BOUDDI NATIONAL PARK

Pretty Beach House is the epitome of laidback luxury and truly a rare find. This private and small hotel strikes the perfect balance between luxury, intimacy, privacy & highly personalised service.

Pretty Beach House is nestled in the Bouddi National Park, just 90 minutes drive north of Sydney or a 20 minute seaplane/helicopter flight from the city's famous harbour.

Lobster Beach, Tallows and surf break Box Head are all within walking distance from the hotel, whilst Killcare Beach, Putty Beach and Hardy's Bay are close by.

Sydney's famous Palm Beach, Pittwater and Hawkesbury River are within our glorious waterways.

See Sydney Harbour from the sky, the awe-inspiring Sydney Opera House, the iconic Harbour Bridge, the beautiful Northern Beaches including Palm Beach, Pittwater & Broken Bay as you gently glide over golden beaches and the vast wilderness of the Hawkesbury region and Bouddi National Park. 20 minutes after take-off you land at Pretty Beach to be transferred to Pretty Beach House.

Our Location

Simplicity, elegance and service are evident in every aspect of Pretty Beach House. Guided bushwalks, wildlife encounters, mountain biking, kayaking, paddle-boarding, horse riding, cultural tours, scenic flights, cooking classes, fishing excursions, boat trips to secluded bays and beaches, are all experiences which can be arranged.

Pretty Beach House has four pavilions and is surrounded by untouched National Park. Every pavilion is designed in luxurious comfort, with king bedrooms complete with bespoke bedding and fine Busatti Italian bed linen.

Hideaway, Bayview and The Retreat all have plunge pools and private decks oriented to take in the serene bush and bay views.

Treetops is in the penthouse position and has a spectacular escarpment vista.

