

BY THE NUMBERS

LAST GAME... The Winterhawks overcame a 3-0 deficit after 20 minutes of hockey last Friday and surged back to beat the Everett Silvertips 4-3 on the road in a shootout. Cross Hanas led all skaters on the ice with a power play goal and two assists plus the lone goal in the best-of-three shootout round. Clay Hanus and Tyson Kozak also recorded multiple point games (G-A) in the win and Dante Giannuzzi stopped a season-high 36 shots to earn his 20th career win. Both teams scored twice on the power play and the 'Tips stormed to a 3-0 lead after out shooting the 'Hawks 15-to-1 in the opening period. Portland was the first team to hand Everett a loss this season.

GAME DAY NOTABLES... Portland is in the midst of its season-long, six-game road trip, and for the first time in 634 games, the 'Hawks are playing a Canadian opponent. Since it's been so long and numerous players have since graduated from the WHL, Jaydon Dureau, Cross Hanas, Clay Hanus and Kade Nolan are the only four active Winterhawks to have scored against Kamloops.

WESTERN HOCKEY LEAGUE PLAYERS TO WATCH

#18 | TYSON KOZAK

After a slow offensive start to the season, Kozak has gotten hot with five points (3G-2A) in his last two games and is winning nearly 55% of his draws this season. The Buffalo Sabres prospect is four games shy of 100 with the Winterhawks and four points shy of 50. He has already matched his goal total from the shortened COVID-19 season and he will be one to watch at center tonight against a talented Kamloops lineup.

#19 | CAEDAN BANKIER

Entering the game on an eight-game point streak, the third-round selection (#86 overall) of the Minnesota Wild will be one to watch on Wednesday. The Blazers power play has been one of the best in the WHL and Bankier is a major reason why, scoring five of his seven goals on the man advantage. The former Burnaby Winter Club standout is on pace to set new career highs in goals and points before the holidays.

NEWS AND NOTES

DUREAU RETURNS... The Winterhawks shared Tuesday that the club's leading scorer from the 2020-21 season is returning to the Rose City. The Syracuse Crunch released forward Jaydon Dureau from his ATO, re-assigned him to Portland, and he met his team on the road prior to the game against Kamloops. The White City, Sask. native appeared in three AHL games to start the season with the Crunch, scoring his first professional goal. Through 158 WHL games, he has produced impressive numbers (30G-89A-130PTS) and will immediately help the Winterhawks in their quest to win a Division Title. As the fourth 20-year-old on Portland's roster, the Winterhawks have two weeks to make an additional roster move to get down to three overage skaters.

MILESTONE NIGHT FOR HANUS... Winterhawks defenseman Clay Hanus is expected to play in his 200th career WHL game tonight, becoming the 14th American-born Winterhawk to reach that milestone during his time with Portland. Fitting he reaches this milestone in Kamloops at the same arena he scored his first WHL goal. Hanus currently leads the Winterhawks defense in scoring and through 199 games, he has scored 22 goals and 53 assists for 75 points. When he scored in the team's opening night contest on October 1, Hanus became the 25th D-Man in Winterhawks history to reach 20 career goals, passing Caleb Jones and Henri Jokiharju.

JARVIS DEBUTS IN CAROLINA... On October 31, Seth Jarvis played his first National Hockey League game with the Carolina Hurricanes, becoming the 130th Winterhawk all-time to play a game in the NHL. He recorded his first assist on the eventual game-winning, power play goal as the Hurricanes beat the Arizona Coyotes 2-1 to remain perfect on the season. Jarvis also blocked a shot, played key power play minutes and had 10:01 total time on ice. The former first-round draft selection (#13 overall) of the Hurricanes made his debut at PNC Arena in front of his mom Tracey, dad Ray, brother Kayden and his Portland billet family.

PORTLAND WINTERHAWKS HOCKEY

PORTLAND AT KAMLOOPS | NOVEMBER 3, 2021 | 7:00 P.M. PT | SANDMAN CENTRE | GAME #11 OF 68

CENTRAL SCOUTING... Three Winterhawks were recognized by NHL's Central Scouting preliminary 'Players to Watch' List ahead of the 2022 NHL Draft. Forward Marcus Nguyen and defensemen Ryder Thompson and Marek Alscher were all listed as C-rated prospects, which projects them as fourth-, fifth-, or sixth-round selections.

