Testimonials

"NISPANA delivered a professional and highly successful 2nd Annual Summit in Offshore Oil and Gas Security. I take the opportunity to express my deep appreciation for the efficiency and humility with which you facilitated my participation as a Speaker and seamlessly coordinated the Summit. I look forward to a further collaboration with you in the future. Congratulations to you and the entire NISPANA team."

- Magnus Addico, President, African Maritime Policy Advisory Center (AMPAC) & Secretary General MOWCA (Rt)

"It was a very good experience and an eye opener. Knowledge wise it was amazing about the Nigeria Delta security."

- Yvonne Aderonke Davies, Manager, Subweld Engineering Nigeria Limited

"The conference was good. We were able to network and meet a lot of people from the industry and we were better educated about the marine industry. The problems in the niger delta were discussed in broader aspect. Next time we should involve other stake holders like the Army and the airforce. Immigration and Customs."

- Patrick Agunpopo, Managing Director, Pamvaj Limited

"The conference was good. We were able to have access to Decision makers and networking during lunch and coffee break added value to our Organisation."

- Ada Ukachukwu, Business Development Analyst, Portplus Limited

"As per the speakers, I will commend your efforts in gathering the arrays of speakers with field experience. Above all, I am satisfied with learnings during the summit. I have also met new faces as part of my network and relationship."

- OYET Gogomary, Head of EHSSQ, Oando Plc

"I was at this seminar. It was a very interesting and interactive seminar that successfully emphasized the challenges and prospects of offshore security in Oil & Gas Africa. I look forward to another year of such professional gathering."

- Latifat Ogunmilua, Security Operative, Shell Nigeria Exploration and Production Company

"The 2nd annual Offshore Security Oil and Gas summit was a wonderful achievement and experience to me and I believe to the nation building. It was very educative, much practical in nature from well experience resource personals. The summit networking is another opportunity that is second to none. Looking forward to another educative programs of such from your organization."

- Saleh A. Aliyu, Chief Security Officer, Midwestern Oil & Gas Co Ltd, Kwale

Testimonials

"I congratulate Nispana for successfully hosting the 2nd Annual Offshore Security in Oil & Gas Africa in Lagos. Securing Africa's offshore frontiers is critical for the region's fast-growing oil and gas industry.The event presented a veritable platform to discuss one of the most troubling security challenges in our contemporary history.I enjoyed all the presentations and addresses and look forward to attending the next edition. It is a worthy cause for which I pledge my full support and urge relevant authorities and institutions in the region to offer their backing as well."

- Gilbert Aboagye Da Costa, Publisher/Editor-in-Chief, Offshore Ghana oil & gas magazine

"This Summit was an eye opener to many attendees including me, revealing how Nigeria is loosing a lot in the maritime sector of the economy. Of which if properly harness with serious collaboration among the key players and security the Country stand to gain more. It will even create employment for our teaming youths. I shall be grateful if the communique of the summit is made available to Nigerian Government to study and implement. We were very happy to be part of the Summit with great knowledge gained. Once again thank you for organizing this summit."

- Chief Dr. John Ekere Etim, President Ikot Ekpene Chamber of Commerce and industry, Mines & Agriculture

"The summit was a success from my own point of view because the organizers packaged it with the right set of resource persons who were able to identify key issues and points that contribute greatly to the issue of security as relates to Nigeria and Ghana Territorial Waters and the Gulf of Guinea at large. I went home with the understanding that there is a need to strengthen and synergies bilateral partnerships with other nations to combat the issues of pirate as relates to our territorial water to encourage more investment opportunities. Also, private security organizations should involve & to work greatly with Government Agencies who have the statutorily responsibility in ensuring the safety of life and assets of investors around the nations territorial waters."

- Jombo Boloubo, Marine Environment Management Officer, NIMASA

"The workshop was a success in my view as a first-timer. Quality presentations were made and challenges confronting offshore security were thrown up and I am sure well documented.Overall, the workshop to me was a success."

- Mbaka Dum, General Manager, Vettal Mega Services Ltd

"We wish to thank the organizers on behalf of the management and staff of Truth Key Nigeria Ltd.The conference was enriching and as well as an enlightment as we derived a lot of insight on the challenges and benefits in the oil and gas sector .The conference was also an eye opener, as we were introduced to new innovations and modern security apparatus in the oil and gas sector. We pray there will be continuity in the annual event as we look forward to participate in your future offshore security in oil and gas in Africa events."

- Prince Ayodele Joseph Adepitan, MD/CEO, Truth Key Nigeria Ltd
