Translator's Introduction

AT A GLANCE

Author: Multiple authors, including mostly David, Solomon, the Asaphites, the Kohrites, and Moses.

Audience: Originally Israel, but they speak to humanity in general.

Date: From the Monarchy to Postexilic eras.

Type of Literature: Poems, which reflect several types: wisdom, lament, prayer, praise, blessings, liturgy, and prophetic oracles.

Major Themes: Prayer, praise, wisdom, prophecy, lamentation, and Jesus Christ.

ABOUT PSALMS

I have loved the Psalms for over forty years. They have been my comfort and joy, leading me to the place where worship flows. When discouraged or downcast, I have never failed to take new strength from reading the Psalms. They charge my batteries and fill my sails. In fact, they seem to grow even more powerful as I grow older. Their thunder stirs me; their sweet melodies move me into the sacred emotions of a heart on fire.

The dark rain clouds of grief turn to bright rainbows of hope, just from meditating on David's soul-subduing songs.

The Psalms find the words that express our deepest and strongest emotions, no matter what the circumstances. Every emotion of our hearts is reflected in the Psalms. Reading the Psalms will turn sighing into singing and trouble into triumph. The word praise is found 189 times in this book. There is simply nothing that touches my heart like the Psalms. Thousands of years ago my deepest feelings were put to music—this is what we all delightfully discover when reading the Psalms!

A contemporary name for the book of Psalms could be, Poetry on Fire! These 150 poetic masterpieces give us an expression of faith and worship. They become a mirror to the heart of God's people in our quest to experience God's presence. Much of Christianity has become so intellectualized that our emotions and artistic creativity are often set aside as unimportant in the worship of God. The Psalms free us to become emotional, passionate, sincere worshippers. It is time to sing the Psalms!

BOOK PROFILE

Purpose

The Psalms are clearly poetic. They are praises placed inside of poetry. Everyone who reads the Psalms realizes how filled with emotion they are! You will never be bored in reading the poetry that spills out of a fiery, passionate heart. These verses contain both poetry and music that touch the heart deeply, enabling you to encounter the heart of God through your emotional and creative senses.

Author & Audience

Most of these poetic masterpieces come to us from David, King of Israel. He wrote them during specific periods of his life when he was on the run from Saul, grateful for the Lord's protection and provision, scared for his future, mournful over his sin, and praising God with uplifted hands.

Other authors include David's son Solomon, Moses, the Asaphite temple singers, and Korahite priests.

While they were written during specific periods in the history of Israel—from the monarchy to the postexilic eras—they connect to our own time as much as they reflect their time. So in many ways these poems are written to you and me. The original audience was the children of Israel, but the Psalms reflect the hopes and dreams, fears and failures of humanity in general.

Major Themes

Poetry of Praise: The Psalms are pure praise, inspired by the breath of God. Praise is a matter of life and breath. As long as we have breath we are told to praise the Lord. The Psalms release a flood of God-inspired insights that will lift heaviness off the human heart. The Psalms are meant to do to you what they did to David: They will bring you from your cave of despair into the glad presence of the King who likes and enjoys you.

Poetry of Prayer: The Psalms are prayers. Mixed with intercession, the Psalms become the fuel for our devotional life. Each psalm is a prayer. The early church recited and sang the Psalms regularly. Many contemporary worship songs have been inspired by this book of prayer-poetry!

Poetry of Wisdom: The Psalms unlock mysteries and parables, for in the purest praise is the cryptic language of a wise messenger. The wisdom of God is contained in these 150 keys; you have a key chain with master keys to unlock God's storehouse of wisdom and revelation. It is the "harp" (anointed worship) that releases divine secrets. Read carefully Psalm 49:4 TPT: "I will break open mysteries with my music and my song will release riddles solved."

Poetry of Prophecy: Prophetic insights rest upon the Psalms. David's harp brings revelation and understanding to the people. Singers who tap into the insights of the Psalms will bring forth truths in their songs, which will break the hearts of people and release divine understanding to the church. The prophets must become musicians, and the musicians must become prophets for the key of David to be given to the church.

Poetry of Christ: As with every part of the Old Testament, we are called to read the Psalms in two ways: 1) as the original audience heard them in their ancient Hebrew world; and 2) as the fulfillment of Messianic prophesies, submitting by faith that these poems point to Jesus Christ. Therefore, at one level, these poems are all about him. There are 150 Psalms and each of them reveals a special and unique aspect of the God-Man, Christ Jesus. We could say every Psalm is messianic in that they find their fulfillment in Christ. Looking backwards in light of Christ's revelation, we see they all point to our Lord Jesus, whom God has chosen as King over all.

Since these songs are all about Jesus, one of the keys to understanding the Psalms is to look for Jesus within its pages. Luke 24:44 TPT says: "This is what I told you while I was still with you: Everything must be fulfilled that is written about me in the Law of Moses, the Prophets and the Psalms." There are many secrets about Jesus waiting to be discovered here!

OUTLINE

The Psalms are really five books in one. Moses gave us the five books of the Law called the Pentateuch; David gives us the five books of the Psalms. Each division ends with a doxology that includes the words, "Amen and Amen." The last division ends with Psalm 150 as the doxology, forming an appropriate conclusion to this "Pentateuch of David." These five divisions have been compared to the first five books of the Bible:

Psalms 1–41 (Genesis) — Psalms of man and creation.

Psalms 42–72 (Exodus) — Psalms of suffering and redemption.

Psalms 73–89 (Leviticus) — Psalms of worship and God's house.

Psalms 90–106 (Numbers) — Psalms of our pilgrimage on earth.

Psalms 107–150 (Deuteronomy) — Psalms of praise and the Word.

A WORD ABOUT THE PASSION TRANSLATION

The message of God's story is timeless; the Word of God doesn't change. But the methods by which that story is communicated should be timely; the vessels that steward God's Word can and should change.

One of those timely methods and vessels is Bible translations. Bible translations are both a gift and a problem. They give us the words God spoke through his servants, but words can become very poor containers for revelation—they leak! Over time the words change from one generation to the next. Meaning is influenced by culture, background, and a thousand other details. You can imagine how differently the Hebrew authors of the Old Testament saw the world from three thousand years ago!

There is no such thing as a truly literal translation of the Bible, for there is not an equivalent language that perfectly conveys the meaning of the biblical text except as it is understood in its original cultural and linguistic setting. Therefore, a translation can be a problem. The problem, however, is solved when we seek to transfer meaning, and not merely words, from the original text to the receptor language.

The desire of The Passion Translation is to re-introduce the passion and fire of the Bible to the English reader. It doesn't only convey the original, literal meaning of words. It also expresses God's passion for people and his world by translating the original, life-changing message of God's Word for modern readers.

God longs to have his Word expressed in every language in a way that would unlock the passion of his heart. Our goal is to trigger inside every English speaker an overwhelming response to the truth of the Bible. This is a heart-level translation, from the passion of God's heart to the passion of your heart.

We pray and trust this version of God's Word will kindle in you a burning, passionate desire for him and his heart, while impacting the church for years to come!

So without further introduction, I present to you, Poetry on Fire. And may the Holy Spirit fill you with joy and revelation as you read it.

BOOK I

The Genesis Psalms

PSALMS OF MAN AND CREATION

Psalm 1

THE TREE OF LIFE^a

- ¹What delight comes to those^b who follow God's ways!^c
 They won't walk in step with the wicked, nor share the sinner's way,
 nor sits in the circle of scoffers.
- ²Their pleasure and passion is remaining true to the Word of "I Am," meditating day and night in his true revelation of light.^d
- ³They will be standing firm like a flourishing tree planted by God's design, deeply rooted by the brooks of bliss;
 bearing fruit in every season of their lives.
 They are never dry, never fainting, ever blessed, ever prosperous.^e
- ⁴But how different are the wicked.
 All they are is dust in the wind—driven away to destruction!^f
- ⁵The wicked will not endure the day of judgment, for God will not defend them.

^a Although we cannot be sure, it is possible that Ezra compiled the Psalms and wrote Psalm 1 as an "introduction" to the Psalter. Others believe it was written by David, or even Jeremiah.

^b 1:1 The Hebrew text is actually "that One," and refers prophetically to the Lord Jesus Christ, our Tree of Life. Every one of us who belongs to "that One" can also walk in the light of this psalm.

^c Psalm 1 is the contrast of those who follow God's ways and those who choose their own path. Read through this psalm with the purpose of learning how to live with God in first place.

^d 1:2 Or "Torah."

^e 1:3 The metaphors found in this verse can be paraphrased as, "No matter what he sets out to do, he brings it to a successful conclusion."

^f 1:4 Implied in the text.

Nothing they do will succeed or endure for long,
for they have no part with those who walk in truth.
6But how different it is for the lovers of God!
The Lord watches over them as they move forward while the paths of the godless lead only to doom.

Psalm 2

THE CORONATION OF THE KING

Act I – The Nations Speak

1How dare the nations plan a rebellion, ranting and raging^a against the Lord Most High?
Their foolish plots are futile!^b 2Look at how the power brokers of the world rise up to hold their summit, scheming and conferring together against God and his Anointed King, saying:
3“Let’s come together and break away from the Creator.
Once and for all let’s cast off these controlling chains of God and his Christ!”^c

Act II – God Speaks

4God-Enthroned^d merely laughs at them;
amused at all their puny plans, mocking their madness!

^a 2:1 Or “numbering the troops (muttering under your breath).”

^b 2:1 Or “Why are they devising emptiness.”

^c 2:3 The word found here for Christ is the Hebrew word for “Messiah,” or “Anointed One.”

^d 2:4 The Aramaic is Maryah, the Aramaic form of YHWH or Lord Jehovah. The Hebrew is, “He who sits.”

⁵Then with the fierceness of his fiery anger he settles the issue^a and terrifies them to death with these words:
⁶"I myself have poured out my King on Zion, my holy mountain."^b

Act III – The Son Speaks

⁷"I will reveal the eternal purpose of God.
 For he has decreed over me, 'You are my favored Son.
 And as your Father I have crowned you as my King Eternal.
 Today I became your Father.
⁸Ask me^c to give you the nations and I will do it,
 and they shall become your legacy.
 Your domain will stretch to the ends of the earth.
⁹And you will rule over them^d with unlimited authority, crushing their rebellion as an iron rod smashes jars of clay!"^e

Act IV – The Holy Spirit Speaks

¹⁰Listen to me, all you rebel-kings and all you upstart rulers of this earth!
 Learn your lesson^e while there's still time.
¹¹Serve and worship the awe-inspiring God.
 Recognize his greatness and bow before him, trembling with reverence in his presence.^f ¹²Fall facedown before him and kiss the feet of his Son before his anger is roused against you.
 Remember that his wrath can be quickly kindled!
 But many blessings are waiting for all who turn aside to hide themselves in him!

a 2:5 Or "In good time he drives them away."

b 2:6 For the believer today, Zion is not only a place but also a realm where Christ is enthroned. Jesus was "poured out" as a consecrated offering.

c 2:8 Or in the Masoretic text, "Ask wealth of me."

d 2:9 Or "You will shepherd them." LXX

e 2:10 Or "Do what is wise."

f 2:11 Or "Rejoice with trembling." The Hebrew word for rejoice means "to spin around with excited emotions," or "to twirl."

Psalm 3

COVERED BY THE GLORY

King David's song when he was forced to flee from Absalom, his own son ¹Lord, I have so many enemies, so many who are against me.

²Listen to how they whisper their slander against me, saying:

“Look! He’s hopeless! Even God can’t save him from this!”

Pause in his presence^a ³But in the depths of my heart I truly know that you have become my Shield;

You take me and surround me with yourself.^b

Your glory covers me continually. You alone restore my courage; for you lift high my head when I bow low in shame.

⁴I have cried out to you and from your holy presence.

You send me a Father’s help.

⁵So now I’ll lie down and go to sleep—and I’ll awake in safety for you surround me with your glory.

⁶Even though dark powers prowl around me, with their words like sharp arrows, I won’t be afraid.

⁷I simply cry out to you:

“Rise up and help me, Lord! Come and save me!”

^a This is the Hebrew word Selah, a puzzling word to translate. Most scholars believe it is a musical term for pause or rest. It is used a total of seventy-one times in the Psalms as an instruction to the music leader to pause and ponder in God’s presence. An almost identical word, Sela, means a massive rock cliff. It is said that when Selah is spoken that the words are carved in stone in the throne room of the heavens.

^b 3:3 Many translations render this: “You are a shield around me.” The ancient Hebrew can be translated: “You, O Lord, are my Taker.” The implication is that God shields us by taking us into Himself. Jesus Christ is the Taker of humanity, the One who was made flesh. He not only took our nature but He also took our sins that he might take us into glory.

And you will slap them in the face, breaking the power of their words to harm me.
⁸My true Hero comes to my rescue, for the Lord alone is my Savior.^a
 What a feast of favor and bliss he gives his people!

Pause in his presence

Psalm 4

AN EVENING PRAYER FOR HELP

*For the Pure and Shining One^b
 For the end,^c a melody by King David*

¹God, you're my Righteousness, my Champion Defender.
 Why aren't you answering me when I cry for help?
 Whenever I was in distress you've always inspired me.
 I'm being squeezed again—I need your kindness right away!
 Hear my prayer and set me free!

²Listen to me:

How long will you obscure my glory and drag it down into shame?
 Will you ever stop insulting me?
 How long will you set your heart on shadows, chasing your lies and delusions?

Pause in his presence

³May we never forget that the Lord works wonders for every one of his chosen lovers.
 And this is how I know that he will answer my every prayer.

^a 3:8 The Hebrew word used sixty times in the Psalms for deliverance is actually Yeshuah, a variant form of the name for Jesus. This is pointing us to where our salvation is found.

^b The Hebrew word used here, usually rendered as “choirmaster” is actually taken from the root word for shining or brilliant (i.e. purity, holiness).

^c As translated from the Septuagint. The Hebrew is “stringed instruments” or “smiting.”

⁴Tremble in awe before the Lord, and you will not sin against him.
Be still upon your bed and look deep into your heart.

Pause in his presence

⁵Bring your gifts just as you are and put your trust in him.

⁶Lord, prove them wrong when they say, “God can’t help you!”

Let the light of your radiant face break through and shine down upon us!

⁷The intense pleasure you give me surpasses the gladness of harvest time, even more than when the harvesters gaze upon their ripened grain and when their new wine overflows.

⁸Now I can lay down in peace and sleep comes at once, for no matter what happens, I will live unafraid!

Psalm 5

SONG OF THE CLOUDED DAWN

*For the Pure and Shining One
For her who receives the inheritance^a by King David* ¹Listen to my passionate prayer!

Can’t you hear my groaning?

²Don’t you hear how I’m crying out to you?

My King and my God, consider my every word,
for I am calling out to you.

^a The Hebrew word used here is Neliloth or flutes. It can also be translated “inheritances.” The early church father Augustine translated this: “For her who receives the inheritance,” meaning the church of Jesus Christ. The Father told the Son in Psalm 2 to ask for his inheritance; here we see it is the church that receives what Jesus asks for. We receive our inheritance of eternal life through the cross and resurrection of the Son of God. The Septuagint reads, “For the end,” also found in numerous inscriptions of the Psalms.

- ³At each and every sunrise you will hear my voice
as I prepare my sacrifice of prayer to you.
Every morning I lay out the pieces of my life on the altar and wait for your fire to fall upon my heart.^a
- ⁴I know that you, God, are never pleased with lawlessness, and evil ones will never be invited as guests in your house.
- ⁵Boasters collapse, unable to survive your scrutiny,
for your hatred of evildoers is clear.
- ⁶You will make an end of all those who lie.
How you hate their hypocrisy and despise all who love violence!
- ⁷But I know the way back home,
and I know that you will welcome me into your house,
for I am covered by your covenant of mercy and love.
So I come to your sanctuary with deepest awe to bow in worship and adore you.
- ⁸Lord, lead me in the pathways of your pleasure just like you promised me you would.
Or else my enemies will conquer me.
Smooth out your road in front of me, straight and level so that I will know where to walk.
- ⁹For you can't trust anything they say.
Their hearts are nothing but deep pits of destruction, drawing people into their darkness with their speeches.
They are smooth-tongued deceivers who flatter with their words.
- ¹⁰Declare them guilty, O God!
Let their own schemes be their downfall!
Let the guilt of their sins collapse on top of them, for they rebel against you.

^a 5:3 Implied in the concept of preparing the morning sacrifice. The Aramaic text states, "At dawn I shall be ready and shall appear before you."

- ¹¹But let them all be glad,
those who turn aside to hide themselves in you.
May they keep shouting for joy forever!
Overshadow them in your presence as they sing and rejoice, then every lover of your name will burst forth with endless joy.
- ¹²Lord, how wonderfully you bless the righteous.
Your favor wraps around each one and covers them under your canopy of kindness and joy.

Psalm 6

A CRY FOR HEALING^a

*For the Pure and Shining One
A song for the end sung for the new day by King David*

- ¹No Lord! Don't condemn me.
Don't punish me in your fiery anger.
- ²Please deal gently with me;
show me mercy for I'm sick and frail.
I'm fading away with weakness.
Heal me, for I'm falling apart.
- ³How long until you take away this pain in my body and in my soul?
Lord, I'm trembling in fear!
- ⁴Turn back death from my door and deliver my life^b because I know you love and desire to have me as your very own.
- ⁵How can I be any good to you dead?
For those who are in the graveyards sing no songs.

In the darkness of death who remembers you?
 How could I bring you praise if I'm buried in a tomb?
⁶I'm so exhausted and worn-out with my weeping.
 I endure weary, sleepless nights filled with moaning, soaking my pillow with my tears.
⁷My eyes of faith won't focus anymore, for sorrow fills my heart.
 There are so many enemies who come against me!
⁸Go away! Leave me, all you workers of wickedness!
 For the Lord has turned to listen to my thunderous cry.
⁹Yes! The Lord my Healer has heard all my pleading^a and has taken hold of my prayers and answered them all.
¹⁰Now it's my enemies who have been shamed.
 Terror-stricken, they will turn back again, knowing the bitterness of sudden disgrace!

Psalm 7

SONG FOR THE SLANDERED SOUL

A passionate song to the Lord to the tune of "Breaking the Curse of Cush, the Benjamite" by King David

¹O Lord my God, I turn aside to hide my soul in you.
 I trust you to save me from all those who pursue and persecute me.
²Don't leave me helpless!
 Don't let my foes fall upon me like fierce lions with teeth bared.
 Can't you see how they want to rip me to shreds, dragging me away to tear my soul to pieces?

^a 6:9 Implied in the text.

- ³Lord, if I were doing evil things, that would be different, for then I would be guilty, deserving all of this.
- ⁴If I wronged someone at peace with me,
if I betrayed a friend, repaying evil for good,
or if I have unjustly harmed my enemy,
- ⁵Then it would be right for you to let my enemy pursue and overtake me.
In fact, let them grind me into the ground.
Let them take my life from me and drag my dignity in the dust!
Pause in his presence
- ⁶Now Lord, let your anger arise against the anger of my enemies.
Awaken your fury and stand up for me!
Decree that justice be done against my foes.
- ⁷Gather all the people around you.
Return to your place on high to preside over them and once more occupy the throne of judgment.
- ⁸You are the Exalted One who judges the people,
so vindicate me publicly and restore my honor and integrity.
Before all the people declare me innocent!
- ⁹Once and for all, end the evil tactics of the wicked!
Reward and prosper the cause of the righteous,
for you are the righteous God, the Soul-Searcher, who looks deep into every heart to examine the thoughts and motives.
- ¹⁰God, your wrap-around presence is my protection, and my defense.
You bring victory to all who reach out for you.
- ¹¹Righteousness is revealed every time you judge.
Because of the strength of your forgiveness,^a your anger does not break out every day even though you are a righteous Judge.

^a 7:11 As translated from the Septuagint.

¹²⁻¹³Yet if the wicked do not repent, you will not relent with your wrath;
 slaying them with your shining sword.
 You are the Conqueror with an arsenal of lethal weapons that you've prepared for them.
 You have bent and strung your bow, making your judgment-arrows shafts of burning fire.

¹⁴⁻¹⁵Look how the wicked conceive their evil schemes.
 They go into labor with their lies and give birth to trouble.
 They dig a pit for others to fall into,
 not knowing that they will be the very ones that will fall into their own pit of failure.

¹⁶For you, God, will see to it that every pit-digger who works to trap and harm others will be trapped and harmed by their own treachery.

¹⁷But I will give all my thanks to you, Lord, for you make everything right in the end.
 I will sing my highest praise to the God of the Highest Place!^a

Psalm 8

GOD'S SPLENDOR

For the Pure and Shining One Set to the melody of "For the Feast of Harvest"^b by King David ¹Lord, your name is so great and powerful!

 People everywhere see your splendor.

^a 7:17 Or "to Adonai Elyon."

^b This inscription in the Septuagint is, "To the director over the wine vats."

Your glorious majesty streams from the heavens, filling the earth with the fame of your name!

²You have built a stronghold by the songs of babies.

Strength rises up with the chorus of singing children.

This kind of praise has the power to shut Satan's mouth.

Childlike worship will silence^a the madness of those who oppose you.

³Look at the splendor of your skies,

your creative genius glowing in the heavens.

When I gaze at your moon and your stars mounted like jewels in their settings,

I know you are the Fascinating Artist who fashioned it all!

But when I look up and see such wonder and workmanship above,

I have to ask you this question:

⁴Compared to all this cosmic glory,^b

why would you bother with puny, mortal man or be infatuated with Adam's sons?

⁵Yet what honor you have given to man, created only a little lower than Elohim,^c crowned like kings and queens^d with glory and magnificence.

⁶As lords of creation you have delegated to them mastery over all you have made,

^a 8:2 There may be a vast difference between the glory of the heavens and the little mouths of children and babies, yet by both the majestic name of the Lord is revealed. It is amazing that perfected praises do not rise to God from the cherubim or seraphim, but from the children and babies, the weakest of humanity.

^b 8:4 Implied in the text. David looked away from the darkness of earth and saw the divine order of the universe. This psalm is meant to join the earth to the heavens, and to bring the heavenly glory into the earth, making the heavens and the earth one.

^d 8:5 The concept of kings and queens is implied in the text by the word crowned.

making everything subservient to their authority, placing earth itself under the feet of your image-bearers.^a ⁷⁻⁸All the created order and every living thing of the earth, sky, and sea—
 the wildest beasts and all the sea creatures, everything is in submission to Adam's sons.^b ⁹Lord, your name is so great and powerful.
 People everywhere see your majesty!
 What glory streams from the heavens,
 filling the earth with the fame of your name!

Psalm 9

TRIUMPHANT THANKS

*For the Pure and Shining One
 To the tune of "The Secrets of the Son"^c by King David*

¹Lord, I will worship you with extended hands as my whole heart explodes with praise!
 I will tell everyone everywhere about your wonderful works and how your marvelous miracles exceed expectations!
²I will jump for joy and shout in triumph
 as I sing your song and make music for the Most High God.

^a 8:6 Implied in the text. The Septuagint translation of 8:5-7 is quoted in Hebrews 2:6-8. Today, all things are not yet under our feet. Even mosquitoes still come to defeat us. But there will be a time of restoration because of Christ's redemption, when everything will rest beneath our authority. See Isaiah 11:6-9, 65:25; Matthew 19:28; & Revelation 20:4-6.

^b 8:7-8 Implied in the context.

^c As translated by Augustine, an early church father. The Hebrew is "to the death of the Son."

- ³For when you appear, I worship while all of my enemies run in retreat.
They stumble and perish before your presence.
- ⁴For you have stood up for my cause and vindicated me when I needed you the most.
From your righteous throne you have given me justice.
- ⁵With a blast of your rebuke nations are destroyed.
You obliterated their names forever and ever.
- ⁶The Lord thundered and our enemies have been cut off, vanished in everlasting ruins.
All their cities have been destroyed—
even the memory of them has been erased.
- ⁷But the Lord of eternity, our mighty God, lives and reigns forever!
He sits enthroned as King ready to render his verdicts and judge all with righteousness.
- ⁸He will issue his decrees of judgment, deciding what is right for the entire world, dispensing justice to all.
- ⁹All who are oppressed may come to you as a shelter in the time of trouble, a perfect hiding place.
- ¹⁰May everyone who knows your mercy keep putting their trust in you, for they can count on you for help no matter what.
O Lord, you will never, no never, neglect those who come to you.
- ¹¹Listen everyone! Sing out your praises to the God who lives and rules within Zion!
Tell the world about all the miracles he has done!
- ¹²He tracks down killers and avenges bloodshed,
but he will never forget the ones forgotten by others, hearing every one of their cries for justice.

¹³So now, O Lord, don't forget me.

Have mercy on me.

Take note of how I've been humiliated at the hands of those who hate me.

Bring me back again from the brink, from the very gates of death.

¹⁴Save me! Bring me to the spiritual gates of Zion^a so I can bring you the shout of praise you deserve.

¹⁵For the godless nations get trapped in the very snares they set for others.

The hidden trap they set for the weak has snapped shut upon themselves—guilty!

¹⁶The Lord is famous for this: his justice will punish the wicked.

While they are digging a pit for others,

they are actually setting the terms for their own judgment.

They will fall into their own pit.

Consider the truth of this and pause in his presence^b

¹⁷Don't forget this: all the wicked will one day fall into the darkness of death's domain and remain there, including the nations that forget God and reject his ways.

¹⁸He will not ignore forever all the needs of the poor for those in need shall not always be crushed.

Their hopes shall be fulfilled, for God sees it all!^c

¹⁹Lord, won't you now arise to judge and punish the nations who defy you?

Aren't you fed up with their rebellion?

²⁰Make them tremble in fear before your presence.

Place a lawgiver over them.

Make them know that they are only puny, frail humans who must give account to you!

Pause in his presence

^a 9:14 Or "Daughter Gates of Zion."

^b 9:16 The Hebrew word Higayon means to consider the truth of the matter.

Psalm 10

THE CRY OF THE OPPRESSED^a

- ¹Lord, you seem so far away when evil is near!
 Why do you stand so far off as though you don't care?
 Why have you hidden yourself when I need you the most?
- ²The arrogant in their elitist pride persecute the poor and helpless.
 May you pour out upon them
 the very evil they've planned against others!
- ³How they brag and boast of their cravings, exalting the greedy.
 They congratulate themselves as they despise you.
- ⁴These arrogant ones, so smug and secure,
 in their delusion the wicked boast, saying:
 "God doesn't care about what we do.
 There's nothing to worry about!
 Our wealth will last a lifetime."
- ⁵So seemingly successful are they in their schemes, prosperous in all their plans and scoffing at any restraint.
- ⁶They boast that neither God nor men will bring them down.
 They sneer at all their enemies saying in their hearts,
 "We'll have success in all we do and never have to face trouble"— never realizing that they are speaking this in vain.
- ⁷Their mouths spout out cursing, lies, and threats.
 Only trouble and turmoil come from all their plans.
- ⁸⁻⁹Like beasts lurking in the shadows of the city they crouch silently in ambush for the people to pass by.

^a It is likely that Psalms 9 and 10 were originally one psalm. Eight Hebrew manuscripts unite them as well as the Aramaic, Septuagint, and the Latin Vulgate. The Catholic Bible is based on the Latin Vulgate and therefore has a different numbering for the Psalms.

- Pouncing on the poor, they catch them in their snare to murder their prey in secret!
They plunder their victims, presuming them all as inferior.^a
- ¹⁰They crush the lowly as they fall beneath their brutal blows, watching their victims collapse in defeat!
- ¹¹Then they say to themselves,
“The Lofty One is not watching while we do this.
He doesn’t even care! We can get away with it!”
- ¹²Now is the time to arise, Lord! Crush them once and for all!
Don’t forget the forgotten and the helpless.
- ¹³How dare the wicked think they’ll escape judgment, believing that you would not call them to account for all their ways.
Don’t let the wicked get away with their contempt of you!
- ¹⁴Lord, I know you see all that they’re doing, noting their each and every deed.
You know the trouble and turmoil they’ve caused.
Now punish them thoroughly for all that they’ve done!
The poor and helpless ones trust in you, Lord,
for you are famous for being the Helper of the fatherless.
I know you won’t let them down.
- ¹⁵Break the power of the wicked, and all their strong-arm tactics.
Search them out and destroy them for the evil things they’ve done.
- ¹⁶You, Lord, are King forever and ever!
You will see to it that all the nations perish from your land.
- ¹⁷Lord, you know and understand all the hopes of the humble and will hear their cries and comfort their hearts, helping them all!

¹⁸The orphans and the oppressed will be terrified no longer, for you will bring them justice, and no one will trouble them.

Psalm 11

SONG OF THE STEADFAST

For the Pure and Shining One by King David

what my well-meaning friends keep saying to me:
"Run away while you can!
Fly away like a bird to hide in the mountains for safety.
For your enemies have prepared a trap for you!
They plan to destroy you with their slander and deceitful lies.
Can't you see them hiding
in their place of darkness and shadows?
They're set against you and all those who live upright lives."
But don't they know, Lord, that I have made you my only Hiding Place.
Don't they know that I always trust in you?^a ³What can the righteous accomplish when truth's pillars are destroyed and law and order collapse?

⁴Yet the Eternal One is never shaken—^b
he is still found in his temple of holiness reigning as Lord and King over all.
He is closely watching everything that happens.

^b 11:4 This is an implied contrast made explicit from the text. This psalm shows the contrast between what can be shaken and what is unshakable.

And with a glance, his eyes examine every heart.^a
 For his heavenly rule will prevail over all.
⁵He will test both the righteous and the wicked, exposing each heart.^b
 God's very soul detests those who love to resort to violence.
⁶He will rain down upon them judgment for their sins.
 A scorching wind will be their portion and lot in life.
⁷But remember this: the Righteous Lord loves what is right and just, and every godly one will come into his presence and gaze upon his face!

Psalm 12

SONG FOR THE NEW DAY

*For the Pure and Shining One
 A song of smiting sung for the new day by King David^c*

¹Help, Lord! Save us! For godly ones are swiftly disappearing.
 Where are the dependable, principled ones?
 They're a vanishing breed!
²Everyone lies, everyone flatters, and everyone deceives.
 Nothing but empty talk, smooth talk, and double-talk.
 Where are the truthful?

a 11:4 The actual Hebrew is "his eyelids." Some see the "eyelid" as the lid of the ark of covenant, which was the mercy seat.

b 11:5 Implied in the text.

c The events surrounding this psalm could be the killing of the priests by Saul in 1 Samuel 22:17–19. Saul ordered the death of "eighty-five men who wore the linen ephod." The killing rampage continued until an entire community of priests had been slaughtered with their women and children. This great evil marked David from that day forward. The inscription found in the Septuagint is "The Eighth Psalm of David."

- ³⁻⁴I know the Lord will not deal gently with people like that!
You will destroy every proud liar who says: "We lie all we want.
Our words are our weapons, and we won't be held accountable.
Who can stop us?"
May the Lord cut off their twisted tongues and seal their lying lips.
May they all be silenced—those that boast and brag with their high-minded talk about doing whatever they want.
- ⁵But the Lord says, "Now I will arise!
I will defend the poor,
those who were plundered, the oppressed,
and the needy who groan for help.
I will arise to rescue and protect them!"
- ⁶For every word God speaks is sure and every promise pure.
His truth is tested, found to be flawless, and ever faithful.
It's pure as sterling silver, refined seven times in a crucible of clay.^a
- ⁷⁻⁸Lord, you will keep us forever safe,
out of the reach of the wicked.
Even though they strut and prowl, tolerating and celebrating what is worthless and vile,
you will still lift up those who are yours!

^a 12:6 The clay furnace is the heart of man. We are the earthen vessel inside which God has placed his flawless words. His words test us, they try us, and they refine us, seven times over, until purified and assimilated into our spirits. The fire of testing purifies us as vessels to carry the Word within our hearts.

Psalm 13

PRAYER TURNS DEPRESSION INTO DELIGHT ^a

For the Pure and Shining One by King David

¹I'm hurting, Lord—will you forget me forever?^b

How much longer, Lord?

Will you look the other way when I'm in need?^c

²How much longer must I cling to this constant grief?

I've endured this shaking of my soul.

So, how much longer will my enemy have the upper hand?

It's been long enough!

³Take a good look at me, God, and answer me!

Breathe your life into my spirit.

Bring light to my eyes in this pitch-black darkness or I will sleep the sleep of death.

⁴Don't let my enemy proclaim, "I've prevailed over him."

For all my adversaries will celebrate when I fall.

⁵Lord, I have always trusted in your kindness, so answer me.^d

I will yet celebrate with passion and joy

when your salvation^e lifts me up.

^a Some believe David composed this shortly after being anointed to be the King of Israel. David knew greatness was his destiny, but he struggled with the persecution and challenges that came before his exaltation. In the wilderness David trusts and prays his way out.

^b 13:1 This is the psalm that describes the journey from self to God, from despair to delight, from feeling abandoned to feeling affirmed. It begins with pain and ends with praise. Moaning gives way to music. We each can take comfort in what David experienced.

^e 13:5 The term for salvation is yeshu'sh, which is nearly identical to Jesus, our Salvation. Our Savior plans blessings and hope for each of us as we trust in him.

⁶I will sing my song of joy to you, the Most High, for in all of this you have strengthened my soul.
My enemies say that I have no Savior, but I know that I have one in you!

Psalm 14

GOD LOOKS DOWN FROM HEAVEN^a

For the Pure and Shining One by King David

¹Only the withering soul^b would say to himself,
“There is no God.”
Anyone who thinks like this is corrupt and callous, depraved and detestable, devoid of what is good.

²The Lord looks down in love, bending over heaven’s balcony,
looking over all of Adam’s sons and daughters.
He’s looking to see if there is anyone who acts wisely, any who are searching for God and wanting to please him.

³But no, everyone has wandered astray, walking stubbornly toward evil.
Not one is good; he can’t even find one.

⁴Look how they live in luxury while exploiting my people!
Won’t these workers of wickedness ever learn?
They don’t ever even think of praying to God.

^a With few differences, Psalm 14 and Psalm 53 are nearly identical. Psalm 14 is practical; Psalm 53 is prophetic. Psalm 14 deals with the past, Psalm 53 with the future.

^b 14:1 Or “fool.” The word for fool comes from a Hebrew word meaning withering. If we make no room for God, we have a withered heart; our moral sense of righteousness is put to sleep, and the noble aspirations of the heart shrivel up and die.

⁵But just look at them now, in panic, trembling with terror.
 For the Lord is on the side of the generation of loyal lovers.
⁶The Lord is always the safest place for the poor when the workers of wickedness oppress them.
⁷How I wish their time of rescue were already here and that God would appear, arising from the midst of his Zion-people
 to save and restore his very own.
 Then what gladness and joy will break forth
 when the Lord rescues Israel!

Psalm 15

LIVING IN THE SHINING PLACE^a

A poetic song by King David

¹Lord, who dares to dwell with you?
 Who presumes the privilege of being close to you, living next to you in your shining place of glory?^b
 Who are those who daily dwell in the life of the Holy Spirit?^c ²They are passionate and wholehearted, always sincere and always speaking the truth—
 for their hearts are trustworthy.

^a Perhaps David's prophetic minstrels sang this song of instruction as they laid the ark to rest in David's tent. It is a song that reveals who will dwell in God's holy presence and who will live with him in heaven's glory. It actually is a description of Zion's perfect Man, Christ Jesus, and all those who are transformed into his image (Romans 8:29).

^c 15:1 This psalm gives us David's Sermon on the Mount. If we will dwell in the Holy Place, there must first be a holy place in our spirit where God dwells. God's guests must submit to the holiness that lives there. There is etiquette for God's house revealed in this psalm.

- ³They refuse to slander^a or insult others;
they'll never listen to gossip or rumors,
nor would they ever harm another with their words.
- ⁴They will speak out passionately against evil and evil workers while commending the faithful ones who follow after the truth.
They make firm commitments and follow through,
even at great cost.
- ⁵They never crush others with exploitation or abuse and they would never be bought with a bribe against the innocent.
They will never be shaken; they will stand firm forever.

Psalm 16

THE GOLDEN SECRET

A precious song, engraved in gold, by King David^b

- ¹Keep me safe, O mighty God.
I run for dear life to you, my Safe Place.
- ²So I said to the Lord God,
"You are my Maker, my Mediator, and my Master.
Any good thing you find in me has come from you."^c

^a 15:3 The Hebrew word for slander, ragal, means to spy on someone and look for evil to use against them.

^b The Hebrew word used in the inscription is michtam. There are many variations of translation for this word. Here are the major ones: golden, graven, a permanent writing, precious, hidden, or jewel. The Septuagint renders this: "a sculptured writing of gold"; other translations call it a "golden poem." Perhaps the most accepted translation of michtam is "engraved in gold." This speaks of the divine nature engraved into our hearts by the Word. A new humanity is now stamped with God-life, engraved in his golden glory.

^c 16:2 The Aramaic text states, "My goodness is found in your presence."

- ³And he said to me,^a “My holy lovers are wonderful,
my majestic ones, my glorious ones, fulfilling all my desires.”
- ⁴Yet, there are those who yield to their weakness,^b and they will have troubles and sorrows unending.
I never gather with such ones,^c nor give them honor in any way.
- ⁵Lord, I have chosen you alone as my inheritance.
You are my prize, my pleasure, and my portion.
I leave my destiny and its timing in your hands.^d
- ⁶Your pleasant path leads me to pleasant places.
I’m overwhelmed by the privileges that come with following you,
for you have given me the best!
- ⁷The way you counsel and correct me makes me praise you more,
for your whispers in the night give me wisdom, showing me what to do next.
- ⁸Because you are close to me and always available,
my confidence will never be shaken,
for I experience your wrap-around presence every moment.
- ⁹My heart and soul explode with joy—full of glory!
Even my body will rest confident and secure.
- ¹⁰For you will not abandon me to the realm of death
nor will you allow your Holy One to experience corruption.
- ¹¹For you bring me a continual revelation of resurrection life,^e
the path to the bliss that brings me face-to-face with you.^f

^b 16:4 As translated from the Septuagint.

^c 16:4 As translated from the Septuagint.

^e 16:11 Implied in the context.

^f 16:11 There is no Hebrew word for presence. When the Psalmist wanted to speak of God’s presence, he used the Hebrew word for face.

Psalm 17

A CRY FOR JUSTICE

A priestly prayer by King David

¹Listen to me, Lord.

Hear the passionate prayer of this honest man.

It's my piercing cry for justice!

My cause is just and my need is real.

I've done what's right and my lips speak truth.

²Lord, I always live my life before your face, so examine and exonerate me.

Vindicate me and show the world I'm innocent.

³For in a visitation of the night

you inspected my heart and refined my soul in fire until nothing vile was found in me.

I've wanted my words and my ways to always agree.

⁴Following your Word has kept me from wrong.

Your ways have molded my footsteps, keeping me from going down the forbidden paths of the destroyer.

⁵My steps follow in the tracks of your chariot wheels, always staying in their path,

never straying from your way.

⁶You will answer me, God; I know you always will, like you always do as you listen with love to my every prayer.

⁷Magnify the marvels of your mercy to all who seek you.^a

Make your Pure One wonderful to me,^b like you do for all those who turn aside to hide themselves in you.

^b 17:7 As translated from the Aramaic.

- ⁸Protect me from harm;
keep an eye on me like you would a child^a reflected in the twinkling of your eye.
Yes, hide me within the shelter of your embrace, under your outstretched wings.^b
- ⁹Protect me there from all my foes.
For there are many who surround my soul to completely destroy me.
- ¹⁰They are pitiless, heartless—hard as nails, swollen with pride and filled with arrogance!
- ¹¹See how they close in on me, waiting for the chance to throw me to the ground.^c
- ¹²They're like lions eager to tear me apart, like young and fearless lions lurking in secret,
so ferocious and cruel—ready to rip me to shreds.
- ¹³Arise, God, and confront them!
Challenge them with your might!^d
Free me from their clutches and rescue me from their rage.
- ¹⁴Throw them down to the ground,
these who live for only this life on earth.
Thrust them out of their prosperity and into their portion in eternity, leaving their wealth and wickedness behind!
- ¹⁵As for me, because I am innocent I will see^e your face until I see you for who you really are.

^a 17:8 Or “daughter.”

^b 17:8 This could also be a reference to the mercy seat, where sacred blood was sprinkled in the Holy of Holies. There the golden cherubim overshadowed all who entered the divine chamber (Exodus 25:18–20).

^c 17:11 This is what they did to Jesus. They threw him to the ground and nailed him to the cross.

^d 17:13 The word used here is sword. An alternative translation would be, “Rescue my soul from the wicked one, who is your sword.” The wicked are sometimes God’s tools to execute his judgments (Isaiah 10:5; Jeremiah 51:20).

^e 17:15 The Hebrew word for gaze, chaza, means “to see a vision.”

Then I will awaken with your form and be fully satisfied,^a fulfilled in the revelation of your glory in me!

Psalm 18^x

I LOVE YOU, LORD

Praises sung to the Pure and Shining One by King David, his servant,^b composed when the Lord rescued David from all his many enemies, including from the brutality of Saul^c ¹Lord, I passionately love you!

I want to embrace you,^d for now you've become my Power!

²You're as real to me as bedrock beneath my feet, like a castle on a cliff, my forever firm Fortress,

my Mountain of hiding, my Pathway of escape,

my Tower of rescue where none can reach me.

My secret Strength and Shield around me, you are Salvation's Ray of Brightness shining on the hillside,^e always the Champion of my cause.

³So all I need to do is to call to you, singing to you, the praiseworthy God.

And when I do, I'm safe and sound in you.

^a 17:15 The Aramaic can be translated, "I will be satisfied when your faith is awakened."

^b This magnificent poem is so important to the Holy Spirit that it appears twice in the Bible. You will find it again in 2 Samuel 22.

^c Or "the paw of Saul." He was like a beast that chased David until his death.

^d 18:1 The Hebrew word used here for "love" is not the usual word to describe love. It is a fervent and passionate word that carries the thought of embrace and touch. It could actually be translated, "Lord, I want to hug you!" Haven't you ever felt like that?

^e 18:2 The Hebrew word for "horn" (i.e., horn of my salvation) comes from a root word meaning ray of brightness or hillside. The translator has chosen to include both concepts in the translation.

- 4-5 For when the spirit of death wrapped chains around me^a and terrifying torrents of destruction overwhelmed me, taking me to death's door, to doom's domain, 6 I cried out to you in my distress, the delivering God,
and from your temple-throne you heard my troubled cry.
My sobs came right into your heart and you turned your face to rescue me.^b
- 7 The earth itself shivered and shook.
It reeled and rocked before him.
As the mountains trembled, they melted away!
For his anger was kindled, burning on my behalf.
- 8 Fierce flames leapt from his mouth, erupting with blazing, burning coals as smoke and fire encircled him.
- 9-10 He stretched heaven's curtain open and came to my defense.
Swiftly he rode to earth as the stormy sky was lowered.
He rode a chariot of thunderclouds amidst thick darkness,
a cherub, his steed, as he swooped down, soaring on the wings of spirit-wind.
- 11 Wrapped and hidden in the thick-cloud darkness,
his thunder-tabernacle surrounded him.
He hid himself in mystery-darkness;
the dense rain clouds were his garments.
- 12 Suddenly the brilliance of his presence broke through with lightning bolts and with a mighty storm from heaven—like a tempest dropping coals of fire.

a 18:4-5 Or "When the flood of Belial made me afraid."

b 18:6 This scene is a poetic portrayal not only of how God answered David's prayer, but also a picture of the sufferings of a greater Son of David, Jesus, who hung on the cross with cries of agony. God heard him and shook the planet as thick clouds covered the sun.

- ¹³The Lord thundered, the great God above every god spoke with his thunder-voice from the skies.
What fearsome hailstones and flashes of fire were before him!
- ¹⁴He released his lightning-arrows, and routed my foes.
See how they ran and scattered in fear!
- ¹⁵Then with his mighty roar he laid bare the foundations of the earth, uncovering the secret source of the sea.
The hidden depths of land and sea were exposed by the hurricane-blast of his hot-breath.
- ¹⁶He then reached down from heaven,
all the way from the sky to the sea.
He reached down into my darkness to rescue me!
He took me out of my calamity and chaos and drew me to himself, taking me from the depths of my despair!
- ¹⁷Even though I was helpless in the hands of my hateful, strong enemy,^a you were good to deliver me.
- ¹⁸When I was at my weakest, my enemies attacked—
but the Lord held on to me.
- ¹⁹His love broke open the way and he brought me into a beautiful broad place.^b
He rescued me—because his delight is in me!^c
- ²⁰He rewarded me for doing what’s right and staying pure.
- ²¹I will follow his commands and never stop.
I’ll not sin by ceasing to follow him no matter what.
- ²²For I’ve kept my eyes focused on his righteous words and I’ve obeyed everything that he’s told me to do.

