

Putting the Powers of Exorcism

To Work for a Wonderful New Life

In this book I am presenting one of the greatest mystical secrets of my entire career, which I discovered more than 20 years ago when I first visited the famous Monastery of Mt. Athos in Greece.

This secret is the ancient art of exorcism that has been used for centuries by the heads of churches and religious orders to cast out demons, to break evil spells, to rid the mind of obsessing negative thought forms and obsessions of fear, hate, poverty, sickness, and evil that often fasten on a person's mind like a destructive demon.

At Mt. Athos I was privileged to meet an elderly monk who gave me the secrets of exorcism that were contained in illuminated manuscripts in the most complete library of its kind in the entire world. I spent days there with this monk, jotting down notes, which he translated from the ancient writings in Greek.

I discovered that originally, as practiced by many of the churches of ancient times, exorcism had been used for many different things as a therapeutic form of mental hygiene, to rid people of the obsessing thought forces that make them sick, drive them crazy, and cause them to have bad luck, accidents, and misfortunes in their finances and in their social relationships. The exorcists of ancient times were the world's first psychiatrists, just as the witch doctors in darkest Africa for centuries used the same type of exorcism rituals to drive out demons and heal the sick, and were the world's first doctors.

A belief in black and white magic has persisted throughout the centuries and for the first time I found that this complete record of the rituals of exorcism for dispelling black magic forces had spread to India, China, Tibet, and most of the known world of that time.

As this elderly monk on Mt. Athos personally translated passages from the sacred volumes in the library, he told me, "Many of the great secrets of magic and exorcism were destroyed in the fire that burned the library at Alexandria, but many of the original manuscripts were salvaged and brought here for safekeeping. It is now time that some of these profound secrets are revealed to the world."

Then this monk told me a strange story about the monk Rasputin, the great Russian mystic and healer, who had visited Mt. Athos on a pilgrimage many years before. Rasputin had probed these same secrets of exorcism, casting out spells, and psychic and spiritual healing which I was now learning. Rasputin returned to Russia and became the most powerful man of his time. He had learned the great healing arts and the rituals of exorcism from these same illuminated, sacred manuscripts that I was now studying! When Rasputin was able to stop the bleeding of the Czar's hemophilic son, using these secrets from Mt. Athos, the Czar and Czarina were willing to give him anything he desired.

Mt. Athos is an isolated monastery located in the northern part of Greece and its castle-like buildings are spread over hundreds of acres. At one time it was densely populated, but now there are only 20 or so monks in residence there. One can visit this isolated, beautiful spot only with a special permit granted by the Greek government, and I have been fortunate in being able to visit there three times in the past 20 years.

Now at last, in this book which I have waited 20 years to write, I can reveal the secrets I learned at the monastery on Mt. Athos about exorcism, black magic, white magic, witchcraft, sorcery, psychic and spiritual healing, and many of the most profound mystical secrets that have ever been revealed to mankind.

Later I discovered that some of this knowledge had drifted down throughout the ages and had been the basis for many of the rituals of exorcism used in Egypt, India, Tibet, and China, some of which we shall also explore in this book. Previously this information had been the exclusive property of the heads of great churches in Constantinople, now named Istanbul, and in Rome, and other great religious centers of the world.

When I returned from my visit to Mt. Athos to my lectures in world-famous Carnegie Hall, I personally used many of these ancient rituals of exorcism and the spiritual healing arts to help thousands of people over the years.

I have seen many mental cases, given up by psychiatrists, healed through the ritual of exorcism given in this book. I have saved at least 100 people from suicide; these people were obsessed by the demons of destruction making them want to kill themselves.

I have used exorcism for every purpose imaginable, and discovered that if the rituals given here are practiced assiduously, you can expect true miracles in your life.

Today many psychiatrists, scientists, and church leaders believe that humanity is obsessed with evil forces as never before in the history of the world. We see violence on a mass scale; the evil forces of war and destruction have taken their toll of hundreds of thousands of lives; assassination of our public leaders; widespread corruption among politicians; sixty thousand young people between 18 and 25 years of age, were suicides last year alone; millions of alcoholics and drug addicts; sexual promiscuity, immorality, and pornography, the lowering of our moral standards—are these not evidences of a massive destructive power like a satanic obsession that is loose in our modern world?

Add to this the chronically sick who fill our hospitals to overflowing, those who are mentally ill and occupy half the beds in our hospitals, and you will realize that mental and spiritual obsession is as much of a reality today as it was in Jesus' time when he literally cast out demons and exorcised the sick, and made them take up their beds and walk.

TWENTY VALUABLE THINGS YOU CAN DO WITH EXORCISM

1. You can begin instantly to dispel the negative forces that may have cast a spell over your mind and remove them from your mind and body. In the first chapter you will be shown how to use rituals of exorcism to rid yourself of sickness, poverty, failure, and unhappiness. The complete ritual of exorcism is given for establishing the positive forces of health, riches, happiness, love, and success. From the very first day you use these rituals of exorcism you will begin to see amazing miracles happening in your own life!

2. You will learn how you can use the four realms of exorcism that can overcome many of the modern problems that afflict humanity today. You will be shown how to use a mystical ritual known as psychic somnambulism to help you find the center of power, through exorcising the demons of violence, accidents, sickness, and pain. You will learn of the Maharajah's mystic money ritual that comes from India, and with which you can instantly exorcise poverty, lack and limitation, and receive a shower of money and other material treasures. This vital secret is revealed to you in Chapter 2.

3. There is revealed for you the important exercises of exorcism that you can use to clear your psychic centers of doubt and negativity, giving you clear psychic vision, clairvoyance, and clairaudience. Learn of the 11 forms of obsession that may be clouding your vision and how to exorcise these elements to break through this barrier and achieve true intuition and psychic guidance to your right destiny. Learn about the human aura and how you can use these rituals of exorcism to keep it pure and bright, so you may more accurately receive these higher psychic messages. You will be given this vitally important instruction in Chapter 4.

4. Millions of people are sick from obsessions of black magic forces. You can use this ritual of exorcism to heal you with white magic forces, and overcome mental and physical sickness. Many people have achieved miracle healings through the use of this great secret ritual of exorcism. Jesus used this power of exorcism to cast out the devils of illness and heal the sick, as given in many illustrations in the Bible. A woman was healed of an enormous tumor through exorcism. Discover how scientists today know that the human mind can project thought forms that make others sick and make them have bad luck and accidents. Discover how to use this art of exorcism to keep yourself and your family healthy, vital, and young. You will find this information of how to heal with white magic given in all its vivid details in Chapter 8.

5. Have you been having more than your share of bad luck lately? Do you sometimes feel you were born under an unlucky star? It could be that a curse is on you and that your run of bad luck is a sign of a disturbing obsession by some evil thought forms that you have lodged within your mind. These evil thoughts can sometimes cause a person to go crazy, to have accidents, to fall and break bones, and to lose jobs, money, love, and friends. Discover the mystical way by which you can use the ritual of exorcism to stop your bad luck cycles and turn them into instant good luck. You will be shown how to do this in Chapter 3.

6. You will discover, and be able to use, the seven mystical money mantras that will forever exorcise the demons of poverty, lack, and limitation that keep you poor. The one secret alone, how to use mystic money chants, can free you of debts, and start a flow of money, houses, lands, cars, jewels, furs, and other things you desire. You will never again be poor when you invoke this sacred ritual known as the prosperity exorcism. Learn how to tap the cosmic cash register that will instantly start to produce money for you. Discover how to build your own mystic money pyramid to turn a dollar bill into $1,000 or $10,000. This ritual of exorcism will show you how to use the seven mystical money mantras to reveal hidden treasures, and to start you on the highroad to fame, fortune, and riches. You will find this secret information all revealed in Chapter 6.

7. One of the greatest rituals of exorcism that I have ever discovered is known as the Sacred Flame Ritual of Egypt. You can begin to invoke the stupendous power of the sacred flame to rid yourself of negative conditions you don't want; to clear your life of enemies, to overcome problems, and to bring you everything in life that you desire. This flame ritual has spread throughout the world, but originated in the Temple of Isis in Egypt, and I brought it back five years ago and have mystified scientists and religious leaders with its mysterious miracle working power. Discover the sacred flame ritual for yourself and use this power of exorcism today. It is given in Chapter 9.

8. Do you sometimes have recurring obsessing thoughts run through your mind that tell you there is no hope; that you will be a failure; that you were born to be poor; that your life has to be lonely and without love or friendship? If you are troubled with such obsessing thought entities, you can learn to overcome these forces with magic incantations that will break the evil spells cast on you by other people or by obsessing thought entities. Black magic and black witchcraft were often used to cast spells over people's minds. You can instantly dispel these shadows with white magic and overcome all demon possessions and forces that try to rob you of peace of mind, health, prosperity, and happiness. You will be given the mystical exorcism rituals to use for this purpose in Chapter 5.

9. Many times great geniuses like Mozart, Shakespeare, Beethoven, Michelangelo, and Leonardo da Vinci, were actually able to contact disembodied entities, masters who live on other planes and who revealed secrets that made these men geniuses. You can be guided, while on the astral planes at night, by these masters who know the secrets back of the universe. Did space men come to earth centuries ago; are you able to go out to other planes through astral projection and gather this mystical knowledge? You will learn that exorcism can be used for astral projection. This knowledge is given to you in Chapter 10.

10. Have you ever wished you had the power to weave a spell of enchantment over the hearts and minds of those you want to attract in love, friendship, and marriage? You can attain this unique art through the ancient rituals of exorcism given in this book. A remarkable power has been given to the human mind which can be released with this secret technique, and you can make another person love you; you can use this power to influence people to be your friends and to protect yourself from the evil spells of black magic that others may have directed at you. You can also use this same spell to break a short-circuiting condition in your life where someone is trying to gain control of your mind and your will for ulterior purposes. This entire regime is given in all its glowing details in Chapter 7.

11. Many times people gain material and physical treasures, but they become so overburdened with worries and anxieties that their peace of mind and serenity are shattered. You can use the power of white magic to exorcise the negative forces that have robbed you of your peace of mind and tranquility. Learn how to achieve Darshan, the Sanskrit word for ultimate contentment. Discover the eight obsessive thought forms that rob you of peace of mind and make your life miserable. Then practice the rituals and chants of exorcism, using white magic forces, and see all these disturbances giving way to perpetual peace and tranquillity. You will learn how to do this in Chapter 13.

12. From the ancient land of Tibet, you will discover a secret force so profound it may well change your life forever! It is the Tibetan form of exorcism that can free you from the karmic wheel of fate. In the Song Celestial the Tibetans, using the ancient science of astrology, use exorcism to overcome the negative forces that have been placed within each sign of the Zodiac. When you are born into a certain sign, according to this Tibetan belief, you take on the karma of that sign of the Zodiac. Learn what your karma is and what you can do to lighten your karmic load, so you can be forever free of pain, suffering, sickness, and poverty. Each sign of the Zodiac has a totally different karma. Learn what yours is in Chapter 11.

13. Many people are the victims of black magic practices. See how you can avoid these destructive forces and with the rituals of exorcism, remove them so you are no longer plagued with misfortune and back luck. The Kennedy family seems to have been under such evil spells and many others are haunted with these forces of evil and destruction. Learn how to detect if you are a victim of black magic; study the symptoms given here and then if any of these 15 symptoms show in your life, set to work with exorcism to overcome black magic with white magic forces. You will find this regimen in Chapter 12.

14. Every person was born to love and be loved; if you are suffering from the curse of rejection, loneliness, or have suffered heartaches through lost love, you will be able to use the art of exorcism to banish these forces of negativity and cast spells of enchantment to win the hearts and minds of those you love. You will learn how to get rid of the five major causes of loneliness and depression which often make people commit suicide. You will discover the method for working a spell over another person to win his attention and love. You will be given the 11 forces of black magic which exorcism will banish from your mind and life, and you will then be shown how to use this power to make people do favors for you, give you money, advance you in your work; and you will learn to use the golden line of magnetism to attract people you don't even know, who will want to help you. This priceless knowledge is given in Chapter 16.

15. Discover the exorcism rites of the ancient Egyptians that can transform your life today. This secret power locked up in the Pyramids of Egypt, and which has performed miracles throughout the past five thousand years, can help you perform unbelievable miracles. Discover the secrets of the King's Chamber; find out how to use the exorcism to the moon to release magnetism and power for every purpose in life. Then go on to the ritual of exorcism the Egyptians used to the golden sun, and see how this can be used to heal sickness, attract money and power; make you successful in business, and give you other rewards that are miraculous. You will find out how to use this ancient power in Chapter 14.

16. Do people sometimes try to dominate you and nearly drive you crazy with their desire to subjugate you to their wills? Many lives are shattered by such destructive persons. Discover a method by which you can use white magic and exorcism to free you completely from the domination of other people. Learn how you can change them into angelic beings who will want to help you instead of hurt you. Discover the four types of domination and then learn how to fortify yourself against these forces with white magic. You will find this method for exorcism given in complete detail in Chapter 15.

17. Learn how to find your own personal Shangri-La of the soul, the mystical realm where you can rise into spiritual peace and eternal joy and contentment. Learn about the exorcism ritual from Tibet, Ohm mane padme ohm, and how to use it when you want to ascend the spiritual mountain top where you can rise above the earth burdens that crush your mind and soul. Find the nine negative forces that keep you locked out of Shangri-La and then learn about the white magic positive forces you can invoke through exorcism, to bring you into that realm of eternal peace, joy, love, and beauty. This instruction is given in Chapter 17.

18. Discover the method by which you may master fear and worry, through ancient exorcism, and give yourself inner and outer poise, confidence, and power to overcome every problem.

You will be shown the great secrets of success that will make you rich, and which will rid you of the demons of poverty, lack, and limitation. This ritual of exorcism is given in Chapter 1.

19. Do you wish to rid your mind of the emotions of hate, revenge, jealousy, and anger that haunt so many people today? There is a secret ritual of exorcism which you can say every day two times and you will gradually free yourself of these obsessive forces that destroy human lives. Many people have committed murder or other acts of violence because they could not control these demons of hate. Learn how to do this through exorcisms given in Chapter 4.

20. Why are some people rich while others remain poor all their lives? Is there a golden key which you may use to open the doors to the treasure house of the universe? Learn how mystical mantras can be chanted throughout the day, which will magnetize your brain centers with the money consciousness you need to make you a fortune. Discover how you can make money come to you; how to make wealthy people help you; how to use exorcisms to align your mind with money power so you will have as much money as you desire. The exorcisms for this purpose are given in Chapter 6.

21. Have you dreamed of becoming a great creative genius? Do you feel you have been held back by lack of education or the fact you were born poor? An astounding method is given by which you may become a great artist, a writer of stories that can make you rich, an inventor like Edison, a composer of songs and great music. While you sleep, your soul can be sent out to acquire these great gifts. This method is revealed in Chapter 10.

Fine, you say, but will this work for YOU? I challenge you to begin right now. Life's golden harvest of untold blessings is waiting for you to claim it. The white magic of exorcism, as proven by the exciting case studies in this book, is yours to use—your key to the confident and victorious life. Strike out the black magic forces that may be holding you back from all the glorious things you rightfully deserve. Put the easy-to-apply rituals, ceremonies, chants, spells, and techniques to work this minute. Easily—almost automatically—you'll start to claim your rights—the big money, the vibrant health, the wonderful popularity, the power over people and every situation in life that can mean the difference between success and failure. Break out of the chains that hold you back. Turn the page and open the door to the miracle-working wonders of exorcism.

NORVELL

CONTENTS

Putting the Powers of Exorcism To Work for a Wonderful New Life	5
Twenty Valuable Things You Can Do With Exorcism
1. How to Use Exorcism to Help You Overcome the Negative Forces Of Your Life	21
How to Use the Art of Exorcism
How a Woman Was Nearly Destroyed by Evil Forces Seeds Cursed by a Minister and His Congregation How a Man Was Paralyzed by the Demon of Fear
2. White Magic Exorcisms That Can Break Forever the Spells Of Black Magic	35
Regimen to Use Positive Magnetic Exorcism to Overcome Black Magic
How to Use the Magic Power of Psychic Somnambulism The Maharajah's Mystic Money Ritual How to Release the Magic Power of the Rainbow of Golden Dreams

- 3. How Exorcism Can Stop Bad Luck And Turn It into Instant Good Luck 49
- Regimen to Use Exorcism to Stop Your Bad Luck Cycles
How a Writer Used Exorcism to Help Him Overcome Obstructions
- 4. How Exorcism Can Be Used To Develop Psychic and Clairvoyant Powers 59
- How to Know When Obsessing Thought Forms Possess You
 Obsessions Form a Psychic Cloud Over the Mind
 Regimen for Using Exorcism to Develop Psychic and Clairvoyant Powers
How a Young Woman Received Psychic Guidance
How Marilyn Monroe Was Destroyed by Obsessions
How a Man Found Psychic Guidance Through Exorcism
- 5. Magic Incantations for Breaking Evil Spells of Obsessing Entities 71
- How the Power of Black Magic Works
 How to Recognize Demoniac Possession
 How to Work Magic for Breaking Evil Spells
A Woman Was Nearly Destroyed by Obsessing Entities
How Mrs. S. Used This Exorcism to Ward Off Evil
- 6. The Seven Mystical Money Mantras for Exorcising the Demons of Poverty 81
- How to Use the Prosperity Ritual to Exorcise Poverty
The Mystical Money Chant
Tap the Cosmic Cash Register
The Mystic Money Pyramid
How to Use the Mystic Money Tree Principle
A Man Treated His Higher Mind with This Money Ritual

6. The Seven Mystical Money Mantras for Exorcising the Demons of Poverty (Continued) Regimen to Use the Seven Mystical Money Mantras A Man Built a Fortune with These Money Mantras
7. Using the Art of Exorcism and Spells to Win True Love Forever How a Man Obsessed by the Demon of Jealousy Went Mad Project Your Thought Forms of Love Ritual for Creating a Magnetic Love Attraction Ritual to Attract Love from Someone Unknown to You To Exorcise Jealousy and Hatred From Any Source To Win Back Lost Love Use This Ritual To Break Short-Circuiting Relationships Use This Exorcism A Case of Black Magic That Destroyed a Policeman	90
8. How to Use the Healing Power Of White Magic to Exorcise Mental and Physical Sickness The Psychic Explanation of Sickness My Mystic Quest for Spiritual Healing A Woman Healed of a Tumor Through Exorcism The Beginning of the Ritual of Exorcism Scientists Proved the Power of Projection of Sickness To Project Exorcism to Heal a Friend or Relative Establish a Health Climate of Mind and Spirit How a Woman Exorcised Illness Through This Method The Healing Exorcism This Woman Used How to Use the Ritual of Exorcism to Keep Sane Mirror Exorcism	100

- 9. The Sacred Flame Ritual of Exorcism from the Temple of Isis In Ancient Egypt 115
- Regimen for Using the Sacred Flame Ritual Exorcism
- How the Flame Ritual Brought $50,000 to a Couple*
How Black Magic Exorcism Destroyed This Man
- 10. How to Contact Masters Through Exorcism and Astral Projection 124
- The Ancient Seers and Prophets Also Believed
- Einstein and Edison Contacted Other Astral Planes*
- How Exorcism Can Help You Overcome Earth Shadows
- How to Use Exorcism for This Purpose*
Purifying and Protective Ritual of Exorcism
How to Exteriorize Your Soul in Astral Projection
- How Will You Know When You Are on the Astral?
- Astral Projection Revealed Her Future Husband*
- Various Types of Astral Exorcisms for Different Purposes
- 11. Tibetan Exorcisms to Free You From the Karmic Wheel of Fate 138
- Your Karmic Destiny if You Were Born in Aries
- Your Karmic Destiny if You Were Born in Taurus
- Your Karmic Destiny if You Were Born in Gemini
- Your Karmic Destiny if You Were Born in Cancer
- Your Karmic Destiny if You Were Born in Leo
- Your Karmic Destiny if You Were Born in Virgo
- Your Karmic Destiny if You Were Born in Libra
- Your Karmic Destiny if You Were Born in Scorpio
- Your Karmic Destiny if You Were Born in Sagittarius
- Your Karmic Destiny if You Were Born in Capricorn

11. Tibetan Exorcisms to Free You From the Karmic Wheel of Fate (Continued) Your Karmic Destiny if You Were Born in Aquarius Your Karmic Destiny if You Were Born in Pisces
12. How to Detect Black Magic Practices and Overcome Them Through Exorcism How to Detect Black Magic Practices in Your Life A Man Suffered Misfortune Through Black Magic A Woman Used Exorcism to Stop Her Headaches A Young Lawyer Was Destroyed by Satanic Forces	154
13. How to Use the Power of White Magic and Exorcism to Bring You Peace of Mind, Security, and Happiness The Obsessive Thought Forms That Disturb Peace of Mind The Rituals and Chants for Exorcising the Above Black Magic Forces with White Magic A Woman's Life Was Nearly Ruined by Hate	165
14. Exorcism Rites of The Ancient Egyptians that Can Transform Your Life Today The Curse of Tut'an'kamon Still Works Today Modern Explanation of Why Rituals of Exorcism Work How Evil Entities Possess Human Minds Ritual of Exorcism to the Moon Goddess Some Miracles Reported by Those Using This Exorcism How to Invoke the Exorcism to the Sun Exorcism to the Sun God Osiris	173

15. White Magic Rituals for Exorcising Dominating People
Into Angelic Beings 185
- An Instance of Destructive Domination by a Mother
How A Boss Made Life Miserable for Everyone*
- Steps to Take for Using White Magic to Rid Yourself of Dominating Persons in Your Life
16. How to Use Exorcism to Cast Spells of Enchantment and Make People Love You 192
- Black Magic Destroys; White Magic Creates
- "I am lonely! No one loves me! I want to die!"*
- The Causes of Loneliness and Depression
- Regimen to Cast a Spell of Enchantment and Make People Like You
- How a Young Man Used This Spell of Enchantment
A Young Lady Used This Exorcism to Win a Rich Man*
17. How to Find Your Shangri-La Of Eternal Joy Through the Higher Laws of Exorcism 203
- Man is On a Mystical Quest Through Time and Space

How to Use Exorcism to Help You Overcome the Negative Forces Of Your Life

For many centuries various religious orders throughout the world used the art of exorcism to cast out evil spirits or demons that inhabited human beings. This practice is spoken of in the Bible and was used by the master Jesus in healing sick people.

However, the art of exorcism has many other uses which can be applied to our modern problems. You can use exorcism to cast out negative states of consciousness, to remove the forces of evil or black magic that often cast a spell over the minds of people, causing them to be sick, poor, miserable, and sometimes to commit acts of violence and destruction.

Today, more than at any other time in history, we see the results of black magic, which casts its evil spell over the minds of millions of people. These evil thought forms, which many modern scientists believe obsess the human mind, cause the current wave of violence in our streets. We see drug addiction on the increase, destroying hundreds of thousands of people. We witness the rising tide of alcoholism, which can certainly be called an obsession, afflicting an estimated fifteen million people in this country alone, and destroying them as surely as any satanic force of ancient times. We see half the beds in the hospitals filled with the mentally sick. These tortured souls are possessed by the demons of fear, insecurity, hate, failure, worry, and animalism. Psychiatrists try to stem this rising tide of insanity, but there are not enough of them to help the millions in our mental hospitals.

Through the ancient rites of exorcism many of these destructive and evil obsessions in our modern society, can be forever broken. The evil spells that produce war and create poverty and lack can be exorcised by these ancient rituals and invocations, bringing peace and serenity to the human mind and strengthening the human will with the positive forces of Good or God.

When the forces of black magic predominate, we witness the decline of civilization. When the diabolical force dethrones the God force, we see millions die in wars. We see the rise of satanic powers like Hitler, Stalin, and Mussolini. When the Archangel Lucifer, was banished from the celestial heights, the spirit of Evil became rampant on this earth. Only through the ancient art of exorcism, can we be freed of this terror.

Many people today do not literally believe in the Devil as an entity that has the power to obsess the human mind. But even those who have no faith in this symbol of evil and destruction must believe that evil forces and evil entities, represented by powerful projections of thoughts, have the power to obsess millions of people with a kind of spiritual infection that can bring about death and destruction.

Six million killed by a Hitler in gas chambers can be said to have died because of the forces of black magic rampant in the world.

Millions more killed in four diabolical wars, can be said to have perished because of an obsessing demoniacal power that took possession of men's minds and made them go on a rampage of death and destruction that has touched the lives of every living person on the face of the globe.

Our insane asylums, and half the beds in all hospitals filled with the mentally sick, further attest to the fact that some demoniacal force is rampant in the world today that can unseat human reason and bring widespread mental, social, and moral infection.

Sixty thousand suicides of the young, between the ages of 18 and 25, last year alone, attest to the fact that some deadly spiritual virus has infected the minds and souls of our young people causing them to seek escape from this nightmare of horrors through death by their own hands, rather than to live and face the untold horrors of a desolate and tragic future.

In this chapter we shall be concerned with the art of exorcism in relation to the forces of black magic that cast their spells over the minds of humanity and learn how to exorcise this evil force with white magic.

You, as an individual, stand between the two polarities of good and evil; black magic and white magic. These were represented in ancient times as the satanic power and the God power. They indicate the two states of consciousness which struggle to gain power and ascendancy over the minds and souls of men.

These two opposing forces, which are trying to gain control over your mind and spirit, are given below. We shall now learn how to use the ancient art of exorcism to banish the forces of darkness and enthrone the forces of light.

FORCES OF DARKNESS

Evil Sickness Poverty Misery
Hate
Ignorance
Fear
Failure
Pessimism

FORCES OF LIGHT

Good Health
Riches
Happiness
Love
Intelligence
Confidence
Success
Optimism

HOW TO USE THE ART OF EXORCISM

In striving to remove the negative obsessions from your consciousness and establish the positive ones, you must know the forms of exorcism which have been used by the ancients for centuries past. These rites were used by high priests and mystics, guardians of the esoteric knowledge of ancient times, to exorcise the evil or devil force that creates all the terror, confusion, war, and sickness in the world.

As adjuncts to the ancient rite of exorcism, you may use a lighted white candle, and have a simple shrine, over which you have a religious emblem or symbol, like a cross, the star of David, or some symbol of your religious faith.

You may chant the exorcism ritual aloud, using the words given here for each negative condition you are trying to remove, or you may say the words softly, to yourself. You may say each ritual of exorcism once, daily, for the specific things you want to achieve. Or you may use one powerful exorcism, to cover all nine evil forces listed above.

As you repeat the rite of exorcism, you will be aware that you are calling upon higher, spiritual forces in the universe, and you will approach your mystic shrine with a feeling of reverence and faith in the miracle power you will invoke.

1. Exorcism to Overcome Evil With Good

I now approach the mystic shrine of God's omniscient power, and exorcise the negative obsession of evil that has control of men's minds today. I invoke the power of Good to banish evil from my life forever. I enthrone the quality of Good in my mind, my words and my deeds. God is good and my life reflects the divine qualities of mercy, compassion, and Good in my relationships with others. I break the evil spell of mesmerism that threatens my life with fear, failure, and defeat. I surround myself with the white light of God's divine presence and it protects me from all forces of black magic, evil thought forms, and other obsessing entities that threaten me.

How a Woman Was Nearly Destroyed by Evil Forces

A woman who came into our lecture work in New York told me that her life had been one series of misfortunes after another. She felt that someone had put a curse on her life, and she believed it was the woman who took her husband away from her. She began to develop pains in various parts of her body. She felt her mind was being destroyed by some evil entity giving her a strong desire to kill herself. She went to a doctor but he could find nothing organically wrong with her. It was then that she decided she was under some kind of evil spell that was trying to destroy her. She almost had two fatal accidents; one was when she stepped in front of a car, and she said that it was almost as if someone had pushed her from the curb. Then a subway door closed on her, catching her dress, and she was just able to wrench herself free and keep from being hurled to her death.

She sought out help from my work, and I knew by her description of her symptoms that she was being destroyed by forces of black magic that were invading her mind and trying to drive her crazy or kill her.

I instantly went to work, using the rites of exorcism, giving her the method for combating this evil power. She used the above exorcism for two weeks, every day, burning the white candle and calling upon the forces of Good or God, to help her. At the end of that time this woman was completely healed of her misfortunes. She reported that her mind was calm and orderly. She lost her desire for self-destruction, and for the first time in months she was able to sleep at night and arise from her bed refreshed. The pains that had tortured her stopped. She forgave her husband and the evil persons who were trying to destroy her and consigned them to God's hands to deal with.

2. Exorcism to establish health and overcome the evil of sickness, accident, and death

I now approach the throne of illimitable power and establish my cosmic connection with the force of God and Good. I break the black magic spell of sickness that has threatened me with disability, infection and incapacity. I overcome the spiritual virus of obsessing thought entities that make me sick. I invoke the power of exorcism here and now to remove from my mind and body cells all infections, all viruses, all forms of illness, and to establish forever in my body, the image of perfect health and life. I exorcise sickness, accident, and premature death and invoke the power of life, protection, and immunity. I am healed by the miracle power of God and the satanic force of sickness and evil is forever banished to the realm of oblivion.

This rite of exorcism should be used daily to protect your mind and body from the invasion of germs and especially, of those thought forms that often obsess one.

Scientists performed an experiment to prove that obsessing thought forms can actually make people sick.

A group of people were put into one room, and the test group in another. The first group were told to project thoughts to the test group that soon they would become sick, feeling pain, nausea, headaches, and other bodily symptoms. This projection of evil thought forms continued for half an hour. All the people in the test group, who did not know what thoughts were being projected, began to have symptoms of sickness! Some became violently ill, with stomach cramps, nausea and headaches. The entire group were sick from the moment that these obsessing thought forms were projected to their minds.

Seeds Cursed by a Minister and His Congregation

Another experiment was performed by a minister and his congregation. Seeds of wheat were cursed by them and then planted. The cursed seeds failed to grow! The few straggling plants that dared rise above the ground were cursed further and then wilted and died! Another batch of seeds were blessed by the same congregation and this crop yielded five times what normal seed produced! This proved that even growing plants can be cursed by forces of black magic and kept from producing their normal yield.

3. Exorcism to be used for overcoming poverty and achieving riches and abundance

Perhaps the demon poverty, with its evils, is one of the most destructive of all negative forces that afflict humanity. It is true, of course, that poverty is an aftermath of war, that other demon of obsession that has scourged humanity for many centuries. In five thousand years of civilization we have had forty-nine hundred years of war!

See poverty as the evil monster it is that afflicts the human mind and consciousness today, when we should have plenty for all. Even our food and gasoline shortages, and high prices resulting therefrom, can be traced to the demons of greed, selfishness, hate, and war, which destroy millions of people yearly.

It has been estimated by economists that in just four wars that have existed in this century, the United States has spent the full value of all houses, lands, and other things of value in this country! This means we mortgaged our entire future to pursue those four wars that killed millions of human beings.

To exorcise this dread monster of poverty will help you assure yourself of a happy, prosperous, and abundant future for you and your children. This land is productive and we have sufficient wealth to care for the entire world. Brazil floats on a sea of oil, which has not yet been tapped. There is enough lumber in the twenty thousand different species of trees, in the Amazon basin alone, to build a home the size of the White House for every family in the entire world! Why, then, are we suffering from energy crises, why are we throwing our wealth away prodigally on wars and other wasteful ventures? There is no poverty in the world of nature; it is only the evil spirit of selfishness and greed in men's minds that produces starvation, lack, and limitation.

To exorcise this negative force of poverty, go into the stillness and remind yourself of the above facts. Then use the following exorcism rite to imprint your superconscious mind with the commands that will guide you to the finding of riches and abundance.

I am aware of the negative forces that keep me poor. I now project the positive mental power that will forever destroy this demon of poverty, lack and limitation in my life. I command my higher mind to give me ideas for self-improvement, to show me how I can use my God-given potentials for becoming successful and rich. I refuse to yield to the demons of fear, anxiety, and selfishness. I arm myself with the true consciousness of the wealth that exists all around me. I command my superconscious mind to give me the rich ideas that have made the Rockefellers, Gettys, Hughes, Onassis, and others rich. I now order the demon of poverty and lack to quit my mind, and no longer cause me to suffer lack and limitation. I am now on the pathway to riches and abundance!

4. Exorcism to use for banishing the demons of misery and discontent and achieving radiant happiness

More people are suffering from the mass psychoses of misery and discontent today than from any other single emotion. Mental depression has become one of the most prevalent of all disturbances to afflict our twentieth century. People fear the future; they are under terrific mental and emotional pressures. They are breaking down mentally from the infection of spiritual sickness that is causing more suicides, more divorces, more dope addiction and alcoholism than ever before in history.

To exorcise this demon of misery and discontent, use the following ritual, repeating it as often as you feel you need to be mentally inspired and uplifted by the positive force of Good.

I refuse to yield to the evil forces of negativity, moodiness, depression, and morbidity that are all around me. I fortify myself by the God-mind which can overthrow these demons of fear, hate, selfishness, greed, and jealousy that are rampant in the world. I am in the protective custody of God and His positive forces of radiant joy, love, peace, and beauty, My mind is now inhabited by thought forces of Good, of radiant joy, and I am uplifted in mind and spirit and remain aloof from the current trend to moodiness and depression.

5. How to exorcise the destructive power of hate, jealousy, revenge, and envy and achieve the positive force of love.

A woman who came into our lecture work in Los Angeles, told me she was seriously considering murdering her husband! I could not believe I had heard her correctly, so I asked her to repeat what she had said and she told me in a very calm, even tone of voice, "Yes, I have already bought the gun and keep it hidden until I can get the courage to kill my husband."

This was not a wild-eyed, murderous woman, who was obviously psychotic. She was calm, mild-mannered, and even kindly looking!

Then she unfolded a tale of 20 years of marriage in which her husband had been totally inadequate as a husband. I shall not go into all the details here, but they had three children, who were now old enough to go their separate ways without being harmed. Then why should this woman choose murder rather than divorce to achieve her freedom?

She had been possessed by the demon of murder over the years, as she brooded on her impossible situation. It did not occur to her she could end her agony with more peaceful methods. She wanted to destroy the force that had seemingly destroyed her life. I had to work for many sessions to rid this woman of the obsessive insanity of murder that had invaded her mind. She finally did overcome it, confessed to her husband that she was going to kill him, and asked him for a divorce. He happily granted it and they both went on to happier lives. A tragedy was averted that could have shattered that entire family.

How many men and women have gone to the death chair, or to terms of life imprisonment, because the demon of hate lurked within their consciousness, causing them to yield to one mad moment when they destroyed a human life.

To exorcise this power of hate and jealousy and revenge, use the following ritual, saying it whenever you feel your temper is getting out of control, or when demoniacal thoughts come to your mind to get revenge, to hurt others or to murder their hopes and dreams. You can also use this exorcism when the hatred of others is directed against you, to rid their minds of the obsessive demon of hate.

I now command the demons of hate, revenge, jealousy, and envy forever to get behind me in consciousness. I am now liberated from the debilitating forces of evil that destroy others. I now enthrone the pure white light of God's infinite Love in my consciousness, and it banishes the shadows of hate and rage. I control my mind and my thoughts. I refuse to yield to this demon of hate and surround myself with the thought atmosphere of love. I think and act in a loving manner and others respond to me with love. Love blesses my life and brings me harmony, peace, and joy.

6. Exorcism to help overcome the negative forces of ignorance, superstition, and backwardness and enthrone the positive forces of intelligence and rationality

Most of men's problems arise because their minds are held in bondage by the demons of ignorance and superstition. When man used his higher, superconscious mind, he was able to envision flying like a bird, and the space age was born. Think of how many millions of years man crawled in the dust of his mortality, before he even discovered, and used, the wheel! In that moment he was liberated from the back-breaking burdens of a beast and took his rightful place in the sun as an intelligent, thinking, creating human being.

Perhaps your own life force is being restricted by this demon of ignorance and superstition. You might be able to earn more money, create more satisfactory life conditions, and achieve greater happiness if you could free yourself forever of the negative obsessions that are created by ignorance.

Use the following ritual of exorcism to rid yourself of these forces of ignorance and superstition:

I now rid my conscious and subconscious minds forever of the negative forces of ignorance and superstition. I release the higher power of my superconscious mind to elevate my consciousness to creative processes that will give me ideas for enriching my life and releasing creative talents.

I now create the new self image of success and intelligence. I absorb knowledge from many sources; I grow and evolve each day by observing the world around me and by evolving to fit the advanced age in which I live. I no longer allow the demons of fear, failure, ignorance, and inferiority to obsess my mind with their restrictive forces that hold me back. I am a free soul, forever freed of these negative forces of ignorance.

7. Exorcism to overcome the obsession of fear that leads to failure and disaster

More people will die of fear of disease this year than actual disease. More people will be killed by their fears of being attacked on the street or in their homes than actually meet with disaster through prowlers, muggers, or killers. It is estimated that fear is the single demoniacal obsession that is giving people over to madness, that is shattering their bodies' health, and leading to mass psychoses that kill millions each year.

