OVER THE EDITOR'S DESK

We begin a new year of publishing with renewed energy and innovative plans for the production of this quarterly magazine. Most of our invigoration comes from the very nice compliments many of you have sent with your renewal subscription. This is a "first" for us, but I really want to quote a very clever and complimentary post script. "If AN were published the 12 months out of each year, I would probably pace the floor for 30 days each month, wear out the sidewalk to the mailbox, and live on peanut butter as I sat blissfully curled up with AN -- impatiently awaiting the next issue." Thank you, Kathryn Henneberg, and we wish you were here to help us put it out. We know we are very late with the winter issue, and we apologize. We ask our subscribers to remember that we are all volunteers, our families all think they should come first, the index cannot be compiled until the last issue is in final form, and the holidays come right at the time you should be receiving the winter issue. But we're trying!

Beginning in this issue you will find a superb contribution from Harold R. Wallace of the Anderson County, Tennessee Wallaces. He has so thoroughly searched in White County, Tennessee for his own family that he feels he knows the whole community of that time. He has used the 1860 census as a basis (and reading that film is a true labor of love) and added facts from marriage records, military records, other publications and census records. He also very generously offers to correspond with anyone interested in these families. How very fortunate are persons searching White County! We all thank you, Mr. Wallace.

Pennington family members will also want to thank Mr. James F. Perkins. He has written us about The Pennington Research Association, a group of amateurs who have gathered and printed data on this family for 12 years. He says, "If you list your detailed lineage for our files, we will attempt to help you free. Membership is $12.00 for 1981. You will receive two books of 60 pages plus, and 2 newsletters. Membership is not necessary." Mr. Perkins is Research Chairman, and his address is: 3660 Rue Foret #186, Flint, Michigan 48504.

Sherrell Buchanan, 4300 So. 22nd, Ft. Smith, AR 72901, has sent us several copies of her "Randolph Newsletter", which contains news and genealogical information on the family of Randolph. This material has been placed in our family vertical file for use by our members. She indicates that the next Randolph Reunion will be held in White Co., Tennessee in 1981. Write to her for dates and other details.

BIBLE RECORDS, BARBOUR COUNTY, ALABAMA, Volumes I and II compiled by Helen S. Foley. 1976. Soft Back. 79 pp and 83 pp. Indexed. Order from Southern Historical Press, P. O. Box 738, Easley, SC 29640. Each Volume, $10.00.

The bible records in this collection were gathered from citizens principally of Barbour County, Alabama. With the exception of a very small number, they pertain to families who are living or who once lived in that county or surrounding counties. Persons still living there have allowed their records to be published in hopes it might help someone looking for information on their forefathers. These two small volumes are nicely printed and bound and contain a few dates from the mid-18th century. Most of the dates span the 18th century with a few extending into the 20th century. Here are vital statistics which are not easily obtained elsewhere. EWG.

BORRER - Descendants of Elijah Borrer and Celie Williams Borrer and Their Related Families, by William O. Hallmark. 1979. Hard back. 92 pp. Indexed. Order from the author, 527 Caravaca Dr., Garland, TX 75043. $11.50.

This Borrer history features the Borrer, Neely, Williams, Gitchell, Green, Burns, and Lackey families and is the first book written about Borrer descendants. Many spellings of the name Borrer exist, and so it has been difficult to research the family origins. Elijah Borrer was born in Germany in 1802 and came to America about 1814. The book traces the Borrer family from Illinois to Arkansas and on to Texas. Included are obituaries, census records, tax rolls, marriage records, wills, lineage charts and photographs. EWG.

THE ASA JOINER FAMILY OF MITCHELL COUNTY, GEORGIA by A. H. Clark. 1967. Hard back. 381 pp. Indexed. Order from author, P.O. Box 401, Waycross, GA 31501. $12.00.