^a 18:17 Death is our strong enemy. Only through Christ are we delivered from its grip.

^b 18:19 This could be the throne room of heaven.

^c 18:19 Here in verses 16–19 you can see the glorious resurrection of Christ as the Father reached down and kissed the Son with life and love. Read it again and think of Christ in the tomb being raised by the Father.

- ²³I've done my best to be blameless and to follow all his ways, keeping my heart pure.
- ²⁴I've kept my integrity by surrendering to him.
And so the Lord has rewarded me with his blessing.
This is the treasure I discovered
when I kept my heart clean before his eyes.
- ²⁵Lord, it is clear to me now that how we live will dictate how you deal with us.^a Good people will taste your goodness, Lord.
And to those who are loyal to you,
you love to prove that you are loyal and true.
- ²⁶And for those who are purified, they find you always pure.
But you'll outwit the crooked and cunning with your craftiness.
- ²⁷To the humble you bring heaven's deliverance.
But the proud and haughty you disregard.
- ²⁸God, all at once, you turned on a floodlight for me!
You are the revelation light in my darkness,
and in your brightness I can see the path ahead.
- ²⁹With you as my strength I can crush an enemy horde advancing through every stronghold that stands in front of me.
- ³⁰What a God you are! Your path for me has been perfect!
All your promises have proven true.
What a secure shelter for all those who turn to hide themselves in you!
You are the wrap-around God giving grace to me.^b
- ³¹Could there be any other god like you?
You are the only God to be worshiped, for there is not a more secure foundation to build my life upon than you.

^b 18:30 The Hebrew word used here for shield means to wrap around in protection. God himself is our shield of grace.

- ³²You have wrapped me in power, and now you've shared with me your perfection.^a
- ³³Through you I ascend to the highest peaks of your glory to stand in the heavenly places, strong and secure in you.
- ³⁴You've trained me with the weapons of warfare-worship;
now I'll descend down into battle with power to chase and conquer my foes.
- ³⁵You empower me for victory with your wrap-around presence.
Your power within makes me strong to subdue, and by stooping down in gentleness you strengthened me and made me great!
- ³⁶You've set me free from captivity and now I'm standing complete, ready to fight some more!
- ³⁷I caught up with my enemies and conquered them,
and didn't turn back until the war was won!
- ³⁸I pinned them to the ground and broke them to pieces.
I finished them once and for all; they're as good as dead.
- ³⁹You've placed your armor upon me and defeated my enemies, making them bow low at my feet.
- ⁴⁰You've made them all turn tail and run,
for through you I've destroyed them all!
Forever silenced they'll never taunt me again.
- ⁴¹They shouted for help but not one dares to rescue them.
They shouted to God but he refused to answer them.
- ⁴²So I pulverized them to powder and cast them to the wind.
I swept them away like dirt on the floor.
- ⁴³You gave me victory on every side,
for look how the nations come to serve me.
Even those I've never heard of come and bow at my feet.
- ⁴⁴As soon as they heard of me they submitted to me.
Even the rebel foreigners obey my every word.

^a 18:32 The Septuagint is, "You have set me way blameless (in perfection)."

- ⁴⁵Their rebellion fades away as they come near; trembling in their strongholds
they come crawling out of their hideouts.
Cringing in fear before me, their courage is gone.
- ⁴⁶The Almighty is alive and conquers all!
Praise is lifted high to the unshakable God!
Towering over all, my Savior-God is worthy to be praised!
- ⁴⁷Look how he pays back harm to all who harm me,
subduing all the people who come against me.
- ⁴⁸He rescues me from my enemies;
he lifts me up high and keeps me out of reach,
far from the grasp of my violent foe.
- ⁴⁹This is why I thank God with high praises!
I will sing my song to the Highest God,
so all among the nations will hear me.
- ⁵⁰You have appointed me king and rescued me time and time again with your magnificent miracles.
You've been merciful and kind to me, your anointed one.
This favor will be forever seen upon your loving servant, David, and to all my true seed, every heir of this promise!^a

Psalm 19

GOD'S WITNESSES

*For the Pure and Shining One
A poem of praise by King David, his loving servant*

God's Story in the Skies

- ¹God's splendor is a tale that is told;
his testament is written in the stars.^a Space itself speaks his story every day through the marvels of the heavens.
His truth is on tour in the starry-vault of the sky, showing his skill in creation's craftsmanship.
- ²Each day gushes out its message^b to the next,
night with night whispering its knowledge to all.
- ³Without a sound, without a word, without a voice being heard,
- ⁴Yet all the world can see its story.
Everywhere its gospel^c is clearly read so all may know.
- ⁵What a heavenly home God has set for the sun, shining in the superdome of the sky!
See how he leaves his celestial chamber each morning, radiant as a bridegroom ready for his wedding,
like a day-breaking champion eager to run his course.
- ⁶He rises on one horizon, completing his circuit on the other,
warming lives and lands with his heat.

God's Story in the Scriptures

- ⁷God's Word is perfect in every way;
how it revives our souls!

^b 19:2 Or "speaks its prophecy."

^c 19:4 Literal translation from the Aramaic. There are many who believe that constellations (Heb. mazzarot) of the sky bring us the revelation of the gospel of Jesus Christ. A message is being given without words, sound, or a voice. See Job 38:31–33.

- His laws lead us to truth, and his ways change the simple into wise.
- ⁸His teachings make us joyful and radiate his light;
his precepts are so pure!
His commands, how they challenge us to keep close to his heart!
The revelation-light of his Word makes my spirit shine radiant.
- ⁹Everyone of the Lord's commands are right;
following them brings cheer.^a Nothing he says ever needs to be changed.
- ¹⁰The rarest treasures of life are found in his truth.
That's why I prize God's Word like others prize the finest gold.
Nothing brings the soul such sweetness as seeking his living words.
- ¹¹For they warn us, his servants, and keep us from following the wicked way, giving a lifetime guarantee:
Great success to every obedient soul!
- ¹²Without this revelation light,^b
how would I ever detect the waywardness of my heart?^c Lord, forgive my hidden flaws whenever you find them.
- ¹³Keep cleansing me, God,
and keep me from my secret, selfish sins;
may they never rule over me!
For only then will I be free from fault and remain innocent of rebellion.
- ¹⁴So may the words of my mouth, my meditation-thoughts, and every movement of my heart be always pure and pleasing, acceptable before your eyes,
my only Redeemer, my Protector-God.^d

^b 19:12 Implied in the text.

^c 19:12 The word waywardness is taken from the Hebrew word for errors.

^d 19:14 Implied in the text.

Psalm 20

A SONG OF TRUST

*For the Pure and Shining One
For the end times by King David^a*

¹In your day of danger may the Lord answer and deliver you!
May the name of the God of Grace^b set you safely on high!

²May supernatural help be sent from his sanctuary!
May he support you from Zion's fortress!

³May he remember every gift you have given him,
and celebrate every sacrifice of love you have shown him.

Pause in his presence

⁴May God give you every desire of your heart and carry out your every plan as you go to battle.^c

⁵When you succeed, we will celebrate and shout for joy.
Flags will fly when victory is yours!
Yes, God will answer your prayers and we will praise him!

⁶I know God gives me all that I ask for and brings victory to his anointed king.
My deliverance cry will be heard in his holy heaven.
Through his mighty hand miracles will manifest through his saving strength.

⁷Some find their strength in their weapons and wisdom,
but my miracle deliverance can never be won by men.
Our boast is in the Lord our God who makes us strong and gives us victory!

^a The inscription for Psalm 20–22 is “For the End Times,” as translated from the Septuagint.

^b 20:1 The name used for God here is “The God of Jacob.” Jacob was one transformed by God's grace, changed from a schemer who took from others, into Israel, God's prince.

^c 20:4 Implied in the context.

⁸Our enemies will not prevail; they will only collapse and perish in defeat while we will rise up, full of courage.

⁹Give victory to our king, O God!

The day we call on you, give us your answer!

Psalm 21

THROUGH YOUR STRENGTH

For the end time, to the Pure and Shining One King David's poem of praise

¹Lord, because of your strength the king is strong.

Look how he rejoices in you!^a

He bursts out with a joyful song because of your victory!

²For you have given him his heart's desire, anything and everything he asks for.

You haven't withheld a thing from your betrothed one.

Pause in his presence

³Rich blessings overflow with every encounter with you, and you placed a royal crown of gold upon his head.

⁴He wanted resurrection—you have given it to him and more!

The days of his blessing stretch on one after another, forever!

⁵You have honored him and made him famous.

Glory garments are upon him,

and you surround him with splendor and majesty.

⁶Your victory heaps blessing after blessing upon him.

What joy and bliss he tastes, rejoicing before your face!

⁷For the king trusts endlessly in you,

and he will never stumble, never fall.

Your forever-love never fails and holds him firm.

^a 21:1 Think of this song as a praise song to Jesus, our true King.

- ⁸Your almighty hands have captured your foes.
 You uncovered all who hate you and you seized them.
- ⁹⁻¹⁰When you appear before them, unveiling the radiance of your face,^a they will be consumed by the fierce fire of your presence.
 Flames will swallow them up.
 They and their descendants will be destroyed by an unrelenting fire.
- ¹¹We will watch them fail,
 for these are ones who plan their evil schemes against the Lord.
- ¹²They will turn and run at the sight of your judgment-arrow aimed straight at their hearts.
- ¹³Rise up and put your might on display!
 By your strength we will sing and praise your glorious power!

Psalm 22

A PROPHETIC PORTRAIT OF THE CROSS^b

For the Pure and Shining One King David's song of anguish, to the tune of "The Deer at the Dawning of the Day"^c

- ¹God, my God!
 Why would you abandon me now?^d

^b There were thirty-three distinct prophecies from this psalm that were fulfilled when Jesus was on the cross.

^c This could be an amazing picture of Christ giving birth at the cross to a generation of his seed. They are like children of God born in the dawning of that resurrection morning.

^d 22:1 When Jesus quoted these words dying on the cross, he was identifying himself as the One David wrote about in this psalm. It is a breathtaking portrayal of what Jesus endured through his suffering for us. The psalm ends with another quotation of Jesus on the cross: "It is finished!"

- ²Why do you remain distant, refusing to answer^a my tearful cries in the day and my desperate cries for your help in the night?
 I can't stop sobbing.
 Where are you, my God?
- ³Yet, I know that you are most holy; it's indisputable.
 You are God-Enthroned, surrounded with songs, living among the shouts of praise of your princely people.
- ⁴Our fathers' faith was in you—through the generations they trusted and believed in you and you came through.
- ⁵Every time they cried out to you in their despair,
 you were faithful to deliver them;
 you didn't disappoint them.
- ⁶But look at me now; I am like a woeful worm, crushed, and I'm bleeding crimson.^b
 I don't even look like a man anymore.
 I've been abused, despised, and scorned by everyone!
- ⁷Mocked by their jeers, despised with their sneers—
 as all the people poke fun at me, spitting their insults.
- ⁸Saying, "Is this the one who trusted in God?
 Is this the one who claims God is pleased with him?
 Now let's see if your God will come to your rescue!
 We'll just see how much he delights in you!"
- ⁹Lord, you delivered me safely from my mother's womb.
 You are the One who cared for me ever since I was a baby.

^a 22:2 David uses poetic nuance here, for the word answer ('anah) is also a Hebrew homonym for affliction.

^b 22:6 The Hebrew word for worm is tola, which is also the word for crimson or scarlet. Tola was a certain worm in the Middle East that, when crushed, bled a crimson color so strong it was used as a dye for garments. Jesus was not saying he is a despised worm, but that he will bleed as he is crushed for our sins.

- ¹⁰Since the day I was born, I've been placed in your custody.
You've cradled me throughout my days.
I've trusted in you and you've always been my God.
- ¹¹So don't leave me now, stay close to me!
For trouble is all around me and there's no one else to help me.
- ¹²I'm surrounded by many violent foes;
mighty forces of evil are swirling around me that want to break me to bits and destroy me.^a
- ¹³Curses pour from their mouths!
They're like ravenous, roaring lions tearing their prey.
- ¹⁴Now I'm completely exhausted, I'm spent.
Every joint of my body has been pulled apart.
My courage has vanished and my inward parts have melted away.
- ¹⁵I'm so thirsty and parched—dry as a bone.
My tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth.
And now you've left me in the dust for dead.
- ¹⁶They have pierced my hands and my feet.
Like a pack of wild dogs they tear at me, swirling around me with their hatred.
They gather around me like lions to pin^b my hands and feet.
- ¹⁷All my bones stick out.
Look at how they all gloat over me and stare!
- ¹⁸With a toss of the dice they divide my clothes among themselves, gambling for my garments!
- ¹⁹Lord, my God, please don't stay far away.
For you are my only might and strength.
Won't you come quickly to my rescue?

^a 22:12 Many translations have here "strong bulls of Bashan." The root word for bull means to break or destroy. The word Bashan, although known as a fertile land northeast of the Sea of Galilee, is also a word for serpent. These represent the many demonic spirits who came against the Son of God as he was being crucified.

^b 22:16 Or "to maul" or "to pierce."

- ²⁰Give me back my life.
 Save me from this violent death.
 Save my precious one and only^a from the power of these demons!^b
- ²¹Save me from all the power of the enemy, from this roaring lion raging against me and the power of his dark horde.
- ²²I will praise your name before all my brothers;
 as my people gather I will praise you in their midst.^c
- ²³Lovers of Yahweh, praise him!
 Let all the true seed of Jacob glorify him with your praises.
 Stand in awe of him all you princely people,
 the offspring of Israel!
- ²⁴For he has not despised my cries of deep despair.
 He's my First Responder to my sufferings, and he didn't look the other way when I was in pain.
 He was there all the time, listening to the song of the afflicted.
- ²⁵You're reason for my praise; it comes from you and goes to you.
 I will keep my promise to praise you before all who fear you among the congregation of your people.
- ²⁶I will invite the poor and broken and they will come and eat until satisfied.

a 22:20 Or “unique,” or, “darling.” We are that one and only child and “unique darling” here in this psalm. See also Song of Songs 6:9. On the cross, Jesus—like a deer giving birth at the dawning light (see inscription of Psalm 22)—cared less that his body was being torn apart, and more for our protection and salvation. He prayed for us as he faced the death of the cross.

b 22:20 The Hebrew text uses the word dogs, which implies evil spirits who were bent on destroying Jesus on the cross. The Hebrew word for dog is taken from a root word meaning to attack.

c 22:22 Between verse 21 and verse 22 the glorious resurrection of Jesus takes place. The music is elevated to a higher key as victory is sounded forth. “My people gather” is a reference to the church that was birthed through his resurrection glory. (See also verse 25.)

Bring Yahweh praise and you will find him.

Your hearts will overflow with outrageous joy!^a ²⁷From the four corners of the earth,

the peoples of the world will remember and return to the Lord.

Every nation will come and worship him.

²⁸For the Lord is King of all who takes charge of all the nations.

²⁹There they are! They're worshiping!

The wealthy of this world will feast in fellowship with him right alongside the humble of heart, bowing down to the dust, forsaking their own souls.

They will all come and worship this worthy King!

³⁰His spiritual seed^b shall serve him.

Future generations will hear from us about the wonders of the Sovereign Lord.

³¹His generation yet to be born will glorify him.

And they will all declare: "It is finished!"

^b 22:30 Implied in the text. Jesus, our crucified Savior, had no natural offspring. These are the sons and daughters that were birthed by the work of the cross.

Psalm 23

THE GOOD SHEPHERD

David's poetic praise to God^c

¹The Lord is my Best Friend and my Shepherd.^d

I always have more than enough.

²He offers a resting place for me in his luxurious love.

His tracks take me to an oasis of peace, the quiet brook of bliss.

³That's where he restores and revives my life.^e

He opens before me pathways to God's pleasure, and leads me along in his footsteps of righteousness^f
so that I can bring honor to his name.

⁴Lord, even when your path takes me through the valley of deepest darkness, fear will never conquer me, for you already have!

You remain close to me and lead me through it all the way.

Your authority is my strength and my peace.^g

^c Most scholars conclude that Psalm 23 was written by David when he was a young shepherd serving his father, Jesse, while he was keeping watch over sheep near Bethlehem. He was most likely sixteen or seventeen years old. The other psalm that he wrote when but a young lad was Psalm 19. Those are two good psalms to memorize and meditate upon if you want to have the heart of the giant killer.

^d 23:1 The word most commonly used for shepherd is ra'ah which is also the Hebrew word for "best friend." The translation includes both meanings.

^e 23:3 Or "He causes my life (or soul, Heb. nephesh) to return." So often life drains out of us through our many activities, but David found that God restores our well being by pursuing what pleases God and resting in him.

^f 23:3 Or "circular paths of righteousness." It is a common trait for sheep on the hillsides of Israel to circle their way up higher. They eventually form a path that keeps leading them higher. This is what David is referring to here. Each step we take following our Shepherd will lead us higher, even though it may seem we are going in circles.

The comfort of your love takes away my fear.

I'll never be lonely, for you are near.^a ⁵You become my delicious feast

even when my enemies dare to fight.

You anoint me with the fragrance of your Holy Spirit;^b you give me all I can drink of you until my heart overflows.

⁶So why would I fear the future?

For I'm being pursued only by your goodness and unfailing love.

Then afterwards—when my life is through,

I'll return to your glorious presence to be forever with you!

Psalm 24

THE GLORIOUS KING

David's poetic praise to God^c

¹God claims the world as his!

Everything and everyone belongs to him!

²He's the One who pushed back oceans to let the dry ground appear, planting firm foundations for the earth.

³Who, then, ascends into the presence of the Lord?^d

And who has the privilege of entering into God's Holy Place?

⁴Those who are clean—whose works and ways are pure, whose hearts are true and sealed by the truth,

those who never deceive, whose words are sure.

^a 23:4 Implied in the text.

^b 23:5 The word oil becomes a symbol of the Holy Spirit.

^d 24:3 Or "hill of the Lord."

⁵They will receive the Lord's blessing and righteousness given by the Savior-God.

⁶They will stand before God, for they seek the pleasure of God's face,^a the God of Jacob.

Pause in his presence

⁷So wake up, you living gateways!
Lift up your heads, you ageless doors of destiny!
Welcome the King of Glory,
for he is about to come through you.

⁸You ask, "Who is this Glory-King?"
The Lord, armed and ready for battle,
the Mighty One, invincible in every way!

⁹So wake up, you living gateways, and rejoice!^b
Fling wide, you ageless doors of destiny!
Here he comes; the King of Glory is ready to come in.

¹⁰You ask, "Who is this King of Glory?"
He's the Lord of Victory, armed and ready for battle, the Mighty One, the invincible Commander of heaven's hosts!
Yes, he is the King of Glory!

Pause in his presence

^a 24:6 The Hebrew is plural ("faces").

^b 24:9 The Hebrew text says, "lift up your heads," which is a figure of speech for rejoicing. We are the living gateways who rejoice as the Lord draws near to us from his temple.

Psalm 25

DON'T FAIL ME, GOD!^a

King David's poetic praise to God

- ¹Forever I will lift up my soul into your presence, Lord.
²Be there for me, God, for I keep trusting in you.
 Don't allow my foes to gloat over me or the shame of defeat to overtake me.
³For how could anyone be disgraced when they've entwined their hearts with you?
 But they will all be defeated and ashamed
 when they harm the innocent.
⁴Lord, direct me throughout my journey
 so I can experience your plans for my life.
 Reveal the life-paths that are pleasing to you.
⁵Escort me along the way; take me by the hand and teach me.
 For you are the God of my increasing salvation;
 I have wrapped my heart into yours!^b
⁶⁻⁷Forgive my failures as a young man, and overlook the sins of my immaturity.
 Give me grace, Lord! Always look at me through your eyes of love—your forgiving eyes of mercy and compassion.

^a Psalms 25–39 are fifteen poetic songs of bringing pure worship before God. Psalms 25–29 speak of our confidence to worship God. Psalms 30–34 point us to receiving life eternal from our Hero-God. And the last five, Psalms 35–39, bring us to the importance of personal purity and holiness before God as we worship him in truth.

^b 25:5 The Hebrew word most commonly translated as wait (wait upon the Lord) is qavah, which also means to tie together by twisting, or entwine, or wrap tightly. This is a beautiful concept of waiting upon God, not as something passive, but entwining our hearts with him and his purposes.

- When you think of me, see me as one you love and care for.
 How good you are to me!
- ⁸When someone turns to you,
 they discover how easy you are to please—so faithful and true!
 Joyfully you teach them the proper path,
 even when they go astray.
- ⁹Keep showing the humble your path,
 and lead them into the best decision.
 Bring revelation light that trains them in the truth.
- ¹⁰May they obey you, and follow you in the pleasant paths of love and faithfulness!
 For your love surrounds them as your truth takes them forward.
- ¹¹For the honor of your name, Lord, never count my sins and forgive them all—lift their burden off of my life!^a
- ¹²But still one question remains:
 How do I live in the holy fear of God?
 Show me the right path to take.
- ¹³Then prosperity and favor will be my portion,
 and my descendants will inherit all that is good.
- ¹⁴There's a private place reserved for the lovers of God where they sit near him and receive the revelation-secrets of his promises.^b
- ¹⁵Rescue me, Lord, for you're my only Hero.
- ¹⁶Sorrows fill my heart as I feel helpless, mistreated—
 I'm all alone, and in misery!
 Come closer to me now, Lord, for I need your mercy.
- ¹⁷Turn to me, for my problems seem to be going from bad to worse.
 Only you can free me from all these troubles!

^b 25:14 Or "covenant."

- ¹⁸Until you lift this burden, the burden of all my sins, my troubles and trials will be more than I can handle.
Can't you feel my pain?
- ¹⁹Vicious enemies hate me.
There are so many, Lord. Can't you see?
- ²⁰Will you protect me from their power against me?
Let it never be said that I trusted you and you didn't come to my rescue.
- ²¹Your perfection and faithfulness are my bodyguards, for you are my hope and I trust in you as my only protection.
- ²²Zealously, God, we ask you to come save Israel from all her troubles, for you provide the ransom price for your people!^a

Psalm 26

DECLARE ME INNOCENT

King David's poetic praise to God

- ¹You be my Judge and declare me innocent!
Clear my name, for I have tried my best to keep your laws and to trust you without wavering.
- ²Lord, you can scrutinize me.
Refine my heart and probe my every thought.
Put me to the test and you'll find it's true.
- ³I will never lose sight of your love for me.
Your faithfulness has steadied my steps.

^a Psalm 25 is an acrostic psalm—that is, in the Hebrew text every verse begins with a progressive letter of the alphabet. It is considered a poetic device of Hebrew literature. Go back through the psalm and notice how almost every verse begins with the next letter of our English alphabet. See if you can find them. (X was not included.)

- ⁴I won't keep company with tricky, two-faced men, nor will I go the way of those who defraud with hidden motives.
- ⁵I despise the sinner's hangouts, refusing to even enter them.
You won't find me walking among the wicked.
- ⁶⁻⁷When I come before you, I'll come clean,^a approaching your altar with songs of thanksgiving, singing the songs of your mighty miracles.
- ⁸Lord, I love your home, this place of dazzling glory, bathed in the splendor and light of your presence!
- ⁹Don't treat me as one of these scheming sinners who plot violence against the innocent.
- ¹⁰Look how they devise their wicked plans;
holding the innocent hostage for ransom.
- ¹¹I'm not like them, Lord—not at all.
Save me, redeem me with your mercy,
for I have chosen to walk only in what is right.
- ¹²I will proclaim it publicly in every congregation,
and because of you, Lord,
I will take my stand on righteousness alone!

Psalm 27

FEARLESS FAITH

David's poetic praise to God before he was anointed king^b

- ¹The Lord is my Revelation Light to guide me along the way;^c
he's the Source of my salvation to defend me every day.

^a 26:6-7 Or "I wash my hands in innocence."

^b Inscription from the Septuagint.

^c 27:1 See also John 1:5, 9, and 1 John 1:5.

I fear no one!

I'll never turn back and run from you, Lord, surround and protect me.

²When evil ones come to destroy me,
they will be the ones who turn back.

³My heart will not be afraid even if an army rises to attack.
I know that you are there for me so I will not be shaken.

⁴Here's the one thing I crave from God,
the one thing I seek above all else:
I want the privilege of living with him every moment in his house,^a finding the sweet loveliness of his face, filled with awe, delighting in his glory and grace.
I want to live my life so close to him that he takes pleasure in my every prayer.

⁵⁻⁶In his shelter in the day of trouble, that's where you'll find me, for he hides me there in his holiness.
He has smuggled me into his secret place where I'm kept safe and secure—out of reach from all my enemies.
Triumphant now, I'll bring him my offerings of praise, singing and shouting with ecstatic joy!
Yes, listen and you can hear the fanfare of my shouts of praise to the Lord!

⁷God, hear my cry! Show me your grace.
Show me mercy, and send the help I need!

⁸Lord, when you said to me, "Seek my face,"
my inner being responded:
I'm seeking your face with all my heart.

⁹So don't hide yourself, Lord, when I come to find you.
You're the God of my salvation;

^a 27:4 There was not yet a temple built when David wrote this psalm. He is saying that he longs to be surrounded with God's presence, enclosed and encircled with holiness.

- how can you reject your servant in anger?
You've been my only hope,
so don't forsake me now when I need you!
- ¹⁰My father and mother abandoned me. I'm like an orphan!
But you took me in and made me yours.^a
- ¹¹Now teach me all about your ways and tell me what to do.
Make it clear for me to understand for I am surrounded by waiting enemies.
- ¹²Don't let them defeat me, Lord.
You can't let me fall into their clutches!
They keep accusing me of things I've never done while they plot evil against me.
- ¹³Yet, I totally trust you to rescue me one more time, so that I can see once again how good you are while I'm still alive!
- ¹⁴Here's what I've learned through it all:
Don't give up; don't be impatient;
be entwined as one with the Lord.^b
Be brave, courageous, and never lose hope.
Yes, keep on waiting—for he will never disappoint you!

^a 27:10 Every child needs four things: acceptance, focused attention, guidance, and protection. All four of these emotional needs are met by God (verses 7–14).

^b 27:14 Or “wait upon the Lord.” See Psalm 25:5 footnote.

Psalm 28

MY STRENGTH AND SHIELD

David's poetic praise to God

- ¹I'm pleading with you, Lord, help me!^a
Don't close your ears to my cry, for you're my Defender.
If you continue to remain aloof and refuse to answer me,
I might as well give up and die.
- ²Can't you see me turning toward your mercy seat
as I lift my hands in surrendered prayer?
Now, Lord, please listen to my cry.
- ³Don't allow me to be punished along with the wicked—these hypocrites who speak sweetly to their neighbor's face while holding evil against them in their hearts.
- ⁴Go ahead and punish them as they deserve.
Let them be paid back for all their evil plans in proportion to their wickedness.
- ⁵Since they don't care anything about you nor about the great things you've done, take them down like an old building being demolished, never again to be rebuilt.
- ⁶But may your name be blessed and built up!
For you have answered my passionate cry for mercy.
- ⁷You are my Strength and my Shield from every danger.
When I fully trust in you, help is on the way.
I jump for joy and burst forth with ecstatic, passionate praise!
I will sing songs of what you mean to me!

^a 28:1 This psalm was likely written when David was exiled because of the rebellion of his son, Absalom. He was not longing and looking for his throne, but for God's throne (verse 2).

⁸You will be the Inner Strength of all your people, the Mighty Protector of all,
 the Saving Strength for all your anointed ones.
⁹Keep protecting and cherishing your chosen ones;
 in you they will never fall.
 Like a Shepherd going before us, keep leading us forward, forever carrying us in your arms!

Psalm 29

THE GLORY-GOD THUNDERS!

*King David's poetic praise to God for the last days
 The Feast of Tabernacles^a*

¹Proclaim his majesty all you mighty champions, you sons of Almighty God,
 giving all the glory and strength back to him!
²Be in awe before his majesty.
 Be in awe before such power and might!
 Come worship wonderful Yahweh arrayed in all his splendor, bowing in worship as he appears in all his holy beauty.
 Give him the honor due his name!
 Worship him wearing the glory-garments of your holy, priestly calling!
³⁻⁴The voice of the Lord echoes through the skies and seas.
 The Glory-God reigns as he thunders in the clouds.

^a The additional words of the inscription are found in the Septuagint. Psalm 29 is one of the loveliest poems ever written. It is pure and unrestrained praise. The name Yahweh (Jehovah) is found eighteen times in eleven verses. David was a prophetic seer, and this psalm can properly be interpreted to speak of God's majesty revealed in the last days.

So powerful is his voice, so brilliant and bright, how majestic as he thunders over the great waters!^a ⁵His tympanic thunder topples the strongest of trees.^b
 His symphonic sound splinters the mighty forests.
⁶Now he moves Zion's^c mountains by the might of his voice,^d shaking the snowy peaks with his earsplitting sound!
⁷The lightning-fire flashes, striking as he speaks.
⁸God reveals himself when he makes the fault lines quake, shaking deserts, speaking his voice.
⁹God's mighty voice makes the deer to give birth.
 His thunderbolt voice lays the forest bare.
 In his temple all fall before him with each one shouting,
 "Glory, glory, the God of glory!"^e ¹⁰Above the furious flood,^f the Enthroned One reigns, the King-God rules with eternity at his side.
¹¹This is the One who gives his strength and might to his people.
 This is the Lord giving us his kiss of peace.^g

^a 29:3-4 The sea (great waters) is often a term used in the Bible to symbolize the "sea of humanity." See Isaiah 57:20 and Revelation 17:15.

^b 29:5 Trees in the Bible are symbols used for men. The strongest of men are toppled and bowed down when the Glory-God speaks.

^c 29:6 Or "Sirion" (Mt. Hermon), an ancient term for Mount Zion. See Psalm 133.

^f 29:10 The Hebrew word for flood is found thirteen times in the Bible and is always used in connection to man's rebellion and turning away from God. Thirteen is the Biblical number signifying apostasy. Sitting as king, he rules even over the dark flood of evil to make it end.

^g 29:11 In Jewish synagogues this psalm is read on the first day of the feast of Pentecost. The Christian Church was born on Pentecost two thousand years ago when the mighty "storm" of the Spirit came into the upper room. See Acts 2. The last word of this psalm is peace. It begins with a storm, but God brings his people peace even in the midst of storms.

Psalm 30

HE HEALED ME

*King David's poetic praise to God
A song for the Feast of Dedication of the dwelling place*

¹Lord, I will exalt you and lift you high, for you have lifted me up on high!
Over all my boasting, gloating enemies,
you made me to triumph.

²O Lord, my healing God,
I cried out for a miracle and you healed me!

³You brought me back from the brink of death, from the depths below.
Now here I am, alive and well, fully restored!

⁴O sing and make melody, you steadfast lovers of God.
Give thanks to him every time you reflect on his holiness!

⁵I've learned that his anger is short-lived, but his loving favor lasts a lifetime!^a
We may weep through the night, but at daybreak it will turn into shouts of ecstatic joy.

⁶⁻⁷I remember boasting, "I've got it made!
Nothing can stop me now!
I'm God's favored one; he's made me steady as a mountain!"
But then suddenly, you hid your face from me.
I was panic-stricken and became so depressed.

⁸Still I cried out to you, Lord God, I shouted out for mercy, saying:
⁹"What would you gain in my death,
if I were to go down to the depths of darkness?
Will a grave sing your song?
How could death's dust declare your faithfulness?"

^a 30:5 The Septuagint says, "There is wrath in his anger but life in his will [promise]."

¹⁰So hear me now, Lord; show me your famous mercy.

O God, be my Savior and rescue me!

¹¹Then he broke through and transformed all my wailing into a whirling dance of ecstatic praise!

He has torn the veil and lifted from me
the sad heaviness of mourning.

He wrapped me in the glory-garments of gladness.

¹²How could I be silent when it's time to praise you?

Now my heart sings out loud, bursting with joy—
a bliss inside that keeps me singing,

"I can never thank you enough!"

Psalm 31

HOW GREAT IS YOUR GOODNESS

*For the Pure and Shining One
A song of poetic praise by King David*

¹I trust you, Lord, to be my Hiding Place.

Don't let me down.

Don't let my enemies bring me to shame.

Come and rescue me for you are the only God who always does what is right.

²Rescue me quickly when I cry out to you.

At the sound of my prayer may your ear be turned to me.

Be my strong Shelter and Hiding Place on high.

Pull me into victory and breakthrough.

³⁻⁴For you are my high Fortress where I'm kept safe.

You are to me a stronghold of salvation.

When you deliver me out of this peril,
it will bring glory to your name.

As you guide me forth I'll be kept safe from the hidden snares of the enemy—the secret traps that lie before me—for you have become my Rock of Strength.

⁵Into your hands I now entrust my spirit.^a

O Lord, the God of faithfulness, you have rescued and redeemed me.

⁶I despise these deceptive illusions, all this pretense and nonsense;
 for I worship only you.

⁷In mercy you have seen my troubles and you have cared for me;
 even during this crisis in my soul I will be radiant with joy, filled with praise for your love and mercy.

⁸You have kept me from being conquered by my enemy;
 you broke open the way to bring me to freedom,^b into a beautiful, broad place.^c

⁹O Lord, help me again! Keep showing me such mercy.
 For I am in anguish, always in tears,
 and I'm worn-out with weeping.
 I'm becoming old because of grief; my health is broken.

¹⁰I'm exhausted! My life is spent with sorrow, my years with sighing and sadness.
 Because of all these troubles, I have no more strength.
 My inner being^d is so weak and frail.

¹¹My enemies say, "You are nothing!"
 Even my friends and neighbors hold me in contempt!
 They dread seeing me and they look the other way when I pass by.

^a 31:5 This was quoted by Jesus as he was dying on the cross. See Matthew 27:50.

^c 31:8 This could be the throne room where Jesus ascended after his death.

^d 31:10 The Hebrew text says, "My bones grow weak." Bones in the Bible are symbols of our inner being.

- ¹²I am totally forgotten, buried away like a dead man, discarded like a broken dish thrown in the trash.
- ¹³I overheard their whispered threats, the slander of my enemies.
I'm terrified as they plot and scheme to take my life.
- ¹⁴I'm desperate, Lord! I throw myself upon you, for you alone are my God!
- ¹⁵My life, my every moment, my destiny—it's all in your hands.
So I know you can deliver me from those who persecute me relentlessly.
- ¹⁶Let your shining face shine on me.
Let your undying love and glorious grace save me from all this gloom.
- ¹⁷As I call upon you, let my shame and disgrace be replaced by your favor once again.
But let shame and disgrace fall instead upon the wicked—
those going to their own doom, drifting down in silence to the dust of death.
- ¹⁸At last their lying lips will be muted in their graves.
For they are arrogant, filled with contempt and conceit as they speak against the godly.
- ¹⁹Lord, how wonderful you are!
You have stored up so many good things for us, like a treasure chest heaped up and spilling over with blessings—all for those who honor and worship you!
And everybody knows what you can do for those who turn and hide themselves in you.
- ²⁰So, hide all your beloved ones
in the sheltered, secret place before your face.
Overshadow them by your glory-presence.
Keep them from these accusations, the brutal insults of evil men.
Tuck them safely away in the tabernacle where you dwell.
- ²¹The name of the Lord is blessed and lifted high!

For his marvelous miracle of mercy protected me when I was overwhelmed by my enemies.
 22^I spoke so hastily when I said, “The Lord has deserted me.”
 For in truth, you did hear my prayer and came to rescue me.
 23^{Listen to me all you godly ones: Love the Lord with passion!}
 The Lord protects and preserves all those who are loyal to him.
 But he pays back in full all those who reject him in their pride.
 24^{So cheer up! Take courage all you who love him!}
 Wait for him to break through for you, all who trust in him!

Psalm 32

FORGIVEN

A poem of insight and instruction by King David^a

1^{How happy and fulfilled are those} whose rebellion has been forgiven,^b those whose sins are covered by blood!^c 2^{How blessed and relieved are those} who have confessed their corruption^d to God!
 For he wipes their slates clean and removes hypocrisy from their hearts.

^a David wrote this psalm after he seduced the wife of his most loyal soldier, then had him killed to try to keep her pregnancy a secret. This sin with Bathsheba brought great disgrace to David, yet he finds complete forgiveness in God’s mercy. The apostle Paul chose the first two verses of Psalm 32 to support the important doctrine of salvation by grace through faith. See Romans 4:5–8. This was Saint Augustine’s favorite psalm. He had it written on the wall near his bed before he died so he could meditate upon it.

^b 32:1 The Hebrew word for forgiven means lifted off. Sin’s guilt is a burden that must be lifted off our souls. The Septuagint says, “because they have not hidden their sins.”

^c 32:1 Implied in the text.

^d 32:2 David uses three Hebrew words to describe sin in these first two verses: rebellion, sins (failures, falling short), and corruption (crookedness, the twisting of right standards).

³Before I confessed my sins, I kept it all inside;
my dishonesty devastated my inner life, causing my life to be filled with frustration, irrepressible anguish, and misery.

⁴The pain never let up, for your hand of conviction was heavy on my heart.
My strength was sapped, my inner life dried up like a spiritual drought within my soul.

Pause in his presence

⁵Then I finally admitted to you all my sins, refusing to hide them any longer.
So I said, "My life-giving God, I'll openly acknowledge my evil actions."
And you forgave me!
All at once the guilt of my sin washed away and all my pain disappeared!

Pause in his presence

⁶This is what I've learned through it all:
Every believer should confess their sins to God;
do it every time God has uncovered you in the time of exposing.
For if you do this, when sudden storms of life overwhelm, you'll be kept safe.^a ⁷Lord, you are my secret Hiding Place, protecting me from these troubles, surrounding me with songs of gladness!

Your joyous shouts of rescue release my breakthrough.

Pause in his presence

⁸⁻⁹I hear the Lord saying, "I will stay close to you, instructing and guiding you along the pathway for your life.
I will advise you along the way

^a 32:6 Proverbs 2:13 is a good commentary on this verse.

and lead you forth with my eyes as your guide.
 So don't make it difficult, don't be stubborn
 when I take you where you've not been before.
 Don't make me tug you and pull you along.
 Just come with me!"

¹⁰So my conclusion is this:

Many are the sorrows and frustrations of those who don't come clean with God.
 But when you trust in the Lord for forgiveness,
 his wrap-around love will surround you.

¹¹So celebrate the goodness of God!

He shows this kindness to everyone who is his!
 Go ahead—shout for joy,
 all you upright ones who want to please him!

Psalm 33

A SONG OF PRAISE

Poetic praise by King David^a

¹It's time to sing and shout for joy!

Go ahead all you redeemed ones, do it!
 Praise him with all you have,
 for praise looks lovely on the lips of God's lovers.

²Play the guitar as you lift your praises loaded with thanksgiving.

Sing and make joyous music with all you've got inside.

³Compose new melodies^b that release new praises to the Lord.

^a Most manuscripts have no inscription for this psalm. However, ancient Qumran evidence suggests this is the original inscription that was later omitted.

^b 33:3 There are seven new songs mentioned in the Bible. Six are in the Psalms (33:3, 40:3, 96:1, 98:1, 144:9, 149:1) and one in Isaiah (42:10).

- Play his praises on instruments with the anointing and skill he gives you.
Sing and shout with passion; make a spectacular sound of joy—
- ⁴For God's Word is something to sing about!
He is true to his promises; his Word can be trusted;
and everything he does is so reliable and right.
- ⁵The Lord loves seeing justice on the earth.
Anywhere and everywhere you can find his faithful, unfailing love!
- ⁶All he had to do was speak by his Spirit-Wind command and God created the heavenlies.
Filled with galaxies and stars,
the vast cosmos he wonderfully made.
- ⁷His voice scooped out the seas.
The ocean depths he poured into vast reservoirs.
- ⁸Now, with breathtaking wonder,
Let everyone worship Yahweh, this awe-inspiring Creator.
- ⁹Words he breathed and worlds were birthed,
"Let there be" and there it was—
Springing forth the moment he spoke.
No sooner said than done!
- ¹⁰With his breath he scatters the schemes of nations who oppose him;
they will never succeed.
- ¹¹His destiny-plan for the earth stands sure.
His forever-plan remains in place and will never fail.
- ¹²Blessed and prosperous is that nation who has God as their Lord!
They will be the people he chooses for his own.
- ¹³⁻¹⁵The Lord looks over us from where he rules in heaven.
Gazing into every heart from his lofty dwelling place,
he observes all the peoples of the earth.
The Creator of our hearts considers and examines everything we do.
- ¹⁶Even if a king has the best equipped army,
it would never be enough to save him.

- Even if the best warrior went to battle,
 he could not be saved simply by his strength alone.
- ¹⁷Human strength and the weapons of man are such false hopes for victory;
 they may seem mighty but they will always disappoint.
- ¹⁸The eyes of the Lord are upon even the weakest worshipers who love him—^a those who wait in hope and expectation for the strong, steady love of God.
- ¹⁹God will deliver them from death, even the certain death of famine, with no one to help.
- ²⁰The Lord alone is our radiant hope and we trust in him with all our hearts.
 His wrap-around presence will strengthen us.
- ²¹As we trust, we rejoice with an uncontained joy flowing from Yahweh!
- ²²So let your love and steadfast kindness overshadow us continually—for we trust and we wait upon you!

Psalm 34

GOD'S GOODNESS

A song by King David composed after his escape from the king when he pretended to be insane

- ¹Lord! I'm bursting with joy over what you've done for me!
 My lips are full of perpetual praise.
- ²I'm boasting of you and all your works,
 so let all who are discouraged take heart.
- ³Join me everyone! Let's praise the Lord together.

^a 33:18 Implied in the text.

Let's make him famous!

Let's make his name glorious to all.

⁴So listen to my testimony: I cried to God in my distress and he answered me! He freed me from all my fears!

⁵Gaze upon him, join your life with his, and joy will come.

Your faces will glisten with glory.

You'll never wear that shame-face again.

⁶When I had nothing—desperate and defeated,

I cried out to the Lord and he heard me, bringing his miracle-deliverance when I needed it most.^a ⁷The angels stooped down to listen as I prayed, encircling me, empowering me, and showing me how to escape.

They will do this for everyone who fears God.

⁸Drink deeply of the pleasures of this God.^b

Experience for yourself the joyous mercies he gives to all who turn to hide themselves in him.

⁹Worship in awe and wonder, all you who've been made holy!

For all who fear him will feast with plenty.

¹⁰Even the strong and the wealthy^c grow weak and hungry, but those who passionately pursue the Lord will never lack any good thing.

¹¹Come, children of God, and listen to me.

I'll share the lesson I've learned of fearing the Lord.^d

¹²⁻¹³Do you want to live a long, good life, enjoying the beauty that fills each day?

^a 34:6 David wrote this psalm at perhaps the lowest point in his life. He was alone. He had to part from Jonathan, his dearest friend. He was being chased by Saul and his paid assassins. Now he had run to hide in the cave of Adullam ("their prey"). Yet the beautiful sounds of praise were heard echoing in his cavern. This is a lesson for all of us: we praise our way out of our difficulties into his light.

^b 34:8 Many translations read, "Taste and see." The Hebrew root word for see is taken from a word that means, to drink deeply.

^d 34:12-13 See 1 Peter 3:10-12.

- Then never speak a lie or allow wicked words to come from your mouth.
- ¹⁴Keep turning your back on every sin,
and make “peace” your life motto.
Practice being at peace with everyone.
- ¹⁵The Lord sees all we do;
he watches over his friends day and night.
His godly ones receive the answers they seek whenever they cry out to him.
- ¹⁶But the Lord has made up his mind to oppose evildoers and to wipe out even the memory of them from the face of the earth.
- ¹⁷Yet when holy lovers of God cry out to him with all their hearts, the Lord will hear them and come to rescue them from all their troubles.
- ¹⁸The Lord is so close to all whose hearts are crushed by pain, and he is always ready to restore the repentant one.
- ¹⁹Even when bad things happen to the good and godly ones, the Lord will save them and not let them be defeated by what they face.
- ²⁰God will be your bodyguard to protect you when trouble is near.
Not one bone will be broken.
- ²¹But the wicked commit slow suicide.
For they hate and persecute the lovers of God.
Make no mistake about it,
God will hold them guilty and punish them;
they will pay the penalty!
- ²²But the Lord has paid for the freedom of his servants,
and he will freely pardon those who love him.
He will declare them free and innocent when they turn to hide themselves in him.

