PRECIOUS

*T*his is the age of awareness and dominance of humankind. The human race has been the unopposed ruler over the animal and plant kingdoms for decades, and has mastered control over nearly all aspects of life on earth.

We have created a pressing need to sustain the wild – to save species from the brink of extinction... falling off the face of the earth. We are the protectors and the keepers of our shared “stomping grounds.”

Thanks to the many efforts of national parks, governments, “green organizations” and the Endangered Species Act of 1973, many species have been brought back from the “endangered” status.

This calendar reminds us to continue our efforts and cherish the creatures of the world, both endangered and threatened, or to simply be their voice.
