July 7, 2019 – Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading: Isaiah 66:10-14c

The poet constantly cries out “Rejoice!” over the new Jerusalem. He tells Israel that God’s children will nurse at the breast of this same city, which is an image of peace and contentment.

Second Reading: Galatians 6:14-18

Paul declares that he will never boast except in the cross of Our Lord Jesus Christ. The only thing that matters is a new creation. He wants peaceful relations with the Galatians.

Gospel: Luke 10:1-12, 17-20; or 10:1-9

Luke bases the universal mission of the Church in the ministry of Jesus. The disciples go out in pairs for their mutual support and witness. Jesus later tempers the great enthusiasm of the disciples as they return to Him with all the good things they were able to do.

Reflection:

A key theme of today's Gospel and last Sunday's Gospel is discipleship—its challenges, its difficulties, and its rewards. Sharing in the mission of Jesus is difficult, but everyone is called to do it, not just some professionals trained for ministry. Even for us today, the harvest is plentiful. We should pray to the master of the harvest to send out workers for his harvest.

So we ask ourselves:

- How do you share in the mission of Christ?
- What helps you have the strength to stay loyal to Christ?

PONTIFICAL MISSION SOCIETIES
EXTRAORDINARY YEAR OF MISSION
OCTOBER 2018-2019

Mission Story

from the Pontifical Mission Societies:

In the Catholic Diocese of Moroto in Kampala, Uganda, Bishop Damiano Guzzetti requests for Mass intentions to help his poor parish communities. Priests often travel more than 25 miles to say Mass, which is very expensive, as fuel for motor bikes is regulated by the government. For the priests serving in this remote and challenging Mission area, bringing the "Good News" of Jesus is difficult, and Mass intentions are extremely necessary and used to help the people they serve.

Celebrate Masses for your Loved Ones for All Occasions

So often we think Masses can be celebrated only for the deceased, but they may be offered for healing, good health, birthdays, and anniversaries or simply to express thanks and praise to God for a loved one. A Mission priest will celebrate Mass for you, a friend or family member, living or deceased. Your Mass Offering is a special help to a Mission priest, poor himself and serving among the poorest of poor where most families are living on just $2 a week.