Psalm 35

RESCUE ME

A poetic song by King David^a Part One – David, a Warrior

- ¹O Lord, fight for me! Harass the hecklers, accuse my accusers.
Fight those who fight against me.
- ²⁻³Put on your armor, Lord; take up your shield and protect me.
Rise up, mighty God! Grab your weapons of war and block the way of the wicked who come to fight me.
Stand for me when they stand against me!
Speak over my soul: “I am your strong Savior!”^b
- ⁴Humiliate those who seek my harm. Defeat them all!
Frustrate their plans to defeat me and drive them back.
Disgrace them all as they have devised their plans to disgrace me.
- ⁵Blow them away like dust in the wind, with the Angel of Almighty God driving them back!
- ⁶And make the road in front of them nothing but slippery darkness, with the Angel of the Lord behind them chasing them away!
- ⁷For though I did nothing wrong to them, they set a trap for me, wanting me to fall and fail.
- ⁸Surprise them with your ambush, Lord, and catch them in the very trap they set for me.
Let them be the ones to fail and fall into destruction!

^a This is the first of seven Psalms in which David cried out for vengeance upon his enemies (Psalms 52, 58, 59, 69, 109, and 137).

^b 35:2-3 The Aramaic word used here is found thirty-three times in the Psalms, and is clearly Savior. Although a New Testament concept, David had a deep understanding almost one thousand years before the Savior was born that God would become his Savior. The Hebrew word for Savior, Yasha, is very similar to the name Jesus, Yeshua.

- ⁹And then my fears will dissolve into limitless joy;
my whole being will overflow with gladness because of your mighty deliverance.
- ¹⁰Everything inside of me will shout it out:
For look at how you protect the weak and helpless from the strong and heartless who oppress them.

Part Two – David, a Witness

- ¹¹They are malicious men, hostile witnesses of wrong.
They rise up against me, accusers appearing out of nowhere.
- ¹²When I show them mercy, they bring me misery.
I’m forsaken and forlorn, like a motherless child.
- ¹³I even prayed over them when they were sick.
I was burdened and bowed low with fasting and interceded for their healing, and I didn’t stop praying.
- ¹⁴I grieved for them, heavyhearted, as though they were my dearest family members or my good friends who were sick, nearing death, needing prayer.
- ¹⁵But when I was the one who tripped up and stumbled,
they came together only to slander me, rejoicing in my time of trouble, tearing me to shreds with their lies and betrayal.
- ¹⁶These nameless ruffians, mocking me like godless fools at a feast—
how they delight in throwing mud on my name.
- ¹⁷God, how long can you just stand there doing nothing?
Now is the time to act.
Rescue me from these brutal men,
for I am being torn to shreds by these “beasts”

who are out to get me.

Save me from their rage, their cruel grasp.

¹⁸ For then I will praise you wherever I go.^a

And when everyone gathers for worship,
I will lift up your praise with a shout
in front of the largest crowd I can find!

Part Three – David, a Worshiper

¹⁹ Don't let those who fight me for no reason be victorious.

Don't let them succeed, these heartless haters who come against me with their gloating sneers.

²⁰ They are the ones who would never seek peace as friends, for they are ever devising deceit against the innocent ones who mind their own business.

²¹ They open their mouths with ugly grins, gloating with glee over my every fault.
"Look," they say, "we caught him red-handed!
We saw him fall with our own eyes!"

²² But my caring God, you have been there all along.
You have seen their hypocrisy.
God, don't let them get away with this.
Don't walk away without doing something.

²³ Now is the time to awake! Rise up, Lord!
Vindicate me, my Lord and my God!

²⁴ You have every right to judge me, Lord, according to your righteousness,
but don't let them rejoice over me when I stumble.

²⁵⁻²⁶ Let them all be ashamed of themselves, humiliated when they rejoice over my every blunder.
Shame them, Lord, when they say, "We saw what he did."
Now we have him right where we want him.

^a 35:18 The Septuagint says, "My only child, I will save you from the lions."

Let's get him while he's down!"
 Make them look ridiculous when they exalt themselves over me.
 May they all be disgraced and dishonored!

²⁷But let all my true friends shout for joy,
 all those who know and love what I do for you.
 Let them all say, "The Lord will be glorified through it all!
 God will still bless his servant!"

²⁸Then I won't be able to hold it in—everyone will hear my joyous praises all day long!
 Your righteousness will be the theme of my glory-song of praise!

Psalm 36

THE BLESSING OF THE WISE

A poetic song by King David, the servant of the Lord

¹The rebellion of sin speaks as an oracle of God, speaking deeply to the conscience of wicked men.^a Yet they are still eager to sin,^b for the fear of God is not before their eyes.

²See how they flatter themselves, unable to detect and detest their sins.
 They are crooked and conceited, convinced they can get away with anything.

³Their wicked words are nothing but lies.
 Wisdom is far from them.
 Goodness is both forgotten and forsaken.

^a 36:1 Or "the heart of the wicked is rebellious to the core."

^b 36:1 Implied in the text.

- ⁴They lay awake at night to hatch their evil plots, always planning their schemes of darkness, and never once do they consider the evil of their ways.
- ⁵But you, O Lord, your mercy-seat love is limitless, reaching higher than the highest heavens.
Your great faithfulness is so infinite, stretching over the whole earth.
- ⁶Your righteousness is unmovable,
just like the mighty mountains.
Your judgments are as full of wisdom
as the oceans are full of water.
Your tender care and kindness leave no one forgotten, not a man nor even a mouse.
- ⁷O God, how extravagant is your cherishing love!
All mankind can find a hiding place under the shadow of your wings.
- ⁸All may drink of the anointing^a from the abundance of your house!
All may drink their fill from the delightful springs of Eden.^b
- ⁹To know you is to experience a Flowing Fountain, drinking in your life, springing up to satisfy.
In the light of your holiness we receive the light of revelation.^c
- ¹⁰Lord, keep pouring out your unfailing love on those who are near you.
Release more of your blessings to those who are loyal to you.
- ¹¹Don't let these proud boasters trample me down;
don't let them push me around by the sheer strength of their wickedness.

^a 36:8 The Hebrew word for abundance is actually butterfat or oil. It is a symbol of the anointing of the Holy Spirit.

^b 36:8 Or "Eden's rivers of pleasure." The garden of Eden had flowing rivers of delight. Eden means pleasure. The Hebrew word used here is the plural form of Eden, Edens.

^c 36:9 See John 1:4.

¹²There they lie in the dirt, these evil ones, thrown down to the ground, never to arise again!

Psalm 37

A SONG OF WISDOM

Poetic praise by King David^a

- ¹Don't follow after the wicked ones or be jealous of their wealth.
Don't think for a moment they're better-off than you.
- ²They and their short-lived success^b will soon shrivel up and quickly fade away like grass clippings in the hot sun.
- ³Keep trusting in the Lord and do what is right in his eyes.
Fix your heart on the promises of God and you will be secure, feasting on his faithfulness.
- ⁴Make God the utmost delight and pleasure of your life,^c and he will provide for you what you desire the most.
- ⁵Give God the right to direct your life,^d and as you trust him along the way you'll find he pulled it off perfectly!
- ⁶He will appear as your Righteousness,^e as sure as the dawning of a new day.

^a Psalm 37 is an acrostic psalm with every other verse beginning with a successive letter of the Hebrew alphabet.

^b 37:2 Implied in the text.

^c 37:4 The word delight actually means to be soft or tender.

^d 37:5 The Hebrew uses the word commit, which means "to roll over your burdens on the Lord."

^e 37:6 The Hebrew verb found here is also used for giving birth. Perhaps this is a reference to the birth of Christ, our Righteousness.

- He will manifest as your Justice, as sure and strong as the noonday sun.
- ⁷Quiet your heart in his presence and pray;
keep hope alive as you long for God to come through for you.
And don't think for a moment that the wicked in their prosperity are better off than you.
- ⁸Stay away from anger and revenge.
Keep envy far from you, for it only leads you into lies.
- ⁹For one day the wicked will be destroyed,
but those who trust in the Lord will live safe and sound with blessings overflowing.
- ¹⁰Just a little while longer and the ungodly will vanish;
you will look for them in vain.
- ¹¹But the humble of heart will inherit every promise^a and enjoy abundant peace.
- ¹²Let the wicked keep plotting against the godly with all their sneers and arrogant jeers.
- ¹³God doesn't lose any sleep over them and he knows their day is coming!
- ¹⁴Evil ones take aim on the poor and helpless;
they are ready to slaughter those who do right.
- ¹⁵But the Lord will intervene^b and turn all their weapons of wickedness back on themselves, piercing their pride-filled hearts until they are the helpless.
- ¹⁶It is so much better to have little combined with much of God than to have the fabulous wealth of the wicked and nothing else.
- ¹⁷For the Lord takes care of all his forgiven ones
while the strength of the evil will surely slip away.

^a 37:11 Jesus said it this way: "The meek will inherit the earth." See Matthew 5:5.

^b 37:15 Implied in the text.

- ¹⁸Day by day the Lord watches the good deeds of the godly and he prepares for them his forever-reward.
- ¹⁹Even in a time of disaster he will watch over them,
and they will always have more than enough no matter what happens.
- ²⁰All the enemies of God will perish.
For the wicked have only a momentary value, a fading glory.
Then one day they vanish! Here today, gone tomorrow.
- ²¹They break their promises, borrowing money
but never paying it back.
The good man returns what he owes with some extra besides.
- ²²The Lord's blessed ones receive it all in the end,
but the cursed ones will be cut off with nothing to show for themselves.
- ²³The steps of the God-pursuing ones
follow firmly in the footsteps of the Lord.
And God delights in every step they take to follow him.
- ²⁴If they stumble badly they will still survive,
for the Lord lifts them up with his hands.
- ²⁵I was once young, but now I'm old.
Not once have I found a lover of God forsaken by him, nor have any of their children gone hungry.
- ²⁶Instead, I've found the godly ones to be the generous ones who give freely to others.
Their children are blessed and become a blessing.
- ²⁷If you truly want to dwell forever in God's presence, then forsake evil and do what is right in his eyes.
- ²⁸The Lord loves it when he sees us walking in his justice.
He will never desert his devoted lovers;
they will be kept forever in his faithful care.
But the descendants of the wicked will be banished.

- ²⁹The faithful lovers of God will inherit the earth and enjoy every promise of God's care, dwelling in peace forever.
- ³⁰God-lovers make the best counselors.
Their words possess wisdom and are right and trustworthy.
- ³¹The ways of God are in their hearts and they won't swerve from the paths of steadfast righteousness.
- ³²Evil ones spy on the godly ones, stalking them to find something they could use to accuse them.
They're out for the kill!
- ³³But God will foil all their plots.
The godly will not stand condemned when brought to trial.
- ³⁴So don't be impatient for the Lord to act;
keep moving forward steadily in his ways,
and he will exalt you at the right time.^a
And when he does, you will possess every promise, including your full inheritance.
You'll watch with your own eyes and see the wicked lose everything.
- ³⁵I've already seen this happen.
Once I saw a wicked and violent man overpower all who were around him, a domineering tyrant with his pride and oppressive ways.
- ³⁶Then he died and was forgotten.
Now no one cares that he is gone forever.
- ³⁷But you can tell who are the blameless and spiritually mature.
What a different story with them!^b
The godly ones will have a peaceful, prosperous future with a happy ending.
- ³⁸Every evil sinner will be destroyed, obliterated.
They'll be utter failures with no future!

^b 37:37 Implied in the context.

- ³⁹But the Lord will be the Savior of all who love him.
 Even in their time of trouble God will live in them as Strength.
- ⁴⁰Because of their faith in him, their daily portion will be a Father's help, and deliverance from evil.
 This is true for all who turn to hide themselves in him!

Psalm 38

A GROAN BEFORE THE THRONE

A poetic lament to remember by King David^a

- ¹O Lord, don't punish me angrily for what I've done.
 Don't let my sin inflame your wrath against me.
- ²For the arrows of your conviction have pierced me so deeply.
 Your blows have struck my soul and crushed me.
- ³Now my body is sick.
 My health is totally broken because of your anger,
 and it's all due to my sins!
- ⁴I'm overwhelmed, swamped, and submerged
 beneath the heavy burden of my guilt.
 It clings to me and won't let me go.
- ⁵My rotting wounds are a witness against me.
 They are severe and getting worse,
 reminding me of my failure and folly.
- ⁶I am completely broken because of what I've done.
 Gloom is all around me.
 My sins have bent me over to the ground.
- ⁷⁻⁸My inner being is shriveled up;
 my self-confidence crushed.

^a The Septuagint has in the inscription: "To be remembered on the Sabbath."

Sick with fever I'm left exhausted.

Now I'm cold as a corpse and nothing is left inside of me but great groaning filled with anguish.

⁹Lord, you know all my desires and deepest longings.

My tears are liquid words and you can read them all.

¹⁰⁻¹¹My heart beats wildly, my strength is sapped, and the light of my eyes is going out.

My friends stay far away from me, avoiding me like the plague.

Even my family wants nothing to do with me.

¹²Meanwhile my enemies are out to kill me, plotting my ruin, speaking of my doom as they spend every waking moment planning on how to finish me off.

¹³⁻¹⁴I'm like a deaf man who no longer hears.

I can't even speak up, and words fail me;

I have no argument to counter their threats.

¹⁵Lord, the only thing I can do is wait and put my hope in you.

I wait for your help, my God.

¹⁶So hear my cry and put an end to their strutting in pride, who gloat when I stumble in pain.

¹⁷I'm slipping away and on the verge of a breakdown, with nothing but sorrow and sighing.^a ¹⁸I confess all my sin to you; I can't hold it in any longer.

My agonizing thoughts punish me for my wrongdoing;

I feel condemned as I consider all I've done.

¹⁹My enemies are many.

They hate me and persecute me,

though I've done nothing against them to deserve it.

²⁰I show goodness to them and get repaid evil in return.

And they hate me even more when I stand for what is right.

²¹So don't forsake me now, Lord!
 Don't leave me in this condition.
²²God, hurry to help me, run to my rescue!
 For you're my Savior and my only hope!

Psalm 39

A CRY FOR HELP

*For the Pure and Shining One
 A song of praising by King David^a*

¹⁻²Here's my life motto, the truth I live by:
 I will guard my ways for all my days.
 I will speak only what is right, guarding what I speak.
 Like a watchman guards against an attack of the enemy,
 I'll guard and muzzle my mouth
 when the wicked are around me.
 I will remain silent and will not grumble, or speak out of my disappointment.
 But the longer I'm silent my pain grows worse!
³⁻⁴My heart burned with a fire within me, and my thoughts eventually boiled over until they finally came rolling out of my mouth.
 "Lord, help me to know how fleeting my time on earth is.
 Help me to know how limited is my life and that I'm only here but for a moment more.
⁵What a brief time you've given me to live!^b

^a The Hebrew inscription includes the name Jeduthun, which can be translated praising.

^b 39:5 Interestingly, the Hebrew word for short in this verse is "a handbreadth," or the span of a man's hand. Our life's duration is compared to a mere six-inch span!

Compared to you my lifetime is nothing at all!
 Nothing more than a puff of air, I'm gone so swiftly.
 And so too are the grandest of men;
 They are nothing but a fleeting shadow!"

Pause in his presence

- ⁶We live our lives like those living in shadows.^a
 All our activities and energies are spent for things that pass away.
 We gather, we hoard, we cling to our things, only to leave them all behind for who knows who.
- ⁷And now, God,^b I'm left with one conclusion.
 My only hope is to hope in you alone!
- ⁸Save me from being overpowered by my sin;
 don't make me a disgrace before the degenerate!
- ⁹Lord, I'm left speechless and I have no excuse,
 so I'll not complain any longer.
 Now I know you're the One who is behind it all.
- ¹⁰But I can't take it much longer.
 Spare me these blows from your discipline-rod.
 For if you are against me, I will waste away to nothing.
- ¹¹No one endures when you rebuke and discipline us for our sins.
 Like a cobweb is swept away with a wave of the hand,
 you sweep away all that we once called dear.
 How fleeting and frail our lives!
 We're nothing more than a puff of air.

Pause in his presence

- ¹²Lord, listen to all my tender cries.
 Read my every tear, like liquid words that plead for your help.
 I feel all alone at times, like a stranger to you passing through this life just like all those before me.

^a 39:6 Or "like phantoms going to and fro."

^b 39:7 The Aramaic is Maryah, the Aramaic form of YHWH or Lord Jehovah.

¹³Don't let me die without restoring joy and gladness to my soul.
 May your frown over my failure become a smile over my success.

Psalm 40

A JOYFUL SALVATION

*For the Pure and Shining One
 A song of poetic praise by King David*

¹I waited and waited and waited some more;
 patiently, knowing God would come through for me.
 Then, at last, he bent down and listened to my cry.

²He stooped down to lift me out of danger from the desolate pit I was in,
 out of the muddy mess I had fallen into.
 Now he's lifted me up into a firm, secure place and steadied me while I walk along his ascending path.

³A new song for a new day rises up in me every time I think about how he breaks through for me!
 Ecstatic praise pours out of my mouth until everyone hears how God has set me free.
 Many will see his miracles;
 they'll stand in awe of God and fall in love with him!

⁴Blessing after blessing comes to those who love and trust the Lord.
 They will not fall away,
 for they refuse to listen to the lies of the proud.

⁵O Lord, our God, no one can compare with you.
 Such wonderful works and miracles are all found with you!
 And you think of us all the time with your countless expressions of love—far exceeding our expectations!

⁶It's not sacrifices that really move your heart.

Burnt offerings, sin offerings—that's not what brings you joy.

But when you open my ears and speak deeply to me,

I become your willing servant and a body you prepared for me.^a ⁷So I said: "Here I am! I'm coming to you as a sacrifice,^b for in the prophetic scrolls of your book

you have written about me.

⁸I delight to fulfill your will, my God, for your living words are written upon the pages of my heart."

⁹I tell everyone everywhere the truth of your righteousness.

And you know I haven't held back in telling the message to all.

¹⁰I don't keep it a secret, or hide the truth.

I preach of your faithfulness and kindness, proclaiming your extravagant love to the largest crowd I can find!

¹¹So Lord, don't hold back your love or withhold your tender mercies from me.

Keep me in your truth and let your compassion overflow to me

no matter what I face.

¹²Evil surrounds me; problems greater than I can solve come one after another.

Without you, I know I can't make it.

My sins are so many!

I'm so ashamed to lift my face to you.

For my guilt grabs me and stings my soul until I am weakened and spent.

^a 40:6 As translated from the Septuagint. The Hebrew says, "You have pierced my ear." This is a Hebraic reference to being a bond servant whose ear has been pierced by his master to signify a desire to serve for life. See Exodus 21:1–6, Isaiah 50:5, and Hebrews 10:5.

^b 40:7 Implied in the context. See Hebrews 10:5–7.

- ¹³Please, Lord! Come quickly and rescue me!
Take pleasure in showing me your favor and restore me.
- ¹⁴Let all who seek my life be humiliated!
Let them be confused and ashamed, God.
Scatter those who wish me evil, they just want me dead.
- ¹⁵Scoff at every scoffer and cause them all to be utter failures.
Let them be ashamed and horrified by their complete defeat.
- ¹⁶But let all who passionately seek you erupt with excitement and joy over what you've done!
Let all your lovers rejoice continually in the Savior^a saying:
"How great and glorious is our God!"
- ¹⁷Lord, in my place of weakness and need, I ask again:
Will you come and help me?
I know I'm always in your thoughts.
You are my true Savior and Hero,
so don't delay to deliver me now for you are my God.

Psalm 41

I NEED YOU, LORD

King David's poetic song for the Pure and Shining One

- ¹God always blesses those who are kind to the poor and helpless.
They're the first ones God helps when they find themselves in any trouble.
- ²The Lord will preserve and protect them.
They'll be honored and esteemed^b while their enemies are defeated.

^b 41:2 Or "they will be blessed in the land."

- ³When they are sick, God will restore them, lying upon their bed of suffering.
He will raise them up again and restore them back to health.
- ⁴So in my sickness I say to you, “Lord, be my Kind Healer.
Heal my body and soul; heal me, God!
For I have confessed my sins to you.”^a
- ⁵But those who hate me wish the worst for me, saying,
“When will he die and be forgotten?”
- ⁶And when these “friends” come to visit me with their pious sympathy and their hollow words and with hypocrisy hidden in their hearts—
I can see right through it all.
For they come merely to gather gossip about me, using all they find to mock me with malicious hearts of slander.
- ⁷They are wicked whisperers who imagine the worst for me, repeating their rumors, saying:
- ⁸“He got what he deserved; it’s over for him!
The spirit of infirmity^b is upon him and he’ll never get over this illness.”
- ⁹Even my ally, my friend, has turned against me.
He was one I totally trusted with my life, sharing supper with him,^c
and now he shows me nothing but betrayal and treachery.
He has sold me as an enemy.^d

^a 41:4 Implied in the context.

^b 41:8 Or “a thing of Belial,” or, “an affliction from the abandoned one.”

^c 41:9 In the culture of that day, sharing a meal together was a sign of covenant friendship.

^d 41:9 The Hebrew literally reads, “He lifted up his heel against me.” This is a powerful figure of speech meaning he was sold as an enemy and was treated treacherously. This verse was quoted, in part, by Jesus at the Last Supper (John 13:18).

- ¹⁰So Lord, please don't desert me when I need you!
Give me grace and get me back on my feet
so I can triumph over them all.
- ¹¹Then I'll know you're pleased with me when you allow me to taste of victory over all my foes.
- ¹²Now stand up for me and don't let me fall,
for I've walked with integrity.
Keep me before your face forever.
- ¹³Everyone praise the Lord God of Israel, always and forever!
For he is from eternity past and will remain for the eternity to come.
That's the way it will be forever!
Faithful is our King! Amen!^a

^a 41:13 Some scholars believe this last verse was added as a "doxology of praise," marking the end of the first book of Psalms. The word Amen means "Faithful is our King!"

BOOK II

The Exodus Psalms

PSALMS OF SUFFERING AND REDEMPTION

Psalm 42

A CRY FOR REVIVAL ^a

For the Pure and Shining One

A contemplative poem for instruction by the prophetic singers of Korah's clan^b

¹I long to drink of you, O God, drinking deeply from the streams of pleasure^c flowing from your presence.
 My longings overwhelm me for more of you!^d

²My soul thirsts, pants, and longs for the Living God.
 I want to come and see the face of God.

³Day and night my tears keep falling and my heart keeps crying for your help while my enemies mock me over and over, saying,
 "Where is this God of yours? Why doesn't he help you?"^e ⁴So I speak over my heartbroken soul,

 "Take courage. Remember when you used to be right out front leading the procession of praise when the great crowd of worshipers gathered to go into the presence of the Lord?
 You shouted with joy as the sound of passionate celebration filled the air and the joyous multitude of lovers honored the festival of the Lord!"

a Psalms 42 and 43 were originally composed as one psalm and later made into two.

b Korah was the great-grandson of Levi. The sons of Korah were a family of Levitical singers. David chose them to preside over the music of the tabernacle-tent on Mount Zion.

c 42:1 Implied in the context of the Psalms.

d 42:1 The literal Hebrew is "as the deer pants for streams of water." The translation takes the metaphor of a hunted deer and puts it into terms that transfer the meaning into today's context.

e 42:3 Implied in the text.

⁵So then, my soul, why would you be depressed?

Why would you sink into despair?

Just keep hoping and waiting on God, your Savior.

For no matter what, I will still sing with praise, for living before his face is my saving grace!

⁶But here I am depressed and downcast.

Yet I will still remember you as I ponder the place where your glory streams down from the mighty mountaintops, lofty and majestic—the mountains of your awesome presence.^a ⁷My deep need calls out to the deep kindness of your love.

Your waterfall of weeping sent waves of sorrow over my soul, carrying me away, cascading over me like a thundering cataract.

⁸Yet all day long God's promises of love pour over me.

Through the night I sing his songs,
for my prayer to God has become my life.

⁹I will say to God, "You are my Mountain of Strength;

how could you forget me?

Why must I suffer this vile oppression of my enemies—these heartless tormentors who are out to kill me?"

¹⁰Their wounding words pierce my heart over and over while they say,

"Where is this God of yours?"

¹¹So I say to my soul,

"Don't be discouraged. Don't be disturbed.

For I know my God will break through for me."

Then I'll have plenty of reasons to praise him all over again.

Yes, living before his face is my saving grace!

^a 42:6 Implied in the context. The Hebrew text contains Mount Hermon and Mount Mizar, considered to be sacred mountains in the Hebrew culture. Hermon means lofty and majestic.

Psalm 43

LIGHT AND TRUTH

*For the Pure and Shining One by the prophetic singers of Korah's clan^a
A contemplative poem for instruction*

¹God, clear my name.

Plead my case against the unjust charges of these ungodly workers of wickedness.
Deliver me from these lying degenerates.

²For you are where my strength comes from^b and my Protector,^c so why would you leave me now?

Must I be covered with gloom
while the enemy comes after me gloating with glee?

³Pour into me the brightness of your daybreak!

Pour into me your rays of revelation-truth!
Let them comfort and gently lead me onto the shining path, showing the way into your burning presence, into your many sanctuaries of holiness.

⁴Then I will come closer to your very altar until I come before you, the God of my ecstatic joy!

I will praise you with the harp that plays in my heart, to you, my God, my magnificent God!

⁵Then I will say to my soul,

“Don’t be discouraged; don’t be disturbed,
for I fully expect my Savior-God to break through for me.
Then I’ll have plenty of reasons to praise him all over again.”
Yes, living before his face is my saving grace!

^a Although there is no inscription for this psalm, it was originally part of Psalm 42.

^b 43:2 Or “God of my strength.”

^c 43:2 Implied in the text.

Psalm 44

WAKE UP, LORD, WE'RE IN TROUBLE

*For the Pure and Shining One by the prophetic singers of Korah's clan
A contemplative poem for instruction*

The Past

- ¹⁻²God, we've heard about all the glorious miracles you've done for our ancestors in days gone by.
They told us about the ancient times, how by your power you drove out the ungodly nations from this land, crushing all their strongholds, and giving the land to us.
Now the people of Israel cover the land from one end to the other, all because of your grace and power!^a
- ³Our forefathers didn't win these battles by their own strength or their own skill or strategy.
But it was through the shining forth of your radiant-presence and the display of your mighty power.
You loved to give them victory,
for you took great delight in them.
- ⁴You are my God, my King!
It's now time to decree majesties for Israel!^b
- ⁵Through your glorious name and your awesome power we can push through to any victory and defeat every enemy.
- ⁶For I will not trust in the weapons of the world;^c
I know they will never save me.

^b 44:4 Or "Jacob."

^c 44:6 Or "bow and sword."

⁷Only you will be our Savior from all our enemies.
All those who hate us you have brought to shame.
⁸So now I constantly boast in you.
I can never thank you enough!

Pause in his presence

The Present

⁹But you have turned your back on us; you walked off and left us!
You've rejected us, tossing us aside in humiliating shame.
You don't go before us anymore in our battles.
¹⁰We retreat before our enemies in defeat,
for you are no longer helping us.
Those who hate us have invaded our land and plundered our people.
¹¹You have treated us like sheep in the slaughter pen, ready to be butchered.
You've scattered us to the four winds.
¹²You have sold us as slaves for nothing!
You have counted us, your precious ones, as worthless.
¹³You have caused our neighbors to despise and scorn us.
All that are around us mock and curse us.
¹⁴You have made us the butt of their jokes.
Disliked by all, we are the laughingstock of the people.
¹⁵⁻¹⁶There's no escape from this constant curse, this humiliation!
We are despised, jeered, overwhelmed by shame, and overcome at every turn by our hateful and heartless enemies.
¹⁷Despite all of this, we have not forgotten you;
we have not broken covenant with you.
¹⁸We have not betrayed you; our hearts are still yours.
Our steps have not strayed from your path.

- ¹⁹Yet you have crushed us, leaving us in this wilderness place of misery and desperation.^a With nowhere else to turn, death's dark door seems to be the only way out.^b
- ²⁰⁻²¹If we had forsaken your holy name, wouldn't you know it?
You'd be right in leaving us.
If we had worshiped before other gods,
no one would blame you for punishing us.
God, you know our every heart-secret.
You know we still want you!^c
- ²²Because of you we face death threats every day.
Like martyrs we are dying daily!
We are seen as lambs lined up to be slaughtered as sacrifices.

The Future

- ²³So wake up, Lord God!
Why would you sleep when we're in trouble?
Are you forsaking us forever?
- ²⁴You can't hide your face any longer from us!
How could you forget our agonizing sorrow?
- ²⁵Now we lay facedown, sinking into the dust of death,
the quicksand of the grave.
- ²⁶Arise, awake, and come to help us, O Lord.
Let your unfailing love save us from this sorrow!

^c 44:20-21 Implied in the context.

Psalm 45

THE WEDDING SONG

*For the Pure and Shining One by the prophetic singers of Korah's clan
A contemplative song of instruction for the Loved One To the melody of "Lilies"^a*

¹My heart is on fire, boiling over with passion.
Bubbling up within me are these beautiful lyrics
as a lovely poem to be sung for the King!
Like a river bursting its banks, I'm overflowing with words, spilling out into this sacred story.^b

His Royal Majesty

²You are the most wonderful and winsome of all men.^c
Elegant grace pours out through every word you speak.^d Truly, God has anointed you, his Favored One for eternity!

³Now strap your lightning-sword of judgment upon your side,
O Mighty Warrior, so majestic!
You are full of beauty and splendor as you go out to war!

⁴In your glory and grandeur go forth in victory!
Through your faithfulness and meekness
the cause of truth and justice will stand.
Awe-inspiring miracles are accomplished by your power, leaving everyone dazed and astonished!

^a Lilies in the Bible are metaphors of God's precious people. See Song of Songs 2:1–2, Hosea 14:5, and Luke 12:27–28. Many believe this was the wedding song composed for Solomon as he married the princess of Egypt. But the language is so lofty and glorious that we see One greater than Solomon in its verses. This is a song of the wedding of Jesus and his Bride, the church.

^b 45:1 The Hebrew is literally, "my tongue is the pen of a skillful (inspired) scribe."

^c 45:2 Or "Beautiful! Beautiful! Beyond the sons of men!"

^d 45:2 See John 6:68 and 7:46.

- ⁵Your wounding leaves men's hearts defeated
as they fall before you broken.
- ⁶Your glory-kingdom, O God, endures forever, for you are enthroned to rule with a justice-scepter in your hand!
- ⁷You are passionate for righteousness and you hate lawlessness.
This is why God, your God, crowns you with bliss above your fellow-kings.
He has anointed you, more than any other,
with his oil of fervent joy,
the very fragrance of heaven's gladness.
- ⁸Your royal robes release the scent of suffering love for your bride;^a the odor of aromatic incense is upon you.^b
From the pure and shining place^c such lovely music that makes you glad is played for your pleasure.

Her Royal Majesty

- ⁹The daughters of kings, women of honor,
are maidens in your courts.
And standing beside you,
glistening in your pure and golden glory, is the beautiful bride-to-be!^d
- ¹⁰Now listen, daughter, pay attention, and forget about your past.
Put behind you every attachment to the familiar,
even those who once were close to you!
- ¹¹For your Royal Bridegroom is ravished by your beautiful brightness.
Bow in reverence before him, for he is your Lord!

^a 45:8 The Hebrew word myrrh is taken from a root word that means suffering. Jewish Rabbis refer to myrrh as "tears from a tree," a symbol of suffering love.

^b 45:8 The text reads, "aloes and cassia." They both are equated with the anointing spice, the incense burned in the Holy Place.

^c 45:8 Or "from the ivory palaces." This is an obvious reference to the Holy Place, as our High Priest comes from the chamber of glory to be with us. The word ivory is taken from a Hebrew word for white and glistening.

^d 45:9 Or "queen."

- ¹²Wedding presents pour in from those of great wealth.^a
 The royal friends of the Bridegroom shower you with gifts.
- ¹³As the princess-bride enters the palace,
 how glorious she appears within the holy chamber,
 robed with a wedding dress embroidered with pure gold!
- ¹⁴Lovely and stunning she leads the procession with all her bridesmaids^b as they come before you, her Bridegroom-King.
- ¹⁵What a grand, majestic entrance!
 A joyful, glad procession as they enter the palace gates!
- ¹⁶Your many sons will one day be kings, just like their Father.
 They will sit on royal thrones all around the world.
- ¹⁷I will make sure the fame of your name is honored in every generation as all the people praise you, giving you thanks forever and ever!

Psalm 46

GOD ON OUR SIDE!

*For the Pure and Shining One by the prophetic singers of Korah's clan
 A poetic song to the melody of "Hidden Things"*^c

- ¹God, you're such a safe and powerful place to find refuge!
 You're a proven help in time of trouble—more than enough and always available whenever I need you.^d

^a 45:12 The Hebrew text is literally "the daughter of Tyre." This was symbolic of the merchants of the earth, those possessing great wealth.

^b 45:14 Or "virgins." See Revelation 14:1–4 and 2 Corinthians 11:2.

^c As translated in the Septuagint. Other versions read, "for the Maidens." Psalm 46 is known as one of the Songs of Zion. The others are psalms 48, 76, 84, 87, and 122. These are psalms which praise Jerusalem as God's dwelling place.

^d 46:1 Implied in the text of the psalm.

²So we will never fear
even if every structure of support^a were to crumble away.
We will not fear even when the earth quakes and shakes, moving mountains and casting them into the sea.
³For the raging roar of stormy winds and crashing waves cannot erode our faith in you.

Pause in his presence

⁴God has a constantly flowing river whose sparkling streams bring joy and delight to his people!
His river flows right through the city of God-Most-High,
into his holy dwelling place.
⁵God is in the midst of his city,^b secure and never shaken.
At daybreak his help will be seen with the appearing of the dawn.
⁶When the nations are in uproar with their tottering kingdoms, God simply raises his voice and the earth begins to disintegrate before him!
⁷Here he comes!^c
The Commander!
The mighty Lord of Angel-Armies is on our side!
The God of Jacob fights for us!

Pause in his presence

⁸⁻⁹Everyone look!
Come and see the breathtaking wonders of our God.
For he brings both ruin and revival.^d
And he's the One who makes conflicts to end throughout the earth,
breaking and burning every weapon of war.

^a 46:2 Or "earth itself."

^b 46:5 This is a reference to Jerusalem, but today God calls his church a city on a hill.

^c 46:7 Implied in the context.

^d 46:8-9 Implied in the text.

¹⁰Surrender your anxiety!^a

Be silent and stop your striving and you will see that I am God.
I am the God above all the nations,
and I will be exalted throughout the whole earth.

THE KING OF ALL THE EARTH

*For the Pure and Shining One by the prophetic singers of Korah's clan
A poetic song*

¹Go ahead and celebrate!

Come on and clap your hands everyone!
Shout to God with the raucous sounds of joy!

²The Lord God Most High is astonishing, awesome beyond words!

He's the formidable and powerful King over all the earth.

³He's the One who conquered the nations before us and placed them all under our feet.

⁴He's marked out our inheritance ahead of time, putting us in the front of the line, honoring those he loves.^b

Pause in his presence

⁵God arises with the earsplitting shout of his people!

God takes the throne with the fanfare of trumpets.

^a 46:10 The Septuagint reads, "relax."

^b Or "the pride of Jacob." The Septuagint says: "the beauty of Jacob."

- ⁶Sing and celebrate! Sing some more, celebrate some more!
Sing your highest song of praise to our King!
- ⁷For God is the Triumphant King; the powers of earth are all his.
So sing your celebration songs of highest praise to the Glorious Enlightened One!
- ⁸Our God reigns over every nation!
He reigns on his holy throne over all.
- ⁹All the nobles and princes,
the loving servants of the God of Abraham,
they all gather to worship.
Every warrior's shield is now lowered
as surrendered trophies before this King.
He has taken his throne, high and lofty exalted over all!

Psalm 48

BEAUTIFUL ZION

A poetic song, for the prophetic singers of Korah's clan

- ¹There are so many reasons to describe God as wonderful!
So many reasons to praise him with unlimited praise!^a
- ²Zion-City is his home; he lives on his holy mountain—high and glorious, joy-filled and favored.
Zion-Mountain looms in the farthest reaches of the north,^b
the city of our incomparable King!
- ³This is his divine abode, an impenetrable citadel, for he is known to dwell in the highest place.

^a 48:1 This psalm was written to commemorate the defeat of the Assyrian army in the days of King Hezekiah.

^b 48:2 Or "the sides of the north," a metaphor to describe God's heavenly home. See also Isaiah 14:13.

⁴⁻⁶See how the mighty kings united to come against Zion, yet when they saw God manifest in front of their eyes,
they were stunned.

Trembling, they all fled away gripped with fear.^a Seized with panic, they doubled up in frightful anguish like a woman in the labor pains of childbirth.

⁷Like a hurricane blowing and breaking the invading ships,^b
God blows upon them and breaks them to pieces.

⁸We have heard about these wonders, and then we saw them with our own eyes.
For this is the city of the Commander of Angel-Armies, the city of our God, safe and secure forever!

Pause in his presence

⁹Lord, as we worship you in your temple, we recall over and over your kindness to us and your unending love.

¹⁰The fame of your name echoes throughout the entire world accompanied with praises!
Your right hand is full of victory.

¹¹So let the people of Zion rejoice with gladness;
let the daughters of praise leap for joy!^c
For God will see to it that you are judged fairly.

¹²⁻¹³Circle Zion; count her towers.
Consider her walls; climb her palaces, and then go and tell the coming generation of the care and compassion of our God.

^a 48:4-6 This no doubt refers to the night the angel of the Lord descended into the ranks of the Assyrians and killed 185,000 men. See Isaiah 37:36.

^b 48:7 Or "ships of Tarshish."

^c 48:11 Or "the daughters of Judah."

¹⁴Yes, this is our God, our great God forever.
He will lead us onward until the end,
through all time, beyond death,
and into eternity!

Psalm 49

WISDOM BETTER THAN WEALTH

*For the Pure and Shining One
A poetic song by the prophetic singers of Korah's clan*

¹⁻²Listen one and all!
Both rich and poor together, all over the world—
everyone listen to what I have to say!

³For wisdom will come from my mouth, words of insight and understanding will be heard from the musings of my heart.

⁴I will break open mysteries with my music,
and my song will release riddles solved.

⁵There's no reason to fear when troubling times come, even when you're surrounded with problems and persecutors who chase at your heels.^a

⁶⁻⁷They trust in their treasures and boast in their riches, yet not one of them, though rich as a king, could rescue his own brother from the guilt of his sins.
Not one could give God the ransom price for the soul of another, let alone for himself!

⁸⁻⁹A soul's redemption is too costly and precious for anyone to pay with earthly wealth.

^a 49:5 This phrase contains a variant form of the name Jacob, which means heel-grabber.

- The price to pay is never enough to purchase eternal life for even one, to keep them out of hell.
- ¹⁰⁻¹¹The brightest and best, along with the foolish and senseless, God sees that they all will die one day,
leaving their houses and wealth to others.
Even though they name streets and lands after themselves,^a hoping to have their memory endure beyond the grave, legends in their own minds,
their home address is now the cemetery!
- ¹²The honor of man is short-lived and fleeting.
There's so little difference between man and beast for both will one day perish.
- ¹³Such is the path of foolish men and those who quote everything they say, for they are here today and gone tomorrow!

Pause in his presence

- ¹⁴A shepherd called "Death" herds them, leading them like mindless sheep straight to hell.
Yet at daybreak you will find the righteous ruling in their place.
Every trace of them will be gone forever with all their "glory" lost in the darkness of their doom.
- ¹⁵But I know the loving God will redeem my soul, raising me up from the dark power of death,
taking me as his bridal partner.^b

Pause in his presence

- ¹⁶So don't be disturbed when you see the rich surround you with the "glory" of their wealth on full display.
- ¹⁷For when they die they will carry nothing with them,
and their riches will not follow them beyond the grave.

^a 49:10-11 Or "they read their names in the ground."

^b 49:15 Or "He will offer his hand to me in marriage."

- ¹⁸⁻¹⁹Though they have the greatest rewards of this world and all applaud them for their accomplishments, they will follow those who have gone before them and go straight into the realm of darkness where they never ever see the light again.
- ²⁰So this is the way of mortal man—honored for a moment, yet without eternal insight like a beast that will one day perish.

Psalm 50

GOD HAS SPOKEN

A poetic song of Asaph, the gatherer^a

- ¹The God of gods, the mighty Lord himself, has spoken!
He shouts out over all the people of the earth in every brilliant sunrise and every beautiful sunset, saying, “Listen to me!”^b
- ²God’s glory-light shines out of the Zion-realm^c with the radiance of perfect beauty.
- ³With the rumble of thunder he approaches;
He will not be silent,
for he comes with an earsplitting sound!

^a Asaph’s name means gatherer. Like David, Asaph was anointed with the spirit of prophecy and wrote twelve psalms (Psalms 50 and 73–83).

^b 50:1 Implied in the text. Psalm 50 is a summons to judgment as God presents himself to Zion as he did on Sinai with fire and blazing glory. Verse 1 has three names of God in the Hebrew text: El, Elohim, and Yahweh. El is the Mighty God (the God of gods), Elohim is the God of Power, and Yahweh is the self-existing Covenant God, the I AM. The only other place in the Old Testament these three names are joined is in Joshua 22:22.

All around him are furious flames of fire, and preceding him is the dazzling blaze of his glory.

⁴Here he comes to judge his people!

He summons his court with heaven and earth as his jury, saying:

⁵“Gather all my lovers,

my godly ones whose hearts are one with me—
those who have entered into my holy covenant by sacrifices upon the altar.”

⁶And the heavens declare his justice:

“God himself will be their Judge,
And he will judge them with righteousness!”

Pause in his presence

⁷Listen to me, O my people! Listen well, for I am your God!

I am bringing you to trial and here are my charges.^a ⁸I do not rebuke you for your sacrifices, which you continually bring to my altar.

⁹Do I need your young bull or goats from your fields as if I was hungry?^b

¹⁰⁻¹¹Every animal of field and forest belongs to me, the Creator.

I know every movement of the birds in the sky,
and every animal of the field is in my thoughts.

The entire world and everything it contains is mine.

¹²⁻¹³If I were hungry do you think I would tell you?

For all that I have created, the fullness of the earth, is mine.

Am I fed by your sacrifices? Of course not!

¹⁴Why don't you bring me the sacrifices I desire?

Bring me your true and sincere thanks, and show your gratitude by keeping your promises to me,
the Most High.

^a 50:7 This summons to judgment is not against the heathen nations, but against God's people. See 1 Peter 4:17.

^b 50:9 Implied in the context.

- ¹⁵Honor me by trusting in me in your day of trouble.
Cry aloud to me, and I will be there to rescue you.
That is what I desire from you!^a
- ¹⁶And now I speak to the wicked. Listen to what I have to say to you!
What right do you have to presume to speak for me and claim my covenant promises as yours?
- ¹⁷For you have hated my instruction, and disregarded my words, throwing them away as worthless!
- ¹⁸You forget to condemn the thief or adulterer.
You are their friend, running alongside them into darkness!
- ¹⁹⁻²⁰The sins of your mouth multiply evil!
You have a lifestyle of lies,
devoted to deceit as you speak against others, even slandering those of your own household!
- ²¹All this you have done and I kept silent,
so you thought that I was just like you, sanctioning evil.
But now I will bring you to my courtroom and spell out clearly my charges before you!
- ²²This is your last chance; my final warning! Your time is up!
Turn away from all this evil, or the next time you hear from me it will be when I am coming to pass sentence upon you.^b
I will snatch you away and no one will be there to help you escape my judgment!
- ²³The life that pleases me is a life lived in the gratitude of grace, always choosing to walk with me in what is right.
This is the sacrifice I desire from you!
If you do this, more of my salvation will unfold for you!

^a 50:15 Implied in the context.

^b 50:22 Implied in the context.

