St. Rose of Lima - Desoto, MO

PSR Parents:

Please be sure to respond to the letter you received in the mail this past week concerning registration for this coming PSR school year. Remember - you're asked to notify us ONLY if your son(s)/daughter(s) is NOT returning to PSR classes. Also, if any family needs to register a child who was not in our PSR program this past year for St. Rose's PSR program this coming year, call the rectory (636-337-2212) to do so. PLEASE make sure you let us know before the end of July so we can get books ordered, rosters made, and get everything ready for the opening of PSR classes on Sunday, September 13th.

Because of the low numbers involved, we are going to combine Kindergarten and 1st grade for the coming year. Also, tuition for the coming year will remain the same as last year.

Let me assure you as much as I can that St. Rose PSR will be following the COVID-19 guidelines as established by the local jurisdictions and the Archdiocese of St. Louis. That includes distancing, sanitizing, and the wearing of masks (which will be optional). We count on you keeping your child at home if he/she shows any symptoms of infection.

If you have any questions, or if I can be of assistance in some way, please do not hesitate to let me know. You can reach me by phone or on fastdirect.

As the new PSR school year looms on the horizon, we have much to look forward to. Among the most appealing is getting back to normal! And doesn't that sound sweet?!

"WELCOME!"

All of us at St. Rose extend a warm "Welcome!" to Carlie Delanie Nickless of our RCIA program, who was Baptized and received the Sacraments of Confirmation and First Holy Communion this past Sunday. In addition, Wyatt Allen, the son of Tyler and Emily (Reando) Allen was Baptized this past Sunday here at St. Rose. For both of the newly Baptized, may their newfound faith bring them and their families nothing but grace and peace their whole life long!

THIS WEEK'S QUOTE

"When we are no longer able to change a situation, we are challenged to change ourselves."
Viktor Frankl

In a troubled world, we should all pray for peace. One of our Parishioners, Ellie McCarthy, has offered to lead the Rosary for Peace each Sunday morning prior to St. Rose's 9 o'clock Mass. We will start next Sunday. Should you wish to participate, please come early and join your prayers, asking the Blessed Mother - the Queen of Peace - to assist our troubled world. The Rosary will begin at 8:40 each Sunday morning.

This Week's Altar Flowers

Are In Memory of Yvonne Vilmer.

ST. ROSE OF LIMA

From Jessica Milton . . . I want to thank all those who helped make our brand new St. Rose Summer Program the wonderful success it was! "Thank You!" to the moms and dads who sent their kids to us! "Thanks!" to Kim Merseal and Pat Milton for taking care of cooking and lunch duty each day! "Thanks!" to Danielle McKee of Salon Renew for donating the bounce house for the last day's carnival and to the Knights of Columbus for delivery our St. Rose Train for rides on carnival day. "Thanks!" to our mom helpers: Abby Huck, Danielle McKee, and Meghan Randolph. "Thanks!", too, to our junior helpers: Andrew Blair, Keegan Huskey, Austin Milton, Tyler Milton, Alexis Milton, Brady Turner, and Kaly Zoph. . . . and let me add another, heartfelt "Thank You!" to Jessica Milton who did an outstanding job of organizing the Summer Program! It would not have been such a great success had it not been for her! See you next year!

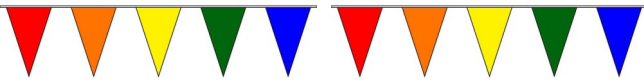

Wedding Anniversary

The Archdiocese of St. Louis' Annual Silver and Gold Wedding Jubilee Mass for those celebrating 25, 50, or over 50 years of marriage in 2020 will be held on Sunday, October 11, 2020 at the Cathedral Basilica of Saint Louis at 2:30 p.m., celebrated by Archbishop Mitchell T. Rozanski. To have your name printed in the program and to obtain a certificate of the occasion, please register by September 11, 2020. For more details and registration, please visit archstl.org/jubilee or call 314-792-7598.

SUNDAY STREAMING MASS

Just to be safe from infection, some of our Parishioners may still not feel comfortable in getting out into crowds, even for Mass on Sunday. The dispensation from obligatory Sunday Mass attendance will continue as long as people are not able to get to Mass - even if Mass is made available, but they're not able to attend - so, thanks to the kindness of Cyle Huck, our videographer, our live-streamed Masses will continue for the time being, even though we're back to our regular Mass schedule. You can view the Mass each Sunday at 9 am on facebook at St Rose of Lima School DeSoto.

