THREE VALLEYS DRUG POSITIVE

Prince Khalid Abdullah's homebred Three Valleys (Diesis {GB}), an eight-length winner of the G3 Coventry S. at Royal Ascot in June, has tested positive for the prohibited substance clenbuterol after his success in the G1 Middle Park S. at Newmarket Oct. 3. The highly rated juvenile is almost certain to be stripped of the latter victory if the second ('B') sample is confirmed positive. "Three Valleys has tested positive for clenbuterol following his win in the Middle Park S. on October 3," trainer Roger Charlton told Racing Post. "The second, or B, sample has not yet been sent off for confirmation. The colt has had well-documented treatment for mucus in the lungs. He was withdrawn from veterinary treatment nine days before the [veterinary and Jockey Club] guidelines, which suggest that six and a half days should be a safe period for clenbuterol. Until the second sample is tested and the Jockey Club completes its enquiries, it would be premature to speculate as to the outcome at this stage." Tillerman (GB) (In the Wings {GB}), in the same ownership, tested positive for the same substance after finishing second to Dubai Destination in the G1 Queen Anne S. at Royal Ascot in June. Three Valleys' possible disqualification will not affect his owner's claim to the British owners' title, but it will benefit the retiring Pat Eddery, who finished second aboard Balmont (Stravinsky) in the Group 1 contest.

JUST ANOTHER MIRTHFUL MONDAY

A daughter of multiple Grade I stakes winner I Ain't Bluffing (Pine Bluff) led the way at a brisk Monday session at Keeneland November in Lexington, Kentucky, garnering a top bid of $135,000 from Rock Talk Farm. By leading sire A.P. Indy, Hip 2952 is the three-year-old I Ain't P T, who was consigned to the sale by Mill Ridge Sales, agent, as a broodmare prospect and is not in foal. First-year stallion Officer, who was the covering sire of Saturday's session topper--a mare by Gone West who brought $340,000--offered a repeat performance yesterday as Hopewell Investments went to $120,000 for Hip 2768, the eight-year-old mare Triple Treasure (Gone West). Hip 2768 was brought to the sale under the consignment of Mill Ridge Sales, agent, and is out of the Lemhi Gold mare Lemhi Go, a multiple graded stakes winner. Hopewell also purchased Saturday's topper, Hip 2027. The top-priced weanling on the afternoon was Hip 2670, a bay filly who was knocked down to Walter Burke for $77,000 from the consignment of Rosemont Farm LLC, agent. Hip 2670 is out of the unraced Meadowlake mare Private Lake, whose lone foal to race is a winning filly by Caller I.D.

Active Bio, last year's winner of the G2 Nikkei Sho, finished a game second in the Manyo S. in his 2003 debut, but had failed to win in 10 months since. Looking to change his luck here, the bay stalked the early pace, surged to the lead in midstretch and held on late for the narrow score over Natural Nine. The six-year-old will likely make his next start in the Grand Arima Kinen Dec. 28.

You can also pick up a copy of the TDN today at the Keeneland November Sale.

GRADE I WINNER MISS LINDA RETIRED Miss Linda (Arg) (Southern Halo--Miss Peggy {Arg}, by Fitzcarraldo {Arg}), named Mare of the Year in her native Argentina and a Grade I winner in the U.S., has been retired to stud and will be bred to Unbridled's Song. The dark bay won a pair of Group 1 races in Argentina as a sophomore in 2000 and garnered champion three-year-old filly and Mare of the Year honors. Brought to the States the following year, she capped off a successful campaign with a victory in the GI Spinster S. at Keeneland. Twice placed in Grade I company this term, the six-year-old was third in her most recent, the GIII Turnback the Alarm H. at Aqueduct Nov. 1. "We were blessed to race such a classy filly," said co-owner Leland Ackerley. "We bought her sight unseen based on the recommendations of John Fulton and John Kimmel. She gave us a lot of thrills, but her win in the Spinster was probably the greatest. Now she will join our broodmare band in Kentucky, and we look forward to someday racing her sons and daughters." Miss Linda concludes her career with eight wins in 21 starts, with earnings in excess of $870,000.

