Saint Frances Cabrini Religious Education 9th Annual Sock Raising Service Project

St. Christopher's Inn, is a residential shelter and substance abuse treatment center located in Garrison New York.

Fr. Dennis Polanco, S.A. is the President and Spiritual Director of the Inn and has asked us to donate a pair of new socks to the men who are homeless and have addictions for Christmas 2020

Last year we donated over 986 pairs of new socks!

Our goal this year is to donate 800 pairs of new socks to the Inn by December 5th, 2020. These new socks will be given to the men at their Christmas party. Our Religious Education children and families are being prayed for by the Friars and residents of the Inn during each morning Mass and Evening Prayer for this project. Please help by donating one pair of new men's socks by December 1st to the Religious Education office.

If you have any question about this effort please stop and talk with me or call me at 631-698-3149.

Please take time to let you children understand that there are many people in the United States who are homeless and have substance abuse problems. Jesus calls on every one of His followers to assist those less fortunate than ourselves. Thanks for your assistance in this effort!

“Where are the Others?”

Bishop John Barres’ Statement on the 20th Anniversary of the Proclamation of St. Thomas More as the Patron of Statesmen and Politicians

In 1929, G.K. Chesterton wrote the following words about the impact of Thomas More (1478-1535) on history: “Blessed Thomas More is more important at this moment than at any moment since his death, even perhaps the great moment of his dying but he is not quite so important as he will be in about a hundred years’ time.”¹

On October 31, 2020, nine years in advance of the 100 years that Chesterton prophetically spoke about, we celebrate the 20th Anniversary of Pope St. John Paul II’s Apostolic Letter (Motu Proprio) proclaiming St. Thomas More to be the patron of statesmen and politicians.² In his courageous witness to truth and his martyrdom, St. Thomas More is “a Man for all Seasons” and a Man for all Centuries.

In that October 31, 2000 Apostolic Letter, Pope St. John Paul II wrote: “There are many reasons for proclaiming Thomas More Patron of statesmen and people in public life. Among these is the need felt by the world of politics and public administration for credible role models able to indicate the path of truth at a time in history when difficult challenges and crucial responsibilities are increasing. Today in fact strongly innovative economic forces are reshaping social structures; on the other hand, scientific achievements in the area of biotechnology underline the need to defend human life at all its different stages, while the promises of a new society – successfully presented to a bewildered public opinion – urgently demand clear political decisions in favor of the family, young people, the elderly and the marginalized. In this context, it is helpful to turn to the example of St. Thomas More, who distinguished himself by his constant fidelity to legitimate authority and institutions precisely in his intention to serve not power but the supreme ideal of justice. His life teaches us that government is above all an exercise of virtue.”³

At this critical moment of American history for our Statesmen, Politicians, Presidential Candidates, Supreme Court Justices (and potential Supreme Court Justices), Judges and Lawyers, we turn to St. Thomas More to intercede so that they may be courageous and effective in their defense and promotion of the sanctity of human life – the foundation of all other human rights.

On September 8, 2020, the Feast of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, I issued a Pastoral Letter Evangelium Vitae: The Gospel of Life for Today which celebrated the 25th Anniversary of Pope St. John Paul II’s great encyclical and reflected on his Gospel of Life teaching in these Covid-19 crisis times. I encourage you all to read, pray and study it (see www.drvc.org).

There is a powerful relationship between our witness to the Gospel of Human Life and our belief in Eternal Life.

The French writer Charles Peguy (1873-1914) was once asked what the Lord Jesus would ask each one of us at the moment of our death and individual judgment.

Peguy, echoing our Lord’s parable of Lazarus and the rich man in the Gospel of St. Luke, responded that Our Lord’s merciful and compassionate eyes would gaze into ours and He would ask: “Where are the others? Where are the others?” In other words, Our Lord will ask us what have we done for our brothers and sisters, and in particular what have we done for the poorest and least of them? Did we aid them in their suffering and hunger or did we ignore them as we dressed in fine clothes and lived in luxury? (See Luke 16:19-31)

And the question goes further than that. Within the question – Where are the others? – are the questions: Where are the unborn? Where are the elderly?

³ See also Address of His Holiness Pope Benedict XVI, Apostolic Journey to the United Kingdom (September 16-19, 2020, Meeting with the Representatives of British Society, including the Diplomatic Corps, Politicians, Academics and Business Leaders), Westminster Hall – City of Westminster, September 17, 2010.

Where are those that our society increasingly looks upon as disposable with no rights and no recognition of their humanity?

In his encyclical Fratelli Tutti, Pope Francis writes: “Some parts of our human family, it appears, can be readily sacrificed for the sake of others considered worthy of a carefree existence. Ultimately, ‘persons are no longer seen as a paramount value to be cared for and respected, especially when they are poor and disabled, ‘not yet useful’ – like the unborn, or ‘no longer needed’ – like the elderly.” (18)

Part of our response to the Lord will be an account of what we did in the course of our lives to defend and promote the life of the unborn and the elderly in the public square⁴ – especially in New York State where the so-called “Reproductive Health Act” not only permits abortion till the moment of birth but goes beyond that to permit forms of infanticide. How is that possibly the law in the richest society in the history of the world, a society that claims to care about the most powerless and marginalized people yet routinely pretends that the most powerless of all do not even exist?

Every Public Servant, Statesman, Politician, Legislator, Judge and Lawyer, and every single one of us will be asked the same question: Where are the others? And our responsibility will be truly great.

Please join me, on this the 20th Anniversary of Pope St. John Paul II’s Apostolic Letter (Motu Proprio) proclaiming St. Thomas More the Patron of Statesmen and Politicians, to pray for our Statesmen, Politicians, Presidential Candidates, Supreme Court Judges, Judges and Lawyers that they – and all of us through our solemn responsibility of active and faithful citizenship in the public square -- may be courageous for the common good and defend and promote the sanctity of human life, the foundation of all human rights, from conception until natural death.

In a special way, we also ask St. Thomas More’s intercession for the conversion of Catholic public servants who publicly take anti-life positions -- that they may see the full horizon of their lives and anticipate in prayer Our Lord’s compassionate question that blazes with His Divine Mercy: Where are the others?

All Souls' Day Mass of Remembrance

We will celebrate our special All Souls' Day Mass of Remembrance on Monday, November 2 at 7:00 pm in the church, as we pray for and honor our loved ones who have died. The names of those who had their funeral through St. Frances Cabrini during this past year will be read. During the reading of the names, votive candles will be lit by the Ministers of Consolation in loving memory of them.

Monthly Intentions and Development for Spiritual Adoption

November

In the 9th month of spiritual adoption we pray for this child's upbringing. We ask that he or she be kept safe from harm and provided for spiritually and materially, to be born and raised in a moral faith-filled environment and guided to become everything he or she was intended to be from the very beginning.

I am eight months old now. I have long fingernails. I am getting taller. I am gaining weight - that layer of fat will help keep me warm after I am born. I am looking forward to my birthday and can't wait to see my mom and dad. Thank you for your prayers for my parents and for me.

The Feast of All Saints

November 1st

The Christian festival of All Saints Day comes from a conviction that there is a spiritual connection between those in Heaven and on Earth. In Catholic tradition, the holiday honors all those who have passed on to the Kingdom of Heaven. We pray to the saints, asking them to pray for us.
