

Physical Therapy (Astoria OR)

Compensation: Negotiable

Employment type: full-time

Pacific Northwest Occupational Therapy is a private therapists owned practice in historic Astoria, Oregon. We are a well established growing, and a dynamic private practice outpatient clinic, in a community with rivers, the ocean, and mountains for a variety of outdoor activities, as well as 2-3 hours drive to Portland for the weekend in the city.

We offer OT/PT services to general adults, as well as having a comprehensive industrial rehab program.

Currently, Pacific Northwest Occupational Therapy is seeking a PT interested in a part time or full time position providing services for our worker compensation programs as well as for general adults. The PT should have a strong interest in neuromuscular, orthopedic, and industrial rehabilitation. It is important for the PT to be outgoing, flexible, demonstrate good communication skills, and be able to work autonomously.

It is recommended, but not required for the candidate to have at least one year experience in physical therapy working with a variety of adults and treatments.

The PT requires a OR licenses and CPR Certification

Greetings,

Thank you for your time and suggestion. I am emailing you because we are interested in having a fitness test instructor in our Wellness Center in Cornelius.

The instructor, independent contractor, will guide a 60 minute fitness test to participants. Our schedule is flexible and we have equipment for it. We had some of your physical therapy students here. The instructor needs to be bilingual.

We offer a $15 compensation per session for the independent contractor.

I appreciate your attention to the present.

Sincerely,

Martha Muñoz

Physical Therapist (Part or Full Time) 11.3.15

Erhardt Physical Therapy and Sports Medicine, P.C. is a privately owned civic minded clinic that is growing. This tight knit community brings in a full scope of patients including post, peds, HS athletes, lymphedema, cardio and geriatric issues. There is a high value on manual orthopedic therapies due to working directly under a NAOIMT Fellow (2011) whose recent studies are in the ISM and Connect Therapies. We are a diverse and upbeat team committed to high quality patient care and place a great worth on 1:1 treatment times. The 20 minute scenic commute to Scappoose from Portland is very easy going against rush hour traffic. Scappoose also offers the opportunity for many recreational activities for the avid outdoors person. We think it is an exceptional place to live, play and work.