Psalm 51

PARDON AND PURITY

*For the Pure and Shining One
A prayer of confession when the prophet Nathan exposed King David's adultery with Bathsheba^a*

David's Confession

- ¹⁻²God, give me mercy from your fountain of forgiveness!
I know your abundant love is enough to wash away my guilt.
Because your compassion is so great,
take away this shameful guilt of sin.
Forgive the full extent of my rebellious ways,
and erase this deep stain on my conscience.
- ³⁻⁴For I'm so ashamed.
I feel such pain and anguish within me
I can't get away from the sting of my sin against you, Lord!
Everything I did, I did right in front of you, for you saw it all.
Against you, and you above all, have I sinned.
Everything you say to me is infallibly true and your judgment conquers me.
- ⁵Lord, I have been a sinner from birth.
Sin's corruption has polluted my soul.
- ⁶I know that you delight to set your truth deep in my spirit.
So come into the hidden places of my heart and teach me wisdom.

^a This psalm is based on the incident that is recorded in 2 Samuel 12-13.

David's Cleansing

⁷Purify my conscience! Make this leper clean again!^a

Wash me in your love until I am pure in heart.^b

⁸Satisfy me in your sweetness, and my song of joy will return.

The places within me you have crushed will rejoice in your healing touch.^c

⁹Hide my sins from your face;^d erase all my guilt by your saving grace.

¹⁰Create a new, clean heart within me.^e

Fill me with pure thoughts and holy desires, ready to please you.^f ¹¹May you never reject me!

May you never take from me your Sacred Spirit!

David's Consecration

¹²Let my passion for life be restored, tasting joy^g in every breakthrough you bring to me.

Hold me close to you with a willing spirit that obeys whatever you say.

¹³Then I can show to other guilty ones

how loving and merciful you are.

a 51:7 The Hebrew text contains the word hyssop. This was a bushy plant used for sprinkling blood on a healed leper to ceremonially cleanse him for the worship of God. See Leviticus 14:3–7 and Numbers 19.

b 51:7 Or “Wash me with the snow from above so I can be whitened.”

c 51:9 In this beautiful verse, the “broken places” are literally “broken bones.” Our bones speak allegorically of our inner being, our emotional strength.

d 51:9 David was not just ashamed of what others would think, but that he had been seen by God. True remorse has no thought about reputation, but righteousness.

e 51:10 The word used for create takes us back to Genesis 1, and it means to create from nothing. David now knows he had no goodness without God placing it within him. David wanted a new creation heart, not just the old one changed.

f 51:10 Or “renew a reliable spirit in my inner being.”

g 51:12 The Hebrew word for joy comes from two Hebrew roots, one means “bright” and the other means “lily (whiteness).” David wanted to taste a joy that was bright, pure, and beautiful as a lily.

They will find their way back home to you, knowing that you will forgive them.

- ¹⁴O God, my saving God, deliver me fully from every sin,
even the sin that brought blood-guilt to my soul.
Then my heart will once again be thrilled to sing
the passionate songs of joy and deliverance!
- ¹⁵Lord God, unlock my heart, unlock my lips,
and I will overcome with my joyous praise!
- ¹⁶For the source of your pleasure is not in my performance or the sacrifices I might offer to you.
- ¹⁷The fountain of your pleasure is found in the sacrifice of my shattered heart before you.
You will not despise my tenderness
as I humbly bow down at your feet!
- ¹⁸Because you favor Zion, do what is good for her.
Be the protecting wall around Jerusalem.
- ¹⁹And when we are fully restored,
you will rejoice and take delight in every offering of our lives as we bring our every sacrifice of righteousness before you in love!^a

^a 51:19 Or "Then they will offer up bulls on your altar."

Psalm 52

THE FATE OF CYNICS

For the Pure and Shining One

A song of instruction by King David composed when Doeg, the Edomite, betrayed David to Saul, saying: "David has come to the house of Ahimilech!"^a ¹You call yourself a mighty man, a big shot?

Then why do you boast in the evil you have done?

Yet God's loyal love will protect me and carry the day!

²Listen, O deceiver, trickster of others:

Your words are wicked, harming and hurting all who hear them!

³You love evil and hate what is good and right.

You would rather lie than tell the truth.

Pause in his presence

⁴You love to distort, devour, and deceive, using your sly tongue to spin the truth.

⁵But the Almighty will strike you down forever!

He will pull you up by your roots and drag you away to the darkness of death.

Pause in his presence

⁶The godly will see all this and will be awestruck.

Then they will laugh at the wicked, saying,

⁷"See what happens to those great in their own eyes who don't trust in the Most High to save them!"

^a For this episode in David's life, see 1 Samuel 21:1-9; 22:9-23. The Edomites, although close relatives to the Hebrews, were bitter enemies to God's people. In spite of Doeg's lineage, he became a high ranking official in Saul's kingdom. Herod the Great, who slaughtered the babes of Bethlehem, was an Edomite. At the time David wrote this psalm, Saul had already attempted to kill him sixteen times. Ahimilech, the caretaker of the sword of Goliath, was a descendant of Eli.

Look how they trusted only in their wealth and made their living from wickedness.^a ⁸But I am like a flourishing olive tree, anointed in the house of God.^b
 I trust in the unending love of God;
 his passion toward me is forever and ever.
⁹Because it is finished^c
 I will be praising you forever and giving you thanks!
 Before all your godly lovers I will proclaim your beautiful name!

Psalm 53

THE WICKEDNESS OF THE WORLD

For the Pure and Shining One

A contemplative song of instruction to the tune of "The Dancings of Mourning"^d

¹Only the withering soul would say to himself,^e
 "There's no God for me!"
 Anyone who thinks like that is corrupt and callous;
 depraved and detestable, they are devoid of what is good.
²The Lord looks down in love, bending over heaven's balcony.
 God looks over all of Adam's sons and daughters,

a 52:2 Or "and was strong in his destruction."

b 52:8 Implied in the text. The olive tree was the source of the sacred anointing oil.

c 52:9 Or "You have acted (finished it)." The words "It is finished" were the last words of Jesus on the cross.

d Or "The Dance of Mourning." This could have been a footnote to Psalm 52 instead of an inscription for Psalm 53. If so, read Psalm 52 and imagine the dancing that broke loose when David and his mighty men knew that Doeg had been judged by God for his murderous betrayal.

e 53:1 The word for fool comes from a Hebrew word meaning "withering." If we make no room for God, we have a withered heart; and our moral sense of righteousness is put to sleep, and the noble aspirations of the heart shrivel up and die. Psalm 53 clearly speaks of the downfall of those who oppose Israel. Psalm 14 and Psalm 53 are nearly similar psalms. Psalm 14 deals with God's verdict, while Psalm 53 speaks of God's vengeance. If God says it once, it is to be believed. If he says it twice, it demands our utmost attention!

looking to see if there are any who are wise with insight—any who search for him, wanting to please him.

³But no, all have wandered astray, walking stubbornly toward evil.

Not one is good; he can't even find one!

⁴Look how they live in luxury while exploiting my people.

Won't these workers of wickedness ever learn!

They never even think of praying to God.

⁵Soon, unheard-of terror will seize them while in their sins.

God himself will one day scatter the bones of those who rose up against you.^a

Doomed and rejected they will be put to shame, for God has despised them!

⁶Oh, I wish our time of rescue were already here.

Oh, that God would come forth now—^b arising from the midst of his Zion-people
to save and restore his very own.

What gladness and joy will break forth
when the Lord has rescued Israel!

^a 53:5 This could refer to the scattering of the armies of Sennacherib in the days of Hezekiah. See 2 Kings 18-19.

^b This is considered to be an ecphrasis, a rhetorical literary device that amplifies the emotion of the text. It is equivalent to an emotional outburst! Clearly, this is a passionate psalm.

Psalm 54

DEFEND ME

*For the Pure and Shining One, David's contemplative song of instruction
A song of derision^a when the Ziphites betrayed David to Saul, saying:
"David is hiding among us, come and get him!"*

¹God, deliver me by your mighty name!

Come with your glorious power and save me!

²Listen to my prayer; turn your ears to my cry!

³These violent men have risen up against me;

heartless, ruthless men^b who care nothing about God—
they seek to take my life.

Pause in his presence

⁴But the Lord God has become my divine Helper!.

He leans into my heart and lays his hands upon me!^c

⁵God will see to it that those who sow evil will reap evil.

So Lord, in your great faithfulness, destroy them once and for all!

⁶Lord, I will offer myself freely, and everything I am I give to you.

I will worship and praise your name, O Lord,
for it is precious to me.

⁷Through you I'm saved—rescued from every trouble.

I've seen with my eyes the defeat of my enemies.

I've triumphed over them all!

^a The Hebrew word used here and translated in some versions as stringed instrument can also be rendered a song of mocking. This is a psalm for anyone who feels betrayed, rejected, and in a difficult situation with no one at your side.

^b 54:3 Or "foreigners."

^c 54:4 The word used here is uphold or sustain. It comes from a root word that means to lean upon or to lay hands upon. The translation uses both concepts in this verse.

Psalm 55

BETRAYED

*To the Pure and Shining One
King David's song of derision, for instruction*

¹God, listen to my prayer!

Don't hide your heart from me when I cry out to you!

²⁻³Come close to me and give me your answer.

Here I am, moaning and restless.

I'm preoccupied with the threats of my enemies and crushed by the pressure of their opposition.

They surround me with trouble and terror.

In their fury they rise up against me in an angry uproar.

⁴My heart is trembling inside my chest
as the terror of death seizes me.

⁵Fear and dread overwhelm me. I shudder before the horror I face.

⁶I say to myself, "If only I could fly away from all of this!

If only I could run away to the place of rest and peace.

⁷I would run far away where no one could find me, escaping to a wilderness retreat."

Pause in his presence

⁸I will hurry off to hide in the higher place, into my Shelter, safe from this raging storm and tempest.

⁹God, confuse them until they quarrel with themselves.

Destroy them with their own violent strife and slander!
They have divided the city with their discord.

¹⁰Though they patrol the walls night and day against invaders, the real danger is within the city!

It's the misery and strife in the heart of its people.

¹¹Murder is in their midst.

Wherever you turn you find trouble and ruin.

¹²It wasn't an enemy who taunted me.

If it was my enemy, filled with pride and hatred, then I could have endured it. I would have just run away.

¹³But it was you, my intimate friend—one like a brother to me.

It was you, my advisor,^a the companion
I walked with and worked with!

¹⁴We once had sweet fellowship with each other.

We worshiped in unity as one, celebrating together with God's people.^b

¹⁵Now desolation and darkness come upon you.

May you and all those like you descend into the pit of destruction!
Since evil has been your home, may evil now bury you alive!

¹⁶But as for me, I will call upon the Lord to save me, and I know he will!

¹⁷Every evening I will explain my need to him.

Every morning I will move my soul toward him.
Every waking hour I will worship only him,
and he will hear and respond to my cry.

¹⁸Though many wish to fight and the tide of battle turns against me, by your power I will be safe and secure;
peace will be my portion.

¹⁹God himself will hear me!

God-Enthroned through everlasting ages,
the God of Unchanging Faithfulness,
he will put them in their place,
all those who refuse to love and revere him!

Pause in his presence

^a 55:13 The Greek word in the Septuagint can be translated as a seer (prophet).

^b 55:14 David is speaking of Ahithophel who had once been his friend and advisor, only to betray him. This is foreshadowing of what happened between Jesus and Judas.

- ²⁰I was betrayed by my friend, though I live in peace with him.
While he was stretching out his hand of friendship, he was secretly breaking every promise he had ever made to me!
- ²¹His words were smooth and so charming.
Yet his heart was disloyal and full of hatred—his words so soft as silk while all the time scheming my demise.
- ²²So here's what I've learned through it all:
Leave all your cares and anxieties at the feet of the Lord,
and measureless grace will strengthen you.
- ²³He will watch over his lovers,
never letting them slip or be overthrown.
He will send all my enemies to the pit of destruction.
Murderers, liars, and betrayers will face an untimely death.
My life's hope and trust is in you, and you'll never fail to rescue me!

Psalm 56

TRUSTING IN GOD

For the Pure and Shining One

King David's golden song of instruction composed when the Philistines captured him in Gath To the tune "The Oppression of the Princes to Come" ^a

- ¹Lord, show me Your kindness and mercy, for these men oppose and oppress me all day long.
- ²Not a day goes by but that somebody harasses me.
So many in their pride trample me under their feet.^b
- ³But in the day that I'm afraid, I lay all my fears before you and trust in you with all my heart.

^a Or "the distant dove of silence."

^b 56:2 The Septuagint says, "they war with me in the high places."

- ⁴What harm could a man bring to me?
With God on my side I will not be afraid of what comes.
The roaring praises of God fill my heart,
and I will always triumph as I trust his promises.
- ⁵Day after day cruel critics distort my words;
constantly they plot my collapse.
- ⁶Lurking in the dark, waiting, spying on my movements in secret to take me by surprise, ready to take my life.
- ⁷They don't deserve to get away with this!
Look at their wickedness, their injustice, Lord!
In your fierce anger cast them down to defeat!
- ⁸You've kept track of all my wandering and my weeping.
You've stored my many tears in your bottle—not one will be lost.
You care about me every time I've cried.^a
For it is all recorded in your book of remembrance.^b
- ⁹The very moment I call to you for a Father's help
the tide of battle turns and my enemies flee!
This one thing I know: God is on my side!
- ¹⁰I trust in the Lord. And I praise him!
I trust in the Word of God. And I praise him!
- ¹¹What harm could man do to me?
With God on my side I will not be afraid of what comes.
My heart overflows with praise to God and for his promises.
I will always trust in him.
- ¹²So I'm thanking you with all my heart,
with gratitude for all you've done.
I will do everything I've promised you, Lord.
- ¹³For you have saved my soul from death and my feet from stumbling so that I can walk before the Lord bathed in his life-giving light.

^b 56:8 See also Malachi 3:16.

Psalm 57

TRIUMPHANT FAITH

To the Pure and Shining One King David's golden song of instruction composed when he hid from Saul in a cave^a To the tune "Do Not Destroy"

¹Please God, show me mercy!

Open your grace-fountain for me,
for you are my soul's true Shelter.
I will hide beneath the shadow of your embrace, under the wings of your cherubim until this terrible trouble is past.

²I will cry out to you, the God of the highest heaven,
the mighty God, who performs all these wonders for me.

³From heaven he will send a Father's help to save me.^b
He will trample down those who trample me.

Pause in his presence

For he will always show me love
by his gracious and constant care.

⁴I am surrounded by these fierce and brutal men.
They are like lions just wanting to tear me to shreds.
Why must I continue to live among these seething terrorists, breathing out their angry threats and insults against me?

⁵Lord God, be exalted as you soar throughout the heavens.
May your shining glory be seen in the skies!
Let it be seen high above over all the earth!

⁶For they have set a trap^c for me.
Frantic fear has me overwhelmed.

^a This incident is recorded in 1 Samuel 24.

^b 57:3 Implied in the text.

^c 57:6 The Septuagint says, "They have dug a cesspool in front of me."

But look! The very trap they set for me has sprung shut upon themselves instead of me!

Pause in his presence

⁷My heart, O God, is quiet and confident.

Now I can sing with passion your wonderful praises!

⁸Awake, O my soul, with the music of his splendor-song!

Arise my soul and sing his praises!

My worship will awaken the dawn,

greeting the daybreak with my songs of light!^a ⁹Wherever I go I will thank you, my God.

Among all the nations they will hear my praise songs to you.

¹⁰Your love is so extravagant it reaches to the heavens!

Your faithfulness so astonishing it stretches to the sky!

¹¹Lord God, be exalted as you soar throughout the heavens.

May your shining glory be shown in the skies!

Let it be seen high above all the earth!

Psalm 58

JUDGE OF THE JUDGES

*For the Pure and Shining One
King David's golden song of instruction
To the tune "Do Not Destroy"*

¹⁻²God's justice? You high and mighty politicians know nothing about it!

Which one of you has walked in justice toward others?

Which one of you has treated everyone right and fair?

Not one! You only give "justice" in exchange for a bribe.

For the right price you let others get away with murder.

^a 57:8 Implied in the text.

- ³⁻⁴Wicked wanderers even from the womb! That's who you are!
Lying with your words, your teaching is poison.^a
- ⁵Like cobras closing their ears to the most expert of the charmers, you strike out against all who are near.^b
- ⁶O God, break their fangs;
shatter the teeth of these ravenous lions!
- ⁷Let them disappear like water falling on thirsty ground.
Let all their weapons be useless.
- ⁸Let them be like snails dissolving into the slime.
Let them be cut off, never seeing the light of day!
- ⁹God will sweep them away so fast that they'll never know what hit them.^c
- ¹⁰The godly will celebrate in the triumph of good over evil.
And the lovers of God will trample
the wickedness of the wicked under their feet!
- ¹¹Then everyone will say, "There is a God who judges the judges";
and "there is a great reward in loving God!"

^a 58:3-4 The Hebrew says "venom of a serpent," which is a clear metaphor for wrong teaching.

^b 58:5 Implied in the context.

^c 58:9 The Hebrew here is recognized by nearly every scholar to be one of the most difficult verses in the Psalms to translate.

Psalm 59

PROTECT ME

*For the Pure and Shining One King David's song of instruction composed when Saul set an ambush for him at his home^a
To the tune "Do Not Destroy"*

¹My God, protect me!

Keep me safe from all my enemies for they're coming to kill me.
Put me in a high place out of their reach—a place so high that these assassins will never find me.

²Save me from these murdering men, these bloodthirsty killers.

³See how they set an ambush for my life.

They're fierce men ready to launch their attack against me.
God, I'm innocent, protect me!^b

⁴I've done nothing to deserve this,

yet they are already plotting together to kill me.

Arise, Lord, see what they're scheming and come and meet with me.

⁵Awaken, O God of Israel!

Commander of Angel-Armies, arise to punish these treacherous people who oppose you!
Don't go soft on these hardcase killers!

Pause in his presence

⁶After dark they came to spy, sneaking around the city, snarling, prowling like a pack of stray dogs in the night—

⁷Boiling over with rage, shouting out their curses, convinced that they'll never get caught.

⁸But you, Lord, break out laughing at their plans, amused by their arrogance, scoffing at their sinful ways.

^b 59:3 Implied in the context.

- ⁹My strength is found when I wait upon you.
 Watch over me, God, for you are my Mountain Fortress;
 you set me on high!
- ¹⁰The God of passionate love will meet with me.
 My God will empower me to rise in triumph over my foes.
- ¹¹Don't just kill them all; stagger them with a vivid display of power.
 And scatter them with your armies of angels,
 O mighty God, our Protector!
 Make them as wanderers and vagabonds so that when we encounter them no one will forget^a how you brought us to victory.
- ¹²They are nothing but proud, cursing liars.
 They sin in every word they speak, boasting in their blasphemies!
- ¹³May your wrath be kindled to destroy them; finish them off!
 Make an end of them and their deeds until they are no more!
 Let them all know and learn that God is the Ruler over his people,^b
 the God-King over all the earth!
- Pause in his presence*
- ¹⁴Here they come again!
 Prowling, growling like a pack of stray dogs in the city
- ¹⁵Drifting, devouring, and coming in for the kill.^c
- ¹⁶But as for me, your strength shall be my song of joy.
 At each and every sunrise, my lyrics of your love will fill the air!
 For you have been my Glory-Fortress,
 a Stronghold in my day of distress.
- ¹⁷O my Strength, I sing with joy your praises.
 O my Stronghold, I sing with joy your song!
 O my Savior, I sing with joy the lyrics of your faithful love for me!

Psalm 60

HAS GOD FORGOTTEN US?

*To the Pure and Shining One
King David's poem for instruction composed when he fought against the Syrians with the outcome still uncertain and Joab turned back to kill 12,000 descendants of Esau in the Valley of Salt
To the tune of "Lily of the Covenant"*

- ¹God, it seemed like you walked off and left us!
Why have you turned against us?
Have you deserted us?
O Lord, we plead, come back and help us as a Father.^a
- ²The earth quivers and quakes before you, splitting open and breaking apart.
Now come and heal it,^b for it is shaken to its depths.
- ³You have taught us hard lessons and made us drink the wine of bewilderment.
- ⁴You have given miraculous signs to those who love you.
As we follow you we fly the flag of truth,
and all who love the truth will rally to it.

Pause in his presence

- ⁵Come to your beloved ones and gently draw us out!
Answer our prayer for your saving help.
Come with your might and strength, for we need you, Lord!^c
- ⁶⁻⁷Then I heard the Lord speak in his holy splendor, from his sanctuary I heard the Lord promise:
"In my triumph I will be the One to measure out
the portion of my inheritance to my people,

and I will secure the land as I promised you.

Shechem, Succoth, Gilead, Manasseh;

they are all still mine!" he says.

"Judah will continue to produce kings and lawgivers;

and Ephraim will produce great warriors.

⁸Moab will become my lowly servant!

Edom will likewise serve my purposes!

I will lift up a shout of victory over the land of Philistia!

⁹But who will bring my triumph into the strong city, into Edom's fortresses?"^a ¹⁰Have you really rejected us, refusing to fight our battles?

¹¹Give us a Father's help when we face our enemies.

For to trust in any man is an empty hope.

¹²With God's help we will fight like heroes and trample down our every foe!

Psalm 61

PRAYER FOR PROTECTION

*To the Pure and Shining One
A song for the guitar by King David*

¹O God, hear my prayer. Listen to my heart's cry.

²For no matter where I am, even when I'm far from home,

I will cry out to you for a Father's help.

When I'm feeble and overwhelmed by life, guide me into your glory where I am safe and sheltered.

³Lord, you are a paradise of protection to me.

You lift me high above the fray.

^a 60:9 Edom is a variant form of the word Adam.

None of my foes can touch me when I'm held firmly in your wrap-around presence!
⁴Keep me in this glory.
 Let me live continually under your splendor-shadow, hiding my life in you forever.

Pause in his presence

⁵You have heard my sweet resolutions to love and serve you, for I am your beloved.
 And you have given me an inheritance of rich treasures, which you give to all your lovers.
⁶You treat me like a king, giving me a full and abundant life, years and years of reigning,^a like many generations rolled into one.
⁷I will live enthroned with you forever!
 Guard me, God, with your unending, unending love.
 Let me live my days walking in grace and truth before you.
⁸And my praises will fill the heavens forever, fulfilling my vow to make every day a love gift to you!

Psalm 62

UNSHAKABLE FAITH

*To the Pure and Shining One
 King David's melody of love's celebration^b*

¹I stand silently to listen for the One I love, waiting as long as it takes for the Lord to rescue me.
 For God alone has become my Savior.

^a 61:6 Or "add to the days of the king."

^b The inscription includes the name Jeduthun, which means one who praises.

²He alone is my Safe Place;
 his wrap-around presence always protects me.
 For he is my Champion Defender;
 there's no risk of failure with God.
 So why would I let worry paralyze me,
 even when troubles multiply around me?
³But look at these who want me dead, shouting their vicious threats at me!
 The moment they discover my weakness
 they all begin plotting to take me down.
⁴Liars, hypocrites, with nothing good to say.
 All of their energies are spent on moving me from this exalted place.

Pause in his presence

⁵I am standing in absolute stillness, silent before the One I love, waiting as long as it takes for him to rescue me.
 Only God is my Savior, and he will not fail me.
⁶For he alone is my Safe Place.
 His wrap-around presence always protects me
 as my Champion Defender.
 There's no risk of failure with God!
 So why would I let worry paralyze me
 even when troubles multiply around me?
⁷God's glory is all around me!
 His wrap-around presence is all I need, for the Lord is my Savior, my Hero, and my life-giving strength.
⁸Join me, everyone! Trust only in God every moment!
 Tell him all your troubles and pour out your heart-longings to him.
 Believe me when I tell you—he will help you!

Pause in his presence

⁹Before God, all the people of the earth, high or low, are like smoke that disappears,

like a vapor that quickly vanishes away.

Compared to God they're nothing but vanity, nothing at all!

¹⁰The wealth of the world is nothing to God.

So if your wealth increases, don't be boastful or put your trust in your money.

And don't you think for a moment that you can get away with stealing by overcharging others just to get more for yourself!

¹¹God said to me once and for all,

"All the strength and power you need flows from me!"

And again I heard it clearly said,

¹²"All the love you need is found in me!"

And the Almighty said,

"The greater your passion for more,
the greater reward I will give you!"^a

Psalm 63

THIRSTING FOR GOD

For the Pure and Shining One

King David's song when he was exiled in the Judean wilderness

¹O God of my life, I'm lovesick for you in this weary wilderness.

I thirst with the deepest longings to love you more with cravings in my heart that can't be described.

Such yearning grips my soul for you, my God!

²I'm energized every time I enter your heavenly sanctuary to seek more of your power and drink in more of your glory.

^a 62:12 Implied in the text.

- ³For your tender mercies mean more to me than life itself.
How I love and praise you, God!
- ⁴Daily I will worship you passionately and with all my heart.
My arms will wave to you like banners of praise.
- ⁵I overflow with praise when I come before you,
for the anointing of your presence satisfies me like nothing else.
You are such a rich banquet of pleasure to my soul.
- ⁶⁻⁷I lie awake each night thinking of you and reflecting on how you help me like a Father.
I sing through the night under your splendor-shadow, offering up to you my songs of delight and joy!
- ⁸With passion I pursue and cling to you.
Because I feel your grip on my life,
I keep my soul close to your heart.
- ⁹Those who plot to destroy me shall descend into the darkness of hell.
- ¹⁰They will be consumed by their own evil and become nothing more than dust under our feet.^a
- ¹¹These liars will be silenced forever!
But with the anointing of a king I will dance and rejoice along with all his lovers who trust in him.

Psalm 64

THE DESTROYER DESTROYED

For the Pure and Shining One King David's song

- ¹⁻²Lord, can't you hear my cry, my bitter complaint?
Keep me safe from this band of criminals and from the conspiracy of these wicked men.

They gather in their secret counsel to destroy me.
³⁻⁴Can't you hear their slander, their lies?
Their words are like poison-tipped arrows shot from the shadows.
They are unafraid and have no fear of consequences.
⁵They set their traps against us in secret;
they strengthen each other, saying,
"No one can see us. Who can stop us?"
They're nothing more than unruly mobs joined in their unholy alliance—⁶Searching out new opportunities to pervert justice, deceivers scheming together their ill-conceived plot
as they plan the "perfect crime."
How unsearchable is their endless evil, trying desperately to hide the deep darkness of their hearts.
⁷But all the while God has his own fire-tipped arrows!
Suddenly, without warning,
they will be pierced and struck down!
⁸Staggering backward they will be destroyed by the very ones they spoke against!
All who see this will view them with scorn!
⁹Then all will stand awestruck over what God has done, seeing how he vindicated the victims of these crimes.
¹⁰The lovers of God will be glad, rejoicing in the Lord.
They will be found in his glorious wrap-around presence singing songs of praise to God!

Psalm 65

WHAT A SAVIOR

*For the Pure and Shining One
King David's poetic song*

- ¹⁻²O God in Zion, to you even silence is praise!
You are the God who answers prayer;^a all of humanity comes before you with their requests.
- ³Though we are overcome by our many sins, your sacrifice covers over them all.
- ⁴And your priestly lovers, those you've chosen,
will be greatly favored to be brought close to you.
What inexpressible joys are theirs!
What feasts of mercy fill them in your heavenly sanctuary!
How satisfied we will be just to be near you!
- ⁵You answer our prayers with amazing wonders and with awe-inspiring displays of power.
You are the righteous God who helps us like a Father.
Everyone everywhere looks to you,
for you are the Confidence of all the earth,
even to the farthest islands of the sea.
- ⁶What jaw-dropping, astounding power is yours!
You are the Mountain-Maker who sets them all in place.
- ⁷You muzzle the roar of the mighty seas and the rage of mobs with their noisy riots.
- ⁸O God, to the farthest corners of the planet people will stand in awe, startled and stunned by your signs and wonders.

^a 65:1-2 The Aramaic could be translated "to you a vow is paid."

Sunrise brilliance and sunset beauty both take turns singing their songs of joy to you.

⁹Your visitations of glory bless the earth;^a the rivers of God overflow and enrich it.
 You paint the wheat fields golden as you provide rich harvests.

¹⁰Every field is watered with the abundance of rain—showers soaking the earth and softening its clods, causing seeds to sprout throughout the land.

¹¹You crown the earth with its yearly harvest, the fruits of your goodness.
 Wherever you go the tracks of your chariot wheels drip with oil.

¹²Luxuriant green pastures boast of your bounty
 as you make every hillside blossom with joy.

¹³The grazing meadows are covered with flocks, and the fertile valleys are clothed with grain,
 each one dancing and shouting for joy, creation's celebration!
 And they're all singing their songs of praise to you!

Psalm 66

THANK YOU, LORD

*For the Pure and Shining One
 A song of awakening^b*

¹Everyone everywhere, lift up your joyful shout to God!
²Sing your songs tuned to his glory!
 Tell the world how wonderful he is.
³For he's the awe-inspiring God, great and glorious in power!

^a 65:9 The Septuagint says, "You've made the earth drunk with your visitations."

^b As translated from the inscription found in the Septuagint.

We've never seen anything like him!^a Mighty in miracles, you cause your enemies to tremble.
 No wonder they all surrender and bow before you!

⁴All the earth will bow down to worship;
 all the earth will sing your glories forever!

Pause in his presence

⁵Everyone will say: "Come and see the incredible things God has done;
 it will take your breath away!

He multiplies miracles for his people!"^b

⁶He made a highway going right through the Red Sea as the Hebrews each passed through on dry ground, exploding with joyous excitement over the miracles of God.

⁷In his great and mighty power he rules forever, watching over every movement of every nation.

So beware, rebel lands; he knows how to humble you!

Pause in his presence

⁸Praise God, all you peoples.

Praise him everywhere and let everyone know you love him!

⁹There's no doubt about it; God holds our lives safely in his hands.

He's the One who keeps us faithfully following him.

¹⁰O Lord, we have passed through your fire;
 like precious metal made pure, you've proved us, perfected us, and made us holy.

¹¹You've captured us, ensnared us in your net.

Then, like prisoners, you placed chains around our necks.^c

¹²You've allowed our enemies to prevail against us.

We've passed through fire and flood,
 yet in the end you always bring us out better than we were before, saturated with your goodness.^d

^b 66:5 The Septuagint says, "His works are more to be feared than the decisions of men."

^d 66:12 Or "You brought us out into a wide-open space [a place of rest]."

¹³I come before your presence with my sacrifice.
 I'll give you all that I've promised, everything I have.
¹⁴When I was overcome in my anguish,
 I promised to give you my sacrifice.
 Here it is! All that I said I would offer you is yours!
¹⁵The best I have to bring, I'll throw it all into the fire as the fragrance of my sacrifice ascends unto you.^a

Pause in his presence

¹⁶All you lovers of God who want to please him, come and listen, and I'll tell you what he did for me.
¹⁷I cried aloud to him with all my heart and he answered me!
 Now my mouth overflows with the highest praise.
¹⁸Yet if I had closed my eyes to my sin,
 the Lord God would have closed his ears to my prayer.
¹⁹But praises rise to God, for he paid attention to my prayer and answered my cry to him!
²⁰I will forever praise this God who didn't close his heart when I prayed and never said "No" when I asked him for help.
 He never once refused to show me his tender love.

Psalm 67

IT'S TIME TO PRAISE HIM

*For the Pure and Shining One
 A poetic song of praise for guitar*

¹God, keep us near your grace-fountain and bless us!
 And when you look down on us, may your face beam with joy!

Pause in his presence

^a 66:15 The literal Hebrew describes the sacrifice as "burnt offerings of fat beasts and the smoke of rams, bulls, and male goats."

²Send us out all over the world so that everyone everywhere will discover your ways and know who you are and see your power to save!

³Let all the nations burst forth with praise;
let everyone everywhere love and enjoy you!

⁴Then how glad the nations will be when you are their King.
They will sing, they will shout, for you give true justice to the people.
Yes! You, Lord, are the Shepherd of the nations!

Pause in his presence

⁵No wonder the peoples praise you!
Let all the people praise you more!^a ⁶The harvest of the earth is here!

God, the very God we worship keeps us satisfied at his banquet of blessings.

⁷And the blessings keep coming!
Then all the ends of the earth will give him
the honor he deserves and be in awe of him!

Psalm 68

A SONG OF TRIUMPH

For the Pure and Shining One David's poetic song of praise

¹God! Arise with awesome power, and every one of your enemies will scatter in fear!

²Chase them away—all these God-haters.
Blow them away as a puff of smoke.
Melt them away like wax in the fire.
One good look at you and the wicked vanish.

^a 67:5 The Septuagint says, "Let all the people come to know you."

³But let all your godly-lovers be glad!
 Yes, let them all rejoice in your presence and be carried away with gladness.^a Let them laugh and be radiant with joy!

⁴Let them sing their celebration-songs for the coming of the Cloud-Rider whose name is Yah! ^b

⁵⁻⁶To the fatherless he is a Father, to the widow he is a Champion Friend.
 To the lonely, he gives a family.
 To the prisoner,^c he leads into prosperity until they each sing for joy.
 This is our Holy God in his Holy Place!
 But for the rebels there is heartache and despair.^d

⁷O Lord, it was you who marched in front of your people leading them through the wasteland.

Pause in his presence

⁸The earth shook beneath your feet; the heavens filled with clouds before the presence of the God of Sinai!
 The sacred mountain shook at the sight of the face of Israel's God!

⁹You sent the reviving rain upon the weary land, showers of blessing to refresh it.

¹⁰So there your people settled.
 And in your kindness you provided the poor with abundance.

¹¹God Almighty declares the Word of the gospel with power,^e and the warring women of Zion deliver its message:^f

¹²"The conquering legions have themselves been conquered.
 Look at them flee!"
 Now Zion's women are left to gather the spoils.

^a 68:3 As translated from the Septuagint. The Aramaic is: "They rejoice in his sweetness."

^b 68:4 More than an abbreviation, the name Yah is associated with the God of heaven, the God of highest glory and power.

^c 68:5-6 The Septuagint says "the bitter ones."

^d 68:6 The Aramaic says "the rebels will dwell among the tombs."

^e 68:11 As translated from the Aramaic.

^f 68:11 As translated from the Masoretic text.

- ¹³When you sleep between sharpened stakes,^a
 I see you sparkling like silver and glistening like gold, covered by the beautiful wings of a dove!^b
- ¹⁴When the Almighty found a king for himself, it became white as snow in his shade.^c
- ¹⁵⁻¹⁶O huge, magnificent mountain, you are the mighty Kingdom of God!^d
 All the other peaks, though impressive and imposing, look with envy on you, Mount Zion!
 For Zion is the mountain where God has chosen to live forever.
- ¹⁷Look! The mighty chariots of God!
 Ten thousands upon ten thousands,
 more than anyone could ever number.
 God is at the front,
 leading them all from Mount Sinai into his sanctuary with the radiance of holiness upon him.^e
- ¹⁸He ascends into the heavenly heights, taking his many captured ones with him,
 leading them in triumphal procession.
 And gifts were given to men, even the once rebellious,
 so that they may dwell with Yah.

^a 68:13 The Aramaic word shaphya can be translated “sharpened stakes or thorns”: an obvious prophecy of the cross and our union with Christ as he was crucified.

^b 68:13 As translated from the Aramaic text, this verse contains prophetic hints of Calvary, where Jesus slept the sleep of death between the sharpened stakes of the cross. The word you is plural and points us to our co-crucifixion with Christ.

^c 68:14 Every scholar consulted concludes that this verse is difficult, if not impossible to interpret properly and translate accurately. The last words are literally: “snow fell in Zalmon.” Zalmon (or Salmon) was a wooded area and means “shady.”

^e 68:17 The Septuagint says “the Lord sends his provisions from his Holy Place on Mount Sinai.”

¹⁹What a glorious God!^a

He gives us salvation over and over,^b then daily he carries our burdens!

Pause in his presence

²⁰Our God is a mighty God who saves us over and over!

For the Lord, Yahweh, rescues us from the ways of death many times.

²¹But he will crush every enemy, shattering their strength.

He will make heads roll for they refuse to repent of their stubborn, sinful ways.

²²I hear the Lord God saying to all the enemies of his people:

“You’d better come out of your hiding places, all of you who are doing your best to stay far away from me;^c don’t you know there’s no place to hide!

²³For my people will be the conquerors;

they will soon have you under their feet!
they will crush you until there is nothing left!”^d

²⁴O God, my King, your triumphal processions keep moving onward in holiness;

you’re moving onward toward the Holy Place!

²⁵Leaders in front,^e then musicians, with young maidens in between striking their tambourines!

²⁶And they sing “Let all God’s princely people rejoice!

Let all the congregations bring their blessing to God, saying:
‘The Lord of the Fountain! The Lord of the Fountain of life!
The Lord of the Fountain of Israel!’” a 68:19 The Aramaic is Maryah, the Aramaic form of YHWH or Lord Jehovah.

b 68:19 Salvation is in the plural form in the text (salvations).

c 68:22 The Hebrew text makes reference to Bashan (a high mountain) and to the depths of the sea. In other words, there’s no place to hide.

d 68:23 The Hebrew text is literally: “Your enemies will be food for the dogs.”

e 68:25 As translated from the Septuagint. The Hebrew is “singers in front.”

- ²⁷Astonishingly, it's the favored youth leading the way.^a Princes of praise in their royal robes and exalted princes are among them along with princes who have wrestled with God.
- ²⁸⁻²⁹Display your strength, God, and we'll be strong!
For your miracles have made us who we are.
Lord, do it again,
and parade from your temple your mighty power.
By your command even kings will bring gifts to you.
- ³⁰God, rebuke the beast-life that hides within us!^b Rebuke those who claim to be "strong ones"^c that lurk within the congregation and abuse the people out of their love for money.
So God scatters the people who are spoiling for a fight.
- ³¹Africa will send her noble envoys to you, O God.
They will come running, stretching out their hands in love to you.
- ³²Let all the nations of the earth sing songs of praise to Almighty God!
Go ahead all you nations—sing your praise to the Lord!
- Pause in his presence*
- ³³Make music for the One who strides the ancient skies.
Listen to his thunderous voice of might split open the heavens.
- ³⁴Give it up for God, for he alone has all the strength and power!
Proclaim his majesty! For his glory shines down on Israel.
His mighty strength soars in the clouds of glory.
- ³⁵God, we are consumed with awe, trembling before you as your glory streams from your Holy Place.

^a 68:27 The Hebrew includes the names of four sons of Jacob, representing four tribes. Benjamin, the youngest son, means "son of my right hand," or "the favored one." Judah means "praise." Zebulun's name is the word for "exalted." Naphtali means "obtained by wrestling." Each name speaks of a princely group, and is used here poetically not only for Israel but for all of God's "princely people" in this holy procession of worship.

^b 68:30 Literal Hebrew: "Rebuke the beasts in the reeds."

^c 68:30 This verse has puzzled scholars, and many conclude that the Hebrew text is nearly incomprehensible with tremendous variations in the translation.

The God of power shares his mighty strength with Israel and with all his people.
God, we give our highest praise to you!

Psalm 69

A CRY OF DISTRESS^a

*To the Pure and Shining One
David's poetic song of praise to the tune "Lilies"*

- ¹⁻²God, my God, come and save me!
These floods of trouble have risen higher and higher.
The water is up to my neck!
I'm sinking into the mud with no place to stand, and I'm about to drown in this storm.
- ³I'm weary, exhausted with weeping.
My throat is dry, my voice is gone, my eyes are swollen with sorrow, and I'm waiting for you, God, to come through for me.
- ⁴I can't even count all those who hate me for no reason.
Many influential men want me silenced,
yet I've done nothing against them.
Must I restore what I never took away?
- ⁵God, my life is an open book to you.
You know every sin I've ever done.
For nothing within me is hidden from your sight!
- ⁶Lord Yahweh of Angel-Armies, keep me from ever being a stumbling block to others,
to those who love you.

^a Psalm 69 is considered one of the most outstanding messianic psalms, with obvious prophetic references to the sufferings and cross of Jesus Christ. Next to Psalm 22 it is the psalm most often quoted in the New Testament.

Lord God of Israel, don't let what happens to me be the source of confusion to those who are passionate for you.

⁷Because of my love for you, Lord,
I have been mocked, cursed, and disgraced.

⁸Even my own brothers, those of my family, act as though they don't want anything to do with me.

⁹My love for you has my heart on fire!
My passion consumes me for your house!
Nothing will turn me away.
Even though I endure all the insults of those who insult you.

¹⁰When they see me seeking for more of you with weeping and fasting, they all just scoff and scorn at my passion.

¹¹When I humble myself with sorrow over my sin,
it gives them a reason to mock me even more.

¹²The leaders, the influential ones—how they scorn my passion for you!
I've become the talk of the town, the theme of drunkards' songs.

¹³But I keep calling out to you, Lord!
I know you will bend down to listen to me,
for now is the season of favor.
Because of your great love for me,
your answer to my prayer will be my sure salvation.

¹⁴Pull me out of this mess! Don't let me sink!
Rescue me from those who hate me and from all this trouble I'm in!

¹⁵Don't let this flood drown me.
Save me from these deep waters or I'll go down to the pit of destruction.

¹⁶⁻¹⁷Oh, Lord God, answer my prayers!
I need to see your tender kindness, your grace,
your compassion, and your constant love.
Just let me see your face, and turn your heart toward me.
Come running quickly to your servant.
In this deep distress, come and answer my prayer.

- ¹⁸Come closer as a friend and redeem me.
Set me free so my enemies cannot say that you are powerless.
- ¹⁹See how they dishonor me in shame and disgrace?
You know, Lord, what I'm going through, and you see it all.
- ²⁰I'm heartsick and heartbroken by it all.
Their contempt has crushed my soul.
I looked for sympathy and compassion but found only empty stares.
- ²¹I was hungry and they gave me bitter food.
I was thirsty and they offered me vinegar.^a
- ²²Let their "feasts" turn to ashes!
Let their "peace and security" become their downfall!
- ²³Make them blind as bats, groping in the dark!
Let them be feeble, trembling continually!
- ²⁴⁻²⁵Pour out your fury on them all!
Consume them with the fire of your anger!
Burn down the walled palace where they live!
Leave them homeless and desolate!
- ²⁶For they come against the one you yourself have struck, and they scorn the pain of those you've pierced.
- ²⁷Pile on them the guilt of their sins!
Don't let them ever go free!
- ²⁸Leave them out of your list of the living!
Blot them out of your book of life!
Never name them as your own!
- ²⁹I am burdened and broken by this pain.
When your miracle rescue comes to me,
it will lift me to the highest place.
- ³⁰Then my song will be a burst of praise to you.
My glory-shouts will make your fame even more glorious to all who hear my praises!

^a 69:21 This was fulfilled with Jesus being offered vinegar on the cross. See Luke 23:36.

- ³¹For I know, Lord, that my praises mean more to you than all my gifts and sacrifices.
- ³²All your gentle lovers will see God do this for them,^a and they'll overflow with gladness.
Let this revive your hearts, all you lovers of God!
- ³³For God does listen to the poor and needy and will not abandon his prisoners of love.^b
- ³⁴Let all the universe praise him!
The high heavens and everyone on earth praise him!
Let the oceans deep with everything in them, keep it up!
- ³⁵God will come to save his Zion-people.
God will build up his cities of Judah,
for there his people will live in peace.
- ³⁶All their children will inherit the land, and the lovers of his name will live there safe and secure!

Psalm 70

A CRY FOR HELP

*To the Pure and Shining One
David's poetic lament to always remember*

- ¹Please Lord! Come quickly and rescue me!
God, show me your favor and restore me.
- ²Let all who seek my life be humiliated, confused, and ashamed.
God, send them sprawling, all who wish me evil;
they just want me dead.

^b 69:33 Or "those wearing shackles."

- ³Scoff at every scoffer and cause them all to be utter failures!
 Let them be ashamed and horrified over their complete defeat.
- ⁴But let all who passionately seek you erupt with excitement and joy over what you've done!
 Let all your lovers, who continually rejoice in the Savior,^a say aloud: "How great and glorious is our God!"
- ⁵Lord, in my place of weakness and need,
 won't you turn your heart toward me and hurry to help me?
 For you are my Savior and I'm always in your thoughts.
 So don't delay to deliver me now, for you are my God.

Psalm 71

THE PSALM OF OLD AGE

- ¹Lord, you are my secure shelter. Don't ever let me down!
- ²Let your justice be my breakthrough.
 Bend low to my whispered cry and save me from all my enemies!
- ³You're the only place of protection for me.
 I keep coming back to hide myself in you,
 for you are like a mountain-cliff-fortress where I'm kept safe.
- ⁴Let me escape from these cruel and wicked men and save me from the evil hands of the evil one.
- ⁵For you are my only hope, Lord!
 I've hung onto you, trusting in you all my life.
- ⁶⁻⁷It was you who supported me from the day I was born, loving me, helping me through my life's journey.
 You've made me into a miracle;
 no wonder I trust you and praise you forever!