Mr. Clark presents an authentic record of births, deaths and marriages of the descendants of Alfred Jefferson Joiner, oldest son of Asa Joiner, and a short history of the Joiner family and related lines. There is also a chapter on the Joiner family of North Carolina and Georgia. Some other surnames mentioned are: Hilliard, Bullard, Fowler, Clark, Fitzgerald and Collins. There are photographs, deeds, bible and marriage records included in the volume, as well as many entertaining accounts of the Joiner family that add to the enjoyment of the book. EWG.

ABSTRACTS OF WILLS AND ESTATES, O. C. R. Books V and VI 1852-1856, Vol. III Barbour County, Alabama compiled by Helen S. Foley. 1976. Soft back. 119 pp. Indexed. Order from Southern Historical Press, P.O. Box 738, Easley, SC 29640. $12.50.

Barbour County, Alabama was formed in 1832 from the Creek Cession of 1812 and from parts of Henry and Pike counties. The abstracts herein were taken from Orphans Court Records in the county probate office. The administrators of estates and guardians of minors were required to present a yearly report in court. These reports include names of decedents and persons appearing in court, administrators, guardians, witnesses and heirs. The names of decedents or minors arranged alphabetically by book, followed by page numbers, type of action, persons appearing in court and names of heirs when given. The names of administrators, guardians, witnesses and heirs are indexed in the back of the book. Estates that did not reach a final settlement in these volumes are continued in later O. R. C. Books. CITE YOUR SOURCES, A MANUAL FOR DOCUMENTING FAMILY HISTORIES AND GENEALOGICAL RECORDS by Richard S. Lackey. 1980. Soft back. 94 pp. Indexed. Order from Polyanthos, Inc., Drawer 51359, New Orleans, LA 70151. $5.00 plus $1.00 for postage and handling.

This little volume seeks to give genealogy a much needed tool for editing, compiling and formulating research notes. The author who has written and lectured extensively wants us to document our research and shows how! This is the only manual designed with the particular needs of genealogists in mind. The book was written in response to the urgings of students, colleagues, editors, librarians and archivists. Among the sections of interest are citing unpublished records, tax lists, family bible records, letters, courthouse records, cemetery records, oral interviews and vital records. This manual should encourage serious studies in family history and add to accuracy in genealogical research and writing. Every serious genealogist should own a copy of this much needed book. EWG.

THE TYREE TREE WITH ANGLE, BYRD, COOK, DILLION AND WOODY BRANCHES by Dorothy Chambers Watts. 302 pp. 1978. Hard back. Indexed. Order from author, 6411 Avenida La Costa, NE, Albuquerque, NM 87109. $21.00 postpaid.

Written principally for the descendants of John Claiborne Tyree, Revolutionary War soldier and his wife, Hannah (Clay) Tyree, the book also contains the Angle, Byrd, Cook, Dillion and Woody branches "of the tree". About 500 family groups are sketched, some briefly, others at length. There is also a section of several branches of the Tyree family not found to be connected with the main Tyree tree. The family history starts with John Claiborne Tyree born 30 May 1763 in Virginia and carries the family to the eighth generation. The index contains some 5000 entries giving many, many other surnames and there are two papers written by Carl Tyree Felker, describing visits to Scotland in search of his ancestors. EWG.

OBITUARIES FROM BARBOUR COUNTY, ALABAMA NEWSPAPERS 1890-1905 compiled by Helen S. Foley. 1976. Soft back. 145 pp. Indexed. Order from Southern Historical Press, P. O. Box 738, Easley, SC 29640. $15.00.

These obituaries are taken principally from the Eufaula Times & News but also include the Clayton Courier, Clayton Record and the Barbour Journal. An example of the information is "Mr. Hugh McLean, age 73, died at his home Thursday in Beat Ten. He was a pioneer citizen born in Scotland who emigrated early in life to the US." Another states that "Mr. W. B. Lee, living on the Farrier farm near Clayton, was killed Friday when the mule he was driving was frightened at a bicycle." Other information that can be gleaned from these obituaries are occupations, children, spouse and many more genealogical items. EWG.

