From Fr. Dan, Administrator

Dear Friends,

Fr. Adrian has been promoted by Cardinal Sean to be the Administrator of St. Jude Parish, Waltham, effective September 1, 2018. We are really going to miss him! He is a wonderful priest! Our loss is St. Jude's gain. We are very grateful for the many ways we have been blessed by his ministry here in our collaborative and wish him well in his new assignment. We congratulate him on his promotion. A "Thank You & Farewell" reception is scheduled for Sunday, September 9th after the 6:00pm Mass at Our Lady's. (We will not be getting a priest to fill Fr. Adrian's slot immediately. What happens in the longer run is not known yet.)

Pope Francis: Sharing the good news: The first proclamation must ring out over and over: "Jesus Christ loves you; he gave his life to save you; and now he is living at your side every day to enlighten, strengthen and free you."

We pray for the safety of Police Officers, especially in the aftermath of recent shootings of officers in Weymouth and Falmouth.

Cardinal Sean on Bishop and Cardinal Accountability: (Excerpted) These cases and others require more than apologies. They raise up the fact that when charges are brought regarding a bishop or a cardinal, a major gap still exists in the Church's policies on sexual conduct and sexual abuse. While the Church in the United States has adopted a zero-tolerance policy regarding the sexual abuse of minors by priests we must have clearer procedures for cases involving bishops. Transparent and consistent protocols are needed to provide justice for the victims and to adequately respond to the legitimate indignation of the community. The Church needs a strong and comprehensive policy to address bishops' violations of the vows of celibacy in cases of the criminal abuse of minors and in cases involving adults. (Full text is at <http://www.bostoncatholic.org/Utility/News-And-Press/Content.aspx?id=34865>.)

Our prayers for those suffering wildfires and all extreme weather-related conditions and events.

Sports: As I write this (July 29), the Sox are up 3-0 on the Twins in the top of the 9th – love it! Our newly acquired pitcher, Eovaldi, pitched 7 shutout innings! Any more trades coming before the July 31 deadline? Will we EVER learn why Bill Belichick did not play Butler in the Super Bowl?

Love and God bless you! ~ Fr. Dan

New & Ongoing in Our Community

Congratulations to Wilfredo Dilan

Congratulations to Wilfredo Dilan on his acceptance to the Deacon class of 2019. Wilfredo, an Army veteran, has completed most of his preparation in Puerto Rico and is on target to be ordained a Deacon in 2019 for the Archdiocese of Boston. He is already doing a lot of ministry in the collaborative, principally at Sacred Heart. We are so glad for Wilfredo and very proud of him. – Fr. Dan

Refugee Ministry Update

Please join the Justice and Peace Committee and its Refugee Ministry in praying for the Komi Family as they begin their faith journey in preparation for the Christening of Ann, Nofak, and Mansy. At this time, the August 19 Baptism date is cancelled and a new date will be forthcoming once the preparation process is complete.

We are very excited to welcome the Komi Family into the Sacred Heart & Our Lady's Collaborative Community, and we thank you all for your continued prayers and support during this period.

New & Ongoing in Our Community

From Father Adrian

As we announced at last Sunday's Mass, I have been asked by Cardinal Sean to begin a new assignment on September 1 at St. Jude Parish in Waltham, where I will replace the pastor who recently retired. This means that, unfortunately, I will have to end my time in Newton earlier than I had expected. I would like to thank all of you for all of your prayers and support, as well as your example, over the last two years and several months. I have greatly enjoyed my time in Newton, and have learned a lot from all the priests, staff, volunteers, and parishioners who make Our Lady and Sacred Heart Parishes such a grace-filled place. I ask your prayers as I prepare for my new assignment over the next few weeks and take on the challenge of being the administrator of a parish for the first time in September. I know that my time here has helped me prepare for this next chapter in my journey with God, and

I am so grateful to the Cardinal for giving me my time in Newton and for having confidence in me to take on a parish by myself. I am filled with many emotions right now as I am sad to be leaving but excited by what God has in store for me, but most of all I am filled with gratitude towards all of you and towards Christ, whose love has brought us all together.

For those who can attend, there will be a farewell reception at Our Lady Parish after the 6pm Mass on Sunday, September 9. I am hoping to have an opportunity to express my gratitude to many of you there.

In Christ,
Fr. Adrian

Missionary Speaker Next Weekend

As part of the annual Missionary Co-Operative Program, Fr. William Ojulo from the Diocese of Tororo, Uganda, will speak at all Masses next week, August 11-12. Fr. Ojulo will share about The Society of St. Peter Apostle, one of the four Pontifical Mission Societies represented here in the Archdiocese of Boston. Fr. Ojulo will share stories of his experiences in the missions and help build a spiritual connection to others whose daily lives may be very different from ours. The Society of St. Peter Apostle is the official mission agency of the Catholic Church dedicated to the education of seminarians and religious men and women in the missions. Each year, the Society of St. Peter Apostle funds up to half the tuition of each seminarian and novice in the missions because their diocese and families are too poor to afford tuition, room and board, and the cost of textbooks. Please pray for Missionaries.

