Janine: $298 this past week with 90% of this residual income from Shakeology HD orders... not bad for only having 1 new shake customer and being pretty new at this.

Shannon: A couple weeks over $700, several over $600. It's getting more steady and planning on over $1,000/week in a couple months or so!

Lisa: Carl figured out that my business has increased 880% from this time last year (not bad for an annual raise!)

Shannon: My biggest check was last week- $832.56 from both accounts! :)

Giovanni: I've had my biggest check yet!! $371!! Can't wait to start seeing these other numbers you guys and gals are pulling. I know it's only a matter of time.

Greg: One of the great stories that exemplifies what I love about this business...Go back 2 years ago when I called a guy and told him about Beachbody, and sent a couple of samples. 6 weeks or so later he finally tries shakeology. He said he was in and going to take this ride with me...after being screwed in another non legit network marketing company as a 19 yr. old. He had faith and believed what I was telling him. We were attached at the hip the first 6 months of him signing up as a coach. As my team consisted of just 5 people then, we had very little training and had no clue really what we were doing. I was so happy to announce him as my team's first 6 FIGURE EARNER. He is now over 200k a year. Congrats to Lou!! (He has left his job as the manager of Chili's making a fraction of that amount).

What else has Beachbody coaching done for your life and what do you love most about it?

Danielle: Being a coach so far has given me so much more confidence and belief in myself. It's helped me to become healthier and fitter and also just feel like I have more of a purpose and direction in my life. Not only that but it's helped me financially. The past two months, I've earned enough to pay rent with Beachbody.

Shannon: Beachbody has enabled me to help so many more people that I would have never been able to help. Touching the lives of others and seeing the rewards and positive benefits to their lives give my life more meaning. The financial aspect of being a Team Beachbody Coach is the icing on the cake. I've been able to boost my income and now make more money with Beachbody than with any other job. Financial freedom is my goal as is helping as many people as possible that I would have never met or sought out to help before I became a coach.

Meg: It opened a whole new world for me. I have learned so much being a coach. On a personal level I have been able to help a few people so far that maybe wouldn't have or would have had a harder time if I didn't approach them. For me this has been extremely rewarding. I am passionate about it! I KNOW it will work for me. I love it and it's only been just shy of 4 months for me as a coach. Not to mention the bonus of extra money each week...it's not tons yet, but is helping my family out.

Laura: Helping others with their health. I have wanted to be a part of the health and fitness industry for some time, but I always thought becoming a personal trainer at my age was too late to start. So when this opportunity was right in front of me, I knew I had to grab it!

Lisa: Becoming a Beachbody coach has fulfilled my LOVE of helping others. I was a special education teacher for 10 years and once I left, I almost felt like I lost my identity as it was a huge part of my life. I'm now able to help others, just in a different aspect. I struggled with my overall health and well-being a few years ago so I know how it feels. Now it feels amazing to help others experience the happy, healthy, fit version of themselves that was always in there. It's slowly pulling my confidence and pushing me to step WAY outside of my comfort zone. Not to mention ALL the amazing friends I have met on my team who are always willing to help, support, guide, inspire and motivate others. It's all about teamwork and now I am part of something I enjoy and am so passionate about.

Arielle: Becoming a coach has made me feel like I've become a more positive and focused person, and more conscious about my health and eating habits. I have also realized how many goals I actually have in my life.

Yolanda: It has helped me to become more comfortable with working outside my comfort zone.

Shaun: The benefits I've experienced so far from being a Beachbody Coach are numerous! Most importantly is the commitment I've made to keeping myself healthy through fitness and proper nutrition. Subsequently I've ignited a fire in quite a few people to get in shape mentally/physically by being an example and sharing this opportunity and its arsenal of tools. Beachbody has given me a platform to help myself and help change the lives of others....this is a big deal, to say the least.

Dawn: Beachbody has changed my life in so many ways....after being a stay at home mom for 8 years, I had some major life changes and am now having to balance being a stay at home mom AND sole provider for my boys. My youngest is disabled, so a 9 to 5 job is just not an option. Beachbody has given me the ability to provide for my boys not only now, but in the future (as I have placeholders for them in my downline). I purchased a new home for us in October, which I could not have done without Beachbody. But those are just some of the tangible ways my life has changed. The things you can't see have an even bigger impact on my life. I am more confident. I believe it myself and know that I am capable. I feel more positive about my whole life and everything around me. I feel rewarded when my customers reach their goals, and when my coaches have success in their businesses. I am more of a leader, and don't second guess everything I do. Beachbody has really made ME a better person.

Ashley: In my few short months as a coach, it has enabled me to make enough money to earn my shakeology for free each month. I have also learned so much about personal development and helped many people close to me become healthy. I have also met a great group of people on my Fit Synergy team and gotten healthy myself!

Debbie: The benefit I've experienced as a Team Beachbody Coach is being able to live my heart's passion to help/coach people to live healthier lives! This has been a true blessing in my life. It's a passion I shared with my dad who passed away unexpectedly a week after I became a coach (4/13). I love that I can continue pursuing my passion with Team Beachbody.

Sarah: The biggest benefits that I have seen from being a coach has been having the ability to motivate others and help them move towards their fitness goals as well as move towards my own! I feel like my physical strength and health has changed so much! I now feel confident in being able to share what has worked for me!

Allison: Being a coach has helped me with my personal accountability. It's so much more than if I wasn't a coach! Whenever someone says "thank you" to me for inspiring them, I want to explode with happiness. It's amazing being a part of getting someone healthier.

Sarah: Owning your own business with a ton of pre-established support. It's amazing!

Lentini: The word, TEAM. As a teacher previously, I was a part of a lot of teams...my special education team, my 4th grade team, etc. Now I feel like I'm part of an amazing team again.