PLEASE! PLEASE! PLEASE! PLEASE!

You will soon be receiving your annual ST. ROSE PICNIC mailing. In it you'll find $25 worth of raffle tickets to buy/sell for the Picnic. Please do whatever you can to do so! If everyone who received tickets bought/sold them, our Picnic could bank $20,000 on raffle tickets alone! Remember - $25 is just a little more than dinner for 2 at McDonald's! There's only 1 prize: $5,000.00! And who couldn't use that?! At a time when the success of fund-raisers is rather "iffy", and still not knowing what virus imposed restrictions there may be on our Picnic this year, this is a sure way to build back our St. Rose Parish Maintenance Fund. A bunch of money from the Fund was spent on replacement windows for the school - which, thanks to donations and the funds raised by past Picnics, we could accomplish without having to have any sort of a special collection. Let's do our best to put it back and get that Maintenance Fund back to its confidence-inducing $100,000 mark! Thanks! Thanks! Thanks!

At any time, feel free to add to our bulletin list of those in the military. The whole Parish will keep them in our prayers.

THIS IS SORT OF LIKE MY BODY

[In our continued instruction on the topic of the Real Presence of Christ in the Holy Eucharist, please consider this:]

Unintended consequences may be unintended, but the consequences are real. For example, in the mid-'70's the insecticide DDT was banned in the United States when its unintended environmental damage became obvious. The DDT dusted corn and grain was eaten by field mice which, in turn, were eaten by various birds. Because of the DDT in their system, when the birds laid eggs, the egg shells would crumble and the baby birds would die. The American bald eagle and the peregrine falcon were both on the verge of extinction.

As I've mentioned before, the unintended (I'll give them the benefit of the doubt!) consequences of the changes that came to the Church after the II Vatican Council have been devastating. Most of these can be traced back to the changes to the Mass. As I mentioned last week, the unintended message to Catholics has been - "If Father-so-and-so can do whatever he wants at Mass, I should be able to do whatever I want too."

And if the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass is all about the priest and what he wants to do, why should I make an effort to be there? I'll go to some other church or no church or just say some prayers, or maybe not even do that.

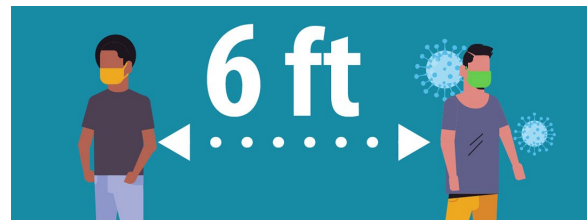

The many options available at Mass (and those imposed upon the Mass) have pretty much given the message that Mass itself is pretty much optional. That's why I think the belief in or lack of belief in the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist has become pretty much optional, too. And if Holy Communion is not really the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ, I don't have to be in the state of grace to receive Holy Communion. So even though I'm living in sin, and/or even though I only attend Mass on Christmas and Easter (which is living in sin), and/or even though I'm not Catholic or a Catholic who doesn't believe - I can receive Holy Communion, too, since it's not really Holy Communion.

See what we've done to ourselves? If it was a matter of spraying a deadly insecticide on plants we would stop doing that. But what do we do if it's a matter of faith and morals? What do we do when (supposedly) 70% of Catholics don't believe in the Real Presence of Christ in the Holy Eucharist? What do we do when Mass attendance plummets - and not just because of the coronavirus? What do we do when there seems to be no difference anymore between what Catholics believe and what Protestants believe?

As we enter Phase 2 of resuming "public" Masses, please keep the following in mind:

- 1) Archbishop Robert Carlson has extended the dispensation from the obligation to attend Sunday Mass indefinitely. Those who are sick should remain at home.
- 2) Mass attendance is limited to 50% of our regular capacity - for us that's about 175 people.
- 3) Ushers will open the outside doors for you when you arrive and the inside church doors will be left standing open.
- 4) You are asked to keep a 'social distance' from each other, except those of the same household.
- 5) Except for little children, a mask is recommended except when sitting down or receiving Holy Communion.
- 6) There will be no holy water in the fonts.
- 7) We will not be using the missalettes.
- 8) The ushers will resume taking up the collection and they will bring up the bread and wine for Mass.
- 9) There will be no sign of peace.
- 10) There will be no Holy Communion distributed from the cup.
- 11) There will be no Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion.
- 12) People should line up for Holy Communion single file, maintaining your social distance (except those in the same household) one side of the church at a time.
- 13) In an abundance of caution, we will continue to sanitize the church after each Mass even though Phase 2 allows of the church being sanitized just once a day.

