You do not say as much as you think and while you are thinking, you are reasoning. It follows that your judgement is worth having and people will flock to you for advice. You are a sensitive and emotional person. The hard knocks of this world have more effects on you than they have on most other people, and you lose some of the enjoyment of life in consequence. What other people say and think of you is taken by you to heart. Thus, there are a certain number of things which cause you unhappiness which, after all, are not worth troubling about. You have several excellent qualities. You are highly sympathetic, which makes you a good friend. You are loyal and patriotic and are thus a first class citizen. You are, or would be a most lovable parent. You are, or would be, everything that your partner could desire. Clearly, the good qualities of yours far outweigh the others.

Happiness And Fulfillment

You would fulfill the duties of a manager or supervisor of a large staff with courage and kindness, and people would submit to your orders willingly, knowing that they could always count on you as a friend. In quite another field you may safely rely on earning a good living. It is in the literary and artistic expression, and these single you out for an author's life. You can become an excellent actor also whether for T.V. or for films. If you take up this kind of profession, it would not be surprising that you would spend your time and money in furthering some humanitarian work.

|| Bhava Phala ||

A birth chart of a native comprises of 12 segments, each denoting the different aspects of a human life. These segments are known as houses or Bhavas. The 12 signs of the zodiac find a place in each of these 12 houses in an arranged manner. And the Lord of that particular sign becomes the house Lord of the house that it is posited in. Each House Lord residing in different houses and the impact of all the planets along with the impact of the houses defines the various shades of life the native would have to go through.

Personality, health, status

The twelfth house is a house of negation. It is a negation of all that the 1st house of self stands for in our chart. The 12th house represents losses, disappointments, detachment and dissolution. It is a house of seclusion, retreat, yoga, meditation, emancipation and liberation. From the 12th house, we can glean information about the influence of foreign elements in our lives.

The 12th house is the antithesis of all that the 1st house represents. Where the 1st house informs about self, the 12th house deals with the negation of self. The placement of lagna lord in 12th house will create difficulties for you. Your lagna lord is concerned with vitality and well-being, and the placement in 12th will result in expending of energy and health issues related to body and mind. This house deals with losses and disappointments, so you might experience a sense of loss at various levels. You may also feel detached with your own surroundings and people. Where the 1st house denotes honor and pride that boost the ego, the placement of lagna lord in 12th will result in denial of honour and appreciation leading to humiliation and ego-deflation. Continuous denial of honour to self and humiliation, with detachment, can lead to humility and self-sacrifice. As a house of self-negation and detachment, this house promotes efforts towards emancipation of the soul and liberation. Meditating in a secluded place, spiritual retreat, yogic practices and detachment from material life come naturally to you when your lagna lord is placed in the 12th house. The placement of lagna lord in 12th house may indicate moving away from your native place or place of birth or people and settling amongst foreign elements. This placement also shows that your talents and efforts would be more appreciated amongst communities and regions of foreign origin.

Wealth, family, properties

The twelfth house indicates the ease with which we tend to either lose or disassociate ourselves with money and materials. Considered as the house of loss, the house may not contribute much in terms of enabling expansion or growth of your 2nd house related matters or aspects of life. You may have trouble in accumulating material and financial resources. This could be due to your own subconscious detachment towards gathering and collection of money and material. The placement of 2nd lord in 12th also indicates the constant state of flux your family relationships would be in or it might also be a pointer towards loss or complete detachment from the original family consisting of parents and siblings. Even if you are attached with your family members, you may somehow not be there for them when they need you most or count their support when you need them most. The disconnection and detachment may be entirely out of your control or sphere of influence. You may either be very extravagant in your life or may not be very particular with your material resources. This might result in you losing your money and materials, and you may also not show much inclination in curbing your spending habits / tendencies. Though you may not really be bothered about why you are not able to gather and collect material and financial resources, you may have a subconscious fear of poverty and lack of money. You may also be slowly weaned away from your family tradition and cultural orientation. The placement of 2nd lord in 12th may also indicate family members staying far away from where you are located, and this could also contribute towards detachment and disconnection.

