National Anthem

by Francis Scott Key

O say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming;
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air
Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there.
O say, does that Star-Spangled Banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave!

Alma Mater

by Fred Lewis Pattee

For the glory of old State,
For her founders, strong and great,
For the future that we wait,
Raise the song, raise the song,

Sing our love and loyalty,
Sing our hopes that, bright and free,
Rest, O Mother dear, with thee.
All with thee, all with thee.

When we stood at childhood's gate,
Shapeless in the hands of fate,
Thou didst mold us, dear old State,
Dear old State, dear old State.

May no act of ours bring shame
To one heart that loves thy name,
May our lives but swell thy fame,
Dear old State, dear old State!

Message from Dr. Madlyn Hanes

Senior Vice President for Commonwealth Campuses and Executive Chancellor

Dear graduates,

I am pleased to extend my heartfelt congratulations on your graduation, one of life's major milestones. Today—graduation day—we celebrate your achievement and recognize your good work, diligence, and perseverance.

Some of you now will begin careers, while others will pursue further education. Some of you will advance in the companies and organizations where you currently work or start new ventures of your own. Others, still, will begin in service to the armed forces. Regardless of your path, you will bring exceptional capability to the organizations you join. As a graduate of The Pennsylvania State University, you are prepared to meet future challenges, and I know you will not disappoint.

Your achievements are also a shared victory. There are many people to whom we express gratitude for helping you to reach your goal—family and friends who have encouraged and supported you; the talented faculty who have inspired, mentored, and challenged you; and the dedicated staff and administrators who assisted you in your journey.

I trust that you will continue to have champions such as these to support you, and heroes to inspire you. The education you received at Penn State has given you the wherewithal to be champions and heroes to others in time. Each of you now has your own inspirational story to share.

With graduation, you join the ranks of more than 725,000 alumni around the globe. No matter where you go, there is likely to be a fellow Penn Stater nearby. We are all connected, each and every one of us, by this great University. Our hope is that you will continue to embrace that connection, and that you will remain in touch as your future unfolds.

Congratulations, graduates. I wish you all the best.