Alscher, originally selected by the Winterhawks with the 26th pick in the 2021 CHL Import Draft, scored his first WHL goal, a game-winning goal, on October 16th. He comes to Portland after a strong season with the Pelicans U18 program in Finland where he posted 14 points in 27 games. The Kladno, Czech Republic native also recently competed for his country at the Hlinka Gretzky Cup.

Nguyen led the Winterhawks with four goals during preseason play, scoring in all four contests, and he's carried that momentum into the regular season, recording points in three straight contests in October. Thompson rounds out the bunch and is a reliable two-way defenseman. When the list came out, the Russell, Man. native had three assists in six games.

PORTLAND TO THE PROS... The Portland Winterhawks continue to produce NHL-ready players at an incredible rate. Fifteen Winterhawks were named on NHL Opening Night rosters, which is the second most among WHL programs. Another dozen or so former Winterhawks are named on American Hockey League opening night rosters so it's safe to say there is plenty of pro talent coming from the Rose City. Should be a great season keeping tabs on the Hawks in the Show.

BUFFALO: Henri Jokiharju	EDMONTON: Colton Sceviour	NEW YORK: Kieffer Bellows
CAROLINA: Seth Jarvis, Nino Niederreiter	FLORIDA: Johnny Ludvig	SAN JOSE: Adin Hill
CHICAGO: Caleb Jones, Seth Jones	MINNESOTA: Matt Dumba	VANCOUVER: Nic Petan
COLUMBUS: Oliver Bjorkstrand	NASHVILLE: Cody Glass and Ryan Johansen	WASHINGTON: Dennis Cholowski

CLOSING IN ON 1000... After three straight wins in October, the Winterhawks currently sit at 999 all-time victories on home ice. The Hawks have a chance to get to 1,000 home wins on November 16th. The club's best statistical season in terms of home record was in 1985-86 when the Hawks went 32-3-1. Portland's reached 30+ home wins nine times in franchise history, most recently during the 2011-12 season.

CHL TOP TEN... Three times the Winterhawks were ranked in the CHL Top Ten this season. The rankings are determined by a group of NHL Executives and four WHL teams were recognized last week: the Winnipeg ICE (2), the Edmonton Oil Kings (3), the Kamloops Blazers (5), and the Everett Silvertips (6).

LET'S GO CAMPING... Fourteen current and former Winterhawks were invited to NHL Development Camps in September, headlined by Carolina Hurricanes 2020 first round draft pick Seth Jarvis.

ARIZONA: Gabe Klassen, James Stefan	DETROIT: Cross Hanas	PITTSBURGH: Ryan McCleary
BUFFALO: Clay Hanus, Tyson Kozak	FLORIDA: Johnny Ludvig	SAN JOSE: Nick Cicek
CAROLINA: Seth Jarvis	NASHVILLE: Simon Knak	ST. LOUIS: Joel Hofer
COLORADO: Jack O'Brien	NEW YORK: Reece Newkirk	TAMPA BAY: Jaydon Dureau

A NEW SEASON WITH A WINNING TRADITION... Due to last season's abbreviated 24-game schedule, the Portland Winterhawks still enter the new campaign as 'reigning' 2019-20 WHL Scotty Munro Champions after finishing with a 45-11-3-4 record. That year's team cemented themselves in history becoming the fourth fastest Winterhawks team to reach 40 wins (55 games... 50 games was the fastest ever in 1997-98 and 2012-13).

The Winterhawks, who are on a quest for another championship, return 19 skaters from last year's end of season line-up. Two rostered players currently absent are first-round NHL Draft selection Seth Jarvis, who is currently skating with the Carolina Hurricanes, and Reece Newkirk, who is playing with Bridgeport in the AHL.

*ALL TIMES

BACK-TO-BACK IN THE NHL DRAFT... Two Portland Winterhawks went in consecutive picks during this summer's NHL Draft, as Tyson Kozak and Ryan McCleary went first and second, respectively, in the seventh round. Kozak, who was selected by Buffalo, will attempt to put together a full season in Portland after missing several games due to injury last season. Known for his responsible play in all three zones, Kozak can be found playing center and relied upon in almost all situations. McCleary was picked by the Pittsburgh Penguins after an outstanding rookie year in the Rose City, leading all first-year Hawks with seven points during the shortened season. The right-handed blueliner showed a knack for jumping into the play, letting his offensive prowess shine more and more as the season went on.

