COURTESY OF MAL STREET PRODUCTIONS

N JTV is your home for scintillating dramatic series, from lavish costume dramas to edge-of-your-seat mysteries. Our popular line-up is about to become even more binge-worthy thanks to some exciting April premieres.

First, meet Alison Wilson, a recent widow who discovers her spy novelist husband isn't all that he seems. Mrs. Wilson (Tuesdays at 9pm beginning April 16) follows Alison as she is determined to uncover the truth about her husband's double life, and finds herself at the center of a mystery that proves truth can be stranger than fiction. This true story stars Ruth Wilson (The Affair, Luther) as her own grandmother Alison, bringing her unbelievable family saga to life and proving the truth can be much stranger than fiction.

Airing that same night is Call the Midwife's season eight premiere (Tuesdays at 10pm beginning April 16). It's spring of 1964 and everyone is excited for the Queen's Royal Birth. With the additions of two new Sisters, who have been sent to live and work with the team in Poplar, Nonnatus House feels full once more.

There's never a dull moment in the picturesque county of Midsomer. DCI John Barnaby and DS Benjamin Jones return to investigate murders oddly reminiscent of movie plots, a killer hunk of cheese, and more. The 15th season of the deliciously sinister Midsomer Murders delivers fans homicide, blackmail, greed and betrayal every Friday at 9pm, beginning April 26.

Cold cases make the hottest drama — catch up on Unforgotten Season 2 (Wednesdays at 9pm beginning April 10) before the third season premieres next month. DCI Cassie Stuart and DI Sunny Khan face an historic unsolved case: a Conservative Party consultant who went missing in 1990, only to show up at the bottom of the River Lea 39 years later.

RECONSTRUCTION: AMERICA AFTER THE CIVIL WAR

Professor Henry Louis Gates, Jr. (Finding Your Roots) presents the definitive history of the transformative years following the American Civil War, when the nation struggled to rebuild itself amidst profound loss, massive destruction and revolutionary social change.

"Reconstruction is one of the most important and consequential chapters in American history," said Gates. "It is also among the most overlooked, misunderstood and misrepresented." The film will continue an important conversation about race in America today, with interviews from leading historians, authors and other experts.

Bob Ellis, of Ocean Grove, talks to strangers. But unlike most, he goes one step further and invites these new friends over for dinner. In Part 2 of his story, Ellis stages, cooks and holds a "Friendsgiving" for 75 people, many unknown to him and mostly unknown to each other. The result is a fun, affirming, and remarkable exercise in building community.

Secrets of the Dead uncovers new archaeological evidence rewriting our understanding of the Dark Ages in 5th and 6th century Britain that might also explain the legend of King Arthur. The program also follows a team of archeologists as they examine a rare mass grave dating to the collapse of ancient Egypt's Old Kingdom.

Matzo is a staple and hallmark of Jewish cuisine and culture. This documentary spotlights the iconic Streit's factory in New York, a fifth-generation family business that resiliently stays true to tradition, churning water into flour using ovens as old as the factory itself.