^a 70:4 This verse contains the Hebrew root word for Yeshua.

Many marvel at my success,
but I know it is all because of you, my mighty Protector!
8I'm overflowing with your praise for all you've done,
and your splendor thrills me all day long.
9Now that I'm old, don't set me aside.
Don't let go of me when my strength is spent.
10-11For all my enemies whisper behind my back.
They're waiting for me to fall so they can finish me off.
They're convinced you've left me
and that you'll never come to my rescue.
They're saying, "Let's get him now! He has no Savior!"
12O God, stay close to me!
Don't just watch from a distance! Hurry to help me, my God!
13Cover these accusers of mine with shame and failure!
Destroy them all, for they only want to kill me!
14No matter what, I'll trust in you to help me.
Nothing will stop me from praising you to magnify your glory!
15I couldn't begin to count the times you've been there for me.
With the skill of a poet I'll never run out of things to say of how you faithfully kept me from danger.^a 16I will come forth in your mighty strength, O my Lord God.^b
I'll tell everyone that you alone are the Perfect One.
17From my childhood you've been my teacher, and I'm still telling everyone of your miracle-wonders!
18God, now that I'm old and gray, don't walk away.
Give me grace to demonstrate to the next generation all your mighty miracles and your excitement to show them your magnificent power!

^a 71:15 Implied in the text.

^b 71:16 Or "I will enter into the manliness of Lord Jehovah."

- ¹⁹For your glorious righteousness reaches up to the high heavens.
 No one could ever be compared to you!
 Who is your equal, O God of marvels and wonders?
- ²⁰Even though you've let us sink down with trials and troubles,
 I know you will revive us again, lifting us up from the dust of death.
- ²¹Give us even more greatness than before.
 Turn and comfort us once again.
- ²²My loving God, the harp in my heart will praise you.
 Your faithful heart toward us will be the theme of my song.
 Melodies and music will rise to you, the Holy One of Israel.
- ²³I will shout and sing your praises for all you are to me—
 Savior, lover of my soul!
- ²⁴I'll never stop telling others how perfect you are while all those who seek my harm slink away ashamed and defeated!

Psalm 72

THE RIGHTEOUS KING

Solomon's psalm^a

- ¹O God, make the king a godly judge like you and give the king's son the gift of justice too.
- ²Help him to give true justice to your people, honorably and equally to all.
- ³Then the mountains of influence will be fruitful, and from your righteousness prosperity and peace flow to all the people.

^a The Septuagint indicates this could be a psalm written by David for his son, Solomon. This royal psalm is a prayer for the king. Read through it as though it is referring to King Jesus—One who is greater than Solomon.

- ⁴May the poor and humble have an advocate with the king.
May he consider the children of the poor and crush the cruel oppressor.
- ⁵The sun and moon will stop shining before your lovers will stop worshiping;
for ages upon ages the people will love and adore you!
- ⁶Your favor will fall like rain upon our surrendered lives,^a like showers reviving the earth!
- ⁷In the days of his reign the righteous will spring forth with the abundance of peace and prosperity forevermore.
- ⁸May he subdue and take dominion from sea to sea;
may he rule from the river to the rim.
- ⁹Desert-nomads are bowing at his feet,
every enemy falling facedown, biting the dust!
- ¹⁰Distant kings will surrender and come with their gifts from every continent and coastland;
they will offer their tribute to you.^b
- ¹¹O King of kings, they will all bow before you.
O King of kings, every nation will one day serve you.
- ¹²⁻¹³He will care for the needy and neglected
when they cry to him for help.
The humble and helpless will know his kindness, for with a father's compassion he will save their souls.
- ¹⁴They will be rescued from tyranny and torture,
for their lifeblood is precious in his eyes.
- ¹⁵Long live this King!
May the wealth of the world be laid before him.^c
May there be ceaseless praise and prayer to him.
May all the blessing be brought to him.

^a 72:6 Or "like rain on mown grass."

^b 72:10 Included in the Hebrew text are: kings of Tarshish (Spain), and kings of Sheba and Seba (Ethiopia).

^c 72:15 Or "the gold of Sheba."

- ¹⁶Bless us with a bountiful harvest, with golden grain swaying on the mountain fields!
May the cities be full of praising people, fruitful and filled—
- ¹⁷So that his name may be honored forever!
May the fame of his name spring forth!
May it shine on, like the sunshine!
In him all will be blessed to bless others,
and may all the people bless the One who blessed them.
- ¹⁸Praise forever Jehovah God, the God of Israel!
He is the one and only God of wonders, surpassing every expectation.
- ¹⁹The blazing glory of his name will be praised forever!
May all the earth overflow with his glory!
Faithful is our King! Amen!
- ²⁰This concludes the poetry sung by David, Jesse's son.

BOOK III

The Leviticus Psalms

PSALMS OF WORSHIP AND GOD'S HOUSE

Psalm 73

GOD'S JUSTICE

Asaph's psalm

- ¹No one can deny it—God is really good to Israel and to all those with pure hearts.
But I nearly missed seeing it for myself.^a
- ²Here's my story: I came so close to missing the way.
- ³I was stumbling over what I saw with the wicked.
For when I saw the boasters with such wealth and prosperity,
I became jealous over their smug security.
- ⁴⁻⁵Indulging in whatever they wanted, going where they wanted, doing what they wanted, and with no care in the world.
No pain, no problems, they seemed to have it made.
They lived as though life would never end.
- ⁶They didn't even try to hide their pride and opulence.
Cruelty and violence is part of their lifestyle.
- ⁷Pampered and pompous, vice oozes from their souls;
they overflow with vanity!
- ⁸They're such snobs—looking down their noses
they even scoff at God!
They are nothing but bullies threatening God's people!
- ⁹Loudmouths with no fear of God, pretending to know it all!
Windbags full of hot air, impressing only themselves!
- ¹⁰Yet the people keep coming back to listen to more of their same nonsense.
- ¹¹They tell their cohorts, "God will never know.
See, he has no clue of what we're doing."

^a 73:1 Implied in the context.

- ¹²These are the wicked ones I'm talking about!
They never have to lift a finger, living a life of ease while their riches multiply.
- ¹³Have I been foolish to play by the rules and keep my life pure?
- ¹⁴Here I am suffering under your discipline day after day while they sail through life without a care.^a
- ¹⁵If I had given in to my pain and spoken of what I was really feeling, it would have sounded like unfaithfulness to the next generation.
- ¹⁶So when I tried to understand it all, I just couldn't.
It was too puzzling—too much of a riddle to me.
- ¹⁷But then, one day I was brought into the sanctuaries of God,
and in the light of glory, my distorted perspective vanished.
The end of the wicked was near!^b
- ¹⁸They're the ones who are on the slippery path, and God will suddenly let them slide off into destruction to be consumed with terrors forever!
- ¹⁹It will be an instant end to all their life of ease;
a blink of the eye and they're swept away by sudden calamity!
They're all nothing more than momentary monarchs—
- ²⁰Soon to disappear like a dream when one awakes.
So when the rooster crows,
Lord God, you'll despise their life of fantasies.^c
- ²¹When I saw all of this, what turmoil filled my heart, piercing my opinions with your truth.
- ²²I was so stupid. I was senseless and ignorant, acting like a brute beast before you, Lord.
- ²³Yet, in spite of all this, you comfort me by your counsel;
you draw me closer to you.

^a 73:14 Implied in the context.

^b 73:17 Implied in the text.

^c 73:20 Or "shadows."

²⁴You lead me with your secret wisdom.

And following you brings me into your brightness and glory!

²⁵Whom have I in heaven but you! You're all I want!

No one on earth means as much to me as you.

²⁶Lord, so many times I fail; I fall into disgrace, but when I trust in you, I have a strong and glorious presence protecting and anointing me. Forever you're all I need!

²⁷Those who abandon the worship of God will perish.

The false and unfaithful will be silenced, never heard from again.

²⁸But I'll keep coming closer and closer to you, Lord Yahweh, for your name is good to me. I'll keep telling the world of your awesome works, my faithful and glorious God!

Psalm 74

WE NEED YOU NOW

Asaph's poem of instruction

¹Are you really going to leave us, God?

Would you turn your back on us, rejecting your people?

We are yours, your very own.^a

Will your anger smolder against us forever?

²Don't forget that we are your beloved ones.

Wrap us back into your heart again, for you chose us.

You brought us out of our slavery and bondage and made us your favored ones, your Zion-people, your home on earth.

^a 74:1 Or "the sheep of your pasture."

³Turn your steps toward this devastation.

Come running to bring your restoring grace to these ruins,^a to what the enemy has done to devastate your Holy Place.

⁴They have come into the very midst of your dwelling place, roaring like beasts, setting up their banners to flaunt their conquest!

⁵Now everything is in shambles! They've totally destroyed it.
Like a forest chopped down to the ground,
there's nothing's left!

⁶All of the beauty of the craftsmanship of the inner place has been ruined, smashed, broken, and shattered!^b

⁷They've burned it all to the ground!
They've violated your sanctuary,
the very dwelling place of your glory and your name.

⁸They boasted, "Let's completely crush them!
Let's wipe out every trace of this God.
Let's burn up every sacred place where they worship this God."

⁹Now there's nothing left to show that we are the people of God!^c
No miraculous signs anymore!
There's no longer a prophet among us who can tell us how long this devastation will continue!

¹⁰So God, how much longer will you let this go on and allow these barbarians to blaspheme your name?
Will you stand back and watch them get away with this forever?

¹¹Why don't you do something?
You have the power to break in, a 74:3 This verse reads so differently in the Aramaic: "Lift up your servants with your might above those who take them captive, for those who oppress us are enemies to your holiness."

b 74:6 This psalm also describes what the enemy of our souls has done spiritually to mar the image of God in the inner place of man's spirit. God will fully restore all things, including his image within us, as our hearts become his Holy Place on the earth.

c 74:9 Implied in the text.

- so why would you hide your great power from us?
 Don't hold back! Unleash your might and give them a final blow.
- ¹²You have always been, and always will be, my King.
 You are the Mighty Conqueror working wonders all over the world.
- ¹³It was you who split the sea in two by your glorious strength.
 You smashed the power of Tannin, the sea-god!^a
- ¹⁴You crushed the might of Leviathan,^b the great dragon, then you took the crumbs and fed them to the sharks!^c
- ¹⁵With your glory you opened up springs and fountains, then you spoke and the ever flowing springs of Jordan dried up so we could cross over.
- ¹⁶You own the day and the night.
 Sunlight and starlight call you Creator.
- ¹⁷The four corners of the earth were formed by your hands, and every changing season owes its beauty to you.
- ¹⁸O, Jehovah, don't ever forget how these arrogant enemies, like fools, have mocked your name.
- ¹⁹Lord, aren't we your beloved dove that praises you?^d
 Protect us from these wild beasts who want to harm us.
 Don't leave us as lambs among wolves!
 You can't abandon us after all we've been through!
- ²⁰Remember your promises to us,
 for darkness covers the land,
 giving the violent ones a hiding place.
- ²¹Don't let these insults continue.
 Can't you see that we are your downtrodden and oppressed people?

^a 74:13 As translated literally from the Hebrew. The Septuagint says, "You've crushed the heads of the dragons in the water [water spirits]."

^b 74:14 Leviathan is mentioned six times in Job 41. Leviathan means twisted or coiled, and is considered to be a sea monster. See Genesis 1:21.

^c 74:14 The Septuagint says, "You fed them to the black peoples."

^d 74:19 As translated from the Septuagint, Syriac, and one Hebrew manuscript.

Make the poor and needy into a choir of praise to you!
²²Don't ignore these ignorant words, this continual mocking.
Rise up, God; it's time to defend yourself from all of this.
²³Never forget what your adversaries are saying.
For their rage and uproar rise continually against you.
It's time to stand up to them!^a

Psalm 75

A CUP IN GOD'S HAND

To the Pure and Shining One Asaph's poetic song to the tune "Do Not Destroy"

¹God, our hearts spill over with praise to you!
We overflow with thanks, for your name is the "Near One."
All we want to talk about is your wonderful works!
And we hear your reply:
² "When the time is ripe I will arise,
and I will judge the world with perfect righteousness!
³Though I have set the earth firmly on its pillars,
I will shake it until it totters and everyone's hearts will tremble."
Pause in his presence
⁴God warns the proud, "Stop your arrogant boasting!"
And he warns the wicked,
"Don't think for a moment you can resist me!
⁵Why would you speak with such stubborn pride?
Don't you dare raise your fist against me!"
⁶⁻⁷This I know:
the favor that brings promotion and power doesn't come from anywhere on earth,

^a 74:23 Implied in the context.

for no one exalts a person but God, the true Judge of all.
 He alone determines where favor rests.
 He anoints one for greatness,
 and brings another down to his knees.

⁸A foaming cup filled with judgment mixed with fury is in the hands of the Lord Jehovah, full to the brim and ready to run over.
 He filled it up for the wicked and they will drink it down to the very last drop!

⁹But I will proclaim the victory of the God of Jacob.
 My melodies of praise will make him known.^a ¹⁰My praises will break the powers of wickedness while the righteous will be promoted and become powerful!

Psalm 76

AWE-INSPIRING POWER

*To the Pure and Shining One
 Asaph's poetic tune, a song of smiting*

¹God is well-known in the land of Judah.

He is famous throughout Israel,

²Making his home in Jerusalem, living here on Mount Zion.

³That's where he smashes every weapon of war that comes against him.

That's where he uses the broken arrows as kindling for his mighty bonfire.

Pause in his presence

^a 75:9 Implied in the text.

- ⁴God, you are so resplendent and radiant!^a
Your majesty shines from your everlasting mountain.
Nothing could be compared to you in glory!
- ⁵Even the mightiest of men have been paralyzed by your presence.
They were so stunned and lifeless not even the strongest one could lift a hand.
- ⁶When Jacob's God roared his rebuke, soldiers and their steeds all fell to the ground, stunned and lying still.
- ⁷No wonder you are greatly feared! You are the awe-inspiring God!
For who could ever stand before your face when your fierce anger burns and still live to tell about it.
- ⁸As the earth itself holds its breath in awe before you, judgment is decreed from heaven.
- ⁹You arise to punish evil and defend the gentle upon the earth.
Pause in his presence
- ¹⁰You have power to transform man's futile anger into praise.^b
The fury of your enemies only causes your fame to increase.^c
- ¹¹So you'd better keep every promise you've ever made to the Awesome One, Jehovah God!
Let everyone bring their extravagant gifts to him alone.
- ¹²He is famous for breaking the spirit of the powers that be.
And the kings of the earth will know him as the Fearsome One!

^b 76:10 Or "the counsel of men will praise you."

^c 76:10 The Septuagint reads, "Survivors of your wrath keep your festivals."

Psalm 77

GOD OF COMFORT

*To the Pure and Shining One
Asaph's poetic song of love's celebration*

¹I poured out my complaint to you, God.

I lifted up my voice, shouting out for your help.

²When I was in deep distress, in my day of trouble,

I reached out for you with hands stretched out to heaven!

Over and over I kept looking for you, God,

but your comforting grace was nowhere to be found.

³As I thought of you I just moaned: "God, where are you?"^a

I'm overwhelmed with despair as I wait for your help to arrive.

Pause in his presence

⁴I can't get a wink of sleep until you come and comfort me.

Now I'm too burdened to even pray!

⁵My mind wanders thinking of days gone by—the years long since passed.

⁶Then I remembered my worship songs I used to sing

in the night seasons,

and my heart began to fill again with thoughts of you.

So my spirit went out once more in search of you.

⁷Would you really walk off and leave me forever, my Lord God?

Won't you show me your kind favor; delighting in me again?

⁸Has your well of sweet mercy dried up?

Will your promises never come true?

⁹Have you somehow forgotten to show me love?

Are you so angry that you've closed your heart of compassion toward me?

Pause in his presence

^a 77:3 Implied in the context.

- ¹⁰Lord, what wounds me most is that it's somehow my fault that you've changed your heart toward me and I no longer see the years of the Mighty One and your right hand of power.^a
- ¹¹Yet I could never forget all your miracles, my God, as I remember all your wonders of old.
- ¹²I ponder all you've done, Lord, musing on all your miracles.
- ¹³It's here in your presence, in your sanctuary,
where I learn more of your ways.^b
For holiness is revealed in everything you do!
Lord, you're the One and Only, the great and glorious God!
- ¹⁴Your display of wonders, miracles, and power makes the nations acknowledge you.
- ¹⁵By your glory-bursts you've rescued us over and over.
Just ask the sons of Jacob or the sons of Joseph and they will tell you!
And all of us, your beloved ones, know that it's true!

Pause in his presence

- ¹⁶When the many waters of the Red Sea took one look at you,^c
they were afraid and ran away to hide—trembling to its depths!
- ¹⁷Storm clouds filled with water high in the skies;
cloudbursts and thunderclaps announced your approach.
Lightning-flashes lit up the landscape.
- ¹⁸Rolling whirlwinds exploded with sonic booms of thunder, rumbling as the skies shouted out your story with light and sound and wind.

^a 77:10 This difficult verse has a number of alternate translations, including: "Your right hand has changed [or withered]." The implication is that God's power and protection are no longer being seen.

^b 77:13 This is an alternative translation.

^c 77:16 Although the Red Sea is not mentioned in the verse, it is implied in the context.

Everything on earth shook and trembled as you drew near.^a ¹⁹Your steps formed a highway through the seas with footprints on a pathway no one even knew was there.^b ²⁰You led your people forward by your loving hand, blessed by the leadership of Moses and Aaron.

Psalm 78

LESSONS FROM HISTORY

Asaph's poetic song of instruction

¹Beloved ones, listen to this instruction.
 Open your heart to the revelation of this mystery that I share with you.
²A parable and a proverb are hidden in what I say—an intriguing riddle from the past.
³⁻⁴We've heard true stories from our fathers about our rich heritage.
 We will continue to tell our children and not hide from the rising generation the great marvels of our God—his miracles and power that have brought us all this far.
⁵The story of Israel is a lesson in God's ways.
 He gave Moses his laws then commanded us to keep them,
 and to make them known to all our children.
⁶For perpetuity God's ways will be passed down from one generation to the next, even to those not yet born.
⁷In this way, every generation will have a living faith in the laws of life and will never forget the faithful ways of God.

^a 77:18 Implied in the context.

^b 77:19 This could be a prophecy of Jesus one day walking on water.

- ⁸By following his ways they will break the past bondage of their fickle fathers who were a stubborn, rebellious generation and whose spirits strayed from the Eternal God.
They refused to love him with all their hearts!
- ⁹Take for an example, the sons of Ephraim;
though they were all equipped warriors, each with weapons, when the battle began they retreated and ran away in fear.
- ¹⁰They didn't really believe the promises of God;
they simply refused to trust him and move forward in faith.
- ¹¹They forgot his wonderful works and the miracles of the past, ¹²Even their exodus from Egypt, the epic miracle of his might.
They forgot the glories of his power at the place of passing over.^a
- ¹³God split the sea wide open, and the waters stood at attention on either side as the people passed on through!
- ¹⁴By day the moving glory-cloud led them forward.
And all through the night the fire-cloud stood as a sentry of light.
- ¹⁵⁻¹⁶In the days of desert dryness he split open the mighty rock, and the waters flowed like a river before their very eyes.
He gave them all they wanted to drink from his living springs.
- ¹⁷Yet they kept their rebellion alive against God Most High,
and their sins against God continued to be counted.
- ¹⁸In their hearts they tested God just to get what they wanted, asking for the food their hearts craved.
- ¹⁹⁻²⁰Like spoiled children they grumbled against God himself, demanding he prove his love by saying,^b
"Can't God provide for us in this barren wilderness?
Will he give us food, or will he only give us water?
Where's our meal?"

^a 78:12 Or "the fields of Zoan." Zoan means crossing place or place of departure. See also verse 43.

^b 78:19-20 Implied in the context.

- ²¹Then God heard all their complaining and was furious!
His anger flared up against his people.
- ²²For they turned away from faith and walked away in fear;
they failed to trust in his power to help them when he was near.
- ²³⁻²⁴Still he spoke on their behalf and the skies opened up;
the windows of heaven poured out food,
the mercy bread-manna.
The grain of grace fell from the clouds.
- ²⁵Humans ate angels' food—the meal of the mighty ones.
His grace gave them more than enough!
- ²⁶⁻²⁷The heavenly winds of miracle power blew in their favor and food rained down upon them;
succulent quail quieted their hunger as they ate all they wanted.
- ²⁸Food fell from the skies, thick as clouds;
their provision floated down right in front of their eyes!
- ²⁹He gave them all they desired, and they ate to their fill.
- ³⁰⁻³¹But before they had even finished,
even with their food still in their mouths,
God's fiery anger arose against them killing the finest of their mighty men.
- ³²Yet in spite of all this, they kept right on sinning.
Even when they saw God's marvels,
they refused to believe God could care for them.
- ³³So God cut their lives short with sudden disaster, with nothing to show for their lives but fear and failure.
- ³⁴When he cared for them they ignored him,^a but when he began to kill them ending their lives in a moment, they came running back to God pleading for mercy.
- ³⁵They remembered that God, the Mighty One,
was their strong Protector,
the Hero-God who would come to their rescue.

^a 78:34 Implied in the context.

- ³⁶⁻³⁷But their repentance lasted only as long as they were in danger;
they lied through their teeth to the True God of Covenant.
So quickly they wandered away from his promises, following God with their words and not their hearts!
Their worship was only flattery.
- ³⁸But amazingly, God—so full of compassion—still forgave them.
He covered over their sins with his love,
refusing to destroy them all.
Over and over he held back his anger, restraining wrath to show them mercy.
- ³⁹He knew that they were made from mere dust—frail, fragile, and short-lived, here today and gone tomorrow.
- ⁴⁰How many times they rebelled in their desert days!
How they grieved him with their grumblings.
- ⁴¹Again and again they limited God, preventing him from blessing them.
Continually they turned back from him and wounded the Holy One!
- ⁴²They forgot his great love, how he took them by his hand and with redemption's kiss^a he delivered them from their enemies.
- ⁴³They disregarded all the epic signs and marvels they saw when they escaped from Egypt's bondage.
They forgot the judgment of the plagues that set them free.
- ⁴⁴God turned their rivers into blood, leaving the people thirsty.
- ⁴⁵How he sent them vast swarms of filthy flies that sucked their blood.
He sent hordes of frogs, ruining their lives.
- ⁴⁶And grasshoppers consumed all their crops.
- ⁴⁷And every garden, every orchard was flattened with blasts of hailstones, their fruit trees ruined by a killing frost.
- ⁴⁸Even their cattle fell prey, pounded by the falling hail;
their livestock were struck with bolts of lightning.

^a 78:42 Implied in the context.

⁴⁹Finally, he unleashed upon them the fierceness of his anger.
Such fury!
He sent them sorrow and devastating trouble
by his mighty band of destroying angels;
messengers of death were dispatched against them!

⁵⁰⁻⁵¹He lifted his mercy and let loose his fearful anger and did not spare their lives.
He released the judgment-plagues to rage through their land.
God struck down in death all the firstborn sons of Egypt—
the pride and joy of each family!

⁵²Then like a Shepherd leading his sheep, God led his people out of tyranny, guiding them toward the Land of Promise.^a ⁵³Safely and carefully God led them out with nothing to fear.

But their enemies he led into the sea.
He took care of them there once and for all!

⁵⁴Eventually God brought his people to the Holy Land, to a land of hills that he prepared for them.^b

⁵⁵He drove out and scattered all the peoples occupying the land, staking out an inheritance, a portion for each of Israel's tribes.

⁵⁶Yet for all of this, they still rebelled and refused to follow his ways, provoking to anger the God Most High.

⁵⁷⁻⁵⁸Like traitors turning back they forsook him.
They were even worse than their fathers!
They became treacherous deceivers, crooked and corrupt, and worshiped false gods in the high places, bringing low the name of God with every idol they erected.
No wonder he was filled with jealousy and furious with anger!

⁵⁹Enraged with anger, God turned his wrath on them and he rejected his people with disgust!

^b 78:54 The Aramaic reads: "He brought them to the border of his holiness, the mountain possessed by his right hand."

- ⁶⁰God walked away from them and left his dwelling place at Shiloh, abandoning the place where he had lived among them.
- ⁶¹Allowing his emblem of strength, his glory-ark to be captured,^a enemies stole the very source of Israel's power.
- ⁶²God vented his rage, allowing his people to be butchered when they went out to battle, for his anger was intense against his very own!
- ⁶³Their young men fell on the battlefield and never came back.
Their daughters never heard their wedding songs since there was no one left to marry!
- ⁶⁴Their priests were slaughtered and their widows were killed before they had time to weep.
- ⁶⁵Then all at once the Almighty awakened
as though he had been asleep.
Like a mighty man he arose, roaring into action!
- ⁶⁶He blasted into battle driving back every foe, defeating them in disgrace for time and eternity.
- ⁶⁷He rejected Joseph's family, the tribe of Ephraim.^b
- ⁶⁸But he chose instead the tribe of Judah and Mount Zion, which he loves.
- ⁶⁹There he built his towering temple, strong and enduring as the earth itself.
- ⁷⁰And God also chose his beloved one, David.
He promoted him from caring for sheep and made him his prophetic servant.
- ⁷¹⁻⁷²God prepared David and took this gentle shepherd-king and presented him before the people as the one who would love and care for them

^a 78:61 Implied in the text. Although the ark is not directly mentioned in this text, the obvious implication is that God allowed his "strength" to be stolen as a sign of his judgment.

^b 78:67 The place of God's dwelling was moved from the land of Ephraim (Shiloh) to the land of Judah (Jerusalem).

with integrity, a pure heart, and the anointing to lead Israel, his holy inheritance.

Psalm 79

PRAYER IN A TIME OF NATIONAL DISASTER

Asaph's poetic song

- ¹God, won't you do something?
Barbarians have invaded your inheritance.
Your temple of holiness has been violated,
and Jerusalem has been left in ruins.
- ²The corpses of your loving people are lying in the open—food for the beasts and the birds.
- ³The shed blood of your servants has soaked the city with no one left to bury the dead.
- ⁴Now the nearby nations heap their scorn upon us, scoffing, mocking us incessantly.
- ⁵How much longer, O Jehovah God, must we endure this?
Does your anger have no end?
Will your jealousy burn like a raging fire?
- ⁶If you're going to pour out your anger,
pour it out on all these nations around us, not on us!
They're the ones that do not love you like we do!
- ⁷See how they've attacked us, consuming the land, leaving it desolate.
- ⁸Please, God, don't hold the sins of our fathers against us.
Don't make us pay for their sins.
Hurry to our side, and let your tenderhearted mercy meet us in our need, for we are devastated beyond belief.
- ⁹Our Hero, come and rescue us!

O God of the Breakthrough, for the glory of your name, come and help us!

Forgive and restore us; heal us and cover us in your love.

¹⁰Why should all the nations sneer at us saying:

“Where is this God of yours?”

Now is the time, Lord.

Show your people and all the world that you will avenge this slaughter and bloodshed once and for all!

¹¹Listen, Lord! Hear the sighing of all the prisoners of war, all those doomed to die. Demonstrate your glory-power and come and rescue your condemned children!

¹²Lord God, take what these mocking masses have done to us and pay it all back to them seven times over.

¹³Then we, your lovers, will forever thank you, praising your name from generation to generation!

Psalm 80

RESCUE AND RESTORE

For the Pure and Shining One

Asaph's poetic song set to the tune "Your Decrees Are Like Lilies"

¹God-Enthroned, be revealed in splendor as you ride upon the cherubim!
How perfectly you lead us, a people set free.^a Loving Shepherd of Israel—listen to our hearts' cry!
Shine forth from your throne of dazzling light.

^a 80:1 Or “You lead Joseph like a flock.” Joseph, as a metaphor, becomes a picture of the saga of God's people once imprisoned and now set free to rule and reign.

- ²In the sight of Benjamin, Ephraim, and Manasseh, stir up your mighty power in full display before our eyes.^a Breakthrough and reveal yourself by coming to our rescue.
- ³Revive us, O God! Let your beaming face shine upon us with the sunrise rays of glory;
 then nothing will be able to stop us.
- ⁴O God, the Mighty Commander of Angel-Armies,
 how much longer will you smolder in anger?
 How much longer will you be disgusted with your people even when they pray?
- ⁵You have fed us with sorrow and grief and made us drink our tears by the bowlful.
- ⁶You've made us a thorn in the side of all the neighboring lands, and now they just laugh at us with their mocking scorn.
- ⁷Come back, come back, O God, and restore us!
 You are the Commander of Angel-Armies.
 Let your beaming face shine upon us with the sunrise rays of glory, and then nothing will be able to stop us!
- ⁸⁻⁹Remember how you transplanted us here
 like a tender vine from Egypt.
 You cleared the land for your vineyard, evicting the nations from your land and planting us here!
 The roots of your vineyard went deep into the soil and filled the land with fruit.
- ¹⁰⁻¹¹Because of your favor on your vineyard, blessing extended to every mountain of influence.
 Through this flourishing vineyard mighty ones were raised up.

^a 80:2 The Hebrew text includes the names Ephraim ("doubly fruitful"), Benjamin ("son of my right hand"), and Manassah ("you made me forget"). These three sons of Rachel marched together behind the ark of glory (Numbers 2:17-24) and became representatives of all who follow the glory of God. They will be "doubly fruitful," "sons of his right hand," and those who have "forgotten" their lives in Adam.

The nations were blessed by your fruitful vineyard of Israel,^a all the way from the Mediterranean to the Euphrates.

¹²⁻¹³So Lord, why have you broken down your fence of favor around us?

Trespassers can steal the fruit from off our vines, and now every wild beast comes breaking through our wall to ravage us.

You've left us without protection!

¹⁴Come back, come back, O God to restore us!

You are the Commander of Angel-Armies.

Look down from heaven and see our crisis.

Come down and care for your lovely vineyard once again.

¹⁵Nurture our root and our fruit with your loving care.

Raise up the Branch-Man, the Son that you've made strong.

¹⁶Enemies chopped down our vine and set it on fire;

now show them your anger and let them perish by your frown.

¹⁷Strengthen this Branch-Man, the Son of your love, the Son of Man who dwells at your right hand.

¹⁸Then we will never turn back from you.

Revive us again, that we may trust in you.

¹⁹O God, the Mighty Commander of Angel-Armies, come back and rescue us!

Let your beaming face shine upon us

with the sunrise rays of glory.

Then nothing will ever stop us again!

^a 80:10-11 In this passage the translator has chosen to make explicit the symbols in the text. The vineyard is Israel; the mountains are the high places of influence in culture; the cedars are the mighty and powerful of men; and the sea speaks of the nations ("sea of humanity").

Psalm 81

FOR THE FEAST OF TABERNACLES

*For the Pure and Shining One
Asaph's poetic song set to the melody "For the Feast of Harvest"*

- ¹Lord, just singing about you makes me strong!
So I'll keep shouting for joy to Jacob's God, my Champion!
- ²Let the celebration begin!
I will sing with drum accompaniment and with the sweet sound of the harp and guitar strumming.
- ³Go ahead! Blow the jubilee trumpet to begin the feast!
Blow it before every joyous celebration and festival.^a
- ⁴For God has given us these seasons of joy, days that he decreed for us to celebrate and rejoice.
- ⁵He's given these feasts to remind us of his triumph over Egypt, which ended our slavery in a strange and foreign land.^b
Then I heard the message in an unknown tongue as he said to me:
- ⁶"I have removed your backbreaking burdens and have freed your hands from the hard labor and toil."^c
- ⁷You called out to me in your time of trouble and I rescued you.
I came down from the realm of the secret place of thunder where mysteries hide.
I came down to save you.
I tested your hearts at the place where there was no water to drink, the place of your bitter argument with me."^d

Pause in his presence

^a 81:3 Or "on the day of the new moon and the day of the full moon."

^b 81:5 Implied in the text.

^c 81:6 Or "from holding the baskets," which alludes to the Hebrews carrying basket loads of burdens for their Egyptian masters.

^d 81:7 The Hebrew includes the word Meribah, which means the place of strife and contention.

- ⁸“Listen to me, my dear people.
For I’m warning you, and you’d better listen well!
For I hold something against you.
- ⁹Don’t ever be guilty of worshiping any other god but me.
- ¹⁰I am your only God, the Living God!
Wasn’t I the One who broke the strongholds over you and raised you up out of bondage?
Open your mouth with a mighty decree;
I will fulfill it now, you’ll see!
The words that you speak, so shall it be!
- ¹¹But my people still wouldn’t listen;
my princely people would not yield to me.
- ¹²So I lifted my grace from off of their lives and I surrendered them to the stubbornness of their hearts.
For they were living according to their own selfish fantasies.
- ¹³O, that my people would once and for all listen to me and walk faithfully in my footsteps, following my ways.
- ¹⁴Then and only then, will I conquer your every foe and tell everyone of them, ‘You must go!’
- ¹⁵Those who hate my ways will cringe before me and their punishment will be eternal.
- ¹⁶But I will feed you with my spiritual bread.
You will feast and be satisfied with me feeding on my revelation-truth like honey dripping from the cliffs of the high place.”

Psalm 82

TRUE JUSTICE

Asaph's poetic song

¹All rise! For God now comes to judge as he convenes heaven's courtroom!^a
 He judges every judge and rules over every ruler! Saying, ²"How long will you judges refuse to listen to the voice of true justice and continue to corrupt what is right by judging in favor of the wrong?"

Pause in his presence

³Defend the defenseless, the fatherless and the forgotten, the disenfranchised and the destitute.
⁴Your duty is to deliver the poor and the powerless;
 Liberate them from the grasp of the wicked.
⁵But you continue in your darkness and ignorance while the foundations of society are shaken to the core!
⁶Didn't I commission you as judges, saying,
 'You are all like gods, since you judge on my behalf.
 You are all like sons of the Most High, my representatives.'
⁷Nevertheless, in death you are nothing but mere men!
 You will be laid in the ground like any prince and you will die."
⁸All rise! For God now takes his place as Judge of all the earth!
 Don't you know that everything and everyone belongs to him?
 The nations will be sifted in his hands!

^a 82:1 Or "the council of El." The Aramaic says, "God now stands in the assembly of the angels, and he will judge in their midst."

Psalm 83

GOD, DON'T BE SILENT^a

Asaph's poetic song

¹God, you have to do something!^b Don't be silent and just sit idly by.

²⁻³Can't you see what they're doing?

All your enemies are stirred up in an uproar!

They despise you, Lord!

In their defiant arrogance they rise up to host their secret council against your people.

They conspire together to come and harm your cherished ones—your hidden ones.

⁴Our enemies keep saying,

“Now is the time to wipe Israel off the map.

We'll destroy even the memory of her existence!”

⁵They've made their pact, consulting and conspiring, aligning together in their covenant against God!

⁶⁻⁸All the sons of Ishmael, the desert sheiks and the nomadic tribes,

Amalekites, Canaanites, Moabites, and all the nations that surround us,

Philistines, Phoenicians, Gadarenes,^c and Samaritans;

allied together they're ready to attack!

Pause in his presence

^a The historical background to this psalm may be found in 2 Chronicles 20:14–36.

^b 83:1 Both the Aramaic and the Septuagint add a line in verse 1: “God, who is like you?”

^c 83:6–8 As translated from the Aramaic. The Greek is, “It includes the tents of Edom and Ishmael (Palestinians and those of southern Jordanians), Moab (Palestinians and those of central Jordanians) and Hagrites (Egyptians or possibly northern Jordanians), Gebal (Byblos and northern Lebanese), Ammon (Palestinians and northern Jordanians), and Amalek (Arabs of the Sinai Peninsula), Philistia (Gaza), and the inhabitants of Tyre (southern Lebanese). Even Assyria (Syrians and northern Iraqis) has become their ally as an arm (military might) for the sons of Lot.” This comprises virtually every neighbor surrounding Israel.

- ⁹Do to them all what you did to the Midianites who were defeated by Gideon.
 Or what you did to Sisera and Jabin when Deborah and Barak defeated them by the Kishon River.
- ¹⁰Do to your enemies what you did at Endor whose rotting corpses fertilized the land.
- ¹¹⁻¹²Repeat history, God! Make all their “noble ones” die like Oreb, Zebah, and Zalmunna, who said in their pride, “We will seize God’s people along with all their pleasant lands!”
- ¹³Just blow them away, God, like straw in the wind, like a tumbleweed in the wilderness!
- ¹⁴Burn them up like a raging fire roaring down the mountainside;
 consume them all until only charred sticks remain!
- ¹⁵Chase them away like before a mighty storm and terrifying tempest!
- ¹⁶O Lord, disgrace them until their faces fill with shame, and make them acknowledge the glory of your name!
- ¹⁷Make them utter failures in everything they do until they perish in total disgrace and humiliation.
- ¹⁸So that they will know that you, and you alone are Yahweh, the only Most High God exalted over all the earth!

Psalm 84

LONGING FOR GOD

*For the Pure and Shining One
 A prophetic song written by the sons of Korah Set to the melody “For the Feast of Harvest”^a*

- ¹God of Heaven’s Armies, you find so much beauty in your people!
 They’re like lovely sanctuaries of your presence.^b

^a The Septuagint says, “For the wine vats.”

^b 84:1 The Hebrew word for lovely used here can also mean beloved. The translator has ²So deep within me are these lovesick longings, desires and daydreams of living in union with you.

 When I'm near you my heart and my soul will sing and worship with my joyful songs of you, my true Source and Spring of life!

³O Lord of Heaven's Armies, my King and my God, even the sparrows and swallows are welcome to build a nest among your altars for the birds to raise their young.

⁴What pleasure fills those who live every day in your temple, enjoying you as they worship in your presence!

Pause in his presence

⁵How enriched are they who find their strength in the Lord;^a within their hearts are the highways of holiness!^b

⁶Even when their path winds through the dark valley of tears, they dig deep to find a pleasant pool where others find only pain.^c
 He gives to them a brook of blessing filled from the rain of an outpouring.

⁷They grow stronger and stronger with every step forward until they find all their strength in you,^d and the God of all gods will appear before them in Zion.

⁸Hear my cry, O God of Heaven's Armies!
 God of Jacob, listen to my loving prayer.

Pause in his presence

⁹God, your wrap-around presence is our defense.

In your kindness look upon the faces of your anointed ones.^e

¹⁰For just one day of intimacy with you^f is like chosen to use both these concepts in this verse.

^a 84:5 The Aramaic says, "How blessed is the Son of Man with you as his helper."

^b 84:5 The Hebrew is literally, "roads are in their hearts." By implication it is the ways (roads) that lead us to God's holy presence.

^c 84:6 Implied in the context.

^d 84:7 Implied in the context.

^e 84:9 Or "the face of your Anointed [Christ]."

^f 84:10 Or "in your [temple] courts."

a thousand days of joy rolled into one!
 I'd rather stand at the threshold in front of the Gate Beautiful, ready to go in and worship my God, than to live my life without you in the most beautiful palace of the wicked.

¹¹For the Lord God is brighter than the brilliance of a sunrise!
 Wrapping himself around me like a shield,
 he is so generous with his gifts of grace and glory.

¹²Those who walk along his paths with integrity will never lack one thing they need for he provides it all!
 O Lord of Heaven's Armies,
 what euphoria fills those who forever trust in you!

Psalm 85

MERCY AND TRUTH

*For the Pure and Shining One
 A prophetic song composed by the sons of Korah*

¹Lord, your love has poured out so many amazing blessings on our land!
 You've restored Israel's destiny from captivity.

²You've forgiven our many sins and covered every one of them in your love.

Pause in his presence

³So now it's obvious that your blazing anger has ended and the furious fire of wrath has been extinguished by your mercy.^a ⁴So bring us back to loving you, God our Savior.

 Restore our hearts so that we'll never again feel your anger rise against us.

^a 85:3 Implied in the text.

⁵Will you forever hold a grudge?

Will your anger endure for all time?

⁶Revive us again, O God! I know you will! Give us a fresh start!

Then all your people will taste your joy and gladness.

⁷Pour out even more of your love on us!

Reveal more of your kindness and restore us back to you!

⁸Now I'll listen carefully for your voice and wait to hear whatever you say.

Let me hear your promise of peace—

the message every one of your godly lovers longs to hear.

Just don't let us in our ignorance turn back from following you.

⁹For I know your power and presence shines on all your lovers.

Your glory always hovers over all who bow low before you.

¹⁰Your mercy and your truth have married each other.

Your righteousness and peace have kissed.

¹¹Flowers of your faithfulness are blooming on the earth.

Righteousness shines down from the sky.

¹²Yes, the Lord keeps raining down blessing after blessing, and prosperity will drench the land with a bountiful harvest.

¹³For deliverance and peace are his forerunners preparing a path for his steps.

Psalm 86

A PRAYER OF FAITH

King David's prayer

¹Lord, bend down to listen to my prayer.

For I'm in deep trouble. I'm so broken and humbled, and I desperately need your help.

- ²Guard my life, for I'm your faithful friend, your loyal servant for life.
I turn to you in faith, my God, my Hero; come and rescue me!
- ³Lord God, hear my constant cry for help;
show me your favor and bring me to your fountain of grace!
- ⁴Restore joy to your loving servant once again,
for all I am is yours, O God.
- ⁵Lord, you are so good to me, so kind in every way^a and ready to forgive,
for your grace-fountain keeps overflowing,
drenching all your lovers who pray to you.
- ⁶God, won't you pay attention to this urgent cry?
Lord, bend down to listen to my prayer.
- ⁷Whenever trouble strikes, I will keep crying out to you, for I know your help is on the way.
- ⁸God, there's just no one like you;
there's no other god as famous as you.
You outshine all others and your miracles make it easy to know you.
- ⁹Lord Almighty, you are the One who created all the nations;
Look at them—they're all on their way!
Yes, the day will come when they all will worship you and put your glory on display.
- ¹⁰You are the one and only God!
What miracles! What wonders! What greatness belongs to you!
- ¹¹Teach me more about you, how you work and how you move, so that I can walk onward in your truth until everything within me brings honor to your name.
- ¹²With all my heart and passion I will thank you, my God!
I will give glory to your name, always and forever!
- ¹³You love me so much and you placed your greatness upon me.^b

^a 86:5 The Septuagint says, "You're my Provider."

^b 86:13 As translated from the Aramaic.

You rescued me from the deepest place of darkness, and you have delivered me from a certain death.

¹⁴God, look at how these arrogant ones have defied me.

Like a vicious band of violent men they have tried to kill me.

They wouldn't worry for moment that they were sinning against you!

¹⁵But Lord, your nurturing love is tender and gentle.

You are slow to get angry, yet so swift to show your faithful love.

You are full of abounding grace and truth.^a ¹⁶Bring me to your grace-fountain

so that your strength becomes mine.

Be my Hero and come rescue your servant once again!

¹⁷Send me a miraculous sign to show me how much you love me, so that those who hate me will see it and be ashamed.

Don't they know that you, Lord, are my Comforter,
the One who comes to help me!

Psalm 87

FOUNTAINS OF JOY

A prophetic song, composed by the sons of Korah

¹High upon his hills of holiness stands God's city!^b

²How God loves Zion, his favorite place on earth.^c

³So many glorious things have been proclaimed over Zion, God's holy city!

Pause in his presence

^a 86:15 As translated from the Aramaic and the Septuagint.

^b 87:1 The Aramaic reads, "His foundations are in his holy mountains."

^c 87:2 Or "The Lord loves Zion's gates more than all the dwelling places of Jacob."

⁴For the Lord says, “Here are the nations who will acknowledge me as God:^a Egypt,^b Iraq,^c Palestine,^d and the Mediterranean people,^e even distant Ethiopia!
 They will all boast, ‘I was born in Zion!’”

⁵But over Zion it will be said:
 the Mighty Man was born there and he will establish it!^f
 For the God Most High will truly bless Jerusalem.

⁶And when he counts her citizens, recording them in his registry, he will write by their name: “This one was born again here!”
Pause in his presence

⁷And the princes of God’s feasts will sing and dance,^g singing, “Every fountain of delight springs up from your life within me!”

Psalm 88

SAVE ME FROM THIS SORROW^h

*To the Pure and Shining One
 A prophetic song for the sons of Korah
 To the tune “Pierced” for instruction by Heman the Ezrahite*

¹Yahweh is the God who continually saves me.
 I weep before you night and day.

^a 87:4 This is in anticipation of the nations of the earth coming to know Christ as the eternal King. See also Psalm 86:9.

