Spend Halloween in a haunted hotel!

Ghosts & Ghost Towns of Nevada

5 Days • October 29 – November 2

Listen to "The Travel Guys," with Tom & Mark, Sundays at 3pm on KFBK, 1530AM/93.1FM

Fast becoming one of our signature tours. Be a part of an authentic ghost hunt. Yes, talk to ghosts in the Nevada desert. Stay 2 nights at Treasure Island in Las Vegas, visit the Neon Museum, meet Robert George Allen, our Ghost Hunter, and go in search of them at the Pioneer Saloon in Goodsprings.

On your way to Tonopah, discover Rhyolite, Beatty, Goldfield and Gold Pointe. At the latter, meet the man who used to own McDonald's franchises before he started buying up a ghost town. Stay 2 nights at the haunted Mizpah Hotel in Tonopah. Will something unusual happen on Halloween night? Will you witness ghosts in the hallways?

In Belmont, explore the old courthouse. In Bodie (weather permitting), you'll find a ghost town in a state of "arrested decay." Meet local folks, learn a little history, talk to a ghost or two. Your Tour Director is Sports Leisure Owner Mark Hoffmann. Fly to Las Vegas, make your way back to Sacramento on our SuperCoach. 10 meals, air included. $1935 p.p./dbl.occ., $2295 single

Rhyolite has seen better days but it sure makes a great ghost town

KVIE Art Auction

CELEBRATES 35 YEARS!

The Sacramento Bee Program Listings, 1981

For 35 years, KVIE has been celebrating local artists with the KVIE Art Auction. The annual live television event has grown and changed over three and a half decades, but the core mission remains the same: support local public television and local arts of all shapes and sizes. And it's made possible by the generosity of our regional artists, our sponsors, and our viewers, whose donations help KVIE bring the best in arts, drama, science, and more to Northern California.

The KVIE Art Auction has been a live television broadcast since 1981, but the auction has been going on for much longer. The vibrant works created by our region's artists don't always look good in greyscale, so before color television sets were common, the auction was an in-person event, with bidding paddles instead of phone banks.

"Take Home a Sofa During KVIE's Auction," read The Sacramento Bee headline on June 7, 1984. In days past, KVIE's annual auction wasn't just about art - community members donated and bid on everything from furniture to helicopter rides and farm animals! In fact, a past staff member recalled a steer getting loose from the animal pen, sprinting away with the station's chief engineer in hot pursuit.

KVIE is fortunate to work with many of our region's most talented artists, including Gregory Kondos and Wayne Thiebaud. Some have participated in the KVIE Art Auction for years - an auction program from 1986 shows a piece called "Genetics" from sculptor Fred Gordon, who also has a piece in this year's auction and was recently featured in an exhibit at the KVIE Gallery.

In 1997, artists were challenged to create pieces with a Channel 6 theme. Their works put unique spins on the past KVIE logo, taking it to new heights. School children from Twin Lakes Elementary School, Hazel Strauch Elementary School, and more submitted their own versions of Channel 6 art.

Volunteers have been the backbone of the KVIE Art Auction since the beginning, and KVIE is fortunate to have many dedicated volunteers. There are so many valuable roles that volunteers provide, such as on-air talent, art moving, production crew, phone bank support, and stylists that provide hair and makeup services. Some volunteers have become part of the auction over the decades! KVIE continues to be grateful for the fantastic support we receive from volunteers - the KVIE Art Auction would not be possible without our volunteers.

We're proud to continue to present this showcase of the arts in our region. What you'll see this year is a culmination of 35 years of seeking out and celebrating the best and brightest artists, from those new to their craft to California masters - and we look forward to many more years to come.

The KVIE Art Auction will broadcast live from our studios on Friday, September 23 from 7PM to 10PM, Saturday, September 24 from noon to 10PM, and Sunday, September 25 from noon to 10PM. More than 260 original works of art from local artists will be available for bidding. You can learn more about the auction, browse the complete gallery of artwork, and even watch a livestream of the auction at kvie.org/artauction. Be sure to tune in live on Channel 6 or online, and good luck with your bids!

Defying the Nazis: The Sharps' War

September 20 at 9PM

As Europe teetered on the brink of war, an American minister and his wife left their children in the care of their parish in Wellesley, Massachusetts and traveled to Prague to provide aid to refugees fleeing Nazi advances. Over two dangerous years, the couple helped hundreds of Jews, political dissidents, and other refugees escape Nazi occupation. Defying the Nazis was co-directed by Ken Burns and Artemis Joukowsky, the grandson of Waitstill and Martha Sharp.

Great Performances: Hamilton's America

October 21 at 9PM

Hamilton has smashed sales records, won 11 Tony Awards, and now the story of Lin-Manuel Miranda's revolutionary musical is coming to KVIE. Discover the 3-year process of creating the show, see new footage of the New York production with the original cast, and take a trip to historical sites with Miranda and other cast members as they reflect on Hamilton's legacy, and what it means to produce a musical about immigration, inequality, states' rights, and debt in today's world.

Are Your CDs Earning Enough?

Constance is a retiree and loyal KVIE viewer. Last year, she took a KVIE gift annuity, which guaranteed her a fixed payment (in her case, 8.2 percent on her $10,000 commitment).

Instead of stressing about the volatile market or settling for weak CD rates, she gets a strong, predictable check—and will get that same payment every year for the rest of her life.

Then, the remainder will become a gift to KVIE.