A Summer Gift for You—Part 2

In this week's Gospel, Jesus continues his ministry of nourishment – this time a spiritual nourishment. As we explore the five weeks of the Bread of Life gospel readings, Jesus asks us to think beyond our earthly needs and to consider how to feed our souls. Consider the following questions as you reflect on your own spiritual nourishment and may it carry you through your week:

— Jesus says, “Whoever comes to me... whoever believes in me...” How do you come to Jesus? Faith is a gift that needs nurturing. How do you nurture your faith?

—Doing the “work of God” is to believe in Jesus. If we consider all of our work at home and in the professional world to be the work of God, how might it change our approach?

The Mass for Millennials: The Roman Canon

During my first year in college, I heard Eucharistic Prayer I (the Roman Canon, as I would later learn) for the first time. Upon first praying the text, I thought to myself, there are SO many random saints who are named. Who are they? Why no St. Patrick or Francis or Clare or Ignatius of Loyola? I also thought to myself, as it was prayed throughout the Easter season, "Hmm, this is long. I wish it was shorter. A lot shorter."

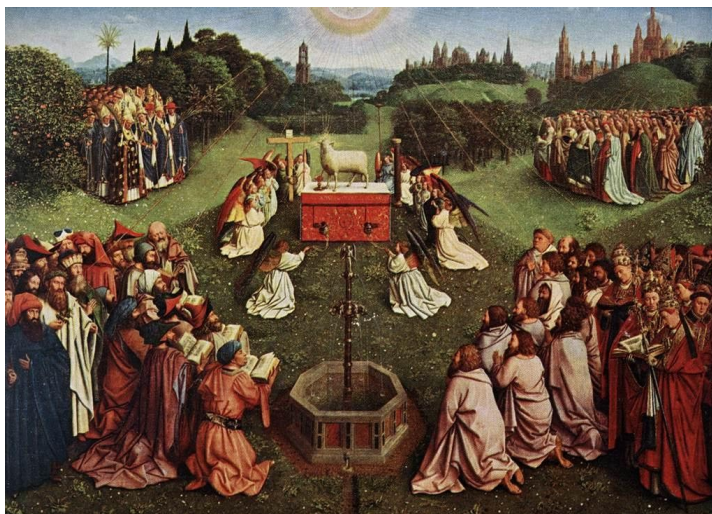

Yet, after years of studying Eucharistic Prayer texts, the Roman Canon has come to occupy a place in my heart as that text that I love the most and yet hear the least. For many, the present translation seems too formal. We bless "these gifts, these offerings, these holy and unblemished sacrifices." We offer the oblation for the Church, for all those gathered together, for the apostles. We ask that the offering will be "spiritual and acceptable," two words that don't seem to go together in contemporary English (yeah, I'm spiritual and acceptable but not religious). We hear during the Institution Narrative about Christ's "holy and venerable hands." Christ offers not a cup but a chalice, a sacral term. And then in the second part of the prayer, after we sing together the Mystery of Faith, we make the offering again. We ask an angel to take the offering to heaven, we pray for the dead, and we name a series of additional saints. Why?

The Roman Canon makes clear an aspect of the Eucharist that is often forgotten: the Mass as a sacrifice of love that is not simply performed by or for those gathered in our local parish church. Pope Benedict XVI (writing as Cardinal Ratzinger) speaks about this sacrifice most clearly:

If 'sacrifice' in its essence is simply returning to love and therefore divinization, worship now has a new aspect: the healing of wounded freedom, atonement, purification, deliverance from estrangement. The essence of worship, of sacrifice—the process of assimilation, of growth in love, and thus the way into freedom—remains unchanged. But now it assumes an aspect of healing, the loving transformation of broken freedom, of painful expiation...sacrifice takes the form of the Cross of Christ, of the love that in dying makes a gift of itself. Such sacrifice has nothing to do with destruction. It is an act of new creation, the restoration of creation to its true identity. All worship is now a participation in this 'Pasch' of Christ, in his 'passing over' from divine to human, from death to life, to the unity of God and man" (Ratzinger, The Spirit of the Liturgy, 18-19).

Christ's sacrifice made complete in the Resurrection is not merely a past event. This sacrifice unfolds even now in every Mass, where the gifts of bread and wine, become living and efficacious signs of this Passion and Resurrection.

The Eucharistic Prayer is not the magical prayer where we make Jesus present. Rather, it is that prayer in which Christ becomes present to make present once again the saving effects of his Passion and Resurrection for the life of the world.

And as the Roman Canon makes clear, through the two columns of saints flanking the Canon, this sacrifice is not simply about the transformation of the individual. The ultimate end of the Mass is not our private encounter with love become flesh. Rather, every time the Mass is celebrated, the Church is most herself. The Eucharist is that sacrifice of love that is meant to unite together for all time the angels and the archangels, the living and the dead, the sinner and the saint alike. We give to God the matter of our lives, the matter of bread and wine, and we ask that heaven itself may transform our sins, our sorrows, our darkness into icons of Eucharistic love. Our sins, our darkneses, our sorrows are healed in the Eucharistic balm of the Church.

