MARY'S MESSAGE

Mary Pruess

President and GM, WNIT Public Television

WNIT Public Television is Michiana's story teller. We produce and broadcast the stories of Michiana as told by the people of Michiana. We are fully engaged with our community. In each of the following documentaries, all produced during the current calendar year, WNIT presents programs about Michiana as seen from a distinctly Michiana point of view and as seen virtually nowhere else.

When Newsweek magazine published an article which included South Bend in its list of Ten Cities "with bleak futures ahead," WNIT decided to face the issue head on. In February, we produced a one-hour, live town hall style program entitled, South Bend: Thriving or Dying? Co-hosts Gary Sieber and Kelly Morgan, along with a panel of six local experts and an audience of about 75, addressed key issues facing South Bend—schools, jobs, crime, housing, recreation and transportation. In June, WNIT produced the second in this series, Michiana: Open for Business followed by a third Town Hall program that featured Michiana's young professionals.

Our Town: Warsaw – Winona Lake built on the success of Our Town: Goshen to present the stories of Warsaw and Winona Lake as recorded by the residents of those communities. With a little training from WNIT's professional, award-winning production team, ordinary citizens became volunteer videographers. The "Our Town" series is all about these towns and the people within them who help tell the stories of what makes their corner of the world unique, including historical sites, high school hang-outs, churches, the quaint shopping districts and so many other special places known only to those who live in the area and know the true spirit of their own home town.

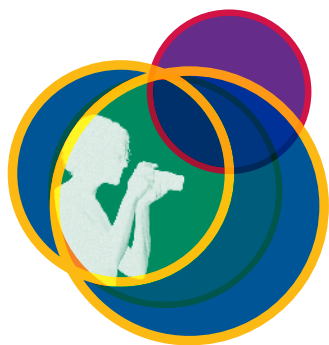

WNIT Public Television and Memorial BrainWorks sponsored a four-part series designed to look at aspects of the human brain's functioning in various stages of life, including early childhood development, the teen years, young adults and older adults. BrainGames is presented as a game show with three teams per episode competing to win. In the fourth and final program on November 17, the winners from the three previous shows will compete for top honors. A panel of experts adds commentary and insight throughout the series, co-hosted by Mark Durocher and the Director of Memorial BrainWorks, Debra Raybold.

The Power of 100: The Story of the 100 Black Men of South Bend follows the creation of the South Bend chapter of the 100 Black Men of America. Many of the children featured in the documentary are raised by single moms who do their best to provide for their children. It's an uphill battle. Drugs, gangs, bad influences, all vie for their kids' attention. That's where the "100" comes in. These stand-out citizens from South Bend range from career professionals to successful businessmen and everyday citizens who have had great successes in their lives. Many of them have also overcome the same situations as the students they mentor.

On November 3, WNIT Public Television will present the PBS special Among the Righteous followed by the local response, From Righteous to Willing: Building Bridges in Michiana, the compelling story of Jews and Muslims working together harmoniously for the greater good of all. WNIT is not only a window for Michiana to view the world, but is also a mirror for Michiana to see itself. WNIT is proud to be the Center for Public Media for 22 incredible counties in northern Indiana and southwest Michigan.

WORTH WATCHING NOVEMBER

Secrets of the Dead: Deadliest Battle

Women, War & Peace: The War We Are Living

All programs are on both 34.1 and 34.2 unless noted.

SECRETS OF THE DEAD

TUESDAYS, 8PM

“THE WORLD’S BIGGEST BOMB”

– NOVEMBER 1

Beginning in the 1950s, American and Soviet scientists engaged in a dangerous race to see who could build and detonate the world’s largest bomb. The results exceeded all expectations about how big a bomb could be built. Terrifyingly, the bomb-makers on both sides were flying blind as they pushed the technology far into unknown territory.

“DEADLIEST BATTLE”

– NOVEMBER 22

Germany’s invasion of the Soviet Union in 1941 was the largest troop offensive in military history. And the Battle of Stalingrad is arguably the deadliest single battle the world has ever seen. The battle not only changed the course of World War II, but established the Soviet Union as a superpower to be reckoned with in the long Cold War that lay ahead. More than a half-century later, the full impact of this horrific battle is revealed.

WOMEN, WAR & PEACE

TUESDAYS, 10PM

“THE WAR WE ARE LIVING”

– NOVEMBER 1

In a mountainous region in Colombia’s Pacific southwest, two extraordinary Afro-Colombian women are fighting to hold onto the gold-rich land that has sustained their community through small-scale mining for centuries. Clemencia Carabali and Francia Marquez are part of a powerful network of female leaders who discovered during Colombia’s 40-year civil war that women can organize more freely than men. As they defy paramilitary death threats and steadfastly remain on their land, Carabali and Marquez are standing up for a generation of Colombians who have been terrorized and forcibly displaced as a deliberate strategy of war.

