Pastor's Corner

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

On this Second Sunday of Lent, the Church presents us with the Gospel that depicts the events that took place when Jesus was “transfigured” in the presence of his apostles: Peter, James and John.

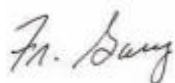

The Merriam-Webster Dictionary defines “transfigure” as: “to give a new and typically exalted or spiritual appearance.” In the Gospel account, Jesus’ appearance changed; his face began to radiate light “like the sun” and his clothing became “white as light.” The glory of his divine nature began to show through his human nature. It was as if the curtain between heaven and earth was momentarily drawn back and the glory of heaven began to shine through Jesus. The presence of Moses, who represented the Jewish law, and the prophet Elijah, who represented the Jewish prophetic tradition, conversing with Jesus, revealed that Jesus was the fulfillment of Judaism.

So, what was the purpose of this miraculous revelation? Why did Jesus want Peter, James and John, his closest disciples, to be there to experience it? The Gospel passage itself hints at the answer. Jesus knew that his disciples would soon undergo an immense challenge to their courage and to their faith. The apostles and other disciples were still wrestling with the great mystery of God’s plan of salvation unfolding through Jesus. His impending passion and death would likely stir up doubt or confusion. Without divine help the disciples risked slipping into despair.

The divine vision that Peter, James and John witnessed atop the mount of transfiguration would be a great help in giving them hope, even in the midst of the immense challenges and grief they would soon face. Peter experienced a slice of heaven atop that mountain and he didn’t want to leave. He said, “it is good that we are here.” And indeed it was!

Peter’s faith was bolstered by that hope-filled experience. For the rest of us, we rely on the virtue of hope to sustain us in the midst of doubt or grief. Hope is the virtue by which we desire the things of heaven as our happiness, placing our trust in Christ’s promises and relying not on our own strength, but on the help of the grace of the Holy Spirit. Hope responds to the aspiration to happiness which God has placed in the heart of every person, desires that can only be fully satisfied in God alone. Do you have genuine hope in God’s promise?

Sincerely yours in Christ Jesus, the Way, the Truth and the Life,

A Walk Through the Mass

On Tuesday evening, March 10th at 7pm, Fr. Gary will give a presentation in the church entitled “A Walk Through the Mass.” He will explain the different parts of the Eucharistic Liturgy as celebrated in the ordinary form of the Roman Rite. He will speak about the biblical roots of the Mass found in the scriptures and in the practice of the Jewish people, as well as touch on some historical developments of the Mass since Jesus instituted it at the Last Supper. Please join Fr. Gary to learn more about this central practice of our Catholic faith.

Information on The Coronavirus

The news is abuzz with updates on the spreading virus, COVID-19, which is one of the coronaviruses that has not been previously identified. It first emerged in Wuhan, China and as of the submission of this bulletin article, there have been 90,306 cases reported world-wide (80,026 in China) and the virus has claimed a total of 3,087 lives. In the U.S., as of Monday, March 2nd, 99 cases have been reported with 6 deaths attributed to the virus. Experts say that it is difficult to determine the exact number of cases because some people may recover without ever seeking medical help and thus their cases are not counted. COVID-19 and the flu (influenza) are both infectious respiratory illnesses and while both may have similar symptoms, they are caused by different viruses.

Recommendations for Prevention (from the Centers for Disease Control)

- Stay home if you are sick, do not go to work or come to church.
- Avoid touching your eyes, nose and mouth.
- Cover your cough or sneeze with a tissue and discard it in the trash.
- Wash your hands with soap and water often, as well as after blowing your nose.
- If soap and water are not available, use an alcohol-based hand sanitizer with at least 60% alcohol.
- Clean frequently-touched surfaces with a household cleaning spray or wipe.

Note: At this time, we will not suspend the practice of offering the cup at Holy Communion, but if you are worried about catching anything, you need not partake of the cup at Mass.

FORMED.ORG

The Formed.org pick of the week is, Into the Desert. Our Lord teaches that prayer is a relationship and a vital necessity; yet, many of us have difficulty committing to daily prayer. Follow Jesus into the desert this Lent and discover intimacy with God in this 6-week video-based study with daily meditations in the participants guide. Dr. Tim Gray masterfully uses the discipline of Lectio Divina to show you how to make prayer an effective effort of love and intimacy. This series captures the secret to opening our hearts and minds to Scripture as the means to hear from God and then respond in conversation, basking in His presence and resolving to live in and through His love.

Best of all, it's free!

Walking with Moms in Need

Pregnant and parenting moms in need are in our parishes and neighborhoods. As Pope Francis reminds us, our parishes should be "islands of mercy in the midst of the sea of indifference." Everyone in our parish community should know where to refer a pregnant woman in need. Beginning March 25, 2020, the Church will celebrate the 25th anniversary of the papal encyclical Evangelium Vitae (The Gospel of Life.) This anniversary gives us a wonderful opportunity to assess, expand, and better share the resources available to pregnant women and families in need at our parish level. We invite all parishioners to join the "Walking With Moms" Initiative and a year of service.
