Girl Scout Cadette Vest

If your awards and badges don't fit on the front of your vest or sash, you can wear them on the back.

Girl Scout Cadette Sash

Place your Journey awards above your badges.

This is a basic sample that should be adapted by the girls. There is no 'correct' or 'required' component beyond a pledge to the Girl Scout Promise and Law. May be adapted for rededication.

Equipment

- » Pins for new members

Arrangement

The troop forms a horseshoe and stands fairly close together. The new members stand off to the side.

Ceremony

- » Current members or leaders ask new members: "Why have you come here?"
- » New members: "To be Girl Scouts."
- » Leader or a chosen current member: "As Girl Scouts you will be expected to uphold the meaning of the Promise and the Law. Do you know what it means when you say, "On my honor"?"
- » New members: "Yes, we do."
- » Leader or a chosen current member: "May I trust you, on your honor, to try to serve God and your country, to help people at all times, and to live by the Girl Scout Law?"
- » New members: "Yes, you may." [Girls give the Girl Scout sign and repeat Promise and Law]

[At this time, the current troop members may also make the Girl Scout sign and recite the Girl Scout Promise and Law with the new members as a rededication.]

[Leaders or current members pin the membership pin to girls' clothing]

- » Leader: "This pin tells everyone you are a Girl Scout. I know you will wear it proudly. The three leaves of the trefoil represent the three parts of the Girl Scout Promise. May you find joy in working together, fun in playing together, and excitement in discovering together."

[The Leader then gives the Girl Scout Handshake to each new Girl Scout]

- » Leader: Welcome to the Girl Scout sisterhood.

Note: Coach new members in advance that the Girl Scout Handshake is done by making the Girl Scout sign with the right hand and shaking left hands.

Option: Place the pin upside down on the uniform, telling the new member that she may turn it right side up after completing her first good deed.