Job said, "That which I feared greatly is come upon me."

This diabolical power of fear destroys a person's ability to act in a positive and constructive way to avoid the things that are feared. In fact, psychologists estimate that when a person fears an accident or some other disaster, his reaction mechanism is paralyzed in an emergency and he is incapable of acting to avert a disaster or an accident.

Use the following ritual of exorcism to program your higher mind centers with the confidence that can help you avoid most of life's tragedies and disasters.

I now exorcise the demon of fear and rid my mind forever of worry, fear, anxiety, and concern about my present or future welfare. I shall strengthen my resolve to avoid forces of destruction and I shall immunize my mind with a positive attitude of confidence and resiliency that will help me absorb the sudden and unexpected shocks of life with courage and faith. I put my trust and faith in God, the living, protecting presence that shields me forever from the demons of fear and anxiety. The Lord is my shepherd and He leads me beside the still waters of peace and confidence, protecting me from all evil.

How a Man Was Paralyzed by the Demon of Fear

A man I once met in my work, told me how he had lost his job because he feared he was growing older and would soon be laid off. He had lost his savings, because he feared poverty, and had invested in a fraudulent get-rich-quick scheme. He had lost his wife because for years he had feared she would one day leave him for another man. He wound up his long recital with these words: "Fate has robbed me of everything I hold dear!"

It was difficult to convince this broken man that his own fears had brought about all the evils that had infected his life. I then told him a story about the Devil and a sale that he had one day. At that sale, all the tools used by the Devil to destroy people were prominently displayed. A man who attended the sale saw these tools labeled, Discouragement, Jealousy, Pride, Hate, Anger,

Greed, Selfishness, Worry, and Ignorance. These tools all had prominently displayed their various prices. But over in a corner was one tool that was more worn than any other, and had a higher price tag on it than the others. The man asked the Devil, "Why is that tool so high priced?"

The Devil replied. "That is my most valuable tool. It is Fear. With fear I can erode a person's mind and soul and gradually win control of his actions. That is why I count that my most valuable tool for destroying humanity."

This man grasped the point instantly and we worked out an exorcism that fitted his needs so he could rid his consciousness of this demon of fear. His life changed from that day on.

8. Exorcism to rid yourself of failure and enthrone success on all planes of consciousness

Every person wants to be a success. This means success as a person as well as social, monetary, romantic, and spiritual success.

Repeat the following statements every day upon arising and use them as often as you think of them during your working day to help insulate you against the destructive thoughts of failure.

I now program my higher mind centers with thoughts of success on all planes of consciousness. I banish from my mind the demon of failure, lack, and limitation. I imprint on my subconscious mind thoughts of personal success as a human being. I wish to have loving relations with others; I wish to be a success in my work, to make big money and to achieve financial security for my family and myself. I exorcise all thoughts of inadequacy, inferiority, self-consciousness, or other negative thoughts that make me a failure. I shall achieve balance in my life, and have social, marital, and personal success. My mind shall be peaceful and calm and bring me satisfaction in every department of life.

9. Exorcism for overcoming moodiness and depression, pessimism, and gloom, and building perpetual optimism

It sounds pollyanna-ish to say that you were born to know true happiness and to be optimistic most of the time, but it is true.

A child, in its natural, unspoiled state, is perpetually joyous and looking forward to new and exciting life experiences. When we mature we learn to be pessimistic, moods overcome us, we see the harsh realities of life, and our youthful dreams become tarnished and recede into the background of consciousness.

The following exorcism ritual will help you banish moods of pessimism and gloom and establish for all time, the optimistic attitude that will make your life one of joy and fulfillment.

I now banish the dark shadows of moodiness, pessimism, and gloom that inhabit my conscious and subconscious minds. I now replace these negative forces with the positive forces of joy, enthusiasm, hope, and optimism. I know my future will be brighter than my past. I now chase the clouds of gloom from my mind and I am once again happy and radiantly alive. I thrive on memories of past happy experiences and I build my subconscious mind power on the positive forces of optimism and faith that will shape my future destiny perfectly.

When you read the above nine statements of Exorcism in your daily life and even memorize them, you can use them whenever these destructive demons obsess your mind. You can keep the erosive effects of fear, hate, and ignorance from doing their deadly programming in your conscious and subconscious minds and gradually so insulate yourself with the positive forces that you will never again succumb to these destructive satanic power

SUMMARY OF CHAPTER 1

1. How black magic has cast its spell over the world today, bringing the obsessing forces of violence, fear, drug addiction, alcoholism, and disaster to millions of people. Exorcism is the ancient art of ridding the human consciousness of these evil forces of darkness.

2. The two forces of light and darkness between which mankind stands and how you can begin to exorcise evil with good.

3. How to use the art of exorcism to overcome the forces of evil with good, invoking the power through subconscious mind-imprinting to release constructive mind power for Good.

4. A woman who was nearly destroyed by forces of black magic, used this invocation of exorcism and released herself from an evil spell that nearly killed her.

5. How thought forms were projected by a group under scientific tests that infected the minds of another group in the other room, making them sick with cramps, nausea, and headaches.

6. A minister and his congregation used the art of black magic to curse growing seeds and destroy them; then they prayed over other seeds, using the power of white magic, and the seeds yielded a crop that was five times bigger than normal wheat.

7. How poverty and limitation can be overcome through the invocation of exorcism and the demon of poverty can be replaced by the white magic of riches and abundance.

8. The exorcism that can be used to banish misery and discontent and bring you instant radiant joy and happiness.

9. How you can forever free yourself of the demons of hatred, jealousy, revenge, and envy, through exorcism and then release the positive white magic of Love to change your life.

10. A woman lost everything she held dear and was almost ready to kill her husband, when we used exorcism to release her from this destructive force that nearly wrecked her life.

11. How to exorcise the dark forces of ignorance, superstition, and darkness and release the positive forces of rationality and intelligence to illuminate your life and bring you progress and achievement.

12. How fear and failure thoughts can lead to disaster, and the exorcism to rid you forever of these two monsters.

13. A man suffered from obsessive fear and was on the verge of losing his sanity and his life possessions, when he learned the art of exorcism and immediately reversed the forces of black magic with white magic and saved his life.

14. How the Devil, or dark force, works with the tools of hate, anger, greed, selfishness, jealousy, pride, and evil to destroy humanity and how exorcism inhibits these forces of evil.

15. How to exorcise the black magic of failure and use the positive forces to bring you success on all planes.

16. How to overcome the black magic of moodiness, depression, pessimism, and gloom, by using exorcism, and building perpetual optimism that can make your life radiantly successful.

White Magic Exorcisms That Can Break Forever the Spells Of Black Magic

You can use the ancient art of exorcism to free you of malignant forces that bring sickness, poverty, and misery. There are different forms of white magic exorcisms that can release you from the spells of black magic that might have brought you bad luck throughout your life.

In this chapter we shall study these powerful white magic forces that can help you achieve peace of mind, health, happiness, and prosperity.

When we look at the world of nature we know that powerful forces, which work like magic, exist in the invisible realm. Nothing is more magical than to see a patch of black soil produce a pink rose, white cotton, a yellow orange, or a giant oak tree. These forces that exist in the invisible can be harnessed and made to work their magic for you, when you once understand how they work in nature.

You cannot see electricity and yet it is so powerful it can light a city or can kill a man with a lightning bolt.

You cannot see capillary attraction working in the soil and yet you can harness this invisible power to produce a crop of wheat, corn, or apples.

You cannot feel the force of gravity or magnetism and yet you know that our earth is held up in space by it, causing it to revolve around the sun.

It is in this invisible realm that the forces of white and black magic work. You cannot see an evil obsessing thought entity, but you can see the outer results of hate and evil in wars that kill millions of people. These destructive thought forms are called black magic, when they create harm and hurt others. When an obsessing thought form is good, we call it white magic. The positive emotions of faith, joy, hope, love, and charity, are such forces of white magic and we can see the visible results of these positive forces in our third dimensional world of matter.

You can invoke the white magic forces to bring you instantaneous power to do good things in your life. You can use exorcism rituals to rid yourself of the black magic powers that may have fastened on your mind and which show in your life as sickness, unhappiness, poverty, loneliness, and bitterness. We shall now study these realms of exorcism to overcome the effects of black magic in your life.

First Realm of Exorcism: Invoking the invisible law of Magnetic Attraction in its positive polarity to exorcise the negative forces of poverty, lack and limitation.

As exorcism concerns the invisible or mystical forces at work in the universe, this first realm of exorcism deals with the primary, motivating force in the invisible world; that of magnetism.

There are two polarities to magnetism: one is positive, or good; the other is negative or evil.

Most people are under the hypnotic power of negative magnetism. They live under the mesmerism of their animalistic passions and emotions. They believe that war and violence are actually a way of life and that this cannot be changed. They subscribe to the theory that others have all the money and that they cannot get our hands on it. They believe that God created sickness, sin, hospitals, prisons, insane asylums, and battlefields, and that man can do nothing to reverse this negative trend to disease, war, poverty, and premature death.

The satanic force of negative magnetism has enslaved millions to the belief that they need to be sick and that medicines can somehow heal them. In a recent survey by a medical group, it was shown that medications given by practicing physicians, led to 85 percent of the people treated, becoming sick and needing to be hospitalized! In Tel Aviv recently, during a doctors' strike, 50 percent fewer people died than when doctors worked full time! It was also revealed that 20 years ago in a similar doctors' strike the same statistics prevailed.

The belief that people must go crazy under pressures of modern living causes many to break down. The negative obsessive thought that we must become drug addicts, alcoholics, and cigarette smokers, has kept humanity hypnotized for generations, allowing the satanic forces of insanity, violence, sickness, accident, and premature death to run rampant in our society.

REGIMEN TO USE POSITIVE MAGNETIC EXORCISM TO OVERCOME BLACK MAGIC

1. Each day exorcise your mind from the evil effects of negative magnetism. Instead of saying, "I'm afraid I'm going to be sick" say, "I now invoke positive magnetism, and I know I shall be healthy. Every cell of my brain and body now pulsates with life, health and energy."

2. Each day, instead of succumbing to the negative belief that you must be poor and that you cannot attract money, houses, lands, and other forms of riches, change this magnetic polarity to a positive one and exorcise your negative mind with this positive magnetic statement:

"I shall be a success. I magnetize money and possessions and I attract them into my orbit. I break the black magic force of evil that tells me I shall be poor and have to struggle all my life in inferior circumstances. I am rich. I am powerful. I am in control of my destiny."

3. Each day, several times a day, invoke the invisible occult power of Faith to help heal you of all negative conditions. State firmly, "I have faith in a higher creative power, called God, and I live under the law of Faith. I now perform the miracles of attracting health, happiness and riches in my life through this positive, white force of Faith.”

Second Realm of Exorcism: Psychic Somnambulism, the mystic path to the achievement of your dreams and desires.

From the mystic lands of India, Tibet, and Egypt there comes a powerful form of magic which people have used for many centuries to bring them the fulfillment of their every dream. The advanced souls, who were the keepers of the sacred knowledge of the East, knew how to invoke the ancient law of exorcism to banish the evil forces that kept them wallowing in darkness. They used Psychic Somnambulism to tap that second realm of occult power which could make their dreams come true.

How to Use the Magic Power of Psychic Somnambulism

1. Sit quietly in meditation for a few minutes a day, and intone the sacred mantra from Tibet to exorcise the forces of negativity within your mind. This is the statement: Ohm mane padme ohm. It means, “The jewel in the heart of the lotus.” When your repetition of this sacred mantra has been repeated five to ten times, you will have cleared the forces of evil, negativity, and the earth hindrances of greed, selfishness, hate, envy, revenge, lust, and fear from your higher mind.

2. When you have gone through this purifying regimen, breathe; hold it for a few seconds, then release the breath. Close your eyes, as though going into a state of sleep. Then mentally call up the visions of the various things you want to accomplish in your life. As in a dream, begin to imagine the events of your life and, like a sleep walker, start to act out your fantasies in this dream world, making them seem real.

3. As you practice the art of fantasy, you will begin to feel the sense of power flowing through your mind. In this state of psychic somnambulism project the thought forms of the things you want to come true for you in your everyday life. See the spiritual image of the house you wish to live in. Mentally occupy every room; entertain your friends in it; see the garden aflame with flowers in the spring; the furniture that you decorate it with. As you project this psychic thought form the house will begin to take place and be assembled with psychic energy from the same realm that creates an oak tree from a tiny acorn, and finally, a veritable forest from the invisible spiritual energy that flows throughout the cosmos in invisible, magnetic wavelengths.

Think of the magic in this universe. An acorn weighs only an ounce or so, and yet from it comes a gigantic creation of an oak tree that weighs two billion times more than the seed from which it grew!

With this art of exorcism, you can command the same forces in the invisible to materialize for you money, jewels, houses, lands, stocks, cars, clothes, furs, and other things of value.

4. Project your fantasies to your work, your business; see yourself being promoted; see the business place you want to own. Call upon the higher spiritual forces to show you how to make a fortune. The knowledge and power are there, in your own higher mind centers. They need to be released by the rites of invocation and exorcism. Remember, this art of exorcism also applies to the binding of yourself with an oath that you take to rid yourself of the demons of failure and poverty and to the achievement of fortune for the purpose of doing good.

A Maharajah's Mystic Money Ritual

On one of my visits to India, I had the good fortune to be introduced to one of the most powerful reigning Maharajahs of that mystic land. He lived in one of his enormous pink palaces, surrounded by every form of luxury and the treasures that he had accumulated from all over the world.

This Maharajah had been well trained in the arts of magic and the occult by his father. He gave me a tour of his palace, and I was impressed by the treasures in carved ivory, silver, gold and of jewels. Then he took me into one room where there were displayed in glass cases special treasures collected from all over the world. Here I saw the finest diamonds and emeralds and ropes of fine pearls, all lying in this treasure house, waiting to be used. He had a vast collection of gold coins and gold bars, which were stored in a great locked vault. He told me of a sacred money ritual that his father had taught him to repeat daily, which he believed had magnetized and brought him these treasures from all over the world.

The Maharajah's Mystic Money Ritual

I am the custodian of all God's treasures in His universe. I now make a sacred covenant with Him. I shall administer and dispense these treasures with honor and justice. I shall conserve and protect His natural resources; I shall respect His universal laws, and grant to Him the power to dispose of my earthly treasures in any way He chooses. I shall share my good with my people. I shall grant His wishes and help uplift the poor, educate the ignorant, inspire the lowly to high ideals, and daily pray for the wisdom to serve God and Humanity.

This money ritual had made the Maharajah one of the most powerful in all of India. He kept his part of the covenant with God. He daily dispensed food and clothing; he worked harder than any other ruler to give children a good education; he taught respect for law and order, and in the future times of turmoil, his kingdom in India was considered one of the most illumined, and least rebellious of all the provinces. His theory had worked to make him not only wealthy but beloved and respected by his people.

Third Realm of Exorcism: The occult Rainbow of Golden Dreams, to banish the dark clouds of black magic.

For centuries the rainbow has stood as a mystical symbol of a covenant between God and man. His occult rainbow of golden dreams was used as a ritual in the Far East to release magical power through the higher mind, which could transform and change ones life into the glittering substance of dreams.

How to Release the Magic Power of the Rainbow of Golden Dreams

The rainbow has seven colors in its spectrum. So too, in the mystical rainbow of golden dreams there are seven facets of occult power which radiate in consciousness and give man his divine gifts and treasures. Seven has always been a mystical number; there are seven planets; seven days of the week and seven astral colors.

1. To invoke the supreme power of exorcism through the occult rainbow, go into a period of meditation by lighting a white candle at your altar. Burn some fragrant incense such as sandalwood or jasmine. Then invoke the higher forces by thinking or saying the following mystic mantra.

Ohm mane padme ohm. I now invoke the power of the higher spiritual forces and ask that my mystical rainbow of golden dreams be made a living, glowing reality.

2. After you have said the above invocation, sit in the stillness and feel the inflowing power from on high. See the bright rainbow spanning the heavens, as you have during a storm, when the bright sun suddenly broke through the clouds and lit the heavens with its seven astral rays of color.

3. Now think of the first occult ray of the rainbow of golden dreams as being Peace to exorcise chaos and discord. Close your eyes for this mystical exercise, and give the first astral ray the color of cerulean blue. See the blue heavens with the golden letters spelling out P-E-A-C-E. Now intone the meditation for Peace.

I live in the golden aura of peace and tranquillity. In the eternal light of His cosmic spirit I am peaceful and serene. This peace extends to my home, my work, and all the circumstances of my life. As the bright colored rainbow of peace and hope spans the dark abyss after a storm, so too, the storms of my earthly existence are now quelled by the bright, golden light of His infinite peace, joy, and radiance. I am one with the infinite. I exorcise the forces of depression, moodiness, gloom, and friction in my life.

4. Now you are ready to meditate on the second astral ray of the golden rainbow of dreams. This is the astral ray of Joy to exorcise the dark shadows of depression and misery. To this emotion give the astral color of sunlight yellow, and meditate as follows:

As the golden light of the sun eternally brightens the face of earth, so too, my higher consciousness is now bathed by the golden light of Joy. I radiate happiness in my environment. I give joy to every person I meet and I overcome all negative forces of despair with this astral ray of golden light.

5. You can next meditate on the divine ray of Love, to exorcise the negative forces of hate, jealousy, and revenge with the following invocation, ascribing to Love the astral color of rosy sunrise pink:

I now turn my face to the eastern horizon, where the rising light of love surrounds me with its rosy glow. Created in the magic circle of God's infinite love, I now enthrone this divine emotion and use it to exorcise the forces of hate and evil. God is love. I am in the magic spell of His occult rainbow of golden dreams and Love is the bright star that illumines my mind, body, and soul. I forever banish the demons of hate, jealousy, revenge, greed, and selfishness that block the rays of infinite love, mercy, and compassion.

A woman who suffered from a mental obsession, was tortured and tormented for days, with the thought that she must destroy herself by suicide. Many forms of obsession express thoughts of suicide and destruction through morbidity. Today, more and more psychiatrists and psychologists are coming around to the thought that many forms of mental illness are, in reality, obsessing thought forms or entities that fasten on the minds of people who are emotionally disturbed and, in that way, drive these persons to commit crimes of violence, and sometimes to destroy themselves.

This woman told me that she kept hearing a voice at night telling her, "Kill yourself! There's no earthly reason for your living. All your suffering and mental anguish will end forever if you kill yourself." This obsessing thought form kept up in her mind day and night. At night, she could hear a diabolical voice laughing loudly in her room. The sound seemed to fill her head and it grew louder and more insistent, when she tried to drive it out by thinking of other things.

One night she did actually take a handful of sleeping pills, driven by this demoniacal compulsion to kill herself. But as she was slipping into unconsciousness she took up the phone and got through to a friend, who instantly called an ambulance. She was rushed to a hospital and her stomach was pumped out. She was saved that time, but the demon of destruction kept at her until finally she came into our work to seek help from her tormenting obsession.

When she told me her symptoms, I recognized instantly that this was a case of mental possession by a destructive demon who was trying to destroy her.

I gave this woman a ritual of exorcism, which included walking around her with a lighted candle and saying the following statement of exorcism in rhyme. I burned some jasmine incense, lighted a white candle, and had a crucifix, which I used for this special exorcism rite, as the woman was a Christian.

I had the woman repeat with me the following ritual of exorcism three times:

I invoke thee, almighty God,
To fill my soul with light;
To guide, protect and lead
My soul into the light.
I rise above all evil spells,
Within my soul God's spirit dwells.
All shades and demons quit this place,
Show not your evil, hideous face.
Enter Light! Dark shadows doom!
Thy presence fills this sacred room.

The power of invocation is so great that it seems to drive out obsessing entities almost immediately. After the ritual of exorcism this woman reported she slept like a baby that night, and the obsessing demons did not return. She went on to become a normal, healthy, and happy human being.

These obsessing demons often gain control of a human mind and cause it to want to destroy itself or others. A case of obvious obsession was reported in the papers recently where a demoniacal voice told a man to kill his family, consisting of his wife and three children. He calmly told arresting officers that a voice, which he called the voice of God, had commanded him to make this human sacrifice. This man could have been exorcised if he had sought out spiritual help for his obsessive problem.

Fourth Realm of Exorcism: The art of exorcism through cosmic alchemy to turn black magic into white magic, and rid yourself of the obsessing forces of misery, sickness, poverty and despair.

Ancient magicians and occultists knew of the art of Cosmic Alchemy. They tried to use it to turn base metal into gold, but they did not understand the molecular structure of matter and failed. However, in the field of black magic, they were able to use Occult Alchemy to control the fields of force or spiritual energy and they were able to exorcise many negative and destructive forces, converting them into their opposite polarities of good, or white magic.

Here are some of the most common of these obsessing thought forms which must be converted into their opposites by the ritual of exorcism through Cosmic Alchemy. Alchemy simply means change or transmute something from one state to another.

When you want to exorcise any of the following mental obsessing entities, listed under Negative Forces, use the exorcism given underneath it, listed as Positive Forces. You may have to perform this exorcism rite several times a day, until you are able to drive the demons of obsession completely from your higher mind centers.

1. Negative black magic force: You will feel miserable and unhappy, for life is filled with bitter experiences and disappointments. Why don't you just give up and join the millions of despairing souls who have lost all hope?

Counteract the above with this positive white magic force:

I am in the white light of truth and faith in a higher power. I bid the demons of gloom and despair to get behind me. I am filled with happiness and the joy of living. I enthrone the white light of God's infinite mercy and divine love. I am now experiencing the emotions of love, peace, and eternal joy. I am no longer moody or depressed.

2. Negative black magic force: You will fail in this new undertaking. More people fail in life than win. The deck is stacked against you. People are dishonest and evil. You cannot win out in life. Drinking will drown your sorrows. Drugs will ease your heartaches and despair. Join the millions who have found relief this way.

Exorcise the above with this positive, white magic force:

I refuse to yield to this pessimism and gloom. I am created in the image and likeness of God. I am therefore divine and cannot give in to these forces of evil. I grow stronger under the challenges of life. I cast my burdens on the cosmic stream of God's infinite mercy and love. I am sustained in my struggles by the eternal lights of faith and hope.

3. Negative black magic force: Your big romance will end in separation and divorce. Don't you know three out of five marriages end in divorce? You cannot beat these statistics. Give up and let yourself become bitter and filled with hate and revenge. There is no love in the world; people are selfish and animalistic. Withdraw into a shell and forget your big dream of romance.

Exorcise the above with this positive, white magic force:

I shall find happiness in love and marriage. I have a dream of romance in my heart and soul. I am in God's magic circle of love and protection. I now banish all evil forces of hate, revenge, and loneliness. I am a loving human being and I shall attract only love, gentility, and beauty in my life experience.

4. Negative black magic force: The money you want cannot come to you. Don't you know people are dishonest? You must live in poverty and discontent all your life. You cannot make money through honest means. Give up to mental despair and failure. There is no other choice.

Exorcise the above with this positive, white magic force:

I can and will win riches and success. Money is plentiful, and I see my source of supply being from God, my universal banker. I know that my efforts shall be rewarded. I now exorcise poverty and all negative forces and I am aware that I am in the most prosperous phase of my life. Money now comes to me from many channels and I achieve riches and success with honor and dignity.

5. Negative black magic force: You will not be able to get the job you apply for. Don't you know you are inferior and unworthy of high goals? You cannot rise to a high position in life. It is easier to fail, to go on relief, to give up your ambitions and accept defeat.

Exorcise the above with this positive, white magic force:

I am worthy of the best that life has to offer. I shall get this job and receive an adequate salary for my work. I am a superior being, and God is my Father. I am an heir to a kingdom and I attract the best that life has to offer.

6. Negative black magic force: Your problems are burying you under their heavy load. There is no escape from your burdens. Why don't you give up to pessimism and gloom?

Exorcise the above with this positive, white magic force:

I know there is a solution to my problems. I refuse to yield to feelings of depression and hopelessness. I now rid my mind of despair and pessimism and rise to my true estate of spiritual grandeur, where all things are possible, because I believe in the miracle working power of the God mind.

A man whose mind seemed to be obsessed by the specters of fear, failure, and defeat, told me that he simply had lost the will to live and thought he was finished. His wife had left him when he lost his job and could no longer provide for her. He began the downward path by drinking excessively and he literally seemed to be possessed by a demon of cruelty and insane jealousy. The climax came one night when he struck his wife, and she packed her things and left him for good.

It was then he realized that he had some kind of self-destructive obsession and turned to our work for help.

I carefully checked over the things he had been doing, which told me that he was mentally obsessed by thought forms that were driving him to destruction. I gave him the six above forms of exorcism and he began to apply them to his life each day. Two weeks later he reported to me, and he was like a new man! He had found work, his wife had returned to him, and he was on the way to mastering his obsessive drinking problem.

SUMMARY OF CHAPTER 2

1. How the obsessing thought forms of lack and limitation, hate, fear and worry, sickness and pain, can be exorcised by the realms of exorcism.

2. The first realm of exorcism; how to invoke the invisible forces through the cosmic law of magnetism, to do your bidding, and rid your mind of the negative forces that destroy mankind.

3. How the satanic force of negative magnetism has enslaved mankind for generations with sickness, pain, and suffering.

4. The three steps in magnetic exorcism to rid your mind forever of the possessing forces of evil, poverty and sickness.

5. How to use the second realm of exorcism through Psychic Somnambulism to achieve your dreams and desires, and act out the pattern of destiny you have chosen for your life.

6. The magical power of fantasy to destroy black magic, and release the creative spiritual energy that banishes the obsessions of the mind and body.

7. How you can use a Maharajah's mystic money ritual in your life to exorcise the demons of poverty and limitation.

8. The third realm of exorcism, using the occult rainbow of golden dreams, to banish the black clouds of evil that haunt the human consciousness.

9. The supreme invocation of exorcism through meditation, that can elevate your mind and spirit to the cosmic heights of peace, beauty, love, and achievement.

10. The second astral ray of meditation to exorcise the dark shadows of depression, misery and suffering, and bring the golden sunlight of God's presence into your heart and soul.

11. How a woman suffering from an obsession, nearly committed suicide. She was told by an obsessing voice to kill herself, and when she exorcised this demon of destruction, she conquered the depression and came out of her obsessed state and was healed.

12. The ritual with a white candle and the crucifix, and the exorcism rite which you can use to protect yourself from the demons of fear, worry, anxiety, and suicide.

13. The fourth realm of exorcism through the ancient art of Cosmic Alchemy and how ancient magicians were able to use it to control the forces of black magic and turn them into white magic.

14. The six negative black magic forces and the six positive, white magic forces that can shatter the obsessions which are destroying the human mind and soul today, and how to use them to put yourself into the white light of God's protection.

15. How a man was being destroyed by these evil forces, took to drink, and lost his wife, before he became exorcised with Cosmic Alchemy. He changed his entire life and won out in his struggle for survival.

How Exorcism Can Stop Bad Luck And Turn It into Instant Good Luck

Many people are obsessed with the spirit of bad luck constantly. Everything they touch turns into the ashes of defeat and failure. Sometimes this is due to an obsessing thought entity projected by a person who is alive and wants the other person to have disaster, and sometimes it is projected by a thought force from an evil entity who is dead, and has a desire for revenge.

Marcy J. was in the first category. He was a man of 35 and he had incurred the enmity of a love rival, who had lost his girl friend to Marcy J. The jealous rival sought out a woman who used witchcraft and black magic and learned how he could haunt Marcy J. with destructive, obsessing thought entities.

The first indication that anything was wrong with him came when Marcy J. was driving his car and saw another car approaching him. He had a sudden, wild impulse to drive his car head-on into the oncoming car and kill himself. He told me later that it was as if a voice within his head was shouting, "Drive into that car and end it all! Your suffering will be over in one instant!"

He found himself in the wrong lane, hurtling at 60-miles-an-hour at the other car, when sanity suddenly returned, and he swerved out of the path of the oncoming car just in time to avert an almost certain tragedy.

Many psychiatrists have reported that their patients have often told them of an insistent voice or thought entity commanding them to kill themselves. How many thousands of so-called accidents on our highways are due to this form of mental obsession. It is now estimated that many thousands each year choose suicide in their cars as a means to get out of some situation that is driving them to insanity. The satanic power of obsession often uses this as a means to gain control of a human mind and soul by urging self-destruction.

However, a more subtle thing which Marcy J. described to me, happened the following week, and it led him to seek help to rid himself of what he then knew was an obsession.

He was standing at the curb of a street, waiting to cross, when he suddenly felt a force, like a strong wind at his back, push him directly into the path of a truck that nearly struck him. He distinctly heard a voice within his head scream, "I'm going to kill you!" The voice followed this statement with vile obscenities. As Marcy J. fell to the pavement, the truck was able to swerve just enough to miss him by a few inches!

During the two weeks of my investigating and treating this obvious case of mental obsession, Marcy J. had two other "accidents." As he was walking upstairs to his apartment, he felt something make his knees buckle and he fell down the full flight of stairs. He told me, "If I had been walking down the stairs, I could have understood falling, but walking upstairs! This had never happened to me before in my life."

The second instance was again in his car, when he was driving to work. He felt a sudden chill, as though a cold blast of air had suddenly invaded the car. The windows were closed, and there was no wind that day, but suddenly, to his horror, he looked through his windshield and saw it crumbling, as though a giant hand had smashed it! The pieces of glass blew on him with such force that he suffered numerous lacerations about his face and hands. The flow of blood blinded him momentarily and he went off the road, nearly hitting a stone abutment at the edge of the road.

I knew from the description of these incidents that we were dealing with a strong case of mental obsession from a living person. I began using the ritual of exorcism, which I shall give later, and Marcy J. was able to stop the obsessing force within a short time.

The second form of obsession by evil spirits of those who have died, or by the demon forces that try to use a living person to perform their evil deeds, is more subtle and more difficult to overcome. Many times a person is not aware that these evil forces from beyond the grave are using his mind and body. They sometimes commit crimes of violence while under the evil spell, and later profess to be surprised that they could have committed such a crime.

An instance of demon possession was that of Charles Manson, and his "family." This entire commune seemed to be obsessed by evil entities and the sole purpose seemed to be to torment and torture others. In the ultimate crime of violence and passion, Manson's henchmen, including two seemingly normal young women, broke into the home of actress Shirley Tate, and murdered six people. The two girls, obviously obsessed by demoniacal forces, laughed loudly as they butchered the young actress and cut open her abdomen, taking out the unborn child in her womb, while the dying mother begged for mercy. There is no other explanation for such a hideous crime except that of demoniacal obsession.

REGIMEN TO USE EXORCISM TO STOP YOUR BAD LUCK CYCLES

1. If you are having symptoms of obsession, such as sudden spells of bad luck, accidents, loss of money, loss of your job, or other freak things that happen without rational explanation, it is necessary that you begin at once to protect yourself through the rituals of exorcism.

Sit before your exorcism shrine, lighting a red candle, and preparing a receptacle for burning oriental incense. You may also use an oil known as musk, sprinkling a few drops at your altar before beginning your exorcism ritual. If you do not have musk, fix a saline solution of water and three tablespoons of salt, and sprinkle this in a circle around the place where you will do your exorcism.

2. As you walk three times in a circle, in the middle of your room, say this ritual of exorcism to yourself:

I now declare this to be holy ground
Only good spirits here abound.
Evil forces quit this place,
No longer show your ugly face.
This room is filled with the light of love;
Angel forces from above;
Dark shadows, evil spells of doom,
Are now banished from this sacred room.
My good luck starts and bad luck ends;
My life is blessed with love and friends.
Money comes to enrich my life;
And I am freed from hate and strife.

3. To avoid having your mind obsessed by evil thought forms or entities, mentally surround yourself with the white light of God's divine presence, whenever you go to bed, when you go out in your car, or when you walk on dark streets at night. Visualize your body surrounded by a white cocoon made of bright light. As you encase yourself in its protective aura, say the following exorcism ritual:

No evil force or entity can enter my mind or body. I am surrounded by the white light of God's presence. I am safe and secure. No evil can come near me. I now deflect all forces of darkness, all demons of fear, hate and revenge, and am safe from all accidents, dangers, threats of violence, and attacks from unknown sources.

4. Invoke your Guardian Angel thought forms to protect you and guide you to do things that bring you into prosperity, healthy, happiness, security, and good luck always.

There is a living spirit or intelligence in all living things, including plants and animals. Recent experiments by scientists prove that plants feel the evil force of a threat made against them. When someone threatened to cut off the leaves of a plant, it sent out electric shock waves on a brain measuring machine, just like a person in distress. When the threat was removed, the plant sent out normal wavelengths.

You too, possess this invisible spirit, or guardian angel, which can be invoked through meditation, to protect you and to guide you to safety and fulfillment of your life dream.

When you are embarking on a trip, ask your guardian angel thought forms to protect you, to warn you if there is danger to your life. It will respond in a most amazing manner.

A woman, who had learned how to use this principle of the guardian angel thought form, was invited to go on a week-end trip with three people to a cabin in the mountains. She agreed to go, but the Friday night before she was to leave on the next morning, she sat before her shrine, in deep meditation, and she asked her guardian angel, "Should I go on this trip? Is there anything I should know about it?"

As she sat in meditation before her shrine, with the white candle lit, she had a sudden vision; she saw a car going off the road and overturning. She was so alarmed that she called the people who were going on the trip and warned them to be cautious, telling them she could not go with them.

The following Saturday evening, they called her from the cabin and told her what a wonderful time they were having and they laughed at her silly fears. The next night, on the way home, the car went off the road on a curve and fell 15 feet, overturning and pinning the three people inside. Two of them suffered injuries, the third was unhurt. The woman who had listened to her guardian angel was saved from what might have been a tragic accident!

5. Each day begin with an exorcism to rid your aura of any obsessing thought forms or evil entities that might have invaded your mind or body while you were asleep. This ritual will protect you all that day. Say this ritual three times, just before going out to meet the challenges of the day.

Powers on high, whatever be,
Work your spell of Good for me.
Surround me in your clear, white light;
Banish demons of the night.
Guardian Angel, mercy show,
Protective light around me glow.
Keep me safe from harm and woe,
Point out the path that I shall go.

How a Writer Used Exorcism to Help Him Overcome Obstructions

I know a famous author who once came to me to be helped to overcome some obstructive earth entities that were keeping him from finishing his novel. He had been to a seance, where his dead brother came through in spirit and expressed hostility and jealousy, as he had when they were young together. The brother had died in a drunken accident and had gone over with hatred and revenge in his heart. He said to his brother, when he came through the medium, "Everything's going your way now, but it won't last long. You always were the white-haired boy, and now you think you're on top. Wait and see what happens to you!"

This threat worried the author, and he knew that his brother's restless spirit was earth-bound and had not overcome his jealousy and hatred. He was then working on a novel which had a certain deadline. The very next day when he sat down to work, he felt his brother's evil presence in the room. He heard loud laughter in his head and he recognized it as that of his brother. He remembered his brother pulling the wings off a butterfly when they were young, and laughing in the same diabolical way. His mind became so confused he could not even write one line. Then, after he made a desperate effort to start, his electric typewriter suddenly went dead and began to smoke as though it were afire. It was a fairly new typewriter, and he knew that some obsessing entity from the other side had caused this. The typewriter started once again and worked perfectly. He wrote as though in a trance, and when he read over what he had written the letters were spelled backwards, and a whole string of obscenity filled four lines of his script.

By this time the author was so horrified that he stopped working and telephoned me for an immediate appointment to help him.

I went to his apartment, which was nearby, taking a black candle, incense, a cross, and the Holy Bible. I knew that I would have to use powerful forces of exorcism to rid him of this obsession, so that was why I planned to use the black candle. This should be done only in extreme emergencies.

After listening to the account of the obsessing forces that had infected his aura, I began to work the ritual of exorcism to rid him forever of this evil entity.

I used the above invocation, burning a black candle, and walked around the obsessed author three times in each direction, surrounding him with the white light of protection and saying,

I command you in the name of God, instantly to quit this mind, body, and soul. Return to your rightful domain of oblivion and forevermore remain among the shades which have claimed your soul. You now have no power over your brother and his life. He is forever freed of your obsessing thought forms and now exists in the pure white light of God's mercy and protection.

Then I had the author hold the black candle, and the Bible, and circle three times around the room, and then reverse the direction, and circle three times in the opposite direction. I then gave him a protective ritual to say if he should ever sense that his brother's obsessing entity was trying to enter into his mind or body.

The author went back to his work, finished his novel on schedule, and reported to me frequently, telling me that the obsessing force did not return after the ritual of exorcism.

One of the reasons why the various church organizations urge the use of specially blessed medals, like St. Christopher's, for protection while traveling, or St. Mary's or other saints, is the recognition that evil obsessing entities cannot come into specially blessed and sacred environments. Many people keep a cross, or other religious symbol, at the highest place in their room, to keep themselves free of obsessing entities.