CAMPBELL COUNTY, GEORGIA CONFEDERATE PENSION ROLLS 1890-1928. Abstracted and compiled by Nancy Jones Cornell. 1980. Soft backs. 68 pp. Indexed. Order from Nancy Jones Cornell, 1661 Lauranceae Way, Riverdale, GA 30296. $6.00 (Georgia residents include 3% sales tax.)

Campbell County was formed from Carroll and Coweta Counties in 1828. It was merged with Fulton County in 1932. The city of Atlanta encompasses most of Fulton County today. The book is a record of pension payments made to Confederate veterans and widows of Confederate veterans living in Campbell County 1890-1928. The information was taken from microfilm and there are 621 name entries which include 275 family names. Most of these veterans were Georgians, many served in units from Alabama, South Carolina and Tennessee. Many served in the Georgia reserves or Georgia State Troops for which there are few available military records. HLB.

ST. CHARLES COUNTY MISSOURI TERRITORY ENUMERATION FOR 1817 AND 1819 by Melvin B. Goe Sr. 1980. Soft back. 63 pp. Indexed. Order from Cook-McDowell Publications, 719 E. 6th St., Owensboro, KY 42301. $8.75 pp. (KY residents add 5%.)

Often the only clue a family researcher has as to where some elusive ancestor lived is to be found in the early census records. With the loss of the 1810 and 1820 U.S. Census for St. Charles County, the 1817 and 1819 Enumeration becomes very important. This transcription was made from a photostatic copy of the original. The copy is on file in the Library of the State Historical Society of Missouri, Columbia. The book consists of an "enumeration of the free white male inhabitants", which includes many unmarried males of age 18 and up who would not be found in the early census. Mr. Goe has included some marriage & cemetery records on certain families and early maps which show the extent of the counties in 1817 and 1819. EWG.

MARRIAGES AND EARLY CONSENTS 1799-1880 OHIO COUNTY, KENTUCKY by Bettie A. and Michael L. Cook. 1980. 135 pp. Indexed. Order from Cook-McDowell Publications, 719 E. 6th St., Owensboro, KY 42301. $13.00 Softbound, $19.00 Hardbound. (KY residents add 5%.)

A valuable addition to this book of marriage records of Ohio County, KY are the Consents as abstracted and contributed by Bettie Cook from Files 1-3 covering the years 1799-1817. These files consist of small, often wrinkled and tattered slips of paper which have in recent years been preserved by laminated plastic. Their information has been added to the marriage records taken from the Index Volumes of the County Clerk's Office, and for approximately the first forty years of the marriages, bondsmen and officiating person have also been added. It is believed that this compilation will present the most complete and accurate collection available for this county.

DEAR MRS. CLINE by Inez E. Cline. 1980. Soft back. 465 pp. Indexed. Order from Cook-McDowell Publications, 719 E. 6th St., Owensboro, KY 42301. $28.75. (KY residents add 5%.)

"Dear Mrs. Cline" consists of genealogical newspaper columns from the Hot Springs (AR) News 1968-1979, and very interesting are they indeed. In spite of the index you find yourself reading page by page; the material is fascinating. The columnist answers questions from all over the United States giving much family history, sources used and recommendations for further research. Anyone with ancestors in Arkansas will find this volume useful. Mrs. Cline welcomes questions on local history addressed to the Hot Springs News, P. O. Box 1327, Hot Springs, AR 71901. EWG.

THE GOODSPEED BIOGRAPHICAL AND HISTORICAL MEMOIRS OF CENTRAL ARKANSAS Goodspeed Publishing Co. 1889. Index added 1978. Hard back. 811 pp. Order from The Southern Historical Press, P. O. Box 738, Easley, SC 29640. $30.00.

This volume begins with a condensed history of the state, and continues with biographical sketches of prominent citizens living there in 1889. The following central Arkansas counties are included: Jefferson, Saline, Hot Springs, Pulaski, Garland, Lonoke, Perry, Faulkner and Grant. The personal sketches were submitted by the subjects themselves thus giving an intimate flavor to the biographies. The index is extensive and helpful in placing many names of early central Arkansas residents. ELeD.

