2021 marks the 50th anniversary of "Coal Miner's Daughter," the Loretta Lynn song that became a book, a feature film, and an indelible part of popular culture. Like so many other songs written by Lynn, the lyrics told the story of her life and spoke to women who struggled to make ends meet.

KANSAS WEATHER WHEN DISASTER STRIKES

Monday, March 15 @ 7PM

As severe weather season arrives, PBS KANSAS explores the past, present and future of dangerous storms that are perennial threats here in Tornado Alley.

AMERICAN EXPERIENCE

THE BLINDING OF ISAAC WOODARD

Tuesday, March 30 @ 8PM

In 1946, Isaac Woodard, a Black army sergeant on his way home to South Carolina after serving in WWII, was taken off a Greyhound bus after a heated exchange with the driver, who refused to let him off at a rest stop to use the restroom. The local chief of police savagely beat him, leaving him unconscious and permanently blind. The shocking incident made national headlines when the police chief was acquitted by an all-white jury. The injustice would change the course of American history.

All children's programs appear in shaded boxes and are rated TVY unless otherwise noted.

 SPRINGFEST
 2021

Sundays @ 2PM
Starting March 21

Baking With Julia, hosted by the late culinary grande dame Julia Child, features the country's outstanding pastry chefs, bakers, teachers and cookbook authors offering indispensable techniques, time-honored tips and meticulously tested recipes that make home baking successful and satisfying.

Mondays @ 2:30PM
Starting March 22

Each week, GardenSMART features an expert horticulturist from fantastic garden locations. They share their knowledge and gardening experiences, providing a wide range of practical, helpful advice.

— AMERICA'S —
TEST KITCHEN

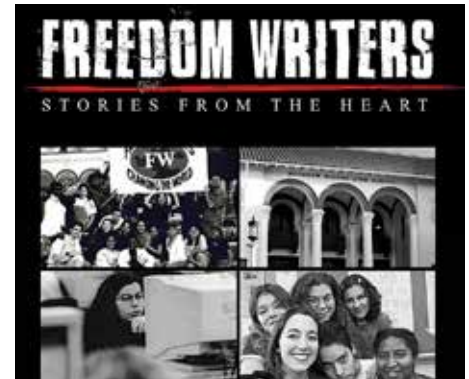

Tuesdays @ 1PM
Starting March 23

Typically filmed in the test kitchen studios in Boston, season 21 of America's Test Kitchen pivots and takes home cooking quite literally, presenting all 26 episodes from cast members' homes. Hosts Bridget Lancaster and Julia Collin Davison and the series' test cooks will be working from their very own kitchens without the army of prep cooks and dishwashers who usually support the team.

Wednesday, March 24 @ Noon

Explore Quakerism from its beginnings in the 1600s, to its present day practice and ideology. With their commitment to civic engagement and equality, Quakers have influenced the course of political and social change in America.

Friday, March 26 @ Noon

Follow idealistic teacher Erin Gruwell as she tries to reach 150 at-risk students who were labeled "unteachable." It's 1994 and Long Beach, California is a racially divided community filled with drugs, gang warfare and homicides. Gruwell encounters hostility, indifference and racial divisions between students.

The untold story of the beginning of the coronavirus pandemic and how China responded. Chinese scientists and doctors, international disease experts and health officials reveal missed opportunities to suppress the outbreak, and lessons for the world.

A nurse faces two crises at once: COVID-19 and racial tensions in the U.S. Rhonda Lee, a visiting nurse in Ypsilanti, Michigan, treats coronavirus patients after they leave the hospital. As a front line worker, she risks her well-being and that of her family. Rhonda documents her emotional experience as racial tensions boil over during the pandemic.

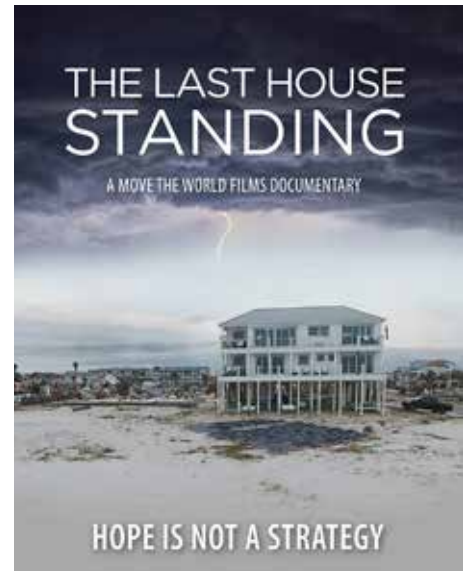

Friday, March 19 @ 7PM
Meet pioneering meteorologist Ted Fujita, who transformed our understanding of tornados. His technological advancements saved lives and helped Americans prepare for and respond to dangerous weather phenomena.

Friday, March 19 @ 8PM

Every spring, a swath of land through the heartland of America becomes ground zero for severe storms. Now, Tornado Alley draws a growing number of people who travel to the middle of the country to chase storms. Jeff, David and Jon follow a father and his twin daughters who visit the panhandle of Texas to see the power of Mother Nature up close. But beyond the lens, another side of this extreme hobby is revealed as the chase passes through the dying towns of a forgotten part of America.

Friday, March 19 @ 8:30PM

Over time, humans have learned to regulate housing construction with building codes that protect property and people's lives. When it comes to climate change and development in vulnerable areas, common sense does not rule. A documentary film about how everyone needs a home that doesn't blow away, wash away, or burn down.

To help celebrate its 30th anniversary season, This Old House TV gave back to the community where the show got its start in 1979: Boston, Massachusetts. Working alongside affordable housing nonprofit Nuestra Comunidad, Norm Abram, Tom Silva, and the rest of the TOH TV crew will hammer out the complete renovation of a foreclosed 1870s Second Empire in Boston's Roxbury neighborhood. Once the job is done, the house's two units will be sold to two deserving area families.

KIDS CALENDAR ART CONTEST

Entries must be postmarked by May 1st, 2021

Choose a character(s) from any PBS Kids show, and draw what they would do if they visited your hometown. Think about what makes your hometown unique, such as: landmarks, public art, parks, or historic buildings. The possibilities are endless!

The contest is open to ALL children up to the age of 12 in Wichita and surrounding area (any child in our coverage area).

Go to kpts.org for details.