In Italy and Greece, they have what they call the Evil Eye, and in some villages in Greece, I found the image of an eye, up over the outer doors to keep the inhabitants from Kako Mati, the evil eye power. The use of holy water is also often used for special rites of exorcism and protection.

6. If you are having bad luck in your business affairs, or if money is difficult to earn or keep, you may be under an evil obsessing thought form that is trying to break your mind or spirit. You will need special exorcism rituals to help you overcome these strong forces. Sometimes these evil thought forms are being sent to you by your business rivals, who want to get you out of business. Sometimes it may be a person who is jealous of you and fearful you will become too powerful, if you become rich or successful. Many times it is an obsessing thought form that is trying to destroy you through greed, gambling, or dishonesty.

One man became obsessed with a gambling compulsion that was destroying him. He went to the races every day, using up his life savings, and keeping his family in absolute poverty. Some demon had possessed his mind and no matter how much he lost, this power kept telling him, "Don't worry. Tomorrow will be different. You'll win. You'll make a big killing and then quit gambling."

His wife first came to me for help, recognizing that something was wrong with her husband. She then told me that her husband's brother had been a big gambler, and had killed himself when he finally went broke and took to drink. She said that her husband and his brother had been very close. I instantly saw a connection here and believed that the dead brother, to keep up his gambling propensities, had undoubtedly infected his live brother, so the dead spirit could keep up his gambling habits vicariously. I told the woman to bring her husband to me. When I met this gambler, what I feared was confirmed. This man told me, "I always feel my dead brother's spirit very close to me. When I win a large sum at the races, I see his face; he is always smiling, and congratulating me. I keep having this vision that my brother and I will be together some day, and I have often thought I might kill myself so I could join him."

This confession furnished the basis for my work in exorcism that I immediately began. I knew then that the brother was sending his thought projections over from the other side, infecting the aura of the brother who had been so close to him in life. Not only was he directing him to gamble, but he was also giving him a suicide compulsion so that they could be together!

I worked the rites of exorcism with this man over a period of two weeks. I also instructed him and his wife how to work to insulate themselves from the intrusion of the dead brother's obsessing thought forms. They both worked hard at protecting themselves against this evil force, and gradually they obtained a victory over the obsession. The man stopped gambling; he became a hard worker, and lost all thoughts of committing suicide.

7. To break the obsessing forces that keep you broke, or make you lose money through wrong investments, you must invoke the power of your will and refuse to give in to the erratic mental thought forces that are keeping you poor. Say this exorcism every night just before going to bed:

Money, money, come to me!
From limitation set me free.
Desire is the money key,
That opens treasure troves to me.
Spirits good and spirits bold,
Lead me to a horde of gold.
Enrich my bank account and purse;
Break the bonds of a poor man's curse.
Rise, O spirit! Enrich and bless
My life with good and happiness.

With the above exorcism use a gold or yellow candle, and burn it at your altar, as you use the above invocation. Do this ritual of exorcism whenever you feel the pinch of poverty or when you want to make money through an investment, a new business venture, or through your own business.

POINTERS TO REMEMBER IN CHAPTER 3

1. How the spirit of bad luck often curses people and keeps them from attracting fortune and good luck.

2. How a man was obsessed by the spirit of his dead brother, and made to have accidents that nearly destroyed him.

3. Psychiatrists often report how an obsessing voice will tell a person to kill himself; this could be an obsessing entity from the other planes of life.

4. How Marcy J. finally exorcised his dead brother's spirit, and was kept from destruction and death.

5. Evil entities that obsessed Charles Manson and his "family" and caused them to commit dastardly crimes of murder and torture.

6. How you can use rituals of exorcism to break the spell of bad luck, accidents, and other misfortunes.

7. The tools to use for exorcism, including a red candle, oriental incense, or oil of musk to prepare your altar for the ritual of exorcism.

8. How to use the white light of God's divine presence to protect you when you go to bed, so evil entities cannot come into your aura, also when you go out in your car, or walk in dark places.

9. How to use the Guardian Angel thought forms that will protect you from all evil forces.

10. How one woman used this guardian angel principle to save her from a tragedy in a car accident that nearly killed three people.

11. An author, obsessed by the hateful spirit of his dead brother, nearly destroyed himself, and his career, until he learned how to exorcise the evil entity.

12. How St. Christopher medals and other religious emblems can be used as protections against invading evil forces.

13. A man was being destroyed by a gambling obsession, projected by an evil spirit of his brother. He was exorcised and was able to stay free of this obsession and stopped gambling.

How Exorcism Can Be Used To Develop Psychic and Clairvoyant Powers

Every person was born with psychic power. It is only when we become older that we lose this natural, God-given gift. Then obsessive thought forms begin to take over, giving the mind delusions and clouding the psychic vision.

To rid yourself of these obsessive thought forms of fear and delusion, you can use the ancient art of exorcism. Remember, there are two forms of exorcism which you can use for this purpose. One is to bind yourself to the source of good or the power of God, which is a kind of dedication to the higher powers and the flow of a higher mind through your mind. The other form of exorcism concerns itself with ridding your mind or spirit of any obsessing, delusional entities or thought forms that may be clouding your vision or giving you erroneous information which misleads you.

In the Yoga philosophy from the Far East, the process of binding oneself to the higher mind power through psychic vision, is known as yoking oneself to the absolute. The word Yoga derives from the word yoked. As the absolute or cosmic mind of God is omniscient, omnipotent, and omnipresent, it knows all things, is all powerful and flows in all particles of His universe, so it is instantly available.

When there are obstructing thought forms or entities standing in the way of your psychic reception you will find yourself unable to act in a positive manner and your vision will be clouded. Then you must use the art of exorcism to rid your mind of the obsessive thoughts that are clouding your mind and keeping you from receiving divine guidance.

HOW TO KNOW WHEN OBSESSING THOUGHT FORMS POSSESS YOU

1. You will have great difficulty in making decisions.
2. Your mind is tormented by fears of the future.
3. You become obsessed by visions of tragedies and horrors that might happen to your family, your friends or yourself.
4. You find yourself contemplating the peace of death and the feeling it is preferable to life. (This often drives a person to suicide.)
5. You find solace in sleeping pills, alcohol, drug addiction, or other forms of destruction.
6. You begin to form compulsive habits to destroy yourself.
7. You form hateful and murderous thoughts, in which you visualize torturing or killing those you believe stand in your way or have harmed you. (Hitler had this type of possession, in which he wanted to destroy the millions of Jews he believed caused Germany's economic disasters. This demonic thought form sent six million to die in gas chambers!)
8. You take delight in hearing about the misfortunes or deaths of others.
9. You find yourself hating more and more people, extending your hate at first to individuals, then to members of different churches from your own, then to social segments of the population, as black people, Catholics, or Jews, Italians, Russians, and Poles, until you include most of the human race. This seclusive process isolates the mind more and more, and finally breaks down the psyche making it easier for demonic forces to take possession of your mind.
10. You find yourself becoming more and more moody and melancholy, taking pleasure in your sense of suffering, and finding less pleasure in life than formerly.

11. You begin to enjoy coarse jokes, obscene and vulgar conversation, pornographic art, and find yourself using curse words more frequently. You read of violence, rape, murder, mass wars that killing hundreds of thousands and believe that humanity deserves to be destroyed, that people are evil, and that God is punishing humanity for its crimes.

OBSESSIONS FORM A PSYCHIC CLOUD OVER THE MIND

When these or other obsessive thought-forms occupy the human mind, they form a psychic cloud over the powers of the human mind, making it impossible to receive psychic guidance, or to have clairvoyant vision and intuition.

Sometimes these obsessive thought forms take on actual dimensions and possess a person's mind and body as entities that the person can see or sense.

One such case of obsession occurred to a woman who sought me out for help. She had been to priests, psychiatrists, and witches, trying to rid herself of this obsession that was slowly but surely destroying her. She told me that a huge black octopus had fastened itself onto her body, and that his eight legs had formed a strangle-hold on her, torturing her at night, giving her the feeling that her life force was being slowly drained from her body.

At times this possession would reveal itself to her by sulking in a corner and saying foul things and torturing her by keeping her awake at night. Psychiatrists told her she was hallucinating and that this octopus was only in her imagination. They suggested shock treatments but she felt sane enough to refuse, believing that she was truly possessed by a demoniac force.

The church refused to use exorcism, believing also that this woman had delusions. But to this woman the force was real, and I instantly agreed that, whether imaginative or real, the thing was true for her and some obsessing entity had possessed her. In this state of anxiety the woman could no longer work or enjoy life, and she had seriously considered killing herself to get rid of this painful obsessive force. I told her that suicide was no way out, as this was exactly what the demoniac powers wanted so they could gain complete possession of her soul.

During the various stages of exorcism which I had to use on this woman, she went through the writhing, torturous agonies of real possession, shouting obscenities, cursing and laughing alternately, until she would fall onto the couch exhausted after each such treatment. Finally our exorcism reached the stage where she became calmer during treatment, and one day she reported that as I was walking around her with the crucifix and candle, the evil thing had detached itself from her body and was skulking in a corner, its demon eyes red, glaring with hate and malevolence at both of us. I could not see the entity, but I felt its evil presence in the room, and I am convinced that this obsessive demon was real to this woman and existed in a dimension of time and space that was revealed to her eyes alone.

After two months of treatment, in which I showed the woman how to work exorcism herself on this evil force, she was at last freed of this monstrous entity and could resume her normal life. Her psychic vision came back, she was able to have intuition, and guidance, she resumed her work once more and had no more recurrences of this dreadful experience.

REGIMEN FOR USING EXORCISM TO DEVELOP PSYCHIC AND CLAIRVOYANT POWERS

1. If you find yourself unable to receive psychic guidance and your powers of intuition seem to be limited, perhaps you are suffering from some form of mental obsession, as listed in the above 11 obsessing thought forms. You must first do an exorcism to rid yourself of whatever is clouding your higher, psychic centers.

Retire to a quiet corner of your room, where you can have a shrine set up, with a white candle, incense, and a religious emblem, such as a cross or medal. Light the white candle and burn the incense. Then sit quietly in meditation, with your eyes closed, saying or thinking the following invocation. If you wish to do so, read it, at first, until you memorize the words, then say it quietly to yourself as you sit in meditation.

I now rid my higher mind centers of all obsessive thought forms, of all possessive entities and other negative forces. I clear my psychic mind centers of all fear, hate, worry, and revenge thoughts. I project to my higher mind centers the dynamic power of the God mind, and I yoke myself to the cosmic intelligence that knows all, sees all, and is all. I desire psychic illumination. I wish to have clairvoyant visions to know my future destiny. I ask to be guided to my right work, my true soul mate, my source of riches and abundance. I desire the solution of my problems. I wish to have happiness, health, abundance, and peace of mind.

How a Young Woman Received Psychic Guidance.

A member of my lecture group in Los Angeles, was very troubled when she came to me for counseling. She had broken off with her boy friend on the eve of their marriage and was heartbroken. She had always considered herself psychic and felt she had been guided to this particular boy friend, but suddenly he announced he loved another girl.

After being so cruelly rejected, this girl began to sit and brood on all the terrible things she wanted to happen to her former boy friend and his new girl friend. She visualized them in a car accident, and hoped that the girl's face would be ruined, destroying her physical beauty. She knew nothing about witchcraft, black magic, or obsessing thought forms, but her hatred was so strong, she felt possessed with only one desire; to destroy the man and woman who had robbed her of her chance for happiness.

A week later she received word that her former boy friend and his girl had been riding in a car and had an accident! The girl's face was cut and would require plastic surgery! It was then that this woman realized there was some tremendous psychic force she had released through her hatred, which had put a curse on the couple.

Now, completely under the spell of her obsessing demon, the girl projected the thought form that her boy friend would be drafted and sent to Vietnam, separating him from his new girl friend. Two weeks later, she heard his draft board had taken him into the army. Soon he was on his way to Vietnam. Then she learned that the girl was out of the hospital and going around with another man. Now she felt she had a chance to win her boy friend back when he returned from Vietnam. But what she had not figured on, nor projected, was that he might never come back. This was exactly what happened. The young man was killed in the war and it was then she realized what an evil thing she had done. She sought me out to ask how she could make restitution for what she had done and overcome the terrible depression that was causing her to contemplate suicide.

I gave her the ritual of exorcism to rid her mind of the obsessing demons of hate, revenge, and murder that had clouded her higher mind centers for months.

I told her to pray for forgiveness of her sins and to dedicate herself to serving God and humanity to make amends for the evil she had projected. In two months time, she had overcome this obsessing force and told me she had met a very nice young man, and they were planning to marry. Now, armed with the spiritual power of Good and Love, she was on her way to the happiness she desired, and she felt she was once again being guided by her higher psychic centers to her great destiny.

2. To keep your spiritual aura pure and clean, go over your thoughts each day and weed out of your mind all the obsessing forces of evil. Do you wish harm to someone? Do you often think of getting revenge on some person who hurt you? Have you found yourself becoming more worried about the future than usual? Do you find yourself taking sleeping pills, alcohol, pep pills, or other forms of drugs? Do you cry easily, brood and become moody and depressed over nothing? These could indicate that your mind is obsessed by destructive forces, and you must do something to rid yourself of these obsessive thought forms.

How Marilyn Monroe Was Destroyed by Obsessions

I met Marilyn Monroe the first week she was in Hollywood. In my capacity as advisor to the movie stars I usually met the newcomers to Hollywood and often advised them all through their careers. While we were having lunch I listened to Marilyn's story about her orphan days. Deserted by her mother and father, she went from one home to another for several years. She was a sensitive child, with a very vivid imagination. She lived in a world of fantasy a good deal. She dreamed of one day becoming famous, of being a big star in Hollywood and having the whole world at her feet. But she felt she was an ugly duckling and that she was doomed to a life of misery, poverty and loneliness.

One day, when she was 12, she went to a church meeting, where the minister told about the tempting of Christ by the devil. She remembered how the devil had promised Christ the possession of great wealth and power, if he would fall down and worship him. She remembered the Christ command, "Get thee behind me, Satan!"

This story made a powerful impression on her young mind, she told me, and one night, in a terrible thunder and lightning storm, she rose from her bed, stood before her window and dared the lightning to strike her! When she remained unharmed, she said she looked out at the storm-tossed night, and made a pact with the devil: "If you make me beautiful, famous and beloved by all the world, I'll be willing to give my soul to you!" As the wind shrieked through the trees outside her window and the thunder crashed, a lightning flash suddenly blasted the heavens and she felt that her pact had been sealed. She told me that believing in God had never helped her, that she had been robbed of everything a normal girl holds dear; her father and mother, emotional security and happiness; "In that moment of desperation I felt that if God wouldn't help me, the devil might!" Then, pensively, like a frightened little child, she asked me, "Do you really believe there is a devil? Do you think he will claim my soul?" As if to reassure herself, she laughed, tossed her pretty blond head and went on chattering happily about her new contract and her possibilities of winning fame and fortune. She went on to become one of Hollywood's biggest stars, associated with presidents, and was presented to Queen Elizabeth.

Several years later, I was writing a book, in which I was writing Marilyn's name, telling of her sensational career, when suddenly the radio announced that she had died of an overdose of sleeping pills!

I changed my sentence to “The late Marilyn Monroe—” and realized, sadly, that the devil had kept his pact with the mentally disturbed and beautiful young movie star, and that in her suicide, she had kept her pact with him!

3. Use the ritual of exorcism to keep yourself free of obsessing thought forms and evil entities that might come into your mind when you feel discouraged, when you are depressed and unhappy. Say the following ritual three times, just before going to sleep at night to keep yourself free of obsessing evil entities. Burn a white candle and light the incense, as you repeat this ritual of exorcism for safety while you sleep.

Sleep enfold me like a babe;
In his loving mother's arms.
Keep me safe, O angels pure!
From all evil and all harms.
Lull me into gentle rest,
Guardian angel at thy breast.
Let no evil things defile
My body, soul or mind.
Rid me of all sin and guile,
As the path to heaven I find.

4. To help open your psychic mind centers use the ritual from Tibet, directing the power at your third eye, which is located in the forefront of the brain, between the two physical eyes. Breathe deeply five times, and say the mystical mantra, Ohm mane padme ohm. As you intone this mantra, you will feel the power surging through your seventh chakra, in the upper regions of your brain, you will begin to have psychic experiences, and clairvoyant vision will develop.

5. Rid your mind of all obsessive thought forms by carefully going over the thoughts you have been thinking. If you hate someone and want to get revenge, treat your mind centers with this incantation to rid yourself of the evil force of hate:

Hate is alien to my mind;
Hate begets hate, makes me blind

To evil's treacherous face.
Now I cleanse my soul and mind,
And within, true love I find,
Leading me to my right place.

6. Use a rose-colored candle with this form of exorcism. Repeat the above three times and then sit in psychic silence, waiting for your mind centers to clear. You may then ask questions of your psychic mind, such as: Where will I get my right work?

How can I get more money?
How shall I solve these problems?
Where can I meet my true soul mate?
Where is the lost object?
Should I take this trip and will I be safe?
Can I trust this business partner?
Lead me to the house I want to rent (or buy).
Show me how to develop my creative gifts.

7. Each night, just before going to sleep, put the white circle of God's protective light around your room. Take a white candle, light it, sprinkle jasmine or lavender water around the room, and say the following purifying ritual of exorcism:

I now purify this room with the golden light of God's infinite presence. I cleanse my mind and body; my soul is in the light of His infinite Presence. I am kept safe and secure as I sleep and I am able to contact the higher forces through astral projection, which show me my destiny for the future.

8. Then, as you lie down to sleep, feel you are being lifted up gently, by invisible hands, until your soul feels a slight tugging sensation, as it prepares for astral flights while you sleep. You may experience instruction from masters, while on the astral planes, or you may be guided to solutions to your problems, or you may be given some big idea for an invention, a story, song, or business promotion that could bring you a fortune.

It is said that Edison used this form of invocation before going to sleep at night; asking his higher mind to come through on the astral with some idea about an invention he was working on. He said that one night, as he slept, something came through his higher psychic centers and told him the material to use to make the filament of the electric light bulb. He said it was as if something nudged him into wakefulness, and he wrote down the idea and then went back to sleep. In that way he solved a problem that had eluded his ordinary, everyday mind.

9. If your psychic centers are being clouded with fear, worry, and anxiety and you cannot seem to make the cosmic connection with the God mind that can guide you to peace and happiness, do an exorcism to rid yourself of these destructive demon forces:

I call upon God's cosmic mind
To aid me in my quest,
For finding peace and joy.
I seek a tranquil rest.
All fear and worry quit my mind;
All dark shadows fall behind.
I turn my face now to the light
And banish shadows of the night,
As perfect peace and rest I find.

How a Man Found Psychic Guidance Through Exorcism

A man who came into our work in New York City, was very distressed. The energy crisis had brought his factory nearly to a standstill and he was forced to lay off many employees. He was so mentally disturbed that he could no longer receive psychic guidance as to what he should do. I knew, in my first interview with him, that we must lay aside the demons of mental agony before he could see clearly the solution to his problem. I went to work and did an exorcism ritual, invoking the power of cosmic mind to rid him of his fear and anxiety obsessions.

I told him to sit every day for half an hour and do the above exorcism ritual in rhyme, for this seems to be more powerful for certain types of exorcism than prose. He was then to stop thinking about his problems and put himself completely in the hands of God, depending on Him for the solution to his problem.

While he was sitting in meditation, on the third day, after he had done the exorcism ritual, he suddenly had an urge to call someone in California he had done business with three years before. Being in the plastic business, and experiencing shortages due to the oil embargo, he felt the man in California could help him. Sure enough, when he phoned the man he was told that he had an entire warehouse filled with the very products he needed to continue his production of plastic products! The materials were shipped within a week, he was able to put his employees back to work, and his factory continued its usual production with great success.

POINTS TO REMEMBER IN CHAPTER 4

1. Every person possesses psychic power when the higher mind centers are not clouded with obsessive thought forms.

2. How to become yoked to the absolute power through the cosmic connection that can remove obsessive thought forms and give you perfect psychic power.

3. How to know when an obsessing thought form is possessing your mind and what to do about it.

4. How a woman was obsessed by an entity that kept her from receiving psychic guidance and that threatened to destroy her sanity and her health.

5. The first ritual exorcism to use to rid yourself of obsessive thought forms and once again restore the psychic powers that can guide you to health, happiness, and success.

6. A young woman used her powers of evil to destroy another young woman and her fiance. She then had to be exorcised and the evil entities removed before she was healed of her obsession.

7. How to recognize the symptoms of mind and soul obsession, and how you can rid yourself of these obsessive thought forms through the ritual of exorcism.

8. How Marilyn Monroe was destroyed by demoniacal forces that brought her fame and fortune but demanded her soul as the ultimate price for her strange pact with the forces of evil.

9. The ritual of exorcism that can keep you safe at night, and protect you from evil entities taking possession of your brain, body and soul while you sleep.

10. The sacred mantra from Tibet, which you can use as a form of exorcism to open the seventh chakra and give you psychic vision through the third eye.

11. How to free your mind of the obsessive thought forms of hate, jealousy, revenge, and destruction, by using a simple invocation to treat your mind centers as you sleep.

12. How to ask questions of your higher psychic centers and receive sensible answers, after you have purified your mind through the ritual of exorcism.

13. A businessman used this ritual of exorcism to free himself of the eroding thought forms of worry and anxiety, and he became successful once again.

Magic Incantations for Breaking Evil Spells of Obsessing Entities

In a study of black magic, witchcraft, demonology, and sorcery, we find a tragic history that goes back as far as the fourteenth century, in which millions of people were hanged and burned at the stake for practicing black magic.

It is estimated that more than two million people were burned at the stake in that time for witchcraft. These people were said to have sold their souls to the devil in return for magical powers, riches, fame, and fortune. Undoubtedly, it is true that some of these people did use black magic for evil and destructive purposes. Others were falsely accused, but in the atmosphere of fear and superstition of those dark ages, many people who were innocent also died at the stake.

Undoubtedly, one of the earliest references to this theme of selling one's soul to the devil for power, began in Goethe's time, when he wrote a strange story called Faust, in which an aged man sells his soul to the devil for the purpose of becoming young once again and having a few more years of physical pleasure and joy. He is given 24 years more of life, and courts a beautiful young woman named Margaret who falls in love with him. But in the end, the devil demands Faust's soul, as the price of the pact they had made.

HOW THE POWER OF BLACK MAGIC WORKS

Today there are many so-called witches, using both black and white magic to perform their rites. These witches project mental thought forms to various persons' minds and make them do certain acts that they want them to perform. Black magic is used by those who want to destroy others; white magic is used by witches who want to help the world.

An instance of how black magic works its evil, was that of three persons, one a bishop in the papal court of Rome back in 1334, who made a wax image of the nephew of the Pope and used the ashes of spiders and toads and the gall of pigs to make a witch's brew. Then they used incantations to project the image of death to the young man. In a short time the nephew became sick and died. News leaked out and the inquisitors found the evidence of the wax image and the witch's brew, and the three men were burned at the stake.

The Bible refers to this covenant with the demon forces in Isaiah 28:15:

Because ye have said, we have made a covenant with death, and with hell are we at agreement; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us: for we have made lies our refuge, and under falsehood have we hid ourselves.

HOW TO RECOGNIZE DEMONIC POSSESSION

There are certain symptoms that are obvious when a person is under demonic possession. He may have made no pact, consciously with the devil, but he may have given up his mind and soul to the satanic influences and be serving the forces of evil.

Lucifer always wears a most seductive countenance when he wants to gain control of a person's mind or spirit. As in the temptation of Christ, he often promises rich rewards, power, fame, glory, money, all the inducements that could easily make a person willing to give up his soul for such glory.

The guiles of demon possession take shape in many ways; Some people let money be the temptation that makes them evil, and dishonest. Some have even killed out of the greed this emotion generates.

Others have been beguiled by the temptations of the flesh, and lead lives of licentiousness, lust, and animalism, letting love degenerate into vulgarity, obscenity, and degeneracy.

Many men have been lured by a beautiful face and figure into lives of crime, violence, dope addiction, drunkenness, and debauchery. The devil does not have to claim such souls; they are already doomed by their own evil acts. Others are destroyed by their tempers and streaks of madness that often cause them to kill or torture others in a most inhumane manner. We see this demoniac possession in cases of kidnappings, assaults on children, sexual attacks on women in the crime of rape, and murders for money.

The madness of a Hitler, who could cause six million to die in gas chambers, undoubtedly was due to such demoniac possession.

Other ways by which one can detect demon possession in oneself or others are the following:

1. Interference with a person's free will.
2. Constant obstruction of a person's desires to achieve something worthwhile.
3. The mind becomes cloudy and confused, often not being able to distinguish reality from fantasy. (Many cases of insanity, such as schizophrenia and delusions are now thought to be due to demon possession.)
4. He becomes dishonest, lies, cheats, steals and commits immoral acts without any feelings of guilt.
5. He often thinks of suicide; some cases consider homicidal acts, the killing of others.
6. He loses his orientation and becomes chaotic in his habits, his speech, and his dress. (Some of the symptoms of our young people today clearly indicate cases of demon possession. Slovenliness, unkempt hair, unwashed bodies, low standards of conduct, immorality, dirty clothing, dope addiction, all are indicative of obsessive forces occupying these disturbed minds.)

7. The person often becomes abusive of those who love him, and he becomes violent, using obscene language, vile accusations and other forms of mental and physical abuse.
8. His mind is unable to concentrate on his work, his social life, or things that formerly were important. He finds himself thinking more and more of physical pleasures, such as sex, drinking alcohol, taking drugs, or indulging in habits that are destructive and compulsive, such as gambling, stealing, cheating, and lying.
9. The mind is unable to make decisions easily, and vacillates from one course of action to another.
10. The mind is tormented by fear of the future, anxiety, depression, and melancholia that often lead to attempts at suicide.
11. The mind dwells on horrors and tragedies, almost with glee, reviewing the worst things that have happened, and projecting thoughts of tragedy and murder to friends, acquaintances, and relatives.

If you see these symptoms of demoniac possession in your friends or relatives, or you detect them in yourself, you can begin to work with magical incantations to break these forces of evil and rid them or yourself of these obsessive forces.

HOW TO WORK MAGIC INCANTATIONS FOR BREAKING EVIL SPELLS

1. If you are trying to reach some other person's mind with white magic or white witchcraft, determine first what degree of evil obsession has possessed the other person. If it is drinking or dope addiction, or the forming of some destructive habit such as gambling, you can use an incantation that fits this purpose perfectly.

First obtain a photograph of the person, or some object of clothing or jewelry the person wears. Sometimes, people have obtained a lock of hair, or nail parings to work their spells and incantations, but this is not necessary. If you do not have a photograph, then call the person's face to mind as you work your projection of thought forms.

Say the following incantation aloud, if you can, or whisper the words to yourself, calling the person's name first. If you have a photograph, hold it and look at the picture while doing the incantation. If it is a piece of clothing or other object, hold it in your hand and project magnetism to it.

I now call upon you, John Doe, to hear these words that I am projecting to you. I realize you are under some kind of hypnotic, evil spell that is causing you to destroy yourself and I want to help you break it and become as you were formerly. I now reach through your mind and spirit, with the bonds of divine love that I feel for you. I reject the demons of hate, drugs, drink, immorality, and evil that have taken possession of your mind. I now break the spell of mesmerism which these demons hold over your mind and soul. I declare that God is your saving power and I now implore Him to show his mercy and compassion for your lost soul.

2. When you have said this incantation, take up a cross, or any other religious emblem you believe in, according to your religion, and hold it over the picture or other object you hold, light a white candle, and put it where you can see it, then intone these words of exorcism three times, as you circle three times around the room:

Now, John Doe, I put you in the white light of God's divine presence and protection. You will no longer destroy yourself with your evil habits. You will renounce the demons that tempt and torture your mind and body and soul. You are free, free free!

3. If you recognize the obsessing forces as being in your own mind and spirit, you will use the following incantation and ritual of exorcism to break the evil spell of the obsessing entities that might be possessing you.

Light the white candle, use incense or the scent of jasmine or lavender, sprinkling the essence around the room.

Look into a mirror at yourself as you say the following incantation:

I command the forces of evil to quit my mind and body, and soul, and be forevermore removed to their rightful domain of oblivion and perdition. I declare my love of God and Good. I am in the white light of truth, love, and peace. My mind is no longer troubled and distressed by thoughts of evil and destruction. I project my thought forms of love and kindness to every person I meet and I refuse to recognize or pay homage to any evil thought forms that have formerly occupied my mind.

A Woman Was Nearly Destroyed by Obsessing Entities

A young woman of 25 came to me in desperate need of exorcism. She recognized that a destructive demon had taken possession of her mind. She was married to a very fine man, and had two sons, one three, the other five. She began to get obsessive thoughts of jealousy about her husband, beginning one night when she found a woman's small handkerchief in his coat pocket. It was smeared with lipstick. She confronted her husband with it, accusing him of being unfaithful. The man explained he had found the handkerchief, and brought it home to have it laundered, as he thought it was very fine quality, but he had forgotten to give it to his wife. This made her more suspicious than ever and she gradually became so obsessed by the thought he was seeing other women, that she wanted to destroy him.

The demonic possession came on strongly one night when she was preparing dinner in the kitchen and her husband was watching television in the living room. She saw a large butcher knife on the kitchen table. Something told her to take the knife and stab her husband to death while he slept that night. She found herself like a person in a trance for the remainder of the evening. She put the children to bed, and then secreted the knife in her bedroom, knowing that this was the night she would use it to kill her husband.

As she lay there besides her sleeping husband, a voice kept saying over and over, "Why don't you kill him and get it over with! You know he has another woman. He no longer loves you or the children. Kill the children also! You want nothing to remind you of him in the future.”

Like a sleepwalker, suddenly she found herself standing over her husband's sleeping form, the butcher knife raised above her head, ready to plunge it into his heart. At the very moment she heard one of her children cry out, and she came out of her hypnotic spell, saw the knife, and realized what she had been about to do. She rushed from the room to her child's nearby bedroom, only to find both children asleep. Then she realized that some power had been trying to reach her to keep her from doing the dreadful act of murder she was about to commit.

I gave this woman the ritual of exorcism at once, and then told her how to use incantations to break the vile spell that had been cast over her mind by an obsessing entity. The woman was completely cured, and later told me she found out her husband had been telling the truth and was not having an affair.

4. Sometimes, another person will be using black magic to project sickness, accident, or death to you or members of your family. How can one tell if such an obsessive force is being projected?

If you find yourself sick, without apparent reason; if you have one accident after another; if you keep getting the persistent thought to kill yourself; if you find your habits changing from being moral and respectable, to being immoral, if you begin to drink alcohol excessively and do strange things while under the influence; if you have an urge to take drugs, that you know are destructive; if you want to hurt others or get the persistent feeling to kill someone who you think is an enemy and is trying to harm you—you may, if you have any of these mental symptoms be under an actual demoniac possession or you may be suffering from the force of black magic being projected to your mind by some other person.

5. To rid yourself of these black magic projections from the minds of others, or from evil spirits that are trying to obsess you, you can use the following ritual of exorcism to rid your mind of the obsessions and protect you from harm.

Draw an imaginary circle about seven feet wide in the center of your room. Light a white candle and burn incense. Now kneel in the imaginary circle, and, holding the candle in your left hand and the Bible in your right hand, say the following incantation:

I am now in the protective magic circle of God's golden light of peace, power, and love. No external force can enter into this charmed magic circle. I invoke the power of God or Good to protect me from the intrusions of evil spirits, or black magic projections from the minds of others. No harm can come to me, as I seek sanctuary in the mystic shrine of God's presence.

Repeat this invocation three times, and then walk around the outer periphery of the circle with the candle, holding the Bible in your hand and say, "I am free of all spells, all evil entities and all bonds that would chain me to the minions of hell."

How Mrs. S. Used This Exorcism to Ward Off Evil

Mrs. S. came to me in great distress one day. She told me that everything had suddenly gone wrong in her life. She had been so happy, working in an office with a group of people who seemed to get along very well together. Then a woman came to work there, and chaos seemed to break out. This woman seemed to hate Mrs. S. for some unknown reason. Mrs. S. found out she belonged to a group who were studying black magic and witchcraft. Two of the people in the office became sick and had to go to the hospital. Mrs. S. began to have strange happenings in her life. Her ten-year-old son fell off his bike in the path of an oncoming car and was injured. Her husband lost his job. Mrs. S. became so upset and worried that her peace of mind and health were threatened. It was then that she sought me out, telling me that this woman had told someone in the office that she was working black magic to get her out of the job so she could get it.

I gave Mrs. S. the above ritual and invocation of exorcism and told her to perform it three times a day. Once in the morning, before going to work, another time at noon, using the imaginary circle and saying the ritual to herself, and again at night, just before going to sleep.

I also gave Mrs. S. the ritual of the flame to perform. I told her to write the woman's name down on a piece of paper, with the following request: "I ask that I be protected from this woman's evil forces, and that she be removed to her right place." Then she put this request into the flame, lighting the paper at the flame of a white candle she burned. As the paper burned, she said this ritual:

As I place herein this woman's name,
I humbly ask the sacred flame;
Release me from her magic power,
Make me stronger by the hour.
Cleanse her soul and set her free,
So she no longer troubles me.
As the flame to heaven ascends,
So my pain and trouble ends.
Ashes only do remain,
Free am I of loss and pain.

Within one week the woman who had been causing such chaos in Mrs. S's office suddenly quit her job! Everyone breathed a sigh of relief, for they had all felt her evil force. Mrs. S. reported that her life seemed suddenly to change and all her afflictions ended from that day on. Her magic rituals worked to keep her safe from all other projections of black magic.

REVIEW OF CHAPTER 5

1. The history of black magic and witchcraft and the evil they caused over the centuries, showing the great need of using the ritual of exorcism.

2. How the power of black magic works to cast spells, infect auras, and bring about disaster to people.

3. How you can recognize demoniac possession through the symptoms it produces and how you can protect yourself by using the art of exorcism.

4. The 11 signs to watch for in your own life that show you might be suffering from projections of evil thought entities or demons, who are trying to control your mind and soul.

5. A magic incantation to break evil spells and bring you into the spiritual light of power, peace and joy.

6. How to break the evil spells of alcoholism, drug addiction, cigarette smoking, or other evil forces that may be trying to destroy your health and peace of mind.

7. How a young woman was nearly destroyed by obsessing entities that threatened her marriage and how she nearly committed murder through evil obsessions.

8. How other people often project black magic or the evil eye to curse one and bring misfortune.

9. The ritual of exorcism to break such evil spells.

10. How Mrs. S. used exorcism to shatter an evil entity, and remove it from her environment.

The Seven Mystical Money Mantras for Exorcising the Demons of Poverty

Two-thirds of the people of the world live in conditions of poverty, starvation, and lack. The demons of war and poverty have seen to it that God's universal storehouse of riches is constantly drained to furnish money for the war machines, leaving chaos and destruction in their wake.

To break this evil spell of lack and limitation in your own life is the purpose of this chapter. We shall explore some of the ways by which you can put yourself into attunement with the positive forces of riches and abundance and forever shatter the specter of poverty in your own life.

We shall study the seven mystical money mantras that can instantly exorcise the demons of poverty and shatter the hold of lack and limitation on your life.

One of the surest ways by which the forces of evil can gain a foothold on the minds and souls of people is through starvation, poverty, and misery. More wars have been fought because of misery through poverty than any other cause. And yet, we know there is enough wealth in this country alone to give every family in the world security, food and shelter.

One forest in Russia alone, is three thousand miles long and has enough lumber and building material to build a home and furnish it like the White House in Washington, D.C. Then, in the Amazon basin there is enough oil, gold, copper, diamonds, lumber, and building material to furnish every family with riches and abundance for centuries!

Why then do the demons of poverty, hunger, and starvation afflict millions of people? It is because the mass consciousness of humanity has for centuries been obsessed by the demons of greed, selfishness, and hate. The few obtain the riches of the universe and, through their greed, deny abundance to the rest of the world.

HOW TO USE THE PROSPERITY RITUAL TO EXORCISE POVERTY

You can break this mesmeric hold of the demons of poverty on your mind by using the prosperity ritual that will free you forever from the stranglehold of the demon of poverty.

Write down on a piece of paper the following prosperity ritual, and say it three times each morning when you go out to face your day:

MY PROSPERITY RITUAL

I here and now invoke the aid of the higher spiritual forces to bring me riches and abundance from every source. I am no longer under the mesmeric spell of poverty, lack, or limitation. I am free of the burdens of anxiety and worry about money and possessions. I now banish the evil spell of poverty that has enslaved my mind. I now make my demands on the world to bring me riches, money, possessions, houses, lands, jewels, and other things of value, so I shall never again be poor or lacking in anything I desire.