MELBOURNE CUP UPDATE Godolphin's Mamool (Ire) (In the Wings {Ire}), who finished last as the 11-2 favorite in the G1 Melbourne Cup Nov. 4, was found to have fractured a right hind fetlock and will be returned to Dubai today for further examination, reports the Racing Post. "That happens in racing and it is very disappointing and it was just one of those freak accidents that can occur," Godolphin racing manager Simon Crisford told Racing Post. "He was lame straight after the race, so tests and X-rays were carried out and the results are currently being analyzed. He will come back to Dubai [today] and we will take it from there." In related news, jockey Danny Nikolic has been cleared of a charge of failing to ensure his mount Mummify (Aus) (Jeune {GB}) was given full opportunity to win in the Mackinnon S. at Flemington Nov. 1.

Many aspects of the bloodstock industry must be bewildering to the uninitiated, such as why one winner of a major race can be much more valuable than another winner of the same race.

The answer, of course, comes down partly to fashion. A Kentucky Derby winner by Mr. Prospector is bound to be much more sought after than a Kentucky Derby winner by, say, At The Threshold. Plenty of other factors are also involved in determining a horse's value, though, such as whether a potential stallion comes from a family with a reputation for producing successful stallions.

These thoughts were prompted by the recent success of Voix du Nord in the G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud. This excellent prospect is a son of Valanour, who was listed in the 2003 edition of Etalons as commanding a fee of only 1,400 euros for Thoroughbred mares or 1,000 euros for non-thoroughbreds. These inexpensive fees reflect the fact that Valanour is now one of the many stallions which the French National Stud makes available to breeders throughout France for modest sums--he is based down in the Pyrenean region north of the Spanish border, well away from France's main breeding areas in the north.

Even when he began his career at Haras de la Rebourriere et de Montaigu, Valanour's fee was only 35,000 francs, or less than 6,000 dollars--a modest sum for a horse of his achievements. Cont. p4

Valanour had defeated Singspiel (who will stand the 2004 season at a fee £50,000) in the G1 Grand Prix de Paris and then added another Group 1 victory at four, when he took the Prix Ganay against opponents of the calibre of the multiple Group 1 winners Luso, Swain and Spectrum. Unfortunately, the Aga Khan's homebred failed to reproduce his best French form when he tried his luck in Ireland, England and the USA, effectively limiting his options to France.

Even then, breeders must have had some doubts about Valanour's ability to translate his racecourse successes into a rewarding stallion career. His retirement in 1997 came a few years after his sire Lomond had been packed off to Italy in relative disgrace.

To describe Lomond's stallion career as anti-climatic is something of an understatement. This son of the all-conquering Northern Dancer appeared to have a great deal to offer when he retired to Coolmore at a fee of 65,000 Irish guineas. In addition to being by the world's most fashionable stallion, he was a half-brother to the magnificent Seattle Slew, who was already establishing himself as a very good stallion. Like Seattle Slew, Lomond had also become a classic winner, in the 1983 2,000 Guineas.

For a while, Lomond promised to follow in Seattle Slew's famous footsteps. His first crop produced no fewer than six group winners, including Ashayer (G1 Prix Marcel Boussac), Flutter Away (G1 Moyglare Stud S.) and Dark Lomond (G1 Irish St Leger).

However, none of his subsequent Irish crops compared to this spectacular collection (although they did produce another 11 group winners) and the decision to switch Lomond to Kentucky at the end of 1990 seemed to make matters worse. Valanour was the only group winner sired during Lomond's American sojourn.