“WAR REDEFINED” – NOVEMBER 8

Incisive interviews with leading thinkers, secretaries of state and seasoned survivors of war and peace-making challenge the conventional wisdom that war and peace are men’s domain. Their experiences reveal how the post-Cold War proliferation of small arms has changed the landscape of war, with women becoming primary targets and suffering unprecedented casualties. Simultaneously, they describe how women are emerging as necessary partners in brokering lasting peace and as leaders in forging new international laws governing conflict.

NOVA

“THE FABRIC OF THE COSMOS”

WEDNESDAYS, 9PM

“WHAT IS SPACE?” – NOVEMBER 2

From the passenger seat of a New York cab driving near the speed of light to a pool hall where billiard tables do fantastical things, Brian Greene reveals space as a dynamic fabric that can stretch, twist, warp, and ripple under the influence of gravity. Space, far from being empty, is filled with some of the deepest mysteries of our times.

“THE ILLUSION OF TIME”

– NOVEMBER 9

Brian Greene takes us on the ultimate time traveling adventure, hurtling 50 years into the future before stepping into a wormhole to travel back to the past. Along the way, he will reveal a new way of thinking about time in which moments past, present, and future — from the reign of T. Rex to the birth of your great-great-grandchildren — exist all at once.

Give Me the Banjo

America in Primetime: The Misfit

“QUANTUM LEAP” – NOVEMBER 16

Join Brian Greene on a wild ride into the weird realm of quantum physics, which governs the universe on the tiniest of scales. Greene brings quantum mechanics to life in a nightclub like no other, where objects pop in and out of existence and things over here can affect others over there, instantaneously — without anything crossing the space between them.

“UNIVERSE OR MULTIVERSE?” NOVEMBER 23

Brian Greene takes us on a tour of a brave new theory at the frontier of physics: that our universe may not be the only one. Instead, it may be just one of an infinite number of worlds that make up the multiverse. It won't be easy to prove, but if it's right, our understanding of space, time and our place in the universe will never be the same.

GIVE ME THE BANJO FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 9PM

Join narrator Steve Martin, a banjoist himself, to explore the roots of American music — the minstrel show, ragtime and early jazz, blues, old-time, folk, bluegrass and country. Presentation of PBS Arts from the Blue Ridge Mountains as part of the PBS Arts Fall Festival.

AMERICA IN PRIMETIME SUNDAYS, 8PM

Hall (“Dexter”); Shawn Ryan and Michael Chiklis (“The Shield”); and David Shore and Hugh Laurie (“House”).

Interviews include Alec Baldwin (“30 Rock”); Diablo Cody (“The United States of Tara”); Greg Daniels and Rainn Wilson (“The Office”); Larry David (“Curb Your Enthusiasm” and “Seinfeld”); Paul Feig and Judd Apatow (“Freaks and Geeks”); Mitchell Hurwitz (“Arrested Development”); Mike Judge (“Beavis and Butthead”); and Garry Shandling (“The Larry Sanders Show”).

MASTERPIECE CONTEMPORARY “PAGE EIGHT”

NATURE WEDNESDAYS, 8PM

“JUNGLE EAGLE” – NOVEMBER 9

The tables soon turn, however, as one of these massive birds starts following the team.

“MY LIFE AS A TURKEY” – NOVEMBER 16

This film chronicles Hutto’s remarkable experience of imprinting wild turkey eggs and raising the hatchlings to adulthood. Deep in the wilds of Florida, Hutto spent each day out and about as a “wild turkey” with his family of chicks — until the day came when he had to let his children grow up and go off on their own. Hutto’s story also became a book, Illumination in the Flatlands.

VIETNAM WAR STORIES THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 10 8PM InFocus 9PM WNIT

Three million Americans served in Southeast Asia during the Vietnam War. Many veterans are reluctant to speak of war experiences, but Vietnam veterans have been even more reluctant because of the controversy surrounding their war and the often hostile reception on their return. Vietnam War Stories shares these personal memories of service and sacrifice, and gives us insight into the experience of war.

POV “WHERE SOLDIERS COME FROM” THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 10

9PM InFocus
10PM WNIT

This film follows the four-year journey of childhood friends who join the National Guard after graduating from high school. As it chronicles the young men’s transformation from restless teenagers to soldiers looking for roadside bombs to 23-year-old combat veterans trying to start their lives again, the film offers an intimate look at the young Americans who fight our wars, the families and towns they come from — and the way one faraway conflict changes everything.