The Mystical Money Chant

You can use the mystical money chant to break the spell of poverty. Whenever you have a few moments to wait for a bus or taxi, use this money ritual. You can intone it under your breath, silently. When you are at home you can say it aloud or in a whisper. Money—money—money. Repeat this rapidly, holding the first vowel slightly. This mystical money mantra is based on the sacred mantra from Tibet, Ohm mane padme ohm, which is intoned by the monks in Tibet to put them into attunement with higher spiritual forces.

If you say the money ritual hundreds of times a day, while you walk, as you drive your car to work, while sitting idly at your desk, or going about your household tasks, you will be imprinting your higher mind with the spiritual image of money.

A woman who was having difficulties with problems of money, owing to inflation and higher prices, started using this money mantra on a Monday. By Thursday of that same week she received a check for $500 from a most unexpected source! The second week she won a bingo game, the first time she had ever won a prize. The fourth week, when her husband saw the results his wife was getting, he began using the mystic money mantra, and he obtained a raise of $10 weekly on his job!

Tap the Cosmic Cash Register

To break the spell of poverty through exorcism, you must use mental and visual aids to help you project the idea of wealth and abundance to your higher mind centers. To help you do this better, visualize a giant cash register that exists somewhere in the cosmos. This is ticking out the millions of dollars worth of food, clothing, shelter, jewels, houses, and other things of value that humanity needs to exist. To project your own ideas of wealth to this cosmic cash register, use this simple method of counting to a million; this will imprint on your higher mind centers the ideas of illimitable wealth that exist in this universe and it will start the magnet of riches working for you.

Press the tips of your fingers together lightly; as you do, you are registering on the cosmic cash register ten dollars, one dollar for each finger. As you press your fingers together rapidly, you are mentally saying ten—twenty—thirty—forty, etc. until with very rapid counting you soon reach a thousand, and then five, and then ten thousand. To count one million dollars by ordinary methods it is figured statistically that it would take 72 years, counting a full eight hours a day. This means that each figure, such as five hundred thousand, two hundred and seventy-eight, five hundred thousand, two hundred and seventy-nine, etc. would have to be repeated during the entire counting process. With the cosmic cash register system you can register on your higher mind centers enormous amounts, if you do this exercise whenever you have a few moments to spare.

The Mystic Money Pyramid

Another way by which you may help exorcise the demons of poverty, lack, and limitation, is to build a mystic money pyramid, which will constantly remind you of God's flow of riches and abundance.

If you look at a dollar bill, on the green side you will see the mystic pyramid of Egypt, with the all-seeing eye of God at its tip.

Now fold the dollar bill to make a pyramid over the one printed on the bill. As you fold it in half, you then turn back the two corners until a neat pyramid is formed. Then you fold the bottom part of the dollar bill up and tuck in the corners, making a perfect money pyramid. Now carry this money pyramid in your pocketbook where you can see it frequently. Every time you see it, use this money chant to exorcise poverty:

Money, money, come to me!
As this pyramid I see,
Constantly reminding me,
Faith, hope, love and charity,
Spirit holds the cosmic key,
Money, money, come to me!

How to Use the Mystic Money Tree Principle

To constantly exorcise the demons of want and poverty, we use a mystical symbol ritual based on the nature spirits that are in every tree and flower and every growing thing. We know that two antitheses of things always exist side by side. The force of Good is opposed by evil. God, by the devil. Health by sickness. Life by death, Riches by poverty. To utilize the nature spirits that make all riches, you can better exorcise lack and limitation by using the following ritual whenever you see a tree, flower, or growing plant. These growing things represent the cosmic force of life and power. Their antitheses are death, weakness, and limitation. Say this ritual for the mystic money tree every time you see something growing in nature:

Money, money grows on trees;
Flowers attract the honey bees;
Fruits and precious things of worth,
God has caused to bless the earth.
Let each symbol that I see,
Be for me a money tree,
Giving riches, clothes and food,
From mother earth comes all my good.

A Man Treated His Higher Mind with This Money Ritual

A man who suffered from recurring spells of poverty and limitation began using the mystic money tree principle to exorcise poverty. He had contracted debts, he was constantly out of work, his wife had to get a job to help make ends meet. Finally, he became so sick of fighting the demons of poverty and lack that he came to me asking how he could use mystical truths to rid him of this specter of poverty forever.

I gave him all the rituals I have already written about, but when I gave him the mystic money tree principle, he balked. He said, "I can go along with the rest, but how can you fall for that old adage that money grows on trees? I have never found money easy to get."

Then I explained to him the mystical principle involved in the money tree ritual. All things which sustain life, I told him, come from the soil. Grass feeds our cattle; we eat the meat and are nourished. The soil gives us wheat, cotton, corn, and lumber for our houses. On the trees, we grow our oranges, apples, and peaches. These abundant crops constantly enrich mankind. They are God's way of feeding humanity. Trees and growing things are the mystical symbols that exorcise the demons of starvation, poverty and limitation.

With this explanation, this man decided he would begin using the mystic money tree ritual. Every time he saw a tree, or any growing plant, he visualized it covered with ten dollar bills. He was being programmed all day long with the idea that God is sending treasures to earth to enrich mankind through all growing things. Within two weeks, the man had found a job that paid him more than he had ever made before. He soon found another part-time job, which brought him even more money, and he began to prosper as he had not done for many years.

REGIMEN TO USE THE SEVEN MYSTICAL MONEY MANTRAS

To use these seven mystical money mantras, choose one for each day of the week. Repeat each mantra as many times as you can during each of these seven days. The mantras have a way of opening the seventh chakra where true psychic vision resides, and the flow of psychic power will result in your being guided to your money supply, as you need it.

First Money Mantra: Use on Monday.

God is my only source of supply and abundance. I now have faith that He will fill my every money need.

Second Money Mantra: Use on Tuesday.

There is no poverty in nature, only growth and abundance. I now channel cosmic power to cause my affairs to grow and prosper.

Third Money Mantra: Use on Wednesday.

Money is crystallized spiritual energy of ideas, service, labor, and creativity. My creative ideas now release the frozen assets of my higher mind, making me rich.

Fourth Money Mantra: Use on Thursday.

I have a million dollars in the cosmic bank. I now draw my daily supply and abundance from this cosmic storehouse of universal riches. God is my banker.

Fifth Money Mantra: Use on Friday.

Desire is the cosmic key to these universal treasures. I now desire money, houses, lands, jewels, cars, stocks, and other things of value, believing that they are for me.

Sixth Money Mantra: Use on Saturday.

I now accept my divine heritage of abundance and riches. I realize I am an heir to a kingdom and it is my Father's pleasure to give me everything I need to make me complete.

Seventh Money Mantra: Use on Sunday.

Today I give thanks for the riches showered on me by my loving Father in the past. I utilize these riches for the good of others and I share my good with the world.

A Man Built a Fortune with These Money Mantras

A man I once knew in Los Angeles constantly complained to me that he couldn't make ends meet. He was letting the demons of fear and poverty erode his mind and depress his spirits.

When he came into our work and learned of these methods for exorcising poverty, lack, and limitation, he made a secret vow that he would one day be worth a million dollars.

He began to use the seven mystical money mantras, and he later told me that these seemed to work like magic. He got an idea for supplying vitamins to the public at prices they could afford. He trained salesmen to use these mystic principles and sent them out all over the country selling his new products. He had his salesmen in turn train other salesmen, gaining through their sales; this was known as pyramiding, and it was before this practice was stopped by the government, as many people abused it. However, this man was able legitimately to make one million dollars in a period of five years! He later wrote a book, telling of the spiritual principle that he used. He had been to many of my classes and lectures and one day when he visited my home in Bel Air, which Sol Wurtzel had built for one million dollars, he looked up at the imposing three-story, 32-room house and said, "One day I shall be living in a mansion and driving a Rolls Royce." He fulfilled that prediction in every detail through using these mystical money mantras!

POINTS TO REMEMBER IN CHAPTER 6

1. Two-thirds of the people of the world live in poverty, because they do not know how to use exorcism to break the evil spells of poverty, lack, and limitation.

2. The evidence that proves there is enough building material in one forest in Russia to build a mansion the size of the White House in Washington, D.C. for every family in the world.

3. How to use the prosperity ritual to exorcise poverty and break the mesmeric hold on your mind of the demons of lack, limitation, and poverty.

4. How to use the mystical money chant every day to start the flow of money in your direction.

5. How one woman used this money mantra and within four days, she received a check for $500 from an unexpected source. Her husband used it and won a $10-a-week raise in salary.

6. The cosmic cash register principle that can tap out a steady flow of gold and fill your pockets with money.

7. How to start the magnet for riches working for you by using the cosmic cash register to count out a million dollars worth of good for you and your family.

8. How to invoke the power of exorcism of poverty through the mystic money pyramid that will bring a constant flow of money into your life.

9. The mystic money tree principle which helps you daily exorcise poverty through God's law of the harvest in nature.

10. How a man treated his higher mind centers with this money ritual, got out of debt, and won a job paying him more than he had ever received before.

11. The first money mantra to be used all day on Monday; God is my only source of supply and abundance.

12. The second money mantra, for Tuesday; There is no poverty in nature, only growth and abundance.

13. The third money mantra, for Wednesday: Money is crystallized spiritual energy of ideas, service, labor, and creativity.

14. Fourth money mantra, to be used on Thursday: I have a million dollars in the cosmic bank.

15. The fifth money mantra to be used on Friday: Desire is the cosmic key to these universal treasures.

16. Sixth money mantra to be used on Saturday: I now accept my divine heritage of abundance and riches.

17. How a man used these money mantras and from absolute poverty he rose to a position of prominence in his own business and made one million dollars in five years!

18. The seventh money mantra to be used on Sunday: Today I give thanks for the riches showered on me by my loving Father in the past. I utilize these riches for the good of others and I share my good with the world.

Using the Art of Exorcism and Spells to Win True Love Forever

Exorcism and spells can be used for the purpose of attracting love happiness and one's soul mate. There are two uses of exorcism; one is to bind, as with an oath, to some power that is above the forces of evil; the other is for the purpose of casting out evil forces, entities, and thought forms that are negative and destructive.

Most people are in the negative polarity of love; which is hate, jealousy, revenge, suspicion, inconsideration, selfishness, and animalism. They are not aware of the positive polarity of true love, which can be won only when we have exorcised the evil forces given above.

At some time or another every person seems to fall under the evil spell of hate. Sometimes we attract a person who is not our true soul mate and when love grows cold and the person rejects us, we swing into the negative polarity of hatred quite easily and naturally.

Sometimes we love persons who show no interest in us whatever, in fact, they sometimes openly spurn and reject our love. This type of rejection usually infuriates a suitor and sometimes he vows revenge and many times has even killed the object of his love.

Sometimes the obsessive demon of jealousy will enter into a lover's mind and torture him with fears he will lose his beloved. He reads into every gesture and word of his beloved evidences of his suspicion. Under such torture people have been known to become mentally unbalanced and even kill the beloved.

How a Man Obsessed by the Demon of Jealousy Went Mad

A case reported in the newspapers told of a man who had become obsessed with the demons of jealousy and suspicion. He suspected that his girl friend was having an affair with his best friend. On a pretext that he was going hunting with his friend, he lured him into a forest, there tied him to a tree, and with his hunting knife slaughtered the unfortunate man. Thousands of these cases of obsession exist, which the law calls crimes of passion.

The demon of hate always resents the angel of Love. The two are diametrically opposed. To use the art of exorcism for winning true love happiness, it is first necessary to renounce the demons of hate, suspicion, and jealousy. Just as evil in reverse is live, so too hate in reverse is love, although spelled differently.

I remember once writing a book called, How to Use the Christ Miracle Power. The man who set up the print was an atheist, and did not believe in God or His Son, Christ. Every time he wrote the word Christ on his linotype machine, he spelled it Chirst. This was true throughout the entire book! Of course, Chirst is pronounced the same as the word cursed! I had to go through the entire book correcting this error in the proofs. If ever a hateful demon entered into a person's mind, it was in that instance.

PROJECT YOUR THOUGHT FORMS OF LOVE

You have the ability of projecting your thought forms of love to any person you think might be your true soul mate. If you do not have any specific person in mind, project these thought forms to the cosmic mind, asking that you be guided to your true soul mate.

Ritual for Creating a Magnetic Love Attraction.

When you get up in the morning, look at the picture of the person you love and believe to be your true soul mate. Say this ritual of love to yourself three times:

I project to you, (say the name of the person) my feelings and emotions of true love. I believe God intended you to be my soul mate. I now offer you my loving heart and ask that you declare your love for me. I desire a marriage with you for the fulfillment of my dreams and aspirations in love. I project my loving thoughts to your aura, asking that you respond by calling me, and telling me of your true love for me.

Ritual to Attract Love from Someone Unknown to You

If you have not yet met your true soul mate, but want to use the ritual of exorcism to attract him or her, use the following ritual:

I now ask the cosmic intelligence that flows between all living beings to attract to me the one person who is my true soul mate. I desire someone who is kind and loving, and who will respond with warmth and affection to my strong love desires. I now exorcise from my mind all evil thoughts, all jealousy, suspicion and hate, and I am filled with the pure light of divine love.

A young woman of 23 worked in an office where she met many attractive young men. She had no interest in any of them, except one who seemed to be totally indifferent to her. She came to me with her problem and told me that he seemed to be aloof and cold. In fact, when he came near her he seemed to freeze and hardly even notice her. I gave her a spell of enchantment which I told her to project whenever she saw this young man in the office and also at night, just before going to sleep. This spell of love was:

Venus cast your spell of love,
From Aphrodite's throne above;
Make this lover truly mine;
Fill his heart with love divine.
Stir his heart at sight of me,
With true love and ecstasy.
Join our hearts in wedded bliss;
Seal this love pact with a kiss.
Lover, lover of my heart;
Succumb to Cupid's poignant dart!
Flame, O passion, in his breast!
Of all fair maidens I am best.
I'll bring him joy and ecstasy.
Come, O lover mine, to me!

The young lady memorized this love ritual and said it to herself over and over until it became emblazoned in her mind, heart, and soul.

Whenever she saw the young man, she projected the essence of this ritual with her eyes and whispered the words to herself.

No woman can be under the spell and enchantment of love without showing it in her face; her expression will be illuminated and lofty; her bearing will have the dignity of a queen; even her voice and gestures change miraculously under the spell of love and she becomes more beautiful and more appealing than ever.

I have never seen an ugly bride; no matter how plain the girl, that magic moment touches her soul with a spark of divinity and beauty that makes her face seem beautiful.

This girl underwent this strange metamorphosis with the constant repetition of the love ritual. Within one week, she began to see the results of her love ritual. Her romantic choice began to find reasons for coming into her part of the office more and more. Finally, he asked her for a date and on that first night out, while they were dancing, cheek to cheek, he said, "I must have been crazy not to have noticed you before in the office. I was just not seeing right, I guess."

The young man proposed marriage one month later, and I was sent a wedding invitation. As the happy young lady came down the church aisle on her father's arm, I have never seen anyone so transcendently beautiful as she was. For one brief moment her eye caught and held mine, and I suddenly realized why she looked so lovely: she was even then saying the words of the love ritual to herself! It had captured the imaginations of all those gathered in the church that day, with the vision of love eternal that would never know winter's chilling blast, and which belongs only to those select few who come under the spell of enchantment of the noblest emotion of all—the emotion of divine love!

TO EXORCISE JEALOUSY AND HATRED FROM ANY SOURCE

The evil forces of jealousy and hatred are all about us. The dark forces oppose the light; hate resents and opposes love. Sometimes you will be under psychic attack by dark forces that are jealous of your happiness and want to destroy you. These people who send you evil thought formations may be jealous of the person you love and want to remove you so they will be unopposed. Sometimes, like the dog in the manger, they do not want your sweetheart or mate, but they do not want you to know true love, so they send out obsessing thought entities to remove your true love and make your life miserable.

You can use the following rite of exorcism to protect yourself from such evil spells. Have a small altar or shrine before which you do your daily rituals and exorcisms. Above the altar suspend a little sachet of lavender or jasmine. Buy a small flask of musk oil and at night put a drop of the musk oil on your shrine, or the picture of your beloved, and say the following ritual three times:

I now command all evil forces of hate, jealousy, and discord to quit these premises. I am in the golden magic circle of love and I am protected by the spirit of romance from all intrusions and harms. While I sleep, keep me safe from all obsessions and thought forms of evil and hate. When I awaken, let my consciousness be bathed by the holy light of God's Divine Love and protection. So be it!

TO WIN BACK LOST LOVE USE THIS RITUAL

Sometimes a person has won love and finds supreme happiness, only to lose it due to some obsessing thought force that enters into the mind of the beloved, causing the person to reject love that was formerly accepted. To win back such lost love say the following ritual of exorcism:

Hold the picture of the beloved in your right hand, sit before your altar with a rose-colored candle lit, and burn sandalwood incense or some other incense from the Orient. Say the following love ritual three times in the morning and three times at night, just before going to bed. At first you may read the ritual until you have committed it to memory and then you can intone it to yourself several times a day.

Return to me, O lover mine!
Make the face of heaven shine.
Without your love my life grows weak
The nights and days are dull and bleak.
Know that my heart forever yearns
For you; the flame of love still burns.
Return to me; return to me!
Our love will last eternally.

TO BREAK SHORT-CIRCUITING RELATIONSHIPS USE THIS EXORCISM

Many times the opposite emotion of love must be invoked to remove some unloving person from your environment. Ellen G. was having terrible trouble with her mother-in-law, a woman who was bitter and whose husband had left her years before. She had moved in with her son, and Ellen told me that from that day, three years before, her entire life had been a living hell.

Obviously, to urge Ellen to project loving thoughts to this woman would not work. She tried everything, but the mother-in-law kept interfering in the marriage, turning her son against his own wife. The woman had a two-year-old son, and she did not want to end her marriage as she loved her husband and child.

I realized that we would have to use an exorcism to remove an evil thought entity. The mother-in-law was projecting hate and Ellen would have to counteract it with some strong and positive emotion.

I told her to perform the following ritual, which you can also do if you want to remove any ugly situation from your life, your work, or your home. This ritual is not black magic, but is a strong, spiritual force that can resist the projections of evil from the mind's of others.

I told Ellen to buy a red candle, (this generates the strong physical and elemental forces needed to break up a set condition that refuses to yield to the white candle.) She was to take a lemon, cut it in half, and put it on her altar as she intoned the following ritual. Beside the altar she had a dish with a drop of ammonia in it, and some salt. With the red candle lighted, she was to squeeze the juice of the two halves of the lemon in a dish, sprinkle the salt on it, and add the drop of ammonia. Then she was to intone the following ritual of exorcism to remove the short-circuiting negative forces from her life forever:

Juice of lemon, salt of sea;
 Join together, one, two, three;
 Take this woman from this house;
 Free her hold upon my spouse.
 Loose her grasp upon this place;
 Nevermore to see her face.
 Free this union from all strife,
 Find for her a better life.
 Let no harm come into her path;
 Spare this soul from Satan's wrath.
 Find for her a special cause;
 Evil is as evil does.

This ritual to break a short-circuiting condition was used by Ellen for two weeks. She was to put the juice from the lemons and the drop of ammonia into a little bottle and when she did the ritual she was merely to shake these together, with a pinch of salt added, and repeat the exorcism each night and morning, when she was alone and uninterrupted.

At first, nothing seemed to change and Ellen began to lose faith in exorcism, but I told her to keep it up every day. At the end of the two week period she called me, excitement in her voice. "Another son, who lives in Los Angeles, called the woman, and asked her to come and live with them." It seemed they had two small children, and the mother wanted to work, to make extra money, so they needed his mother to look after the children! This turned out to be a perfect solution, for it gave this mother-in-law a purpose in living and solved Ellen's problem perfectly. The mother moved to the West Coast and Ellen praised the method by which she had accomplished this, without harm to any party.

If you use the black candle for removing people, or the method, often used in Voodoo practice, of substituting a wax doll for the mother-in-law, with pins stuck into it, this form of black magic enlists the aid of satanic forces and will not only destroy the object you want to remove, but begins to work on you as well, for your soul is then forfeit to dark forces and can be claimed by the satanic powers whenever they choose to close the pact you have entered into. "Vengeance is mine," saith the Lord.

A Case of Black Magic That Destroyed a Policeman

An instance that came to my mind some years ago was that of a man who had been given three traffic tickets by a policeman at a certain intersection of a big city. This man knew about black magic. He went home and moulded a piece of wax into the figure of the policeman. He stuck three pins into the figure, two in the chest and one in the head. One week later when he returned to that intersection, he found the policeman gone. He made inquiries and found that the day before there had been a robbery at a corner store. The policeman had rushed to the scene of the crime with drawn revolver. One of the gunmen had shot the policeman. The bullet had lodged in his head, killing him instantly!

How many satanic forces are rampant in the world today that are out to destroy the power of love. Hate has equal force, but it is destructive. Sometimes evil minds will put a curse on individuals and sometimes on entire families. It was the black magic of hate that killed President John F. Kennedy. His brother Robert was destroyed by the same power. Can it be that the entire family had a curse put on it? It would appear that some evil force destroyed the three sons, and created tragedy for even Senator Ted Kennedy. His 12-year-old son had one of his legs removed because of a cancerous infection. Is the curse still on this tragically-stricken family? It would seem so. Recently I read an account in the papers of six members of the family, all related in some way to the Kennedy's, who had chartered a plane to go hunting in the midwest. On their return to their homes the plane was struck with lightning and all were killed!

REVIEW OF POINTS IN CHAPTER 7

1. Exorcism can be used for positive purposes of winning and holding true love and removing the spells of hatred, jealousy, suspicion, and revenge.

2. How a man went mad and killed his rival in love, under the obsessing force of hate, jealousy, and revenge.

3. How the demons of hate and destruction entered into the mind of a linotype operator, causing him to spell Christ by inverting the letters to spell Chirst, which, obviously is cursed! This man was an atheist and hated God and Christ!

4. Ritual of exorcism to use for projecting your thought forms of love to a person you might select as your true soul mate.

5. Ritual to use for attracting some person unknown to you, who has the qualities you desire in your soul mate.

6. How a 23-year-old woman used the ritual of love and exorcism to win and hold the love of a young man who had previously ignored her.

7. How you can use exorcism to remove jealousy and hatred from any source that might be directed at you and which threatens to destroy you.

8. How you can win back lost love and remove the causes that made the person incompatible to you through rituals of love.

9. How to use exorcism to break short-circuiting relationships of people who are incompatible with you and who may be trying to destroy your peace of mind, health or happiness.

10. How a young woman was being destroyed by a mother-in-law's interference and how she began to use exorcism to rid her life of the mother-in-law's interference in her marriage.

12. Black magic through the use of the black candle and waxen dolls in rituals that destroy, and how to avoid the use of these in your rituals of exorcism.

13. A satanic force was invoked through a ritual using the black candle and the waxen image of a policeman, and the policeman was killed one week later!

14. How black magic works to destroy people in prominent places, like the Kennedy family. Proofs that this family has for some years been under a curse that still seems at work today.

How to Use the Healing Power Of White Magic to Exorcise Mental and Physical Sickness

Someone has said, "An idea is as real as a skyscraper, and a rainbow is as real as a bridge."

In the spiritual realm, the belief in white and black magic creates the outer conditions of belief. A thing is real to the person who believes it is. Sickness and health are matters of faith or belief.

Today there are two thousand research scientists, doctors, psychiatrists, psychologists, and chemists who are vitally interested in a new science: How to exorcise mental and physical sickness through the white magic power of the human mind and spirit. These scientist are calling this by a different name, but it is the same power; they refer to it as the Alpha brainwaves and transcendental meditation techniques for healing the mind and body.

More scientists have come to the belief that it is very possible some obsessing forces may infect the human mind and body, producing symptoms known as insanity and sickness. They are beginning to believe that the ancient powers of exorcism used by Christ to heal the sick, make the blind see, and raise the dead can also be applied today to perform miracles of healing.

The ancient witch doctors who exorcised the evil spirits from sick minds and bodies and achieved healings, are now under scientific research to see if perhaps these first doctors knew some strange secrets that modern doctors may use. After all, our modern material methods have not even cured the common cold! Only two medicines have been found to have any healing power whatever: penicillin to cure social diseases, and quinine, which heals malaria. All other forms of medication have not been proved efficacious in the healing of disease.

THE PSYCHIC EXPLANATION OF SICKNESS

The ancients of India, Egypt, Greece, Tibet, and China, believed that mental and physical sickness was the result of an invasion in the human mind and body of some form of evil spirit. Scientists discovered germs and began to use the modern forms of exorcism, known as vaccination and pills, to help heal sick bodies. They still do not actually know what causes illness.

Cases of insanity are even more complicated and difficult to understand. Do people become possessed by demons? Are the violently insane taken over by obsessing entities who are using them as channels for the expression of their own evil natures? When we see cases of violent insanity, with their facial grimaces and bodily distortions, their obscene screams, and destructive actions, we cannot help but believe we are in the presence of evil incarnate.

For centuries the Catholic church and the Orthodox Greek Church believed that demoniac possessions produced mental and physical sickness. They used the arts of exorcism to rid the possessed of their demons. Today, many faith healers, psychic surgeons, and scientists with their Alpha brain wave techniques are using the same ancient power of exorcism to rid the minds of the sick of their obsessing demons—by whatever name they call it.

MY MYSTIC QUEST FOR SPIRITUAL HEALING

In my mystic quest throughout the world to discover these techniques of exorcism for mental and physical healing, I have seen many strange evidences of a spiritual power, above and beyond scientific explanations, that has been used to heal the sick and to cast out demons of possession.

In India I witnessed the acts of holy men, who walked barefooted over red hot coals, without any pain or injury.

I have seen such men buried for days without air, food, or water, and when dug up, they were in perfect health.

I learned of these mystical rites of exorcism on my first visit to the great monastery on Mt. Athos, in Greece, where a monk who was more than a hundred years of age, showed me the illuminated parchments on which were inscribed in Ancient Greek, the secrets of exorcism of demons, of healing through spiritual means, and other great truths that have been preserved in this repository of knowledge for many centuries.

I discovered that the great healer and exorcist, Rasputin, had studied at Mt. Athos many years ago, to learn the strange secrets that made him one of the greatest mystics and healers of his time. When he returned to Russia with this priceless secret, he was summoned to the court of the Czar and Czarina, and there was able to stop the flow of blood of the young prince, who suffered from hemophilia.

The Monk Rasputin, using the ancient arts of exorcism and magic, was able to heal thousands of people with his white magic. Despite the many negative things said about him, he was a most spiritual person, according to the monk at Mt. Athos, and his great desire was to serve God through serving humanity.

In my own research at Mt. Athos, I made copious notes of the various rituals of exorcism and faith healing techniques, which were translated for me by the old monk who showed me the priceless manuscripts in the library at Mt. Athos.

It is this priceless information about the ancient arts of exorcism that I reveal in this book.

For the first time, now, in our scientific age, we are beginning to understand about forces of white and black magic. We know that the force of evil or the Devil, is real. He manifests in many shapes and forms, and like God, who is spirit, the Devil can manifest through evil entities that are able to take on many shapes and forms.

In the Bible many references are made to the evil force known as Satan. In Matthew 12:22-28, it states:

22. Then was brought unto him one possessed with a devil, blind, and dumb: and he healed him, insomuch that the blind and dumb both spoke and saw.

23. And all the people were amazed, and said, "Is not this the son of David?"

24. But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, "This fellow doeth not cast out devils, but by Beelzebub the prince of the devils."

25. And Jesus knew their thoughts, and said unto them, "Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand.

26. "And if Satan cast out Satan, he is divided against himself; how shall then his kingdom stand?"

27. "And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your children cast them out? Therefore they shall be your judges.

28. "But if I cast out devils by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God is come unto you."

These evil or devil possessions can be of many different types, as evil manifests in many forms. No matter what form of mental or physical illness manifests, it can be exorcised by the same spiritual power used by the master Jesus. This belief goes back to ancient times, before the coming of Christ, and now spiritual healing is accepted even by scientists as being a reality. Whatever force is used to banish the demons of sickness from the human mind and body, must be of God or good.

What if a person does not believe in God or the Devil? This still does not negate the two forces for good and evil that exist in the universe. The belief in this power, whether called medicine, transcendental meditation, or exorcism, is all that is needed to break the spells of black magic and remove sickness, pain, and distress from the human mind and body.

A Woman Healed of a Tumor Through Exorcism

A woman who had a very big tumor in her abdomen was told by the doctors she would have to be operated on for the removal of the tumor. She was 65 years of age and it was considered a very risky operation. This woman sought out help from our prayer group, and we decided that we would first try the ancient rite of exorcism to rid her body of this enormous tumor that made her look as though she were perpetually pregnant.

After using the following ritual of exorcism for casting out this evil growth, the woman showed no change for two weeks. Then one morning when she arose and did the exorcism ritual herself, she said she noticed that it was shrinking a little. She kept up the spiritual treatment and exorcism for two more weeks, and it became perceptibly smaller. Something was definitely deflating this enormous tumor! When she finally went to get x-rays a few weeks later, the tumor had shrunk to the size of a fist, and gradually, under persistent treatment by exorcism, it disappeared completely! Doctors admitted it was a miracle.

THE BEGINNING OF THE RITUAL OF EXORCISM

1. To use this ritual of exorcism that was revealed to me by the monks of Mt. Athos, and which Rasputin used with such success for healing, first determine what your condition is. If you believe in doctors, go to a physician for a physical examination. Let him diagnose the illness and give you his suggestions for its treatment. If you still have faith in doctors and medicines, you can try his cure; for sometimes your faith in the healing technique or drugs will in itself be a kind of exorcism that will make the sickness go away. Doctors proved this when they gave placebos, little sugar coated pieces of bread, which they told their patients were pills that would heal a condition. When the persons believed in the pills, the cure was affected!

2. When you discover what your illness is, you can begin the process of exorcism to cast out the evil or devil power. Sit quietly in a room where you will not be disturbed for at least half an hour. Put your mind into a state of quiescence and calm by saying the following alpha meditation to yourself:

Peace, peace, peace. Peace be still, be still and know that I am God.

3. When you have put your mind into a state of absolute stillness and have stopped all worry, fear and anxiety thoughts, you will be ready to do the ritual of exorcism to rid your mind and body of whatever evil entity has manifested as sickness. This ritual will also work for moods of depression and melancholia, for migraine headaches, for resisting colds and bronchial infections, as well as for readily recognized forms of illness.

4. Have a lighted white candle for this ritual of exorcism; candles have been used by all religious groups for centuries, and a white candle has in it all seven colors of the rainbow, so it is considered the most powerful spiritually for this rite of exorcism.

5. You can also have a cross, or other spiritual emblem, that you have above your shrine or altar. It can be a six-point star, if you are of the Jewish faith, for this ritual of exorcism works as well for Jews, Moslems, Hindus, or other sects as it does for Christians. As long as you believe in God, and know that God is stronger than the devil, you can use this exorcism.

6. Now say the following ritual of exorcism to yourself. Read it at first, until you have had an opportunity of memorizing it.

O mighty power of God on high, I invoke thy power and might to cast out evil and heal this sick mind and body. Hear the supplications of thy suffering children here on earth. Let the divine ray of thine omnipotence and omniscience penetrate the veil of darkness that shrouds my mind and soul and keeps me from thine illuminating presence.

Remove forever the shadows of pain, sickness and suffering that are caused by the powers of darkness. Let thy pure white healing light penetrate the innermost core of my being, removing all forms of sickness. Remove all evil entities of whatever kind; all blasphemous and discarnate forces that inhabit my mind and body.

I recognize the minions of Satan are many and disguise themselves in many forms. These angels of darkness inhabit the mind, creating chaos and confusion and madness. These forces of evil express their malignancy as violence, torture, murder, and rage. Rid this human habitation of all such minions of Satan and bid them return to their dark dungeons of hell, where they shall remain forevermore. Quit this human temple, spirits of hell, and remove thyself to those regions of darkness where you can no longer dwell in human form.

Heal this sick mind; heal this sick body; remove all pain, infirmity and sickness. Cause the glow of health once again to establish itself in this mind and body and to heal it forevermore.

In using this ancient form of exorcism to exorcise mental and physical sickness, a person may use it for himself, or to heal others. It is not even necessary that the person you are trying to heal knows about it. He can even be at a distance, and it will work. The power of healing is transmitted by mental and spiritual wavelengths, and like mental telepathy, does not seem to depend on contacting the sick person.

Magnetic healing, such as some faith healers use, depends on the laying on of hands, but spiritual healing, where the demon of sickness is exorcised, does not seem to need the transmission of magnetism or the life force by physical contact.

SCIENTISTS PROVED THE POWER OF PROJECTION OF SICKNESS

The power of curses or putting on an evil spell on another was dramatically proved by scientists in the laboratories recently. A group of people were put in one room and another group were locked in another adjacent room and told to project thoughts of sickness to the experimental group. They did this for about twenty minutes, thinking, "You're going to be sick. You'll feel stomach cramps, pain, nausea, headaches. You're going to become sick-sick-sick."

Amazingly enough, the test group began to develop signs of illness, nausea, and pain within the time period that the other group were projecting their spells of sickness!

A scientist, who investigated my flame ritual from the temples of Isis and Osiris in Egypt, tried using the flame ritual to exorcise a group of children who had numerous warts on both hands. These children, aged 10 to 14, were told to draw a palm print on paper, and then to place each wart in its exact location on that paper. The psychiatrist gathered up the pieces of paper and did an exorcism over the paper, telling the children, "Your warts are now being removed by a magic spell. Each day you will see your warts growing smaller and smaller, until finally they will disappear entirely." Then he put the paper into the purifying flame, saying, "Your warts are now being put into the flame. The flame will burn them off and they will disappear completely within two weeks."

Within the two-week period most of the children were completely rid of their warts!

A woman who had persistent migraine headaches for years had tried everything that doctors had suggested. Her headaches did not stop. While I was doing the above healing exorcism one night for a group of class students, her migraine headache disappeared and she told me about it at the end of the class. I wrote out the invocation for her to use every day and she reported to me over a period of months. The migraine headaches never returned!

Another woman had a paralyzed arm that had refused to yield to any form of therapy. She had resigned herself to its being useless the rest of her life. Her sister brought her to a healing session of one of our classes and told me that it had been paralyzed for five years. Our group gathered around her, and together we did the healing exorcism, making the afflicted woman also say the words after us. When we came to the portion of the exorcism where we said, "Quit this human temple, spirits of hell, remove thyself to those regions of darkness where you can no longer dwell in human form," the afflicted woman stiffened for a moment, closed her eyes, and began to tremble violently. As we continued the ritual of exorcism, her left arm, the one that was paralyzed, began to move upward. Slowly, slowly, it was being elevated as though an unseen hand was moving it, until finally, with a shriek, she had raised it up over her head. Then the woman fell into a faint from the emotional shock. When she came out of her faint, she was still able to move the arm but weakly, as the muscles had not yet completely recovered their mobility. Weeks later, she reported to me that her arm was healed perfectly!

I have seen many miracles performed at Lourdes, at the sacred grotto. The rituals performed there are similar to the ancient arts of exorcism. A famous doctor wrote a book in which he told of a woman with tuberculosis of the abdomen, who was healed at the grotto when bathed in holy water and with rites of special prayers said over her body. She got up and walked within a few moments and all kinds of examinations failed to reveal any further traces of the disease that had made her bed-ridden for months!

In Greece, even today, on a certain island, once a year, the sick, the possessed, and crippled are brought on litters to a sheltered cove where the priests perform their rites of exorcism, which are the same as those recorded at Mt. Athos, and which I have given above. Thousands of people are healed; cases of violent possessions by demon forces are exorcised and the demons are driven out. People who have witnessed these miracles attest to the fact that some miracle power is at work which heals these incurable cases that doctors have given up as hopeless.

Another recent case of demon possession in Greece came to my attention on one of my recent visits there. A woman became obsessed by evil forces and murdered her three children while under an evil spell. Later she claimed she did not recall any of the events leading up to the tragedy. She was imprisoned, but later released by the Greek government and allowed to return to America. She had married a Greek man but was an American citizen.

To Project Exorcism to Heal a Friend or Relative

If some person you know, a friend or relative, is suffering from alcoholism or drug addiction, or some form of sickness that does not seem to yield to modern medicine, you can use another, shorter form of exorcism that I also learned about from the monks at Mt. Athos.

If you have a picture of the afflicted person, look at it as you do the exorcism ritual. If you do not, call the person's face up in memory and say the person's name, using the following ritual:

John, I am trying to reach through to your mind and soul. I command the forces of evil to quit your mind and body. I declare you are completely free from the noxious forces that are trying to destroy you. I am sending you the pure white light of God's cleansing and healing power and you will break the bonds of evil that hold you chained to this malevolent power.

