RABBI'S CORNER

Dear YIEB Families,

Thank you for joining us on Sunday night for our Community Event with Yossi Klein Halevi. It was a wonderful opportunity for the community to come together under the pro-Israel banner. Unfortunately, the terror attacked this week in Yerushalayim only underscores the importance of this event and the work done by AIPAC. You can maintain your engagement and help keep Israel safe and secure by coming to the AIPAC Policy Conference in Washington, DC on March 1-3, 2015.

There is a special $100 discount for members of our community to attend that ends on Sunday, November 23rd at midnight. Please sign up at www.aipac.org and enter the promotional code PC15EB to ensure you receive the $499 rate. Registration is fully refundable until January 10, 2015.

Best wishes for a Shabbat Shalom,
Rabbi Jay Weinstein

KOL NIDRE APPEAL E-MAIL

Dear Fellow Congregants,

We realize there were certain errors regarding emails that were sent out last Friday. The purpose of this message is to explain what happened and to communicate some "tips" on how to help ensure that certain of these errors do not recur.

First, due to a functionality issue with ShulCloud, invoices that were attached to these only reflected the amount pledged and did not show payments made to satisfy these pledges. We are in the process of working with the vendor and rectifying the situation as soon as possible. In the meantime, you can login to ShulCloud, view your account (which was not impacted by the error), and confirm that your payment was received and applied.

Second, there were also some issues with respect to pledges being duplicated. In some cases, this was the result of pledges being made both through the original OneBill submission this past summer (or being entered separately on ShulCloud) and on the pledge cards, which were collected on Kol Nidre. In some cases the pledge card was used as a means of indicating an additional donation while in other cases it was just a re-affirmation of the original pledge. There was no apparent way for our Office Manager (or anyone else) to discern the intention.

In addition, many duplicate pledges were the result of online payments that were made to satisfy existing pledges using either the Donation/Payment or One Bill portals instead of the Submit Payment portal in the My Billing section of the My Account tab on the YIEB website. The Donation/Payment and One Bill portals create NEW pledges against which payments that are made at the time (in the case of the D/P portal) or in the future (in the case of the OB portal) are applied, thus producing a duplicate pledge.

As a result, we ask everyone making an online payment to satisfy an open Kol Nidre Appeal pledge (or any other open balance that you might have on your account) to use the Submit Payment portal in the My Billing section of the My Account tab to ensure that the payment is made to satisfy or reduce an existing balance.

If you have any questions about this and would like a personal walkthrough, please do not hesitate to call the YIEB office during regular office hours (9am-1pm Monday through Friday - evening hours are available by appointment) and speak to the Office Manager, Bertin Lefkovic, and he will be happy to help you.

In the meantime, you can login to ShulCloud, view your account, and determine whether any corrections with respect to your Kol Nidre pledge are necessary.

We apologize for the confusion and resulting inconvenience.

Sincerely,
Michael Bernstein, Treasurer

J TEAM TEEN PHILANTHROPY

The Jewish Federation of Greater Middlesex County is excited to once again offer the J.Team Teen Philanthropy program. Students in 10th grade are encouraged to apply for this year-long program, which meets monthly at the Federation office. The program is free, but participants contribute $125 of their own money to be pooled together and distributed to organizations of their choosing. The application, due October 13th, can be completed online at www.JewishMiddlesex.org/Jteam.
