First Presbyterian Church

it takes a congregation!

Support local kids through FPC's
VBS Community Outreach Project!

Salina's Annual Back to School Fair will be held this summer to benefit local children and families. The Fair provides free services and entertainment to families that receive free or reduced lunches. Valuable and basic services such as medical screenings, haircuts, and school supplies, are provided.

The goal is to collect 500 items total...and we need the entire congregation to help! There is no limit to the number of items you may bring; monetary contributions will be accepted.

items needed:

BACK PACKS

PINK ERASERS

RED & BLACK INK PENS

NO. 2 PENCILS

BOXES OF 24 CRAYONS

HAND SANITIZER

REAMS OF PAPER

KLEENEX

Please bring your items to the church on VBS Sunday, June 3!

Special Announcements!

Summer Soul-stice:

“Summer Soul-stice: Think, Learn, Enjoy!” is a new women’s group that will meet every other Tuesday throughout the summer from 9:30-10:30am.

Use the summer months as a time of building community among women, providing enjoyable and thoughtful intellectual stimulation. Childcare can be made available with advance notice, please contact Tom Reid. Please see the web site for class topics for July and August (www.fpcsalina.org/ministries/adult/)!

Coming up:

June 5: Come enjoy (via YouTube) a funny, sweet, ever so inspiring graduation speech given by Kelly Corrigan (author of The Middle Place) delivered to the 8th grade graduates of the Hamlin School (2011). Then let’s reflect on our own 8th grade years and share our dreams/advice for current 8th grade girls. Led by Melinda Jett and Pam Harrell.

June 19: “The Power of Relationships - Essential Elements of Connection” drawing upon the growing body of research in neurobiology, this interactive session will explore the benefits of being in relationships, and focus on the key aspects of relationships that soothe the brain. Led by Paula Fried.

Youth Group News:

Summer youth group is underway! Mid High Youth (those entering 6th grade this fall - 8th grade) will meet on Sunday nights from 5:00 - 6:30 pm, Senior High Youth (those entering 9th grade this fall - 12th grade) will meet Sundays at 7:00 - 8:30 pm. If you haven’t registered yet, be sure to do so now!

Side by Side with Oakdale:

For years FPC has been committed to education in our community. Coming this fall, the Social Justice and Mission Committee would like to invite you to join a new church-wide effort to partner with Oakdale Elementary School. Through reading with students, supporting teachers, and administrators we hope to demonstrate God’s love and justice for our community in this exciting way.

This long-term relationship will seek to support Oakdale Elementary School in a variety of ways that will give everyone at FPC an outlet to join in this effort. This Fall we are looking for a team of volunteers to read with 1st and 2nd grade students for 1 hour during the school day, just once a week. No need to commit right this second, but if this opportunity interests you, please contact Austin today!

FPC Looking for New Director of Children's Christian Education

First Presbyterian Church is currently seeking an individual to lead our Children’s Education Ministry. For Job Description and Application materials contact the church office at 825-0226 or office@fpcsalina.org.

Special Note:

FPC’s Communications Director, Sally Sutherland, is away on maternity leave! You will receive less communication than normal during this time, but plans were made to save you from being completely in the dark! Check out this shortened newsletter, and still expect weekly emails in your inbox. If you have any questions, please direct them to Melanie in the church office or to Pastor Jim Hawley. Thank you!

River Festival Sunday

Sunday, June 10, 10:15 am
Eulenspiegel Puppets

dress casually enjoy the music

go to the Festival after worship!

The Eulenspiegel (Oil-N-Speegel) Puppets delight audiences with a large repertoire of international folktales and historical fiction. Eulenspiegel Puppet Theatre is based in West Liberty, Iowa, and tours nationally and internationally. They are known for original scripts.

They will give puppet workshops on the Bravo Salina Stage offering a peek backstage, along with tips for constructing and animating puppets children can make for themselves.

Eulenspiegel Puppets will be performing on the Children's Stage at 1 pm following worship!

See you on River Festival Sunday...a First Presbyterian Church tradition!