^b 87:4 Or “The proud one,” which is a title given to Egypt. See Isaiah 30:7.

^c 87:4 Or “Babylon,” which means gate of god.

^d 87:4 Or “Philistia,” which means land of sojourners.

^e 87:4 Or “Tyre,” which means a rock.

^f 87:5 As translated from the Aramaic. The Hebrew reads, “Each one is born in Zion and the Most High makes her secure.”

^g 87:7 As translated from the Aramaic.

^h This psalm has traditionally been used by Christians for reading on Good Friday. Many insights can be found here of the crucifixion of Jesus Christ.

- ²Please bend down and listen to my sobbing, for my life is riddled with troubles and death is just around the corner!
- ³Everyone sees my life ebbing out.
They just consider me a hopeless case and see me as a dead man.
- ⁴They've all left me here to die, helpless,
like one who is doomed for death.
- ⁵They're convinced you've forsaken me, certain that you've forgotten me completely—abandoned, pierced, with nothing to look forward to but death.
- ⁶They^a have discarded me and thrown me down into the deepest darkness as into a bottomless pit.
- ⁷I feel your wrath and it's a heavy weight upon me,
drowning me beneath a sea of sorrow.

Pause in his presence

- ⁸Why did you turn all my friends against me?
You've made me like a cursed man in their eyes.
No one wants to be with me now.
You've caught me in a trap with no way out.
- ⁹Every day I beg for your help. Can't you see my tears?
My eyes are swollen with weeping.
My arms are wide, longing for mercy,^b
but you're nowhere to be found.
Soon it will be too late!^c
- ¹⁰How can those who are cut off from your care
even know that you are there?
How can I rise up to praise you if I'm dead and gone?

Pause in his presence

^a 88:6 As translated from the Septuagint. The Hebrew reads, "You have discarded me."

^b 88:9 As translated from the Septuagint. The Greek reads, "My hands are stretched out to you."

^c 88:9 Implied in the context.

- ¹¹Who can give thanks for your love in the graveyard?
Who preaches your faithfulness in the place of destruction?
- ¹²Does death's darkness declare your miracles?
How can anyone who's in the grave, where all is forgotten, remember how you keep your promises?
- ¹³Lord, you know my prayer before I even whisper it.^a
At each and every sunrise you will continue to hear my cry until you answer.
- ¹⁴God, why are you treating me like this?^b
Why have you thrown my life away?
Will you keep turning the other way every time I call out to you?
- ¹⁵I've had to live in poverty and trouble all my life.^c
Now I'm humiliated, broken, and helpless before your terrors and I can't take it anymore.
- ¹⁶I'm so overwhelmed by your burning anger.
I've taken the worst you could give me and I'm speechless before you.
- ¹⁷I'm drowning beneath the waves of this sorrow,
cut off with no one to help.
- ¹⁸All my loved ones and friends keep far away from me, leaving me all alone with only darkness as my friend!

^a 88:13 As translated from the Septuagint.

^b 88:14 Implied in the context.

^c 88:15 As translated from the Septuagint. The Greek reads, "close to death all my life."

Psalm 89

WILL YOU REJECT US FOREVER?

Poems by Ethan the Ezrahite for instruction^a

First poem—God’s Promises to David

¹This forever-song I sing of the gentle love of God overwhelming me!

Young and old alike will hear about your faithful, steadfast love—never failing!

²Here’s my chorus: “Your mercy grows through the ages.^b

Your faithfulness is firm, rising up to the skies.”

³I heard the Lord say, “My covenant has been made and I’m committed forever to my chosen one, David.

⁴I have made my oath that there will be sons of David forever, sons that are kings through every generation.”

Pause in his presence

⁵⁻⁶Can you hear it? Heaven is filled with your praises, O Lord!

All the holy ones are praising you for your miracles!

The sons of God are all praising you for your mighty wonders.

We could search the skies forever and never find one like you.

All the mighty angels could not be compared to you.

⁷You are a God who is greatly to be feared as you preside over the council of holy ones.

You are surrounded by trembling ones who are overwhelmed with fear and dread, stunned as they stand in awe of you!

^a Many scholars believe Psalm 89 contains four poems or stanzas. The translator has chosen to signify each poem with an inscription.

^b 89:2 As translated from the Septuagint.

- ⁸So awesome are you, O Yahweh, Lord God of Angel-Armies!
Where could we find anyone as glorious as you?
Your faithfulness shines all around you!
- ⁹You rule over oceans and the swelling seas.
When their stormy waves rise, you speak, and they lie still.^a
- ¹⁰You crushed the strongholds of Egypt and all your enemies were scattered at the mighty display of your glory-power.
- ¹¹All the heavens and everything on earth belong to you, for you are the Creator of all that is seen and unseen.
- ¹²The four corners of the earth were put in place by you.
You made the majestic mountains that are still shouting their praises to your name.
- ¹³Breathtaking and awesome is your power!
So astounding and unbelievable is your might and strength when it goes on display!
- ¹⁴Your glorious throne rests on a foundation of righteousness and just verdicts.
Grace and truth are the attendants who go before you.
- ¹⁵O Lord, how blessed are the people who experience the shout of worship, for they walk in the radiance of your presence.
- ¹⁶We can do nothing but leap for joy all day long;
for we know who you are and what you do,
and you've exalted us on high.
- ¹⁷The glory of your splendor is our strength, and your marvelous favor makes us even stronger, lifting us even higher!
- ¹⁸You are our King, the Holiest One of all;
your wrap-around presence is our protection!

^a 89:9 This is a prophecy of Jesus who would one day calm the stormy seas. See Matthew 8:23–27.

Second poem—God Keeps His Promises

- ¹⁹⁻²⁰You spoke to your prophets in visions, saying—“I have found a mighty hero for my people.
I have chosen David as my loving servant and exalted him.
I have anointed him as king with the oil of my holiness.
- ²¹I will be strength to him and I will give him my grace to sustain him no matter what comes.
- ²²None of his enemies will get the best of him nor will the wicked one overpower him.
- ²³For I will crush his every adversary and do away with all who hate him!
- ²⁴Because I love him and treasure him,
my faithfulness will always protect him.
I will place my great favor upon him,
and I will cause his power and fame to increase.
- ²⁵David’s kingdom shall reach from the Mediterranean to the Euphrates River.
- ²⁶And he will come before me, saying—
‘You truly are my Father, my only God, and my strong Savior!’
- ²⁷I am setting him apart, favoring him as my firstborn son.
I will make him like unto me, the most high king in all the earth!
- ²⁸I will love him forever and always show him kindness.
My covenant with him will never be broken.
- ²⁹For I have decreed that he will always have an heir—
a dynasty that will release the days of heaven on earth.
- ³⁰⁻³²But if his children turn from me and forsake my words, refusing to walk in my truth, renouncing and violating my laws, then I will surely punish them for their sins with my stern discipline until they regret it!
- ³³But I will never, no never, lift my faithful love from off their lives.
My kindness will prevail and I will never disown them.
- ³⁴⁻³⁵How could I revoke my covenant of love that I promised David?

For I have given him my word, my holy irrevocable word!
How could I lie to my loving servant David?

³⁶⁻³⁷Sons of David will continue to reign on his throne, and their kingdom will endure as long as the sun is in the sky.
This covenant will be an unbreakable promise that I have established for all time!”

Pause in his presence

Third poem—Why Has Our King Been Defeated

³⁸Why have you rejected me, the one you anointed?

Why would you cast me away?

Why would you lose your temper with me?

³⁹You have torn up the contract you made with me, your servant.

You have stripped away my crown and thrown it to the ground.^a

⁴⁰You have torn down all my walls of defense and have made my every hiding place into ruins.

⁴¹All the passersby attack and rob me while my neighbors mock!

⁴²Instead of fighting for me, you took the side of my enemies, even giving them strength to subdue me,

and then watched them celebrate their victory!

⁴³You are no longer helping me in battle.

You’ve forsaken me to the swords of those who would strike me down.

⁴⁴You’ve made my regal splendor to decrease and allowed my rule to be overthrown.

⁴⁵Because of you, I’ve become old before my time and

I’m publicly disgraced!

Pause in his presence

Fourth poem—“Save Me, God”

⁴⁶How long will you hide your love from me?

Have you left me for good?

^a 89:39 In place of the word crown, some translations render it “my dignity.”

How long will your anger continue to burn against me?

⁴⁷Remember, Lord, I am nothing but dust, here today and so soon blown away.

Is this all you've created us for? For nothing but this?

⁴⁸Which one of us will live forever?

We are all mortal, terminal, for we will all one day die.

Which one of us would ever escape our appointment with death and dodge our own funeral?

Pause in his presence

⁴⁹So God, where is all this love and kindness you promised us?

What happened to your covenant with David?

⁵⁰Have you forgotten how your own servants are being slandered?

Lord God, it seems like I'm carrying in my heart
all the pain and abuse of your forgotten ones.

⁵¹They have relentlessly insulted and persecuted us, your anointed ones.

⁵²Nevertheless, blessed be our God forever and ever.

Amen; faithful is our King!

BOOK IV

The Numbers Psalms

PSALMS OF OUR PILGRIMAGE ON EARTH

Psalm 90

GOD, THE ETERNAL

A prayer of Moses, God's prophet

- ¹Lord, you have always been our eternal Home, our Hiding Place from generation to generation.
- ²Long before you gave birth to the earth and before the mountains were born, you have been from everlasting to everlasting,^a
The One and Only true God.
- ³When you speak the words, "Life, return to me!"
man turns back to dust.
- ⁴One thousand years pass before your eyes like yesterday that quickly faded away, like a night's sleep so soon forgotten.^b
- ⁵⁻⁶One day we will each be swept away into the sleep of death!
We glide along through the tides of time—so quickly gone, like a dream that fades at dawn.^c
Like glistening grass that springs up one day and is dry and withered the next, ready to be cut down!
- ⁷Terrified by your anger, confined beneath the curse,
we live our lives knowing your wrath.^d
- ⁸For all of our faults and flaws are in full view to you!^e
Everything we want to hide, you search out and expose by the radiance of your face.

^a 90:2 The Hebrew word for eternity is actually horizon—from one horizon to the other!

^b 90:4 Or "like divisions [watches] of the night."

^c 90:5-6 A poetic description of what is implied in the context.

^d 90:7 Or "worn out by your rage." Jesus has come and broken the curse and lifted the unbearable burden of our sins.

^e 90:8 The Septuagint reads, "The laws we have broken all stand before you."

- ⁹We are banished to live in the shadow of your anger.
Our days soon become years until our lifetime comes to an end, finished with nothing but a sigh.^a
- ¹⁰You've limited our life span to a mere seventy years, yet some you give grace to live still longer.^b
But even the best of years are marred by tears and toils, and in the end with nothing more than a gravestone in a graveyard!^c We're gone so quickly, so swiftly;
we pass away and simply disappear.
- ¹¹Lord, who fully knows the power of your passion and the intensity of your emotions?^d
- ¹²Help us to remember that our days are numbered,
and help us to interpret our lives correctly.
Set your wisdom deeply in our hearts
so that we may accept your correction.^e
- ¹³Return to us again, O God!
How much longer will it take until you show us your abundant compassion?
- ¹⁴Let the sunrise of your love end our dark night.
Break through our clouded dawn again!
Only you can satisfy our hearts, filling us with songs of joy to the end of our days.
- ¹⁵We've been overwhelmed with grief;
come now and overwhelm us with gladness!
Replace our years of trouble with decades of delight!

^a 90:9 The Septuagint reads, "All our days have been filled with failures."

^b 90:10 Or "if in strength eighty years."

^c 90:10 A poetic description of what is implied in the context. The Septuagint has the phrase, "until we mellow and accept your correction."

^d 90:11 As translated from the Aramaic. The Hebrew can be translated, "Who could experience the strength of your anger? Who could endure the fear your fury can bring, and who truly comprehends the fear of God?"

^e 90:12 As translated from the Septuagint.

¹⁶Let us see your miracles again, and let the rising generation see the glorious wonders you're famous for.

¹⁷O Lord our God, let your sweet beauty rest upon us and give us favor.
Come work with us, and then our works will endure and give us success in all we do!

Psalm 91

SAFE AND SECURE

¹When you sit enthroned^a under the shadow of Shaddai,^b you are hidden^c in the strength of God Most High.
²He's the hope that holds me, and the Stronghold to shelter me,
the only God for me, and my great Confidence.
³He will rescue you from every hidden trap of the enemy,^d and he will protect you from false accusation and any deadly curse.^e ⁴His massive arms^f are wrapped around you, protecting you.
You can run under his covering of majesty and hide.
His arms of faithfulness are a shield keeping you from harm.

^a 91:1 Or "O, you who sits enthroned." The Hebrew word yashab is often associated with one seated as royalty. It is translated in Ezekiel 27:8 as leaders or rulers.

^b 91:1 Shaddai (šadday) is taken from a Hebrew root word with many expressive meanings. It can mean, "God of the Mountain, God the Destroyer of Enemies, God the Self-Sufficient One, God the Nurturer of Babies, God the Almighty."

^c 91:1 Or "I endure through the night." See Job 39:28 where the same Hebrew word is used for an eagle passing the night on the high cliffs.

^d 91:3 Or "hunter."

^e 91:3 As translated from the most ancient Hebrew manuscripts and the Septuagint. The Hebrew word can mean poisoned arrows.

^f 91:4 Or "wings." Also found in the next sentence, "under his wings," which speaks not of God having wings, but his wings of the cherubim resting on the mercy seat. The implication is that you can always come to the mercy seat and rest without fear.

- ⁵You will never worry about an attack of demonic forces at night nor have to fear a spirit of darkness coming against you.
- ⁶Don't fear a thing!
Whether by night or by day, demonic danger will not trouble you,^a nor will the powers of evil launched against you.
For God will keep you safe and secure;
they won't lay a hand on you!^b
- ⁷Even in a time of disaster with thousands and thousands being killed,
You will remain unscathed and unharmed!
- ⁸You will be a spectator as the wicked perish in judgment, for they will be paid back for what they have done!
- ⁹⁻¹⁰ When we live our lives within the shadow of the God Most High, our secret Hiding Place, we will always be shielded from harm!
How then could evil prevail against us, or disease infect us?
- ¹¹God sends angels with special orders to protect you wherever you go, defending you from all harm.
- ¹²If you walk into a trap, they'll be there for you and keep you from stumbling!
- ¹³You'll even walk unharmed among the fiercest powers of darkness,^c trampling every one of them beneath your feet!
- ¹⁴For here is what the Lord has spoken to me:
"Because you have delighted in me as my great lover,
I will greatly protect you.
I will set you in a high place, safe and secure before my face.

^a 91:6 Verses 5–6 are seen by many Jewish scholars as a reference not merely to pestilence and natural dangers, but to the realm of spiritual darkness that would come against God's servants. These spirits are equated to "arrows that fly in daytime" or a "pestilence that walks" in the darkness. God's sheltered ones are kept from the harm that could come from natural sources or supernatural sources. What a wonderful place to hide and be secure!

^b 91:6 Implied in the context.

^c 91:13 The Hebrew includes the words for lions, snakes, and dragons as the three great symbols of satanic power.

- ¹⁵I will answer your cry for help every time you pray, and you will find and feel my presence even in your time of pressure and trouble.
I will be your glorious Hero and give you a feast!
- ¹⁶You will be satisfied with a full life and with all that I do for you.
For you will enjoy the fullness of my salvation!"

Psalm 92

A SUNDAY MORNING SONG OF PRAISE

A poetic praise song for the day of worship^a

- ¹It's so enjoyable to come before you with uncontainable praises spilling from our hearts!
How we love to sing our praises over and over to you, to the matchless God, high and exalted over all!
- ²At each and every sunrise we will be thanking you for your kindness and your love.
As the sun sets and all through the night,
we will keep proclaiming, "You are so faithful!"
- ³Melodies of praise will fill the air as every musical instrument,^b joined with every heart, overflows with worship.
- ⁴No wonder I'm so glad; I can't keep it in!
Lord, I'm shouting with glee over all you've done,
for all you've done for me!
- ⁵What mighty miracles and your power at work, just to name a few!
Depths of purpose and layers of meaning saturate everything you do.

^a Ancient Jewish tradition holds that Adam composed this psalm on the first Sabbath of creation, and it was to be sung by the Levites on the Sabbath in the temple.

^b 92:3 Or "a ten-stringed harp and lyre."

- ⁶Such amazing mysteries found within every miracle that nearly everyone seems to miss.
Those with no discernment can never really discover the deep and glorious secrets hidden in your ways!
- ⁷It's true the wicked flourish, but only for a moment, foolishly forgetting their destiny with death that they will all one day be destroyed forevermore.
- ⁸But you, O Lord, are exalted forever in the highest place of endless glory,
- ⁹While all your opponents, the workers of wickedness,
they will all perish, forever separated from you!
- ¹⁰Your anointing has made me strong and mighty.
You've empowered my life for triumph^a by pouring fresh oil over me!
- ¹¹You've said that those lying in wait to pounce on me would be defeated,
and now it's happened right in front of my eyes and I've heard their cries of surrender!
- ¹²Yes! Look how you've made all your lovers to flourish like palm trees, each one growing in victory, standing with strength!^b
- ¹³You've transplanted them into your heavenly courtyard where they are thriving before you.
- ¹⁴For in your presence they will still overflow and be anointed.
Even in their old age they will stay fresh, bearing luscious fruit and abiding faithfully.

^a 92:10 Implied in the text. The Septuagint reads, "I will raise my horn high like a rhinoceros [Hebrew translated to wild ox], and in my old age I will still have plenty of oil [anointing]."

^b 92:12 Or "growing high like a cedar in Lebanon." God makes us immortal and immovable.

¹⁵Listen to them! With pleasure they still proclaim:
 “You’re so good! You’re my beautiful Strength!
 You’ve never made a mistake with me!”^a

Psalm 93

THE MAJESTY OF GOD

A Friday song, composed by King David after being resettled in the land^b

¹Look! Yahweh now reigns as King!
 He has covered himself with majesty and strength, wearing them as his splendor-garments!
 Regal power surrounds him as he sits securely on his throne.
 He’s in charge of it all, the entire world,
 and he knows what he’s doing!

²Lord, you have reigned as King from the very beginning of time.
 Eternity is your home.

³⁻⁴Chaos once challenged you.
 The raging waves lifted themselves over and over high above the ocean’s depths, letting out their mighty roar!
 Yet at the sound of your voice they were all stilled by your might.
 What a majestic King, filled with power!

⁵Nothing could ever change your royal decrees;
 they will last forever!
 Holiness is the beauty that fills your house;
 you are the One who abides forevermore!

^a 92:15 Or “You are just and never unfair.”

^b This inscription is found in the Septuagint. Jews called this psalm “The Friday psalm.” The Talmud indicates that this psalm was sung every Friday in the temple by the Levites.

Psalm 94

GOD OF VENGEANCE

A Wednesday song composed by King David^a

- ¹Lord God Almighty, you are the God who takes vengeance on your enemies!
 It's time for you to punish evil!
 Let your rays of revelation-light shine from your people and pierce the conscience of the wicked and punish them!
- ²It's time to arise as Judge of all the earth;
 arise to punish the proud with the penalty they deserve!
- ³How much longer will you sit back and watch the wicked triumph in their evil, boasting in all that is wrong?
- ⁴⁻⁵Listen to them bragging among themselves, glib in their own eyes, all because of the crimes they've committed against your people!
 See how they're crushing those who love you, God, cruelly oppressing those who belong to you.^b
- ⁶Heartlessly they murder the widows, the foreigners, and even the orphaned children.
- ⁷They say to themselves, "The Lord God doesn't see this.
 Their God, the God of Jacob, he doesn't even care!"
- ⁸But you'd better watch out, you stupid fools!
 You'd better wise up! Why would you act like God doesn't exist?
 Do you really think that God can't hear their cries?

^a This inscription is taken from the Septuagint. The Mishnah states that this psalm was sung by the Levites on the fourth day of the week, each Wednesday, in the temple.

^b 94:4-5 Or "[the people of] his inheritance." See also verse 14.

- ⁹God isn't hard of hearing; he'll hear all their cries!
 God isn't blind! He who made the eye has superb vision and he's watching all you do.
- ¹⁰Won't the God who knows all things know what you've done?
 The God who punishes nations will surely punish you!
- ¹¹The Lord has fully examined every thought of man and found them all to be empty and futile.
- ¹²Lord Yah, there's such a blessing that comes when you teach us your Word and your ways.^a Even the sting of your correction can be sweet.
- ¹³It rescues us from our days of trouble until you are ready to punish the wicked.^b
- ¹⁴For the Lord will never walk away from his cherished ones, nor would he forsake his chosen ones who belong to him.^c
- ¹⁵Whenever you pronounce judgments, they reveal righteousness.^d
 All your lovers will be pleased because the future belongs to them.^e
- ¹⁶Lord, who will protect me from these wicked ones?
 If you don't stand to defend me, who will? I have no one but you!
- ¹⁷I would have been killed so many times
 if you had not been there for me.
- ¹⁸When I screamed out, "Lord, I'm doomed!"
 your fiery love was stirred and you raced to my rescue.
- ¹⁹Whenever my doubts and fears were out of control, the soothing comfort of your presence calmed me down and overwhelmed me with delight.

^a 94:12 Or "from your Torah."

^b 94:13 Or "until a pit is dug for the wicked."

^c 94:14 Or "[the people of] his inheritance."

^d 94:15 Or "justice will prevail."

^e 94:15 Implied in the text. The Hebrew reads, "and after it [judgment] are the pure in heart."

- ²⁰It's obvious to all; you will have nothing to do with corrupt rulers who pass laws that empower evil and defeat what is right.
- ²¹For they gang up against the lovers of righteousness and condemn the innocent to death.
- ²²⁻²³But I know that all their evil plans will boomerang back onto them!
Every plot they hatch will simply seal their own doom!
For you, my God, you will destroy them, giving them what they deserve.
For you are my true Tower of Strength, my Safe Place, my Hideout, and my true Shelter.

Psalm 95

IT'S TIME TO SING

- ¹Come on, everyone! Let's sing for joy to the Lord!
Let's shout our loudest praises to our God who saved us!
- ²Everyone come meet his face with a thankful heart!
Don't hold back your praises;
make him great by your shouts of joy!
- ³For the Lord is the greatest of all!
King-God over all other gods!
- ⁴In one hand he holds the mysteries of the earth and in the other he holds the highest mountain peaks!
- ⁵He's the owner of every ocean,
the Engineer and Sculptor of earth itself!
- ⁶Come and kneel before this Creator-God;
Come and bow before the mighty God, our majestic Maker!
- ⁷⁻⁹For we are the lovers he cares for and he is the God we worship!

So drop everything else and listen to his voice!
 For this is what he's saying:
 "Today, when I speak,
 don't even think about turning a deaf ear to me like they did when they tested me at Meribah and Massah,^a the place where they argued with me, their Creator.
 Your ancestors challenged me over and over with their complaining, even though I had convinced them of my power and love.
 They still doubted my care for them.
¹⁰So for forty long years I was grieved and disgusted by them.
 I described them as wicked wanderers whose hearts would not follow my ways or keep my words!
¹¹So I made a vow in my anger and declared:
 'They will never enter the resting place I've planned for them!
 So don't you ever be hard-hearted or stubborn like they were!'"^b

Psalm 96

KING OF THE WORLD

¹Go ahead—sing your new song to the Lord!
 Let everyone in every language sing him a new song.^c
²⁻³Don't stop! Keep on singing! Make his name famous!
 Tell everyone every day how wonderful he is!
 Give them the good news of our great Savior.
 Take the message of his glory and miracles to every nation.
 Tell them about all the amazing things he has done.

^a 95:7-9 Meribah means strife, argument. Massah means testing.

^b 95:11 Implied in the context and made explicit for the sake of English narrative.

^c 96:1 Every new thing God does requires a new song to make it known.

- ⁴For the Lord's greatness is beyond description and he deserves all the praise that comes to him.
He is our King-God and it's right to be in holy awe of him.
- ⁵Other gods are absolutely worthless.^a
For the Lord God is Creator God who spread the splendor of the skies!
- ⁶Breathtaking brilliance and awe-inspiring majesty radiate from his shining presence.
His stunning beauty overwhelms all who come before him!^b
- ⁷Surrender to the Lord Yahweh all you nations and peoples.
Surrender to him all your pride and strength.
- ⁸Confess that Jehovah alone deserves all the glory and honor!
Bring an offering and come celebrate in his courts.
- ⁹Come worship the Lord God wearing the splendor of holiness.
Let everyone wait in wonder as they tremble in awe before him.
- ¹⁰Tell the nations plainly that Yahweh rules over all!
He is doing a great job, and nothing will disrupt him,
For he treats everyone fair and square.
- ¹¹⁻¹²Let the skies sing for joy! Let the earth join in the chorus.
Let oceans thunder and fields echo this ecstatic praise until every swaying tree of every forest joins in, lifting up their songs of joyous praise to him!
- ¹³For here he comes, the Lord God,
and he's ready to judge the world.
He will do what's right and can be trusted to always do what's fair!

^a 96:5 The Septuagint reads "demons."

^b 96:6 Or "strength and beauty are in his sanctuary."

Psalm 97

GOD RULES OVER ALL

A psalm of David when his kingdom was established^a

- ¹Yahweh now reigns as King! Let everyone rejoice!
 His rule extends everywhere, even to distant lands, and the islands of the sea, let them all be glad!
- ²Clouds both dark and mysterious now surround him.^b
 His throne of glory rests upon a foundation of righteousness and justice.
- ³All around him burns a blazing glory-fire consuming all his foes.
- ⁴When his lightning strikes, flashing in the skies, people are wide-eyed as they tremble and shake.
- ⁵Mountains melt away like wax in a fire
 when the Lord of all the earth draws near!
- ⁶Heaven's messengers preach righteousness and people everywhere see his glory in the sky!
- ⁷Shame covers all who boast in other gods for they worship idols.
 For all the supernatural powers once worshiped
 the true and Living God!
- ⁸But God's Zion-people are content for they know and hear the truth.
 The people of praise rejoice over all your judgments, O Lord!
- ⁹For you are King-God, the Most High God over all the earth.
 You are exalted above every supernatural power!
- ¹⁰Listen, you lovers of God, hate evil, for God can keep you from wrong and protect you from the power of wickedness.

^a This inscription is from the Septuagint.

^b 97:2 See also Deuteronomy 4:11 and 5:22.

- ¹¹For he sows seeds of light within his lovers, and seeds of joy burst forth for the lovers of God!
- ¹²So be glad and continue to give him thanks, for God's holiness is seen in everything he does.

Psalm 98

SING A NEW SONG

David's poetic praise^a

- ¹Go ahead—sing your brand-new song to the Lord!
He is famous for his miracles and marvels, for he is victorious through his mighty power and holy strength.
- ²Everyone knows how God has saved us, for he has displayed his justice throughout history.
- ³He never forgets to show us his love and faithfulness.
How kind he has been to Israel!
All the nations know how he stands behind his people and how he saves his own.
- ⁴So go ahead everyone and shout out your praises with joy!
Break out of the box and let loose with the most joyous sound of praise!
- ⁵Sing your melody of praise to the Lord and make music like never before!^b
- ⁶Blow those trumpets and shofars!
Shout with joyous triumph before King Yahweh!

^a The Septuagint has David as the author. The Hebrew says simply, "A psalm."

^b 98:5 Or "accompanied by a harp and the sound of music."

- ⁷Let the ocean's waves join in the chorus with their roaring praise until everyone everywhere shouts out in unison:
"Glory to the Lord!"
- ⁸Let the rivers and streams clap with applause as the mountains rise in a standing ovation to join the mighty choir of exaltation!
- ⁹Look! Here he comes! The Lord and Judge of all the earth!
He's coming to make things right and to do it fair and square.
And everyone will see that he does all things well!

Psalm 99

GOD OF HOLINESS

- ¹Yahweh is King over all! Everyone trembles in awe before him!
He rules enthroned between the wings of the cherubim.
So let the earth shake and quake in wonder before him!
- ²For Yahweh is great and glorious in the midst of his Zion-people.
He is exalted above all!
- ³Let everyone praise this breathtaking God, for he is holy!
- ⁴A lover of justice is our mighty King; he is right in all his ways.
He insists on being fair to all,
promoting true justice and equity throughout Israel.
- ⁵So everyone, exalt the Lord our God,
facedown before his glory-throne for he is great and holy!
- ⁶God has his praying priests,^a like Moses, Aaron, and Samuel, who all interceded, asking God for help.
God heard their cries and came to their rescue.

^a 99:6 Implied in the text.

- ⁷He spoke to them from the pillar of clouds and they followed his instructions, doing everything he told them.
- ⁸God, the great Forgiver, answered their prayers.
Yet he would punish them when they went astray.
- ⁹Keep exalting the Lord our God,
facedown before his glory-throne for he is great and holy!

Psalm 100

PRAISE GOD

A poetic song for thanksgiving

- ¹Lift up a great shout of joy to the Lord!
Go ahead and do it—everyone, everywhere!
- ²As you serve him, be glad and worship him.^a Sing your way into his presence with joy!
- ³And realize what this really means—
we have the privilege of worshiping the Lord, our God.
For he is our Creator and now we belong to him!
We are the people of his pleasure.^b
- ⁴You can pass through his open gates with the password of praise.
Come right into his presence with thanksgiving.
Come bring your thank-offering to him and affectionately bless his beautiful name!
- ⁵For the Lord is always good and ready to receive you.
He's so loving that it will amaze you—so kind that it will astound you!

^a 100:2 Implied in the context.

^b 100:3 Or "the sheep of his pasture."

And he is famous for his faithfulness toward all.
 Everyone knows our God can be trusted,
 for he keeps his promises to every generation!

Psalm 101

INTEGRITY

David's poetic praise

- ¹Lord, I will sing about your faithful love for me!
 My song of praise will have your justice as its theme.
- ²I'm trying my best to walk in the way of integrity, especially in my own home.
 But now I need your help!
 I'm wondering, Lord, when will you appear?
- ³I refuse to gaze on that which is vulgar.
 I despise what is evil
 and anything that moves my heart away from you.
 I will not let evil hold me in its grip.
- ⁴Every perverse and crooked way I have put away from my heart, for I will have nothing to do with the deeds of darkness.^a
- ⁵I will silence those who secretly want to slander my friends, and I will not tolerate the proud and arrogant.
- ⁶My innermost circle will only be those that I know are pure and godly.
 They will be the only ones I allow to minister to me.
- ⁷There's no room in my home for hypocrites, for I can't stand chronic liars who flatter and deceive.
- ⁸At each and every sunrise I will awake to do what's right

^a 101:4 Or "evil people."

and put to silence those who love wickedness, freeing God's people^a from their evil grip.
I will do all of this because of my great love for you!^b

Psalm 102

FROM TEARS TO PRAISE

A prayer for those who are overwhelmed and for all the discouraged who come to pour out their hearts before the Lord^c

- ¹Lord, listen to my prayer! Listen to my cry for help!
²You can't hide your face from me in the day of my distress.
 Stoop down to hear my prayer and answer me quickly, Lord!
³⁻⁴For my days of happiness have gone up in smoke.
 My body is raging with fever, my heart is sick, and I'm consumed by this illness—
 withered like a dead leaf and I can't even eat.
⁵I'm nothing but skin and bones.
 Nothing's left of me but whispered groans.
⁶I'm depressed, lonely, forgotten, and abandoned.^d ⁷I'm sleepless, shivering in the cold, forlorn and friendless like a lonely bird on the rooftop.
⁸My every enemy mocks and insults me incessantly.
 They even use my name as a curse to speak over others!
⁹⁻¹⁰Because of your great and furious anger against me all I do is suffer with sorrow,

^a 101:8 Or "the city of Yahweh."

^b 101:8 This phrase, implied in the Hebrew text, brings conclusion to the psalm.

^c As translated from the Septuagint.

^d 102:6 The Hebrew makes reference to a "pelican" or "vulture" in the wilderness, and "an owl in desolate ruins." The translator has chosen to use the obvious meanings of the metaphors.

- with nothing to eat but a meal of mourning.^a
 My crying fills my cup with salty tears!
 In your wrath you have rejected me, sweeping me away like dirt on the floor.
- ¹¹My days are marked by the lengthening shadows of death.
 I'm withering away and there's nothing left of me.
- ¹²But then I remember that you, O Lord, still sit enthroned as King over all!
 The fame of your name will be revealed to every generation!
- ¹³I know you are about to arise and show your tender love to Zion.
 Now is the time, Lord,
 for your compassion and mercy to be poured out—
 the appointed time has come for your prophetic promises to be fulfilled!^b
- ¹⁴For your servants weep in sympathy over Zion's ruins and feel love for her every stone.
- ¹⁵When you arise to intervene,
 all the nations and kings will be stunned and will fear your awesome name, trembling before your glory!
- ¹⁶Yes, you will reveal yourself to Zion and appear in the brightness of your glory to restore her and give her children.
- ¹⁷He responds to the prayer of the poor and broken and will not despise the cry of the homeless.
- ¹⁸Write all this down for the coming generation, so re-created people^c will read it and praise the Lord!
- ¹⁹Tell them how Yah^d looked down from his high and holy place, gazing from his glory to survey the earth.

^a 102:9–10 Or "I eat ashes as if they were bread." Ashes speak of mourning, for mourners would often throw dust and ashes over their heads.

^b 102:13 Implied in the context.

^c 102:18 Or "those born anew [re-created]."

^d 102:19 Taken from Yahweh. Yah is often used as the name of the God of Power.

- ²⁰He listened to all the groaning of his people longing to be free and set loose the sons of death to experience life.
- ²¹Multitudes will stream to Jerusalem to praise the Lord and declare his name in Zion!
- ²²Peoples from every land, their kings and kingdoms, will gather together to worship the Lord!
- ²³But God has brought me to my knees, shortening my life.
- ²⁴So I cry out to you, my God, the Father of eternity, please don't let me die!
I know my life is not yet finished!
- ²⁵With your hands you once formed the foundations of the earth and handcrafted the heavens above.
- ²⁶⁻²⁷They will all fade away one day like worn-out clothing ready to be discarded, but you'll still be here.
You will replace it all!
Your first creation will be changed,
but you alone will endure, the God of all eternity!
- ²⁸Generation after generation our descendants will live securely, for you are the One protecting us, keeping us for yourself.

Psalm 103

OUR FATHER'S LOVE

King David's song of praise

- ¹With my whole heart, with my whole life,
and with my innermost being,
I bow in wonder and love before you, the Holy God!

- ²Yahweh, you are my soul's celebration.
How could I ever forget the miracles of kindness you've done for me?
- ³You kissed my heart with forgiveness, in spite of all I've done.^a You've healed me inside and out from every disease.
- ⁴You've rescued me from hell^b and saved my life.
You've crowned me with love and mercy and made me a king.^c
- ⁵You satisfy my every desire with good things.^d
You've supercharged my life so that I soar again^e like a flying eagle in the sky!
- ⁶You're a God who makes things right, giving justice to the defenseless.
- ⁷You unveiled to Moses your plans and showed Israel's sons what you could do.
- ⁸Lord, you're so kind and tenderhearted to those who don't deserve it^f
and so very patient with people who fail you!
Your love is like a flooding river overflowing its banks with kindness.^g
- ⁹You don't look at us only to find our faults,^h just so that you can hold a grudge against us.

a 103:3 Starting from this verse and through the rest of the psalm, the writer shifts to the second person (you). The translator has chosen to leave the psalm in the first person to enhance the poetic nuance for the English reader.

b 103:4 Or "redeemed me from the pit," a term often used for Sheol or hell.

c 103:4 Implied in the context of King David's poetic song of placing crowns on our heads.

d 103:5 The Hebrew text is somewhat difficult to understand. It is literally "who satisfies with good ornaments."

e 103:5 Or "your youth [implying both strength and beauty] he restores."

f 103:8 Or "Lord, you're so compassionate and merciful." The Hebrew word for compassion is a homonym for "womb." The Lord carries his people like a mother carries a child in her womb.

g 103:8 See Exodus 34:6.

h 103:9 Or "You (he) will not always fight with us (like fighting with enemies)."

- ¹⁰You may discipline us for our many sins,
 but never as much as we really deserve.
 Nor do you get even with us for what we've done.
- ¹¹Higher than the highest heavens—
 that's how high your tender mercy extends!
 Greater than the grandeur of heaven above is the greatness of your loyal love towering over all who fear you and bow down before you!
- ¹²Farther than from a sunrise to a sunset—
 that's how far you've removed our guilt from us!
- ¹³The same way a loving father feels toward his children—that's but a sample of your tender feelings toward us,^a your beloved children, who live in awe of you!
- ¹⁴You know all about us inside and out.^b
 You are mindful that we're made from dust.
- ¹⁵Our days are so few, and our momentary beauty^c so swiftly fades away!
- ¹⁶Then all of a sudden we're gone,
 like grass clippings blown away in a gust of wind,
 taken away to our appointment with death,
 leaving nothing to show that we were here.
- ¹⁷But Lord, your endless love stretches from one eternity to the other, unbroken and unrelenting toward those who fear you

^a 103:13 Or "like a father has deep compassion on his children." The Hebrew word for tender feelings is raham, which is a homonym and can also be translated "womb." Our Father carries you in his womb. What a beautiful word play that our Father has a mother's nurturing love for his children.

^b 103:14 The Hebrew word yatsar is a homonym and can be translated "form," or "frame." God knows our frame. But yatsar also means "to be in distress," or "to be frustrated." This sentence could be translated, "You know all about our frustrations and distress." These thoughts combined would mean that God hasn't forgotten that he formed us from dust and we'll experience frustrations as human beings. God is sympathetic to our difficulties.

^c 103:15 The Hebrew word translated beauty actually means "shining."

- and those who bow facedown in awe before you!
 Your faithfulness to keep every gracious promise you've made passes from parents, to children, to grandchildren, and beyond.
- ¹⁸You are faithful to all those who follow your ways and keep your Word.
- ¹⁹God's heavenly throne is eternal, secure, and strong,
 and his kingdom rules the entire universe!
- ²⁰So bless the Lord, all his messengers of power, for you are his mighty heroes who listen to the voice of his Word to do it!
- ²¹Bless and praise the Lord, you mighty warriors, ministers who serve him well and fulfill his desires!
- ²²I will bless and praise the Lord with my whole heart!
 Let all his works throughout the earth,
 wherever his dominion stretches,
 let everything bless the Lord!

Psalm 104

OUR CREATOR'S COMPASSION^a

- ¹Everything I am will praise and bless the Lord!
 O Lord, my God, your greatness takes my breath away, overwhelming me by your majesty, beauty, and splendor!^b

^a This psalm, attributed to David in the Septuagint, can be seen as an exposition of the days of creation:

1st Day: verses 1–2

2nd Day: verses 3–4

3rd Day: verses 5–17

4th Day: verses 18–23

5th Day: verses 24–26

6th Day: verses 21–30

^b 104:1 See Job 40:10.

- ²You wrap yourself with a shimmering, glistening light.
You wear sunshine like a garment of glory.
You stretch out the starry skies like a tapestry.
- ³You build your balconies with light beams and ride as King in a chariot you made from clouds.
You fly upon the wings of the wind.
- ⁴You make your messengers into winds of the Spirit and all your ministers become flames of fire.
- ⁵You, our Creator, formed the earth, and you hold it all together so it will never fall apart.
- ⁶You poured the ocean depths over the planet submerging mountains beneath.
- ⁷Yet at the sound of your thunder-shout
the waters all fled away, filling the deep with seas!
- ⁸The mountains rose and valleys sank to the levels you decreed for them.
- ⁹Then you set a boundary line for the seas and commanded them not to trespass.
- ¹⁰You sent springs cascading through the valleys, flowing freely between the mountains and hills.
- ¹¹You provide drink for every living thing;
men and beasts^a have their thirst quenched because of you.
- ¹²The birds build nests near the tranquil streams, chirping their joyous songs from the branches above.
- ¹³From your kindness you send the rain to water the mountains from the upper rooms of your palace.
Your goodness^b brings forth fruit for all to enjoy.
- ¹⁴Your compassion brings the earth's harvest, feeding the hungry.
You cause the grass to grow for livestock, along with the fruit, grains, and vegetables to feed mankind.

^a 104:11 Or "wild donkeys."

^b 104:13 Or "your works."

- ¹⁵You provide sweet wine to gladden hearts.
You give us daily bread to sustain life, giving us glowing health for our bodies.^a
- ¹⁶The trees of the Lord drink until they're satisfied.
Lebanon's lofty trees stand tall right where you planted them.
- ¹⁷Within their branches you provide for birds
a place to build their nests;
even herons find a home in the cypress trees.
- ¹⁸You make the high mountains a home for wild goats and the rocky crag where the rock badgers burrow.
- ¹⁹You made the moon to mark the months and the sun to measure the days.
- ²⁰You turn off the light and it becomes night,
and all the beasts of the forest come out to prowl.
- ²¹The mighty lions roar for their dinner,
but it's you, God, who feeds them all!
- ²²At sunrise they slink back to their dens to crouch down in the shadows.
- ²³Then man goes out to his labor and toil, working from dawn to dusk.
- ²⁴O Lord, what an amazing variety of all you have created!
Wild and wonderful is this world you have made,
while wisdom was there at your side!
This world is full of so many creatures, yet each belongs to you!
- ²⁵And then there is the sea! So vast! So wide and deep—swarming with countless forms of sea life, both small and great!
- ²⁶Trading ships glide through the high seas,
And look! There are the massive whales bounding upon the waves.
- ²⁷All the creatures wait expectantly for you to give them their food as you determine.

^a 104:15 Or "oil for our faces to shine."

- ²⁸You come near and they all gather around, feasting from your open hands,
and each is satisfied from your abundant supply.
- ²⁹But if you were to withhold from them and turned away, then they all would panic.
And when you choose to take away their breath,
each one dies and returns to the dust.
- ³⁰When you release your Spirit-Wind, life is created, ready to replenish life upon the earth.
- ³¹May God's glorious splendor endure forever!
May the Lord take joy and pleasure in all that he has made!
- ³²For the earth's Overseer has the power to make it tremble;
just a touch of his finger and volcanoes erupt
as the earth shakes and melts.
- ³³I will sing my song to the Lord as long as I live!
Every day I will sing my praises to God.
- ³⁴May you be pleased with every sweet thought I have about you,
for you are the source of my joy and gladness!
- ³⁵Now, let all the sinners be swept from the earth.
But I will keep on praising you, my Lord, with all that is within me.
My joyous, blissful shouts of "Hallelujah" are all because of you!

Psalm 105

GOD'S WONDERFUL WORKS^a

- ¹Go ahead—and give God thanks for all the glorious things he has done!

^a The first fifteen verses of this psalm were sung as the ark of glory was brought up to Jerusalem. See 2 Samuel 6 and 1 Chronicles 13–16.

Go ahead and worship him!

Tell everyone about his wonders!

²Let's sing his praises! Sing, and put all of his miracles to music!

³Shine and make your joyful boast in him, you lovers of God.

Let's be happy and keep rejoicing no matter what.

⁴Seek more of his strength! Seek more of him!

Let's always be seeking the light of his face!

⁵Don't you ever forget his miracles and marvels.

Hold to your heart every judgment he has decreed.

⁶For you are his servants, the true seed of Abraham, and you are the chosen ones, Jacob's sons.

⁷For he is the Lord our God, and his wise authority^a can be seen in all he does.

⁸⁻⁹For though a thousand generations may pass away,

he is still true to his word.

He has kept every promise^b he made to Abraham and to Isaac.

¹⁰His promises have become an everlasting covenant to Jacob, confirmed to Israel's tribes.

¹¹He said to them, "I will give you all the land of Canaan as your inheritance."

¹²They were only so very few in number when God gave them that promise, and they were all foreigners to that land.

¹³They were wandering from one land to another with no permanent home.^c

¹⁴Yet God would not permit anyone to touch them, punishing even kings who came against them.

¹⁵He said to them, "Don't you dare lay a hand on my anointed ones, and don't do a thing to hurt my prophets!"

^a 105:7 Or "judgments."

^b 105:8-9 Or "promise of the covenant [pact]."

^c 105:13 Implied in the context. Or "from a kingdom to another nation."

