DEDICATION OF THE 1982-83 WOODROW WILSON PRESIDENT

You, sir, are seldom rewarded for the things you do. You are kind and patient . . . you always find the time to listen because you care about us. We are happy to have you here at Woodrow Wilson for a thousand reasons, but especially because of the genuine love you give to every one of us every day of the year.

Sometimes growing up is difficult. To thank you for all you have done to make it pleasant, we, the yearbook staff, sincerely dedicate the 1982-83 President to you, John H. Powell. We love you . . . please remember us with affection.

Students audition for many roles at school.

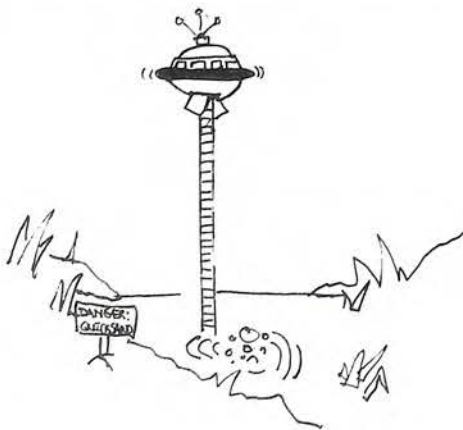

Peanut butter and jelly again?

How do I look?

This is why Woodrow won the city's neatness award.

Art teacher demonstrates one point perspective.

"Hey, babes — How 'bout comin' on over to my pad."

As you can see, these students are REALLY enthused about lunch.

"Psst! What does E Pluribus Unum mean?"