UNFORGETTABLE: THE KOREAN WAR MONDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 10PM

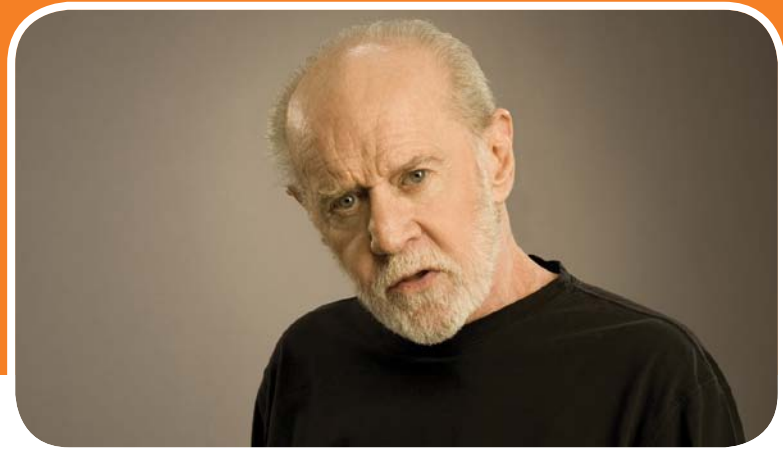

Korean War veterans recount their memories of America in the late 1940s and early 1950s, when young men from all over the country were being shipped off to defend South Korea against the advancing Red Army in the north. UNFORGETTABLE: THE KOREAN WAR recalls the “un-won” war that never ended; no one even wanted to call it a war: it was “the Korean conflict” or a “police action.” Finally, it was called the Forgotten War.

THIS IS JUST A TEST ...

On Wednesday, November 9 at 2pm ET, FEMA and the FCC will originate a National Level Emergency Alert System (EAS) test. WNIT will broadcast the message on both its channels, 34.1 and 34.2 InFocus. Again, this is a test of the National Level EAS, not a real emergency.

December 2011 Winter Membership Campaign

WNIT's Winter Membership Campaign begins Friday, December 2 and runs through Sunday, December 11. We do understand and appreciate the disappointment when your favorite programs are interrupted for a membership campaign. While we make every effort to keep interruption to regular programming to a minimum, it is an undeniable fact that a majority of new members, and a substantial portion of our annual revenue, are derived from the membership campaigns. WNIT remains committed to bringing you the best programming that television has to offer – whether it's regular or pledge programming.

So get ready to warm your spirit with an entertaining and educational line up for the entire family. And be sure to tell your family and friends why you think supporting WNIT is important. It's "Viewers Like You" who make the transition to a contributing member of WNIT who make a difference to everyone in our community.

THANK YOU for making that transition and supporting WNIT.

Celtic Woman Returns to South Bend!

WNIT is thrilled to be your source for Celtic Woman appearing at the Morris Performing Arts Center on Sunday, March 25, 2012. Your opportunity for pre-sale tickets is available only through WNIT!

PRODUCTION NEWS

From Righteous to Willing: Building Bridges in Michiana

Did any Arabs save Jews during the Holocaust? That's the question author Robert Satloff had in mind when he set out to discover the lost, true stories of survival, courage and betrayal in Arab lands during World War II. The history of the Holocaust in Europe is well-documented, but the history of what happened to the Jewish people of North Africa has been mostly forgotten, even in the very towns and cities where it occurred. The truth is remarkable: not only did Jews in Arab lands suffer many of the same elements of persecution as Jews in Europe — arrests, deportations, confiscations and forced labor — but there were also hopeful stories of “righteous” Arabs reaching out to protect them.

WNIT will broadcast Satloff's “Among the Righteous” on Thursday, November 3 at 8pm.

This will be followed at 9pm by a live, local program “From Righteous to Willing: Building Bridges in Michiana,” a discussion of the harmonious and positive relationship between Michiana Jews and Muslims.

In September 2010, members of Temple Beth El, including Rabbi Eric Siroka, extended a hand to the Islamic Society of Michiana to wish them a Happy Ramadan. The good wishes led to exchanges and invitation to visit each other's houses of worship and a bond was forged that lasts to this day.

Rabbi Eric Siroka

What made the difference? Why here in South Bend did two groups who have often opposed each other find commonality? Skepticism seems to be the rule between Muslims and Jews, yet members of the two congregations say the bonds are real and a lasting relationship can truly continue.

We will examine these issues in WNIT's From Righteous to Willing one-hour special. Guests from the Jewish Federation and Temple Beth El will come together in the Ganey Studio Complex with guests from the Islamic Federation of Michiana to discuss their relationship, their aspirations and the issues that surround Jewish and Islamic relations. Co-hosts Gary Sieber and Kelly Morgan will lead the thoughtful, energetic discussions between the guests and studio audience as we explore the uniqueness of these warm exchanges and attitudes. We'll discover why these good feelings are nurtured here in Michiana and how it can be duplicated elsewhere.

Angel Hernandez, WNIT's vice president of production says, “This program benefits our viewers by showcasing our region as a place where people strive for better understanding, hope and belief in each other.” Mary Pruess, station president and general manager adds, “We are so proud to bring this program to viewers across Michiana. We are equally proud of our Jewish and Islamic communities as well as the support from our entire region for making it possible. Without the support of our communities, we could not bring this discussion to light.”
