FOLLOWING THE NOON MASS TODAY

As many of you know, at the end of August, Sister Mary Lou, Sister Ann and Sister Lea will be moving back to their provincial house in Cincinnati.

After the Noon mass today a reception will be held that will allow us to bid them farewell and extend our thanks for all they have meant to Saint Robert Bellarmine Parish. Their presence here will be greatly missed.

Following the reception, in recognition of the years of faithful and dedicated service that the community of the Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur have given to our parish, a Learning Garden will be dedicated in their honor (off the back parking lot, next to the convent).

Reflections on the Sisters

I first met Sr. Mary Lou in March of 2006, shortly after I had been named the new pastor. I was deeply impressed by this white-haired, energetic woman whose devotion to the students and families of our school was obvious from the moment I met her. It soon became apparent that this love and devotion extended to the parish as well. When I came to the parish that July, I got to know Sisters Ann and Lea, who were teaching in the school at that time. The sisters' love for the parish and their joy in our people is palpable. Far beyond their roles in the school is their spiritual presence that envelops our parish. Sister Mary Lou taught me a lot about how to be a pastor of a parish with a school. She retired two years later but continued to be a faithful presence and a strong support in our community. Meanwhile, Sisters Ann and Lea continued to teach. Though now long retired from the school, they continued to be a welcoming presence, volunteered in the school, served as Eucharistic Ministers, visited the homebound, and continued to provide friendship and spiritual guidance to former students and their families.

Though they will be back to visit, it won't be the same here without them. I will miss their friendship and presence. They have truly been a gift to us. I will never forget them. Please keep them in your prayers.

God's Blessings Always,
Fr. Neil

Dear Members of the St. Robert Bellarmine Community,

I write to you on behalf of all the Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur of the Ohio Province and especially on behalf of the approximately 100 Sisters who have served in this school. We have loved our 87-year relationship with this wonderful parish. We have educated your children and worshipped with you. We have cared about your families and helped the parish flourish in myriad other ways. It has been our privilege to teach and serve here.

This departure is especially hard for these last three, Sisters Mary Lou, Ann and Lea. We all share with them a heavy heart for the conclusion of our active mission here.

Thank you for your support and partnership in our educational mission here. Thank you for sharing parish facilities for special occasions in our lives. Thank you for welcoming Sisters of Notre Dame into your lives, especially the lives of your children.

Be assured of our prayers for the ongoing success of the school and the parish. Cincinnati is not that far away. Please come and visit.

With a shared faith in our good God,

Sister Carol Lichtenberg, SNDdeN

Saintly Habit- Celebrate the Eucharist

Our faith teaches us that when we gather to celebrate the Eucharist, Jesus himself is present to us. Through the actions of the Mass, the bread and wine truly become the Body and Blood of Christ. This is what we mean by the word transubstantiation. Jesus makes himself present to all who receive the Body and Blood of Christ.

If there are children in your family who have already celebrated their First Communion, invite them to share their memories of this special day. If you have family photos from this occasion, bring them out and share them. Adults in the family may also share memories or photos of their First Communion.

Recall that every time we receive the Eucharist, Jesus keeps the promise he made in today's Gospel. Perhaps family members can share what it means for them to receive Jesus in the Eucharist. Together, thank God for this gift of Holy Communion. Pray together the Lord's Prayer.

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The first reading from the Book of Proverbs is part of a longer poem about Wisdom. In the Old Testament, Wisdom is personified as a woman who comes from God and brings God's word (wisdom) to his people. Wisdom invites us to her table to eat her food and drink her wine, and so receive understanding. Those who learn from her will live; while the foolish will die. The second reading continues St. Paul's instructions to the Ephesians, exhorting them to live as those who are wise. He tells them not to live in ignorance but to seek the will of the Lord. In the reading from John's gospel, Jesus repeats that he is the living bread come down from heaven and that those who eat his bread will live forever. "Unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you." He promises that whoever eat his flesh and drinks his blood will remain in him and have eternal life because of him.

Proverbs 9: 1-6

Ephesians 5: 15-20

John 6: 51-58

Our parish school begins classes tomorrow morning. I'm looking forward to a new year with a new principal and many new teachers and students. Please welcome them into our community of faith. Also, a warm welcome back to all our returning faculty and students.