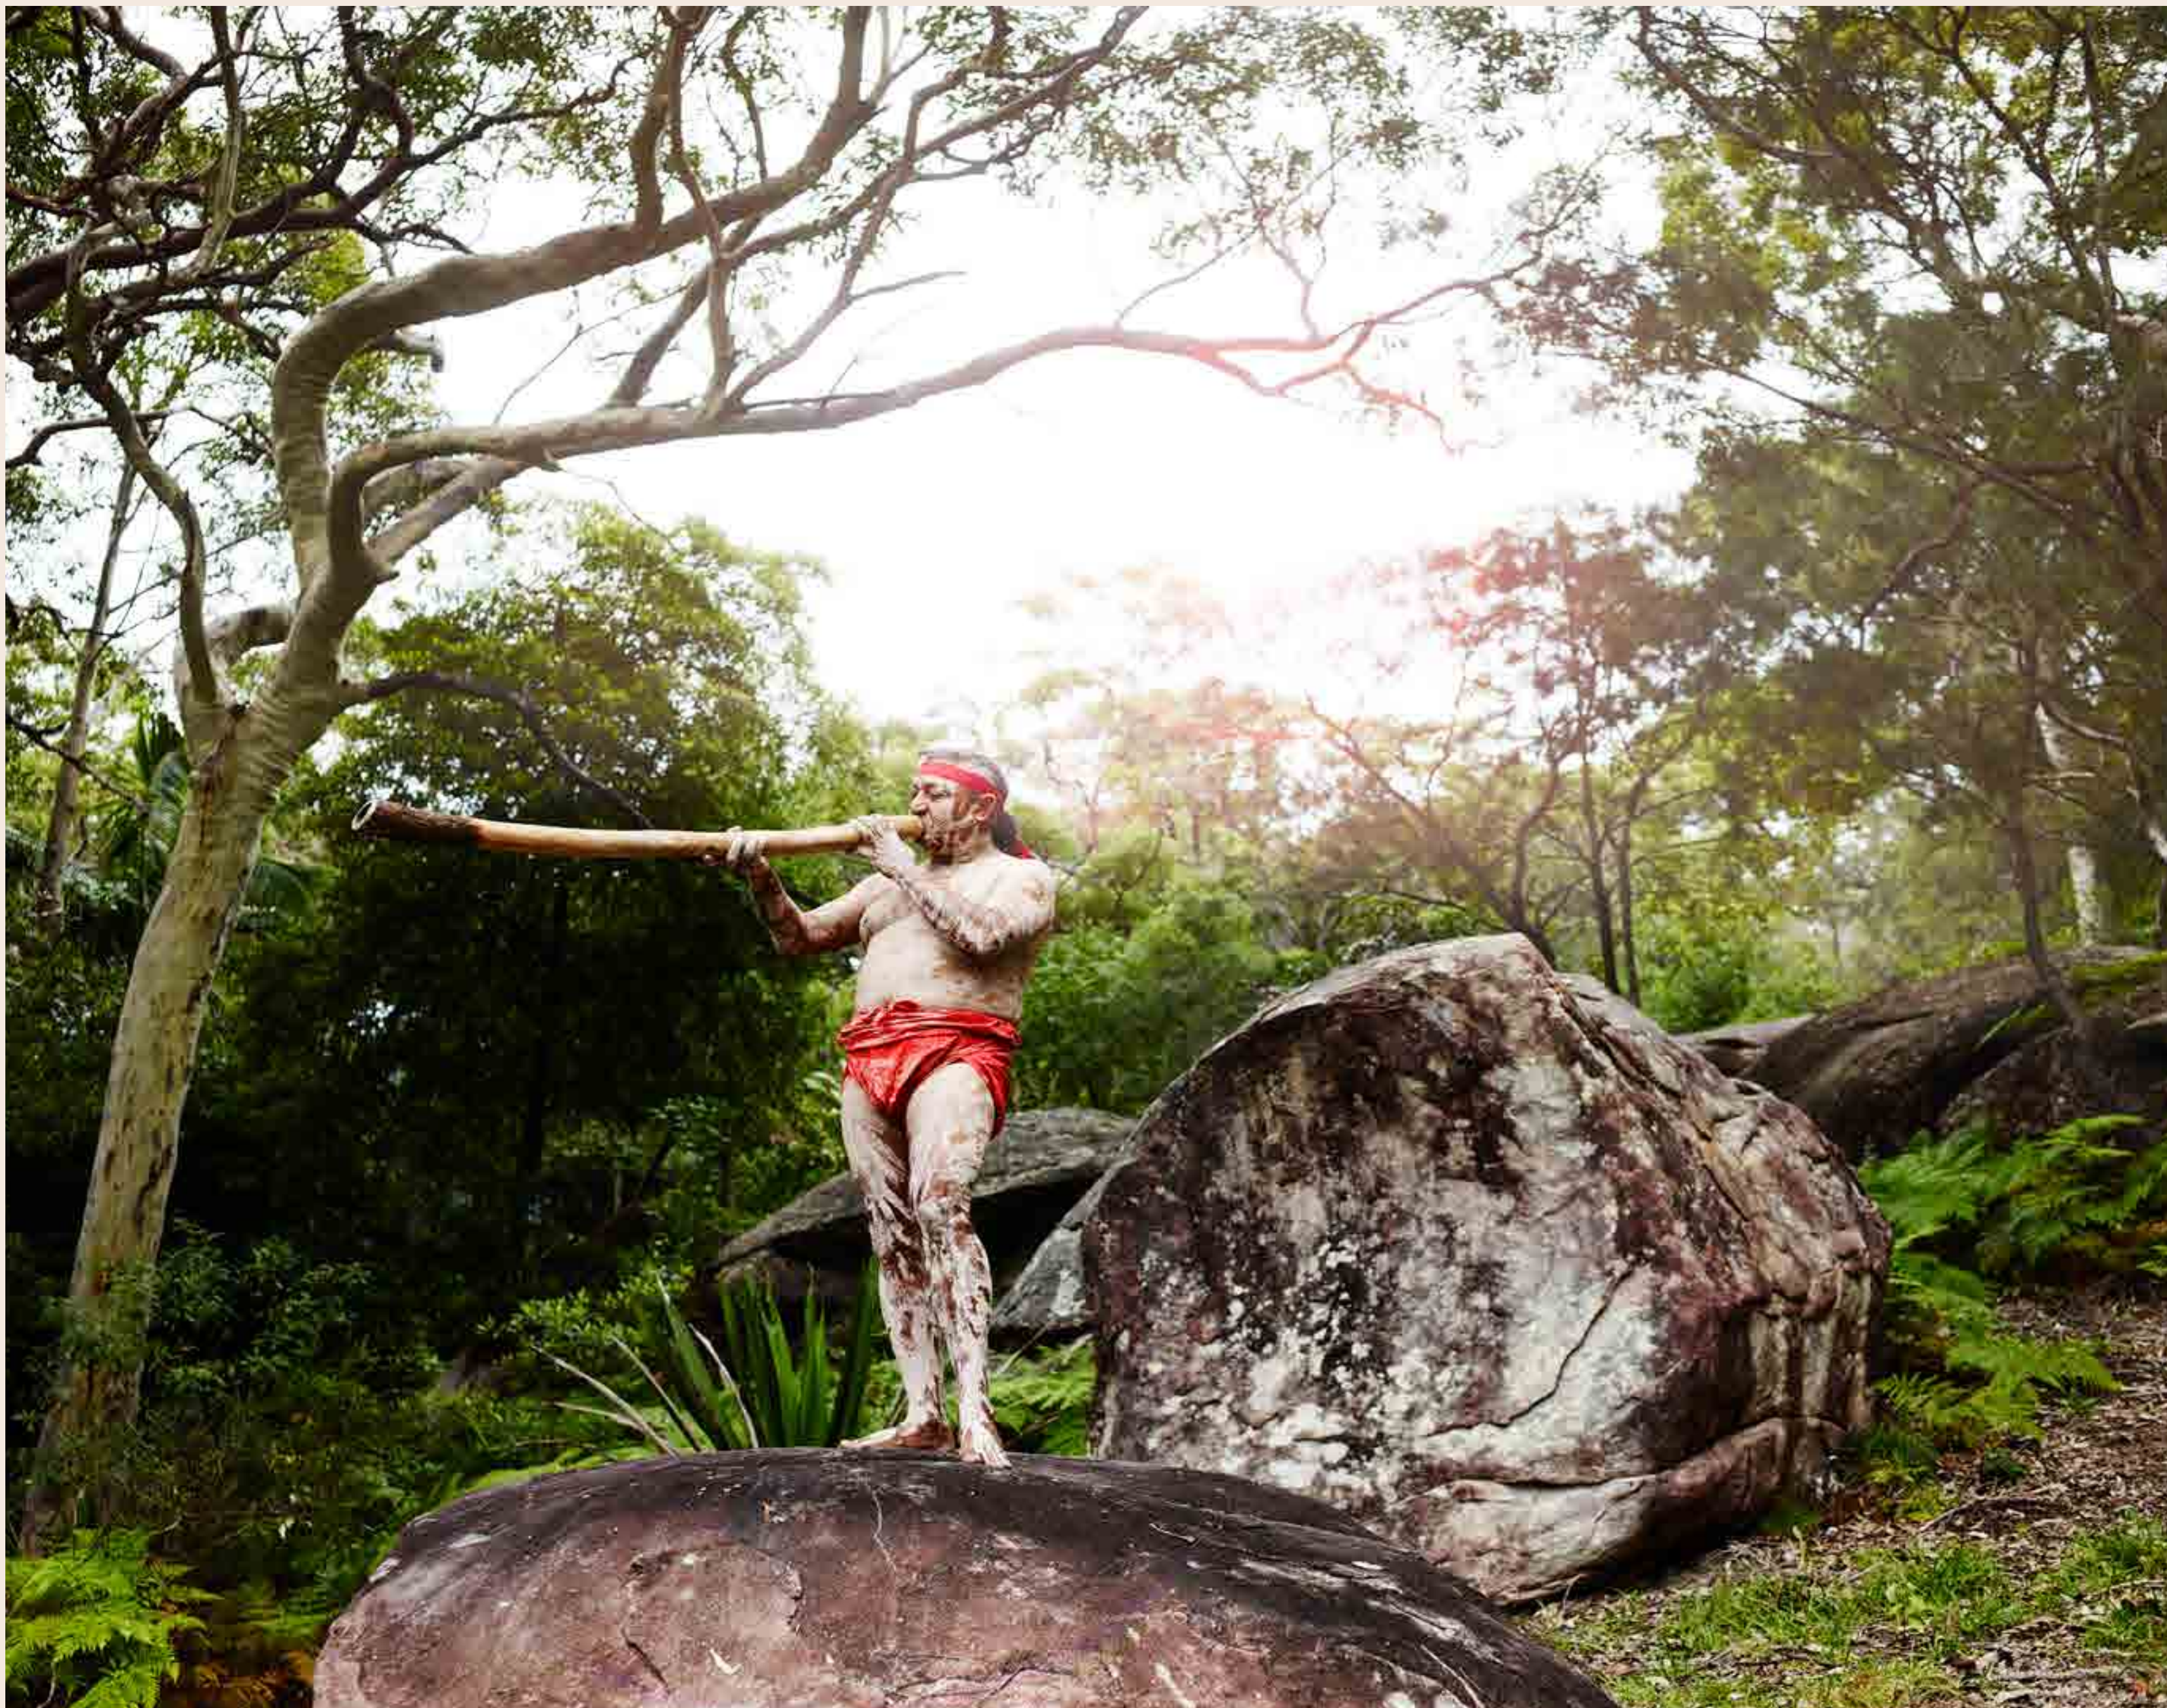

Treetops

The Retreat

Nestled amongst towering Australian gum trees you will create memories that will last a lifetime with a hands-on wildlife tour at the Australian Walkabout Park. There is no better way to meet a koala, feed a wallaby or hold a baby wombat. You will feel you are deep within the Australian bush, yet you're so close to the city.

Spirit of place.

At the doorstep of Pretty Beach House you can see and touch aboriginal rock art dating back an estimated 8,000 years.

Learn ancient dreamtime stories told by traditional landowners and Indigenous elders during the Welcome Ceremony incorporating dance and didgeridoo, around the fire.

This wonderfully memorable experience is included on the evening of guest arrival.

The cuisine is a highlight of any visit to Pretty Beach House and a true culinary experience. The daily menus feature fresh, seasonal ingredients with much of the produce coming from the kitchen garden at sister property, Bells at Killcare.

Australian native foods such as pepper berries, finger limes, lemon myrtle, wattle seed & Davidson plum are incorporated onto the food offering and the PBH chefs are inspired daily by the Indigenous bush tucker growing naturally on and around the property.

Sustainable Seafood is in abundance and sourced locally from responsible farmers within the aquatic coastal region of Pretty Beach House.

An extensive range of premium wines and spirits have been selected to complete the gastronomic experience and are included in the rates.