- ¹⁶So God decreed a famine upon Canaan land, cutting off their food supply.
- ¹⁷But he had already sent a man ahead of his people to Egypt;
it was Joseph, who was sold as a slave.
- ¹⁸His feet were bruised by strong shackles and his soul was held by iron.
- ¹⁹God's promise to Joseph purged his character until it was time for his dreams to come true.
- ²⁰Eventually, the king of Egypt sent for him, setting him free at last.
- ²¹Then Joseph was put in charge of everything under the king;
he became the master of the palace over all of the royal possessions.
- ²²Pharaoh gave him authority over all the princes of the land, and Joseph became the teacher of wisdom to the king's advisors.
- ²³Then Jacob, with all of Joseph's family, came from Canaan to Egypt, and settled in Goshen.^a
- ²⁴God made them very fruitful, and they multiplied incredibly until they were greater in number than those who ruled them.
- ²⁵God turned their hearts to hate his people and to deal treacherously with his servants.
- ²⁶But he sent them his faithful servant, Moses, the deliverer, and chose Aaron to accompany him.
- ²⁷Their command brought down signs and wonders, working miracles in Egypt.
- ²⁸By God's direction, they spoke and released a plague of thick darkness over the land.
- ²⁹God turned their rivers to blood, causing every fish to die.
- ³⁰And the judgment-plague of frogs came in enormous numbers, swarming everywhere, even into Pharaoh's bedroom!
- ³¹God spoke and another plague was released—massive swarms of flies, vast clouds of insects, covered the land.

^a 105:23 Or "lived as a foreigner in the land of Ham [Egypt]." Ham was a son of Noah.

- ³²God rained down hail and flaming fire upon Egypt.
³³Their gardens and vines were all destroyed, shattering trees into splinters throughout the territory.
³⁴God spoke, and devouring hordes of locusts swept over the land, ³⁵Picking the ground clean of vegetation and crops.
³⁶Then God struck down their firstborn sons,
 the pride and joy^a of every Egyptian family.
³⁷At last, God freed all the Hebrews from their slavery and sent them away laden with the silver and gold of Egypt.
 And not even one was feeble^b on their way out!
³⁸Egypt was relieved at their exodus, ready to see them go, for the terror of the Lord of the Hebrews had fallen upon them!
³⁹God spread out a cloud as shade as they moved ahead,
 and a cloud of fire to light up their night.
⁴⁰Moses prayed and God brought them quail to eat.
 He satisfied them with heaven's bread falling from the sky.
⁴¹He broke open the boulder and the waters poured out like a river in the desert.
⁴²For God could never forget his holy promise to his servant, Abraham.
⁴³So God brought out his chosen ones with singing;
 for with a joyful shout they were set free!
⁴⁴He gave them lands and nations, just like he promised.
 Fruitful lands of crops they had never planted were now theirs!
⁴⁵All this was done for them so that they would be faithful to keep the ways of God, obeying his laws and following his truths.
 Hallelujah! Praise the Lord!

^a 105:36 Or "the beginning of all their strength."

^b 105:37 Or "not one of his tribes was a pauper." Or "not one stumbled."

Psalm 106

GOD IS GOOD

¹Hallelujah! Praise the Lord!

Everyone, thank God, for he is good and easy to please!
Your tender love for us, Lord, continues on forever.

²Who could ever fully describe your glorious miracles?

Yahweh, who could ever praise you enough?

³The happiest one on earth is the one who keeps your Word and clings to righteousness every moment.

⁴So remember me, Lord, as you take joy in your people.

And when you come to bring the blessings of salvation,
don't forget me!

⁵Let me share in the wealth and beauty of all your lovers, rejoice with your nation in all their joys,

and let me share in the glory you give to your chosen ones.

⁶We have all sinned so much, just like our fathers.

"Guilty" is written over our lives.

⁷Our fathers who were delivered from Egypt didn't fully understand your wonders, and they took you for granted.

Over and over you showed them such tender love and mercy!

Yet they were barely beyond the Red Sea
when they rebelled against you.

⁸Nonetheless, you saved them more than once so they would know how powerful you are, showing them the honor of your name.

⁹You roared over the waters of the Red Sea making a dry path for your people to cross through.

- ¹⁰You freed them from the strong power of those that oppressed them and rescued them from bondage.
- ¹¹Then the waters rushed over their enemies and drowned them all—not one survived.
- ¹²Seeing this, the people believed your words,
and they all broke out with songs of praise!
- ¹³Yet how quickly they forgot your miracles of power.
They wouldn't wait for you to act when they were hungry,
- ¹⁴But demanded you satisfy their cravings and give them food!
They tested you to the breaking point.
- ¹⁵So you gave them what they wanted to eat,
but their souls starved away to nothing!
- ¹⁶They became envious of Moses and Aaron, your holy ones.
- ¹⁷You split open the earth and it swallowed up Dathan and Abiram along with their followers.
- ¹⁸Fire fell from heaven and burnt up all the band of rebels, turning them to ashes.
- ¹⁹They made an idol of a calf at Sinai and bowed to worship their man-made statue.
- ²⁰They preferred the image of a grass-eating ox to the presence of the glory-filled God.
- ²¹⁻²²They totally forgot it was you that saved them by the wonders and awesome miracles you worked in Egypt.
- ²³So you were fed up and decided to destroy them.
But Moses, your chosen leader, stood in the gap between you and the people and made intercession on their behalf to turn away your wrath from killing them all.
- ²⁴Yet they still didn't believe your words and they despised the land of delight you gave to them.

- ²⁵They grumbled and found fault with everything and closed their hearts to your voice.
- ²⁶So you gave up and swore to them that they would all die in the desert,
- ²⁷And you scattered their children to distant lands to die as exiles.
- ²⁸Then our fathers joined the worshipers of the false god named “Lord of the Pit.”
They even ate the sacrifices offered to the dead!
- ²⁹All they did made you burn with anger.
It made you so angry that a plague broke out among them!
- ³⁰It continued until Phineas intervened and executed the guilty for causing judgment to fall upon them.^a
- ³¹Because of this deed of righteousness,
Phineas will be remembered forever.
- ³²Your people also provoked you to wrath
at the stream called Strife.^b
This is where Moses got into serious trouble!
- ³³Because the people were rebellious against you,
Moses exploded in anger and spoke to them out of his bitterness.
- ³⁴Neither did our fathers destroy the enemies in the land as you had commanded them.
- ³⁵But they mingled themselves with their enemies and learned to copy their works of darkness.
- ³⁶They began to serve their gods and bow before their idols.
All of this led them away from you and brought about their downfall.
- ³⁷They even sacrificed their little children to the demon spirits, ³⁸⁻³⁹Shedding the innocent blood of their sons and daughters.
These dark practices greatly defiled the land and their own souls,

^a 106:30 This is implicit information found in the story of Phineas (Numbers 25:7-9).

^b 106:32 The word used here is Meribah, the Hebrew word for strife (Numbers 20:1-13).

through the murder and bloodshed of their own babies!
Their sins made them spiritual adulterers before you.

⁴⁰This is why you were furious.
As your anger burned hot against them, you couldn't even stand to look at your very own people any longer!

⁴¹So you turned them over to the crushing hands of other nations and those who hated them became tyrants over them.

⁴²Oppressive enemies subdued them, ruling over them with their tyranny.

⁴³Many times you would have come to rescue them, but they continued in their rebellious ways, choosing to ignore your warnings.
Then they sank lower and lower, destroyed by their depravity.

⁴⁴⁻⁴⁵Yet even so, you waited and waited, watching to see if they would turn and cry out to you for a Father's help.^a
And then, when you heard their cry, you relented and you remembered your covenant and you turned your heart toward them again, according to your abundant, overflowing, and limitless love.

⁴⁶Then you caused even their oppressors to pity them and show them compassion!

⁴⁷Do it again, Lord! Save us, O Lord, our God!
Gather us from our exile and unite us together so that we will give our great and joyous thanks to you again and bring you glory by our praises!

⁴⁸Blessed be our Lord God forever and ever.
And let everyone everywhere say, "Hallelujah!"
Amen! Faithful is our King!

The Deuteronomy Psalms

PSALMS OF PRAISE AND THE WORD

Psalm 107

GOD'S CONSTANT LOVE

- ¹Let everyone give all their praise and thanks to the Lord!
For here's why—he's better than anyone could ever imagine.
Yes, he's always so loving and kind, and it never ends.
- ²⁻³So, go ahead—let everyone know it!
Tell the world how he broke through and delivered you from the power of darkness and has gathered us together from all over the world.
He has set us free to be his very own!
- ⁴Some of us once wandered in the wilderness like desert nomads with no true direction or dwelling place.
- ⁵Starving, thirsting, staggering,
we became desperate and filled with despair.
- ⁶Then we cried out, "Lord, help us! Rescue us!" And he did!
- ⁷He led us right into a place of safety and abundance,
a suitable city to dwell in.
- ⁸So lift your hands and thank God for his marvelous kindness and for all his miracles of mercy for those he loves.
- ⁹How he satisfies the souls of thirsty ones and fills the hungry with all that is good!
- ¹⁰Some of us once sat in darkness,
living in the dark shadows of death.
We were prisoners to our pain, chained to our regrets.
- ¹¹For we rebelled against God's Word and rejected the wise counsel of God Most High.
- ¹²So he humbled us through our circumstances, watching us as we stumbled with no one there to pick us back up.
Our own pain became our punishment.

- ¹³Then we cried out, "Lord, help us! Rescue us!" And he did!
- ¹⁴His light broke through the darkness and he led us out in freedom from death's dark shadow and snapped every one of our chains.
- ¹⁵So lift your hands and give thanks to God for his marvelous kindness and for his miracles of mercy for those he loves!
- ¹⁶For he smashed through heavy prison doors and shattered the steel bars that held us back, just to set us free!
- ¹⁷Some of us were such fools, bringing on ourselves sorrow and suffering all because of our sins.
- ¹⁸Sick and feeble, unable to stand the sight of food,
we drew near to the gates of death.
- ¹⁹Then we cried out, "Lord, help us! Rescue us!" And he did!
- ²⁰God spoke the words, "Be healed," and we were healed, delivered from death's door!
- ²¹So lift your hands and give thanks to God for his marvelous kindness and for his miracles of mercy for those he loves!
- ²²Bring your praise as an offering and your thanks as a sacrifice as you sing your story of miracles with a joyful song!
- ²³Some of us set sail upon the sea to faraway ports, transporting our goods from ship to shore.
- ²⁴We were witnesses of God's power out in the ocean deep;
we saw breathtaking wonders upon the high seas.
- ²⁵For when God spoke he stirred up a storm, lifting high the waves with hurricane winds.
- ²⁶⁻²⁷Ships were tossed by swelling sea, rising to the sky,
then dropping down to the depths, reeling like drunkards, spinning like tops, everyone at their wits' end until even sailors despaired of life, cringing in terror.
- ²⁸Then we cried out, "Lord, help us! Rescue us!" And he did!

- ²⁹God stilled the storm, calmed the waves,
and he hushed the hurricane winds to only a whisper.
- ³⁰We were so relieved, so glad as he guided us safely to harbor in a quiet haven.
- ³¹So lift your hands and give thanks to God for his marvelous kindness and for his miracles of mercy for those he loves!
- ³²Let's exalt him on high and lift up our praises in public;
let all the people and the leaders of the nation know how great and wonderful is Yahweh, our God!
- ³³Whenever he chooses he can dry up a river^a and turn the land into a desert.
- ³⁴Or he can take a fruitful land and make it into a saltwater swamp, all because of the wickedness of those who dwell there.
- ³⁵But he also can turn a barren wilderness into an oasis with water!
He can make springs flow into desert lands,
- ³⁶And turn them into fertile valleys so that cities spring up,
and he gives it all to those who are hungry.
- ³⁷They can plant their fields and vineyards there and reap a bumper crop and gather a fruitful harvest.
- ³⁸God will bless them and cause them to multiply and prosper.
- ³⁹But others will become poor, humbled because of their oppression, tyranny, and sorrows.
- ⁴⁰For God pours contempt upon their arrogant abuse of power, heaping scorn upon their princes, and makes them wander among ruins.
- ⁴¹But he raises up the poor and lowly with his favor, giving them a safe place to live where no one can touch them!
God will grant them a large family and bless them!
- ⁴²The lovers of God will rejoice when they see this.
Good men are glad when the evil ones are silenced.

^a 107:33 Implied in the context.

⁴³If you are truly wise, you'll learn from what I've told you!
It's time for you to consider these profound lessons of God's great love and mercy!

Psalm 108

A PRAYER FOR GOD'S HELP

A poetic psalm by King David

¹My heart, O God, is quiet and confident all because of you.
Now I can sing my song with passionate praises!

²Awake, O my soul, with the music of his splendor.
Arise my soul and sing his praises!
I will awaken the dawn with my worship,
greeting the daybreak with my songs of light!^a

³Wherever I go I will thank you.
All the nations will hear my praise songs to you.

⁴Your love is so extravagant, it reaches higher than the heavens!
Your faithfulness is so astonishing, it stretches to the skies!

⁵Lord God, be exalted as you soar throughout the heavens.
May your shining glory be seen high above all the earth!

⁶Come to your beloved ones and gently draw us out!
Answer our prayer for your saving help.
Come with your might and strength, for we need you Lord!^b

⁷⁻⁹Then I heard the Lord speak in his holy splendor, and from his sanctuary I heard the Lord promise:
"In my triumph I will be the One to measure out
the portion of my inheritance to my people,
and I will secure the land as I promised you.

they are all still mine!” he says.

“Judah will continue to produce kings and lawgivers,
and Ephraim will produce great warriors.
Moab will become my lowly servant!
Edom will likewise serve my purposes!

I will lift up a shout of victory over the land of Philistia!

¹⁰But who will bring my triumph into Edom’s fortresses?^b

¹¹Lord, have you really rejected us, refusing to fight our battles?

¹²Give us a Father’s help when we face our enemies.

For to trust in any man is an empty hope.

¹³With God’s help we will prevail with might and power.

And with God’s help we’ll trample down our every foe!

Psalm 109

GOD, IT’S TIME FOR VENGEANCE

*To the Pure and Shining One
A poetic song by King David*

¹God of all my praise, don’t stand silently by, aloof to my pain, ²While the wicked slander me with their lies.

Even right in front of my face they lie through their teeth.

³I’ve done nothing to them, but they still surrounds me with their venomous words of hatred and vitriol.

⁴Though I love them, they stand accusing me like satan

^a 108:7-9 The Hebrew includes two geographical places in the text: Shechem and Succoth. Shechem is where Jacob (Israel) first bought title to the land, paying one hundred pieces of silver for the place where he camped. Succoth is another place where Jacob temporarily camped in the Land of Promise. These two places speak of God being the One who brought them in and portioned out the land for his people.

^b 108:10 Edom is a variant form of the word Adam.

for what I've never done.

I will pray until I become prayer itself.^a ⁵They continually repay me with evil when I show them good!

They give me hatred when I show them love!

⁶⁻⁷Show him how it feels! Let accusing liars be raised up against him, like satan himself standing right next to him.

And let him be declared guilty by a wicked judge!

May even his prayers be seen as sinful!

⁸Shorten his life and let another replace him!

⁹Make his wife a widow and his children orphans!

¹⁰Let them wander as beggars in the street,

like homeless vagabonds, evicted from their ruins!

¹¹Let the creditors seize his entire estate, and strangers, like vultures, take all that's left!

¹²Let no one be kind to him by showing pity to his fatherless children!

¹³May all his posterity die with him! Cut down his family tree!

¹⁴⁻¹⁵And may all the sins of his ancestors be recorded, remembered before you, forever!

Cut off even the memory of his family from the face of the earth

¹⁶Because he never once showed love or kindness to others, but persecuted the poor, the brokenhearted, and afflicted ones, even putting them to death!

¹⁷Since he enjoyed cursing them, may all his curses now come raining back on him until it all overwhelms him with misfortune!

Since he refused to bless others,

God, withhold every single blessing from him!

¹⁸Bitterness, such vile vindictiveness, was upon everything he did.

Cursing was his lifestyle.

a 109:4 In the face of accusation and slander, David says literally in Hebrew, "I am prayer!"

¹⁹⁻²⁰So smother him now with his own curses as his just reward.

This will be the Lord's punishment upon him and all my lying accusers who speak evil against me.

²¹But now, O Yahweh-God, make yourself real to me like you promised me you would!^a

Because of your constant love and your heart-melting kindness, come be my Hero and deliver me!

²²I'm so broken, needy and hurting.

My heart is pierced through and I'm so wounded.

²³I'm slipping down a dark slope, shaken to the core, and helpless!

²⁴All my fasting has left me so weak I can hardly stand.

Now I'm shriveled up, nothing but skin and bones.

²⁵I'm the example of failure and shame to all who see me.

They just walk by me shaking their heads!

²⁶You have to help me, O Lord God!

My true Hero, come to my rescue and save me for you are so loving and kind!

²⁷Then everyone will know that you have won my victory, and they will all say to the Lord, "You have finished it!"

²⁸So let them curse me if they want,

but I know you will bless me!

All their efforts to destroy me will fail,

but I will succeed and be glad!

²⁹So let my satan-like accusers fail!

Make them look ridiculous if they try to come against me!

Clothe them with a robe of guilty shame from this day on!

³⁰But I will give my thanks to you over and over and everyone will hear my lavish praises.

³¹For you stand right next to the broken one as their saving Hero to rescue them from all their accusers!

^a 109:21 The Hebrew text states, "for your name's sake."

Psalm 110

MESSIAH, KING, AND PRIEST ^a

King David's psalm

¹Yahweh said to my Lord, the Messiah:

“Sit with me as Enthroned Ruler^b while I subdue your every enemy.
They will bow low before you
as I make them a footstool for your feet!”^c

²Messiah, I know God himself will establish your kingdom as you reign in Zion-glory.

For he says to you: “Rule in the midst of your enemies!”

³Your people will be your love offerings like living sacrifices spilled out before you!

In the day of your mighty power you will be exalted, and in the brightness of your holy ones you will shine as an army arising from the dawning rays of a new day, anointed with the dew of your youth!

⁴Yahweh has taken a solemn oath and will never back away from it, saying:

“You are a priest for eternity, my King of righteousness!”^d a This psalm is applied to Christ in the New Testament where it is quoted more often than any other Old Testament passage.

b 1:1 Or “at my right hand.” The right hand is the position of authority and honor.

c 110:1 A footstool symbolizes what is subdued. It is taken from the root word “to subdue.”

d 110:4 The Hebrew text includes the word Melchizedek, the name of a Canaanite king and priest over the Jebusite kingdom that later became Jerusalem. The name Melchizedek means, “my king of righteousness.”

- ⁵The Lord stands in full authority^a to shatter to pieces the kings who stand against you on the day He displays his terrible wrath.
- ⁶He will judge every rebellious nation, filling their battlefield with corpses,
and will shatter the strongholds of ruling powers.
- ⁷Yet he himself will drink from his inheritance
as from a flowing brook;
refreshed by love he will stand victorious!

Psalm 111

CELEBRATE GOD'S GREATNESS

- ¹Shout hallelujah to Yahweh!
May every one of his lovers hear my passionate praise to him,
even among the council of the holy ones!
- ²For God's mighty miracles astound me!
His wonders are so delightfully mysterious that they leave all who seek them astonished.
- ³Everything he does is full of splendor and beauty!
Each miracle demonstrates his eternal perfection.
- ⁴His unforgettable works of surpassing wonder reveal his grace and tender mercy.
- ⁵He satisfies all who love and trust him,
and he keeps every promise he makes.
- ⁶He reveals mighty power and marvels to his people
by handing them nations as a gift!

^a 110:5 The Hebrew word used here for Lord is Adonai, or Adonay. It is the plural form of Adon. Jesus is called Lord of lords, and we are the lords that he is Lord over. We are seated at his right hand (Benjamin) to rule with him.

- ⁷All God accomplishes is flawless, faithful, and fair, and his every word proves trustworthy and true.
- ⁸They are steadfast forever and ever, formed from truth and righteousness.
- ⁹His forever-love paid a full ransom for his people so that now we're free to come before Jehovah to worship his holy and awesome name!
- ¹⁰Where can wisdom be found? It is born in the fear of God.
Everyone who follows his ways will never lack his living-understanding.
And the adoration of God will abide throughout eternity!

Psalm 112

THE TRIUMPH OF FAITH

- ¹Shout in celebration of praise to the Lord!
Everyone who loves the Lord and delights in him will cherish his words and be blessed beyond expectation!
- ²Their descendants will be prosperous and influential.
Every generation of his godly lovers will experience his favor!
- ³Great blessing and wealth fills the house of the wise,^a for they will walk in the way of the righteous.
- ⁴Even if darkness overtakes them, sunrise-brilliance will come bursting through because they are gracious to others, so tender and true.
- ⁵Life is good for the one who is generous and charitable,
conducting affairs with honesty and truth.

^a 112:3 Implied in the context.

- 6Their circumstances will never shake them
and others will never forget their example.
- 7They will not live in fear or dread of what may come,
for their hearts are firm, ever secure in their faith.
- 8Steady and strong they will not be afraid, but will calmly face their every foe until they all go down in defeat.
- 9Never stingy and always generous to those in need,
their lives of influence and honor will never be forgotten for they were full of good deeds!
- 10But the wicked take one look at a life lived like this and they grit their teeth in anger, not understanding their bliss.
The wicked slink away speechless in the darkness that falls, where hope dies, and all their dreams fade away to nothing, to nothing at all!

Psalm 113

GOD IS KIND

¹Hallelujah! Praise the Lord!^a

Go ahead—praise the Lord all you loving servants of God!

Keep it up! Praise him some more!

²For the glorious name of the Lord is blessed forever and ever.

³From sunrise brilliance to sunset beauty, lift up his praise from dawn to dusk!

⁴For he rules on high over the nations with a glory that outshines even the heavens.

⁵No one can be compared to God, enthroned on high!
He stoops down to look upon the earth and the skies.

⁶He promotes the poor, picking them up from the dirt,

⁷And rescues the wretched ones from utter degradation and despair, restoring to them their destiny.^b

⁸He turns paupers into princes and seats them on their royal thrones of honor.

⁹God's grace provides for the barren ones a joyful home with children so that even childless couples find a family.

He makes them happy parents surrounded by their pride and joy.
That's the God we praise, so give it all to him!

^a 113:1 Psalms 113–114 were sung before the meal, during the Jewish family's celebration of Passover, while Psalms 115–118 were sung after the meal (see Mark 14:26).

^b 113:7 Implied in the context.

Psalm 114

A SONG FOR PASSOVER

- ¹Many years ago the Jewish people escaped Egypt's tyranny, ²So that Israel, God's people of praise,^a would become his holy sanctuary, his kingdom on the earth.
- ³The Red Sea waters saw them coming and ran the other way!
 Then later, the Jordan River too, moved aside so that they could all pass through.
- ⁴The land shuddered with fear.
 Mountains and hills shook with dread.^b
- ⁵O Sea, what happened to you, to make you flee?
 O Jordan, what was it that made you turn and run?
- ⁶O mountains, what frightened you so?
 And you hills, what made you shiver?
- ⁷Tremble, O earth, for you are in the presence of the Lord,
 the God of Jacob.
- ⁸He splits open boulders and brings up bubbling water!
 Gushing streams burst forth when he is near!^c

^a 114:2 Or Judah, which means praise.

^b 114:4 The literal Hebrew states, "mountains skipped like rams, the hills like lambs." This does not mean they skipped with joy, but shook with fear, as the context reveals.

^c 114:8 Implied in the context.

Psalm 115

THE ONE TRUE GOD

¹God, glorify your name!

Yes, your name alone be glorified, not ours!
For you are the One who loves us passionately,
and you are faithful and true.

²Why should the unbelievers mock us, saying,
“Where is this God of yours?”

³But we know our God rules from the heavens and he does whatever he wants!

⁴The unbelievers worship what they make—their wealth and their work.

⁵⁻⁸They idolize what they own and what they make with their hands, but their things can’t talk to them or answer their prayers.
Their possessions will never satisfy.
Their futile faith in dead idols and dead works can never bring life or meaning to their souls.
Blind men can only create blind things.
Those deaf to God can only make a deaf image.
Dead men can only create dead idols.
And everyone who trusts in these powerless, dead things
will be just like what they worship—powerless and dead!^a

^a 115:5-8 Referring to the idols, the literal Hebrew could be translated: “With mouths, but they cannot speak; with eyes, but they cannot see; with ears, but they cannot hear; with noses, but they cannot smell; with hands, but they cannot feel; with feet, but they cannot walk; they cannot talk. Those who make them will become like them, and everyone who trusts in them.”

- ⁹So trust in the Lord, all his people.
For he is the only true Hero,
the wrap-around God who is our Shield!
- ¹⁰You, his priests, trust in the Lord.
For he is the only true Hero,
God-wrapped-around-us as our Shield!
- ¹¹Yes, all his lovers who bow before him, trust in the Lord.
For he is our only true Hero,
God-wrapped-around-us as our Shield!
- ¹²The Lord will never forget us in our need; he will bless us indeed!
He will bless the house of Israel;
he will bless the house of Aaron, his priest.
- ¹³Yes! He will bless his lovers who bow before him, no matter who they are.
- ¹⁴⁻¹⁵God himself will fill you with more.
Blessings upon blessings will be heaped upon you and upon your children from the Maker of heaven and earth, the very God who made you!
- ¹⁶The heavens belong to our God; they are his alone,
but he has given us^a the earth and put us in charge.
- ¹⁷⁻¹⁸Dead people cannot praise the Lord, but we can!
Those who sink to the silence of the grave can no longer give glory to God, but we can!
So let's praise the Lord!
Let's begin now and let it go on until eternity is done.
Hallelujah, and praise the Lord!

^a 115:16 Or "Adam's sons."

Psalm 116

I'M SAVED

- ¹I am passionately in love with God because he listens to me.
He hears my prayers and answers them.
- ²As long as I live I'll keep praying to him,
for he stoops down to listen to my heart's cry.
- ³Death once stared me in the face,
and I was so close to slipping into its dark shadows.
I was terrified and overcome with sorrow.
- ⁴I cried out to the Lord, "God, come and save me!"
- ⁵He was so kind, so gracious to me.
Because of his passion toward me,
he made everything right and he restored me!
- ⁶So I've learned from my experience that God protects the childlike and humble ones.
For I was broken and brought low,
but he answered me and came to my rescue!
- ⁷Now I can say to myself and to all:
"Relax and rest, be confident and serene, for the Lord rewards fully those who simply trust in him!"
- ⁸God has rescued my soul from death's fear and dried my eyes of many tears.
He's kept my feet firmly on his path,
- ⁹And strengthened me so that I may please him^a and live my life before him in his life-giving light!
- ¹⁰⁻¹¹Even when it seems I'm surrounded by many liars and my own fears,

a 116:9 As translated from the Septuagint.

and though I'm hurting in my suffering and trauma,
I still stay faithful to God and I speak words of faith.

¹²So now, what can I ever give back to God to repay him for the blessings he's poured out on me?

¹³I will lift up his cup of salvation and praise him extravagantly for all that he's done for me!

¹⁴I will fulfill the promise I made to God in the presence of his gathered people.

¹⁵When one of God's holy lovers dies,
it is costly to the Lord, touching his heart.

¹⁶Lord, because I am your loving servant
you have broken open my life and freed me from my chains.

¹⁷Now I'll worship you passionately and bring to you my sacrifice of praise, drenched with thanksgiving!

¹⁸I'll keep my promise to you, God, in the presence of your gathered people just like I said I would.

¹⁹I will worship you here in your living presence, in the temple in Jerusalem.
I will worship and sing hallelujah for I praise you, Lord!

Psalm 117

GLORIOUS PRAISE

A praise-psalm

¹Let everyone, everywhere shine with praise to Yahweh!^a

Let it all out! Go ahead and praise him!

²For he has conquered us with his great love and his kindness has melted our hearts.

His faithfulness lasts forever and he will never fail you.

So go ahead, let it all out!

Praise Yah!

O Yah!^b

^a 117:1 The word for praise is taken from the word shine.

^b 117:2 The name Yah is not an abbreviated form of Yahweh; it is the name of God as he displays his power. Yahweh is found 6,830 times in the Hebrew text, and Yah is found 49 times.

Psalm 118

GLORIOUS THANKSGIVING

A praise-psalm^a

- ¹Keep on giving your thanks to God, for he is so good!
His constant, tender love lasts forever!
- ²Let all his princely people sing:
“His constant, tender love lasts forever!”
- ³Let all his holy priests sing:
“His constant, tender love lasts forever!”
- ⁴Let all his lovers who bow low before him sing:
“His constant, tender love lasts forever!”
- ⁵Out of my deep anguish and pain I prayed,
and God, you helped me as a Father.
You came to my rescue and broke open the way into a beautiful and broad place.
- ⁶Now I know, Lord, that you are for me, and I will never fear what man can do to me.
- ⁷For you stand beside me as my Hero who rescues me.
I’ve seen with my own eyes the defeat of my enemies.
I’ve triumphed over them all!
- ⁸Lord, it is so much better to trust in you to save me than to put my confidence in someone else.
- ⁹Yes, it is so much better to trust in the Lord to save me than to put my confidence in celebrities.
- ¹⁰Once I was hemmed in and surrounded by those who don’t love you.
But by Yahweh’s supernatural power I overcame them all!

^a This is the psalm or “hymn” that Jesus likely sang after the Passover supper with his disciples, before making his way to Gethsemane and Calvary.

- ¹¹⁻¹²Yes, they surrounded me,
like a swarm of killer bees swirling around me.
I was trapped like one trapped by a raging fire;
I was surrounded with no way out and at the point of collapse.
But by Yahweh's supernatural power I overcame them all!
- ¹³They pushed me right up to the edge, and I was ready to fall, but you helped me to triumph, and together we overcame them all.
- ¹⁴Lord, you are my true strength and my glory-song,
my Champion, my Savior!
- ¹⁵The joyful songs I now sing will be sung again in the hearts and homes of all your lovers.
My loud shouts of victory will echo throughout the land.^a For my Lord is a Valiant Warrior!
- ¹⁶The power of God is lifted high!
The power of God will never fail!
- ¹⁷You will not let them kill me, but I will live to tell the world what the Lord has done for me.
- ¹⁸Yes, the Lord punished me as I deserved, but he'll never give me over to death.
- ¹⁹Swing wide, you gates of righteousness, and let me pass through,
and I will enter into your presence to worship only you!
- ²⁰I have found the gateway to God,
the pathway to his presence for all his lovers.
- ²¹I will offer all my loving praise to you, and I thank you so much for answering my prayer and bringing me salvation!
- ²²The very stone the masons rejected as flawed has turned out to be the most important capstone of the arch,^b holding up the very house of God.

^a 118:15 Implied in the text.

^b 118:22 The words "capstone of the arch" can also be translated "the head of the corner."

- ²³The Lord himself is the One who has done this;
and it's so amazing, so marvelous to see!
- ²⁴This is the very day of the Lord that brings gladness and joy, filling our hearts with glee!
- ²⁵O God, come and save us again;
bring us your breakthrough-victory!
- ²⁶Blessed is this One who comes to us, the Sent-One of the Lord.
And from within the temple we cry: "We bless you!"
- ²⁷⁻²⁸For the Lord our God has brought us his glory-light!
I offer him my life in joyous sacrifice.
Tied tightly to your altar I will bring you praise.
For you are the God of my life and I lift you high, exalting you to the highest place.
- ²⁹So let's keep on giving our thanks to God, for he is so good!
His constant, tender love lasts forever!

Psalm 119

THE WORDS OF GOD^a

The Way to Happiness

- ¹You're only truly happy when you walk in total integrity,^b walking in the light of God's Word!
- ²What joy overwhelms everyone who keeps the ways of God,
those who seek him as their heart's passion!
- ³They'll never do what's wrong
but will always choose the paths of the Lord.
- ⁴God has prescribed the right way to live:
obeying his laws with all our hearts.
- ⁵How I long for my life to bring you glory
as I follow each and every one of your holy precepts!
- ⁶Then I'll never be ashamed,
for I take strength from all your commandments.
- ⁷I will give my thanks to you from a heart of love and truth.
And every time I learn more of your righteous judgments,
- ⁸I will be faithful to all that your Word reveals—so don't ever give up on me!

^a This psalm is an acrostic poem, a mathematical masterpiece. It consists of twenty-two stanzas of eight lines each. Each stanza begins with the same Hebrew letter at the beginning of every one of its eight lines, going in succession, by strophes, from alef—the first letter of the Hebrew alphabet, as the first letter of each line in the first strophe—to taw—the last letter of the Hebrew alphabet, as the first letter of each line in the last strophe. Like the eight lines of each stanza there are eight different Hebrew words, all synonyms, used to refer to the Word of God. Although many believe Ezra wrote Psalm 119, the acrostic poetic style is unique to King David within the book of Psalms, which points to his authorship of this psalm.

^b 119:1 Or "perfection." The Hebrew reads "utterances."

True Joy

⁹How can a young man stay pure?

Only by living in the Word of God and walking in its truth.

¹⁰I have longed for you with the passion of my heart;
don't let me stray from your directions!

¹¹I consider your prophecies^a to be my greatest treasure, and I memorize them and write them on my heart to keep me from committing sin's treason against you.

¹²My wonderful God, you are to be praised above all;
teach me the power of your decrees!

¹³I speak continually of your laws
as I recite out loud your counsel to me.

¹⁴I find more joy in following what you tell me to do than in chasing after all the wealth of the world!

¹⁵I set my heart on your precepts and pay close attention to all your ways.

¹⁶My delight is found in all your laws,
and I won't forget to walk in your words.

The Abundant Life

¹⁷Let me, your servant, walk in abundance of life that I may always live to obey your truth.

¹⁸Open my eyes to see the miracle-wonders hidden in your Word!

¹⁹My life on earth is so brief, so tutor me in the ways of your wisdom.

²⁰I am continually consumed by these irresistible longings, these cravings to obey your every commandment!

²¹Your displeasure rests with those who are arrogant, who think they know everything;
you rebuke the rebellious who refuse your laws.

²²Don't let them mock and scorn me for obeying you.

^a 119:11 As translated from the Septuagint.

²³For even if the princes and my leaders choose to criticize me,
I'll continue to serve you and walk in your plans for my life.

²⁴Your commandments are my counselors;
your Word is my light and delight!

Revived by the Word

²⁵Lord, I'm fading away. I'm discouraged and lying in the dust; revive me by your Word, just like you promised you would!

²⁶I've poured out my life before you,
and you've always been there for me;
so now I ask: teach me more of your holy decrees.

²⁷Open up my understanding to the ways of your wisdom and I will meditate deeply on your splendor and your wonders.

²⁸My life's strength melts away with grief and sadness;
come strengthen me and encourage me with your words.

²⁹Keep me far away from what is false;
give me grace to stay true to your laws.

³⁰I've chosen to obey your truth and walk in the splendor-light of all that you teach me.

³¹Lord, don't allow me to make a mess of my life, for I cling to your commands and follow them as closely as I can.

³²I will run after you with delight in my heart, for you will make me obedient to your instructions.

Understanding God's Ways

³³Give me revelation about the meaning of your ways so I can enjoy the reward of following them fully!

³⁴Give me an understanding heart so that I can passionately know and obey your truth.

³⁵Guide me into the paths that please you,
for I take delight in all that you say.

³⁶Cause my heart to bow before your words of wisdom and not to the wealth of this world.

- ³⁷Help me turn my eyes away from illusions
so that I pursue only that which is true; drench my soul with life as I walk in your paths.
- ³⁸Reassure me of your promises for I am your beloved,
your servant who bows before you!
- ³⁹Defend me from the criticism I face for keeping your beautiful words.
- ⁴⁰See how I long with cravings for more of your ways?
Let your righteousness revive my spirit!

Trust in the Lord

- ⁴¹May your tender love overwhelm me, O Lord, for you are my Savior and you keep your promises.
- ⁴²I'll always have an answer for those who mock me because I trust in your word.
- ⁴³May I never forget your truth, for I rely upon your precepts.
- ⁴⁴I will observe your laws every moment of the day,
and will never forget the words you say.
- ⁴⁵I will walk with you in complete freedom,
for I seek to follow your every command.
- ⁴⁶When I stand before kings, I will tell them the truth and will never be ashamed.
- ⁴⁷My passion and delight is in your Word,
for I love what you say to me!
- ⁴⁸I long for more revelation of your truth,
for I love the light of your word as I meditate on your decrees.

My Comfort

- ⁴⁹Lord, never forget the promises you've made to me, for they are my hope and confidence.
- ⁵⁰In all of my affliction I find great comfort in your promises, for they have kept me alive!

- ⁵¹No matter how bitterly the proud mockers speak against me,
I refuse to budge from your precepts.
- ⁵²Your revelation-light is eternal;
I'm encouraged every time I think about your truth!
- ⁵³Whenever I see the wicked breaking your laws, I feel horrible.
- ⁵⁴As I journey through life, I put all your statutes to music;
they become the theme of my joyous songs.
- ⁵⁵Throughout the night I think of you, dear God;
I treasure your every word to me.
- ⁵⁶All this joy is mine as I follow your ways!

My Heart is Devoted to You

- ⁵⁷You are my Satisfaction, Lord, and all that I need;
so I'm determined to do everything you say.
- ⁵⁸With all my heart I seek your favor;
pour out your grace on me as you promised!
- ⁵⁹When I realize that I'm going astray,
I turn back to obey your instructions.
- ⁶⁰I give my all to follow your revelation-light; I will not delay to obey!
- ⁶¹Even when temptations encircle me with evil,
I won't forget for a moment to follow your commands.
- ⁶²In the middle of the night I awake to give thanks to you because of all your revelation-light; so right and true!
- ⁶³Anyone who loves you and bows in obedience to your words will be my friend.
- ⁶⁴Give me more revelation of your ways,
for I see your love and tender care everywhere.

My True Treasure

- ⁶⁵Your extravagant kindness to me
makes me want to follow your words even more!

- ⁶⁶Teach me how to make good decisions, and give me revelation-light for I believe in your commands.
- ⁶⁷Before I was humbled I used to always wander astray,
but now I see the wisdom of your words.
- ⁶⁸Everything you do is beautiful, flowing from your goodness;
teach me the power of your wonderful words!
- ⁶⁹Proud boasters make up lies about me because I am passionate to follow all that you say.
- ⁷⁰Their hearts are dull and void of feelings,
but I find my true treasure in your truth.
- ⁷¹The punishment you brought me through was the best thing that could have happened to me, for it taught me your ways.
- ⁷²The words you speak to me are worth more than all the riches and wealth in the whole world!

Growth Through the Word

- ⁷³Your very hands have held me and made me who I am;
give me more revelation-light so I may learn to please you more.
- ⁷⁴May all your lovers see how you treat me and be glad,
for your words are entwined within my heart!
- ⁷⁵Lord, I know that your judgments are always right.
Even when it's me you judge, you're still faithful and true.
- ⁷⁶Send your kind mercy-kiss to comfort me, your servant, just like you promised you would!
- ⁷⁷Love me tenderly so I can go on,
for I delight in your life-giving truth.
- ⁷⁸Shame upon the proud liars! See how they oppress me, all because of my passion for your precepts!
- ⁷⁹May all your lovers follow me as I follow the path of your instruction.
- ⁸⁰Make me passionate and wholehearted to fulfill your every wish,
so that I'll never have to be ashamed of myself.

Deliver Me

- ⁸¹I'm lovesick with yearnings for more of your salvation, for my heart is entwined with your Word.
- ⁸²I'm consumed with longings for your promises,
so I ask, "When will they all come true?"
- ⁸³My soul feels dry and shriveled, useless and forgotten, but I will never forget your living truth.
- ⁸⁴How much longer must I wait until you punish my persecutors?
For I am your loving servant.
- ⁸⁵Arrogant men who hate your truth and never obey your laws have laid a trap for my life.
- ⁸⁶They don't know that everything you say is true,
so they harass me with their lies. Help me, Lord!
- ⁸⁷They've nearly destroyed my life, but I refuse to yield;
I still live according to your Word.
- ⁸⁸Revive me with your tender love and spare my life by your kindness, and I'll continue to obey you!

Faith in the Word of God

- ⁸⁹Standing firm in the heavens and fastened to eternity is the Word of God.
- ⁹⁰Your faithfulness flows from one generation to the next;
all that you created sits firmly in place to testify of you.
- ⁹¹By your decree everything stands at attention,
for all that you have made serves you.
- ⁹²Because your words are my deepest delight,
I didn't give up when all else was lost.
- ⁹³I can never forget the profound revelations you've taught me,
for they have kept me alive more than once.
- ⁹⁴Lord, I'm all yours, and you are my Savior;
I have sought to live my life pleasing to you.
- ⁹⁵Even though evil men wait in ambush to kill me,
I will set my heart before you to understand more of your ways.

⁹⁶I've learned that there is nothing perfect in this imperfect world except your words, for they bring such fantastic freedom into my life!

I Love the Word of God

⁹⁷O, how I love and treasure the revelation of your Word;
throughout the day I fill my heart with its light!

⁹⁸By considering your commands I have an edge over my enemies, for I take seriously everything you say.

⁹⁹You have given me more understanding than those who teach me, for I've absorbed your eye-opening revelation.

¹⁰⁰You have graced me with more insight than the old sages because I have not failed to walk in the light of your ways.

¹⁰¹I refused to bend my morals when temptation was before me so that I could become obedient to your Word.

¹⁰²I refuse to turn away from difficult truths,
for you yourself have taught me to love your words.

¹⁰³How sweet are your living promises to me;
sweeter than honey is your revelation-light.

¹⁰⁴For your truth is the source of my understanding, not the falsehoods of those who don't know you, which I despise.

Truth's Shining Light

¹⁰⁵Truth's shining light guides me in my choices and decisions;
the revelation of your Word makes my pathway clear.

¹⁰⁶To live my life by your righteous rules has been my holy and lifelong commitment.

¹⁰⁷I'm bruised and broken, overwhelmed by it all;
breathe life into me again by your living Word.

¹⁰⁸Lord, receive my grateful thanks and teach me more of how to please you.

¹⁰⁹Even though my life hangs in the balance,
I'll keep following what you've taught me, no matter what.

- ¹¹⁰The ungodly have done their best to throw me off track, but I'll not deviate from what you've told me to do.
- ¹¹¹Everything you speak to me is like joyous treasure, filling my life with gladness.
- ¹¹²I have determined in my heart to obey whatever you say,
fully and forever!

Trust and Obey

- ¹¹³I despise those who can't keep commitments, for I passionately love your revelation-light!
- ¹¹⁴You're my place of quiet retreat, and your wrap-around presence becomes my shield as I wrap myself in your Word!
- ¹¹⁵Go away! Leave me, all you workers of wickedness;
for you can't stop me from following every command of my God.
- ¹¹⁶Lord, strengthen my inner being by the promises of your Word so that I may live faithful and unashamed for you.
- ¹¹⁷Lift me up, and I will be safe.
Empower me to live every moment in the light of your ways.
- ¹¹⁸Lord, you reject those who reject your laws,
for they fool no one but themselves!
- ¹¹⁹The wicked are thrown away, discarded and valueless.
That's why I will keep on loving all of your laws!
- ¹²⁰My body trembles in holy awe of you, leaving me speechless;
for I'm frightened of your righteous judgments.

I Will Follow Your Ways

- ¹²¹Don't leave me to the mercies of those who hate me, for I live to do what is just and fair.
- ¹²²Let me hear your promise of blessing over my life,
breaking me free from the proud oppressors.
- ¹²³As a lovesick lover, I yearn for more of your salvation and for your virtuous promises!

- ¹²⁴Let me feel your tender love for I am yours.
Give me more understanding of your wonderful ways.
- ¹²⁵I need more revelation from your Word to know more about you, for I'm in love with you!
- ¹²⁶Lord, the time has come for you to break through,
for evil men keep breaking your laws!
- ¹²⁷Truly, your message of truth means more to me than a vault filled with the purest gold.
- ¹²⁸Every word you speak, every truth revealed, is always right and beautiful to me; for I hate what is phony or false.

I Long to Obey You

- ¹²⁹Your marvelous words are living miracles;
no wonder I long to obey everything you say.
- ¹³⁰Break open your Word within me until revelation-light shines out!
Those with open hearts are given insight into your plans.
- ¹³¹I open my mouth and inhale the Word of God because I crave the revelation of your commands.
- ¹³²Turn your heart to me, Lord, and show me your grace like you do to every one of your godly lovers.
- ¹³³Prepare before me a path filled with your promises, and don't allow even one sin to have dominion over me.
- ¹³⁴Rescue me from the oppression of ungodly men
so that I can keep all your precepts.
- ¹³⁵Let your shining face shine brightly on me, your loving servant!
Instruct me on what is right in your eyes.
- ¹³⁶When I witness the rebellious breaking your laws,
it makes me weep uncontrollably!