The Roman Canon reminds us most of all that Mass is evangelizing not simply when we want to be there. When everyone is jazzed to be present, to hear the words spoken again and again. Rather, it is that Prayer (as all Eucharistic prayers are) which makes a sacrifice of love, a sacrifice meant to unite all of humanity. We remember the dead before God. We remember those who have sinned, who have rejected the gift of love. And the saints remember us before the Father, rooting for us with hearts of love. Most of all, God keeps us in his memory, renewing us in the offering of self-giving love at the heart of every Mass.

In other words, maybe we should pray this Prayer more often.

The above reflection first appeared online through the Center for Liturgy at the University of Notre Dame and can be read in its entirety at <http://churchlife.nd.edu/?s=the+mass+for+millennials&submit=Search>. While it was originally written for an audience of college and graduate students, the beauty of the Mass is something that we can all consider and savor. We hope that you enjoy these reflections, consider prayerfully how you are called to engage or reengage in the Mass, and share these words with your loved ones. Timothy P. Ministry Fair—Save the Date

Interested in getting more involved in the parish, but not sure where to start? On Sunday, September 9th, Sacred Heart will host a ministry fair to showcase the various organizations, groups, and ministries that serve the collaborative. The fair will be held during Coffee Hour after the 9am Mass in the MacKenzie Parish Center. All are welcome!

Construction at Sacred Heart

You may have noticed a number of construction projects on the Sacred Heart Campus this summer. Here are a few highlights:

- The Montessori School is investing resources into the school building to help realize more teaching space for their growing needs. We are doing our part as good landlords to make sure the building is up to code and safe for all those who use the facility. This summer that means a sprinkler system for fire safety.
- The windows of the church are getting exterior covers. This will protect them from damage, and keep the church warmer in the winter and cooler in the summer. You will also be seeing some new signage around the church in the next month or two as we continue our efforts to make Sacred Heart an accessible and welcoming community.

There will be a longer update on space and projects as we head into the fall. Until then, if you have any questions, please contact Brian Romer Niemiec at bniemiec@sholnewton.org, 617-969-2248, ext. 111.

Fruit Juice Needed!

In August, we are collecting fruit juice. Donations can be dropped off during the week in the lower elevator lobby OR at weekend Masses in either the elevator lobby or the upper church foyer at Sacred Heart Church.

Ice Cream Social, August 5th

Everyone invited to the second ice cream social of the summer. Following the 9am Mass, come over to MacKenzie for another ice cream social; There will be coffee too and a chance to catch up with friends and neighbors. Please join us!

Guild of Saint Francis News

Our Lady's News

Religious Education Registration Began July 1!

Registration for the 2018-2019 Religious Education Programs has now begun. Registration forms have been mailed home to all returning students. New students should download a blank registration form from our web-site www.sholnewton.org.

Please note for First Penance and First Holy Communion: Preparation for these Sacraments is a two-year program. Although Religious Education begins in Kindergarten, Grades 1 and 2 are required before First Communion.

Please note for Confirmation: Preparation is a two-year program! High school students who wish to celebrate Confirmation must enroll in the preparation program for two consecutive years, typically - but not always - Grades 9 and 10. In addition, all rising 9th graders and any new 10th graders (typically Catholic school students) must contact Kristina over the summer to schedule a one-on-one introductory meeting that includes at least one parent.

Please spread the word about our programs to family, friends, and neighbors. Thank you!

Religious Education Catechists Needed!

Every Christian shares the responsibility of sharing the Good News of Jesus Christ with others. In Luke's Gospel, chapter 12, Jesus tells us, "Much will be required of the person entrusted with much." Is this one way you can give back to the Lord?

Here at Our Lady's, we need approximately 100 catechists (teachers) and assistant catechists for 21-23 classes a year (9 classes for Confirmation). We especially ask adults whose children are grown to consider this ministry, since many of our parents have younger children at home or work on the week-ends and are unable to teach.

Talking about possibilities in the summer allows you ample time to plan before we begin on September 23. Perhaps you have a friend who would share the teaching with you or serve as your assistant.

Please contact Rosemary (ext. 213) or Kristina (ext. 216) if you would like to talk about volunteer possibilities. Thank you!

An Open Invitation!

Did you know that Our Lady's has a Welcoming Ministry? We do! Our mission in part is to reach out to new parishioners with a phone call, an email or in person at our welcome table after Mass. We enjoy fielding questions, lending an ear to concerns and directing people to appropriate contacts within our parish. Are you already a parishioner enthusiastic about our parish, or perhaps you are new to Our Lady's and interested in meeting other members? Why not join our Ministry? It is easy and happy work with training provided and a minimal time commitment. Please contact us at allarewelcome@sholnewton.org or call Paula at 617-694-1973.

Girls & Scouting at Our Lady's

Our Lady's is exploring whether to expand our Cub Scout program to include girls this fall. If you and your daughter (Grades 1-4) are interested in becoming part of a program that uses adventure to build character and teach important life skills, please be in touch!

Meetings are twice a month on Tuesdays at 6:30pm at Our Lady's, with optional weekend activities throughout the year: hiking; campouts; Pinewood Derby; nights at the museum, zoo, and aquarium; food drives and other service projects.