As you repeat the above exorcism three times, feel that a strong ray of light is being projected from your forehead between your eyes and, like a rocket, it is being aimed at your friend whom you are trying to heal.

A woman in our lecture group did this exorcism with her 16-year-old son who had started smoking. She knew it would do no good to tell him to stop, so she began to use this ritual of exorcism three times day. One morning the boy stopped smoking and said, "This cigarette tastes awful! I'm going to stop smoking."

Another instance was that of a woman who had an alcoholic sister who lived five hundred miles away from her.

She projected the above exorcism three times a day, and within three weeks her sister wrote and told her that she was giving up alcohol and joining her church once again!

You can use another form of exorcism for the following afflictions:

People who have constant accidents and bad luck.

Those who suffer from nervous tension and hypertension.

To help people who have high or low blood pressure.

To relieve those who suffer from eczema, acne, and other skin blemishes.

To help people who suffer from allergies that do not yield to medical treatment.

To give relief to people who suffer from arthritis, rheumatic pains in the joints, and swellings or gout.

Those who are afflicted with bronchial ailments, such as asthma, chronic coughs, and other pulmonary disturbances.

People who seem jinxed or cursed by some obsessing force that causes them to have constant sickness or tragedy.

Those who have perpetual problems and never seem to be able to get over them.

You can use the following exorcism for yourself to treat any of the above obsessions or you may project the exorcism to others who seem to be afflicted and who need your help to affect a cure.

Light the white candle and have incense burning as you do the following exorcism. Repeat it three times, either aloud or to yourself, as you hold the face of the person in mind.

I now exorcise all obsessing entities, thought forms, and other malignant spirits that possess and afflict me. (If it is for someone else, use the person's name at this point in the exorcism. If it is for yourself, use the pronoun me.)

I align myself with the forces of truth, goodness, joy, and health and banish the dark forces of evil, error, misery, and sickness. I project power to my higher psychic centers and ask that I be guided to the solution of problems and the finding of my great destiny.

Establish A Health Climate of Mind and Spirit

In order to keep thought entities of sickness and infirmity from your mind and body, you can use exorcism to establish a health climate of mind and spirit. Most people build an aura of negativity by constantly courting the demons of sickness, pain and decrepitude. They attract sick entities by constantly saying, "I feel terrible. I'm afraid I'm going to be sick. I know I'm going to catch cold. I know I'll have to have an operation. My grandfather died of a stroke so I guess I'll go that way too."

Obsessing demons love this type of thought atmosphere; the person is furnishing a perfect breeding place for the lurking of the spirit of sickness, insanity, and other ills.

Now, in psychosomatic medicine studies, it is shown that a person attracts what he thinks he is going to be sick with. A famous doctor wrote a book once on specialists in diseases. He noted that more and more members of his college of physicians' alumni failed to show up each year. He checked up on them and found that they were dying off rapidly from the diseases they specialized in! The heart specialist died of heart trouble, the kidney expert died of kidney trouble, and the cancer specialist died of that disease. From this research he concluded that by constant concentration on the diseases in which they specialized, the imprint of that disease somehow formed a groundwork for it in the body's cells and gave them the disease.

So too, when we constantly concentrate on the demons of sickness, fear, worry, hate, and other negative emotions, we are inviting these forces to inhabit the mind and body and give us constant sickness and suffering.

How a Woman Exorcised Illness Through This Method

A woman in my lecture work in Los Angeles complained that she had been sick all her life with some nameless disease. She suffered pain in various parts of her body; her food did not digest; she was allergic to many different things. She had spent a fortune on doctors who could find nothing organically wrong with her. She had spent so much time on thinking about her illnesses that she could no longer enjoy life and many times thought of suicide as a way out of her misery and suffering. Her husband finally left her and her two grown children refused to visit her because she did nothing but complain about her various symptoms.

When she came to me, I recognized the symptoms of a health obsession. Some evil force had taken possession of her mind through sick thought forms and was trying to destroy her. I convinced her of this and gave her the following ritual in rhyme, which worked miracles for her. Within two weeks, after doing this ritual every night with incense burning and the red candle (for creating energy and vitality), she seemed to be completely healed!

The Healing Exorcism This Woman Used

Break, O break this evil spell!
That causes me to be unwell;
I don't desire fame or wealth,
Craving only perfect health.
I banish from my heart and mind,
Sickly thoughts of every kind.
Fill my cells with radiant power;
Heal my body every hour.
While I wake or while I sleep,
My mind and body safely keep.

Let no evil come my way;
God of mercy, I do pray.

HOW TO USE THE RITUAL OF EXORCISM TO KEEP SANE

Many people today are having nervous breakdowns, owing to the modern pressures and stresses of living in a world that has become very complicated and confused.

Half the beds in the hospitals are filled with the mentally sick. Millions more face imminent mental breakdowns because they do not know how to handle emotional problems or adjust to the rapidly changing scene. To save yourself from this ultimate tragedy, you can use an exorcism ritual that will flush out the poisonous thoughts and infecting entities that often cause disorientation, insanity, and suicide.

This ritual is to be repeated before your mirror. Sit in a comfortable, relaxed position and visualize your image in the mirror as a disembodied entity, living in another dimension. You cannot harm that image; it cannot be sick, it never grows old, it cannot go crazy, as it is in another dimension of time and space. Like Alice in the fairy tale, who entered into a world of another dimension when she went through the mirror into a never, never land. This is the land of fantasy, of dreams, and mystical experiences.

Whenever you have a problem that is driving you crazy, and you feel as if you will crack up unless you can get relief, sit quietly before your mirror and project your problem to that spiritual entity that is the real you. Say this ritual of exorcism and you will be transferring your problems, your anxieties, and worries to that spiritual self that knows how to dissolve each and every problem.

Mirror Exorcism

Mirror, mirror, tell me true;
Who am I and who are you?
Body, spirit, which is real?

That which I can touch and feel,
Or that which lies beyond the veil,
My Shangri-La, the peaceful dale,
Wherein no winter blasts may chill
My soul, nor break my will.
I put my burdens in your care;
Together now this load we share.
My mind is clear and O so free!
I'm guided to my destiny.

After you have repeated the above ritual three times, look at your image in the mirror and say, "I hail you now, my soul's true prototype! You will from now henceforth take over all my problems, worries and anxieties and dissolve them in the dimensions of timelessness where you dwell."

POINTS TO REMEMBER IN CHAPTER 8

1. The spiritual reality back of life is the idea that you hold about yourself, your soul and body; this becomes the outer reality by which you shape your life.

2. Research scientists now believe that many forms of mental and physical illness are due to obsessions by evil thought forms or actual entities from other planes.

3. How the ancients of India, Egypt, Greece, Tibet, and China exorcised the demons of sickness, pain, and suffering through rituals of prayers, meditations, and other means.

4. My mystic quest for spiritual healing led me to Mt. Athos in Greece, where an old monk showed me illuminated manuscripts containing some of the oldest knowledge about exorcism for healing.

5. Rasputin, the monk of Russia, used these ancient arts of exorcism to stop the bleeding of the Czar's son, and also healed thousands through this ancient knowledge from Mt. Athos.

6. For the first time I present these ancient secrets from Mt. Athos for the healing of humanity through exorcism.

7. Biblical references to the satanic force known in ancient days as Lucifer or the Devil, and how Jesus used the ancient art of exorcism to cast out the devils of sickness.

8. How a woman used this exorcism ritual and was healed of an enormous tumor in her abdomen, which doctors had given up on and believed they must operate.

9. The ritual of exorcism for you to use to expel all sick forces from your mind and body and establish the right climate of health and long life.

10. How scientists proved the power of projection of sick thought forms which can make others ill.

11. How a scientist dissolved the warts on children's hands through a flame ritual of exorcism which worked for almost all of the children, causing their warts to disappear in two weeks.

12. How a woman with persistent migraine headaches was completely healed and never again had a recurrence of her pain.

13. A woman with a paralyzed arm for five years tried using the ritual of exorcism, and was able to use her arm once again.

14. The miracles of Lourdes, based on exorcism of evil forces, and how a woman with tuberculosis of the abdomen was instantly healed.

15. In Greece, today, this art of exorcism is used to heal thousands of epileptics, mentally and physically sick people.

16. How to project exorcism rituals to sick friends or relatives, no matter how distant they are in time or space.

17. How a woman used the ritual of exorcism to make her 16-year-old son stop smoking.

18. How to use exorcism to rid yourself or others of various forms of physical and mental sickness.

19. A woman in Los Angeles was very sick with numerous symptoms, which yielded to a special healing exorcism given in this chapter.

20. How to use mirror exorcism to rid yourself of all evil thought forms of sickness, misery, and discontent and cleanse your mind, body, and soul of all impurities.

The Sacred Flame Ritual of Exorcism from the Temple of Isis In Ancient Egypt

There is a supernormal range of power which you may tap through the ancient ritual of exorcism and which you may use to perform seeming miracles in your life.

This ancient rite is called The Sacred Flame Ritual from the Temple of Isis and originated five thousand years ago at the foot of the mysterious pyramids near the sacred Nile, in Egypt, the land of the Pharaohs.

The flame has always been a symbol of mystical and occult powers, and has been handed down throughout the ages as a mystical and religious ceremony, utilizing candles or worship of the sun and moon as sources of life and power.

The ancient Egyptians did not actually worship the sun in their ritual of the flame in the temples of Isis and Osiris. They worshiped the power back of the sun; the sun was merely a spiritual symbol of a greater power which they recognized as being God. The Egyptians were among the first people who believed in one God.

This spiritual symbol of the flame was recorded in Moses' time, when he was searching for a means of freeing the children of Israel from the oppression of the Pharaohs. He went up into the mountain, which is symbolical of the ascension of man to the spiritual heights, and there he saw the flaming bush, where the voice of God spoke to him.

Exodus 3:2. And the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a flame of fire out of the midst of a bush: and he looked, and, behold, the bush burned with fire, and the bush was not consumed

Then, later, when Moses was told he was to free the children of Israel, verses 13 and 14 tell us:

And Moses said unto God, "Behold, when I come unto the children of Israel, and shall say unto them, 'The God of your fathers hath sent me unto you,' and they shall say to me, 'What is his name?' 'what shall I say unto them?' And God said unto Moses, "I AM THAT I AM," and he said, "Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, I AM hath sent me unto you."

The I AM consciousness is the first degree of spiritual and psychic power which man develops. When this power of the I AM is dimmed by obsessing entities or negative states of consciousness, the spiritual power is dethroned and man becomes little more than an animal.

It is this type of spiritual dethronement which has taken place in the world today, where men have lost their sense of morality and decency, and the obsessing forces of greed, selfishness, and hate have spread into high places, corrupting even the guardians of the laws of the land. Corruption among public officials, from Watergate down to the police forces in every city, has led to a breakdown in law and order and the dethroning of the spiritual power that was intended to elevate man to high levels of achievement.

Through the Egyptian flame ritual, we can use the greatest spiritual power known to man once again to re-establish ourselves as true sons of God and establish His kingdom of law and order, peace and justice on earth.

The establishing of the I AM consciousness can be done through the ritual of exorcism. This flame ritual was known in ancient times when man's first religion was worship of the sun.

Then gradually, he realized that there was a supreme spiritual power back of the sun, and the flame became merely a symbol of this vast, spiritual force which man calls God.

You can invoke the sacred flame in this ancient ritual of exorcism, to purify your mind, body, and soul, and to attune yourself to the highest spiritual forces known to man.

Here are some of the things you can use this exorcism of the flame for:

You can exorcise your mind of all thought forms of negativity, evil, sickness, poverty, hate, and other negative emotions and forces.

You can write down your dreams and aspirations on a piece of paper and feed it into the flame, with a suitable ritual that we shall give later, and expect a miracle to happen in your life.

The sacred flame ritual may be used to exorcise the demons of hate, jealousy, and discord that might threaten love and marriage and bring you into the light of true love.

You can use this sacred flame ritual of exorcism to get rid of unwanted conditions in your environment, to remove objectionable persons, and to create an atmosphere of peace, harmony, and joy in your home or place of business.

You can use the sacred flame ritual from the Temple of Isis as a healing force to drive out the obsessions of sickness and bring you health and long life.

With the sacred flame ritual you can align yourself with the positive forces of success, riches, and rewards that will banish poverty forever and make you a great success.

You can use the sacred flame ritual to elevate your consciousness to lofty spiritual realms and tap the higher octaves of peace, beauty, joy, good, harmony, and love.

REGIMEN FOR USING THE SACRED FLAME RITUAL EXORCISM

1. First, create a suitable altar or shrine in a corner of a room where you live. Have a white candle for general purposes of exorcism. However, later I shall give you a list of the various-colored candles you can use for different purposes.

2. Use some incense, which you will burn while you do the flame ritual. Light the white candle and let it burn throughout this ritual.

3. Have a piece of paper, a pen or pencil, and a suitable small dish in which you can burn the piece of paper.

4. Now write down on the piece of paper the various things you want to put into the sacred flame. The flame is the exorcising power that removes the obstructions standing in the path of your fulfillment of the things you desire. The ritual you will state can be read or memorized. I am using an original one that I created from the original hieroglyphics that were found in the Temple of Isis (and translated for me), and which were used by the Ancient Egyptians for many thousands of years.

5. Here is a sample of the way in which you can write your various desires:

O keeper of the sacred flame, I supplicate thy presence to bring me the fulfillment of the following dreams and desires:

- A. I wish to be rid of these problems that afflict my life. Remove the person who is causing me difficulties in my environment. (Here you can name the person who may be causing you difficulties; a co-worker in your office, a mother-in-law, causing problems in your home, a business rival who may be jealous of you; an enemy who seems intent on destroying you.) I wish this person no harm, but want him removed where he can no longer disturb my peace of mind.
- B. I wish to banish the sickness that afflicts my body.
- C. I want to get rid of poverty and achieve my dream of success in my work and financial security.
- D. I want to get out of this apartment (or house) and move into a better neighborhood.
- E. I want to sell this piece of property and get the money I desire for it.
- F. I want to get rid of my old car and have a new one.
- G. I want the sum of $1,000 within three-months time.
- H. I desire $100,000 or more for overall security.

- J. I want to take a trip to Europe for my summer vacation.
- I. I wish to attract love happiness with my true soul mate.

6. The above is only a sample of what you can put on that slip of paper you will put into the flame ritual. You can make up your own list and make it as long or short as you desire.

7. When you have prepared your written list, light the white candle, light the incense, seat yourself before the urn, and ignite the paper in the flame, letting it burn in the urn, as you intone the following sacred flame exorcism:

O keeper of the sacred flame, I supplicate thy presence to bring me the fulfillment of the following dreams and desires. (At this point put the piece of paper on which you have written your desires, into the flame and then place it in the urn, while you intone the rest of the ritual of exorcism.)

I now supplicate the higher forces to remove all evil entities and spirits that are obstructing my flow of good. I ask of the sacred flame that it burn away all obstructions and objections from whatever source. I recognize the almighty presence of the golden sun, and now ask that this divine source of life and light illumine the dark places of my mind and body, removing all negative forces of whatever kind and bringing me the fulfillment of these dreams and desires.

As the sacred flame rises into the celestial realms, it brings my dreams and desires before the illimitable throne of thy mercy and grace. As the flame ascends, it leaves behind all the burned out ashes of failure, fear, worry, hate, sickness, poverty, loneliness, and limitation. I am freed of these dark forces forever and now only the light of infinite truth, infinite good, infinite peace, infinite riches, and infinite love remains. So be it.

How the Flame Ritual Brought $50,000 to a Couple

Recently, I gave this sacred flame ritual to a man and his wife in San Diego. In the first night of the ritual, they put in the flame that they wanted the sum of $1,000 from an unexpected source, $50,000 cash, and a White Cadillac. Within one week, the $1,000 came in the form of a check from their mother! Two weeks later, they received an offer for some seemingly worthless desert land they had bought ten years before and which they had practically given up, as no one seemed to want to buy it. One day they got a notice that the government was planning to build a dam near their land and a super-highway was to go through their acreage! They sold the land for $50,000! The first thing they did was to buy the white Cadillac. I received a letter from this joyous couple, telling me that now they were asking for $100,000 more within five years, confident they would get it!

8. You can use this sacred flame ritual of exorcism with various colored candles for achieving various magical effects in your life.

Use the white candle for spiritual matters, for asking favors of the higher forces, and for general purposes. Use a red candle when you want to exorcise sickness and achieve perfect health. Red is the energizing color. Use a rose-colored candle for inspirational power and creativity when you want to write, compose, invent, or paint.

Use a blue candle when you desire friendship, and to attract love from your true soul mate.

Use a yellow candle when you desire money, possessions, lands, houses, jewels, cars, or other material things.

Use a green candle for finding a lost object, or for the return of some friend or lover who has left you.

Use a purple or mauve candle for spiritual enlightenment and development of your psychic centers.

Use a black candle for extreme emergencies for removing obsessing entities, thought forms of evil, or persons who obstruct you or are trying to destroy you. When you use the black candle, be sure to instruct the forces that you want only good for the person, but that you wish him removed to his right place. The black candle is usually associated with black magic forces, but when you have some obnoxious thing you want removed, as a tumor, warts, a growth, or other forms of unwanted substance, you can safely use the black candle. After using it, light the white candle and purify your atmosphere.

Amazing miracles have been reported by those who have used this sacred flame ritual of exorcism from the Temples of Isis and Osiris.

A man was paying alimony to two wives; he was constantly in trouble, unable to keep up his payments. Both of his former wives avoided marrying again, as it would mean the loss of their alimony payments. They kept harassing this man, having him put in jail when he fell behind on his payments and constantly having attorneys after him. This man learned about the sacred flame ritual. He put the names of both of these women on the piece of paper with this request:

I ask that these two women fall in love with suitable partners and marry, removing them and their burdens from my life.

Within one month, both women had attracted suitable men and announced their forthcoming marriages! If it had been only one woman, he told me, he might have believed it coincidence, but when both of his former wives fell in love and married, he knew it was his miracle of exorcism through the flame ritual that was working!

A word of warning about exorcism: Do not try to play God in your use of the sacred flame ritual of exorcism. You cannot wish harm, danger, or death to any other person without its destroying you! Do not use the methods of black magic, which consist in obtaining a lock of hair from the person, or some object of clothing, and then fixing pins in a doll representing the person you are trying to destroy. The black magic may work on them, it's true, but it will also claim your soul for ultimate payment to the demon forces and you will eventually have to pay, possibly with your life for the evil acts you have committed.

How Black Magic Exorcism Destroyed This Man

A man who learned about the art of exorcism decided he would use it to get rid of a business rival whom he hated. This rival had opened a store near his, and undersold him and undercut him every chance he had. The man's business began to fail and soon he faced bankruptcy and complete failure. Out of desperation he sought out a worker in black magic and Voodoo rites, and he began using the art of exorcism to destroy his business rival. He made a wax image, fixed the name of his rival on it, and then began to do his ritual every night, asking that his rival's store catch fire and burn to the ground!

A month later his rival's store caught fire mysteriously, and was completely destroyed! The man who had used black magic was jubilant. Now his business began to thrive once again, and his rival had to recoup his losses and start all over.

But the black magic forces that he had started working now turned on this unfortunate man. One night, while smoking in bed, he fell asleep. The bed clothes caught fire and the man who had practiced black magic against his rival burned to death!

Karma is a two-edged sword; a ritual of exorcism to destroy may get rid of someone for you, as the satanic forces are always eager to make a bargain for evil purposes, but under the law of Karma, which is action and reaction, it will turn against the person and destroy him also!

POINTERS TO REMEMBER IN CHAPTER 9

1. You can tap a supernormal range of spiritual power through the ancient ritual of exorcism known as the Sacred Flame Ritual from the temple of Isis in Egypt.

2. Bible proofs of the use of the symbol of the flame, when Moses saw the flaming bush and heard the voice of God.

3. The I AM consciousness that begins the process of exorcism, when man declares himself to be the I AM image of God and rejects the forces of Satan.

4. Some of the things you can do with the sacred flame exorcism ritual to rid yourself of unwanted conditions and to bring you rewards and benefits of every kind.

5. The first steps in using the Egyptian Flame Ritual, establishing your sacred shrine or altar, using the white candle, and lighting incense.

6. How to write down your requests for putting into the sacred urn all the dreams and aspirations that you want to come to you.

7. The actual Egyptian Flame Ritual of invocation and supplication, which can be used as a tool of exorcism to rid yourself of unwanted conditions and to bring you what you desire.

8. How the mystic flame ritual brought a San Diego couple the sum of $1,000, a new Cadillac, and then ultimately, the sum of $50,000 from a piece of worthless, desert land.

9. The various types of candles you can use for special purposes, utilizing colored candles for different rituals.

10. A man used the sacred flame ritual to rid himself of heavy alimony payments to two former wives. Within a short time both women married again.

11. Caution about the use of black magic and exorcism to get rid of others, to harm or destroy other people.

12. A man used black magic and exorcism to try to get rid of a business rival who was driving him into bankruptcy; he projected a fire that would destroy the man's business. The exorcism worked, but the man practicing black magic was burned to death in a fire in his own home!

13. The spiritual law of Karma, a two-edged sword, that works both ways, for good or evil, depending on the form of exorcism you use.

How to Contact Masters Through Exorcism and Astral Projection

The world of the invisible is limitless and extends beyond this earth's range into the realms of the infinite.

Scientists now estimate that we are not the only living forms of life in our universe. They now estimate that there are billions of other worlds floating through time and space where there is life more evolved and more complex than our own small earth. They believe that there are at least 100,000,000 inhabited universes where beings, possibly superior to our earth-bound creation, exist.

A new scientific theory has been advanced recently, that these superior souls have visited earth in space machines; that they came here thousands of years ago, possibly bringing life to the earth, that these beings created the pyramids in Egypt, with highly developed tools and electricity, that they built air strips for their airplanes from space, and that they created marvels with their machinery and atomic knowledge, such as carving vast stone statues and performing other miracles which would have been impossible without knowledge of advanced engineering.

Many thousands of people believe that these space beings visit our earth regularly in space ships that utilize magnetic wavelengths on which they travel at thousands of miles per hour; that they are observing our planet and eventually will make contact with our earth dwellers, when they are convinced we are no longer war-like and destructive.

THE ANCIENT SEERS AND PROPHETS ALSO BELIEVED

In ancient writings from India, Egypt, Tibet, and China, we have proof that advanced souls have long practiced the art of exorcism to achieve astral projection. In these astral flights through time and space, they claimed ability to contact those superior beings they called Masters, and learn vital truths and secrets of the universe.

They also taught that Man, when he exorcised the forces of evil and darkness, could project his soul out into the invisible on these astral flights and contact superior beings on other planets, including those who had lived before and were now on some distant, more evolved planets, working out their Karmic Destiny.

I am convinced that these astral planes are real and I have learned certain techniques of exorcism and magic which can help you utilize this knowledge for releasing your own souls while you sleep, and for gathering vital information from the advanced masters who dwell on other planes of consciousness or other worlds.

Einstein And Edison Contacted Other Astral Planes

Einstein and the great inventor, Edison, undoubtedly reached out into the astral, while they slept, and received their great secrets of mathematics and invention, from astral masters.

Jules Verne, who accurately predicted and wrote about space ships, submarines, television, and space dwellers, was able to contact these disembodied astral entities who revealed their secrets of how the world would be 50 years later.

Joan of Arc heard voices of disembodied entities and saw astral visions of herself leading the armies of France to victory over the English. Back in 1430, she had clairvoyant visions that her armies would be victorious in battle. Everything came out exactly as the visions had predicted, but the church heads of that time doomed her to death by fire, believing she was possessed by demons. She was charged with witchcraft and sent to her fiery death because they could not believe she possessed these powers except through the force of the devil. St. Joan was declared innocent of demon possession in 1455; she was beatified in 1909 as a Saint, and canonised in 1920, removing for all time the stigma of demon possession.

Mozart and Beethoven claimed to receive some of their most lofty and inspired musical compositions from astral planes.

Leonardo da Vinci and Michelangelo had astral visions in which they received inspiration for their monumental works. It was as if invisible hands guided them in mixing their colors and in sculpturing the vast statues, such as David, which made Michelangelo such a master.

Shakespeare had astral dreams in which he received the concepts for his great dramas about the royal courts, even though he was born the son of a butcher, had no formal schooling, and knew nothing about court life or the royalty of that time.

Undoubtedly many of our earth geniuses who split the atom, releasing atomic power; who built our space ships that took us to the moon; who created our computers, television sets, and automotive marvels; who discovered our scientific secrets, our healing drugs and surgical techniques, were able to contact superior beings on the astral planes who released some of these miraculous forces to earth dwellers when they were ready for them.

HOW EXORCISM CAN HELP YOU OVERCOME EARTH SHADOWS

You can use the ancient art of exorcism to help you overcome the earth shadows that stop you from achieving astral projection and astral vision.

Your soul has the power of going out onto the astral at night, while you sleep, and contacting these masters on other planes. It can read the Akashic record of the past, and tell you if you have lived before and what you were in former incarnations. However, you must first remove these earth shadows that cloud your vision and keep you earthbound.

How to Use Exorcism for This Purpose

First, you must know the negative forces that cloud your soul and keep you from receiving the astral visions that should be yours by natural right. They are the following:

1. Negative thought forms of skepticism and doubt. These keep your soul earthbound. You must supplant these with the positive force of faith in a superior power that can safely guide you to these astral forces beyond this earth.
2. Hate and animalism which cause the psychic centers to become clouded, so you can never rise above the earth realm into the celestial heights of pure inspiration.
3. Fear and worry, which are earthy emotions and curtail your soul's vision and perspective, keeping it chained to the mundane, everyday things of this small earth.
4. Greed and selfishness; these obsessing entities keep your soul earthbound and you can only achieve astral projection when you want spiritual knowledge to do good for humanity, not just for yourself.
5. Vulgarity, immorality, obscenity, and licentiousness. These degrading negative forces cloud the mind and soul and like a mirror that is dirty, which cannot reflect the light, so, too, such souls cannot reflect the glory of the supernal vision that comes from the astral realms.

In an exorcism ritual to cleanse and purify yourself and prepare for astral projection, burn the white candle and sit before your sacred shrine, saying the following ritual of exorcism to cleanse you of all evil forces and to protect your body, while your soul is out on the astral, so no obsessing entities can take possession of your body while on the astral. Many people are afraid to try astral projection, for this reason. They have heard that sometimes evil spirits enter the mind and body and take possession of the person, making him obsessed. I do not know personally of any cases of obsession through this cause, but I have heard it is possible if one does not use a ritual of exorcism for protection before venturing out onto the astral planes while asleep.

Purifying and Protective Ritual Of Exorcism

I now purify my aura and cleanse my mind, body, and soul in this ritual of exorcism. I command all evil entities, thought forms, demons, evil spirits, disincarnates, and all other forms of evil, who would take possession of my mind, body, and soul, instantly to quit this abode and return to their resting place of oblivion.

I court the incarnated souls of the great white masters who have risen to other planes of consciousness and I appeal to them, while I am out on the astral, to guide me, protect me, and reveal to me cosmic secrets for the good of the universe.

I now lay me down to sleep, placing my trust in God, and my soul into the safekeeping of guardian angels, who will watch over me in my flight through time and space, and return me safely to this body, my earthly abode.

Walk around your bed three times, in both directions, carrying a cross or some other religious symbol, or the Holy Bible. If your bed is against the wall, walk from the head to the foot and as far around as you can go, three times in each direction. Burn incense as you do this ritual of exorcism.

I now place the white light of God's protective aura about my bed, and as my body rests upon this bed, I command all evil entities to remain on the outer periphery of this circle, not coming into my aura, nor infecting me with their evil forces and thought forms. I now bless this circle and place myself in its center, asking for release of my soul in astral projection so I may probe the interstices of the universe and read my soul's Akashic record.

Now lie down upon your bed, placing the white candle, still lit, upon your shrine. Have some incense burning, as you lie down and close your eyes.

How to Exteriorize Your Soul in Astral Projection

Now you are ready to exteriorize your soul so it will go out onto the astral planes. Breathe deeply ten times, and exhale the breath through your nostrils. Say the sacred mantra from Tibet, which in itself is a form of exorcism, appealing to the Jewel in the Heart of the Lotus, your own immortal soul, to find its right astral spheres of action. Ohm mane padme ohm. Ohm mane padme ohm. Intone this under your breath five times. Now breathe normally and say the following ritual of exorcism:

I now banish all earth entities and evil forces and am cleansed and purified in preparation for my astral flight. Rise, O questing soul, into the celestial realms where dreams are made and leave behind this mortal veil of tears and suffering. Rise on wings of song into the realms of immortality. Search out the ancient glories of the past; wander throughout the corridors of time; go back into the ancient lands of India, Tibet, Egypt, and China, and know the secrets taught by the great masters who have lived before and who are even now existing on the astral realms.

Let my soul stand before the ancient Pyramids, and reveal to me the secrets of the King's chamber and the prophecies that lie hidden within that great stone monument.

Let me walk once again beside the sacred Nile, knowing the dynasties of kings and Pharaohs, and reveal to me the mysteries of the sacred rituals in the Temples of Isis and Osiris.

Let me stand beside the vast river, Mother Ganges, which pulses throughout the length and breadth of the mystical land of India. Reveal to my questing soul the secrets given to the world by the Lord Buddha, and let me walk in the cloistered gardens of the monasteries of Tibet, beyond the ranges of the Himalayas, knowing the mystical secrets enshrined in that ancient land.

Up-up-up, O soul, in thy flight into the astral. Rise now in one sweet moment of ecstasy and release me and let my slumbering body, the chalice which holds my soul, know blissful repose and sleep, as I wander throughout the corridors of time into timelessness, exploring the mysteries of the universe.

I would consort with masters and illumined souls from other times and places. I wish instruction and wisdom from these great souls as we wander through the centuries. I now gather spiritual gems of wisdom, as a lapidary searches for precious jewels. My soul trembles on the threshold of eternity, as a dewdrop upon the petals of a rose on a sun-kissed morn. Fresh in the dewy innocence of past incarnations, my soul would know its Akashic record, its karma, and its divine destiny as it plummets through the limitless vistas of unending centuries, throughout God's lifetime, which is eternity.

When you have fully repeated this ritual, which can be done by reading it before you go out onto the astral, or through memorizing it later, when you want to perform this exteriorization of your soul, you will lie quite still and keep breathing deeply, and you will begin to feel a slight tugging motion in the center of your diaphragm. You can help the soul exteriorize by giving a gentle pushing motion in your mind, and spiraling round and round, as if you are trying to rise above the earth physically. You have been up in an airplane, when the plane soared above the earth: try to get this feeling in your mind and body, and when you reach a certain point in your efforts at exteriorizing, some outer forces take over and gently guide your soul into the regions of the astral.

HOW WILL YOU KNOW WHEN YOU ARE ON THE ASTRAL?

You will know when your soul has achieved release by the feelings of tightness you experience. You may hear the rushing of winds, or celestial music unlike any you have ever heard. Many mystics experience seeing rainbow colors, circling round and round; some see a golden sun, and then the stars and moon in the heavens, and the slumbering earth lying below.

Sometimes a master will be waiting for you on the astral planes and will gently guide you into the corridors of time and to those soul experiences which he feels you need at this particular stage of your incarnation. At other times you will, through the law of spiritual affinity, attract a master who knows your needs and takes over your soul's instruction.

A musician and composer may ask for the souls of Mozart or Beethoven.

An author may ask for a poet such as Lord Byron or even Shakespeare and request ideas from the disincarnated souls, which the soul will bring back to earth and reproduce in some creative burst of inspiration.

An inventor may attract, by the law of affinity or magnetism, the soul of an Edison or a Leonardo da Vinci, who may reveal some great secrets that will be recalled on earth later.

It is thought by many people that great writers often receive their visions on the astral, while asleep at night. I once interviewed Margaret Mitchell, who wrote Gone With the Wind, and she told me that she felt as if she had lived through the scenes depicted in her novel and that she saw the visions of the burning of Atlanta, and felt that she might even have been Scarlett O'Hara in some former life!

I know a woman who had an astral flight and visited sites in Rome, Greece, and Egypt which she knew nothing about. When she actually went to those countries in the flesh, she recalled temples that stood in certain places, and felt, as she stood before the Pyramids that she had been there before in another lifetime.

I had a remarkable astral journey once when I was lecturing at world-famous Carnegie Hall. I had a vivid dream of myself going out into the astral, beyond the Himalayas to the ancient land of Tibet. There I seemed to be a monk, dressed in a saffron robe, with shaved head, walking in a monastery garden in a peaceful kind of Shangri-La. I then recalled going into a library, where I sat reading wooden plaques on which were inscribed words in a strange language which I understood.

When I awakened, I jotted down the recollections of that astral journey and filed them. Four years later I read an article in the New York Times that told about explorers finding a buried monastery at the foot of the Himalayas, where they discovered an ancient library with manuscripts carved on wooden blocks! The article carried a picture of the library and the blocks and they were exactly as I had described them in my notes!

Astral Projection Revealed Her Future Husband.

A woman who had learned the secrets of exorcism and astral projection in my class work had amazing dream-like visions in which she saw herself living in other lands as various people. In one astral journey she seemed to be a dancer in the Mideast, where she found herself in a harem with many beautiful girls. The Pasha before whom she danced was a tall, slender man, with a moustache and blue eyes. She seemed to be his favorite dancer and she always repeated the same type of astral experience with the same man in the harem.

After having this astral vision three or four times, she had the feeling that some higher power was trying to reveal something to her. Perhaps this astral lover was trying to reach out in spirit to guide her in some way. She sat in meditation asking for guidance to her true soul mate, if this was what the astral dream was trying to lead her to.

That summer she decided to take her vacation in July, and she made arrangements to go to Hawaii, as she lived in nearby California. The third night in Hawaii she was invited to a party, and the guests got up to do a Hawaiian dance, with a real hula dancer to guide them. She found herself, as if in a dream, swaying to the gentle rhythm of a hula, when suddenly she was aware of a tall, handsome, dark-haired man with a moustache coming towards her, to join her in the dance. When he came quite close she had a terrific shock, for she found herself looking into the blue eyes of the Pasha in her astral dreams! He seemed to be magnetized to her and as they fell into the graceful rhythm of the dance, she saw that his features were exactly like those of the young man in the harem!

This young man spent the remainder of that week at her side. He seemed to be so attracted to her that she knew there was some kind of an astral link between them, possibly from another life. As he also lived in Los Angeles, they kept seeing each other when they returned to the mainland, and within one month this young man proposed marriage to her! She never revealed her secret to any living person but me, fearing that people would not believe her incredible experience.

VARIOUS TYPES OF ASTRAL EXORCISMS FOR DIFFERENT PURPOSES

These can be done consciously during the day, or at night before sleep.

1. If you have lost some object and want to exorcise it, you can use this ritual to guide you to it without delay or effort.

Spirit great, O spirit true,
This I humbly ask of you;
Lead me to the object lost;
Spare no effort, count no cost.
Guide me now, guide me well;
As I chant this finding spell.

2. Exorcism ritual to remove spell of hated, lost love, lost jobs, or other negative conditions you wish to correct through exorcism. You can chant this several times daily, or use it just before going out onto the astral each night to help you cleanse your aura of all negative conditions.

Spirit guide me by the hand,
To the mystical astral land.
Where each secret is unfurled,
In the hidden spirit world.
Break this evil hold on me;
Mighty God mind, set me free!
All conditions now set right;
As I take this astral flight.
Reveal the future accurately;
Guide me to my destiny.

3. Use this exorcism ritual to guide you on the astral to finding a method for becoming successful and making more money. Repeat this several times a day, and also chant it just before going to sleep at night, as you prepare for astral flight.

Masters on the other plane,
I seek your guidance once again;
Immortals, who have lived before,
Open wide sweet fortune's door.
Reveal to me the precious store,

Of gold and jewels and so much more;
 Grant me the golden Midas touch,
 That gives me gains and offers much.
 Remove all burdens I implore;
 Of poverty forevermore.
 In the Astral light of truth,
 I now know my own true worth.
 Money, money, come to me!
 From limitation set me free!

4. For acquiring instruction, wisdom and knowledge from the Masters on the astral planes, use this ritual of exorcism to rise above the ignorance and earthbound forces of hatred, fear, worry, frustration, and misery.

Say this exorcism ritual daily, whenever you have time, and use it specifically at night to raise your soul to the illumined heights of geniuses you want to attract on the astral planes while you sleep. These masters will instruct you in the various cultural and spiritual arts, if you use this ritual.

Illumined Masters, who have lived before,
 Guide me to your sunlit shore;
 Give me wisdom, truth and light,
 Banish shadows from earth's night.
 Beauty, music, poems of joy,
 All these arts and more employ;
 Fill my soul with ecstasy,
 Communicate your all to me;
 Grant me gifts, I beg of you,
 That all on earth may come to view.
 Inventions, songs, ideas great;
 I ask of you these gifts, O Fate!
 Knowing you shall always bless
 My life with good and happiness.