Siblings, courage

The presence of your 3rd lord in the 5th house acts as a stimulant for creative thought processes and intellectual expression. The 5th house deals with thinking, mental activity, and the ability for creative expression. This house relates to the active and the rational mind. The 3rd lord's placement in your 5th house can bring out the author or poet in you. Your mental capacities expand and you become capable of profound and in-depth thinking. The force of the third house influencing the 5th can enable inspirational and motivational thinking also. Your writing will be uplifting and your creative expression will have the power to heal and enlighten, since the 3rd house lord in 5th ignites the mind towards spiritual quest. Alternatively, this combination can also turn you into an ardent lover or romantic person, since the 3rd house is a house of desire and stimulation and can create yearnings in your mind. These romantic cravings find expression either as affection for a person or through creative expression in the form of prose or poetry. Under the stimulating experience of 3rd lord, the 5th house of your mind seeks fun, novelty and entertainment. This can also encourage tendencies such as voracious reading or voluminous writing in you. Or it can lead you to seek pleasure in the company of people with matching mental wavelength. These tendencies or cravings might be latent in you and will be aroused by the influence of 3rd lord's position in the 5th house. Due to the placement of 3rd lord in your 5th house, you may be a major source of inspiration for your progeny, as your child is the product of your desire for creation. Since the 3rd house is forceful in its tone, it will give aggressively augment the various significations of the 5th house.

Happiness, education, house, mother, property

The placement of 4th house lord in 6th house is slightly unfavourable for the significations pertaining to the 4th house. The 6th house is an aggressive and disruptive house. It indicates debts, disease and enemies. This combination can mean disturbance and disruption in the harmony and unity of your home. It indicates inimical relationships giving a tough time to our home and happiness, and in a way disturbing the fine fabric of stability related to home as conveyed by your 4th house lord. When your internal peace and harmony are disrupted due to the problems and difficulties indicated by the 6th house, you are no more an emotionally stable person. Your disturbed internal state of affairs does not contribute much in terms of creating a happy home or contented personality. This indicates the internal enemy, part of your unhappy self, which is not able to create a healthy home or enable 4th house significations to flourish.

Children, mind, intelligence

Any house lord placed in the 12th house from itself indicates loss of significations for that particular house. With your 5th lord in the 4th house, your intellectual capacities do not reach their full potential. Matters pertaining to your 4th house will somehow restrict the flow of your creativity and thought processes. It may be that you had impediments in your academic life due to the inability of your home to provide material resources for your education. It can mean that you could not complete your education due to your attention needed at home, may be to attend to ailing mother. You may have had disruptions in your education due to constant change in residence or relocation. It can also mean that your home environment did not allow expansion of your intelligence and so your scholastic life was minimal or cut-short. This placement can also convey your lack of interest in pursuing academics actively due to your preoccupation with home and related matters. It is possible that your talents and versatility remained unutilized and hidden due to insufficient support and encouragement from home and its members. Or it can also mean that you could not pursue higher education due to the fact that joining a job and earning money was essential for the smooth running of your home and survival of its members. Since the 5th house is also related to your progeny, it is highly possible that you were denied the chance to become a parent due to your deep involvement and engagement with home, mother or related affairs

Diseases, debt, enemies

The 4th house is our private world. It represents your home, happiness, mother and related factors. When the disruptive force represented by the 6th lord influences your 4th house of internal stability, peace and quiet, you experience conflict and confrontation. This conflict can be in the form of dispute at home, which will be a perennial future, or disturbed state of your nature. Even if you take great pains to resolve it, the 6th lord's presence here can not give you harmonious home and bliss within. You will constantly experience some external tussle or internal struggle which will keep you dissatisfied and unhappy. The 6th house of competition entering your 4th house means that you will always be entangled in comparison and create unhappiness for you and your family members. This position indicates conflict with your mother over multiple issues. The 6th lord's presence here will not let you settle within yourself. There will be a compulsion to compete and compare with your own home people and members, which will make you restless, angry and unsettled. But because your 6th lord has gone to a 11th position from its own house, your aggressive behaviour at home can get you material benefits, but can never guarantee happiness or peace. This position also indicates unnecessary spending on the maintenance of your residence or vehicles. In some way or the other this position conveys increased material expenditure at the home front or on home members. This position also shows the legal problems you may have due to property related disputes. Your enemies or your ill-health or your debt situation will never let you enjoy the happiness offered by your home. If not an external enemy, your own nature engaged in competition and comparison will destroy your happiness

