Adjudicators: Rosanne Hammer, Antony Hubmayer, Jeffrey Kong

Rosanne is an experienced piano teacher having had over 25 years working in both her private studio and in Adelaide colleges. She is a student of renown pedagogue Eleonora Sivan who remains a mentor and inspiration to her, and she also holds degrees in both Music and Education from the University of Adelaide. Rosanne is an engaged member of the music community having been a council member of the Music Teachers' Association of SA, past secretary of Recitals Australia, and on the South Australian (hosting) committee of the 2017 Australasian Piano Pedagogy Conference. She is an active concert performer (most recently "Nocturnes by Candlelight" at Ukaria Cultural Centre, and "Piano Phasing II by Kristoffer Zegers" held in Seattle as part of the Bach to the Future Festival), adjudicator (Adelaide and Balaklava Eisteddfods, MTASA Norman Sellick Prize), masterclass clinician (including performance masterclasses at the 2017 Australasian Piano Pedagogy Conference and inaugural Yamaha Recitals Australia Showcase Festival), and presenter (including a lecture /demonstration of the works of Australian composer Larry Sitsky with the composer at the Adelaide College of the Arts; and "Seeds of creativity: exploring the imaginative approaches used in the integration of the new Bastien piano course with AMEB's P Plate Piano series" in Melbourne on behalf of the AMEB). Rosanne is currently teaching at Immanuel College and the Special Interest Music Centre at Brighton Secondary school. She has been a piano examiner for the Australian Music Examinations Board since 2010.

Dr Antony Hubmayer is an Australian music educator and contemporary music performer with over 35 years of classroom and studio teaching experience. His interests in music are varied with piano lounge and light classical performance gigs in Asia and Australia contrasted by rock band composing, recording and performing.

Antony graduated from the Elder Conservatorium in 1989 with a Classical Piano Performance Honors Degree and furthered his studies with a Jazz Performance Diploma and Diploma of Education. As a music educator, he has taught and lectured across Australia, serving as National President for the Australian Society for Music Education, and has recently stepped down following 17 years of distinguished service as Head of Performing Arts and Director of Music at Scotch College Adelaide.

He is a SACE Board Senior Music Assessor, the recipient of a 2010 Australian Government Award for Excellence in School Music Education and his 2013 Doctorate in Education examined the 'Designing of Musical learning Experiences'. Antony has been recognized as an Apple Distinguished Educator for his work with students and teachers integrating constructivist influenced music technology approaches into secondary school music curriculums. In his spare time, he enjoys singing and playing Elton John, Billy Joel and Beatles songs and even makes time to teach a select group of private students classical and contemporary piano with a music technology flavor.

In 1976 Jeffrey Kong began a distinguished career of 40 years as a music educator at Brighton Secondary (High) School eventually taking up the position of Head of Music. During his tenure he led staff and students on many music tours in Australia and to Asia and Europe where students performed in some of the world's finest concert halls, conservatoriums and cathedrals. His most memorable performance being in the Pantheon in Rome.

His long-held dream of a concert hall for Brighton Secondary School was fulfilled in 2014 with the opening of the "Jeffrey Kong Auditorium".

Jeffrey retired from Brighton Secondary School at the end of 2015. Upon his retirement Jeffrey also contributed to music education at William Light School (2016), a bilingual school in English and Chinese and then at Wilderness School (2017/2018) one of the finest schools for young ladies in Australia.

Jeffrey also taught music at the Newcastle Conservatorium of Music and was repetiteur at the Sydney Conservatorium Opera School.

Jeffrey continued to study throughout his career. Through a Cultural Grant-Scholarship he studied at the Sydney Conservatorium of Music, followed by further studies at Adelaide University, University of Southern California, USA and with an Italian National Scholarship at the Rossini Conservatorium, Pesaro, Italy.

Jeffrey is passionate about learning languages and he currently undertakes studies and training in several European and Asian languages.

Since the lock down in 2020 he reignited his passion for church music.

He is currently studying organ with Ashleigh Tobin and plays for some services at Scots Church, Adelaide and is Honorary Music Director at St Augustine's Church, Unley.