1833 CENSUS FOR BARBOUR COUNTY, ALABAMA. 1976. Soft back. 66 pp. Indexed. $ 9.00
U.S. CENSUS OF 1850 FOR BARBOUR COUNTY, ALABAMA. 1976. Soft back. 175 pp. $15.00
U.S. CENSUS OF 1860 FOR BARBOUR COUNTY, ALABAMA. 1976. Soft back. 223 pp. $15.00
Copied by Helen S. Foley. Order from Southern Historical Press, P.O. Box 738, Easley, SC 29640

The 1833 census record is a state census obtained from Alabama History and Archives. It is the first census for Barbour County, which was formed in 1832 from the Creek Cession of 1812 and parts of Henry and Pike Counties. There is a page of notes giving some additional genealogical information about early residents. In the U.S. census of 1850 the heads of the households are arranged alphabetically. The value of their property, age sex and birthplace are given. Any member of a group with a different surname will be found in the household listing and also in the alphabetical listing. The U.S. census of 1860 has the same alphabetical listing of the heads of households and those with differing surnames. The print in all three books is clear and easy to read, in contrast to some of the microfilm from which it was read. The compiler has added helpful cross-references and some additional information in each book. If you have family in Southeast Alabama, these census records are a good place to research. ELeD

THE JOHNSONS AND JOHNSTONS OF CORROWAUGH IN ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY, VIRGINIA - Vol. 1
 Robert Johnson, Planter, His Ancestry and Descendants 1616-1979 by Eddis Johnson and Hugh B. Johnston. 1979. Hard back. 729 pp. Indexed. Order from Eddis Johnson, 840 East Columbus St., Martinsville, IN 46151 $24.00

This is a large and very thoroughly researched book with many documented Quaker lines. Many of Robert Johnson's descendants still live in Isle of Wight or some neighboring county, but many others moved into North Carolina, and from there some migrated to the midwest in the early 1800s. Twelve generations of Johnsons are outlined here. In order to distinguish his descendants from many unrelated Johnsons with the same first names and living in the same general area, Robert and his descendants are called the "Corrowaugh Johnsons" because they lived near the great swamp of that name. This interesting history is enriched with maps, photographs, documents and a master tracer table.

EARLY ADVENTURES ON THE WESTERN WATERS, Vol. I by Mary B. Kegley & F.B. Kegley. 1980. Hard Back. 440 pp. Indexed. Order from Kegley Books, 4400 Park Ave., Richmond, VA 23221 $26.25 VA residents add $1.00 tax.

The broad scope of this book and the scholarly inclusion of original records and private papers show all aspects of the development and early life of southwestern Virginia. The main purpose of the book is to name specifically the intrepid adventurers who discovered and developed the area along the "western waters", the westward-flowing New Holston and Clinch Rivers. There are 48 family sketches for the Blacksburg/Christianburg areas of Montgomery Co. and 24 for the Radford/Dunkard bottom area of Montgomery & Pulaski Counties. There are thousands of other names and connecting families, as well as military, land, pension records, wills & others. The book is a fascinating story of one of the major migration pathways and of the thousands of early adventurers who passed that way. - ELD

THE BERRYHILL FAMILY IN AMERICA compiled by Virginia Thompson Brittain. 1968. 285 pp. Loose leaf. Order from Wanda James, 3225 Tena Ruth Cove, Memphis, TN 38118 $20.00

This Book begins with Berryhills in America as early as 1661. The family is traced from PA to NC, GA, AL and after the Civil War to almost every state. The book is not indexed, but it does have a very good Table of Contents. The family history is divided into four chapters, the first of which deals with William Berryhill born 1780/81 in GA. Alexander Berryhill, Rev. Sol. born ca 1760 in Mecklenburg Co. NC, is the subject of chapter two. Both William and Alexander moved to Marion Co., AL. Chapter three deals with William Berryhill born 1791 in GA and Thomas Berryhill born 22 Jan 1802 in NC. Many records and photographs document the genealogy. - EDS