The Parish Picnic will be held in Dunham Park next Sunday, beginning at 11:30 a.m. with a parish mass at noon. There will not be a noon mass in the church next Sunday. Details are on page nine. All are welcome. Hope to see you there.

Have a great week.

Sincerely,
Fr. Neil

From the Pastor's Desk

Today's readings continue the theme of being nourished by the Lord. However, today's readings go deeper into the spiritual reality of the heavenly banquet, equating nourishment with God's Wisdom (in the Old Testament) and Jesus giving his body and blood as true food and true drink for eternal life (in the Gospel). The importance of this truth cannot be overstated. The Body and Blood of Christ is our spiritual nourishment that gives eternal life.

Jesus tells us very clearly, "Amen, Amen, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you". Jesus says that this is a real relationship that gives us eternal life. Many of you know that I am a convert to Catholicism. This passage from the scriptures is the reason why I am a Catholic. "For my flesh is true food and my blood is true drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him." This passage is John's version of Jesus' Institution of the Eucharist. Unlike the synoptic gospels, this occurs very early in his public ministry. For Matthew, Mark and Luke, Jesus institutes the Eucharist at the Last Supper on the night before he dies. In John's gospel the celebration of the Passover makes no mention of the Eucharist; rather Jesus washes the disciples' feet. John places this Bread of Life discourse in the context of the feeding of the five thousand precisely because he wants his listeners to understand that Jesus means exactly what he says, that we are to take this teaching literally. My flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. Otherwise, people will drift off to a merely symbolic understanding of the Eucharist as simply a memory of Jesus' death as our deliverance from sin. Even for the Jewish people today, the Passover celebration is not merely a remembrance of the historic event, but their own participation in God's Covenant relationship with them.

As Catholics we participate in the sacrifice of the cross, we are joined to Christ in the Eucharist. Jesus says we remain in him and he in us. The Eucharist is a living relationship. The Second Vatican Council tells us that the Eucharist is the source and summit of our life. The Eucharist is the source of our life because it is Christ himself who gives us life, first in creation and secondly in baptism. The summit because participation in the Eucharist gives eternal life, renewing in us the baptismal grace lost through sin. That is why the early Roman martyrs sacrificed their lives for the Eucharist, saying that without the Eucharist we cannot live.

Merely coming to mass and receiving communion does not give eternal life. Only in actively seeking the life of God can the grace of the Eucharist take root in our lives. This is no passive reception nor the fulfilling of an obligation. Truly seeking the life of God is to desire to unite our will with his. The Catholic tradition has always equated Jesus, the Word of God made flesh, with the Wisdom figure of the Old Testament. Wisdom is the Spirit that is the creative force in the universe that we first see in the very beginning of Genesis. In the reading from Proverbs for today we hear that Wisdom has prepared her table with meat and drink. Wisdom's table prefigures both the Eucharist and the eternal banquet in heaven. We are told that those who seek her table will live and have understanding. Wisdom in the scriptures is knowledge of God's will. St. Paul tells us the same thing in the Letter to the Ephesians. Live as those who are wise, do not continue in ignorance, seek to understand the will of the Lord. St. Paul warns about those who continue in ignorance as being those who pursue the ways of the world instead of being imitators of Christ. To "continue in ignorance" is to be like "the foolish" in Proverbs who do not seek Wisdom. All such folk will reside in the netherworld for eternity. But to those who seek Wisdom, God will reveal himself and come to dine with them. In order to participate in the life-giving grace of the Eucharist we have to sincerely seek to be imitators of Christ. When we open ourselves to God's grace, Christ gives us his very self, re-inscribing in us his own divine image.

Today we celebrate the Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur who have served our community since 1931 and will be leaving us at the end of the month to return to their provincial house in Cincinnati. It is the end of an era and we will all be poorer for their absence. Their Provincial, Sister Carol Lichtenberg, SNDdN, has written a letter to our community, commemorating their time at St. Robert's (see page four). There will be a special blessing for them at the noon mass today, followed by a light reception in Kernaghan Hall. After the reception, we will move outside for the Dedication of the new Learning Garden in honor of the Sisters. Please see page three for the details of today's celebration and a few of my personal reflections. Our parish Asian-American Community will also be hosting a special farewell to the sisters next Saturday, August 25 in Kenaghan Hall.
