Through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

From the Desk of Father Rene.

As the time comes closer to our merging and as well to be named officially: "Our Lady of Fatima Church" I would like to bring to your attention some of the history of the apparitions and what the Church has said about it.

The Congregation for the Doctrine of the faith has issued a document referring to the message Our Lady of Fatima; This is part of it:

"Fatima is undoubtedly the most prophetic of modern apparitions. The first and second parts of the "secret" refer especially to the frightening vision of hell, devotion to the Immaculate Heart of Mary, the Second World War, and finally the prediction of the immense damage that Russia would do to humanity by abandoning the Christian faith and embracing Communist totalitarianism.

In 1917 no one could have imagined all this: the three pastorinhos of Fatima see, listen and remember, and Lucia, the surviving witness, commits it all to paper when ordered to do so by the Bishop of Leiria and with Our Lady's permission.

The third part of the "secret" was written "by order of His Excellency the Bishop of Leiria and the Most Holy Mother ..." on 3 January 1944.

There is only one manuscript. The sealed envelope was initially in the custody of the Bishop of Leiria. To ensure better protection for the "secret" the envelope was placed in the Secret Archives of the Holy Office on 4 April 1957. The Bishop of Leiria informed Sister Lucia of this.

According to the records of the Archives, the Commissary of the Holy Office, Father Pierre Paul Philippe, OP, with the agreement of Cardinal Alfredo Ottaviani, brought the envelope containing the third part of the "secret of Fatima" to Pope John XXIII on 17 August 1959. "After some hesitation", His Holiness said: "We shall wait. I shall pray. I shall let you know what I decide".

In fact, Pope John XXIII decided to return the sealed envelope to the Holy Office and not to reveal the third part of the "secret".

Paul VI read the contents with the Substitute, Archbishop Angelo Dell'Acqua, on 27 March 1965, and returned the envelope to the Archives of the Holy Office, deciding not to publish the text.

John Paul II, for his part, asked for the envelope containing the third part of the "secret" following the assassination attempt on 13 May 1981. As is well known, Pope John Paul II immediately thought of consecrating the world to the Immaculate Heart of Mary and he himself composed a prayer for what he called an "Act of Entrustment", which was to be celebrated in the Basilica of Saint Mary Major on 7 June 1981, the Solemnity of Pentecost. The following is the part which refers specifically to the Act of Entrustment:

"Mother of all individuals and peoples, you know all their sufferings and hopes. In your motherly heart you feel all the struggles between good and evil, between light and darkness, that convulse the world: accept the plea which we make in the Holy Spirit directly to your heart and embrace with the love of the Mother and Handmaid of the Lord those who most await this embrace, and those whose act of entrustment you too await in a particular way. Take under your motherly protection the whole human family, which with affectionate love we entrust to you, O Mother. May their dawn for everyone the time of peace and freedom, the time of truth, of justice and of hope"

In the next couple of bulletins, I will finish this document. But feel free to search for it online as: CONGREGATION FOR THE DOCTRINE OF THE FAITH. THE MESSAGE OF FATIMA

For mother's Day, the intentions for all deceased mother's will be mentioned on Saturday May 12th before the 4:00pm Mass.

The intentions for all living mothers will be mentioned on Sunday May 13th before all 3 masses.

From the Desk of Father Dan.

The Feast of the Ascension of our Lord, 2nd Thursday of May (May 10):

The Feast of the Ascension is celebrated in the universal church as the time when Jesus ascended to heaven after talking with his disciples. He ascends and sits at the right hand of the Father in his glory. We speak of the Ascension every time we say the Nicene and Apostles Creeds-"He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father."

The feast has been observed since Apostolic times according to St. Augustine, and is mentioned frequently in the writings of St. John Chrysostom and St. Gregory of Nyssa. In the East (the Orthodox Churches) the feast is called Anelepsis, 'the taking up,' or the Epizomene, 'the salvation from on high.' It denotes that by his ascension into heaven, Jesus has completed the work of Redemption. Mark 16:19 says, "So then the Lord Jesus after he had spoken to them, was taken up into heaven, and sat down at the right hand of God." Luke 24:51 says, "While he blessed them [the disciples] he parted from them, and was carried up into heaven." And Acts 1:9 states, "And when he had said this, as they [disciples] were looking on, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him out of their sight."

The Catechism of the Catholic Church notes that "Christ's body was glorified at the moment of his Resurrection...Jesus' final apparition ends with the irreversible entry of his humanity into divine glory symbolized by the cloud and by heaven, where he is seated from that time forward at God's right hand" (CCC, 659). By his Ascension into glory Body and Soul, his humanity entered into the divine glory. This allows us to have a share in that glory in our own resurrection at the end of time. Also, the Catechism further notes, "This final stage stays closely linked to the first, that is, to his descent from heaven in the Incarnation. Only the one who 'came from the Father' can return to the Father: Christ Jesus" (CCC, 661). Jesus now sits at the Father's right hand where he intercedes for all eternity for us as our Eternal High Priest. From there he exercises his priesthood for all humanity.

As our Creed states, "From thence he will come to judge the living and the dead." By his ascension, he participates in God's power and authority, and as Lord, he possesses all power in heaven and on earth. The Father has given all judgment to the Son. This right is derived from the cross. Christ is the Lord of eternal life, and full right to pass definitive judgment on the works and hearts of humanity. However, as the Catechism states referencing John 3:17 and John 5:26, Jesus did not come into the world purely to judge or condemn, but to save. "When Jesus comes at the end of the age to judge the living and the dead, the glorious Christ will reveal the secret disposition of hearts and will render to each man [each one of us] according to his works and according to his acceptance or refusal of grace" (CCC, 682). So, we really judge ourselves by our refusal or acceptance of the grace offered to us by Christ.

By his Ascension, Jesus reveals his true origins, that he was sent by God the Father, and that he bears the divine name (I AM) and that his works are of God.

Also of note, by his Ascension this allows the Holy Spirit to come to us. The Holy Spirit is essential to us as a Church and as individuals. John 16:7 says, "Nevertheless I tell you the truth: it is to your advantage that I go away, for if I do not go away, the Counselor will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you." The Holy Spirit empowered the apostles and he empowers us to be witnesses for Christ.

Many dioceses through the United States transfer this feast to the following Sunday, but here in the Diocese of Trenton, and all the dioceses of New Jersey we observe it on the regularly assigned day, the second Thursday of May. And it is a Holy Day of Obligation, whereby we are obliged to attend Mass. FR. Rene and I look forward to seeing all of you on Thursday, May 10th.