It is the fourth time a pair of Winterhawk teammates have gone back-to-back in the NHL Draft, most recently Ryan Johansen (4th) and Nino Niederreiter (5th) in 2010. The Hawks have now helped 145 players get drafted, a WHL high, since relocating to Portland in 1976.

SENSATIONAL SETH... Barring any unforeseen circumstances, the 2021-22 WHL season will likely be the final in Portland for forward Seth Jarvis. The 2020 first-round selection (#13 overall) of the NHL's Carolina Hurricanes, Jarvis has more than displayed he is ready for the next level. Before the previous season commenced in March, Jarvis led the American Hockey League in scoring, totaling 11 points in nine games for the Chicago Wolves. Due to the NHL-CHL Player Agreement, Jarvis was obligated to play in Portland for the 24-game campaign, netting 27 points in 24 games. This season he participated in the Hurricanes Prospect Tournament, producing a game in which he scored twice, and made his NHL preseason debut on October 1, leading all skaters with six shots on goal. The Winnipeg, Man. native is currently with the Carolina Hurricanes and he became the 130th Winterhawk to play in The Show when he made his debut on October 31. During Jarvis' NHL Draft year, the Winterhawk forward finished second in the WHL in league scoring with 98 points (42G-56A) in 58 games and he still averages more than a point-per-game in his WHL career.

VETERAN GROUP... After sending four signed 2005-born prospects to Canadian clubs after preseason play, the Winterhawks officially enter the season without a full-time 16-year-old on their roster. According to team historian and broadcaster Andy Kemper, only three times in team history has a 16-year-old skater not played in at least ten games in Portland. The most recent occurrence came in 1988-1989 when Vince Cocciolo appeared in ten contests. Only then in 1977-1978 with Dave Babych (six) and 1976-1977 with Jay McFarlane (three) did this happen.

NGUYEN LIGHTS THE LAMP... The second-year Winterhawk potted four goals in four preseason games, scoring against each U.S. Division opponent. Pretty impressive stuff from the Calgary, Alta. native. Per Winterhawks historian Andy Kemper, Nguyen became the fourth Winterhawk to average a goal-per-game production in the preseason over the last ten years, joining Oliver Bjorkstrand (2011, 2012, 2014), Chase De Leo (2013), and Nic Petan (2013). Those three combined for 364 WHL goals while playing in Portland.

FAMILY TIES... Rookie forward Kyle Chyzowski comes from a lineage of hockey players. The Chyzowskis have been in the hockey scene for a couple of decades. His father Barry and uncles Dave and Ron Chyzowski all played for the St. Albert Saints of the Alberta Junior Hockey League. All three would go on to have healthy hockey careers and now Kyle, the next of the second generation, is set to join cousins Nick (Kamloops, 2013 - 2018) and Ryan Chyzowski (Medicine Hat, 2016 - 2021) in having an impact on the Western Hockey League. Both of his cousins have worn a letter during their time in the WHL. Kyle was drafted in the 3rd round, 58th overall, by the Winterhawks in the 2019 WHL Bantam Draft.

Defenseman Ryan McCleary also comes from a hockey family. His father Trent won a Memorial Cup in 1989 with the Swift Current Broncos and he played in the Mem Cup again during the 1992-93 season during his final year in juniors. He went on to play 192 career NHL games with the Ottawa Senators, Boston Bruins and Montreal Canadiens and 159 games in the AHL/IHL. Ryan's sister Maddy is also playing USports Hockey at St. Mary's University.

MILESTONES

Tonight, fifth-year defenseman Clay Hanus plays in his 200th career WHL game, all with the Winterhawks. He will be the 26th defenseman and 14th American born Winterhawk to reach that milestone in his Portland career.

Tyson Kozak is four games away from 100 in his WHL career.

Robbie Fromm-Delorme is one assist shy of 50 and five games short of 150 in his WHL career.