Normally, you would have considered it a distinct plus that Valanour's dam, the Mill Reef mare Vearia, is a half-sister to four group winners. Unfortunately the bad news was that three of them--Vayrann, Valiyar and Yashgan--had disappointed badly as stallions and, to cap it all, Vearia is also a half-sister to the dam of Natroun, a French Derby winner who achieved little before being despatched to Japan.

I suspect that Valanour has been found guilty by association. This could be unfair, because his record this year suggests that he offered value at his original fee. He has seven black-type performers to his credit, with Voix du Nord heading a team which also includes the Listed winners Wedding Night and Valdoura and the group-placed colts Valentino and Vasywait.

Voix du Nord's trainer David Smaga said that he "had known for a long time that the further he goes the better he will get." As the colt's big win was gained over a mile and a quarter, Voix du Nord should certainly be suited by the distance of the French Derby, especially as his broodmare sire is the French Derby winner Top Ville and Valanour's broodmare sire is the Derby-winning Mill Reef.

Voix du Nord's second dam, Girl of France, was a good-class miler in France, but was quick enough to win the Admirably H. over Santa Anita's six-and-a-half furlongs. She has two stakes-winning sons, including Varxi, an impressive winner of the G3 Prix Thomas Bryon at two in 1996.

Another good recent winner from this family is Westerner, whose dam is a half-sister to Voix du Nord's third dam, Water Girl. Westerner has established himself as France's best long-distance horse this year despite being by the sprinter Danehill.

ZAVATA TO WALMAC MGSW Zavata (Phone Trick --Pert Lady, by Cox's Ridge) will stand the 2004 breeding season at Walmac International in Lexington. The three-year-old colt captured the GII Tremont S. and the GII Saratoga Special at two and added a win in the GII Amsterdam S. this season. He was also third in the GI Hopeful S. Zavata remains in training with Patrick Biancone and is pointing towards the Dec. 26 GI Malibu. Currently, the bay has five wins, a second and a third from 12 career starts and earnings of $346,533. "Every horseman knows that American stallions need speed, speed and a dash more speed, and Zavata has that in spades," said Walmac President John T L Jones, Jr. "Zavata brings another aspect to the table: his New York graded stakes wins at three distances at two and three. This really elevates his class quotient and we are delighted to add him to our roster." Zavata will stand for a fee of $7,500 live foal.

The Judge Sez Who to Return in Carl Rose Classic:

Sez Who Thoroughbreds' four-year-old The Judge Sez Who (Judge T C), unraced since finishing fourth in the GIII Skip Away H. in April, is slated to start in Saturday's $200,000 Carl G. Rose Classic for Florida-breds at Calder. Sidelined due to a recurring knee problem, the Milt Wolfson trainee captured a pair of 2002 graded events, including the GIII Fred W Hooper H. at Calder. "I wouldn't try to bring a horse back in a spot like this if he had speed and needed to be in a race all the way," said Wolfson, "but he comes from out of it and only runs for a quarter mile anyhow. And, he gets himself ready pretty quickly and has run well in the past off a layoff. It's going to be a short field, so we thought we'd take a shot."

Guest Donations to TRF

The family of prominent New York socialite and race-horse owner C.Z. Guest, who died Saturday in her home in Old Westbury, N.Y., has requested that in lieu of flowers, donations be sent to the Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation. Guest, a syndicated gardening columnist and children's book author, was one of the early founding members of the TRF. Contributions in her honor should be sent to the TRF at 1050 Hwy 35, Suite 351, Shrewsbury, NJ 07702.

Haggin Joins Reynolds Bell, Jr. Thoroughbred Services:

Ben Haggin has joined the Lexington-based blood-stock agency Reynolds Bell, Jr. Thoroughbred Services, LLC. Haggin will head the efforts of client development and services as well as some consulting duties. Haggin leaves his post at the National Thoroughbred Racing Association, where he spent five years as a vice president of industry relations. "I feel very fortunate to have Ben working for us," said Reynolds Bell, Jr. "He brings so much knowledge and experience to our organization having worked in so many different areas of the industry."