So that everyone can feel safe, please remember to social distance yourself from others at Mass.

THIS WEEK'S Pro Life POINT Planned Parenthood exposed for selling aborted baby body parts: 5 years later

More than five years ago - on July 14, 2015 - David Daleiden released the first of many incriminating videos that showed the world the gruesome underbelly of illegal practices by the abortion industry. As researchers and reporters, Daleiden and his investigative partner, Sandra Merritt, posed as human tissue buyers. What they uncovered shocked the country as the videos they recorded revealed Planned Parenthood's involvement in aborted baby body parts trafficking. The videos, 13 in all, caused a national outcry to defund Planned Parenthood and triggered a congressional investigation of the abortion industry. Within days of the first video release, David and Sandra were hauled into court by the National Abortion Federation. The battle of David versus the "Goliath" abortion industry eventually evolved into seven separate court cases both criminal and civil in four different states.

The Thomas More Society's Tom Brejcha, President and Chief Counsel, and Peter Breen, Vice President and Senior Counsel, shared their perspectives on the challenges and victories of the last five years.

"There are many disturbing revelations that have occurred during the abortion industry's aggressive pursuit of David Daleiden," stated Brejcha. "Even if you take the heinous butchering of born-alive babies out of the equation, you still have broader implications for a free society."

Peter Breen noted that many abortion proponents claim to be "pro-woman." "Yet," Breen observed, "David Daleiden is being attacked by the abortion industry for exposing their disregard for human life, the disrespect they have demonstrated for women, and the deliberate risk to women's health they incur in order to reap huge profits. Not only is that a betrayal of women's rights, but the legal actions against David Daleiden pose an even deeper threat to the freedoms of every American."

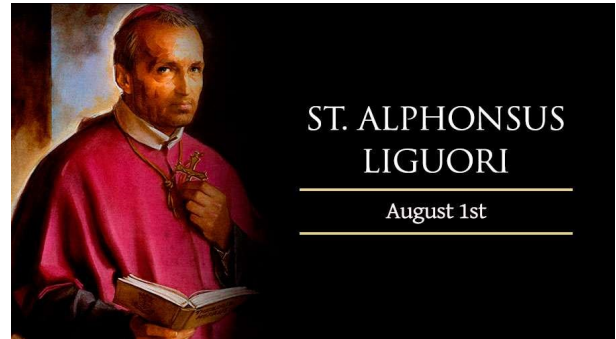

Some of the shocking revelations that came out during Planned Parenthood's pursuit of Daleiden and Merritt included:

- a retired late-term abortionist testified that she routinely killed babies in utero with digoxin to prevent what she called the "biggest disaster" - a live birth;
- a self-proclaimed "celebrity" abortionist boasted in court that born-alive babies are "one of the worst nightmares" for an abortion provider
- a former Planned Parenthood medical director was caught in blatant contradictions during her testimony
- an abortion worker confessed to knowing that her tissue procurement business partner was involved in profiting from the trade of aborted baby body parts
- an abortionist tried to deny everything she was recorded saying on undercover video
- a fetal tissue broker admitted selling baby hearts and intact baby heads and even fully intact fetuses

Stated Brejcha with confidence and resolve. "The United States Constitution, its Amendments and the Bill of Rights are precious," he remarked, "and worth much more than the millions of dollars that the abortion industry has spent over the last five years in the effort to silence truth and leave the American citizenry ignorant of these horrific crimes they want to keep hidden at all costs."

SAINT OF THE WEEK

ST. ALPHONSUS
LIGUORI

August 1st

St. Alphonsus Ligouri, whose feast day is August 1, is a Bishop, Doctor of the Church, and the founder of the Redemptorist Congregation. He was born on September 27, 1696 near Naples, Italy. Raised in a pious home, he was the oldest of seven children. He was very intelligent and received his doctorate at the age of sixteen. By age nineteen he was practicing law, but he saw the transitory nature of the secular world, and after a brief time, retreated from the law courts and his fame. Visiting the local Hospital for Incurables on August 28, 1723, he had a vision and was told to consecrate his life solely to God.

