Entrance Antiphon: Ps 96 (95):1, 6

O sing a new song to the Lord;
Sing to the Lord, all the earth.
In his presence are majesty and splendor,
Strength and honor in his holy place.

First Reading: Jon 3:1-5, 10

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Jonah

The word of the LORD came to Jonah, saying:
“Set out for the great city of Nineveh,
and announce to it the message that I will tell you.”
So Jonah made ready and went to Nineveh, according to the LORD’s bidding.
Now Nineveh was an enormously large city;
it took three days to go through it.
Jonah began his journey through the city,
and had gone but a single day’s walk announcing,
“Forty days more and Nineveh shall be destroyed,”
when the people of Nineveh believed God;
they proclaimed a fast
and all of them, great and small, put on sackcloth.

When God saw by their actions how they turned from their evil way,
he repented of the evil that he had threatened to do to them;
he did not carry it out.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 24:4-5, 6-7, 8-9

R. Teach me your ways, O Lord.

Your ways, O LORD, make known to me;
teach me your paths,
Guide me in your truth and teach me,
for you are God my savior. R.

Remember that your compassion, O LORD,
and your love are from of old.
In your kindness remember me,
because of your goodness, O LORD. R.

Good and upright is the LORD;
thus he shows sinners the way.
He guides the humble to justice and teaches the humble his way. R.

Second Reading: 1 Cor 7:29-31

A reading from the first Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians

I tell you, brothers and sisters, the time is running out.
From now on, let those having wives act as not having them,
those weeping as not weeping,
those rejoicing as not rejoicing,
those buying as not owning,
those using the world as not using it fully.
For the world in its present form is passing away.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation: Mk 1:15

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

The kingdom of God is at hand.
Repent and believe in the Gospel. R.

Gospel: Mk 1:14-20

The Lord be with you. R. And with your spirit

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark R. Glory to you, O Lord.

After John had been arrested,
Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the gospel of God:
“This is the time of fulfillment.
The kingdom of God is at hand.
Repent, and believe in the gospel.”

As he passed by the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting their nets into the sea;
they were fishermen.
Jesus said to them,
“Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men.”
Then they abandoned their nets and followed him.
He walked along a little farther and saw James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John.
They too were in a boat mending their nets.
Then he called them.
So they left their father Zebedee in the boat along with the hired men and followed him.

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Monday: The Conversion of St. Paul the Apostle

This feast recalls the conversion of the Apostle of the Gentiles as it happened one day on the road to Damascus. A great persecutor of the Church encountered Christ, and that meeting changed Paul's entire life. After a time of prayer and study, the persecutor became one of the greatest, if not the greatest, evangelist Christianity has ever seen. From the moment he encountered Christ, St. Paul became wholly His.

Tuesday: Sts. Timothy and Titus, Bishops

Timothy and Titus were disciples and students of St. Paul from whom they learned the Christian faith. Both were made bishops by Paul: Timothy of Ephesus and Titus of Crete. They are mentioned in the New Testament and were recipients of the so-called Pastoral Epistles.

Wednesday: St. Angela Merici, Virgin

St. Angela Merici was born in Italy in the latter half of the 15th century. She was a holy child who was orphaned at the age of 10. As an adult, and recalling her own experience as a child, she developed a deep desire to serve God and to educate women and children. She founded the Ursuline order of religious sisters to do this, and especially to educate poor women and children. The Ursulines are the oldest religious order of women dedicated solely to the teaching of women in the history of the Church. The Ursulines who came to New Orleans in 1727 immediately opened a school for girls. Today Ursuline Academy is the oldest continuously operating school for girls in the United States and one of the oldest in North America. As teachers, she and her sisters sought not only to give students information and knowledge but to guide them in developing virtue so that, as mothers, they could evangelize their families in the faith. St. Angela died in 1540 at Brescia, Italy.

Thursday: St. Thomas Aquinas, Priest and Doctor of the Church

Thomas Aquinas is one of the greatest teachers of the Catholic Church. He has been honored with the titles Doctor of the Church and Angelic Doctor. In 1239, while in Naples, he was first attracted to Aristotle's philosophy and much of his future academic work would entail reconciling Aristotle's ideas with the theology of the Church. By 1243, Thomas joined the Dominicans, much to his mother's dismay. On her order, he was captured by his brother and kept at home for over a year. Once free, he completed his education with Albert the Great. He then held two professorships at Paris, lived at the court of Pope Urban IV, and directed the Dominican school at Rome. His greatest contribution to the Church is his writings in which the unity and continuity of faith and reason, of revealed and natural human knowledge are harmonized. The Summa Theologiae, his last work, deals with the whole of Catholic theology. He stopped work on it after celebrating Mass on December 6, 1273. When asked why he stopped writing, he replied, "I cannot go on.... All that I have written seems to me like so much straw compared to what I have seen and what has been revealed to me." He died March 7, 1274.
