

Business Overview

Fourth
Quarter 2021

February 2022

SAFE HARBOR

This presentation has been prepared by VTEX (“we,” “us,” “our,” “VTEX” or the “Company”).

This presentation may contain forward-looking statements relating to such matters as continued growth prospects for the Company, industry trends and product and technology initiatives.

These statements are based on currently available information and our current assumptions, expectations and projections about future events. While we believe that our assumptions, expectations and projections are reasonable in view of currently available information, you are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements regarding VTEX involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause VTEX’s actual results, performance or achievements to be materially different from any future results, performances or achievements expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements. Certain of these risks and uncertainties are described under “Risk Factors” and “Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements” sections of VTEX’s registration statement on Form F-1 and certain of VTEX’s other filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. You should read this information together with the sections of VTEX’s prospectus entitled “Selected Financial and Other Information” and “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations,” our audited consolidated financial statements and our unaudited interim condensed consolidated financial statements and their respective notes, which are available on our investor relations website (<https://www.investors.vtex.com/>).

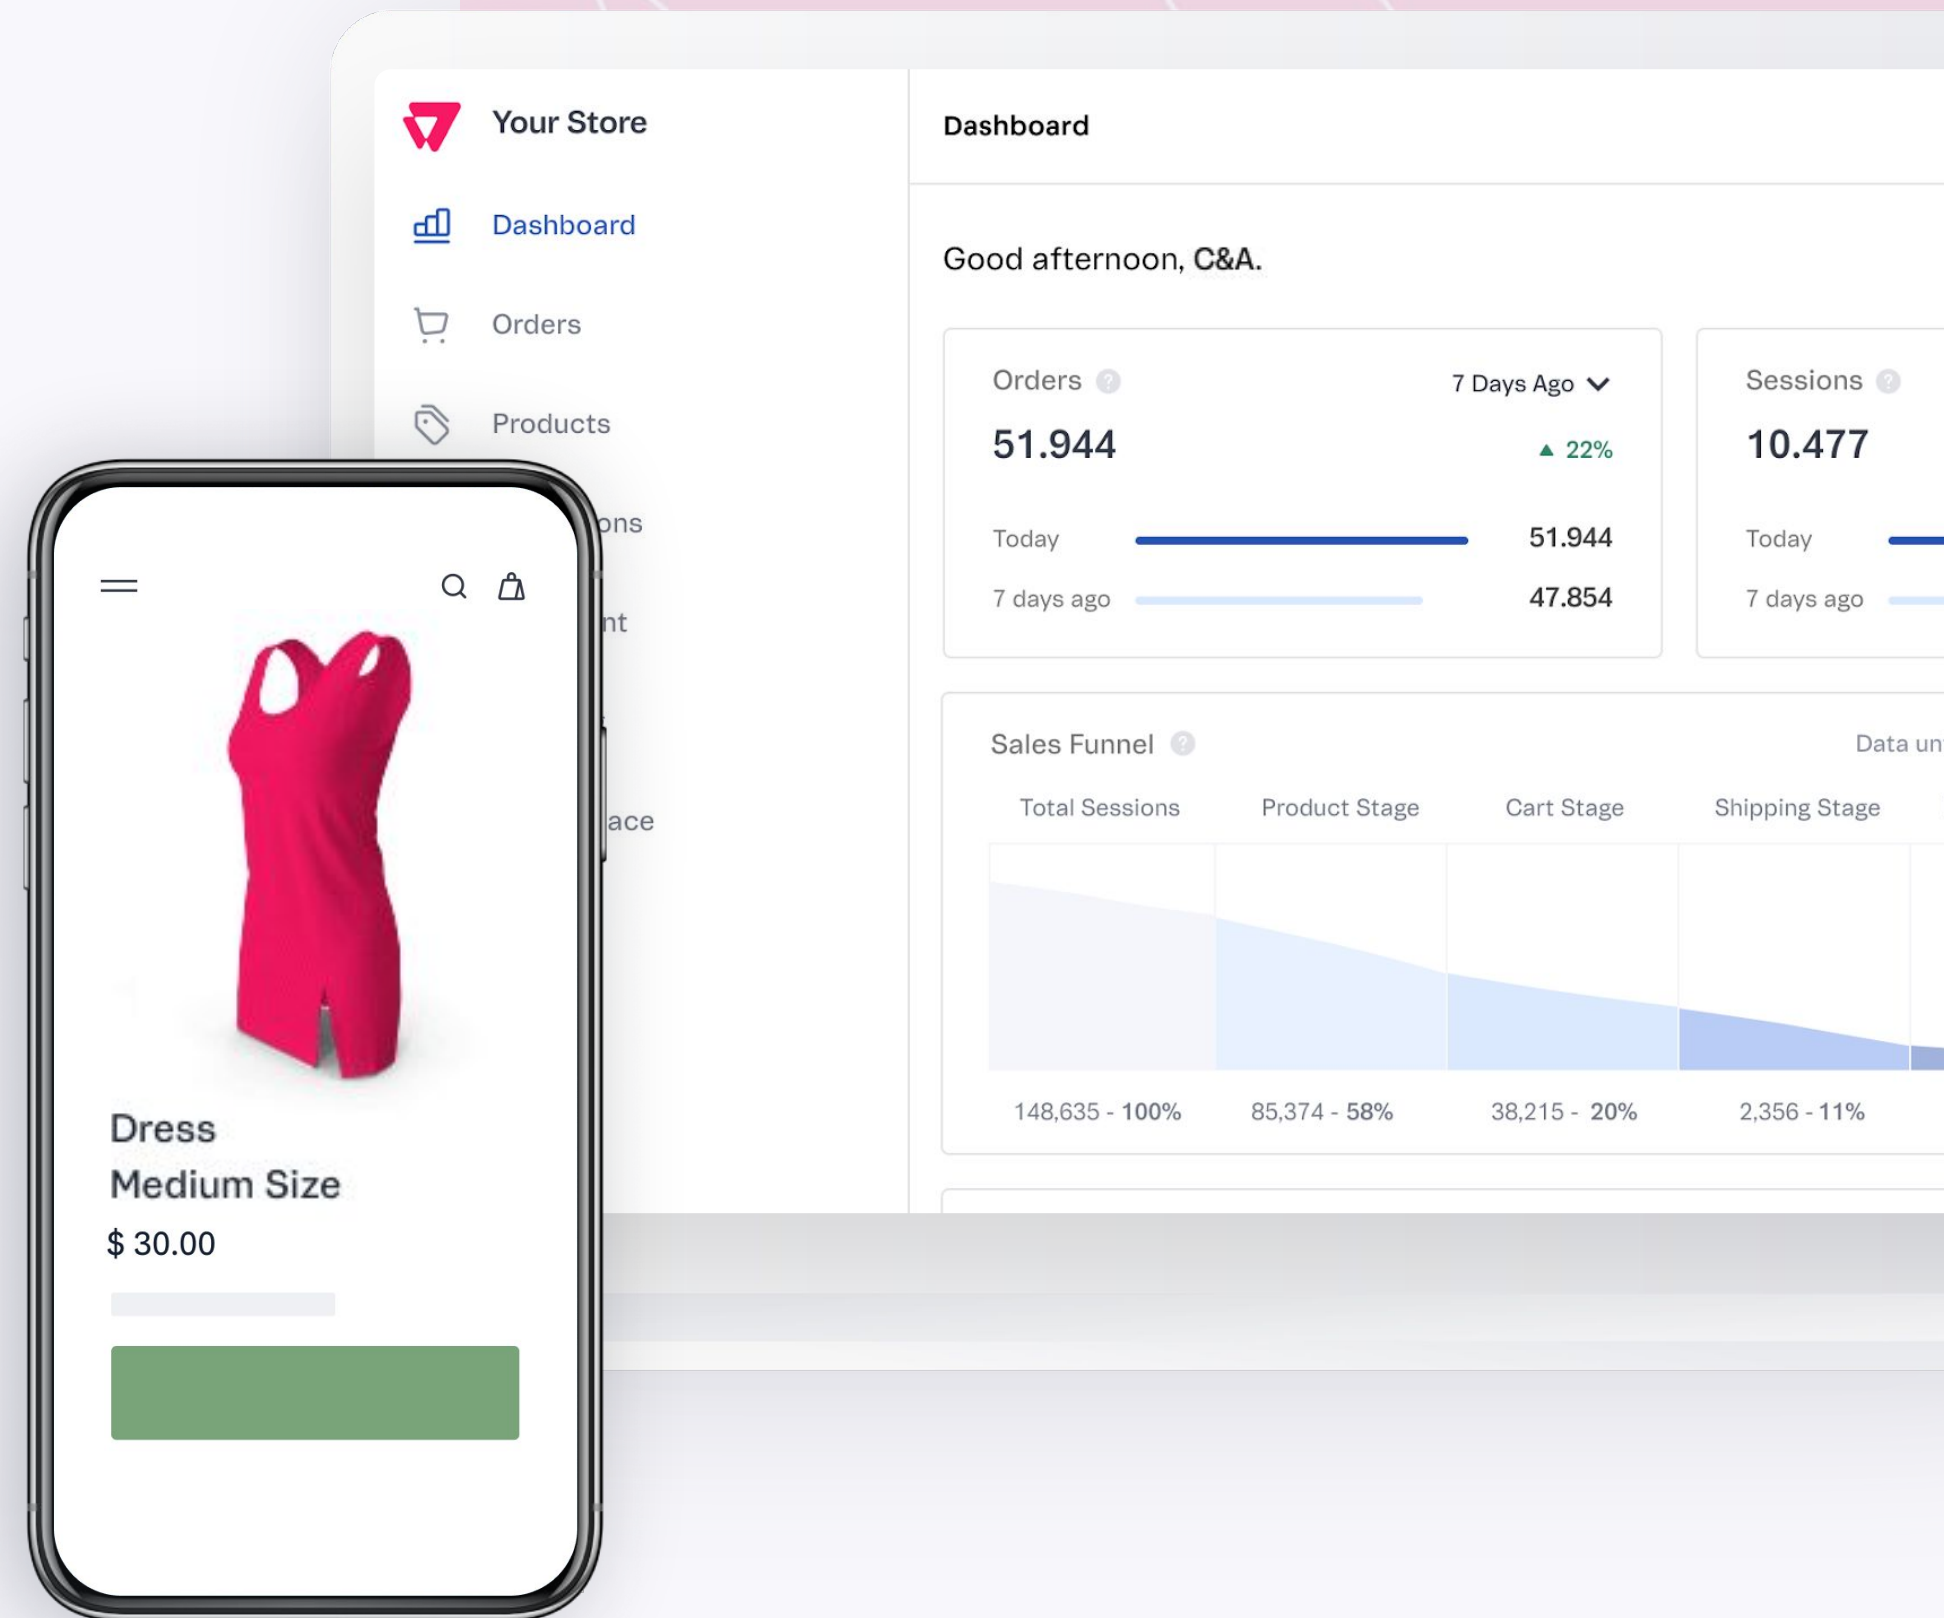

Unless required by law, VTEX undertakes no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements to reflect circumstances or events after the date hereof.

his presentation also contains estimates and other statistical data made by independent parties and by us relating to market size and other data about our industry. This data involves a number of assumptions and limitations, and you are cautioned not to give undue weight to such data and estimates. In addition, projections, assumptions and estimates of our future performance and the future performance of the markets in which we operate are necessarily subject to a high degree of uncertainty and risk. Neither we nor our affiliates, advisors or representatives makes any representation as to the accuracy or completeness of that data or undertake to update such data after the date of this presentation. In addition to financial information prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States (“GAAP”), we use certain non-GAAP financial measures to clarify and enhance our understanding, and aid in the period-to-period comparison, of our performance. We believe that these non-GAAP financial measures provide supplemental information that is meaningful when assessing our operating performance because they exclude the impact of certain amounts that our management and board of directors do not consider part of core operating results when assessing our operational performance, allocating resources, preparing annual budgets, and determining compensation. The non-GAAP measures have limitations, including that they may not be directly comparable to other companies, and you should not consider them in isolation or as a substitute for or superior to our GAAP financial information. See the Appendix to this presentation for a reconciliation of non-GAAP financial measures to their nearest GAAP equivalent

All of the information included in this presentation is updated as of December 31, 2021.

Except as may be required by applicable law, we assume no obligation to publicly update or revise our statements. Numbers have been calculated using whole amounts rather than rounded amounts. This might cause some figures not to total due to rounding.

(1) LTV/CAC means lifetime value to customer acquisition costs. LTV is calculated as gross profit from new sales divided by the subscription churn rate of the last twelve months, and CAC as total sales and marketing expenses incurred during the four quarters preceding the quarter in which the calculation is made.

(2) Active online stores: number of unique domains generating gross merchandise value in Vtex Platform.

(3) Calculated by using the average monthly exchange rates for the applicable months during 2020, adjusted by inflation in countries with hyperinflation, and applying them to the corresponding months in 2021, as applicable, so as to calculate what our results would have been had exchange rates remained stable from one year to the next.

Business model

VTEX offers a comprehensive subscription solution that provides access to our homogeneous multi-tenant SaaS platform.

We grow with our customers and make ourselves responsible for their success, by charging most of our revenues from transaction-based fees.

 VTEX Platform clients are charged:

Variable Monthly Take Rate

Strong land and expand model driving results

Revenue cohort, FX neutral (US$ millions)

Cohort analysis on a FX neutral basis. We define a yearly cohort of customers as the group of customers that received the first invoice of our VTEX platform in the prior year to remove customers ramp-up effect from our cohort analysis.

Directional P&L breakdown by existing vs. new stores

High margin existing stores' P&L, growing at VTEX's net revenue retention

Investment in new stores' P&L, while impacting margin in short-term, yields returns aligned with our LTV/CAC

Our global expansion outside of Latam has an estimated impact of 25% of our total expenses (35% of S&M, 15% of R&D, and 10% of G&A)

% of revenue, non-GAAP	2021A (VTEX platform + SMB + others + services)	2021 Existing stores (~80% of VTEX rev., excl. SMB)	2021 New stores (~20% of VTEX rev., excl. SMB)