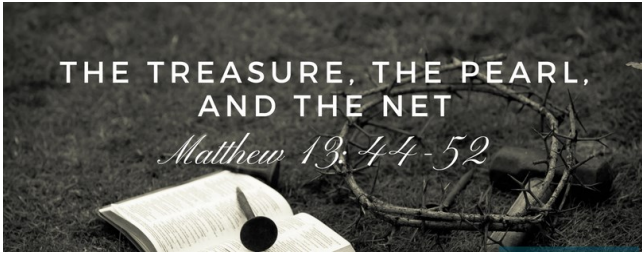

As a result, Alphonsus dedicated himself to the religious life, even while suffering persecution from his family. He finally agreed to become a priest but to live at home as a member of a group of secular missionaries. He was ordained on December 21, 1726, and he spent six years giving missions throughout Naples. In 1732 Alphonsus founded the Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer - who we refer to as the Redemptorists. The foundation faced immediate problems, and after just one year, Alphonsus found himself with only one lay brother, his other companions having left to form their own religious group. He started again, recruited new members, and in 1743 became the prior of two new congregations, one for men and one for women.

Alphonsus was preaching missions in the rural areas of Italy and writing. He refused to become the bishop of Palermo but in 1762 had to accept the papal command to accept the see of St. Agatha of the Goths near Naples. Here he discovered more than thirty thousand uneducated men and women and four hundred indifferent priests. For thirteen years Alphonsus fed the poor, instructed families, reorganized the seminary and religious houses, taught theology, and wrote.

His austerities were rigorous, and he suffered daily the pain from rheumatism that was beginning to deform his body. He spent several years having to drink from tubes because his head was so bent forward. An attack of rheumatic fever, from May 1768 to June 1769, left him paralyzed. In 1780, Alphonsus was deposed and excluded from his own congregation. Alphonsus suffered great anguish. But he overcame his depression, and he experienced visions, performed miracles, and gave prophecies.

He died peacefully on August 1, 1787 near Naples as the Angelus was ringing. His writings on moral, theological, and ascetic matters had great impact and have survived through the years. He is the patron of confessors, moral theologians, and the lay apostolate. In liturgical art he is depicted as bent over with rheumatism or as a young priest.

Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

ENTRANCE HYMN - From All that Dwells Below the Skies

- 1) From all that dwell below the skies, let the Creator's praise arise; let the Redeemer's name be sung, through every land by every tongue.
- 2) Eternal are Thy mercies, Lord; eternal truth attends Thy word; Thy praise shall sound from shore to shore, 'til suns shall rise and set no more.
- 3) Your lofty themes, ye mortals, bring; in songs of praise divinely sing; the great salvation loud proclaim; and shout for joy the Savior's name.
- 4) In every land begin the song; too every land the strains belong; in cheerful sounds all voices raise, and fill the world with loudest praise.

GLORY to GOD in the HIGHEST

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING [I Kings 3:5,7-12]

The Lord appeared to Solomon in a dream at night. God said, "Ask something of me and I will give it to you." Solomon answered: "O Lord, my God, you have made me, your servant, king to succeed my father David; but I am a mere youth, not knowing at all how to act. I serve you in the midst of the people whom you have chosen, a people so vast that it cannot be numbered or counted. Give your servant, therefore, an understanding heart to judge your people and to distinguish right from wrong. For who is able to govern this vast people of yours?"

The Lord was pleased that Solomon made this request. So God said to him: "Because you have asked for this - not for a long life for yourself, nor for riches, nor for the life of your enemies, but for understanding so that you may know what is right - I do as you requested. I give you a heart so wise and understanding that there has never been anyone like you up to now, and after you there will come no one to equal you."

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Refrain - Lord, I love your commands.

