Jump Rope for Heart 2014

On March 20th the elementary students participated in the annual Jump Rope for Heart event. This year was a great success. The students jumped rope as classes in a rotation for 2 hours during the afternoon. Second through fifth grade students were given an option to raise money for the American Heart Association in the form of donations. The physical education classes practiced the format for several classes and the students received a great workout. The total amount collected for the fight against heart disease and stroke totaled $5,945! I am always amazed at the generosity of our community. The students will receive prizes from the American Heart Association in about 6 weeks as a thank you for all their hard work. I would also like to thank all those that volunteered their time to make this year's event run smoothly once again. This is a great cause and we will continue to work as a school community to help in the fight to reduce heart disease.

Literacy Counts!

Students at Fall River School celebrated Read Across America and Dr. Seuss' birthday during March. The Parent Support Group sponsored a treat for our Dr. Seuss celebration. The elementary students had a book drive and were enthusiastic about swapping books with fellow readers. The Parent Support Group held a very successful Book Fair that students and staff enjoyed. The High School Forensics team members, National Honor Society students, and school celebrities volunteered to be guest readers and visited elementary classrooms to share their love of reading. Mrs. Redeker's fifth grade class made Read Across America posters to decorate our school and to practice their research and graphic design skills. Prizes for the fifth graders in recognition of their posters were provided by the PSG. The students were thrilled to receive posters from the Book Fair for their work sharing posters.

Special thanks to Mrs. Lubenau for creating our Seuss Treat and all the people who showed that they cared about literacy.

As we happily continue on into spring, we are looking forward to special events in May. The Parent Support Group will be sponsoring a performance in May for Children's Book Week (May 12 through 18). The Youth Services Librarian at the Columbus Public Library, Kelsey Johnson-Kaiser, will visit our school in May to spread the good word about the public library's summer reading program. The themes for summer reading will be "Fizz, Boom, Read" (elementary), "Spark a Reaction" (teen) and "Literary Elements" (adult readers).

Here comes the sun! Let's all have fun reading and learning together.

Dear Parents/Guardians,

Would you be willing to lose your home so your teen can have friends over and drink beer in your basement?

The Columbia County Connects to Prevent Substance Abuse Coalition wants you to be aware of a few facts:

- Parents who give alcohol to their teen's friends under any circumstances, even in their own homes, are breaking the law.
- Parents who knowingly allow a person under 21 to remain in their home or on their property while consuming or possessing alcoholic beverages can be prosecuted and everything associated with a violation can be confiscated, including personal property.
- Parents can be sued if they give alcohol to anyone under 21 and they hurt someone, hurt themselves or damage property.

Some parents have the attitude that "I did it when I was in high school, so what's the harm?" Realize that things have changed:

- When many parents were in high school, the legal drinking age was 18, and underage drinkers often consumed "3.2%" beer. The legal age for any alcohol consumption is now 21.
- Drunk driving laws are much tougher than in the past.
- Many more teens have automobiles at their disposal, and are driving farther to attend parties.
- Recent research into brain development of adolescents has revealed that underage drinking is the main cause of adult alcoholism. The average age when kids take their first drink in Wisconsin is 12.

Where do kids get alcohol? From you!

- According to the Wisconsin Clearinghouse for Prevention Education, more than half of 9th graders who drink get alcohol from their own home or a friend's home. Seniors in high school obtain 1/3 of the alcohol they consume from home or friends' homes.
- Two-thirds of teens said alcohol is easy to get from their home.
- One third of teens surveyed said parents supplied alcohol for them to drink.

What can you do to protect yourself and your teen?

- Secure alcohol you have in your home - put a lock on the liquor cabinet or extra fridge in the garage.
- Talk to other parents— do you want someone else deciding it's okay for your child to drink? Be sure the parents of your teen's friends know where you stand.
- Refuse to supply alcohol to teens or allow drinking in your home or on your property.
- Support police efforts to break up parties and report teen parties if you suspect alcohol will be served.

In the next few months, we'll be celebrating prom and graduations. Be aware of the health risks and legal consequences of providing alcohol to youth.

"Parents Who Host, Lose The Most: Don't be a party to underage drinking"

Fall River Community and Friends:

I am very proud to announce that I was recently named to the Wisconsin Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) State Boys' Basketball All-Star Game. This is quite an achievement, as I was selected to the team from all the players in our school's state athletic division in order to participate in this State All-Star basketball game!

This All-Star game will be held on June 21, 2014 at the JustAgame Fieldhouse in Wisconsin Dells, WI. Proceeds from this game will go directly to the Midwest Athletes Against Childhood Cancer (known as the MACC Fund). This money will help in the fight against childhood cancer. All the players involved in this event need to raise money in order to participate. I am hoping you might help by contributing $1.00 in the High School office to purchase a paper basketball with your name or family's name that will be placed on a poster located in our school hallway for the remainder of the year.

It is my goal to be the leading contributor in gathering donations toward this exciting event and to show the state of Wisconsin that my hometown supports its athletes! If you would like to be an All-Star game sponsor on my behalf and help me reach my goal, please send your donation to:

LLS Hat/Sweat Pants Day

I wanted to take an opportunity to once again thank the school and community for helping in the fight against blood cancer. Your recent participation in the Hat/Sweat Pants Day sponsored by NHS is appreciated. I thank you all for your time, donations and participation. Monies raised will go towards my Woman of the Year Campaign for the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society. LLS helped save my son Austin's life by helping to fund the very clinical trial that currently has him 6 months into remission from Leukemia. All funds raised will help others like him find their cure too. Thank you for being a part of this lifesaving campaign. Someday is today for a cure!