His Word is True

- ¹³⁷Lord, your judgments reveal your righteousness, and your verdicts are always fair.

- ¹³⁸The motive behind your every word is pure,
and your teachings are remarkably faithful and true.
- ¹³⁹I've been consumed with a furious passion to do what's right, all because of the way my enemies disrespect your laws.
- ¹⁴⁰Every one of your promises has passed the test;
that's why I'm a lover of your Word.
- ¹⁴¹Even though I'm considered insignificant and despised by the world, I'll never abandon your ways.
- ¹⁴²Your righteousness has no end; it is everlasting, and your rules are perfectly fair.
- ¹⁴³Even though my troubles overwhelm me with anguish,
I still delight and cherish every message you speak to me.
- ¹⁴⁴Give me more revelation so that I can live for you,
for nothing is more pure and eternal than your truth.

Save Me God

- ¹⁴⁵Answer my passionate prayer, O Lord, and I'll obey everything you say.
- ¹⁴⁶Save me, God, and I'll follow your every instruction.
- ¹⁴⁷Before the day dawns, I'll be crying out for help and wrapping your words into my life.
- ¹⁴⁸I lie awake every night pondering your promises to me.
- ¹⁴⁹Lord, listen to my heart's cry, for I know your love is so real for me;
breathe life into me again by the revelation of your justice.
- ¹⁵⁰Here they come—these lawless rebels are coming near,
but they are all so far away from your laws.
- ¹⁵¹God, you are near me always, so close to me;
every one of your commands reveals truth.
- ¹⁵²I've known all along how true and unchanging is every word you speak, established forever!

Breathe Life into Me Again

- ¹⁵³Look upon all my misery and come be my Hero to rescue me, for I will never forget what you've revealed to me.
- ¹⁵⁴Take my side and defend me in these sufferings;
redeem me and revive me, just like you promised you would.
- ¹⁵⁵The wicked are so far from salvation, for they could not care less about your message of truth.
- ¹⁵⁶Your tender mercies are what I need, O God;
give me back my life again through the revelation of your judgments!
- ¹⁵⁷I have so many enemies who persecute me,
yet I won't swerve from following your ways.
- ¹⁵⁸I grieve when I see how the faithless ones live, for they just walk away from your promises.
- ¹⁵⁹Lord, see how much I truly love your instructions;
so in your tender kindness, breathe life into me again.
- ¹⁶⁰The sum total of all your words adds up to absolute truth,
and every one of your righteous decrees is everlasting.

Devoted to God's Word

- ¹⁶¹The powerful elite have persecuted me without a cause, but my heart trembles in awe because of your miracle-words!
- ¹⁶²Your promises are the source of my bubbling joy;
the revelation of your Word thrills me like one who has discovered hidden treasure.
- ¹⁶³I despise every lie and hate every falsehood for I am passionate about keeping your precepts.
- ¹⁶⁴I stop to praise you seven times a day,
all because your ways are perfect!
- ¹⁶⁵There is such a great peace and well-being that comes to the lovers of your Word, and they'll never be offended.

¹⁶⁶Lord, I'm longing for more of your salvation for I want to do what pleases you.

¹⁶⁷My love for your ways is indescribable;
in my innermost being I want to follow them perfectly!

¹⁶⁸I will keep your instructions and follow your counsel;
all my ways are an open book before you.

I Want to Follow You

¹⁶⁹ Lord, listen to my prayer. It's like a sacrifice I bring to you;
I must have more revelation of your Word!

¹⁷⁰Take my words to heart when I ask you, Lord;
rescue me, just like you promised!

¹⁷¹I offer you my joyous praise for all that you've taught me!

¹⁷²Your wonderful words will become my song of worship, for everything you've commanded is perfect and true.

¹⁷³Place your hands of strength and favor upon me,
for I've made my choice to follow your ways.

¹⁷⁴I wait for your deliverance, O Lord, for your words thrill me like nothing else!

¹⁷⁵Invigorate my life so that I can praise you even more,
and may your truth be my strength!

¹⁷⁶I'll never forget what you've taught me, Lord, but when I wander off and lose my way,
come after me, for I am your beloved!

Psalm 120

GOD HELPED ME

A song of the stairway^a

- ¹I was desperate for you to help me in my struggles, and you did!
²So come and deliver me now from this treachery and false accusation.
³O lying deceivers, don't you know what is your fate?
⁴You will be pierced through with condemnation and consumed with burning coals of fire!
⁵Why am I doomed to live as an alien scattered among these cruel savages?^b
 Am I destined to dwell in the darkened tents of desert nomads?^c ⁶For too long I've had to live among those who hate peace.
⁷I speak words of peace while they speak words of war,
 but they refuse to listen.

^a Psalms 120–134 all begin with the words “A song to take you higher” or “A song of ascent” or “A song of the stairway.” It is likely these fifteen songs were sung on the fifteen steps that would take the worshiper into the temple. On each step they would stop to worship and sing the corresponding psalm as they went up higher into the worship of God. Others believe they were the songs sung as David brought up the ark of glory to Jerusalem. They are also known as Songs of Degrees or Songs of Ascent. One Hebrew manuscript titles them, “Songs of the Homeward Marches.”

^b 120:5 The Hebrew text includes the word Meshech, which is a foreign land. The meaning of the word Meshech is to scatter, and may refer to ancient Persia.

^c 120:5 The Hebrew text includes the word Kedar, who was one of Ishmael's sons whose descendants became a wandering group of nomads. Kedar means a dark place.

Psalm 121

GOD PROTECTS US

A song of the stairway

- ¹⁻²I look up to the mountains and hills, longing for God's help.
But then I realize that our true help and protection come only from the Lord,
our Creator who made the heavens and the earth.
- ³He will guard and guide me, never letting me stumble or fall.
God is my Keeper; he will never forget or ignore me.
- ⁴He will never slumber nor sleep;
he is the Guardian-God for his people, Israel.
- ⁵Jehovah himself will watch over you;
he's always at your side to shelter you safely in his presence.
- ⁶He's protecting you from all danger both day and night.
- ⁷He will keep you from every form of evil or calamity
as he continually watches over you.
- ⁸You will be guarded by God himself.
You will be safe when you leave your home
and safely you will return.
He will protect you now,
and he'll protect you forevermore!

Psalm 122

JERUSALEM

A song of the stairway by King David^a

- ¹I was overjoyed when they said:
 “Let’s go up to the house of the Lord.”
- ²And now at last, we stand here, inside the very gates of Jerusalem!
- ³O Jerusalem, you were built as a city of praise where God and man mingle together.^b
- ⁴This is where all the people of Israel are required to come and worship Jehovah-God.
- ⁵This is where the thrones of kings have been established to rule in righteousness;
 even King David ruled from here.
- ⁶Pray and seek for Jerusalem’s peace,
 for all who love her will prosper!
- ⁷O Jerusalem, may there be peace for those who dwell inside your walls and prosperity in your every palace.
- ⁸I intercede for the sake of my family and friends who dwell there, that they may all live in peace!
- ⁹For the sake of your house, our God,
 I will seek the welfare and prosperity of Jerusalem.

^a David wrote this song for the people to sing for the Feasts. It was sung when the worshipers entered the gates of the city, Jerusalem.

^b 122:3 The Hebrew phrase “a city bound together” is taken from a root word that means joined, united, coupled. By inference in the context, it is the city where God dwells and man worships.

Psalm 123

A PRAYER FOR MERCY

A song of the stairway

¹O God-Enthroned in heaven, I worship and adore you!

²The way I love you is like the way a servant wants to please his master, the way a maid waits for the orders of her mistress.

We look to you, our God, with passionate longing to please you and discover more of your mercy and grace.

³⁻⁴For we've had more than our fill of this scoffing and scorn—this mistreatment by the wealthy elite.

Lord, show us your mercy!

Lord, show us your grace!

Psalm 124

VICTORY

A song of the stairway by King David

- ¹What if God had not been on our side? Let all Israel admit this!
- ²⁻³What if God had not been there for us?
Our enemies, in their violent anger, would have swallowed us up alive!
- ⁴⁻⁵The nations, with their flood of rage, would have swept us away and we would have drowned, perished beneath their torrent of terror!
- ⁶We can praise God over and over that he never left us!
God wouldn't allow the terror of our enemies to defeat us.
- ⁷We are free from the hunter's trap;
their snare is broken and we have escaped!
- ⁸For the same God who made everything,
our Creator and our mighty Maker,
he himself is our Helper and Defender!

Psalm 125

GOD'S SURROUNDING PRESENCE

A song of the stairway

- ¹Those who trust in the Lord are as unshakeable, as unmovable, as Mighty Mount Zion!
- ²Just as the mountains surround Jerusalem,
so the Lord's wrap-around presence^a surrounds his people, protecting them now and forever.
- ³The wicked will not always rule over the godly, provoking them to do what is evil.
- ⁴God, let your goodness be given away to your good people,
to all your godly lovers!
- ⁵But those who turn away from truth,
you will turn them away from you, to follow their crooked ways.
You will give them just what they deserve.^b
May Israel experience peace and prosperity!

^a 125:2 Implied in the text.

^b 125:5 Implied in the text.

Psalm 126

RESTORED

A song of the stairway

- ¹It was like a dream come true when you freed us from our bondage and brought us back to Zion!
- ²We laughed and laughed, and overflowed with gladness!
 We were left shouting for joy and singing your praise.
 All the nations saw it and joined in, saying,
 “The Lord has done great miracles for them!”
- ³Yes, he did mighty miracles and we are overjoyed!
- ⁴Now, Lord, do it again! Restore us to our former glory!^a May streams of your refreshing flow over us until our dry hearts are drenched again.
- ⁵Those who sow their tears as seeds^b will reap a harvest with joyful shouts of glee.
- ⁶They may weep as they go out carrying their seed to sow, but they will return with joyful laughter and shouting with gladness as they bring back armloads of blessing and a harvest overflowing!

^a 126:4 Implied in the text.

^b 126:5 Or “sow their seeds with tears.” A sower weeps when he sows his precious seed while his children are hungry. This is a picture of sacrificing what little we have for the harvest to come.

Psalm 127

GOD AND HIS GIFTS

A song of the stairway by King Solomon

- ¹If God's grace doesn't help the builders,
they will labor in vain to build a house.
If God's mercy doesn't protect the city,
all the sentries will circle it in vain!
- ²It really is senseless to work so hard from early morning till late at night, toiling to make a living for fear of not having enough.
God can provide for his lovers, even while they sleep!
- ³Children are God's love-gift; they are heaven's generous reward.
- ⁴Children born to a young couple will one day rise to protect and provide for their parents.^a
- ⁵Happy will be the couple who has many of them!
A household full of children will not bring shame on your name but victory when you face your enemies, for your kids will have influence and honor^b to prevail on your behalf!

^a 127:4 The Hebrew text refers to children as "arrows in the hands of a warrior." This means that children will be our future protection and provision. The more the merrier!

^b 127:5 The Hebrew includes a reference to "speaking with your enemies at the gate." This is in the context of children being God's way of blessing parents in their old age.

Psalm 128

THE BLESSINGS OF THE LORD

A song of the stairway

- ¹How joyous are those who love the Lord and bow low before God, Ready to obey him!
- ²Your reward will be prosperity, happiness, and well-being.
- ³Your wife will bless your heart and home.
Your children will bring you joy as they gather around your table.
- ⁴Yes, this is God's generous reward for those who love him.
- ⁵May the Lord bless you out of his Zion-glory!
May you see the prosperity of Jerusalem throughout your lifetime.
- ⁶And may you be surrounded by your grandchildren.
Happiness to you! And happiness to Israel!

Psalm 129

PERSECUTED
BUT NOT DEFEATED

A song of the stairway

¹Let all Israel admit it.

From our very beginning we have been persecuted by the nations.

²And from our very beginning,

we have faced never-ending discrimination.

Nevertheless, our enemies have not defeated us. We're still here!

³They have hurt us more than can be expressed, ripping us to shreds, cutting deeply into our souls.

⁴But no matter what, the Lord is good to us.

He is a righteous God who stood to defend us, breaking the chains of the evil ones that bound us!

⁵May all who hate the Jews fall back in disgrace to a shameful defeat!

⁶Let them be like grass planted in shallow soil that soon withers with no sustenance.

⁷Let them be like weeds ignored by the reaper and worthless to the harvester.

⁸Let no one who sees them say,

"May the blessings of Jehovah be upon your life.

May the Lord bless you."^a

^a 129:8 In the Jewish culture, if you passed by one who was harvesting his crops, you would shout out: "The Lord bless you!"

Psalm 130

OUT OF THE DEPTHS

A song of the stairway

- ¹Lord, I cry out to you out of the depths of my despair!
- ²Hear my voice, O God!
 Answer this prayer and hear my plea for mercy.
- ³Lord, if you measured us and marked us with our sins,
 who would ever have their prayers answered?
- ⁴But your forgiving love is what makes you so wonderful.
 No wonder you are loved and worshiped!
- ⁵This is why I wait upon you, expecting your breakthrough, for your word brings me hope.
- ⁶I long for you more than any watchman would long for the morning light.
 I will watch and wait for you, O God, throughout the night.
- ⁷O Israel, keep hoping, keep trusting,
 and keep waiting on the Lord;
 for he is tenderhearted, kind, and forgiving.
 He has a thousand ways to set you free!
- ⁸He himself will redeem you;
 he will ransom you from the cruel slavery of your sins!

Psalm 131

MY HEART IS MEEK

A song of the stairway by King David

¹Lord, my heart is meek before you.

I don't consider myself better than others.

I'm content to not pursue matters that are over my head—such as your complex mysteries and wonders—that I'm not yet ready to understand.

²I am humbled and quieted in your presence.

Like a contented child that rests on its mother's lap,^a
I'm your resting child and my soul is content in you.

³O people of God,^b your time has come to quietly trust, waiting upon the Lord now and forever.

^a 131:2 "Like a contented child" is literally "like a weaned child."

^b 131:3 Or "O Israel."

Psalm 132

DAVID'S DYNASTY

A song of the stairway

- ¹Lord, please don't forget all the hardships
David had to pass through.
- ²And how he promised you, Jacob's mighty God, saying, ³"I will not cross the threshold of my own home to sleep in my own bed.
⁴I will not sleep or slumber,
nor even take time to close my eyes in rest, ⁵Until I find a place for you to dwell, O mighty God of Jacob.
I devote myself to finding a resting place for you!"^a
- ⁶First we heard that the ark was at Bethlehem.^b
Then we found it in the forest of Kiriath-Jearim.
- ⁷Let's go into God's dwelling place and bow down and worship before him.
- ⁸Arise, O Lord, and enter your resting place,
both you and the ark of your glorious strength!
- ⁹May your priests wear the robes of righteousness, and let all your godly lovers sing for joy!
- ¹⁰Don't forsake your anointed king now,
but honor your servant David!

a 132:5 Historically, this refers to David wanting to bring the ark of glory back to Jerusalem.

b 132:6 Although the Hebrew text does not have the words "ark" but simply "it," the translator supplies the word ark from its reference in verse 8. For the sake of understanding the text, the translator has substituted Ephrathah for Bethlehem (Ephrathah was the ancient name for Bethlehem) and Jaar for Kiriath-Jearim. (The fields of Jaar was a variant form for Kiriath-Jearim, which means, the city of forests.)

- ¹¹For you gave your word and promised David in an unbreakable oath that one of his sons would be sitting on the throne to succeed him as king.
- ¹²And you also promised that if David's sons would be faithful to keep their promise to follow you, obeying the words you spoke to them,
then David's dynasty would never end!
- ¹³Lord, you have chosen Zion as your dwelling place,
for your pleasure is fulfilled in making it your home.
- ¹⁴I hear you say, "I will make this place my eternal dwelling, for I have loved and desired it as my very own!"
- ¹⁵I will make Zion prosper and satisfy her poor with my provision.
- ¹⁶I will cover my priests with salvation's power,
and all my godly lovers will shout for joy!
- ¹⁷I will increase the anointing that was upon David, and my glistening glory will rest upon my chosen ones.
- ¹⁸But David's enemies will be covered with shame, while on them I'll make holiness bloom!"^a

^a 132:18 As translated from the Septuagint. The Hebrew reads, "His crown will sparkle and gleam."

Psalm 133

UNITY

A song to bring you higher by King David

- ¹How truly wonderful and delightful, to see brothers and sisters living together in sweet unity!
- ²It's as precious as the sacred scented oil flowing from the head of the high priest, Aaron, dripping down upon his beard and running all the way down to the hem of his priestly robes.^a
- ³This heavenly harmony can be compared to the dew dripping down from the skies upon Mount Hermon, refreshing the mountain slopes of Israel.
For from this realm of sweet harmony
God will release his eternal blessing, the promise of life forever!

^a 133:2 Or "running down the collar of his robe."

Psalm 134

THE NIGHT WATCH

A song to bring you higher

- ¹All his loving priests who serve and sing,
come and sing your song of blessing to God.
Come and stand before him in the house of God
throughout the night watch,
- ²Lifting up your hands in holy worship; come and bless the Lord!
- ³May the Lord, whom you worship,
the mighty Maker of heaven and earth,
may he bless you from Zion's glory!

Psalm 135

HIS WONDERFUL WORKS

A song to bring you higher

- ¹Shout hallelujah and praise the greatness of God!
 All his godly lovers, praise him!
- ²All you worshiping priests on duty in the temple,
³Praise him, for he is beautiful!
 Sing loving praises to his lovely name.
- ⁴For Yahweh has chosen Israel for his own purpose, and we're his special treasure.
- ⁵Next to every other god the greatness of our God is unequalled.
 For our God is incomparable!
- ⁶He does what he pleases with unlimited power and authority, extending his greatness throughout the entire universe!
- ⁷He forms the misty clouds and creates thunder and lightning, bringing the wind and rain out of his heavenly storehouse.
- ⁸He struck down the eldest child in each Egyptian home;
 both men and beast perished that night.
- ⁹He did great miracles—mighty signs and wonders throughout the land before Pharaoh and all his subjects.
- ¹⁰He conquered many nations and killed their mighty kings
- ¹¹Like Sihon, king of the Amorites; also Og, king of Bashan;
 and kings from every kingdom in Canaan.
- ¹²He gave their land to Israel as an inheritance for his people.
- ¹³O Jehovah, your name endures forever!
 Your fame is known in every generation.
- ¹⁴For you will vindicate your persecuted people, showing your tender love to all your servants.

- ¹⁵The unbelieving nations worship what they make.
They worship their wealth and their work.
They idolize what they own and what they do.
- ¹⁶⁻¹⁸Their possessions will never satisfy.
Their lifeless and futile works cannot bring life to them!
Their things can't talk to them or answer their prayers.
Blind men can only create blind things.
Those deaf to God can only make a deaf image.
Dead men can only create dead idols.
And everyone who trusts in these powerless, dead things
will be just like what they worship—powerless and dead!^a
- ¹⁹Praise Lord-Yahweh, all the families of Israel!
Praise Lord-Yahweh, you family of Aaron!^b
- ²⁰Let all the priests^c bless Lord-Yahweh!
Let all His lovers^d who bow low before him praise the Lord-Yahweh!
- ²¹So bless the Lord-Yahweh who lives in Jerusalem and dwells in Zion's glory!
Hallelujah and praise the LORD!

a 135:16-18 Referring to the idols, the Hebrew could be translated, "with mouths, but they cannot speak; with eyes, but they cannot see; with ears, but they cannot hear."

a 135:19 The name Aaron means "light-bringer" or "light-bearer."

c 135:20 Or "All the family of Levi." Levi represents the holy priesthood.

d 135:20 Or "those who fear him."

Psalm 136

HIS SAVING LOVE

¹Let everyone thank God, for he is good, and he is easy to please!

His tender love for us continues on forever!

²Give thanks to God, our King over all gods!

His tender love for us continues on forever!

³Give thanks to the Lord over all lords!

His tender love for us continues on forever!

⁴Give thanks to the only miracle working God!

His tender love for us continues on forever!

⁵Give thanks to the Creator who made the heavens with wisdom!^a

His tender love for us continues on forever!

⁶To him who formed dry ground, raising it up from the sea!

His tender love for us continues on forever!

⁷Praise the One who created every heavenly light!

His tender love for us continues on forever!

⁸He set the sun in the sky to rule over day!

His tender love for us continues on forever!

⁹Praise him who set in place the moon and stars to rule over the night!

His tender love for us continues on forever!

¹⁰Give thanks to God, who struck down the firstborn in Egypt!

His tender love for us continues on forever!

¹¹He brought his people out of Egypt with miracles!

His tender love for us continues on forever!

¹²With his mighty power he brought them out!

His tender love for us continues on forever!

¹³He split open the Red Sea for them!

His tender love for us continues on forever!

^a 136:5 See Psalm 104:24 and Proverbs 8:27-31.

- ¹⁴And led his people right through the middle!
His tender love for us continues on forever!
- ¹⁵He vanquished Pharaoh's armies, drowning them all!
His tender love for us continues on forever!
- ¹⁶He led his people through the wilderness!
His tender love for us continues on forever!
- ¹⁷He's the One who smashed mighty kingdoms!
His tender love for us continues on forever!
- ¹⁸He triumphed over powerful kings who stood in his way!
His tender love for us continues on forever!
- ¹⁹He conquered Sihon, king of the Amorites!
His tender love for us continues on forever!
- ²⁰He conquered the giant named Og, king of Bashan!^a
His tender love for us continues on forever!
- ²¹Then he gave away their lands as an inheritance!
His tender love for us continues on forever!
- ²²For he handed it all over to Israel, his beloved!
His tender love for us continues on forever!
- ²³He's the God who chose us when we were nothing!
His tender love for us continues on forever!
- ²⁴He has rescued us from the power of our enemies!
His tender love for us continues on forever!
- ²⁵He provides food for hungry men and animals!
His tender love for us continues on forever!
- ²⁶Give thanks to the great God of the heavens!
His tender love for us continues on forever!

^a 136:20 The name Og means giant.

Psalm 137

THE SONG OF OUR CAPTIVITY

- ¹Along the banks of Babylon's rivers
we sat as exiles mourning our captivity and wept with great love for Zion.
- ²Our music and mirth were no longer heard, only sadness.^a
We hung up our harps on the willow trees.
- ³Our captors tormented us, saying: "Make music for us and sing one of your happy Zion-songs!"
- ⁴But how could we sing the song of the Lord in this foreign wilderness?
- ⁵May my hands never make music again if I ever forget you, O Jerusalem;
- ⁶May I never be able to sing again if I fail to honor Jerusalem supremely!
- ⁷And Lord, may you never forget what the sons of Edom did to us, saying:
"Let's raze the city of Jerusalem and burn it to the ground!"^b
- ⁸Listen, O Babylon, you evil destroyer!
The one who destroys you will be rewarded above all others!
You will be repaid for what you've done to us.
- ⁹Great honor will come to those who destroy you and your future, by smashing your infants against the rubble of your own destruction.

^a 137:2 Implied in the context.

^b 137:7 The Hebrew text reads, "strip her [Jerusalem] naked!"

Psalm 138

THE DIVINE PRESENCE

by King David

- ¹I thank you, Lord, and with all the passion of my heart
I worship you in the presence of angels!
Heaven's mighty ones will hear my voice
as I sing my loving praise to you!
- ²I bow down before your divine presence and bring you my deepest worship
as I experience your tender love and your living truth.
For the promises of your Word and the fame of your name have been magnified above all else!
- ³At the very moment I called out to you, you answered me!
You strengthened me deep within my soul and breathed fresh courage into me.
- ⁴One day all the kings of the earth will rise to give you thanks when they hear the living words that I have heard you speak.
- ⁵They too will sing of your wonderful ways for your ineffable glory is so great!
- ⁶For though you are lofty and exalted,
you stoop to embrace the lowly.
Yet you keep your distance from those filled with pride.
- ⁷Through your mighty power I can walk through any devastation and you will keep me alive, reviving me.
Your power set me free from the hatred of my enemies.
- ⁸You keep every promise you've ever made to me!
Since your love for me is so constant and endless,
I ask you, Lord, to finish every good thing that you've begun in me!

Psalm 139

YOU KNOW ALL ABOUT ME

*For the Pure and Shining One
King David's poetic song*

- ¹Lord, you know everything there is to know about me.
You've examined my innermost being with your loving gaze.^a
- ²You perceive every movement of my heart and soul, and understand my every thought before it even enters my mind.
- ³⁻⁴You are so intimately aware of me, Lord.
You read my heart like an open book and you know all the words I'm about to speak before I even start a sentence!
You know every step I will take before my journey even begins!
- ⁵You've gone into my future to prepare the way, and in kindness you follow behind me
to spare me from the harm of my past.
With your hand of love upon my life,
you impart a Father's blessing to me.
- ⁶This is just too wonderful, deep, and incomprehensible!
Your understanding of me brings me wonder and strength.^b
- ⁷Where could I go from your Spirit?
Where could I run and hide from your face?
- ⁸If I go up to heaven, you're there!
If I go down to the realm of the dead, you're there too!

^a 139:1 Implied in the context. God has discovered everything about you and is intimately and deeply connected to your life.

^b 139:6 As translated from the Septuagint. The Hebrew reads, "too high to understand."

- ⁹If I fly with wings into the shining dawn, you're there!
If I fly into the radiant sunset, you're there waiting!^a
- ¹⁰Wherever I go, your hand will guide me;
your strength will empower me.
- ¹¹It's impossible to disappear from you or to ask the darkness to hide me;
for your presence is everywhere bringing light into my night!
- ¹²There is no such thing as darkness with you.
The night, to you, is as bright as the day;
there's no difference between the two.
- ¹³You formed my innermost being, shaping my delicate inside and my intricate outside, and wove them all together in my mother's womb.^b
- ¹⁴I thank you, God, for making me so mysteriously complex!
Everything you do is marvelously breathtaking.
It simply amazes me to think about it!
How thoroughly you know me, Lord!
- ¹⁵You even formed every bone in my body when you created me in the secret place;^c carefully, skillfully shaping me^d from nothing to something.
- ¹⁶You saw who you created me to be before I became me!^e
Before I'd ever seen the light of day, the number of days you planned for me were already recorded in your book.^f

^a 139:9 Implied in the Hebrew, which states, "the remote parts of the sea," or beyond the horizon to the west. The sea is west of Israel.

^b 139:13 The Hebrew word for knit, or wove can also be translated "to cover" or "to defend." God places an eternal spirit inside the conceived child within the womb of a mother and covers that life, sends the child a guardian angel, and watches over every child.

^c 139:15 The Hebrew text is literally, "the depths of the earth."

^d 139:15 Or "embroidered me."

^e 139:16 The Hebrew could be translated, "As an embryo."

^f 139:16 See Psalm 69:28.

- ¹⁷⁻¹⁸Every single moment you are thinking of me!
How precious and wonderful to consider that you cherish me constantly in your every thought!
O God, your desires toward me are more than the grains of sand on every shore!
When I awake each morning, you're still thinking of me.
- ¹⁹O God, come and slay these bloodthirsty, murderous men!
For I cry out, "Depart from me, you wicked ones!"
- ²⁰See how they blaspheme your sacred name and lift up themselves against you, but all in vain!
- ²¹Lord, can't you see how I despise those who despise you?
For I grieve when I see them rise up against you.
- ²²I have nothing but complete hatred and disgust for them.
Your enemies shall be my enemies!
- ²³God, I invite your searching gaze into my heart.
Examine me through and through;
find out everything that may be hidden within me.
Put me to the test and sift through all my anxious cares.
- ²⁴See if there is any path of pain I'm walking on,
and lead me back to your glorious, everlasting ways—
the path that brings me back to you.

Psalm 140

A PRAYER FOR PROTECTION

*For the Pure and Shining One
King David's poetic song*

¹Lord, protect me from this evil one!

Rescue me from these violent schemes!

²He concocts his secret strategy to divide and harm others, stirring up trouble one against another.

³They are known for their sharp rhetoric of poisonous, hateful words.

Pause in his presence

⁴Keep me safe, Lord, out of reach from these wicked and violent men, and guard me, God, for they have plotted an evil scheme to ruin me and bring me down.

⁵They are proud and insolent; they've set an ambush for me in secret.
They are determined to snare me in their net like captured prey.

Pause in his presence

⁶⁻⁷O Lord, you are my God and my saving strength!

My Hero-God, you wrap yourself around me to protect me.

For I'm surrounded by your presence in my day of battle.

Lord Yahweh, hear my cry.

May my voice move your heart to show me mercy.

⁸Don't let the wicked triumph over me, but bring down their every strategy to subdue me or they will become even more arrogant!

Pause in his presence

⁹Those who surround me are nothing but proud troublemakers.

May they drink the poison of their own poisonous words.

- ¹⁰⁻¹¹May their slanderous lives never prosper!
 Let evil itself hunt them down and pursue them relentlessly until they are thrown into fiery pits from which they will never get out!
 Let burning coals of hellfire fall upon their heads!
- ¹²For I know, Lord, that you will be the Hero of all those they persecute, and you will secure justice for the poor.
- ¹³Your godly lovers will thank you no matter what happens.
 For they choose and cherish your presence above everything else!

Psalm 141

AN EVENING PRAYER

King David's poetic song

- ¹Please, Lord, come close and come quickly to help me!
 Listen to my prayer as I call out to you!
- ²Let my prayer be as the evening sacrifice that burns like fragrant incense, rising as my offering to you as I lift up my hands in surrendered worship!
- ³God give me grace to guard my lips^a from speaking what is wrong.
- ⁴Guide me away from temptation and doing evil.
 Save me from sinful habits and from keeping company with those who are experts in evil.
 Help me not to share in their sin in any way!

^a 141:3 The Septuagint reads, "set a fortress door before my lips."

- ⁵When one of your godly lovers corrects me or one of your faithful ones rebukes me,
I will accept it like an honor I cannot refuse.
It will be as healing medicine that I swallow without an offended heart.
For even if they are mistaken I will continue to pray.^a
- ⁶When the leaders and judges are condemned, falling upon the rocks of justice,^b then they'll know my words to them were true!
- ⁷So like an earthquake splits open the earth,
so the world of hell will open its mouth to swallow their scattered bones.
- ⁸But you are my Lord and my God; I only have eyes for you!
I hide myself in you, so don't leave me defenseless.
- ⁹Protect me! Keep me from the traps of wickedness they set for me.
- ¹⁰Let them all stumble into their own traps
while I escape without a scratch!

^a 141:5 This is one of most difficult verses to translate, with scholars divided over the meaning of the Hebrew text. Another translation could be, "Don't let the oil of the wicked anoint my head, for I pray continually against their wickedness."

^b 141:6 See 2 Chronicles 25:12.

Psalm 142

MY ONLY HOPE

*King David's poetic song of instruction
A prayer when he was confined in a cave*

- ¹God, I'm crying out to you!
I lift up my voice boldly to beg for your mercy!
- ²I spill out my heart to you and tell you all my troubles.
- ³For when I was desperate, overwhelmed, and about to give up,
you were the only One there to help.
You gave me a way of escape from the hidden traps of my enemies.
- ⁴I look to my left and right to see if there is anyone who will help,
but there's no one who takes notice of me.
I have no hope of escape, and no one cares whether I live or die.
- ⁵So I cried out to you, Lord, my only Hiding Place.
You're all I have, my only hope in this life,
my last chance for help.
- ⁶Please listen to my heart's cry,
for I am so low and in desperate need of you!
Rescue me from all those who persecute me,
for I am no match for them.
- ⁷Bring me out of this dungeon so I can declare your praise!
And all your godly lovers will celebrate all the wonderful things you've done for me!

Psalm 143

MY HUMBLE PRAYER

King David's poetic song when he was chased by Absalom^a

- ¹Lord, you must hear my prayer, for you are faithful to your promises.
Answer my cry, O righteous God!
- ²Don't bring me into your courtroom for judgment,
for there is no one who is righteous before you!
- ³My enemies have chased and caught me and crushed my life into dust.
Now I'm living in the darkness of death's shadow.
- ⁴My inner being is in depression and my heart is heavy, dazed with despair.
- ⁵I remember the glorious miracles of days gone by,
and I often think of all the wonders of old.
- ⁶Now I'm reaching out to you, thirsting for you like the dry, cracked ground thirsts for rain.
- Pause in his presence*
- ⁷Lord, come quickly and answer me,
for my depression deepens and I'm about to give up.
Don't leave me now or I'll die!
- ⁸Let the dawning day bring me revelation of your tender, unfailing love.
Give me light for my path and teach me, for I trust in you!
- ⁹Save me from all my enemies for I hide myself in you.
- ¹⁰I just want to obey all you ask of me;
so teach me, Lord, for you are my God.
Your gracious Spirit is all I need; so lead me on good paths that are pleasing to you, my one and only God!

^a As translated from the Septuagint.

- ¹¹Lord, if you rescue me, it will bring you more glory,
for you are true to your promises.
Bring me out of these troubles!
- ¹²Since I am your loving servant, destroy all those who are trying to harm me.
And because you are so loving and kind to me,
silence all of my enemies!

Psalm 144

RESCUE ME

King David's poetic song as he stood before Goliath^a

- ¹There is only one strong, safe, and secure place for me;
it's in God alone and I love him!
He's the One who gives me strength and skill for the battle.
- ²He's my Shelter of love and my Fortress of faith,
who wraps himself around me as a secure shield.
I hide myself in this One who subdues enemies before me!
- ³Lord, what is it about us that you would even notice us?
Why do you even bother with us?
- ⁴For man is nothing but a faint whisper, a mere breath.
We spend our days like nothing more than a passing shadow.
- ⁵Step down from heaven, Lord, and come down!
Make the mountains melt at your touch.
- ⁶Loose your fiery lightning flashes and scatter your enemies.
Overthrow them with your terrifying judgments.

^a As translated from the Septuagint. Put yourself in David's place as he faced a giant named Goliath. Imagine how he felt as you read through this psalm.

- ⁷Reach down from your heavens and rescue me from this hell, and deliver me from these dark powers.
- ⁸They speak nothing but lies; their words are pure deceit.
Nothing they say can ever be trusted.
- ⁹My God, I will sing you a brand-new song when you give me the victory!^a
The harp inside my heart will make music to you!
- ¹⁰I will sing of you, the One who gives victory to kings—
the One who rescues David, your loving servant from the fatal sword.
- ¹¹Deliver me and save me from these dark powers who speak nothing but lies.
Their words are pure deceit and you can't trust anything they say.
- ¹²Deliver us! Then our homes will be happy.
Our sons will grow up as strong, sturdy men and our daughters with graceful beauty, royally fashioned as for a palace.
- ¹³⁻¹⁴Our barns will be filled to the brim, overflowing with the fruits of our harvest.
Our fields will be full of sheep and cattle,
too many to count,
and our livestock will not miscarry their young.
Our enemies will not invade our land,
and there'll be no breach in our walls.
- ¹⁵What bliss we experience when these blessings fall!
The people who love and serve our God will be happy indeed!

^a 144:9 Implied in the text.

Psalm 145

GOD'S GREATNESS

King David's poetic song of praise

- ¹My heart explodes with praise to you!
 Now and forever my heart bows in worship to you,
 my King and my God!
- ²Every day I will lift up my praise to your name with praises that will last throughout eternity.
- ³Lord, you are great and worthy of the highest praise!
 For there is no end to the discovery of the greatness that surrounds you.
- ⁴Generation after generation will declare more of your greatness and discover more of your glory.^a
- ⁵Your magnificent splendor and the miracles of your majesty are my constant meditation.
- ⁶Your awe-inspiring acts of power have everyone talking!
 I'm telling people everywhere about your excellent greatness!
- ⁷Our hearts bubble over as we celebrate the fame of your marvelous beauty, bringing bliss to our hearts.^b
 We shout with ecstatic joy over your breakthrough for us.
- ⁸You're so kind and tenderhearted to those who don't deserve it
 and so very patient with people who fail you.
 Your love is like a flooding river overflowing its banks with kindness.
- ⁹God, everyone sees your goodness, for your tender love is blended into everything you do.
- ¹⁰Everything you have made will praise you, fulfilling its purpose.
 And all your godly lovers will be found bowing before you!

^a 145:4 Implied in the text.

^b 145:7 Implied in the text.

- ¹¹They will tell the world of the lavish splendor of your kingdom and preach about your limitless power.
- ¹²They will demonstrate for all to see your miracles of might and reveal the glorious majesty of your kingdom.
- ¹³You are the Lord that reigns over your never-ending kingdom through all the ages of time and eternity!
You are faithful to fulfill every promise you've made.
You manifest yourself as Kindness in all you do!^a
- ¹⁴Weak and feeble ones you will sustain.
Those bent over with burdens of shame you will lift up.
- ¹⁵You have captured our attention and the eyes of all look to you.
You give what they hunger for at just the right time!
- ¹⁶When you open your generous hand, it's full of blessings, satisfying the longings of every living thing.
- ¹⁷You are fair and righteous in everything you do,
and your love is wrapped into all your works.
- ¹⁸You draw near to those who call out to you, listening ever closely, especially when their hearts are true.
- ¹⁹Every one of your godly lovers receives even more than what they ask for.
For you hear what their hearts really long for and you bring them your saving strength!
- ²⁰God, you watch carefully over all your lovers like a bodyguard, but you will destroy the ungodly.
- ²¹I will praise you, Lord!
Let everyone everywhere join me in praising the beautiful Lord of holiness from now through eternity!

^a 145:13 The last two lines of this verse are only found in one reliable Hebrew manuscript and in the Septuagint. It could also be translated, "all your works are very holy."

Psalm 146

OUR TRUE HELP

A poetic psalm by Haggai and Zechariah^a ¹Hallelujah! Praise the Lord!

My innermost being will praise you, Lord!

²I will spend my life praising you and singing high praises to you, my God, every day of my life!

³⁻⁴We can never look to men for help;

no matter who they are they can't save us,

for even our great leaders fail and fall!

They too are just mortals who will one day die.

At death the spirits of all depart and their bodies return to dust.

In the day of their death all their projects and plans are over.

⁵But those who hope in the Lord will be happy and pleased!

Our help comes from the God of Jacob!

⁶You keep all your promises.

You are the Creator of heaven's glory,

earth's grandeur, and ocean's greatness.

⁷The oppressed get justice with you.

The hungry are satisfied with you.

Prisoners find their freedom with you.

⁸You open the eyes of the blind and you fully restore those bent over with shame.

You love those who love and honor you.

⁹You watch over strangers and immigrants and support the fatherless and widows.

But you subvert the plans of the ungodly.

^a As translated from the Septuagint. Psalms 146–150 are called “Hallelujah Psalms” because they all begin in Hebrew with the words “Hallelujah, praise the Lord.”

¹⁰Lord, you will reign forever!
Zion's God will rule throughout time and eternity!
Hallelujah! Praise the Lord!

Psalm 147

OUR AMAZING GOD

¹Hallelujah! Praise the Lord!
How beautiful it is when we sing our praises to the beautiful God;
for praise makes you lovely before him and brings him great delight!

²The Lord builds up Jerusalem;
he gathers up the outcasts and brings them home!

³He heals the wounds of every shattered heart.

⁴He sets all his stars in place, calling them all by their names.

⁵How great is our God!
There's absolutely nothing his power cannot accomplish and he has infinite understanding of everything.

⁶God supports and strengthens the humble,
but the ungodly will be brought down to the dust.

⁷Sing out with songs of thanksgiving to the Lord!
Let's sing our praises with melodies overflowing!

⁸He fills the sky with clouds, sending showers to water the earth so that the grass springs up on the mountain fields and the earth produces food for man.^a ⁹All the birds and beasts who cry with hunger to him are fed from his hands.

^a 147:8 As translated from the Septuagint.

- ¹⁰His people don't find security in strong horses,^a for horsepower is nothing to him.
Man power is even less impressive!
- ¹¹The Lord shows favor to those who fear him,
to his godly lovers who wait for his tender embrace.
- ¹²Jerusalem, praise the Lord! Zion, worship your God!
- ¹³For he has strengthened the authority of your gates.
He even blesses you with more children.
- ¹⁴He's the One who brings peace to your borders, feeding you the most excellent of fare.
- ¹⁵He sends out his orders throughout the world;
his words run as swift messengers bringing them to pass.
- ¹⁶He blankets the earth with glistening snow, painting the landscape with frost.
- ¹⁷Sleet and hail fall from the sky causing waters to freeze before winter's icy blast.
- ¹⁸Then he speaks his word and it all melts away;
as the warm spring winds blow, the streams begin to flow.
- ¹⁹In the same way, he speaks to his people and to Israel, bringing them his life-giving words.
- ²⁰He has dealt with Israel differently than with any other people, for they have received his laws.
Hallelujah! Praise the Lord!

^a 147:10 Implied in the text.

Psalm 148

THE COSMIC CHORUS OF PRAISE

- ¹Hallelujah! Praise the Lord! Let the skies be filled with praise and the highest heavens with the shouts of glory!
- ²Go ahead—praise him, all you his messengers!
Praise him some more, all you heavenly hosts!
- ³Keep it up—sun and moon!
Don't stop now, all you twinkling stars of light!
- ⁴Take it up even higher—up to the highest heavens until the cosmic chorus thunders his praise!^a
- ⁵Let the entire universe erupt with praise to God.
From nothing to something he spoke and created it all.
- ⁶He established the cosmos to last forever, and he stands behind his commands
so his orders will never be revoked.
- ⁷Let the earth join in with this parade of praise!
You mighty creatures of the ocean's depths, echo in exaltation!
- ⁸Lightning, hail, snow, and clouds,
and the stormy winds that fulfill his word.
- ⁹Bring your melody, O mountains and hills;
trees of the forest and field, harmonize your praise!
- ¹⁰⁻¹²Praise him all beasts and birds, mice and men,
kings, queens, princes, and princesses,
young men and maidens, children and babes,
old and young alike, everyone everywhere!
- ¹³Let them all join in with this orchestra of praise.

^a 148:4 Poetic implication in the text. The literal Hebrew reads, "the waters above the sky."

For the name of the Lord is the only name we raise!
 His stunning splendor ascends higher than the heavens.
¹⁴He anoints his people with strength and authority, showing his great favor to all his godly lovers,
 even to his princely people, Israel,
 who are so close to his heart.
 Hallelujah! Praise the Lord!

Psalm 149

TRIUMPHANT PRAISE

¹Hallelujah! Praise the Lord!
 It's time to sing to God a brand-new song^a so that all his holy people will then hear how wonderful he is!
²May Israel be enthused with joy all because of him, and may the sons of Zion pour out their joyful praises to their King.
³Break forth with dancing!
 Make music and sing God's praises with the rhythm of drums!
⁴For he enjoys his faithful lovers.
 He adorns the humble with his beauty and he loves to give them the victory.
⁵His godly lovers triumph in the glory of God,
 and their joyful praises will rise even while others sleep.
⁶God's high and holy praises fill their mouths,
 for their shouted praises are their weapons of war!
⁷These warring weapons will bring vengeance on every opposing force and every resistant power—

^a 149:1 Or "a spontaneous song."

⁸To bind kings with chains and rulers with iron shackles.
⁹Praise-filled warriors will enforce the judgment-doom decreed against their enemies.
This is the glorious honor he gives to all his godly lovers.
Hallelujah! Praise the Lord!

Psalm 150

THE HALLELUJAH CHORUS

¹Hallelujah! Praise the Lord! Praise God in his holy sanctuary!
Praise him in his stronghold in the sky!
²Praise him for his miracles of might!
Praise him for his magnificent greatness!
³Praise him with the trumpets blasting!
Praise him with piano and guitar!
⁴⁻⁵Praise him with drums and dancing!
Praise him with the loud, resounding clash of cymbals!
Praise him with every instrument you can find!
⁶Let everyone everywhere join in the crescendo of ecstatic praise to Yahweh!
Hallelujah! Praise the Lord!

About the Translator

Dr. Brian Simmons is known as a passionate lover of God. After a dramatic conversion to Christ, Brian knew that God was calling him to go to the unreached people of the world and present the gospel of God's grace to all who would listen. With his wife Candice and their three children, he spent nearly eight years in the tropical rain forest of the Darien Province of Panama as a church planter, translator, and consultant. Brian was involved in the Paya-Kuna New Testament translation project. He studied linguistics and Bible translation principles with New Tribes Mission. After their ministry in the jungle, Brian was instrumental in planting a thriving church in New England (U.S.), and now travels full time as a speaker and Bible teacher. He has been happily married to Candice for over forty-two years and is known to boast regularly of his children and grandchildren. Brian and Candice may be contacted at:
