From the President...

Happy New Year, Quilters! As your new President, I am looking forward to a fun, interesting and maybe sometimes exciting new year with the Guild.

We have some great teachers and classes scheduled for this year, and I'm sure there will be more to follow. Personally, I view this as an opportunity to do something new. Maybe I will add a new technique or two to my quilting skills repertoire? I would like to use some of the fancy stitches on my machine for some amazing quilt project. Who knows, this might be the year that I actually get my quilting room cleaned up, sorted, and organized. (Ha ha ha!)

What are you looking forward to this year that involves fabric?

Louise

From the Vice President...

Happy New Year! The new year 2020 will be fun and, most importantly, I'm looking forward to getting to know each of you.

Our meeting in January will be our very own Linda Ballard. She will be doing a Trunk Show entitled Collections. As always, I'm excited to see her beautiful work and I know you will be, too.

I know the weather has been a bit gloomy and that means you should all be sewing/quilting like crazy. Please bring your beautiful works to share at our January meeting during Show & Tell.

Don't forget the Saturday Sew-cial to be held on January 18th at The Sewing Room from 10:00 to 4:00. Please come by and sew with us.

We will be taking Linda to dinner before our January general meeting, so please give me a call if you are interested in joining us.

Tammie

Reflections...

To all my fellow quilters!

As my tenure as your leader for the past two years comes to an end, I want to thank all of you for your support. A part of me will miss the position, another part of me looks forward to the future under new leadership. I also look forward to sitting in the audience and being able to converse with some of you.

During the past two years, I was grateful to be an active part of giving to fire victims. A big thanks to all of you who assisted and participated in the CARR fire project. We could not have given away so many quilts without your assistance.

Thank you to my executive board as I learned to live by Robert's Rules of Order—not without some mistakes. {I never said I was perfect.}

Once again thank you to all!! May all of you enjoy a blessed Christmas with family and friends. And Happy New Year!

Barb Helwig

The winner of the 2019 Opportunity Quilt was Dawn McCone. Dawn bought the prize winning ticket at last year's Shasta District Fair.

Our 2020 Opportunity Quilt was unveiled at the December holiday meeting. Tickets go on sale immediately for "Autumn Beauty," which was pieced by Carla Ferrier and Barb Helwig and quilted by Lori Johnson. We need a volunteer marketing team ASAP to begin displaying the quilt and selling tickets at various venues during the year. Please contact Louise Wilson for details.

Committee News...

COMMUNITY QUILTS

Our thanks to Dorinda Goff, Karen Griffith, Debbie Salseth, and Janie Dillion for allowing us to display their quilts in our usual venues throughout the area.

Each month we circulate a sign-up sheet and hope members will continue to provide quilts for display. If you have a theme quilt which might relate to a holiday (i.e., Valentine's Day, Easter, summertime, July 4th, Thanksgiving, Christmas, etc.), be sure to sign up for that month. Sizes are noted on the form.

Carol Buller & Debbie Salseth

DOLLAR BLOCK

Hello, everyone! I hope the holidays treated you well.

I am pleased to announce that Jeanette Bell and I are taking over the dollar block for 2020. We currently have no winners to announce since December was our Christmas party. We look forward to seeing you all at the table.

Samantha Harris & Jeanette Bell

FAT QUARTERS

The theme for the January fat quarters is Valentine's Day. You can bring as many fat quarters as you like, but as always, please bring good quality fabric.

LIBRARY

HAPPY NEW YEAR—It's 2020. What happened to 2019? It went so by fast. I hope everyone enjoyed the holidays.

Our raffle book for January is Little Birds compiled by Susanne Woods. It's a fun little book with 26 handmade projects to sew, stitch, and quilt. This book will inspire you to learn new skills and the use of a variety of materials. It includes step-by-step instructions to create the project, or you can take off on your own flight of fancy. Some of the projects are simple and some are a bit more challenging. This book will make you smile.

Don't forget to return any books you have checked out.

Janis Merryman/Lynn King

PHILANTHROPIC

Thank you to all members who helped to make the last two years a success. There are many, many people enjoying your efforts.

At this point, no one has stepped up to lead Philanthropic and keep our quilts going to the wonderful organizations we support. This is a very rewarding committee and we hope someone/or a team will accept the opportunity to serve our guild. Now that the Carr Fire project is complete, you will only be soliciting quilts for our regular philanthropic endeavors. Please contact Louise to volunteer.

We can still use your help getting tops quilted. We are trying to transform the many quilt tops you have already donated into completed quilts and will continue to bring the ones needing bindings to the meetings. Your help with this project will be greatly appreciated.

*Dorinda Goff, Patti Aberg, &
Blossom Hamusek*

PUBLICITY

To anyone who would like to add a notice in Publicity, we now have an e-mail just for you! Please feel free to let me know of any venue that you would like to share with our Guild. Thank you in advance.

Time to start brainstorming ideas for a Quilt Show raffle basket. Invite friends to help you choose a theme and collect supplies to assemble a beautiful gift basket that will delight quilt show attendees. If you need suggestions or have questions, please contact Linda Molter .

Now that the holidays are pretty much behind us, it's time to get serious about which quilts you have ready or are working on for display at the Quilt Show!

The registration form will be available on our website by February and will also be emailed to the entire membership. Deadline for entry forms is April 28.

Categories and requirements remain the same as last show. If you have questions, contact D'Anne Andrews.

So...sew, quilt, and bind!

2020 QUILT SHOW Paint Chip Quilt Challenge

Show theme: Rhapsody in Blue

Size Range: From 12" x 12" min. to 36" x 36" max.

May be any shape: square, rectangle, round, or irregular, as long as it is within size parameters.

Participants will be given an envelope containing paint chips to be matched in fabric.

Colors must be the blues in envelope and white. You may do just blues and whites, or you may add one other contrasting and/or complementary color. You can choose your quilt style: traditional, modern, art. It may be pieced, appliqued, thread painted, embellished, whatever technique you would like to employ. It does need to fit the standard definition of a quilt (top & bottom with batting sandwiched between the two layers, with all three layers sewn [quilted] together). A 4" sleeve must be attached to back, per quilt show rules.

Think about what our theme – Rhapsody in Blue – means to you and try to tie that into your quilt design. There is a $5.00 non-refundable fee which covers entry fee, label, and awards ribbons.

Carla Ferrier
