PLEASE NOTE CHANGES MOVING FORWARD

1. Our event will become a Pro-Am tournament moving forward. The first 32 Korn Ferry Tour - PGA professionals will have the opportunity to win one exemption spot to play in the Wichita Open, which will be held June 18-12, 2021. In the event we do not have 32 Korn Ferry Tour - PGA players, then next in line status (seen on PGA Golf Professional Entry) will determine selection process. However, Rick Navarro may override with special invites to participate in the Pro segment! On June 4th (Fri), 2020, we will have a Zoom team drawing at 6pm for professionals or those interested.
2. We have formed a new tax-exempt organization called AUGGIE NAVARRO SCHOLARSHIP FOUNDATION, separate from The Wichita Jr. Golf Foundation in order to give us additional flexibility in designating scholarship recipients; and to support The First Tee Organization & continue with The Wichita Jr. Golf Foundation.
3. Along with the newly formed organization, we have established an endowment for AUGGIE NAVARRO SCHOLARSHIP FOUNDATION. Any additional contributions may be designated for the endowment fund and will create a source of scholarship funding long into the future.
4. All future tee sign contributors will be deposited into the endowment account.
5. All checks made out to: Auggie Navarro Scholarship Foundation
6. All checks must be mailed to:
