help students continue reading each story to the very end. The inquisitive are satisfied by unpicking the clues in ‘Murder on the Orient Express’, the macabre seekers can join Shakespeare’s witches in ‘Macbeth’ and the modernists find comfort in learning more about ‘Inventions that Changed the World’.

NEW 2012 – PENGUIN READERS

Unbowed

The autobiography telling the story of Wangari Maathai’s journey from rural Kenya to the murky waters of Kenyan politics during the oppressive regime of Daniel Arap Moi. There are detailed accounts of how her conservation group (the Green Belt Movement) was born and rose to prominence, and the many times she had to face brutal government repression as she stood up for the environment and human rights. In her life and her musings, the delicate links connecting environment, poverty and human dignity are shown clearly to the reader. The author won the Nobel Peace Prize in 2004.

NEW 2012 – PENGUIN ACTIVE READING

The Maltese Falcon

Everybody, it seems, is looking for the statue of a bird, and some of them are dying. Who has the bird? Who knows where it is? Who is telling the truth? Who knows what the truth is? Sam Spade – one of the great private detectives of American fiction – has a new client, and it is his job to find out.

This is a breakthrough level and imperative students keep working hard to consolidate their studies and push on. Typically students are now making forays into newspapers and articles on the internet on their own, but these experiences can be frustrating so they need the comfort of a riveting read that's accessible. The structure of a reader now involves the student on many more levels. They can try and catch their breath as they join Jason Bourne in 'The Bourne Supremacy', relax by the pool with 'The Talented Mr Ripley' as he plots the downfall of his adversary or experience the hilarity with an invitation to 'Four Weddings and a Funeral'.

The Five People You Meet in Heaven

This tells the tale of Eddie, the fairground maintenance man and his story begins on his 83rd birthday, the day he dies. To help him put his lifetime into perspective he is met in heaven by five people from his past, some he knows – some he doesn't, but they all hold information that will help Eddie make sense of his life and understand what led him to arrive in heaven on the day he did.

This novel was on the New York Times Best Seller List for 95 weeks after it was released. It was also made into a film in 2004 starring Jon Voight.

Well, it's the top of the climb – as far as we go with graded readers, the last big push to get students ready to move into reading full texts. Here we find more compelling titles, condensed tomes that everyone at some time or other references as read! The opportunity to delve into Dostoyevsky is not to be missed. At this level we offer to transport students from courtland drama in The Chamber to the horrors of Schindler's List, each in its own way asking moral questions of the reader as well as the characters in the book.

Penguin Readers really do offer something for everyone!

NO COPYING, SINGLE OR MULTIPLE, OF VIDEO CASSETTES IS PERMITTED.

The law allows for a reader to make a single copy of part of a book for purposes of private study. It does not allow the copying of entire books or the making of multiple copies of extracts.

Under no circumstances may schools photocopy materials for use in self-access centres, unless they have registered with CLA or an associated licensing agency and allow / use photocopying strictly in accordance with their regulations. If a school wishes to have multiple copies of a part of a book in a self-access centre, then it must purchase the necessary number of printed books. There is no formal objection to schools physically cutting printed texts into parts and reassembling them in a way that seems appropriate, providing the books or parts of books are not then resold. It is not, however, a practice we would recommend.

In the case of audio recordings, it is permissible for a school to make a copy of an audio tape, keeping the original as a back-up. Only one copy may exist at any one time. A school may copy different parts of an original audio tape onto several cassettes, providing that no part of the original exists in more than one copy at any one time. Therefore, if a school wishes to have three copies of one part of an audio tape, it must have three originals.

All the information contained in this catalogue is correct at the time of going to press (September 2011) and is subject to change without prior notice.

New editions of titles where the content has been updated are distinguished by a new edition flash.

Connecting with others

KATARZYNA POGŁODZIŃSKA,
CENTRUM JĘZYKÓW EUROPEJSKICH
NKJO, CZĘSTOCHOWA

“What I like most about teaching English is that you never stop learning yourself, both in terms of language competence and teaching skills, which makes you feel young... Moreover, performing so many different roles in the classroom, not only of a communicator, manager, conveyor of information but also of a role-model, surrogate parent etc. I feel I’m needed. In short, for me teaching English is not just a job, it’s a way of living. I wouldn’t trade it for any other profession.”