5. Use the following ritual of exorcism to protect you while your soul is on its astral journey at night. Say this invocation just before going into your astral journey.

O mighty power that rules this mystic place,
Grant me safe passage through time and space;
Protect me from forces of evil and hate,
Guide me now safely to my true fate.
Safeguard my soul on its astral flight;
Return my soul safely at ending of night.
All spirits and demons of evil intent,
Touch not my body, I am heaven bent.
Return, O shades of evil and woe,
To realms of oblivion that you well know.
Grant me this refuge in realms up above,
Slumbering in God's magic circle of Love.

Members of my lecture groups, who have had this instruction in the art of Astral Projection, have reported remarkable experiences on the astral, while they slept at night.

One man asked for an invention from a master inventor on the other planes. He was given an idea for a new kind of attachment on bottling machines, and he now has a patent which may bring him a million or more.

A woman was having difficulties in her marriage, and on the astral, she was given a solution to the problem, by a master who told her exactly what to do to solve the problem.

A man had lost a valuable document in his office, and that night he asked the astral forces to show him where it was hidden. He had a vision of a filing cabinet and he was shown the exact place where a clerk had wrongly filed it! The next morning he went to the office and instantly found the valuable document.

I know a minister who seeks out the aid of masters on the astral planes on Saturday night, before he is to give his sermon the next day. The masters come through and instruct him on exactly what he is to say to his congregations the next Sunday morning. He told me that while he is in the pulpit he feels the psychic connection, as though a golden chord were attached to his brain, going up into the realms of infinity, where the masters seem to be talking through him.

Many mediums and psychics use this astral connection. Many authors write their books in this way; some artists get their inspiration for their paintings from the astral designs and colors that come to them on the other planes. When you once learn how to use this ritual of exorcism to bring about this astral connection with master forces you can truly rise to great heights of achievement in every department of your life.

REVIEW OF POINTS IN CHAPTER 10

1. How you may learn to tap the astral realms through the art of exorcism and extend your range of experiences from this earth to other ages and even other planets in time and space.

2. Have space men visited earth in times past in their space machines, building the pyramids and doing other miraculous things? Scientists are beginning to believe this to be true.

3. The soul has the power to go out at night, while you sleep, and explore astral realms, contacting masters who have lived on this earth and who know many secrets they can reveal.

4. Edison, Einstein, Jules Verne, Joan of Arc, Mozart, and Beethoven, and many great geniuses on earth, had such astral contacts that gave them secrets they transmitted to earth.

5. How to remove through exorcism the earth shadows that might stand in your path and keep you from experiencing astral flight.

6. The five earth forces that can be removed through the ritual of exorcism freeing your soul for its astral journeys through time and space.

7. The purifying and protecting ritual of exorcism that you can invoke just before going out onto the astral realms.

8. How to begin to exteriorize your soul for astral projection and the ritual you are to repeat as your soul goes on its mystic quest through the corridors of time and space.

9. The proofs of astral projection and how you will know when you have achieved the full exteriorization of your soul.

10. How masters assist you on the other planes and guide your soul to its right dimension of time and space.

11. How a woman had astral flights to Rome, Greece and Egypt, and when she actually went there in person knew the many places she saw, as she had been there on astral flights.

12. How I once visited the ancient land of Tibet, beyond the Himalayas, on an astral journey, where I discovered hidden wooden plaques in a library that was later found buried under centuries of dust.

13. A woman found her future husband while on an astral flight, in which she was an exotic dancing girl in a harem.

14. Five different exorcism rituals you may chant for different purposes, preparing yourself for astral flight.

15. The ritual of exorcism to get rid of evil entities who might possess your body while you are out on the astral.

16. How different people have received valuable information from the astral realms that have guided them, written novels, painted pictures, and spoken through them.

Tibetan Exorcisms to Free You From the Karmic Wheel of Fate

The ancient Tibetans practiced a form of exorcism that was tied in with reincarnation and astrology. They believed that each person is tied to the wheel of fate, which is the astrological Zodiac, and that when you were born in a certain sign, you were given a type of karma to work out that your soul needed for its evolvment and discipline.

They called this ritual the Song Celestial, and with it they exorcised the forces that keep one tied to this wheel of fate. When you once understand what your sign of the Zodiac inclines you to karmically, you can work with the higher spiritual forces to free yourself from the necessity of suffering, pain, and agony in this lifetime and go on to your right rewards when you make your physical transition.

When you were born you took on the characteristics of the sign of the Zodiac that rose above the horizon at your time of birth. The Zodiac is divided into 12 sections, one for each sign. Twelve in itself is a spiritually significant and mystical number. Twelve months of the year, 12 Disciples, 12 signs of the Zodiac.

To overcome your karma with the ritual of exorcism, you can check below to see which sign of the Zodiac you were born under. I shall give the karmic pattern that the ancients ascribed to each sign, pointing out the defects, the karmic debts accumulated, and the ultimate destiny, if you work out your karma correctly.

The ancients in Tibet, India, China, and many other parts of the world believed that the soul goes on in many lifetimes, working out the debts or karma it has accumulated in each lifetime. If the person knows his karmic pattern and works it out, he is not bound to the wheel of fate and need not suffer in many lifetimes, but goes on to his reward on other planes.

Check the list below for your own karmic destiny, according to your sign of the Zodiac. Remember, this is not a complete delineation of your Sun sign, but is written only from the viewpoint of what your karma will be in this lifetime, therefore it will stress the things you must exorcise or get rid of in your life, if you are to be free of karmic punishment.

YOUR KARMIC DESTINY IF YOU WERE BORN IN ARIES

March 21 to April 21

You were born in the sign of Aries, ruled by the planet Mars. Karmically this is a very wonderful sign, for it gives you the fire and spirit to fight life and its many problems. Your key word, if you want to work out Karma quickly, is Control. You must learn to control your temper, your tongue, and your actions, as you are inclined to be your own worst enemy. You say things that often estrange others from you; you are apt to give in to temper and rash actions without thinking. You have many wonderful qualities, which some consider the best in the entire Zodiac, such as aggressiveness, leadership, creativity, persistence, and great vitality, but these very good qualities also tend to get you into trouble if overdone.

Being born in the first sign of the Zodiac and ruled by the planet Mars, associated with war, you may find your life a pitched battle in which you must fight off adversaries. These can be people or situations, such as hardship, poverty, and difficulties in achieving fame and fortune.

To work out your karma, you must exorcise bad temper, impatience, tendency to conflict in your family and in your work; also, over-emotionalism, which gives you strong flesh desires, and a tendency to spend more money than you earn. Here is the statement of exorcism which is suggested for you to rid yourself karmically of the destructive demons that might inhabit your mind.

Repeat this statement of exorcism each day, until you feel you have driven out of your mind the negative forces that inhabit your consciousness. Whenever you see a return of selfishness, tension, conflict and hate, work this ritual of exorcism and you will begin to experience a sudden release from the burdens of karma for your sign of the Zodiac:

I recognize my karmic pattern of action and reaction. I now drive out of consciousness all the negative forces that inhabit my mind and which keep me chained to the karmic wheel of fate. The destructive demons of conflict, selfishness, temper, sarcasm, and animalism are here and now banished from my mind and only those forces of good, truth, love and peace can dwell within my heart, mind, and soul.

YOUR KARMIC DESTINY IF YOU WERE BORN IN TAURUS

April 21 to May 20

The good things we can say about the Taurus-born are many, for you were ruled by the planet Venus, when you were born. This is the planet of love, peace, and beauty, but karmically, these qualities are always being challenged. You love peace, but you are always being tempted by life to disrupt your peaceful ways, and you are apt to attract people in your love life and work that bring direct challenges to your peaceful desires. You want love and a family, a home of your own, and the comforts that go with it, and yet karmically, you will often find yourself moving, or losing your peaceful environment. You desire love and companionship, and yet, in this department of your life you are apt to attract your biggest karmic challenge. You may attract a mate who does not understand you and constantly violates your sense of peace, order and harmony.

Your karma, that is, the reason you were born in the sign of Taurus, is that your soul needs the discipline that is needed to make you a more perfect spiritual being. Taureans are inclined to live a good deal in the physical appetities and often overeat, overdrink, and oversmoke. This is sometimes a detriment to their health. They are forced to control their appetites or karmically they are made to suffer from bad health.

Taurus rules the second house in the Zodiac, having to do with money, real estate, and investments. You may be much concerned with money all your life. Karmically, if you allow yourself to love money too much, your life will be destroyed. Your karma is delicately balanced; you want success and money, but you must not sacrifice peace of mind, integrity, and health for these treasures. Some of the world's richest people were born in Taurus, but many of them lost their peace of mind and health to achieve wealth, and this is what you must avoid.

Repeat this ritual of Exorcism to rid yourself karmically of the debt you have carried over from past lives.

I now rid my higher mind centers of the debt of karma through the following ritual of exorcism. I command the forces of negativity to quit my mind and body. The desire to grow rich and successful I temper with moderation. The desire to over-indulge my physical appetites I now bring under control of my higher mind. My tendency to sensuousness and overemotionalism in my love relationships with others I now transmute into true love and spiritual emotion. I temper my physical and material desires with spiritual understanding. I gather wisdom and knowledge that give me true power to control my destiny.

YOUR KARMIC DESTINY IF YOU WERE BORN IN GEMINI

May 21 to June 20

Your karmic destiny, if you were born in Gemini, is a strange mixture of good and bad. As you are born in the dual sign, symbolized by the twins, you will always find yourself torn between two courses of action. This vacillation and indecision are part of your karmic pattern. Your mind, being ruled by Mercury, is highly intellectual and requires a good education, but your nature, being impervious and impatient, you are apt to leave school early and struggle to find your right vocation.

In love and marriage you run into your biggest karmic pitfalls. You are apt to have two love affairs going at the same time, not sure of which one you want. You are apt to have two marriages, unless you work out this karma of indecision early. You will no doubt have two professions and possibly more, as you are artistic and at the same time, business-minded.

You are a genius in some respects, and in others you are apt to be self-centered, egotistical, and consider yourself superior to others. Many great authors, politicians, and businessmen were born in this sign, including the late John F. Kennedy, the Duchess of Windsor, and, currently, a man who has captured the imagination of the world, Henry Kissinger.

You can use the following ritual of exorcism to rid your soul of its karmic debt and free you from the wheel of fate.

I now exorcise the forces that give me so many strange and complex characteristics. I unify the two sides of my nature which oppose each other. I become decisive, make decisions promptly, and overcome my tendency to vacillation, fickleness, and restlessness. I rise to my true high mental and spiritual stature and overcome the karma that keeps me earthbound and impotent.

YOUR KARMIC DESTINY IF YOU WERE BORN IN CANCER

June 21 to July 22

Your sign is ruled by the changeable moon, and is called Cancer, symbolized by the cautious crab, who moves forward slowly by inching sideways. So too, you are apt to be overly conservative and cautious and make decisions only when forced to. Your karma is apt to be very negative, when you do not become aware of why you were born in this segment of the wheel of fate. The moon makes you very moody and often depressed. You are apt to over-react emotionally to every challenge and problem of life. Your sign rules the home and children, and your biggest challenges, as well as your greatest joys, will come from a fulfilled family life.

But as this is apt to be your karma, you may miss out on a complete and happy family life, losing a mate, or having incompleteness or estrangement in this department of your life.

Your mind worries excessively, you fear poverty in old age, and are apt to miss out on some of the best opportunities in life to invest money, or make a fortune because you are overly cautious.

You are extremely sensitive, easily hurt, your feelings and emotions are deep, loyal, and affectionate. Your karma will often come to you through these very qualities that should endear others to you, but which often bring you problems and disturbances through friends and family members. The first John D. Rockefeller was born in Cancer. Also Gerald Ford, the Duke of Windsor, and Calvin Coolidge.

Use this ritual of exorcism to rid yourself karmically of the demerits your sign has piled up from past lives:

I bid the demons of moodiness, depression, fear, and anxiety to quit my mind and body. I now exercise calmness and reason in all my affairs. I no longer react with hysteria, violence, or vituperation to the frustrations and defeats that I encounter. I seek out family and friendly connections, determined to enjoy my relationships with them and to show patience, love, and co-operation to every person I deal with in my personal and business life.

YOUR KARMIC DESTINY IF YOU WERE BORN IN LEO

July 23 to August 22

Astrologers consider this one of the best signs of the Zodiac, but one of the most burdened karmically. It is known as Leo, the sun is the ruler, and the lion is the symbol.

Your good points are so numerous it would take a page to list them all, but we are here concerned with your karma, so we can point out only a few of your great qualities; loyalty, love, friendship, courage, honesty, generosity, and kindness. Your face wears a smile more often than a frown; your friends are legion; your talents are numerous, but you have an Achilles' heel, as do all signs, and karmically, your demerits are as follows: You are apt to be self-centered and egotistical, loving to show your power, your possessions, and your talents. You often use people to gain rewards in life, and think too much about worldly glory, fame, fortune, and achievement. This is known as the royal sign of the Zodiac, because many kings and rulers were born in Leo, including Napoleon, Julius Caesar, and Alexander the Great. But Leo-born often have the karma of being power-mad, wanting to dominate others, and being ostentatious and arrogant. Mussolini was this type of Leo. Jacqueline Onassis, who probably married Onassis for power, money, and social prestige, is also a Leo. Henry Ford, George Bernard Shaw, and many famous people were born in this fortunate sign.

To overcome your Leo karma, use this ritual of exorcism often:

I break the karmic pattern that keeps me tied to the wheel of fate by declaring myself forever free of these negative forces: I overcome selfishness by being aware of the needs of others. I cultivate love and friendship on a mutually reciprocal basis, giving to others as well as receiving. I lessen my desires for fame, power and money, with a sincere desire to do good for the world, to perform charitable acts, and to serve God as well as humanity. I overcome arrogance, selfishness, ostentation, and greed for fame and power and use my gifts and talents unselfishly for the good of the world.

YOUR KARMIC DESTINY IF YOU WERE BORN IN VIRGO

August 23 to September 22

The sign of Virgo is ruled by Mercury, and the symbol for this sign is the Virgin. Mercury rules the mind and the nervous system. Karmically, Virgos have a great many things to overcome and to be aware of. They have been given good minds and should develop their intellects. They learn easily, and many of them are inclined not to be overly ambitious. Their karma seems to be hard work and struggle and effort to rise above their physical earth problems. They are inclined to spend much time thinking about their bodies, food problems, money, work, and physical possessions. Their karma is that they often lose out on some of life's most precious relationships, because they are so engrossed in the material things of life.

If you are a Virgo, you are practical, reserved, and cautious in your relationships with others. Garbo was a Virgo, and her desire to be alone a great deal is typical of this sign. Garylord Hauser is Virgo, and his interest in health matters and diet is also a usual Virgo interest.

Many Virgo-born waste their talents in occupations that are inferior to their true genius. Some great writers were born in Virgo, including: Bret Harte, O. Henry, H.G. Wells, Leo Tolstoy, Upton Sinclair, and Oliver Wendell Holmes. When this sign fulfills its true karmic destiny, it often achieves greatness.

To exorcise your Virgo karma use the following ritual whenever you need to remind yourself of your weaknesses.

I now break the pattern of karma that keeps me chained to the wheel of fate that dooms me to mediocrity, labor, and hardship. I rise above the physical and material, earth-bound realm, into the spiritual and intellectual planes where I utilize my great talents for achievement. I refuse to drive myself to the point of a nervous breakdown and I relax and rest more often. I find love and companionship and overcome my tendency to criticism of the weaknesses of others and fault-finding which estranges others from me. I am liberated from pettiness and boring routine.

YOUR KARMIC DESTINY IF YOU WERE BORN IN LIBRA

September 23 to October 22

Venus is your ruling planet, and the scale of balance and justice is your symbol, if you were born in the sign of Libra. Venus gives you a kind, loving, gentle, and beautiful nature. You are in love with love, more than with any person. Your karma often comes in the department of love and marriage. You are inclined to be inconstant, flirtatious, and often not sure about your love relationships. The Libra women are often beautiful and karmically they must be careful of vanity, pride, and showing too much concern about their physical beauty. The men are charming and handsome and karmically they must be careful of their tendencies to love many women without taking on the responsibilities of marriage and parenthood.

Libra karma is often tied in with their tendencies to be sarcastic, to say things they do not mean, and to make enemies. They have to constantly be careful not to become emotionally unbalanced, over-reacting with hysteria and confusion to emotional problems.

If Libra-born live too much in the fleshpots of life, they become sensual, lustful, and animalistic; they often suffer from health ailments due to emotional and physical excesses. General Eisenhower, Gandhi of India, and Eleanor Roosevelt were Librans.

To exorcise your Libra karma repeat the following ritual each day until it becomes a habit in your thinking:

I am now liberated from the karma of my sign. I strive to maintain balance between the mental, physical, and spiritual forces in my life. I overcome my tendencies to sarcasm and saying things that hurt others and make enemies. I elevate love to its rightful plane of action and overcome tendencies to flirtation and fickleness when married. I cultivate patience with the faults of others, calm in the face of crises, and restraint in my tendencies to over-react to situations with hysteria, temper, and impatience.

YOUR KARMIC DESTINY IF YOU WERE BORN IN SCORPIO

October 23 to November 22

This is considered one of the strongest of all signs, but it is burdened with many karmic debts. This is the eighth house in the Zodiac, ruling the forces of life and death and also the mystical and the occult. The ruling planet is Mars, and its symbol is the stinging scorpion.

However, when you work out your Scorpio karma you become elevated and the Eagle is then said to be your symbol, with all its qualities of endurance, courage, loftiness, and elevation of spirit.

If you give in to the typical Scorpio karma, you are apt to be selfish, cold and aloof, suspicious and unfriendly, miserly and grasping (Hetty Green, the miser was born in Scorpio). You are inclined to be selfish and live in the animal passions and appetites. In love and marriage you are apt to be jealous, possessive, and highly critical. Of course, this is the worst of this sign, and undoubtedly no Scorpio ever has all these negative karmic qualities.

Some famous people born in Scorpio were: Robert Kennedy, Theodore Roosevelt, actor Richard Burton, and Spiro Agnew.

To exorcise your Scorpio karma do the following ritual every day until you have freed yourself of the negative aspects of your karma.

I now free myself from the gravity pull of karma to my lower, Scorpio nature, and elevate myself to the realm of the lofty, aspiring eagle rather than the stinging, sarcastic scorpion. I strive to achieve spiritual growth and evolution; I conquer my suspicious, jealous, and possessive nature and turn these qualities, through the law of transmutation, into kindness, trust, and love. I exorcise the demons of selfishness, miserliness, and pride, and take on the spiritual virtues of forgiveness, peace, and radiant joy.

YOUR KARMIC DESTINY IF YOU WERE

BORN IN SAGITTARIUS

November 23 to December 21

Your sign is ruled by the benevolent planet Jupiter, and belongs to the fire trinity. The symbol for your sign is the Archer, and you are always striving to reach lofty heights and are idealistic by nature. However, you have karma to work out, as do all signs of the Zodiac.

You are apt to be dominating and overly aggressive, making people misunderstand you and your motives at times. You are independent by nature and you like to be a free soul. This causes you sometimes to shirk your responsibilities to your job or your family, and often makes you unhappy in marriage.

Your ambitions are high and sometimes this causes you to be ruthless and self-centered, disregarding the rights and opinions of others. You seldom get into positions where you do routine work and you resent anyone putting a halter on you in business or in your personal relationships, especially in marriage.

Many times the karma for this sign is severe; often you may have to lose fame, fortune, and even love, to give you the spiritual lessons that your karma seems intent to teaching you. If you comply with these karmic demands, you can rise to a very high, spiritual nature, as your sign rules the ninth house of philosophy, religion, and the higher mind. You may travel a good deal in your life, either for pleasure or for business, or both.

Some famous people born in Sagittarius were: John V. Lindsay, former mayor of New York City; author Mark Twain; playwright Noel Coward; composer Beethoven, and philanthropist Andrew Carnegie.

The exorcism ritual for Sagittarius is as follows:

I now accept my responsibilities, burdens and restrictions in life with good grace and no longer strive to shirk them. I overcome my sense of impatience, my desire for fame and fortune, and am aware of the true, spiritual values in my life. I am no longer tied to the karmic wheel of fate by a desire for power and I treat others kindly and with great patience and consideration. I choose the upward path of spirit, rather than the worldly path of riches, fame, and fortune. I am a free soul and retain my freedom spiritually, not selling my soul for money, power, or earthly glory.

YOUR KARMIC DESTINY IF YOU WERE

BORN IN CAPRICORN

December 22 to January 19

The karmic burdens given to your sign of Capricorn are said to be among the heaviest of the entire Zodiac. You are ruled by the stern planet of discipline and hardship, Saturn. Your symbol is the Goat and like that animal, you seem always to be trying to scale a mountain peak where your footing is tested every step of the way.

Likewise, Capricorns are given many tests and burdens in life to bring out their soul qualities and to prepare them for the true spiritual goals that await them when they have conquered the earth-bound self.

Typical of Capricorn is President Nixon, who had his challenges in the political arena, and who finally overcame them all to win the presidency. However, he has had his Watergate to contend with, and so too, if you are Capricorn, you will have your own personal Watergate, where you may face loss, privation, loneliness, grief, and tragedy. When the going gets tough for Capricorns, they call on hidden reserves of power and go on to scale even greater heights.

There have been five Capricorns who won the Presidency, including Woodrow Wilson, who also faced tremendous difficulties in his term of office, with his League of Nations for peace. This sign is marked for great achievement if you can once overcome some of your karma. Your negative traits are: stubbornness, refusing to listen to other people, ruthlessness, false pride, desire for personal aggrandizement, a love of power, and a disregard for the feelings or rights of others. Stalin was a Capricorn, as was also J. Edgar Hoover. These people when undeveloped spiritually, love to rule others and are sometimes tyrannical and cruel. Howard Hughes is Capricorn, also Aristotle Onassis, and novelist James Baldwin.

The exorcism ritual for Capricorn is as follows:

I accept the burdens and the challenges of my sign, respecting Saturn, my planet of greatness and also of discipline. I refuse to yield to the tortures of unfulfilled longings for power and high places, and satisfy myself with doing a good job in whatever sphere of action I am placed by fate.

I strive to overcome my aloofness and coldness and to become a better human being, with warm, human relationships. I shall strive to be kind to my family, and to treat others with dignity and respect. I meet competition and frustrations with inner equanimity and poise and strive to achieve peace of mind and peace of soul in my turbulent Capricorn life.

YOUR KARMIC DESTINY IF YOU WERE BORN IN AQUARIUS

January 20 to February 18

Perhaps no sign in the Zodiac is as fortunately endowed as this great sign of Aquarius. If you were born in Aquarius, you can thank your "lucky" stars, for more great men and women were born in this sign than any other in the Zodiac. Your ruling planet is Uranus and this is an air sign, symbolized by the Water-bearer.

Despite the fact this is a sign of genius and greatness its karma is unusually heavy, for the brighter the light, the darker the shadow it casts. Aquarius people often are given tremendous karmic loads to bear, which either break them or strengthen their souls and prepare them for life's richest rewards.

Lincoln was an Aquarian, and all his life he was denied happiness in love and marriage. His assassination was the final cross to bear, it brought his death, but also immortality.

Lord Byron, an Aquarian was a genius, but his cross was the fact he was born club-footed.

Steinmetz was an Aquarian, but he was a hunchback.

Edison, another genius, who was born in Aquarius, was deaf.

President Franklin D. Roosevelt, another Aquarian, was afflicted with polio and crippled early in life.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur, reached high levels of accomplishment, but as is the fate of most Aquarians, he was demoted by Truman.

Kaiser Wilhelm, Emperor of Germany, ended his days as a woodchopper in Holland, after World War I. He was an Aquarian.

Do all Aquarians face this type of tragic karma?

Not necessarily. These soul challenges are given to every Aquarian, it is true, but if they overcome their karma in life and know about spiritual laws, they can usually temper this tragic inclination with actions that will save them.

Aquarians are great, but they have karmic weaknesses. They are sometimes ruthless in their love of power and sacrifice integrity and honor to achieve greatness. They are often fickle in love and marriage, often having two or more marriages. Clark Gable, John Barrymore, Lana Turner, three Aquarians whose horoscopes I have read were all married four times or more. They make good mates when things go well, but they sometimes tire quickly and want a new mate. The men are worse in this respect than the woman. They are often inconsiderate, selfish, and egotistical. They are determined to have their own way at any cost. They are impatient of others and quickly throw their friends over if they think they can no longer use them. These are their worst karmic faults, but by no means all.

The Exorcism ritual for Aquarians is as follows:

I now accept the mantle of greatness placed upon me by fate, recognizing my responsibilities to the world and to myself. I now banish the demons of selfishness, cruelty, inconsideration, and inconstancy that are my soul karma and I pledge myself to serving humanity, giving gentility and kindness in love, and forgiving others for their weaknesses. I pledge myself to a search for spiritual wisdom to overcome my life karma. I cultivate the qualities of loyalty, service, honor, and justice.

YOUR KARMIC DESTINY IF YOU WERE BORN IN PISCES

February 19 to March 20

Your sign is known as Pisces, ruled by the planet Neptune, with the symbol of two fishes, one swimming upstream and the other downstream. This is typical of most Pisceans, they have a strange duality that makes them spiritual and yet earthly; that gives them high idealism, and yet practicality; they are visionaries, with high principles, and yet they can often become caught up in life's petty details and lose their dream.

Pisceans are often extremely easy to influence in a negative way, and often are influenced to drink, smoke, or take drugs, by those interested in destroying them. As Pisces is the twelfth house in the Zodiac, called the house of self-undoing and misfortune, the ancients believed that karmically the Pisceans would always be tested to bring out their weaknesses. If they were to survive, they would have to learn how to become spiritually strong.

Pisceans are the best-loved people in the Zodiac, it is true, for they are always helping others, giving money, time, and labor for worthy causes, but this often degenerates into a weakness when they overdo, and harm themselves through their over-generosity.

If you are a Piscean you can overcome your negative karma by becoming firmer in your decisions, by protecting yourself from unscrupulous people and by cultivating more spiritual qualities. You have natural intuition and should be able to be guided to your right path of destiny if you spend time in prayer and meditation each day. Some famous people born in Pisces: George Washington, Longfellow, Elizabeth Taylor, and Luther Burbank.

The Exorcism ritual for Pisceans is as follows:

I now unify my dual nature, and let the spiritual dominate the physical and material side. I overcome my weaknesses and tendency to vacillation and indecision. I drive out of my mind the demons of worry and concern about the future and build security and confidence by taking positive steps to improve my lot in life. I avoid over-indulgences in food, drink, and habits that might prove harmful. I am kind, without letting people take advantage of me. I share my good, but do not let others rob me of my birthright. I enthrone the qualities of strength, courage, honesty, and love, and overcome all weaknesses of fear, anxiety, and hate that I may unwittingly harbor, I rise to the heights of spiritual awareness and fulfill my destiny perfectly.

If you happen to be born between the 19th and 22nd of the month, you partake of the two signs of the Zodiac and you should then read both sections to learn your true karma. By checking in an Ephemeris, which shows the planet's places for every year, you can learn exactly which sign you are under. However, the influences of both signs affect you when born on the cusp between two signs.

REVIEW OF POINTS GIVEN IN CHAPTER 12

1. How the ancient Tibetans practiced exorcism to break the karmic patterns of destiny through reincarnation and astrology.

2. How you can use the Song Celestial, the Tibetan form of exorcism to break your own astrological karma for all time.

3. How your karmic destiny brings you problems and evil forces if you are an undeveloped Aries and how to exorcise these negative forces and free yourself.

4. The karmic pattern if you were born in Taurus and how to use the ancient ritual of exorcism to free you of the negative traits that afflict all Taureans.

5. Gemini-born have a very special destiny, as they are highly gifted, but their karma is also very negative. Exorcism ritual to overcome these disturbances for Gemini-born.

6. The typical negative karma of most Cancerians and how you can break the spell of moodiness, depression, and misfortune through Tibetan exorcism.

7. The great sign of Leo is often tortured by karma from past lives; the ritual of exorcism has to be used for overcoming the tendencies to misfortune and disaster.

8. Virgo-born are earthbound and concerned with the physical and material, and their karma is often sickness, hardship, and effort. Exorcism can break this evil spell and free them.

9. The karmic pattern for those born in Libra, and how they can overcome the misfortunes given by the planet Venus, in social life, love, and marriage.

10. Scorpio-born often have heavy karma, owing to the fact they do not live up to the spiritual aspects of their sign. Exorcism breaks this negative aspect and makes you the soaring eagle, not the stinging scorpion.

11. How the lucky planet Jupiter rules Sagittarians, but brings with it a karma of being too dominating and overly aggressive. This can be broken through exorcism rituals.

12. Perhaps the most difficult karma of all is that of those born in Capricorn. Love of power, ruthlessness, and self-centeredness can be overcome through the ritual of exorcism.

13. The greatest sign in the Zodiac, Aquarius, is often the most tragically afflicted. The ritual of exorcism can help you overcome many of these negative conditions.

14. Pisceans are strangely dual and often weak and vacillating; they need the ritual of exorcism to give them strength and courage to overcome their negativity and achieve a great destiny.

How to Detect Black Magic Practices and Overcome Them Through Exorcism

There are two opposing forces in the universe that constantly fight each other. In ancient times it was believed the devil had as much power for evil, as God has for good. These two opposing forces were always warring against each other. Sometimes the devil force won out, and sometimes the God force was victorious.

When the forces of evil are victorious over the forces of good, we say in occult philosophy that black magic is at work. Sometimes these black forces are projections of evil entities that obsess a human brain, making it go temporarily mad and committing violent and destructive acts.

Many people are inclined to believe that Lee Harvey Oswald was possessed of the devil when he assassinated President Kennedy. Surely, black magic could have been at work in this case, and in the fatal shooting of Robert Kennedy later. In fact, many thousands of people projected hate thoughts to the entire Kennedy family and might have caused the black magic that brought death to three of their sons and which nearly destroyed the life and career of Ted Kennedy. Even now, the curse of black magic seems to be working against Ted Kennedy, with the tragic amputation of his son's leg.

Some people seem to be haunted by these forces of evil and destruction all their lives. They are the ones who are constantly having tragedy and misfortune. No matter how they try, they cannot seem to break the spell of evil that threatens them at every turn.

HOW TO DETECT BLACK MAGIC PRACTICES IN YOUR LIFE

Check the list below and see if you have had any of these misfortunes. If they still persist in your life, you are no doubt under demoniac forces of black magic and you must use powerful rituals of exorcism to break these black magic forces.

1. Do you seem to have perpetual bad luck, where everything goes wrong in your life?
2. Are you constantly having money problems?
3. Do people turn into enemies for no apparent reason?
4. Are you sick often, without any apparent reason?
5. Do you feel chronically fatigued, no matter what diet you follow or how much you rest?
6. Do you constantly lose your job for no apparent reason?
7. Do you stumble, fall, or break an arm or leg, more than one time in your life?
8. Do you often feel that someone is putting a spell on you, the evil eye, a jinx, or some other form of voodoo or black magic?
9. Do you have strange pains in the head, back, or chest, and doctors cannot tell you what is wrong?
10. Are you excessively worried, fearful, and apprehensive, when no cause seems to exist?
11. Do you find yourself thinking of getting revenge on some person who has harmed you? Do you sometimes think of killing someone, and choose what method you will use?
12. Do you lose your temper quickly or have fits of violence where you throw things or want to harm others?
13. Do you often think of sex in a lustful way, dwelling on violence, rape, or sensual actions, or take pleasure in such things in movies or books?

14. Do you find yourself using obscene and vulgar language, taking God's name in vain, or other forms of profanity?
15. Have you ever made a secret pact with the devil, offering him your soul to give you riches, fame, youth, power, and glory?

If you have several of the above symptoms, or if you indulge in many of the above practices, you are undoubtedly suffering from the effects of black magic in your life. This may not be out-and-out demon possession, but it can be the obsession of your mind by evil spirits or entities that cause you to suffer, or to have bad luck, or that deceive you through delusions and wrong ideas.

A Man Suffered Misfortune Through Black Magic

A man who sought my help told me a strange story. He had fallen and broken an arm and a leg three times in the past five years. He felt some evil entity was trying to destroy him. He became convinced one day when he stood on the subway platform and something whispered in his ear, as a car was coming into the station, "Why don't you jump in front of the train and end it all?" He had an irrational impulse to hurl himself onto the tracks in front of the train!

From that time on he never stood near the edge of the platform when a train was coming into the station.

Upon questioning this man, I found out that he and his wife had not lived together as man and wife for five years. His wife seemed to hate him but did not want to divorce him. He told me that one day, in rummaging through a bureau drawer he found a strange wax doll, dressed like a man, with three pins stuck into its body, but he thought nothing of it at the time. One day he read an article about black magic and learned that sometimes people practice this method of putting a curse on another person by putting pins into a wax image of the person. He became deeply suspicious of his wife and stopped eating food she prepared for fear she might be trying to kill him.

Further questioning revealed that his wife had made him take out an insurance policy on his life for one hundred thousand dollars! Since that time these strange accidents had been taking place.

I advised this man to bring an end instantly to the relationship he had with his wife. To seek a divorce, and give her suitable alimony, and also to tell her he was removing her from his insurance policy as his beneficiary. He moved out the following day, and filed for separation. His wife, of course, was violent, but now that this man realized his life had been cursed with black magic, he knew he had to take drastic steps to save himself. He reported to me over a period of three months, and there were no more strange accidents, and no further impulses to kill himself! The black magic spell was broken with a ritual of exorcism I gave him, which he was to perform twice a day.

Following are the counteracting agents to use for each of the black magic forces listed above: Repeat the short ritual of exorcism twice a day, morning and night, using the white candle and burning incense. Intone the exorcism ritual three times.

1. To break the spells of perpetual bad luck:

I surround myself with the white light of God's protection and love. I banish all evil forces from my presence forevermore.

2. To overcome money problems that may haunt you constantly.

I rid my mind of the curses that keep me in want and I contact the higher powers that bring a flow of money and abundance into my life. I attract money and supply.

3. To keep people from turning into enemies:

I bless others and in turn am blessed by their love and friendship. I banish evil thoughts and encourage only thoughts of kindness, consideration, and love.

4. To overcome sickness produced by black magic spells:

I am insulated against all forms of invasion by germs, sick thought entities, or other forms of illness. I become stronger and stronger day by day.

A Woman Used Exorcism to Stop Her Headaches

A woman suffered from chronic headaches. She thought it was sinus, but doctors found no infection. Then she thought the headaches were caused by digestive disturbances, but again, doctors found her digestion perfect. Finally in desperation, she turned to me for help. I found out that in her place of business there was a woman who seemed to do everything she could to harm her. She spread gossip behind her back; she reported her to her superiors. She seemed to be jealous and hateful for no apparent reason.

I assumed that this jealous woman was putting a curse on her for some strange reason, and I gave her three forms of exorcism to use; numbers one, three, and four, as these fitted her needs perfectly. She was to recite these to herself several times a day, and at night, just before going to sleep. She reported that within two weeks this objectionable woman had been moved to another department. Her headaches stopped as if by magic!

5. Chronic fatigue is often a symptom that black magic forces are draining our auras of electricity and magnetism.

To stop this form of drainage use this exorcism:

I draw on cosmic energy to banish fatigue and illness. I am in God's magic circle of life and power. I throw out of consciousness all evil forces. I am in the light of health, energy, life, and joy.

A young man of 24 reported to me that he felt constantly fatigued and exhausted. Formerly he had been able to go dancing every night, sleep only four or five hours, and go to work perfectly refreshed. His mother had become mysteriously ill, and demanded his presence in the house every night, fearing a heart attack. He began to grow more and more weary and for no apparent reason, seemed to lose his energy each day before noon.

Then, upon further questioning, I learned that his widowed mother depended on him for her support and feared that he might meet a girl he would love and marry. I knew then that consciously, or unconsciously, this young man's own mother was projecting black magic forces to keep him constantly depleted and exhausted so he would remain at home with her!

When I explained this to the young man, he instantly agreed that it was possible. I told him to bless his mother and release her to God, and to use the forms of exorcism given under numbers one, three, and five. In a short time, this young man was free of the spell cast by his mother and was enjoying life as he had formerly.

6. Losing your job often, or being in work that is disagreeable, can be a force of black magic holding you back. Use this exorcism to break the spell:

I break the spell of bad luck and loss of jobs through my forces of white magic. I want permanency, good money conditions, and work that I enjoy. I banish restlessness and discontent.

7. For constant bad luck, such as breaking an arm or leg, or falling on stairs, use the following exorcism ritual:

I now rid myself of this obsessing force that causes me to have accidents and misfortune. I am free of the spell that has been fastened on me. I am safe and secure, knowing that God is my protection constantly.

