BUSY BEARS QUILT GUILD - MAY 2014

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Happy Mother's Day to all of our mothers! We got our snow a few days early. Let's hope that was the finale for the s _ _ _ word. My daffodils are still standing as are my tulips. The lilacs are in bloom as well! What a lovely fragrance! We just have to look to nature for our inspiration! The various color values, textures, sizes of flowers and vegetation are right outside waiting for us to take notice! We have 3 months until the BIG reveal of the 2014 Quilt Challenge in August! Will yours be ready?

Take a hike, get inspired. It's all in our own big backyard!

Oops! I'm being a rambling rose and forgot to mention our Annual Picnic in July. It will be a potluck at Sugarloaf Park. All the tables are under a roof! We will play a game exchanging our seasonal potholders wrapped in a fat-quarter! Last year was so much fun and you make new friends, not to mention root bear floats for desert. Mary Price is doing an outstanding job planning and chairing this event! Speaking of events, please sign one of the sign-up sheets for marketing our "Wilderness Splendor" Opportunity Quilt! I would like to see more names on these!!!

The 2015 Program planning will begin soon. Let Lorraine know what kind of workshops you would like to ATTEND! You don't have to buy new fabric. We have a bargain table for you so SHOP SHOP SHOP!

Laurie Nahay/President

2014 PROGRAMS AND WORKSHOPS

I heard from many of you about how much you enjoyed our April sharing program. Thank you to each of you who were willing to share some very touching stories. I think this evening showed us how connected we are to our family and friends by our quilts and our creativity. We have some fun programs and workshops coming up in the next couple of months.

MAY PROGRAM: “How to show depth and create 3 dimensional space in quilts” presented by Phyllis Binkley. Phyllis is a retired art teacher and has enjoyed working on her Art quilts, especially landscapes. She will share her ideas with us during her lecture so join us to learn something new.

MAY WORKSHOP: “Thread painting 101” - After Phyllis’s presentation, this workshop will give you the opportunity to learn how to create these masterpieces. There is still space available in the class so if you are interested, contact me to sign up and get the supply list. She provides a kit of some of the needed supplies for a cost of $15. There are several people that have taken Phyllis’ class and enjoyed it so much that they wanted us to bring her here for a workshop.

JUNE PROGRAM: Linda Schmidt will present her trunk show “Quilts and Garments” Linda will show her creations sharing Artistic Techniques, artistry and poetic.

JUNE WORKSHOP: “Creating Cool Stuff”—come and learn all kinds of techniques to create cool stuff - waterfalls, fire, trees, clouds, streams and abstract art. You will be using all types of mediums so come join the fun. Be sure to sign up for this fun class. There is a $20 kit fee for this workshop.

JULY PROGRAM: Will be a presentation by “The Batty Lady”. Alicia Campbell (her real name) will talk to us about the pros and cons of batting. She will also be bringing her store, so you don’t have to wait until the quilt show.

JULY WORKSHOP: will actually be our Annual Picnic - It will be a potluck and will be held at Sugar Loaf Park. Mark your calendars. See article below for info!

Learning workshops are $20 for members—$35 for non-members. Fee is due when you sign up.
Supply list provided.

If you have any questions or need to reach me, give me a call on my cell (562)208-7406 or email me at Lorraine@inspirationsatbigbear.com.

ANNUAL BBQ PICNIC

Hi Guys, just a reminder about our Fabulous 2nd Annual BBQG Picnic. It will be Tuesday, July 22nd at the park in Sugarloaf right behind the Fire Station. It’ll be lots of fun. It’s a Potluck so you know there will be lots of good food and the guild will be providing root beer floats for desert.

We will have a game and as a part of the game, everybody needs to bring a handmade “seasonal” pot holder wrapped in a fat quarter. Remember, you don’t have to make the pot holder yourself, but it must be handmade by someone.

It will be a great time. Good friends, good food and good times.

How can we go wrong?

See y’all there!

Mary Price

2014 OPPORTUNITY QUILT
MARKETING

The tickets are printed and the envelopes for the Guild are ready to be distributed. During the meeting, I will be at a table with them so please come and see me to Get Your Tickets. You paid for them, so please come get them.

As for Marketing, I need help. We will still be showing our quilt Memorial weekend 5/24 at Wendy's Shop; June 7th for wine walk also Cowboy gathering June 20-22 & Chili Cook off July 12th. A sign up sheet will be with me at the meeting. Ladies, this needs to be a joint effort of the guild. Thank you for signing up.

BASKETS FOR SHOW

We need to start thinking about what each mini group will be doing for the show. If you have already decided, please email me or give me a call so we can get started on these. If your small group is one of the larger ones, we are asking you to make 2 baskets. Remember that we are doing a FAT QUARTER basket again and you can start bringing in those fat quarters now. Give them to Carol Henderson. If you know of a local business that would be willing to donate a gift or gift certificate, please contact them and make arrangements to get that gift so we won't have to do that at the last minute

Our baskets are always so AMAZING because we have all of you helping to make it happen.

Thanks in advance for all that you do.

2015 OPPORTUNITY QUILT

Next meeting is at Jacque's and Kay's on Wed. June 18th at 10.00. The quilt is coming along very nicely thanks to many talented quilters. The Quilt Show meeting will follow.

BLOCK OF THE MONTH

A big Thank You to Ina Niday for printing our instructions in color! Also want to thank Bonnie Snell for donating her blocks to our Wounded Warriors project.

This month's Disappearing Nine-Patch block is soooo quick and easy. Why not make one real quick to add to our Wounded Warriors or Comfort Quilt projects It is really simple!

Our other block for this month, the Four-Patch Star, isn't quite as easy, but it is much easier than it looks. So give it a try, too....Okay?

If you need instructions or have questions, just call or email me.

FRIENDSHIP GROUP REPORTS

Most groups' members take turns acting as host each month. Oftentimes, groups go on road trips to explore new fabric stores, meet for lunch or attend a workshop or demonstration. All groups are casual, with members' skills from beginner to novice.

Bonnie Snell

CUT-UPS—Our April meeting was at my house, we did a lot of planning for our group (flag) quilt. Janet finished her face & many others were almost done. Not me! Next meeting us at Ruth Beatte's on May 14th..visitors welcome. Call Ruth 866-3353

Fran Martin

SEW-N-HEARTS—The Sew-n-hearts group met for April at Carol Henderson's home on May 2 and we had a great time visiting. We will meet again on May 30 at 10 am at Jeanne Wallace's. Any one who would like to join with us is more than welcome!

Carol Henderson

STITCHY FINGERS— Our April get-togethers were hosted by two of Stitchy Fingers' newer members: Jan Jamriska and Lori Felber. 2014 QUILT SHOW

At the last committee meeting, we continued to plan more details about our upcoming show, including the need for 1000 more flyers. The award ribbons have been ordered and the table rental has been made.

It appears that this year's show is going to be another big success. Next month we will have another meeting on June 18th at 10am at Jacqué & Kay's to continue finalizing many of the details .

QUILT SHOW BOUTIQUE

Hi ladies, hope you are all thinking about making craft items and quilts to sell at the Quilt Show Boutique in August. Our boutique space is nearly quadrupled this year, so there is lots of opportunity to help the guild while making some $$$ for ourselves.

A work day will be scheduled shortly for those who wish to participate in making craft items for the boutique. If you have any suggestions for craft items, please bring a sample, pattern & instructions to the next guild meeting. Please contact me if you have any questions. Let's get busy and make this the most profitable boutique yet.