Marriage, partner

The 10th house indicates your efforts and initiative to explore the impersonal world of professions and carve a personal identity for yourself. The 7th house indicates the efforts you initiate in forming intimate relationships that complement your personal identity. The placement of your 7th lord in 10th house augurs well for both your 7th and 10th houses. The 7th house operates under the impulse of desire and the 10th house is oriented towards enhancement of material wealth, social status and public recognition. When your 7th lord is posited in your 10th house, a well-coordinated mechanism is in place enabling profitable business. Your business partners contribute positively to your occupational endeavours and professional vision. You will witness noticeable changes in your efficiency, visibility and success. This combination indicates the heights you can scale in your professional arena, and bestows enhanced social position and augmented financial resources. It is also possible that your marital partner is associated in some way with your professional life. It indicates increase in social stature for you after the arrival of your marital partner. It also implies that your spouse may contribute to your business expansion activities. Your spouse may also enjoy own popularity and high social status. It is highly possible that your spouse may also be having own flourishing career. This placement promises continuous growth and development in your professional field. It also guarantees fulfilment of career potential and aspiration. Since this is a combination of two angular 'kendra' houses in your chart, this confers a commanding personality, comfortable lifestyle, prestigious professional life and enhanced popularity.

Longevity, danger, difficulties

The 4th and 8th houses are internally oriented to the 'enlightenment impulse', and are part of the Moksha triad. The 4th house informs about our internal search or inclination to go inward into one's own personal recesses. The 8th house also shows our involvement deep within, but after our engagements with the external world suffers abrupt disruption. When your 8th lord is placed in the 4th house, it goes to the 9th from its own house. This indicates good fortune for significations pertaining to the 8th house. Since the 8th house is a disruptive and difficult house, it first destroys the material aspects connected to the 4th house, and then prompts you towards spiritual seeking. This combination indicates untoward incidents happening in your home, resulting in loss of peace or bliss. It shows disruption in your happiness. The presence of 8th lord in 4th implies bad tidings for your mother. It can either result in health-related afflictions to your mother or it can lead to unhappy relations between you and your mother. It indicates sudden and unexpected tragedy afflicting your residence or vehicle, your modes of happiness and pleasure. This position of 8th lord shows unexpected damage to your assets, which can induce a feeling of tragedy in you. The 8th lord here deliberately annihilates the material aspects of your life which give you happiness and fulfilment, and thereby inducing restlessness and despondency within you. It then prepares you internally for deep involvement and engagement within yourself through various meditational practices. The placement of 8th lord in the 4th can drastically alter your channels of seeking happiness for self.

Luck, father, inheritance etc.

The 4th house is pertains to our emotional world and revolves around our home, mother and other people associated with home. The 9th house is our window to the intellectual world of higher learning, awareness and knowledge and indicates one's father, elders, mentors, teachers, guides and institutions of learning. In the 4th house, you feel and absorb various experiences. In the 9th house, you reflect and assimilate various facts. The 4th house enables journeying within for knowledge about yourself. The 9th house facilitates explorations and widening of mental and intellectual horizons. Both houses deal with power - the 4th informs about internal power that comes with deep meditation and the 9th indicates power of learning and cultivation of goodness in attracting divine grace. When your 9th lord is placed in the 4th house, it goes to the 8th from its own house. This indicates transformation in the 9th lord while under influence of the 4th house. As a house of 'Dharma', your 9th house promotes strict judgements and a 'no-compromise' attitude towards traditional mores and social codes. In the 4th house which considers everyone and everything with a compassionate lens, your 9th lord is transformed into a 'considerate judge' and takes pains to balance 'righteous thinking and kindness.' It is possible that your religious and cultural perspectives may be softly coloured with flexibility and openness towards change. You may lean heavily in favour of traditions and culture practices followed by your matrilineal family. This also indicates the dominant role played by your mother. It also indicates transformation of your good fortune in favour of your home and members, so that the 4th house matters thrive well.