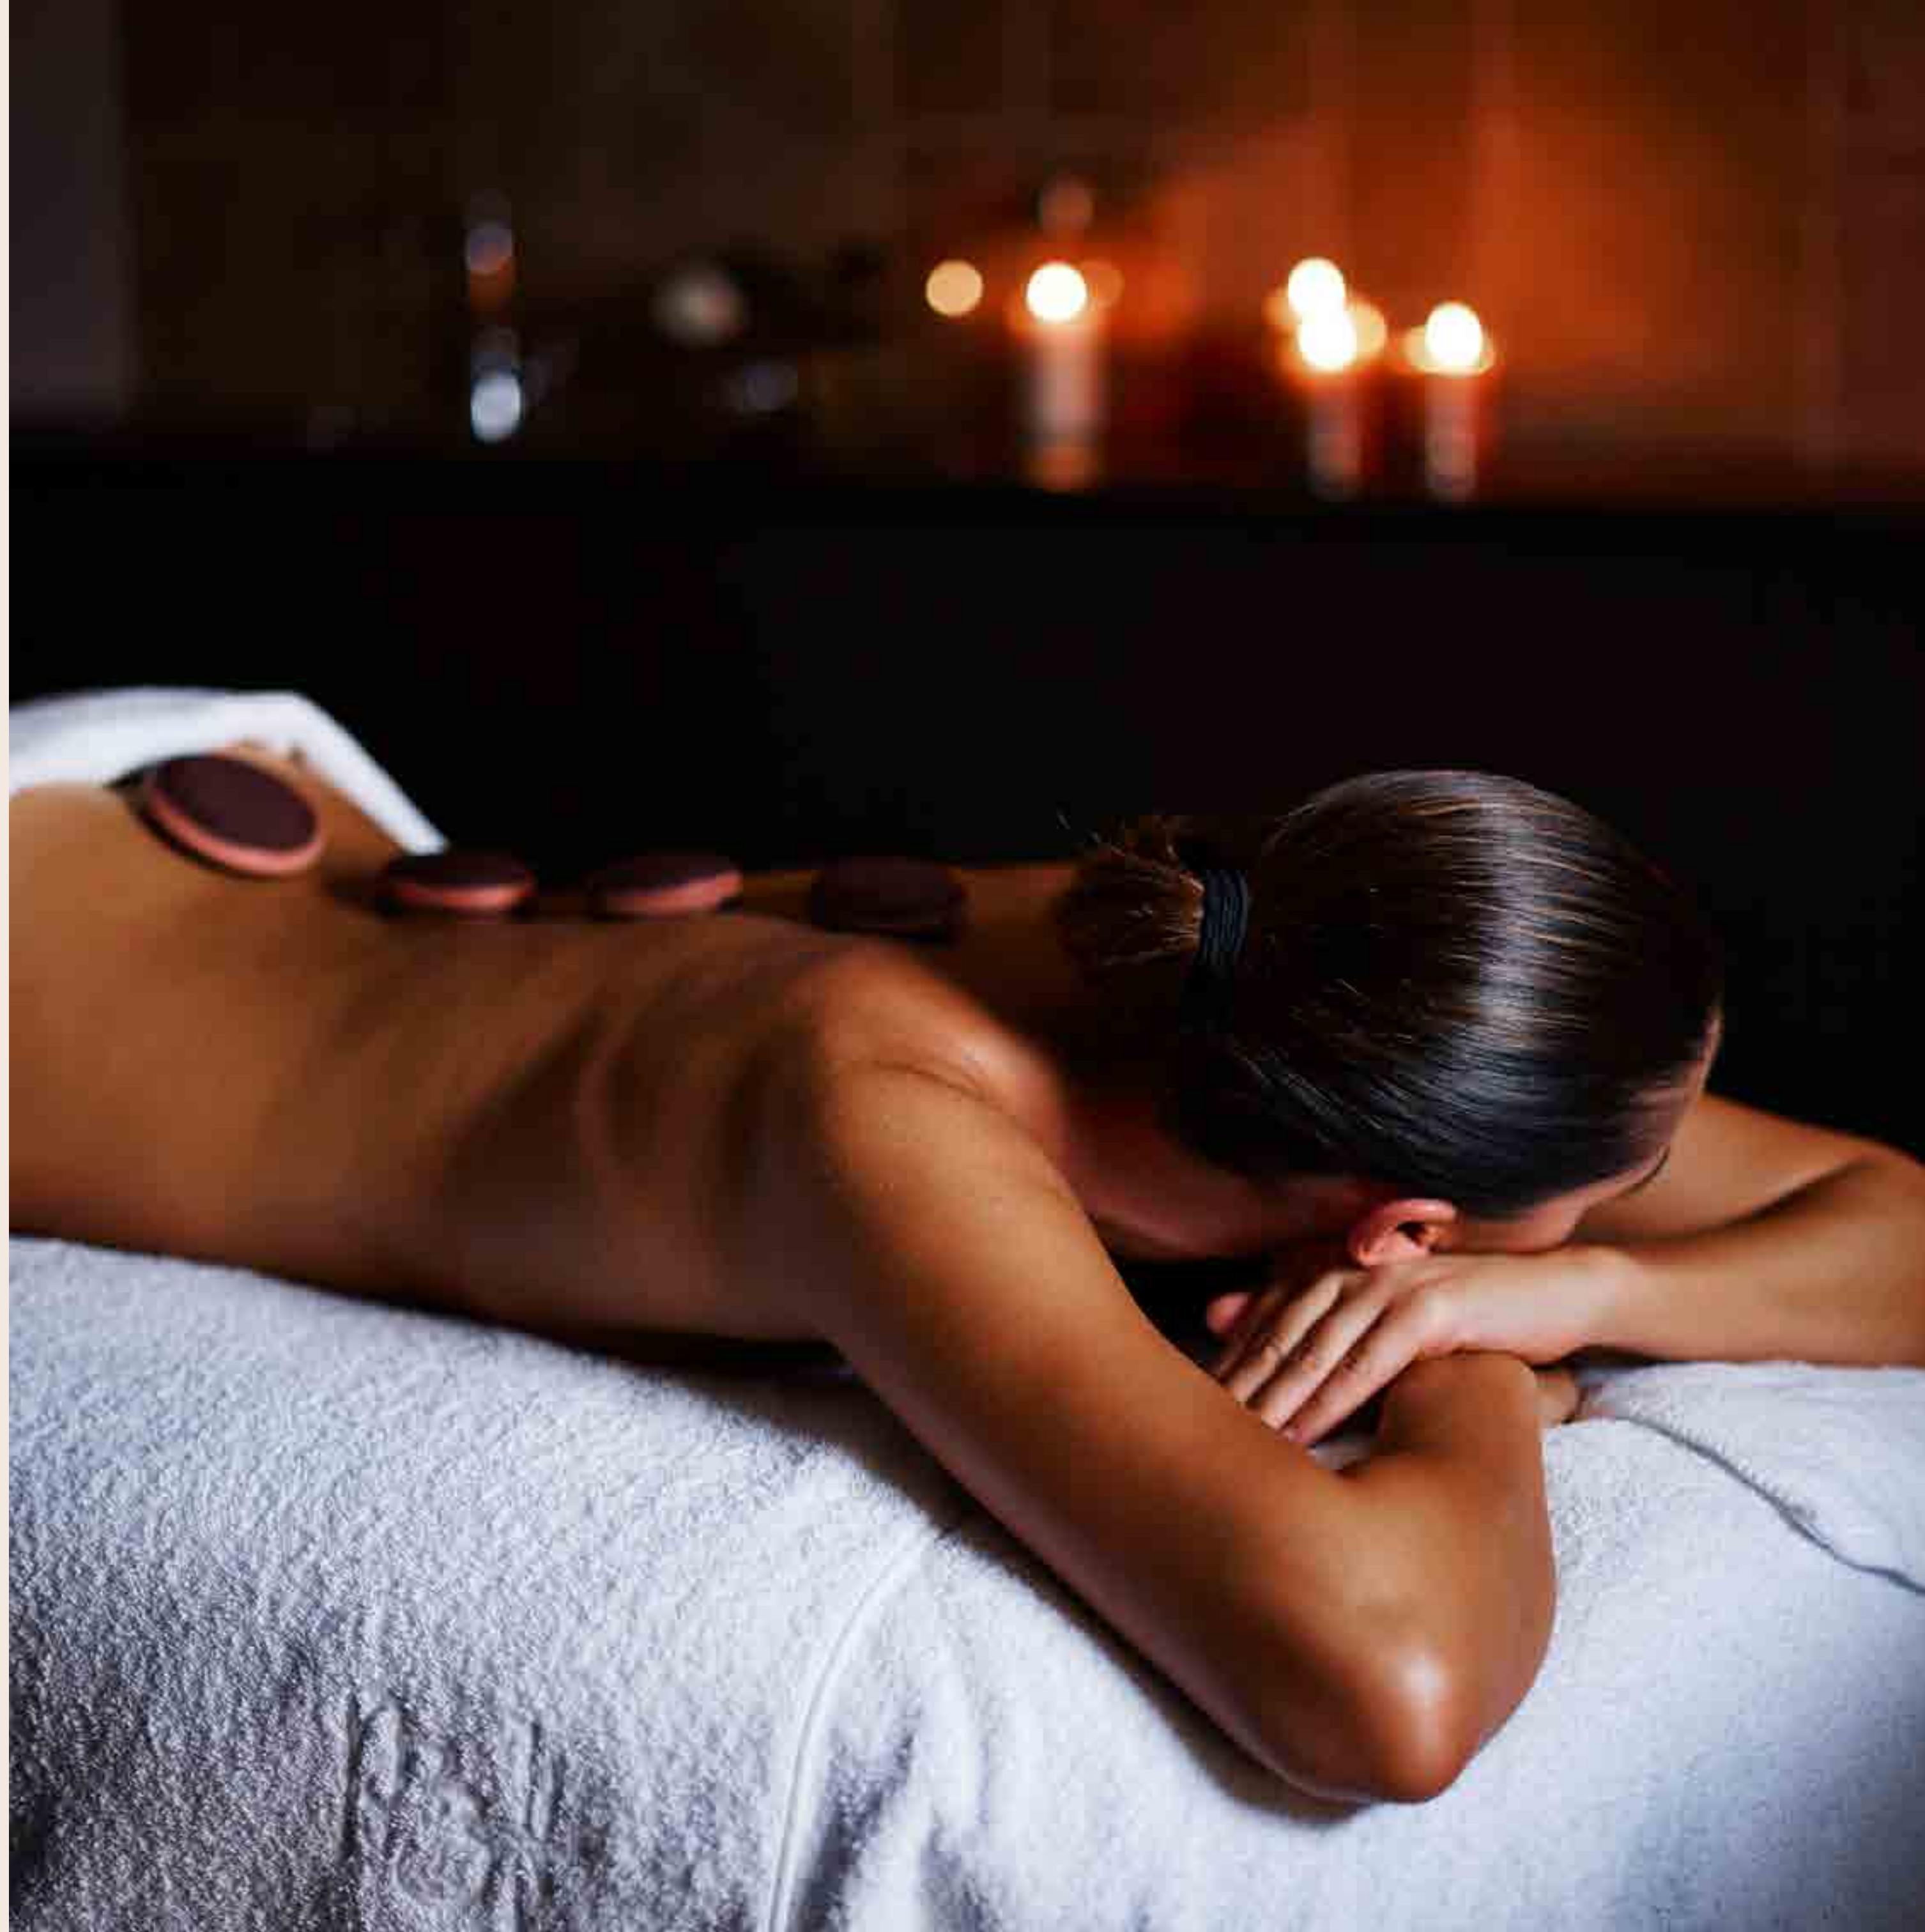

For those looking even further, the wine cellar is stocked with rare old and new world wines.

Guests may choose to dine privately in their pavilion, in the main dining room, al fresco by the pool or even on the Pretty Beach House private boat.

Bouddi Spa is a haven for guests to escape and de-stress with spa treatments thoughtfully designed to rebalance the synergy between mind, body and soul.

Pure Australian botanicals from LI'TYA spa range are featured, offering a true spirit of place and connection to the earth.

The most romantic of destinations. Pretty Beach House has many secluded and private options for guests. The house is designed to make guests feel comfortable and as they are amongst friends and family.

Guests are encouraged to help themselves to snacks and beverages and to treat the house like their own luxurious hideaway.