LAWRENCE COUNTY, TENNESSEE MARRIAGE RECORDS, 1818-1923 compiled by Mrs. Claude A. Carter. 1979. Soft cover. 285 pp. Indexed. Order from the compiler, 221 Admiral Circle, Lawrenceburg, TN 38464 $15.00

This book of marriage records is divided into two sections. The first is a listing of marriages from 1818 to 1838 which were not recorded in the marriage books of Lawrence County, but were copied from the original bonds and licenses. This list was checked against a similar list made by Mr. John F. Morrison, Jr. "several years ago", and corrections and additions were made. Marriages from 1838 to 1923, the second section of this book, are recorded at the court house in the office of the County Court Clerk. The alphabetical listing of grooms in this book is supplemented by any other genealogical facts that are available from the records. - ELD

THE WILKES COUNTY PAPERS 1778-1888 compiled by Robert Scott Davis Jr. 1979. Hard back. 338 pp. Indexed. Order from Southern Historical Press, P. O. Box 738, Easley, SC 29640 $30.00

These papers consist of genealogical information found in collections of loose court, estate, land, military, and other records of the Ceded Lands and Wilkes County, GA from 1773 to 1833 with a few additional papers from earlier and later periods. In 1773 over 1 1/2 million acres of land on the frontier of colonial Georgia were ceded by the Cherokee and Creek Indians to the British government. It was first called the Ceded Lands and later Wilkes County, GA. Thousands of families moved there immediately after the American Revolution: by 1790 roughly one third of Georgia's population was there. Counties later derived from Wilkes are Elbert, Oglethorpe, Warren, Lincoln, Madison, Taliaferro, Hart, and McDuffie. - EWG

ABSTRACTS OF BEDFORD COUNTY, VIRGINIA WILL BOOK 2 With Inventories and Accounts, 1788-1803 by Joida Whitten. 1980. Indexed. 129 pp. Order from Miss Whitten, 5314 Emerson, Dallas, TX 75209 $12.00 (TX residents add .60 sales tax.)

The searcher in VA will find these abstracted wills very helpful. All names, places and dates in Will Book 2 have been included because, as the author states, a single passing reference may have been an early resident's only claim to recorded history. Extra effort has been put into composing the index, which includes cross reference to the names of married women whenever possible. Any clue to a person's religious preference is preserved, such as the phrase "affirmed by", rather than "sworn to" when referring to a Quaker. The detailed work of Miss Whitten is to be commended.

THE FAMILIES OF WHITE COUNTY, TENNESSEE IN 1860
 Contributed by Harold R. Wallace
 6110 East Fifth St. Apt. 215, Tucson, AZ 85711

This work is based on the 1860 federal census as enumerated by Thomas Pope with copious notations of wives' maiden names, marriage dates, birth dates, Confederate pensions etc. searched out of various sources. The listings are as follows:

Dwelling number-Family number, names, ages, places of birth, and occupation when listed. Where no place of birth is listed in this transcription, the state listed for the preceding individual applies; thus: Family 3 W.R. Stewart 53 KY, silversmith, Rebecca 40 VA, Jane 25 TN, Louisa 16, Thomas 14, Lycurgus 12. The last four children were all born in Tennessee.

Other than such as Sarah, Nancy, Jesse and a few other obvious names for which the enumerator had his own favorite spellings, the spelling on the original census sheets has been followed faithfully - as far as legibility of the film could guarantee.

All requests for further information about any family will be answered.

JOHN K. CAMPBELL's BIBLE - Where is the original? Information from Edward E. Campbell, 2107 West Club Rd., Duncan, OK 73533

JOHN K. CAMPBELL died 6 Aug 1836, and nearly a hundred years later his tombstone, and that of his wife, were in a graveyard of Palestine M.E. Church about 8 miles from Paris, TN. A copy of the contents of his Bible was sent to Clyde Campbell, then of San Antonio, TX by John K. Campbell of Jackson, TN in 1935, the latter being a great-grandson of the original owner. At that time it was in the possession of Miss Looney Campbell who died in 1943, leaving two married sisters, Amanda Dinwiddie and Maggie Bell Breedlove, and a brother, Burnie Hairson Campbell. The present day Mr. Campbell has found these Bible records to be consistent with marriage and cemetery records of Williamson and Henry Counties, TN. They are as follows:

