

REFLECTIONS ²⁰¹⁴

www.archindy.org/fatima

Dear Friends,

Our program schedule is set for the coming months, and I hope you will be able to join us for one or more opportunities for spiritual renewal.

We are excited about the offerings this year and I hope you will be drawn to something that will deepen your prayer life and renew your faith.

This Lent we are happy to welcome Fr. Pat Beidelman a priest of the archdiocese who will be leading a weekend retreat on the Gospel of the “man born blind”. Entitled Seeing All Things with Eyes of Faith Fr. Pat’s retreat will give everyone a chance to spend some extended time with this Gospel story and the many levels of meaning revealed in God’s Word.

I will be offering a retreat on Pope Francis’ apostolic exhortation The Joy of the Gospel. It is an opportunity to reflect more deeply on the teaching and the challenge Our Holy Father places before each of us.

There are three evenings of reflection being offered. The first one is offered in collaboration with the Benedict Inn and is presented by Sr. Julie Sewell: A Pilgrim Heart—Lent as Pilgrimage. The second will be facilitated by Fr. Jeff Godecker and will use the movie The Way as a basis for our journey in following Jesus Christ. And finally Fr. Mike McKinney returns to share wisdom from the Passion in the Gospel of Matthew.

Throughout the year we continue to offer monthly silent days to allow you to step away from the noise of life and enter into silence, reflection and conversation with God. There is also a return of our popular program for mothers, Morning for Moms, featuring Sr. Cathy Campbell. Another opportunity on the Fatima calendar is Divine Wine and Art with Heart which has been very well received. I encourage you to check out this program that allows us to explore painting as another avenue for prayer.

Many other opportunities are planned and you can review the entire schedule here. Of course, you are always welcome at Fatima for a day or several days of private retreat. Just call Mary Lechtanski to make arrangements. May God open your eyes to see how he is reaching out to you!

Peace,

Father Jim Farrell
Director
Fatima Retreat House
