Fr. Bryan's 25th Anniversary of Ordination

To mark Fr. Bryan's Anniversary, the Knights of Columbus are hosting a night of Karaoke in the parking lot Saturday, May 22 following 5:00 p.m. Mass. On Sunday, May 23, in honor of his 25th Anniversary of Ordination, Fr. Bryan will celebrate the 11:30 a.m. Mass. Following the Mass, there will be a chance to congratulate Fr. Bryan in Peter Kramer Hall on his milestone. Sadly because of Covid-19 restrictions we are unable to provide refreshments. While attending Mass or Services at St. John's, face masks are required and social distancing (6 feet from the next person) is to be maintained.

Laugh for the Health of It

The many health benefits of laughter are well documented, but often taking the time to have fun gets labeled as a luxury or a waste of valuable time. But according to more and more research, laughter can be just what the doctor ordered.

Research has shown that laughter strengthens our immune system, reduces stress, and even gives us a workout by exercising the heart, lungs, and diaphragm. Socially, laughter can break down barriers and make it easier to meet and communicate with people.

Throughout the world, organizations such as The Association for Applied and Therapeutic Humor are working to promote the need for research and application of the benefits of humor and laughter in our lives.

Hopefully, you're already convinced of the need for joy in your life.

Here are some ideas to help prompt you on your way to a more joyful and laughter-filled life:

- Make being joyful and having fun priorities in life. Read the comics, share a joke, watch your favorite funny movie, smile at someone, laugh at something silly your kids did, or do something silly yourself.
- Have a family laugh night. Stream funny movies to watch together—one the whole family can enjoy and then, after the kids have gone to bed, a comedy geared more toward adults.
- Give yourself a daily reminder to laugh and have fun. Post cartoons or funny quotes around your home and office.
- Keep a "Things That Make Me Laugh" file. Collect cartoons, articles, jokes—anything that makes you laugh. When you need a quick burst of joy, grab the file and read through a couple of the items.
- Surround yourself with things that make you happy or laugh, such as toys, stuffed animals, or pictures. My home and office are filled with toys, photos of my husband and kids being silly, and other gadgets that help to remind me at a glance not to take things so seriously and to always make time for fun.

Psalm 16:11 says, "You will show me the path to life, abounding joy in your presence, the delights at your right hand forever." Let us all take that to heart. Susan Hines-Brigger, The Importance of Being Happy | Franciscan Media

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Just as the origins of Lent have to do with accompanying people in the final stages of preparation for baptism at Eastertime, so does the structure of the Easter season help the newly received Catholics take root in the community. This is the season of “mystagogy,” which means “reflection on the mysteries.” This means that new Catholics are remembering the sacraments by which they become one with us, and are sorting out the implications for their everyday life. They can understand the excitement of Cornelius and his family in the first reading, filled with the Holy Spirit, and so eager to begin their new life that they overwhelm St. Peter. The second reading and the Gospel today likewise help our new brothers and sisters explore their new life as an experience of God’s tender love.

Long ago, our tradition named these newly baptized adults and children the “neophytes,” from Greek words meaning “newly planted.” Newly planted in the garden of faith, they look to us to provide the fertile soil in which their new life can take root and grow. You can help. If you have “neophytes” in your parish, a card or note of welcome, or warm words of congratulation, are still timely. It’s Easter! —James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

How strong is your faith? When you have an opportunity to either defend or clarify a question about our Catholic faith, do you do it? Or, do you remain silent so that others don’t think you are weird? Pray for the courage to be strong in all circumstances and to joyfully share your witness with others.

Thank you for your generosity, prayers and support.

FEAST OF FAITH

The General Intercessions

The general intercessions were restored to the liturgy in the reforms that followed the Second Vatican Council. In these prayers—also known as the “universal prayer” or “prayer of the faithful”—the assembly prays for the Church, the world, and the local community. As the name “prayer of the faithful” reminds us, these intercessions are a privilege of the baptized, which is why any catechumens are dismissed before the Creed and the intercessions. In baptism, we become members of a royal priesthood, and what do priests do? They intercede; they pray. In standing to pray to God as a community, we are living out our royal priesthood.

The intercessions at Mass usually follow a clear pattern, moving from general to specific needs. We pray for the whole Church. We pray for the world and for our nation. We pray for our local community, for those who have died and for all the sick and afflicted. In our united prayer, we reach beyond ourselves and our own needs and grow in awareness of and compassion for the needs of others.

ACTS 1:11

THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

MAY 16, 2021

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc. · Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass © 2008, 1998, 1997, 1986, 1970, CCD. All rights reserved. Photo: jorisvo/Adobe Stock.

“Why are you standing there looking at the sky?” We can only imagine the apostles’ astonishment, not only at Jesus’ ascension, but at the message from the men in white garments who appeared at that very moment. Jesus had been crucified and died, rose from the dead and spent time with them, teaching them to understand how he had fulfilled all that had been written about the Messiah, and suddenly, he was taken up to heaven. Surely they would have wondered what was happening and what the meaning of Jesus’ ascension was. We wonder with them. What does Jesus’ ascension call us to be or do? We rely on the testimony of those who were with Jesus to grasp the mystery of his life, death, resurrection, and ascension. Their witness calls us to believe in Jesus, grow in relationship with him, and live as his disciples in the world.

YOU HAVE SEEN AND HEARD, NOW GO DO

It isn’t enough to say we believe in Jesus. We are called to live as members of Christ’s body and share the joy of faith with others. We do this by discerning and fulfilling our vocation, the ways in which God calls each of us to live. Often when we think of vocation, the first thing that comes to mind is the priesthood. But each of us experience vocational calls, to our state in life and to the ways in which we live, work, and serve. Each of us has been given different gifts and are called according to our gifts. We are equipped with talents and skills through which we may contribute to bringing the mercy, compassion, truth, goodness, and beauty of God’s love to the world. What are your particular gifts and talents? How may you be called to use them to bring Christ’s love to others, leading them to see and hear the Good News of Jesus Christ?