WALTERS paid $10.99 tax on 130 acres originally granted to THOMASON and 17 acres originally granted to RULL(?). In one place William Walters was identified as "(son of Abraham)". There is a War Tax Receipt which says "Received of M.F. Stone five dollars in Confederate Treasury Notes, being the full amount of War Tax due by him for the year 1861." It is dated 7 May 1862 and signed by Wm. S. McMurray, Collector District No. 10. What is the connection between this Stone and the second wife of W.W. Walters? ATKINS LINEAGE - Information from Mrs. H. C. Knapp, Box 395, Panhandle, TX 79068

The Revolutionary soldier from North Carolina, JOHN ATKINS, had ten children: 1. JOHN born 1782 married SUSANN WARDLOW; 2. GEORGE born 1785 married _____ MULLINS, born in N.C. but of Irish ancestry; 3. NANCY born 1788; 4. ELANOR born 1791; 5. ELIZABETH born 1793; 6. JAMES born 1795; 7. WILLIAM born 1798; 8. DAVID born 1800 in Rockingham Co., N.C. married in 1824 FRANCES BROCK MULLINS and they moved to McNairy Co., TN in 1832; 9. RUBEN born 1803; 10. MARY born 1807.

DAVID ATKINS' daughter, NANCY ELANOR ATKINS, recorded her memoirs at the age of 86 on 1 Mar 1924. Greatly abbreviated they are:

"My parents, DAVID ATKINS and FRANCES BROCK (or BROOK) MULLINS, both born in Rockingham Co., N.C., were married in 1824. Mother was born in 1808 and attended Rockingham High School, and Father was born in 1800. Grandfather came from Ireland and grandmother Mullins from England. Great-grandmother Bethel was an Allen.

The first five children of DAVID and FRANCES ATKINS were born in N.C.: 1. AUGUSTUS in 1824; 2. ELIZA in 1826; 3. THOMAS in 1828; 4. JOHN SADLER in 1829; 5. MARTHA LETTICE in 1832. The family moved to McNairy Co., TN in 1832 where DAVID purchased 600 acres seven miles west of the Tennessee River in the southeast corner of McNairy Co. They brought four servants with them: Jess, Polly, Sarah and Millie. Four more children were born in their new home: 6. RHODA SUSAN in 1834; 7. SAM HOUSTON in 1836; 8. NANCY ELANOR on 10 Apr 1838; 9. IRENE FRANCES on 31 Aug 1840.

Our house was a good sawed log house, smoothed and planed with dovetailed corners. Short boards were driven between the logs and mortar was daubed outside and later painted white. Father died in 1840 before the house was finished. In 1853 Mother sold off land and divided their then ten slaves between the children keeping one for herself. Her reason for doing this was she planned to remarry a successful farmer, EPHRA BARNETT, who had plenty of land and servants.

AUGUSTUS and SUSAN sold off their interests and moved to Texas. Instead of going to Purdy High School in McNairy Co. at age fifteen, I decided to marry with my Mother's permission. JOSEPH (Joe) DAMERON LEATH and I were married on 26 Mar 1854 and we moved to his father's place three miles south of Hamburg, (Ala. ?).

JOE's father was JOSEPH LEATH, born 1796, and JOE's mother was JUDITH DAMERON, and his grandmother was ELIZABETH GAINNEY (HAINNEY ?). JOSEPH LEATH had been one of the first settlers on the Tennessee River, and when he moved to Huntsville, Ala. he could have entered all the land he wanted from Hamburg three miles south and back to the McNairy Co. line for a cow and a calf.

