PERSONAL FINANCIAL STATEMENT for Coastal Equity Group

IMPORTANT NOTICE: Under California law, property (including salary and wages) acquired by either spouse during marriage is the community property of both. Property acquired before marriage by gift or inheritance and the income there from is the sole and separate property of the spouse who acquired it, but it may thereafter become community property (in whole or in part) under certain circumstances. Please consult your legal and financial advisers if you are uncertain about the status of any property.

Community Obligation: This financial statement is submitted as a community financial statement in support of an obligation that will bind the undersigned's marital community.

Sole and Separate Obligation: This financial statement is submitted as a sole and separate financial statement to support a sole and separate obligation of the undersigned (and is not based upon the creditworthiness of the marital community, if any.) All sole and separate income, assets and debts for which I am obligated are listed below. No community property (such as wages and salary) is listed below and no information (except name) is provided on my spouse (if any).