A woman I once knew in my work in New York City fell three separate times and broke an arm, a leg, and then the other arm. She felt that someone had jinxed her with bad luck, as she had never had such misfortunes before. I gave her the above exorcism, which she was to use every time she left her house, or walked up or down a flight of stairs. Her bad luck cycle was soon broken and she had no more misfortunes.

8. Many times people you do not even know are projecting an evil spell on you for some ulterior motive. In such cases wear a cross around your neck, or some religious symbol, and each night and morning say the following ritual of exorcism:

I command the dark forces of evil to leave my presence forever! I align myself with the white magic of God and good. No satanic force has power over my mind, body, or soul. I am in the white light of God's divine presence and protection all day today, and while I sleep tonight.

9. For unexplained pains or aches, when nothing is wrong with you physically, use the following short exorcism daily:

Pains and aches and evil things,
Fly from me on rapid wings;
Leave my body, don't return!
For peace and quiet I do yearn.
Surround me with God's radiant light,
Magic power pure and white;
Banish forces of the night.

10. A thought form obsessing your mind can often produce fear, worry and anxiety about the future. Use this ritual of exorcism to break this obsessing spell on your mind:

I now place my mind, my body, and my future life in God's protective custody. I know nothing can happen to me but good, as God is good. So now I cease all worry and fear, trusting God, my Father to protect me from all harm.

A member of my lecture group in Los Angeles was constantly riddled with anxiety and fear about the future. This man's business was failing, he could no longer concentrate on his problems, his home life was deteriorating. He had been to two psychiatrists, seeking aid for breaking this mental obsession. I gave him three treatments with exorcism and found him responding beautifully. Then I gave him the above exorcism to repeat several times a day, whenever he felt the old moods returning. This broke the spell once and for all, and he went on to become a tremendous success in his business and his personal life.

11. Hate and a desire to destroy others, is a tool of the devil.

Often he uses this form of obsession to drive a person to murderous fury. Most murders are committed by normal-looking men and women, who are driven to a moment of madness by the obsession to destroy. Use this exorcism if you harbor such thoughts of revenge or hatred in your mind.

I now command the satanic forces of evil and hate to quit my mind, body, and soul. I am no longer a tool for evil forces to use for destructive purposes. I operate under the divine laws of love and forgiveness. I release all persons I have hated to God's mercy and care, knowing they will be rewarded according to their good or bad actions.

12. Occasionally everyone has a fit of temper, but if you find yourself habitually angry, or give in to fits of temper where you throw objects or harm others, you need to exorcise the demons of violence and anger that obsess your mind. Use this form of exorcism:

I now control the forces of my mind and body and allow no evil entities to seek refuge within my aura. I am free of the demons of hatred and violence. I am in a state of peace and calm. I maintain this aura of peace in my relations with others. I now overcome this force of anger and become peaceful, tranquil, and calm.

A young man of 15 was brought to me by his parents, for they were alarmed at the strange symptoms he had shown of late. He rebelled against everything they said to him; he had taken up smoking and drinking. He had tried marijuana, and had committed two minor robberies. His temper was so violent that he frequently threw things and broke furniture and mirrors. The parents truly believed this young man was possessed by demons.

In our first interview, this young man used obscene language and said he hoped his parents would drop dead. I instantly sensed demon possession in this boy and began to use strong rituals of exorcism. It took five sessions to really break the spell of evil that had fastened on his young mind, but after that time he seemed to be free of the evil entity that seemed to obsess him. I gave him the above ritual of exorcism to use every night and morning, and his parents reported to me over a period of a year that the obsessions did not return.

13. Sensuality, when it degrades and becomes animalistic, is often a sign of mental and physical obsession. I have treated many cases of extreme sexual obsession and have had wonderful results with the following exorcism:

My mind and body are chalices for the reception of God's divine power of Love. I am no longer a channel for obsessing or lustful thoughts of degrading sex. I command all lustful, obscene, and evil thoughts to leave my mind and body. I am now in the protective white light of God's divine love, peace, and beauty.

14. Profanity and obscene language are the tools of the devil. They tend to degrade and pervert the human mind. Use the following ritual of exorcism to rid yourself of these tendencies to foul language or conduct:

I am a pure channel for the reception of high and lofty ideals. I speak only words of beauty, positive good, and wholesomeness. I bid the demons of vulgarity and obscenity to quit my mind and body. I am filled with God's light of truth, joy, beauty, and love.

15. Many people today believe in Demonology; devil worship. They feel that the Satanic forces can help them achieve fame, power, riches, and glory. If you have ever made a pact with the satanic forces, you can break this evil spell with the following ritual of exorcism:

Get thee behind me Satan! I now break my pact of evil that bound me to you and your minions of hell! I worship God on high, and seek His redemptive power to cleanse and purify my soul of this evil curse. I no longer bend to your demoniac will but turn my eyes heavenward, knowing that my rewards shall be great. My covenant of evil is now broken and I turn my face from the dark forces of hell, to the supreme presence of God and His Divine Love.

A Young Lawyer Was Destroyed by Satanic Forces.

I once knew a brilliant young lawyer who came to some of my lectures in New York City. He came to me for a private consultation and told me that he had a great ambition to be a famous politician, and possibly become a Senator or win some other high office in Washington. He said, "But you know, I don't really believe that God is the strongest power in the universe. Evil seems to be stronger than good. I have often thought that perhaps Satan really controls the universe, not God." Then he told me a strange tale; that when he was a young man of about 15, he made a secret pact with Satan to give him power, fame, and fortune, and he would worship him. He jokingly repeated this pact and said, "Of course, it was only a childish pact, but I wonder sometimes if there's anything to such nonsense?"

I watched this lawyer's career and saw him go into public office in local government. Then he won an election to the House of Representatives in Washington, where he served one term brilliantly. The next thing I heard, he was running for the office of Senator! He won the election, and was on his way to a great career. Two days before his term was to begin, he was killed in a motor car accident! Had the devil remembered the youthful pact this man had made with him and come to claim his soul? We cannot worship the forces of evil without destroying ourselves.

SUMMARY OF IMPORTANT POINTS IN CHAPTER 12

1. The two opposing forces fighting each other for power; good and evil, God and Satan. You can choose whichever side you wish for your future.

2. Was Lee Harvey Oswald, who assassinated President Kennedy possessed of demons, as many believe he was. It is most likely that an evil force often possesses many human minds.

3. The black magic spell that has spelled disaster for the Kennedy family, and which still seems to be working its evil for members of the family.

4. You can detect if black magic is working against you, and then set about doing something to turn it away with forces of white magic and exorcism.

5. The 15 ways by which you can detect black magic forces, so you may prepare yourself to overcome them with exorcism.

6. How a man who was suffering from possession of evil thought forms nearly jumped in front of a subway train; he was saved through rituals of exorcism.

7. How to use exorcism to keep your enemies from harming you and how to turn them into friends.

8. If perpetual sickness and accidents befall you, there is a method of exorcism to stop these misfortunes so you have health and safety.

9. A woman who had chronic headaches was suffering from obsession of evil thought forms projected by a jealous woman. She used exorcism and her pains stopped within a short time.

10. You can use rituals of exorcism to overcome the invasions of other people's thought forms that might cause you chronic fatigue and depletion of your nervous energy, electricity, and magnetism.

11. A young man of 24 was constantly exhausted; he learned that his own mother was practicing black magic on him to make him too tired to leave her at night.

12. A woman I knew broke her leg and arm on three different occasions because she was jinxed. She used a special form of exorcism to break this bad luck cycle with white magic.

13. Fear, worry, and anxiety about the future can be caused by obsessions that are trying to deplete you and destroy you. You can use exorcism to break this form of black magic and once again be safe and protected.

14. A businessman's life was deteriorating on all planes, owing to a thought form obsessing him about failure and unhappiness. He established the forces of white magic once again and overcame his disturbances in a short time.

15. A real case of demon possession of a boy of 15 and how his parents used exorcism to rid him of this terrible force.

16. How lust, animalism, and sexual debauchery are often due to obsessions and the exorcism ritual that can banish this degrading misuse of the love force.

17. A powerful ritual for those who have unwittingly sold their souls to the satanic powers for fame, glory, and riches, and how to use exorcism to cleanse the mind and soul.

How to Use the Power of White Magic and Exorcism to Bring You Peace of Mind, Security, and Happiness

There is a word from the ancient Sanskrit which means ultimate fulfillment and contentment. That word is Darshan. The ancients well knew that on this earth plane there are so many obsessive forces of negativity, fear, worry, hate, poverty, sickness, pain, and war that few people can ever discover Darshan on this earth. And yet, in the ancient philosophies from the Far East there were special exorcism rituals against the very forces that destroy the human mind and spirit.

It is these forces of exorcism through white magic that we shall explore in this chapter. You will then be able to use the exorcism rituals and chants that come down from ancient times to help you live in the twentieth century in peace, security, and fulfillment of your every dream.

THE OBSESSIVE THOUGHT FORMS THAT DISTURB PEACE OF MIND

1. Many people are obsessed with an overpowering desire to attain high goals of achievement. There is nothing wrong with a desire for success but when it becomes an obsession, causing one to sacrifice honor, integrity, peace of mind and soul, it then becomes a destructive force that can shatter and disrupt one's entire life.
2. Disturbances brought about in relationships with other people. More people suffer from misery through contacts with others in business, and from personal and romantic relations than almost any other single cause. People are often the cause of your greatest heartaches and sorrows and you must have protection to save yourself from them.
3. A desire for money and the things money can buy. How often men have sold their very souls to the devil for money! This source of obsession from greed, selfishness, avarice, and miserliness has enslaved more people to the forces of evil than any other single cause.
4. A desire for revenge on someone you hate can cause mental agony that leads to mental breakdowns and physical illness.
5. Distorted sexual feelings, licentiousness, and lust often shatter peace of mind and tranquillity, bringing turmoil and sometimes disaster.
6. Excessive fear and worry about the present and the future. This cause of obsession sends many people to the point of a nervous breakdown, and makes millions of people sick.
7. Anti-social actions, suspicion of others, jealousy, possessiveness, and desire to dominate others; often these mental obsessions create a monstrosity instead of a human being and keep a person from ever knowing true peace of mind, emotional security, or happiness.
8. Personality defects, such as inferiority, self-consciousness, inadequacy, and extreme introversion many times bring a person agony of mind and soul, causing him to become a failure in his life.

THE RITUALS AND CHANTS FOR EXORCISING
THE ABOVE BLACK MAGIC FORCES WITH WHITE MAGIC

As two thoughts cannot occupy your mind at the same time, so too, you cannot be in the opposite polarities of thought at the same time. You can either choose one obsession or the other; good or bad. If you use a magnificent obsession and let this be the desire to achieve high goals for the good of God and humanity, you will be able to exorcise the forces of self-aggrandizement, greed, and selfishness that so often destroy otherwise great men.

From India comes a form of exorcism known as Occult Entrancement. In this ritual the force of white magic is enthroned in consciousness, the magnificent obsession is chosen to replace the forces of evil that often inhabit a human mind. Great powers of the mind are released when one goes into a trance through repetition of a great thought or idea. By enthroning these great thoughts through exorcism, you will permanently program your higher mind centers with God's magnificent dream for your future destiny, and you will then avoid going into the opposite camp, or using the satanic forces of dishonesty, greed, and ruthlessness which so many men use to achieve their goals in life.

1. Exorcism ritual for overcoming greed, selfishness and unbridled desire and ambition:

Sit in quiet meditation, with a white candle burning and incense, or some fragrance, in the room. Be in a comfortable position, and intone the following ritual several times, until you know it by heart. Then use it whenever you feel the obsessing forces of ambition disturbing your peace of mind and soul.

I enter into the state of occult entrancement and invoke the higher powers to bring me peace of mind and tranquility. I now exorcise the forces of greed and selfishness with my magnificent obsession to serve God and humanity. I desire success only if it is good for my spiritual growth and if I can help others.

2. Exorcism ritual for overcoming disturbed relationships with other people that bring you suffering and misery:

I bid the forces of discord and friction to be removed from my mind for all time. I recognize the good of God in every person I meet. My friends, relatives and loved ones are now in the magic circle of God's divine love and we are bound together in bonds of amity, concord and friendship.

A Woman's Life Was Nearly Ruined by Hate

A woman who suffered from every known type of ailment, came into my lecture work once in Los Angeles. She was having difficulties with her relatives, and even in her work, she was constantly having friction with her co-workers. She told me that everyone seemed to hate her and she reciprocated by hating them back. I gave her this ritual of exorcism to use to overcome the demons of hate that were bringing about such misery in her life. She began to practice it at home first, and found her relationship with her husband and children changed. Then she began reciting the ritual several times a day at her place of business, and soon she found herself smiling often, getting along better with her co-workers, and finally, when she reported to me a month later, she said her life had changed as if by magic!

3. Exorcism to overcome greed, selfishness and love of money:

I am no longer tempted by material things, such as money and possessions. I like money for the good it can do, but I do not love it enough to sell my soul or my peace of mind. I banish the demons of greed and the temptations of Satan that offer me the world and all therein for selfish gratification. I now maintain my personal integrity and pledge myself to make money sufficient to give me all the good things of life, and to help others with my material supply and abundance.

A man who once attended my lectures told me that he was happy to learn the mystical way to achieve riches and abundance. He wanted a million dollars so he could set up a foundation to help the world, similar to the Rockefeller and Ford Foundations. He wanted to help musically talented orphans, for when he was a child he was an orphan; he loved music but had no way to study it, so he promised God, if he ever let him become rich, he would help talented orphans.

I told this enthusiastic student that he did not need a million dollars for his purpose. I told him he could begin now, with the little he had and his money would grow, if he dedicated himself to helping orphans. He started a musical scholarship for talented orphans, and in his studios where he had teachers giving instruction, he took on three such children the first month. Soon his conservatory of music became bigger and bigger, and he finally wound up having one of the largest schools of its kind on the West Coast, where he then really set up his foundation to help talented orphans. He stands a chance to make his million, but he is doing his good now.

4. Exorcism to remove emotions of hate and revenge and substitute the white magic forces of forgiveness, consideration and love.

I now cleanse my mind, heart and soul of all vestiges of hate and a desire for revenge. "Vengeance is mine," saith the Lord. I now consign all persons and situations that arouse my resentment and which cause me distress, to the loving care of God. I banish the black magic forces of hate, resentment, revenge, violence, and discord from my mind and supplant them with love, forgiveness, and kindness.

5. Exorcism to banish extreme sensuality, licentiousness, lust, and animalism from the consciousness, supplanting these black magic forces with gentility, true love, and spiritual ecstasy produced through love of God.

I am in the magic circle of God's love and now banish all earthly animalistic passions based on lust, extreme sensuality, and promiscuity. I am aware of the many facets of love, and sublimate this divine emotion to its right sphere of divine action in my life. I love all people with a pure and holy love, and I love God more than life.

6. Exorcism to rid yourself of excessive fear and worry:

In using the above exorcism for overcoming fear and worry, you might also memorize the 23rd Psalm in its entirety, and repeat it whenever you feel the obsessions of fear and anxiety overcoming your mind. Also learn the 91st Psalm, and repeat it often to keep yourself cleared of the negative effects of excessive fear and worry. A normal concern about your affairs is not worry, but perfectly natural. However, when you dwell on a situation that troubles you and do nothing to change it, then it becomes obsessive worry and harms you.

I gave the above exorcism to a man who was very worried about losing his business. He was in the plastics manufacturing line and when the gasoline shortages came, he was forced to close his factory as he could not get supplies. I told him to keep saying the above exorcism three or four times a day, and to keep projecting the thought he would once again open his factory. Within a short time, the Arabs lifted their oil embargo, confidence once again returned to America, and oil began to flow. He opened his factory and is now making more money than ever!

7. Exorcism to overcome anti-social actions that might bring you disturbances and keep you from having peace of mind and happiness.

I now rid my consciousness of all obsessing thought entities that create friction and discord in my life. I trust others and release them to their good. I am no longer possessive or jealous of others. I meet people half way and I no longer have a desire to dominate others or control their actions. I am a free agent, and recognize the need of others to express themselves freely.

A woman in Beverly Hills, California, was a big party giver. She raised many hundreds of thousands of dollars for charity with her wide acquaintance of people. But she was feared and dreaded because she bulldozed and dominated all her friends. Gradually people began dropping her from their social lists and she soon lost her power to attract people who used to give to her charities. In desperation she sought my help. I knew of her reputation as a tyrant and I began to recycle her mind with the above exorcism to break her of the terrible sense of domination, possessiveness, and jealousy that controlled her actions. Soon this woman changed and her old friends began inviting her to their homes. She kept saying the above exorcism whenever she felt her old faults returning. She happened to be a Scorpio and the karma of Scorpios is often to be overly-possessive and dominating.

8. Exorcism to overcome personality defects such as inferiority, self-consciousness, inadequacy, and extreme introversion:

I recognize my spiritual prototype of the God consciousness which is already perfect. I am created in the image and likeness of God, therefore there can be no weaknesses in me and the expression of my personality. I am confident, dynamic, and magnetic. I let the qualities of beauty, peace, and joy shine through my personality. I am loving and beloved. I banish the evil forces of inferiority and negativity.

I have given many people this form of exorcism to help them build strong minds and dynamic, magnetic personalities. When I used to give this exorcism to the movie stars of Hollywood I called it the Magic Circle. It is actually the exorcism that comes from ancient India known as Occult Entrancement. When you exorcise your mind centers with its golden magic you become a presence, not a person. You take on the God qualities of love, peace, beauty, and joy, and nothing can ever again make you feel inferior or inadequate.

POINTS TO REMEMBER IN CHAPTER 13

1. How you can use the ritual of exorcism to bring you Darshan, the Sanskrit term meaning peace of mind and contentment.

2. The eight forms of obsession that frequently afflict people, causing them misery, discontent, and agony of mind, body, and soul.

3. The exorcism of white magic to overcome the black magic forces of greed, selfishness, and unbridled desires and ambition for worldly goals, fame, fortune, and glory.

4. The exorcism of occult entrancement from India to help you overcome disturbed relationships with others, and bring you peace of mind, concord, and friendship.

5. How a woman nearly ruined her life through the obsessing force of hatred and discord, and how she overcame it with the ritual of exorcism.

6. How you can use the white magic exorcism to overcome lust for power, money, and material possessions.

7. A man who used this ritual of exorcism had a desire to make a million dollars to help orphans obtain a musical education. He began making more money as soon as he did this exorcism ritual.

8. How you can use white magic rituals of exorcism to rid your mind and heart of hate, destruction, revenge, and other emotions that destroy the mind and body and soul.

9. The white magic power that can banish sensuality, lust, and animalism from the human psyche, bringing true spiritual ecstasy of divine love.

10. How to exorcise the obsessing black magic forces of fear and worry about the present and the future. The 23rd and 91st Psalms are good rituals of exorcism for this purpose.

11. A man who was worried when his plastics business was threatened by the gasoline shortages, used an exorcism that helped him once again establish peace in his mind, and his business prospered better than ever.

12. A woman who had been a very prominent social hostess was losing her power to attract people, owing to the obsessing forces of possessiveness and domination. She used this exorcism to change her attraction powers and once again became prominent.

Exorcism Rites of the Ancient Egyptians that Can Transform Your Life Today

Exorcism was used by the ancient Egyptians as far back as ten thousand years ago. It is still possible to use it in our modern twentieth century and transform your life into a glittering tapestry of dreams.

I have spent many years traveling throughout the length and breadth of Egypt, examining the ancient temples, the Pyramids at Gizeh, the magnificent palaces of the Pharaohs at Karnak, and the unbelievable statues, temples and palaces at Abul-Simbul. I have floated down the same Nile that Cleopatra's barge traversed and I have seen the magnificence that was and is one of the most mysterious and fantastic of all countries in the world. I have studied Egyptology and the Hieroglyphics, the picture language of the ancient Egyptians, to decipher for myself the ancient rituals to the Flame, to the Moon, Sun, and other sacred symbols. I went into the Valley of the Kings, where some of the great Pharaohs are buried in tombs that are dug out of solid rock and extend as far as two and three hundred feet underground, where the bodies lay in state in their gold, and jewel-encrusted sarcophagi. There, carved on the walls and painted in glowing colors that are still vivid today, centuries later, are the mystical invocations, the exorcisms of evil forces, and the sacred rituals that were practiced by these ancient Egyptians for thousands of years.

The Curse of Tut'an'kamon Still Works Today

I stood beside the sarcophagus of the young Pharaoh, King Tut'an'kamon, and looked around at the unbelievably beautiful inscriptions on the tomb walls, that told the incredible story of the life and times of this king who died at the age of 16. It was hard to believe that the magic used by these ancient Egyptians was still working in the twentieth century, and yet I knew that out of the 20 people who had first entered that tomb and rifled it of many of its treasures, ten had died mysteriously! I also stood besides the sacred Temples of Isis and Osiris, which are now submerged beneath the waters of the Aswan dam, and remembered that the man who took the solid gold statue of King Osiris from the temple dropped dead of a heart attack! He was in his forties, and in perfect health. What strange force reached out over the centuries and claimed his life for the usurpation of the sacred tomb of this ancient, powerful king?

MODERN EXPLANATION OF WHY RITUALS OF EXORCISM WORK

Throughout these many centuries, when these ancient peoples of Egypt, China, Tibet, and India were using mystical powers, including exorcism, to work their magic spells, few people, except possibly the high priests in the temples, knew why black magic and white magic worked; why exorcism had the power to cast out devils; why rituals and invocations to so-called gods had the power to release tremendous magical forces that could literally perform miracles.

Deep within the human psyche, the Greek word that literally means soul or spirit of man, there is a delicate mechanism which controls the forces of life and death; of evil and good. This higher consciousness, when possessed with the power of evil, or the devil forces, becomes diabolically programmed to accidents, curses, bad luck, tragedies, war, hate, poverty, misfortune, insanity, and disaster. The will to live and the will to die are constantly at war with each other in every person's subconscious mind.

The will to health and the will to disease are also pitched in a battle against each other. When the devil, or evil, forces are given encouragement, or programmed into the centers of consciousness, the good, or God, forces abandon their citadel of spirit and leave the mind and body of mortal man to the complete domination of the satanic powers.

HOW EVIL ENTITIES POSSESS HUMAN MINDS

This is why evil people, who are programmed to destructive emotions, greed, selfishness, hate, and revenge, suffer from guilt complexes which automatically make them have accidents, become sick more readily, and perform acts of evil and destruction that make them seem to be possessed of a devil. How else can we rationally explain the satanic forces that could inhabit a human mind like Hitler's? How can we explain through reason and sanity, the diabolical forces that would possess men's minds and cause them to commit crimes of violence, such as kidnapping and the assassination of men like President Kennedy, his brother Robert and Dr. Martin Luther King in our own lifetimes?

Is there a demoniacal force loose in the world today that is bringing mankind to the very brink of atomic disaster? Were people like Hitler, Mussolini, and Stalin the precursors of an age of satanic evil that leads to violence, revolution, obscenity, licentiousness, and the widespread addictions to alcohol, smoking, and heavier dope addiction?

In studying the ancient rituals of exorcism, it is obvious that in these rites and invocations the Egyptians believed in evil spirits. They believed in survival of the soul, and return of the soul to this earth. In fact, most of their spiritual rituals were built up around the Sacred Book of the Dead, elaborate ceremonials, in which the body was prepared for its journey into the hereafter, with food, clothing, jewelry, and even a boat to be used to take the spirit to the other shores.

On my last pilgrimage to this ancient land of Egypt, I took 70 of my advanced students with me so we could study together the mysteries of the Pyramids, the ritual of the sacred flame in the Temples of Isis and Osiris, and the rituals written on the walls of the tombs of the ancient Pharaohs.

We spent time in the mysterious King's Chamber in the very heart of the great Pyramid of Gizeh, that is reached through a three-hundred-foot passageway, surrounded by solid rocks weighing from two to six tons. In the center of the king's tomb is a sarcophagus, and it is as empty today, as it was when it was first discovered years ago. The passageway to the King's Chamber was blocked by three enormous blocks of granite, each weighing as much as six tons. How did human hands ever carve these enormous blocks of stone? How could human hands ever haul the two million and a half blocks of granite, weighing from two tons to six, over a distance of five hundred miles, and up a three-thousand-foot ramp, to build what is called the Pyramid? Undoubtedly, some secrets are locked up in this vast memorial to man's greatness that will not be understood in our age. But those rituals of exorcism and invocation we well know and can utilize in our own lives in this day and age, to perform some of the miracles which the Ancient Egyptians performed.

At the foot of the vast Pyramid of Gizeh my group and I performed the sacred flame ritual exorcism, which I have described elsewhere in this book. Then we floated down the Nile on a night when the heavens were ablaze with silver splendor from the full moon. There were four blazing torches, symbols of the sacred flame ritual, two situated on the stern and two on the prow of the float on which our 70 members rode. Musicians strummed on stringed instruments and chanted the ancient rituals which had been handed down for generations, as we did our sacred ritual of exorcism, using the symbology of the Moon Goddess.

Our hands were clasped as though in prayer, and our faces were turned up to the celestial silvery light that etched the shorelines as far as the eye could see, casting its mystical spell over the minds of those participating in this sacred ritual.

The exorcism to the mystical moon, is used when the neophyte wishes to enhance his powers of mind and soul. It is used to cast out of consciousness the harsh, discordant, ugly, and malformed encrustations of centuries of negative mental images and to supplant them with the white magic of peace, beauty, and infinite love.

RITUAL OF EXORCISM TO THE MOON GODDESS

1. Use this Moon Ritual whenever you want to implant in your consciousness the white magic forces of good luck and reverse the evil trend of black magic that might have brought you misfortune, sickness, or unhappiness.

2. Choose a quiet place where you can have your shrine for working your rituals and invocations. Have four white candles lit, and use a strong jasmine or sandalwood incense which must burn throughout the ritual.

3. Also, use this exorcism to the Moon Goddess to bring you fulfillment in love and marriage; to cast a magic spell of romance over the heart of someone you want to love you and to protect your love affair or marriage from intrusions of black magic forces of jealousy, hate, possessiveness, and infidelity.

4. Use this exorcism to the Moon Goddess for developing psychic and intuitive powers, and giving you solutions to your problems.

5. You can also invoke the Moon Goddess to bring you fertility so you may bear as many children as you wish. However, it may also be invoked for fertility of the mind, giving you a stronger imagination and the ability to use your creative talents for writing, painting, inventing, composing music or poetry, and for great business ideas.

6. The ritual of exorcism to the Moon Goddess may also be invoked to bring you physical beauty, magnetism, charm, and power to enchant everyone you meet.

Intone this ritual of exorcism in a low tone of voice, sitting in a comfortable position before your sacred shrine. Anoint your altar, which can be any small table on which you place one of the white candles. The other three white candles can be located in the three corners of the room.

O Keeper of the Lesser Flame, I now approach this shrine to make my requests of the power back of the throne of celestial grandeur.

I invoke the white magic of peace and serenity to still the turbulent forces of discord and friction. I command the obsessing entities of misfortune, sickness, and unhappiness to quit this temple of the Lesser Light and to bring me good luck in all my affairs of life, to heal my body and keep it well, to give me long life and radiant joy all my days. I bring my gifts of light and fragrance to this sacred shrine, invoking the spell of romance over the heart and mind of the person I love. Under the magnetic spell of the silvery moon, lovers know the joy of fulfillment. I now invoke this magic of romance to bring my true soul mate to love me as I in turn do love and to consummate this love in the sacred bonds of holy marriage.

O beauteous spirit of of the Moon, grant me and my true soul mate the gift of fertility so we may bear children of light, beauty, and wisdom, to honor thee in their maturity.

Open wide the doors of consciousness, giving me the gift of prophecy and intuition, so I may be guided by the magnetic force of thy superior wisdom and great knowledge. Help me find solutions to all problems, overcome the evil forces of failure, fear, and poverty; rid me forevermore of the satanic forces of evil in every form and shed your silvery light of protection to enfold me safely in the arms of God's infinite Presence.

Grant me precious gifts of mind and spirit; make me a chalice for the creation of greatness in art, music, poetry, literature, and inventive skills that can help humanity evolve to heights of grandeur and magnificence.

Let thy silvery flow of majestic power surround me with an aura of great beauty and charm, which will attract, like a magnet, those who are good and honest and pure. I am in the light of thy peace, serenity, beauty, romance, and joy, and no force of evil can touch or influence me.

This powerful ritual of exorcism spread throughout the known world of that time. It was taken to Greece, where a special shrine was set up in the Temple of the Goddess Athena, and it eventually wound up in the illuminated manuscripts at the monastery at Mount Athos, where I was given the rituals used by the monks for centuries.

It spread to India, where the ritual of exorcism was named Samyama and was ascribed with miraculous powers when Samyama was made on the Moon and Sun for special gifts.

The ritual of fire, is celebrated throughout the world in fire dances by natives of South America, Africa, and even Hawaii, to this day. And, of course, it had its most profound influence in the exorcisms performed by our modern great churches in the lighted candles at the altar, and the invocations given by religious leaders of every faith, to ward off the forces of Satan and to enthrone the power of God.

Some Miracles Reported by Those Using This Exorcism

A woman who had a son, who had been an epileptic since birth, began using this ritual to the Moon, to exorcise the illness that threatened her son with problems all his life. The doctors told her that his nervous system was impaired and that his chances of recovery were slim. When the child was six, she began using the exorcisms to the moon, to grant her son perfect health. She reported that he had fewer seizures the first three months after using the ritual, and now, two years later, she reports that the seizures seem to have stopped!

A woman of 40, who had repeatedly tried to have a child, seemed to be completely barren. Tests revealed that she would probably never have a child. She began using the fertility ritual of exorcism to the moon, and she reported that she became pregnant during the full moon, and nine months later bore a perfect male child!

A man wanted the sum of $25,000 to start a new business but had been turned down by every lending agency, including his bank. He used the ritual of exorcism to the moon, especially emphasizing the fact that he wanted to be guided by his higher psychic centers to a solution to this problem. Within one month he suddenly got an idea to look in the newspapers under Business Opportunities. On that very day a retired engineer had placed an ad offering money for some business where he could be an equal partner. The sum he had to invest was exactly $25,000! They opened their new business and had tremendous success.

A widow of 60, not wanting to live alone the rest of her life, used the moon ritual to ask for a companion and mate. She was guided to a party for senior citizens and there danced with a retired doctor, who found her so charming, he dated her again. This couple were married within three months and went to Hawaii on their honeymoon!

The moon ritual of exorcism has great powers, but the Ritual to the Sun is even more powerful for various purposes.

The ancient Egyptians did not worship the sun, as many believed. They worshiped the power back of the sun, and they named this power the Sun God, Osiris, after one of their great kings. The entire flame ritual, given elsewhere in this book was based on this form of exorcism. However, you can use the Ritual to the Sun for various other purposes, other than achieving something you desire.

HOW TO INVOKE THE EXORCISM TO THE SUN

Everywhere in Egypt we see this sacred symbol of the flaming sun. It was used especially in the tombs of the kings who were buried in their elaborately decorated, gold-and-jewel encrusted sarcophagi. Even today, in modern Egypt, every person has at his grave a carving or picture of the sun, as it is a symbol of life, creativity, power, and growth.

To the Sun God Osiris were ascribed the virtues of masculinity, as the moon goddess was given the virtues of femininity.

When you use the exorcism to the sun you can ask for the following virtues or qualities:

1. Physical strength, energy and long life.
2. Creativity and powers of imagination.
3. Courage and tenacity to meet problems of life.
4. Growth and evolvment in business, money investments, and security.
5. Sexual prowess and fulfillment in love.
6. Spiritual growth and evolvment of the soul.

Exorcism to the Sun God Osiris

Choose a quiet place and have the four candles lit, using incense or sweet fragrance at your shrine. You can sit before your shrine, and intone the exorcism ritual to the sun aloud, or softly under your breath. This ritual should be used whenever you feel you need extra strength for any purpose, or any of the special virtues or qualities listed above. It is a miracle-working power that has been known to heal the physical body, as well as to give unusual powers to the mind.

1. Exorcism to be used for physical strength, health and long life, using the invocation to the Sun.

O golden orb of majesty and might, symbol of the greater Sun beyond this earth's domain, grant to my mind and body exceptional powers for health, strength, and long life. Release thy fiery rays within my body, granting me power, energy, and long life to fulfill my destiny. Dissolve the forces of weakness, debility, sickness, pain, and suffering in the gentle healing rays of thy light. I am now healed; I am now perfect; I am now young.

A woman who had constant pains and aches from some unknown cause, was diagnosed by her doctor as being psychosomatic; that is, her pains were caused by some form of mental or emotional conflict. Her pains, however, were real to her and nothing could stop them. She tried using the healing rays of the sun ritual, and reported that after the very first session of meditation, she was miraculously healed! She had invoked the higher centers of consciousness through the exorcism ritual to the sun and it soothed the nerves or whatever else was afflicting her.

2. Use this ritual of exorcism to the Sun God to release creativity and powers of your imagination:

As the sun gives light and life to earth dwellers, so, too, I now invoke the power of the spiritual sun to stir the creative centers of my mind into action. I desire gifts and talents to create things of value, and I now confidently go about my daily tasks, knowing I shall receive high inspiration from the golden sun.

3. Use this ritual of exorcism to give you courage and to help you overcome the problems you encounter in life.

O golden sun, let thy courage and strength and wisdom now flow through my mind and body, infusing me with strength and power to overcome all life's afflictions. With thy potent fiery rays dissolve all negative forces and remove from my path of progress all obstacles and hinderances. I am in the light!

A man who was having difficulties with the Internal Revenue Service over back taxes, was worried and fearful. He felt that he was being unjustly taxed, and for months all his efforts to resolve the problem seemed in vain. He intoned the above ritual of exorcism for removing problems and within two weeks he received word from the tax department that they were settling the matter on his terms! He later used it to dissolve a business problem, where someone owed him money, and he received a check within one week.

4. Use the following exorcism to the Sun God whenever you want growth and evolvment in business or financial affairs.

I now supplicate the divine Sun of Life to grant me prosperity and growth in all my business and financial affairs. As the seed matures in the spring from the sacred flame of the sun, so too my own seedlings of reality now grow and produce the crop of abundance and riches that blesses my life with perpetual prosperity.

A young man of 26, who had been trying to get into a suitable job for weeks after he had finished his college education, began using exorcism to the sun to obtain suitable employment. He had specialized in business administration in his education. Two weeks after using the flame ritual he was offered a very fine position in a large stock brokerage firm!

I know of many instances where people have used the flame ritual, as well as the above exorcism to the sun, and they have had large sums of money come to them, or business opportunities that were little short of miracles.

5. Use the sun ritual and exorcism if you are having romantic problems; it can be invoked to give sexual prowess to those who suffer from impotence and lack of vigor.

O Golden Sun, giver of life, energy, and virility, bless me now with powers of love fulfillment and emotional richness. My body and mind are chalices for the reception of God's creative energy to sustain life and to give life. I am now a channel for romantic impulses and yearnings which bring me fulfillment.

6. You can also use the sacred sun exorcism to bring you spiritual growth and evolvment of the soul. Use the following invocation to the sun:

Imprint upon my own immortal soul thy signature of immortality and perfection, O Golden Sun! As my soul is clothed in the raiment of thine infinite beauty and majesty, let it now be freed of the gross earth burdens that hold it prisoner to the flesh. I worship the spiritual light beyond the sun, and am now heaven-bound into realms of immortality and eternity where my soul shall know fulfillment of its dream.

POINTS TO REMEMBER IN CHAPTER 14

1. The ancient Egyptians used the art of exorcism ten thousand years ago, and it may still be used in our modern world to reform your life into a glittering tapestry of dreams.

2. How the ancient curse on the tomb of young King Tut'an'kamon worked in recent times and took the lives of ten of the workmen who had entered the tomb.

3. The modern explanation of why exorcisms work to perform seeming miracles and how people in Egypt, China, Tibet, and India used this mystical power to cast spells, heal people, and rid the mind of demons.

4. How evil thought forms and entities possess men's minds and how they can be driven out through exorcism.

5. Proofs that the Kennedy family has been under an evil spell of black magic which caused tragedy.

6. My pilgrimage to Egypt with 70 advanced students, and our amazing discoveries and rituals that were used at the foot of the Pyramids and floating down the sacred Nile by moonlight.

7. The six different aspects of the ritual of exorcism to the Moon Goddess, can bring you many different gifts and spiritual blessings.

8. The exorcism ritual I brought back from Egypt, and which found its way to the library of Mt. Athos, and also to all parts of the world.