- 1) I have said, O Lord, that my part is to keep your words. The law of your mouth is to me more precious than thousands of gold and silver pieces.
- REFRAIN
- 2) Let your kindness comfort me according to your promise to your servants. Let your compassion come to me that I may live, for your law is my delight. REFRAIN
 - 3) For I love your command more than gold, however fine. For in all your precepts I go forward; every false way I hate. REFRAIN
 - 4) Wonderful are your decrees; therefore I observe them. The revelation of your words sheds light, giving understanding to the simple. REFRAIN

SECOND READING [Romans 8:28-30]

Brothers and sisters: We know that all things work for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose. For those he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, so that he might be the firstborn among many brothers and sisters. And those he predestined he also called; and those he called he also justified; and those he justified he also glorified.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL [Matthew 13:44-52]

Jesus said to his disciples: "The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure buried in a field, which a person finds and hides again, and out of joy goes and sells all that he has and buys that field.

Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant searching for fine pearls. When he finds a pearl of great price, he goes and sells all that he has and buys it.

Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net thrown into the sea, which collects fish of every kind. When it is full they haul it ashore and sit down to put what is good into buckets. What is bad they throw away. Thus it will be at the end of the age. The angels will go out and separate the wicked from the righteous and throw them into the fiery furnace, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth.

"Do you understand all these things?" They answered, "Yes." And he replied, "Then every scribe who has been instructed in the kingdom of heaven is like the head of a household who brings from his storeroom both the new and the old.”

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation He came down from heaven, (bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate, He suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and His kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

OFFERTORY HYMN - See Us, Lord, About Your Altar

- 1) See us, Lord, about your altar, tho' so many we are one; Many souls by love united in the heart of Christ, your Son.
- 2) Hear our prayers, O loving Father, hear in them your Son, our Lord; hear Him speak our love and worship as we sing with one accord.
- 3) Once were seen the blood and water; now are seen but bread and wine; once in human form He suffered, now His form is but a sign.
- 4) Wheat and grape contain the meaning, food and drink He is to all; one in Him we kneel adoring, gathered by His loving call.
- 5) Hear us yet - so much is needful, in our frail, disordered life; stay with us and tend our weakness 'til that day of no more strife.

COMMUNION HYMN - Look Beyond

REFRAIN: Look beyond the bread you eat; see your Savior and your Lord. Look beyond the cup you drink; see His love poured out as blood.

- 1) Give us a sign that we might believe in you. Moses brought us manna from the sky. REFRAIN
- 2) I am the bread which from the heavens came; those who eat this Bread will never die. REFRAIN
- 3) The bread I give you will be My very flesh; My blood will truly be your drink. REFRAIN
- 4) This man speaks harshly; who can listen to his word? We shall no longer follow Him. REFRAIN

5) You, my disciples, will you also leave? Lord, to whom can we go? REFRAIN

RECESSIONAL HYMN - Joyful, Joyful We Adore Thee

- 1) Joyful, joyful we adore Thee, God of glory, Lord of love. Hearts unfold like flowers before Thee, opening to the sun above. Melt the clouds of sin and sadness, drive the dark of doubt away; giver of immortal gladness, fill us with the light of day.
- 2) All Thy works with joy surround Thee, earth and heaven reflect Thy rays. Stars and angels sing around Thee, center of unbroken praise. Field and forest, vale and mountain, flowery meadow, flashing sea, chanting bird and flowing fountain, call us to rejoice in Thee.
- 3) Thou art giving and forgiving, ever blessing, ever blest, well-spring of the joy of living, ocean depth of happy rest! Thou our Father, Christ our brother, all who live in love are thine. Teach us how to love each other. Lift us to the joy divine.
- 4) Mortals join the mighty chorus, which the morning stars began; Love Divine is reigning o'er us, binding all within its span. Ever singing, march we onward, victors in the midst of strife. Joyful music leads us sunward, in the triumph song of life.

PRAYERS BEFORE & AFTER MASS

The Divine Praises

Blessed be God. Blessed be His Holy Name. Blessed be Jesus Christ, true God and true Man. Blessed be the Name of Jesus. Blessed be His Most Sacred Heart. Blessed be His Most Precious Blood. St. Michael Prayer

Saint Michael Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil; may God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly Host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl through the world seeking the destruction of souls. Amen.

Hail, Holy Queen

Hail, holy Queen, Mother of mercy, our life, our sweetness and our hope. To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve: to thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this valley of tears. Turn then, most gracious Advocate, thine eyes of mercy toward us, and after this our exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus. O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary! Amen.