Annual Competitions Shine Spotlight on Academic Achievements

Several annual competitions have taken place over the last month, allowing a number of Fall River students to get a look at the level of academic achievement that students at other schools have reached, and how their own efforts compare, using the standard of general knowledge in specific areas. Some of the highlights of these competitions include two individual trophies at the 7th and 8th grade Regional Math Meet, held in Juda on April 9th. The students competed in 4 individual tests including computation without calculators, computation with calculators, problem solving and mental math. There were about 70 students present. Fall River 8th grader Corrin W. earned the 3rd place trophy for overall points, and 7th grader Emma D. brought home the 4th place trophy, earning only 1 point less than teammate Corrin. Our team placed 3rd among the 9 teams competing.

The 5th and 6th grade Math Meet team came up against some really tough questions during their competition on April 2nd. They faced questions like this one in the Mental Math test " How many different ways can 5 students arrange themselves in a line?" The students had 10 seconds to respond, without using paper, pencil or calculators. The Fall River team placed 3rd out of 7 teams, with Caleb S. scoring the highest total of the local students.

The Wisconsin State National Geographic Bee was held on April 4th in Madison. The top 100 scorers on a written test are invited to the State Bee. For the 3rd time, 6th grader Josh F. faced up against Wisconsin's best geography students in grades 4 through 8. Josh went 7 rounds without missing any answers, but missed the last question, which asked for the largest city in Zimbabwe, by saying "Harabe" when the city is Harare. Congratulations on your qualification and excellent performance, Josh!

Fall River School is proud of The Math Teams and Josh for their outstanding performances in the recent competitions!

Rube Goldberg Machine Competition

The Rube Goldberg Machine competition, held at Waukesha County Technical College on March 7th, included 22 high school teams from around Southern Wisconsin. A Rube Goldberg Machine involves making an overly elaborate machine to perform an everyday, simple task. The machines were judged on a variety of characteristics, ranging from Complexity and Explanation of steps to Use of Humor and even "Rube Goldberg style steps", comparing it to the famed cartoonist and inventor for whom the machine and contest are named. In addition, points were earned, or lost, for the machine's ability to complete the task of zipping a zipper. The students involved were: Solomon B., Tim B., Cody C., Gabby C., Brian L., Thor M., Trevor M., and Zach S.

The Fall River machine flawlessly completed 3 out of 4 attempts; however one attempt had a minor but humorous error. One of the first steps involves a computer that sets off a nerf-type missile launcher. With the judges gathered around, the machine was set in motion, but vibrations from the missile launcher prematurely knocked down the paddle that the missile was supposed to hit. When the missile was fired, it soared over its intended target, and hit one of the judges. Our presenter, senior Tim B., worked the mishap into his story with a humorous remark that did Mr. Goldberg proud. Five points were deducted for "object leaving the machine". Our final score of 63 points landed our machine smack in the middle of the pack, which had a range of 29 to 92 points. This showed great improvement over last year when we placed third to last.

We are extremely proud of these students and the effort and improvement shown!

Congratulations to the Fall River Rube Goldberg Machine Team!

High School Forensics Season Finale

The high school forensics team has had a challenging and rewarding season. Team members are Katheryn H., Michelle S., Morgan H., Brian L., Janessa T., and Gabby C. (student coach). At the conference meet, Morgan H., reading from the works of Edgar Allan Poe, won the conference medal in Farrago (a combination of poetry and prose) and Brian L. won the conference medal in Poetry for his interpretation of a poem by William Blake. Students competed at two more meets to qualify for the State competition held on April 11 on the University of Wisconsin Madison campus. Our state qualifiers were Katheryn H. (Prose), Michelle S. (Prose) and Janessa T. (Four Minute Speech).

Our team would like to give sincere thanks to Mrs. Holly Tratar who helped us throughout the season and for the support our community gives forensics. We will build on the experience we gained and take care of all the good memories of spending time with friends, meeting students from other schools, and successful competitions as representatives of Fall River High School.

Nurse's Notes

Becky O'Neill, school nurse 484-3333 ext. 229 or email: oneillr@fallriver.k12.wi.us

As your child's school nurse, I want to make you aware of a medical problem that impacts schools around the country throughout the school year.

Pediculosis, or head lice, is a condition that each year affects approximately six to 12 million children between the ages of three and 12 years of age, and about one in every 100 elementary school children. Head lice are parasites that are generally found on the scalp, around the ears, and the back of the neck. The adult louse is about the size of a sesame seed, and can be reddish brown in color. Eggs, or nits, are smaller and silver in color.

Head lice are not a sign of poor hygiene and they do not transmit disease. Transmission from one child to another can occur during direct head to head contact or sharing of personal items such as combs, brushes, caps or helmets.

The most common symptom of head lice is head scratching, particularly at night, although red bite marks may also be noticed. If you suspect that your child has head lice, he or she should be examined or consulted by your health care provider for treatment options. There are many safe and effective products available, both over the counter and prescription, to treat the problem. It is important to follow the directions carefully. Parents should also wash in hot water or dry-clean all recently worn clothing, hats, used bedding and towel. Personal care items such as combs, brushes and hair clips should be washed in hot water.

My goal as school nurse is to provide you with the information you need to safeguard your child's health, and ensure that his or her education is not disrupted, but remains the most positive experience possible. We must keep the problem of head lice in perspective, as it is not a serious health problem, rather an annoying and unpleasant condition. Head lice are a problem nationwide, so we are not alone. Overreacting will not help. Parents and schools, working together, in an intelligent, open manner, always is a more effective approach. Thank you for your cooperation with this situation.

If you have any questions, you may contact me by phone or email (listed above) or call the school, at 484.3333 ext 221.