Four of my brothers served in the War Between the States. JOHN escaped without being hurt, but SAM was killed at the Battle of Chickamauga. Two brothers and three sisters died in Texas, and one brother and one sister died in Tennessee. I will never forget my Mother's prayers on the morning of 6 Apr 1862 when we knew my husband was at the Battle of Pittsburg (Landing). After her prayers we knew he would not be killed. On the 17th they drove the Yankees back and JOE came out to Mother's at Kendrick, MS and spent the night with us. The next day he joined his company in Corinth. JOETHA was born on 18 Jun 1862 and I did not see my husband until Christmas when my baby was old enough to say "Daddy".

Our first child, MARTHA JANE LEATH, was born 11 Jul 1855, JUDITH FRANCES LEATH on 23 Mar 1858, and MARY EMMA LEATH on 8 Mar 1860.

WILLIAM SAMUEL HARRIS was born 4 May 1864, IRENA JEFFUS BELL was born 16 Jun 1866, JOHN DAVID was born 16 Sep 1868, NANCY ELANOR was born 24 Oct 1870, LADESKI RACHEL was born 31 Aug 1872."

BURWELL QUINBY et al) This cause come in to be heard before the Hon. L.M.

 against BURWELL QUINBY.

It is ordered and decreed that it be referred to the clerk and master to take an account of the real and personal property of the c_u_p_t, that devolved upon her by the death of her father JOHN RAINS, deceased, and that he report whether the same ought to be settled upon complainant for her maintenance and support and that of her eleven children, and the clerk and master will also report whether any deed of settlement has been made since the institution of this suit and whether the same is a reasonable provision and make his report to the next term of this court until which time other matters are reserved.

One of JOHN RAINS' sons wrote an account of his youthful experiences with his father, his brother WILLIAM, and PATRICK LYONS in the Nashville area between 1769 and 1794. They came from Virginia with the BUCHANAN, WILLIAMS and other families, joining Gen. ROBERTSON and his son JONATHAN, and settling at Rains Springs about two miles from Nashville. The first winter they killed 32 bears on Brown Creek near the places of JESSE MAXWELL and JOHN OVERTON. There was constant danger from attacks by hostile Indians. GEORGE FIELD was shot in the head, WATTS wounded, and a young man named WILLIAMS was killed. JOHN RAINS and Capt. SHANNON commanded an expedition toward Duck River in which REUBEN PARKS and BEVERLY RIDLEY joined.
This record is in the Rains Family file, Tenn. State Library, Nashville, TN.

"A LETTER HOME"Contributed by Mr. Robert Dandridge Moore

Mr. Robt. A. Dandridge, Van Buren, Hardeman Cty. Tennessee

Richmond July 14th 1836

Dear Parents:

I embrace this favourable opportunity of writing you a few lines related to our health, which is very good at present. We arrived here on the evening of the 5th of July. We got to Memphis the day after we left home, stayed there all night, got on board of the Madison which carried us as far as the mouth of the Ohio river, when we had to get off and wait for another boat which came along in the evening of the same day, so we went on and I was glad for the mosquitoes were very troublesome indeed. When we arrived at Cincinnati the boat had to stop to take out the freight which took half of a day, so myself and Uncle went on shore (Aunt Fanny could not be persuaded to go with us) bought several little articles, went to the canal then back to the boat (persuaded her to go to the meuseum but she had no desire to go to such a place) any how we went, there were a great variety of birds & wax figures among which were Santa Anna but the greatest curiosity to me was to see and hear the parrotts talk then you may depend I wanted Aggy there I know she would have been delighted. the boat started that evening and as it happened without many passengers (for a great many left that boat and went on others as they thought of a superior quality) so we had room to enjoy ourselves as we all had become acquainted with each other. there was a Mrs. Smith and sister from Mississippi going on to all of the large cities for their health, they were very lively and I became very much attached to them. we traveled as far as Wheeling together they appeared to be quite anxious for me to go on with them. We arrived at Wheeling about 3 hours before day, had to stay there nearly 2 days. from there we took the stage to Cumberland which was 2 days and night from there to Fredericktown. some lengths of time from there we went on the railroad to Baltimore in 4 hours. distance 62 miles, it went as fast as a mile in three minutes, there was a great many passengers going to Washington to enjoy the 4th every company but one went from Baltimore we only spent one night and part of the fourth of July there, went on the boat in the evening the most splendid boat we were in called the Pocahontas stayed one night on that and the next morning we changed boats and in the evening we were in Richmond. in passing down the river we had a beautiful view of Baltimore and the federal hill and fort, I saw the Rip Raps in the Chesapeake Bay we could see two houses on it. it was first commenced by throwing rocks in the bay until they raised it above the water. We are living with Mrs Templeman she is not at home at this time they both are in Baltimore. Mrs. Wilson his sister is staying with us, for my part I like her much the best. I must conclude by saying we are all well.