9. How a woman used this ritual of exorcism to rid her son of epileptic seizures that nothing else would cure.

10. A man used the ritual for attracting money and he received $25,000 to go into his own business.

11. The ritual of exorcism to the Sun God Osiris, and how it can be invoked to heal the body, give one powers of creativity, courage, growth and evolvment and sexual prowess.

12. A woman who had aches and pains used this ritual and was healed within a short time.

13. How you can use this exorcism to the Sun God, to bring you freedom from worries and problems.

14. A man was having tax difficulties, that seemingly would never end. Within two weeks from the time he intoned the chants of exorcism, the Internal Revenue Service settled his case the way he wanted.

15. The ritual of exorcism was used by a young man of 26 to obtain employment with a big brokerage firm, after he had not been able to obtain employment for months.

16. Most importantly, the ritual to the sun can be used by you to bring you spiritual growth and soul evolvment, so you find your true pathway to immortality and the soul's serenity.

White Magic Rituals for Exorcising Dominating People Into Angelic Beings

Many people's lives have been made miserable through the domination of some person or persons, who simply could not be controlled.

Can the ancient ritual of exorcism be used in such instances to change the dominating person into a more angelic and pleasant one?

Yes, it is possible to use white magic rituals to bring such persons under complete control of a higher, spiritual power and bend their will to the forces of good.

Just as black magic forces can be projected by evil people to bring bad luck and to curse another person's life, so too, you can use the opposite polarity of white magic to cause a person to react in a normal, loving, kindly manner.

An Instance of Destructive Domination by a Mother

Mother love can sometimes become smother love, as in the case of Betty L., one of my lecture members in New York. Betty was in her early forties when she sought me out for a private consultation on a very serious problem. She told me in our first interview that she had never married and I expressed surprise, for she was a very attractive woman, with dark brown hair, blue eyes, and regular features. She had a very pleasant expression on her face, except for little lines of tension which I could see about her mouth. Then she told me her sad tale.

Her father had died early in her life and she was an only child. Her mother was a very firm, dominating person, who never let her go out on dates, as normal girls did. She programmed Betty with negative thoughts that men were evil, that they would destroy her life, and that she must stay with her mother.

At first, Betty told me, she did not mind, for she graduated from high school, took a good business course, and soon had a job working in a lawyer's office where she made good money. "I had many opportunities to date," she told me, "but always in the back of my mind was the warning my mother had given me. I found myself turning down several men who seemed interested in me. Finally the years were passing, and I realized that my mother had doomed me to a live a lonely, loveless life."

Betty had heard me give a lecture called, "Wake up and Live a Great New Life," in which I told how we must break the spell of inertia that often ties us to lives of frustration, boredom, and inaction. It was then that she sought out my advice.

I gave Betty a white magic ritual of exorcism to use in which she was to break the dominating power of her mother's mind over her life. "Nothing bad will happen to your mother," I explained, "but she will be freed of her dominating demons and will cut the silver chord that is holding you a prisoner."

The white magic ritual worked miracles for Betty! Within four weeks she was going out evenings to parties and dances and meeting interesting people. But the biggest miracle occurred to her mother—for in freeing herself, Betty also freed her mother, who joined a retired-senior-citizen's club where she was having the time of her life.

A little later in this chapter I shall give you the ritual of exorcism that Betty used, and which you can use to free yourself from the forces of domination and frustration that might be limiting your life experience.

There are four types of people who use domination as a tool to accomplish some specific purpose:

1. A friend, acquaintance, or co-worker, or even a relative, who is a bulldozing, dominating person and thinks he must have his own way all the time, at the expense or the discomfort of others.
2. A person who genuinely loves you, such as a father or mother or some other relative, who thinks he knows what is best for you and insists you follow his suggestions and submit to his complete domination. Betty's mother was in this category.
3. A relative who has ulterior motives in wanting to dominate and control your every move, for selfish reasons. This can be an in-law, a husband or wife, or even a so-called friend.
4. A husband or wife who wants to dominate the mate because he or she believes the other person is really stupid and needs the guidance of a superior mentality. Men are often as guilty of this type of domination, as are some wives.

How A Boss Made Life Miserable for Everyone

It is difficult enough to tolerate a person who is close to us, as a relative, who is dominating and tyrannical, but when we are forced to work with someone who is the boss, and he exercises this quality, it becomes miserable. A case of this type came to my attention recently, where a man had been employed by the same firm for ten years, and liked his work, but hated his boss. The man was beginning to show evidences of ulcers and nervous exhaustion and it was due solely to the fact that the tyrant in the office constantly harassed his employees and tried to dominate them, not only at work, but in their personal lives as well.

This particular boss suffered from a Napoleonic complex. He was a very short man, and baldheaded, which might have given him a complex.

When the employee came to me and told me the situation, I knew that we would have to use a strong form of exorcism to rid this boss of his Napoleonic complex and make him into a decent human being once again. We used the exorcism ritual which I shall give at the end of this chapter and it worked like white magic, which it was!

STEPS TO TAKE FOR USING WHITE MAGIC TO RID YOURSELF OF
DOMINATING PERSONS IN YOUR LIFE

1. Realize that mental superiority does not lie in force, aggressiveness or domination. The philosophy of the Far East shows us the value of holding the tongue and temper, of turning away wrath with a soft answer, and of the strength that lies in gentility and kindness. As Lao-tze said, "A falling drop, the softest of all substances, will at length carve the hardest rock." Gandhi of India met the might of the British Empire with this philosophy of non-resistance, non-violence, and non-action, except of a spiritual nature.

2. When people reveal forces of domination and try to invade your mental privacy, they are using black magic forces. A Hitler wanted to dominate the world; an assassin of a President wants to bring low a person who is important; always the forces of evil are trying to subjugate the forces of good or God. You must make up your mind that you will use white magic to overcome such evil forces and not succumb to anger, hatred, violence, or black magic forces to achieve your freedom of such dominating forces.

3. When you detect traces of domination in such a person, whether it is your employer, a friend, your mate, or a close relative, mentally declare your freedom from him and refuse to yield to his threats, demands, or importunities.

4. Whenever you see the dominating person, keep repeating to yourself a ritual of protection. "I will not tolerate the intrusion of negative or dominating thought entities into my mind, from any source. I build a wall of mental resistance to these black magic forces and I become strong and resist all such forces."

A student in my classes owned a beauty salon with another woman. This woman was a dominating type, who had to have her own way in everything. She bulldozed the customers, and tried to subjugate this student to her dominating mind. My student, however, knew spiritual laws and resisted her. Finally in desperation she sought me out and I had to help her with a strong ritual of exorcism. But for everyday uses, I gave her the above statement of protection, which kept her mind intact. She soon became so strong that the other woman stopped trying to force her to obey her dominating will.

5. Build your mental strength with prayer and meditation, so each day you can repair the damage done to your mind and your emotions. Send out a call for help and guidance and sit quietly for half an hour a day, asking your higher spiritual forces to build a shield about you, which becomes a protective spiritual aura that deflects harmful black magic thought entities and danger.

A woman was married to a very dominating husband; not only did he demand she do everything the way he wanted it, but he dominated her social life, the clothes she wore, the way she ran the house. Finally she recognized that her husband was suffering from some kind of egomania that made him the way he was and she asked me for a ritual of exorcism to break his evil hold on her mind. I gave her the following ritual of exorcism to use, and within two months time it began to work to such an extent that her husband began to let up on his demands and gradually he became quite a sweet, loving man.

6. Use the following ritual of exorcism to break the hold of any dominating person on you and change him into an agreeable and even angelic being:

Sit before your shrine, as you have learned elsewhere in this book, and write down the name of the person who is to be exorcised: After the name write these words:

I now invoke the sacred ritual of the flame to heal this person of the negative thought forces of domination, possessiveness, jealousy, and stubbornness. I wish only good for this person.

Have a white candle lit and after you have written the name and the above statement on the paper, ignite the paper in the flame. As it burns, drop it into a small metal dish and intone the following white magic ritual aloud or to yourself:

Into the purifying flame,
I place this troublesome person's name;
Isis, Osiris, grant me my wish;
As paper turns to ashes in this dish.

Work thy magic, O flame so pure!
 Free me from what I cannot endure.
 Upward, ascend to heights above;
 Releasing this person to God's sweet love.
 Free the hold upon my mind;
 Make this person gentle, kind;
 For mutual good, let this pact bind.

After you have done this white magic ritual of exorcism, take the ashes into your hand and crumple them up, then blow them away, with this command:

Burned out ashes, seek thy kind!
 Free my body, free my mind;
 Break the evil spell today;
 Send me on my carefree way.
 I release thee to thy fate;
 Serenely for my good I wait.

The main power back of this type of white magic ritual is what it does to your own psycho-neuro centers. It helps program you with the power to resist mentally the intrusions of dominating thought forms on your own mind. Also, when you are constantly programmed with white magic forces they attach themselves to your aura and are a kind of red flag warning to other people not to encroach upon your privacy or will.

This building of your aura with white magic powers can also be applied to other departments of your life. It can be implemented for purposes of removing problems; freeing you from debts and financial burdens; giving you the will to life and health so strongly that you are able to overcome health disturbances easily—all these benefits and even more, are promised you when you exorcise the dominating forces of other mind's.

REVIEW OF POINTS IN CHAPTER 15

1. How to use the forces of white magic to exorcise people who try to dominate your life with their thoughts and actions.
2. A mother used black magic to hold her daughter enslaved to her every whim, causing the girl to remain unmarried, and miserable until she had reached her forties, when she rebelled and broke this spell with white magic.

3. The four types of domination used as tools by others to hold people in bondage, and how to discover if any of these four black magic forces are at work in your own life.

4. A man with a Napoleonic complex made everyone in his office miserable and harassed the workers with his domination. An employee used white magic forces to change this tyrant.

5. How to use white magic of non-resistance, non-violence, and gentility to break the evil spell of force and aggression.

6. How the forces of evil are always trying to dominate and overpower the forces of good, and how you can avoid these evil thought forms.

7. The ritual of protection against the encroachment of persons who might be trying to harm you or get you under their control for evil purposes.

8. How a woman working with her partner in a beauty salon was under the other woman's complete domination, until she used the ritual of white magic exorcism to break her hold on her mind.

9. A woman was dominated by her husband who demanded she do everything the way he wanted, stifling her own free spirit. The woman used white magic exorcisms to break this hold on her.

10. The exorcism ritual to use for releasing yourself from the black magic forces of domination, evil, and force, and being forever free of these negative powers.

How to Use Exorcism to Cast Spells of Enchantment and Make People Love You

Every human being has an innate desire to love and to be loved. Man was created in the magic circle of divine love and within his immortal soul there is this urge to be friendly, loving, kind, and accepted by others.

When the forces of black magic work their evil over men's hearts and minds, we find this love urge corrupted, and sometimes completely eradicated in the human soul. Then people degenerate into monsters of evil and destruction.

I remember once reading a book written by a famous warden of a state penitentiary in which he said that even the most calloused and hardened criminal had a spark of sentiment and love within his heart. If one could find the key to that emotion, the person could be reached. Then he told of a man serving a life term in prison for murder. Word came that this prisoner's mother was dying. The warden told this prisoner he would let him go to his mother's funeral if he promised to return voluntarily after the services. The prisoner, with tears of gratitude in his eyes, promised. True to his word, he came back to the prison when the funeral was over and told the warden how his mother had opened her dying eyes and looked up once again at her son, then died peacefully.

BLACK MAGIC DESTROYS; WHITE MAGIC CREATES

If the forces of black magic can create such havoc in our lives, bringing personal disasters, wars, hate, and privation, then the opposite polarity of white magic must be as creative in its way to build peace, joy, love, and fulfillment. These two forces represent the two polarities of power; the God power, that created humanity in love, and in His image and likeness; and the devil power, which is trying to destroy that spiritual image and corrupt the forces of good or God.

Psychologists claim that one of the greatest afflictions of our modern world is the loneliness that people feel in the modern pressure of overcrowding, suspicion, violence, and restlessness that has swept over the world in recent years.

A rash of suicides has broken out among our young people between the ages of 18 and 25. More than sixty thousand last year died of suicide and it is expected that the figure will keep growing, unless we can find some way to stop this tragic trend.

“I am lonely! No one loves me! I want to die!”

A mother recently brought her 20-year-old daughter to me for a consultation. The girl had recently tried to kill herself with sleeping pills. She was taken to the hospital and saved, but the mother showed me a note she had found, which she had not given to the police. It said, “I am lonely! No one loves me! I want to die!”

The girl was not beautiful but she had a pleasant face, beautiful brown eyes, and a fair skin, and good figure. Surely this was not the type of person who would want to destroy herself! And yet, here was the evidence that some black magic force had entered her mind and given her the diabolical thought of killing herself and causing grief and tragedy to her family, as well as to herself.

In talking to this girl alone, she told me her mother had never given her real love and attention. She was so under the spell of her husband that he was the center of her adoration, leaving this girl to live in her dreams and imagination, feeling that she was outside of the circle of her parent's love.

It took a good deal of counseling of both this girl and her parents, to exorcise the demons of frustration, loneliness, and despair that had festered in this young girl's mind for years.

I gave her a powerful exorcism treatment that set her mind free of the obsessing entities that made her want to kill herself, and then I told her she must stop depending on her mother and father for love fulfillment. She was a mature person, I told her, who must now use her spells of enchantment to make other people love her, and eventually, to attract her own true soul mate who would bring her completion in love and marriage.

THE CAUSES OF LONELINESS AND DEPRESSION

When the black magic, negative forces of loneliness and depression fasten their octopus-like tentacles on a human mind, it is usually due to one of the following causes:

1. A person is selfish and does not want to share his experiences with others, therefore he excludes others from his own, little, magic circle.
2. Sometimes a person is one-sided in his affections; he wants others to love him but he does not want to give love. This type of love usually repels people.
3. Sometimes an obsessive love of a mother or father causes a person to become emotionally warped, making it difficult if not impossible to love another person.
4. Often a person is possessive, jealous, and unreasonable in his demands of the loved one, causing a breach in the love relationship that leads to separation.
5. Many times a person experiences the wrong kind of love, believing it to be based entirely on physical sex and emotion, excluding mental and spiritual forms of love. Many men are guilty of this fault and repel the woman they love with their excessive physical animalism.

Whatever is the cause of loneliness and frustration in your relationships with other people, you can use the art of exorcism to break the negative spell and free you forever from the misery that comes from misapplied emotions.

Use this exorcism to break the black magic forces that bring you loneliness and unhappiness in love or friendship.

Write down on a piece of paper the following negative forces you want to exorcise:

1. Selfishness.
2. Possessiveness.
3. Jealousy.
4. Criticism.
5. Nagging.
6. Pessimism.
7. Hate.
8. Excessive worry.
9. Fear.
10. Impatience.
11. Bad temper.

When you have completed this list, you will light the paper at the flame of a white candle, and let it burn in a metal dish. As you watch it burn, intone the following ritual aloud or to yourself:

I now consign to the purifying flame these black magic forces that cloud my vision and deprive me of love and friendship. I free myself of the negative forces that stand in my way of achieving lasting relationships with others. I rid my aura of selfishness and possessiveness. I purify my heart of rancour and bitterness, criticism and hate; I fill my mind with pure thoughts of peace and love. I long to find the soul mate whom God intended for me, and I now exorcise all these negative elements that stand in my way.

After you have burned these negative thought entities in the purifying flame and intoned the above exorcism, write down on another piece of paper these white magic qualities that you wish to enthrone in your consciousness, and which will make your aura like a magnet, attracting people who vibrate to the same spiritual wavelength as yourself.

1. Selflessness.
2. Freedom of thought and action.
3. Trust of the beloved.

4. Praise.
5. Encouragement.
6. Optimism.
7. Love.
8. Confidence.
9. Faith.
10. Tolerance.
11. Control.

Now burn this piece of paper, intoning the following white magic ritual:

O sacred flame, release the magic power that can imprint forever these wholesome thoughts and emotions on my consciousness, banishing the negative forces. Strengthen my will and my perceptions, causing me to overcome these dark forces and to supplant the negative thought forms with these positive ones. I am in the light of friendship and I attract friends. I am in the light of love, and I attract true love. I am in the light of peace, and I am peaceful and serene, loving, and kind. I attract my own unto me.

I once counseled a young woman who seemed to be outside the magic circle of love and friendship. She told me she had always been shy and withdrawn, having no playmates even as a child. She grew up believing that this was natural, and when she went to school and saw the wonderful relationships others had, she envied them and wished she could know the fulfillment in love and friendship which others seemed to find so easily.

This girl was very sensitive and it was not difficult to imprint her mind with this flame ritual for removing the negatives in her consciousness. I then used the above ritual to implant in her subconscious mind all the qualities that would make her more extroverted and likable. It took her only about two weeks to change her personality completely, and when she next reported to me, I knew that she had won a victory over the negative thought entities that had blocked her happiness.

REGIMEN TO CAST A SPELL OF ENCHANTMENT AND MAKE PEOPLE LIKE YOU

1. When you have used the exorcism ritual to rid yourself of the negative forces, you are ready to begin building your spell of enchantment. Sit before a mirror and look at yourself. Think that the mirror image is someone you have met that you like and that you want to like you. Visualize that from between your eyes you are projecting a golden line; now mentally attach it to your mirror image. When it is attached, mentally reach out and pull that line towards you, feeling you are pulling the mirror image towards yourself.

2. As you project and pull this golden line, visualize now that the mirror image is some person you want to attract and magnetize to love you or like you. Now say the person's name as you intone the following exorcism:

—, You will be attracted to me. I now magnetize my mind and my aura with the emotion of love. I want your friendship. I want your love and you will respond the next time we meet; you will want to be with me. This relationship is for our mutual good. I feel deep emotion for you. I want only your good, what is best for you. Give me a sign when we next meet that you like me.

How a Young Man Used This Spell of Enchantment

A young man who seemed to be unlucky in love, wanted desperately to make a young woman who worked where he did notice him. She had shown absolutely no interest in him, and seemed cold and unfriendly. He felt so rebuffed that he never tried to become better acquainted with her.

At one of my lectures he heard me tell of the magic circle principle, where we can reach out and surround a person with a magnetic aura of love and cast a spell over her heart and mind.

This young man came to me for help in this problem. I told him to use the above ritual each night, just before retiring, to hold the girl's face in mind, and to mentally project the golden chord of love to her forehead, pulling her towards him, and visualizing that she was in his arms, accepting his kisses and affection.

I told him that every time he saw this young lady in the office he was to repeat this invocation of love and project the golden line to her in his imagination. He did this several times daily, and gradually he found that her coldness began to melt; she smiled at him as though she liked him. Then one day she asked him for some slight favor, which he granted. The next three days were like magic. She seemed to be under some kind of spell; she found occasion to speak to him often, and one day she asked him if she could go to lunch with him! He knew in that moment that the spell of enchantment was working! This young man was soon dating this girl steadily, and he told me that he soon plans to ask her to be his wife, and he is confident she will not be able to resist the spell of exorcism that he wove with his pure love and unselfishness.

3. You can also use this spell of exorcism to gain favors from friends, to meet important people, and to influence others to buy your services or gifts, or give you money. To use this white magic ritual in this way, do the following:

To gain favors from friends: Sit in the stillness and practice projecting the golden line to the space between the eyes of the person or persons you wish to gain favors from. Try to vibrate this golden line by feeling a sense of excitement or emotion, which will cause the atoms of your brain to become charged with a mystical property known as magnetism. Now shoot this out in your mental exercise to the mind of the person you wish to influence or gain a favor from with this invocation:

You will be aware of my power to influence you now. I desire a favor that you can grant me. I wish to receive from you special favors of friendship. (Here state what it is you want the other person to do for you: be sure it is only something positive and mutually beneficial, for if you project black magic forces of evil to the other person, it will return to you and harm you.) You will telephone or write me, telling me that you will help me. I shall reciprocate by doing only something good for you.

4. Do this exorcism every morning when you awaken, and every night just before going to bed. Then during the day, as often as you can bring the person's face up in your imagination and visualize him or her saying, "Yes, I shall grant you the favor you want. I shall be happy to help you." Then spend a few moments in living through the emotion of satisfaction and completion which the desired action calls forth.

A Young Lady Used This Exorcism to Win a Rich Man

I gave a lecture once in Hawaii, at the Ala Moano center, in which I dwelt on the power of the human soul to project thought forms to the minds of others, and how to use this form of exorcism. After the lecture, a beautiful young lady sought me out and asked me for further details. She wanted me to write down the exorcism statement, as she had someone on whom she wished to use it.

Then she explained to me that her boss, a young bachelor of 35, had a beautiful yacht, which he kept anchored at the exclusive yacht club in the harbor. She told me, "Every weekend my boss invites a small group of people to spend the two days on his yacht. I can't believe this magic will work, but I'd sure like to have an invitation to be with him on that yacht for two days. One never knows—." Her voice trailed off, but I could tell by the romantic gleam in her mischievous brown eyes that she was already hearing wedding bells!

After writing down the ritual and telling her to say it as often as she could each day, she left, and I heard no more from her until the following Friday afternoon. My phone at the hotel rang and I knew by the excited voice on the other end that the magic spell had worked for this girl! She said, "It happened on Thursday, just yesterday morning. I had given up hope all week when nothing happened, but on Thursday, about 11 in the morning, George came into my department where he seldom ever had occasion to come. I instantly started sending out the golden line and projecting the ritual. Before I had finished it he was standing beside me and like a man in a trance, I heard him saying, "Are you free over this weekend?"

Then, just as I had been imagining it, he asked me to go on the weekend yachting party! I gulped out my answer, and he told me the time and place, and tomorrow is my big day!"

Of course I wasn't surprised to hear this story, for I've seen this magic spell work many times for different people. I promptly forgot this incident, but recently when I returned to Hawaii to do another series of lectures, I appeared on television, and was interviewed. I had hardly been off the air one minute when I was called to the phone. The woman's voice sounded vaguely familiar, although it had been three years since I had heard it, and it still had the sense of excitement it had held before. "This is Mrs. R." she said, "Do you remember when you gave me the ritual for going on the yachting trip?" Then she went on and told me the miraculous fulfillment of a dream she had after that weekend trip. The young man had invited her again and again, on the weekend parties. He had seemed to be mesmerized by some emotion which she could not explain, and it finally led to his proposing to her. Now she was happily married to him, they had a one-year-old son, and she was one of the leading young matrons of her social set!

5. Exorcism ritual to use if you are trying to get a raise at your place of business.

Use this ritual of exorcism every night and every morning; also repeat it at noon, when you are having your lunch. You can intone the white magic words to yourself and no one need know what you are doing.

Mentally project the golden line to your boss' forehead, fastening it between his eyes. Then gently pull on the golden line, saying these words to yourself with confidence:

You will give me the raise in salary that I deserve. I shall give my best services to the company but I need more money to meet the rising costs of living. You will call me into the office and tell me I have the raise.

This exorcism has worked for many people who have used it. One girl got a $10-a-week raise, which was what she had asked for. A man used it and got an $1800-a-year raise in salary. Still another man used it to get himself transferred to California from the home office in New York, and he was made a branch manager, as he had requested of the white magic forces.

6. In projecting your ritual of exorcism to the other person's mind you can ask to be transferred, to be raised in salary, to be made manager or whatever you wish. The magic begins to work immediately, so state clearly what it is you want the higher spiritual forces to grant you.

REVIEW OF POINTS IN CHAPTER 16

1. You were created to love and to be loved, and you can build the magic circle of love and friendship stronger by using the ritual of exorcism and white magic.

2. Loneliness is one of the modern world's greatest afflictions; you can overcome this scourge by using white magic and projecting the golden line of friendship and love.

3. How a girl tried to commit suicide because she felt unwanted and unloved, and then, through this ritual she was able to exorcise the demons of frustration and loneliness and go on to a happier life.

4. The five major causes of loneliness and depression and how you can immediately set your mind free of these evil forces and institute a regimen of positive action through white magic invocations.

5. The 11 obsessing forces that bring unhappiness and loneliness, and stand in the way of attracting love and friendship.

6. The 11 white magic powers that you can program into your subconscious mind, giving you attractiveness and making people want to be with you.

7. How to use the ritual of the sacred flame to rid yourself of the obsessing thought entities that make you unloved.

8. How a young woman I counseled felt left out of the magic circle of social groups, because she was sensitive and programmed to anti-social actions. She used this flame ritual to gain a completely new social life.

9. How to use the mirror image exorcism to project your golden line of magnetism to the minds of those you want to win and influence to like you.

10. A young man who wanted to get the attention of an indifferent young lady used this special exorcism of enchantment and was able to win her affections.

11. How to use this exorcism to gain favors from friends, meet important people, and influence others to give you money.

12. A girl in Hawaii used white magic to reach out and touch the heart of a man she wanted to be with. He proposed marriage to her and they are now happily married.

13. How to use this ritual to get a raise in your work, to win a transfer or some other special favors.

14. Three instances of people who used this exorcism to win raises, from $10-a-week to $1800-a-year, and to be transferred from the New York office to California.

How to Find Your Shangri-La of Eternal Joy Through the Higher Laws of Exorcism

There is a mystical realm of Shangri-La that lies within your own immortal soul. Here it is that you can find eternal joy, peace, love and cosmic fulfillment. Your soul quests throughout eternity for this golden land of sunshine and beauty, where you never grow old and where love lasts forever.

In this chapter we shall learn how you can use the higher laws of exorcism to banish the dark forces that keep you from finding this mystical land of Shangri-La.

When you use the higher forms of exorcism to rid yourself of the earth hindrances that shut you out of the beauty and splendor of Shangri-La, you can rise into the spiritual stratosphere of power and glory that is reserved for those souls who have cosmic consciousness.

The word Shangri-La was coined by James Hilton in his book, Lost Horizon. He told of a mystical land beyond the ranges of the Himalayas where strangers from the outer world found a race of men who were peaceful, loving, and kind, and who lived in a state of youthful romance forever. Only when the strangers brought with them their selfishness, greed, lust, and hate, did the peace of Shangri-La degenerate into outer-world confusion, pain, and suffering.

MAN IS ON A MYSTICAL QUEST THROUGH TIME AND SPACE

Man has embarked on a mystical quest through time and space, in which his soul searches for the fulfillment of God's dream for him. This dream is compounded of peace and beauty, love and joy, good and charity. It is the dream that every human heart and soul has mirrored within its depths. However, when the dark forces enter into this serene and peaceful scene, all these positive elements are banished, and there is pain and sickness, chaos and confusion, war and hate, poverty and lack.

To overcome these black magic forces that bar you from your own personal Shangri-La, you can use a ritual of white magic and exorcise these negative elements from your life forever. Then you will be guided into this mystical land of golden dreams.

1. From the Song Celestial of Tibet we learn of one of these higher laws of exorcism that can bring us peace and contentment. It is called Celestial Immersion in the Light.

To achieve this state of tranquility and peace, you do a mystical chant which exorcises the forces of discontent, evil, and greed, which are considered earth hindrances, keeping us from blending with the light of God's eternal presence.

Sit before your shrine, with two lighted candles; they can be rose-colored or white, whichever you prefer. After you are comfortable, take a deep breath through the nostrils, and hold it to a count of four, then exhale it on this sacred mantra, as you chant:

Ohm mane padme ohm.

Ohm mane padme ohm.

Ohm mane padme ohm.

I am now in the light of infinite truth. I banish the shadows of darkness and error that deceive my senses. I create the reality of my own Shangri-La, where there are no dark shadows of war, hate, greed, or lust. I now become immersed in the celestial light of infinite beauty and my life radiates beauty, banishing all ugliness. I am immersed in the light of infinite joy and my life becomes a song of joy and radiance, banishing all misery. I am in the celestial light of infinite good and my life reflects all good, and banishes the dark forces of evil. I am immersed in the celestial light of infinite love, and love banishes the dark forces of hate and war. I am immersed in the celestial light of infinite peace, banishing all discord, friction and inharmony in my life.

2. The second mystical law of exorcism is known as the Celestial Ascension to the spiritual mountain top. This invocation is to be used to banish the earth hindrances that keep you tied to the world of the physical and material and keep you from ascending to the mystical heights of true soul attainment.

Say the Ohm mane padme ohm ritual three times, and then visualize a mountain in the distance that you are going to climb mentally.

The first realm is the earthbound one of work, money, sickness, age, war, enmity, problems, and burdens. Here it is that most of humanity becomes mired down by the black magic forces that keep him from achieving his true goal of finding Shangri-La.

To rise above the earthbound self, where these forces of evil exist, say the following invocation:

I now achieve celestial ascension to the spiritual mountain top, where I can see my Shangri-La of eternal peace, joy, and love. I banish the earthbound forces that tie me to a world of recurring wars, problems, and misfortunes and I rise in consciousness to the realm of mind, of intellect, of divine intuition, where I overcome the afflictions of the earth self. I free my soul from the gravity pull of animalism, lust, greed and, hate and enter into the celestial realm where I find God's perfect dream of peace, love, hope, and beauty.

3. Now you are ready for the third great law of spiritual exorcism to bring you cosmic consciousness and spiritual illumination, freeing you forever from the black magic forces of earth.

This is known in the Song Celestial meditations as Rhapsodic Romancing, and it helps give you the spiritual overtones that put you in tune with the music of the spheres. Only when you are so attuned does your life take on new meaning and purpose. Then you are able to free yourself from the obsessing discords that haunt millions of minds causing them sickness, pain, misfortune, and tragedy.

Say the Ohm mane padme ohm three times, then breathe deeply and hold the breath to the count of four, then release the breath and relax. Do this five times and then you are ready for the cosmic attunement to the highest mystical vibrations in the ancient philosophy of Tibet for releasing you from the earth-obsessing entities.

I was once visiting one of the world's greatest violinists backstage at Carnegie Hall, where I lectured for many years. It was just before his concert and I was astounded to find that he was practicing up and down the scale on his million-dollar Stradivarius. Suddenly the most hideous sounds came out of his precious fiddle and when I remarked that something dreadful must have happened to his violin, he laughed and showed me what he had done. He had loosened the pegs throwing the violin completely out of tune. When he pulled his bow across the strings it gave out harsh, screeching sounds instead of the mellifluous music it had given out previously.

He explained, "You will see that when an instrument is out of tune, even though it is a Stradivarius, it gives out harsh discords, not sweet music." Then he tuned the instrument again and once more the mellowed wood responded to the beautiful overtones that made his music legendary.

So too, when you are trying to make sweet music in life, you must be attuned to the higher octaves of the Shangri-La consciousness and remove the harsh discords of fear, worry, hate, revenge, and greed. The instrument of the mind, body, and soul can bring you peace and contentment only when you are attuned to the cosmic music of the spheres.

For this ritual of exorcism I have worked out an anagram, giving the letters of Shangri-La. You will find in the left column below, the earthbound, discordant elements that keep you from ever finding your Shangri-La of peace and joy. In the right hand column, you will find the positive, white magic forces you can invoke to put you into your Shangri-La forever.

Black Magic Negative Forces

S for SELFISHNESS
H for HATRED
A for ANGER
N for NEGATIVITY
G for GREED
R for REVENGE
I for IGNORANCE
L for LUST
A for ANIMALISM

Change to Change to Change to Change to Change to Change to Change to Change to Change to

White Magic Positive Forces

S for SELFLESSNESS
H for HOPE
A for ASPIRATION
N for NOBILITY
G for GOOD
R for RIGHTEOUSNESS
I for INTELLIGENCE
L for LOVE
A for ALTRUISM

4. To rid yourself forever of the black magic obsessing thought forms in the left hand column, you can use this powerful ritual of exorcism. Do it several times a day, until you feel completely cleansed of all these discordant elements that keep you from the Shangri-La consciousness.

Write down this pledge to your higher mind:

I now pledge myself that I shall remove the black magic negative forces that keep me from finding my true Shangri-La of peace, joy, and contentment.

Then write down the nine negative forces you want to exorcise from your consciousness. Then sign the piece of paper. Now consign it to the sacred flame, as you intone the following ritual of exorcism:

I now remove these negative earth hindrances from my heart, mind, and soul forevermore. I am free of all selfishness, hatred, greed, anger, revenge, negativity, ignorance, lust, and animalism. I put into the purifying flame all these black magic forces that have clouded my spiritual vision and kept me from finding my true Shangri-La of peace and contentment.

A woman who came into our lecture work in New York City, suffered constantly from friction and discord. Her home life was perpetually chaotic. She fought with her husband, her two grown children, and her relatives and friends. She told me that they all seemed in league against her and she never had one moment's peace at home or in the office where she worked as a secretary.

She seemingly had reached the end of the rope and in our first interview she told me she planned to divorce her husband and get away from the discords she had suffered for over 20 years. I explained to her that she would not change things by running away, that she would still carry the same consciousness that brought her unhappiness where she was.

Then I told her of the Shangri-La consciousness. "You can find the Shangri-La of peace and contentment wherever you are," I told her. Then I made her do the above ritual, to rid her consciousness of the discordant forces that were causing her troubles.

When she had worked on these negative aspects that kept her from finding her personal Shangri-La, I gave her the ritual to use to establish the positive white magic forces in her mind that would bring her peace and contentment.

It took this woman only three weeks to establish the new state of consciousness, which I call Shangri-La. Everyone around her noticed the change in her. The fault had been within her all these years and only a powerful form of exorcism could change conditions in her life and establish the Shangri-La consciousness.

5 Now you are ready to establish the positive white magic forces in your consciousness that will give you sweet concord and harmony and make a reality of rhapsodic romancing in your own life. The instrument of the mind, heart, and soul has now been purified by the sacred flame ritual of exorcism, and your mind and body and soul must now be attuned to the higher octaves of harmony and rhythm, which we call peace, love, joy, and contentment.

Write down the word Shangri-La on a piece of paper, and after each letter of the anagram, the words given above in the positive side of Shangri-La.

Now sign this with your name, and intone the following ritual aloud or to yourself:

I now attune my mind, heart, and soul to the sweet music of the spheres. I discover the mystical land of Shangri-La within my own heart and soul. I lay aside the earth burdens of my mortality and take on the raiment of my immortality and divinity. My soul rises into its own domain of eternal peace and joy. Beyond the ranges of the mortal mind consciousness I see the mystical, sun-lit valley of Shangri-La that beckons me to eternal peace and glory.

In this mystical land of golden splendor I find the sunshine of eternal springtime, in which my heart will be forever young and in love with love. There are no dark shadows to mar the peaceful sun-lit days of beauty and romance. I have discovered the mystical land of Shangri-La and I shall dwell here forevermore in peace, beauty, and eternal joy.

This ritual of exorcism from the ancient land of Tibet will protect you from the erosions of the outer world. Whenever you feel the pressure of outer events and you feel you will break down under the stresses of your life, retire for a half hour or so and do this mystical ritual.

Withdraw your sense perceptions from the outer world of reality and visualize the lofty peaks of the Himalaya mountains. Then rise on wings of joy to the spiritual realm where your true Shangri-La resides. The song celestial of harmony and peace will echo its sweet refrain throughout eternity, when your soul is attuned to the music of the spheres.

POINTS TO REMEMBER IN CHAPTER 17

1. You may use the ritual of exorcism to banish the forces of darkness that keep you from finding your Shangri-La of peace, love, and contentment.

2. You are on a mystical quest through time and space, in which your soul searches for the fulfillment of God's golden dream of love, joy, good, and charity. These elements exist in the spiritual domain which you can discover.

3. The chant of exorcism you can use to banish the forces of darkness from your consciousness and bring you into the pathway of spiritual light, peace, and power.

4. How to use the ritual of Celestial Immersion into the Light, which comes from ancient Tibet, to remove the earth hindrances that keep you from your Shangri-La consciousness.

5. You can use the law of exorcism known as Celestial Ascension to the Spiritual Mountain Top to elevate your consciousness and banish the earth hindrances of fear, hate, worry, sickness, and pain.

6. The third great law of spiritual exorcism known as Rhapsodic Romancing, in which you attune your heart, mind, and soul to the music of the spheres, causing harmony and peace to dwell in your life.

7. How a great violinist proved that even a Stradivarius million-dollar violin cannot make sweet music until, and unless, it is first tuned, and then it gives out mellifluous sounds.

8. The two opposing forces that fight each other and keep you from finding your true Shangri-La of peace and joy.

9. How to use exorcism to rid yourself of the black magic negative forces that are earth hindrances, tying you to pain, sickness, fear, hate, and worry.

10. The spiritual pledge you must make to your higher mind, for removing black magic forces from your consciousness so you may be guided to your personal land of Shangri-La.

11. The ritual of exorcism you can use to remove the nine obsessing thought forms that stand in your way from spiritual progress and evolvment.

12. How a woman overcame the black magic forces that brought her to the verge of divorce and kept her miserable for more than 20 years. She found her Shangri-La through this exorcism.

13. How to establish the positive, Shangri-La forces in your higher mind through the ritual of the sacred flame exorcism.

14. How to withdraw your sense perceptions from the outer world of problems and pressures and discover the mystical land of Shangri-La that dwells within your own immortal soul.