Profession

The 4th and the 10th houses have been allotted diametrically opposite portfolios. The orientation and interests are also different. While the 4th house deals with your personal world of home, happiness, mother and material assets, the 10th house is chiefly concerned with professional aspirations and ambition pertaining to success in the world outside. The 4th house is coloured with your emotions, whereas the 10th house is very impersonal in nature. When your 10th lord occupies your 4th house, it is placed in the 7th house from its own. This indicates that your home becomes a chief base from where your professional activities are carried out. It implies the connection between your personal and professional world. You may feel comfortable operating from your home. It is possible that you may have an office set-up at home. It can even mean that you may be associated with your home members in your professional life. Chances of you partnering with your mother or any home members in business ventures are also indicated. It is highly possible that your professional outlook may be influenced by your 4th house significations. You may be more emotional in your work life and may prefer a personal touch in your professional dealings. It can even mean that you may be exhibiting comparatively low ambition or competitiveness in your professional perspective. This combination also indicates that you may be working as a freelancer or having your own home-based consultancy. This placement also denotes your professional involvement in real estate either as a dealer or agent in property, or as a sales or marketing professional in construction/building industry.

Income, gain

The 6th house is a difficult house and informs your debts, disease and enemies. But it is a house that teaches you resilience and tenacity during rough weather and tough times. The 11th house is a house of indulgence, gain, plenty and monetary well-being. It creates comfort zones and can induce you to take things for granted. Your 11th house facilitates things for you, whereas your 6th house creates challenges for you. When your 11th lord occupies your 6th house, it goes to the 8th from its own house. The 11th house significations will need to undergo transformation or mutation under the influence of the 6th house. Your opulent and carefree lifestyle may result in grave health issues. It is possible that your indulgence may land you in deep debt crisis. Your affluence and strong status may be responsible for creating inimical relationships in your life. This placement poses monetary challenges and may drain your resources. Continued inattention to your health and fitness, besides causing health hazards, may also question your financial management skills. It is highly possible that you may find yourself in dire financial straits. The 6th house pressure may impact your social position too, and can lead towards shrinking of your social circle and friendship. It is possible that you will be so preoccupied with your problems that you will not have time or money for socializing or entertainment purposes. Or it can even indicate that your acquaintances or friends may avoid you and your company, seeing you surrounded by difficulties or troubles. Since the 11th lord represents siblings, this combination may create misunderstanding and power struggle between you and your elder siblings.

Expenditure, moksha

The 5th house informs about your mental capacities and academic abilities. The 12th house indicates dissolution of all acquired knowledge and intelligence. The 5th house engages in thinking, analysis, rationalization and creation. In the 12th house, there is total surrender to a higher source of wisdom. Your 12th lord's placement in the 5th house indicates that the 12th lord has gone to the 6th from own house. This placement indicates a struggle between the rational mind which insists on reasoning and logic, and the self which has gone beyond questions and answers. The 12th lord accepts and believes, whereas the 5th house prods and ponders. The 12th house is detached in its outlook, while the 5th house conducts a rigorous examination of things and people. Though this combination will create initial difficulties, your 5th house will undergo major transformation while struggling to decipher the mystery of the 12th lord. The ease with which the 12th house accepts the 'sense of loss' with detached outlook is difficult for the 5th house which signifies your 'intellectual pride.' Under the influence of the 12th lord, the 5th house representing the mind learns to understand that life is a mixture of gray and not to be viewed in simple 'black' and 'white' frameworks. Since the 12th lord is disruptive in nature, your academic or educational life may be disturbed or face unexpected troubles. It is possible that you may 'neglect' your scholastic goals, resulting in your poor performance. It can even mean that you may be detached and not very rigid in your thinking. Your procreative abilities may also suffer, and you may either choose not to have progeny or this signification of the 5th house will be denied to you.

|| Shadbala and Bhavabala – Strength Calculations ||

Shadbala is a method in Vedic astrology that gives quick insight in the strength of planets and the houses. Sanskrit means 'Six' and hence Shadbala consists of 6 different sources of strength. Shadbala calculation is a laborious process but thanks to computers one can get these strength calculations by just one mouse click. Shadbala method gives a value to each planet and each house. The more points a planet and a house gets in Shadbala the stronger it is.