They join me in love to you and all inquiring friends,
I ever remain your affectionate daughter,

Mildred Dandridge

(N B I am very well satisfied)

Mildred Spottswood Dandridge was born 1821 in Virginia; by 1834 her parents Robert A. Dandridge and Ann Overton, nee Goodwin, moved their family to Hardeman County, Tenn. Mildred was accompanied on the trip to Richmond by her mother's sister, Fanny, and her husband (name unknown). From subsequent letters it appears Mildred was sent for an education and to meet eligible young men, but on her return to Tennessee she married Benjamin Cash on Aug. 1, 1838.

The THOMPSON Family

Burwell Thompson seems to have settled in Coffee County, Tenn. in the early settlement of the state. He had three children of his first marriage, Sarah, Polly and George W. Thompson. His second marriage was to Mrs. Margaret REED of Franklin Co., Tenn. There were two children by this second wife, Samuel, who was born in 1817 and Malinda, who was born in 1819. Samuel Thompson was in the Florida war; he died a young man. George W. Thompson lived in Coffee County; he had four children, Virginia and Caroline being twins, Jane and Burwell Thompson. Burwell Thompson married Elizabeth (Bettie) WILKINSON. They had three children, two girls and one boy by the name of George who died in Texas in 1925. Burwell, George's father, died on his way from federal prison at Louisville, Ky. in the spring of 1865. (1845?)

Old man Burwell Thompson seemed to have had a good property, willing his children slaves and reserving two for his wife Margaret. Old man Burwell came from Wales. The whole family must have come, for he had three brothers; Samuel went to Ky., one of them went to south middle Tenn. and Steven settled in Tenn. with his brother Burwell. I know of two of Steven's children by the name of William and Loucy. I saw Loucy sixty years ago, an old lady. Old man Burwell was in the Revolutionary War under General Marion. Burwell Thompson was an old widower when he married widow Reed who was 38 years of age. They married 1816; Burwell made his will in 1833, of which I have in my hand. The Thompsons were of the Presbyterian persuasion. In Burwell Thompson's will these words appear in his first bequeathment, "I first give my soul to God." Burwell Thompson has three grand children yet living, J.C. HENLEY, 79 years old, Samuel A. Henley, 74 years old and Nancy COURD, 67 years old, all living in Tennessee. One of his (?) grand son's, John P. Henley who was born in 1836(?) was Captain in the Confederate Army. (signed) J.C. Henley, Sr. July 1st, 1925.

A letter from George Thompson, Jr., Chairman of the Board of Continental National Bank of Fort Worth, dated 16 May 1961 and written to Roy T. CROWNOVER, Clerk of County Court, Winchester, TN, gives the following information:

The will of Burwell Thompson is not on record in Franklin County Will Book for 1837, nor is there any record of probate in the Minute Books. The will was made 18 Oct 1833, and J.C. Henley, Sr. in his letter above probably intended to say "Burwell made his will in 1833, copy of which I have in my hand." William W. BRAZELTON, Clerk of County Court in 1837 certified that he had a certified copy of the will before him on 8 Oct. 1839.

George THOMPSON of Ft. Worth said after his father's death in 1925, his mother wrote Mr. J. C. HENLEY, SR. of either Franklin or Grundy Co., TN. who was a son of Malinda THOMPSON and Campbell HENLEY, and a grandson of Burrell and Margaret Reed THOMPSON. Mr. HENLEY sent the above family history and a copy of the will to the Texas Thompsons.