Laurie: That I can help others reach their health and fitness goals, as well as my own. I also love the idea of eventually making enough money with this business to do it full time and have more time with my daughter, as well as having financial freedom.

Stacey: Helping and inspiring others to be healthy and fit.

Melissa: Being able to work out, share, invite, and get paid to help others achieve their health and wellness goals.

Allison: Helping others and making money doing it!

Shaun: Who knows someone who has been affected by a disease? Most of us do...I'm no exception. My grandmother died at age 54 due to stroke. She also had diabetes. So when I was 15 I came to fully understand what had occurred, and said to myself, "when I turn 30, I will commit to a healthy life style". This is one reason I joined the Marines after High School. So I must continue to become as healthy as I can be, and now I see the benefits of getting paid to get fit...it's a "no brainer" to be coach. Beachbody and the mission to "end the trend" is definitely a worthy goal! What also inspires me is gaining financial freedom through being of service to others.

Danielle: The simplicity of the business, along with the opportunity to help people, and the amount of people out there to help.

Shannon: The way the business can be for everyone (all walks of life), and the way a new coach can get fit along with their challengers and customers. It's all positive and can be life changing for so many.

Nikki: Coaching not only makes me FEEL good, but I'm able to stay home with my 3 kids and still contribute financially from my laptop. Like a dream come true.

Deb: My ability to help more people get healthier and fitter – it's really priceless and feels GREAT to be that positive resource for so many people!

Sue: I received a call over 2 years ago from my sponsoring coach, Don Murphy, regarding the Beachbody coach opportunity. I knew nothing about this company, but signed up with him as a coach because I trusted him completely and unwaveringly. Sometime afterward, both of my in-laws became gravely ill and died 15 days apart. I did not have the time or emotional energy to grow my business, but Don made sure I made a few simple strategic moves for rank. My business grew. The dust settled for a month or 2 and I tried to re-engage with my business, then my Dad got sick and died. My children lost 3 grandparents in 18 months. Huh? What just happened? The only reason I got through this time was the power of the MEDICINE of exercise, and the power of connection to a group of like-minded people! The power of knowing you have the unwavering support of people like Don and others on this team, and all of your coaches upline or downline. It doesn't matter. I wake up every single morning counting all of the tremendous blessings in my life. Then I got up and started "Failing Forward" (a book by John C. Maxwell that changed my life, as did Don and the Beachbody opportunity). I am currently earning more from my BB business than my fitness job, and it continues to grow despite my lack of skills in the world of technology! (Shannon Golladay is desperately trying to change during the Diamond Dash). I know there is no ceiling on the income potential at this time. The most important part of this opportunity is to realize for anyone "on the fence" that you will NEVER find another company that will support, educate, elevate, amp, and motivate YOU to being the absolute best version of yourself. From the bottom of my heart, it's the real deal.

Bonnie: I can't say enough about what this journey has done for me. From a financial perspective, I was able to save the money I needed to pay for my son's bar mitzvah outright (and for those of you who don't know, that is huge!) whereas in the past for my other 2 boys, I went into debt. I have also been able to plan a vacation for me and my boys to be with family in Vermont for Thanksgiving, whereas otherwise I would never have been able to do that and overall been able to do the extras I've been wanting to do but couldn't in the past. From a personal fitness perspective, I've never been in better shape or felt as great about myself as I do now (not only physical appearance but health too). From an emotional/personal growth perspective, this has given me the focus, determination and belief that I have needed that I can have the life of my dreams and have something to be excited about every single day. I love the friendships I have made from this journey and I value every single one of you on this team for enriching my life. I am so grateful to be a Beachbody coach!

Angela: I just can't express how much Team Beachbody, the company and the products have done for me. In the past 9 months I have grown so much as a person mentally and physically. If it wasn't for the family of Team Beachbody and its products, my life would probably have taken a different road...to poor health and fitness. With much success in my own journey, I decided to pay it forward and become an Independent coach...helping others in their own health and fitness and fighting the trend of obesity. It's such a wonderful, rewarding feeling when I hear that I've made a difference in a customer's health and given them the opportunity to also live a happier life. I am proud to work for such an incredible company, with my financial worries one day becoming a worry of the past.

Laura: It's been a year with Beachbody and Oh BOY! I am going to share since I often get asked "How is it going with being a BEACHBODY Coach (BB Coach)? Last December I became a Beachbody Coach because I wanted to get in shape and help others do the same, mostly by sharing my personal experiences with my journey and helping others start theirs. Only taking about 5 to 7 hours each week, I have earned over $10,000! I am blown away since those few hours a week that I worked really didn't feel like work. It was fun as I continued to help others. Coaching has been a blast this year and I can only imagine what the future will bring for not just me, but for so many that I share this wonderful opportunity with. I can't wait to help even more people get healthier and active.

Lisa: I love Beachbody, I really do. Everything about it. In 2013 I set some serious goals. The first of the big ones, as you know, was to sell my Healing Center and move to Florida. Done! The next one was to earn 6 figures...done! The next was to pay off all my debt...done!! The LAST of my BIG goals was JUST REACHED!!!! Wahooooooooo! As some of you know, my husband travels for work in a job he hates and has been doing for 30 years. Sometimes he is gone for a week....sometimes 3 months at a time. This has been very challenging for our marriage, and also for my 7 year old daughter. Their bond would thicken, then he'd leave and she would distance herself. It was a yo-yo relationship, and she was having a difficult time with it. Well, my big announcement is that I JUST RETIRED my husband! We did it!

Janel: We have THE BEST OF THE BEST leading the way for us!! Can't beat that!!!
