A solid choice.

There is no mistaking the impact of stone as an architectural element. A closer look reveals the individual and varied shapes, textures, cuts and colors that impart character. Take Southern LedgeStone's blend of regular and irregular shapes, the epitome of rustic charm. The weathered texture of Del Mare LedgeStone® evokes a warm and inviting Mediterranean retreat. Or rugged and refined Cobblefield® stone veneer that emulates the architecture of rural 19th-century America. No matter which style you choose, you are making a solid choice with Owens Corning. Once again, Cultured Stone® manufactured stone was named the #1 brand in Builder Magazine's 2010 Brand Use Study for the categories of "Brand Familiarity," "Quality Rating," "Brands Used The Most" and "Brands Used In The Past Two Years."
